BLECHYNDEN (Ernest John): A true gentleman and friend. Deepest sympathy to May and family. June. Ron Shannon and family. BLECHYNDEN (Ernest John): Our deepest condolences to Mrs Blechynden and family. From Les and Val Kordys. BLECHYNDEN (E J): Fondest memories of Jack. Deepest sympathy to May and families Bill and Sheila. BLECHYNDEN (Jack): Passed away peacefully Dec 5, 1985. A loved brother and brother-in-law of Eadie and Bert. Fond uncle of Jennie and Ernie. Happy memories. BLECHYNDEN (E J): Of Trayning. Passed away Dec 6, 1985. A tribute to Jack esteemed and long time friend of the Shawyer family. Sincere sympathy to May and the girls. From Doris Remoto. BLECHYNDEN (Ernest John): Deepest sympathy to Mrs Blechynden and family. A fine gentleman at rest. Thank you for your years of support to the St Johns Ambulance Sub-Branch, Trayning. BLECHYNDEN (Ernest John): Deepest condolences to May and family in the sad loss of your loved husband and father. Resting peacefully. Anna and Pat Kyne. BLECHYNDEN (Jack): Loving memories of our dear friend for many years. Deepest sympathy to May and family. Marg, Ken Couper and family.	BERTOLINI (S): In loving memory of Settimo. Rest peacefully. Corrado and Lina Cassettai, Ivo and Elsa Pieraccini. BLECHYNDEN (Ernest John): Passed away peacefully 6.12.85 aged 78. Dearly loved and devoted husband of May for over 50 years. Father of Lyn, Iris and Valerie. Father-in-law of Peter Whittaker, Bob Lee and Peter Valentine. He was a man of integrity, steel true and blade straight. I bless the years I called him mine. Farewell my dear old Mate. Our very grateful thanks to Doctor Radunovich, Matron Mitchell and all the nursing and domestic staff at Kununoppin Hospital for their marvellous care and kindness. BLECHYNDEN (Ernest John): Slept away peacefully 6.12.85 aged 78 years. Dearly loved father and father-in-law of Lyn and Peter Whittaker. Dearest Dar of Malcolm, Trevor, Kevin and Pauline. Byng. An upright gentleman and a guiding light. BLECHYNDEN (Ernest John): Wonderful father, friend and grandpa of Iris, Bob, John, Graham, Craig and Carolyn. Rest peacefully darling Dad. Your love and humour will always be with us. So sadly missed. BLECHYNDEN (Ernest John): In loving memory of our wonderful dad. Val, Peter, Jody, Leonie and Kate Valentine. BLECHYNDEN (Jack): Deeply missed. Deepest sympathy Nanna, Bob, Jenny, Phil, Deborah, Trevor, Debbie, Ross, Nicola, Kevin, Theresa, Paul and Pauline.

4th CHILD OF ERNEST WALTER BLECHYNDEN & BEATRICE ANNIE WALKER

4. BLECHYNDEN, ALICE 'ELSIE' (1918-2014) was born 1918, Beverley, WA [Reg. 72], recorded as Alice Elsie. Alice died 2014, Albany, WA.

As detailed elsewhere in the Project, young country people in the 1930's wrote to "Aunt Mary" in the Western Mail about various topics. Here is a letter Elsie wrote when she was 12.

Western Mail (Perth, WA: 1885 - 1954), Thu 10 Apr 1930, pg 13

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article38519490.txt>

If born in 1918 she would have been 12 years of age.

LETTERS RECEIVED.

Elsie Blechynden, Hillside, Babakin.

Dear Aunt Mary, I am glad to hear you enjoyed your holiday. It must be lovely in the old gardens in Melbourne. We have found a soak not far from the house, and the water is clear and fresh. I was glad to get back to school again after the summer holidays. There are only three members of our family at home. Dad went to Perth last night by train, Jack is working at Mr. Branson's, and Carol is at Beverley. It is rather hot here today, but we have been having cool weather. Our grapes and nectarines are ripe now, but most of the figs have gone. I have got 52 Tiny Tricklees, and I am sending four puzzles in with this letter. We went to Beverley for a few days not long ago. I enjoyed myself immensely. The earthquake must have been terrible in Napier. It is awful to think of all the sick people being killed. About a fortnight ago I went to Bruce Rock and had some teeth filled. Well, Auntie, I must close now. I will write again soon. Give my love to the nurses and patients, and lots for yourself. I remain your loving niece, Elsie Blechynden.

Your house must seem quite empty with everyone away, Elsie. You will be glad when they all return, I am sure. AUNT MARY.

'ELSIE' ALICE BLECHYNDEN (1918-2014) married HERBERT SAMUEL WHEELER (1901-1991) 'Bert', 1941, Perth, WA [Reg. 1011]. Recorded as Elsie A.

Elsie and Bert Wheeler, via patpit3, shared Aug 2013, Ancestry.

HERBERT SAMUEL WHEELER (1901-1991) 'Bert'

Herbert Samuel Wheeler was born 6 Apr 1901, Southwark, London, England. Parents: JOHN WILLIAM FREDERICK WHEELER (1864-1954) and MARY ANN GREENLAND (1866-1949) who were married 1 Dec 1887, St Paul, Bermondsey, England. Herbert Samuel Wheeler died 18 Oct 1991, Ardross, WA.

The following three pages contain details of Herbert Samuel Wheeler's parents JOHN WILLIAM FREDERICK WHEELER (1864-1954) and MARY ANN GREENLAND (1866-1949) and family.

MARY was born 1866, Rotherhithe, Surrey England. Mary Ann Wheeler (nee Greenland) died 19 Nov 1949, Lewisham, London, England.

1887. Marriage solemnized at the Parish Church in the Parish of St. Paul, Bermuda in the County of Surrey.

No.	When Married.	Name and Surname.	Age.	Condition.	Rank or Profession.	Residence at the time of Marriage.	Father's Name and Surname.	Rank or Profession of Father.
48	15 th 1887	John William Frederick Wheeler	34	Bachelor	Barman	66 Malby Street, St. Paul, Bermuda	John William	Card Maker
	18 th 1887	Mary Ann Greenland	21	Spinster	—	66 Malby Street, St. Paul, Bermuda	John Greenland	Letter Carrier

Married in the Parish Church according to the Rites and Ceremonies of the Established Church, by after Banns by me, Saml W. Mayhew

This Marriage was solemnized between us, John William Frederick Wheeler of the Parish of St. Paul, Bermuda, and Mary Ann Greenland of the Parish of St. Paul, Bermuda.

Copy of Marriage Certificate of John William Frederick Chester and Mary Ann Greenland.

Census 1911 John William Wheeler and family: Herbert Samuel Wheeler aged nine.

	1.	2.	3.	4.	5.	6.	7.	8.	9.	10.	11.	12.	13.	14.
1.	John William Wheeler	Head	47		Married 24 yrs							Labourer	Electric Light	Borough Council Worker
2.	Mary Ann Wheeler	Wife	44				8	6	2
3.	Frederick William Wheeler	Son	22 yrs		Single							Builder, Labourer	House Landlord	Worker
4.	Henry Edward Wheeler	Son	19 yrs		Single							Ball Porter	Royal Society of Medicine	Worker
5.	Arthur Walter Wheeler	Son	17 yrs		Single							Theatre	Police	Police Messenger, Day Worker
6.	Ernest Greenland Wheeler	Son	13 yrs									L.C.C. School
7.	Herbert Samuel Wheeler	Son	9 yrs
8.	Sidney James Wheeler	Son	8 yrs

Emigration: Herbert Samuel Wheeler, messenger, aged 18 and his brother Sidney James, cinema operator aged 16 were recorded on the passenger list of the Orontes bound from London to Australia, departing 21 Feb 1920.

CHILDREN OF JOHN WILLIAM FREDERICK WHEELER (1864-1954) and MARY ANN GREENLAND (1866-1949):

It appears that Bessie E and Ernest Greenland Wheeler remained in England. Ernest Greenland Wheeler joined the services in England and was Killed in Action in France. Frederick William, Henry Edward, Arthur Walter, Sidney James and Herbert Samuel emigrated to WA. Tragically, Henry Edward Wheeler was also killed in action in France.

1. BESSIE E WHEELER (1882-) was born 1882, Copt Heath, Warwickshire, England. No further details about Bessie known at this stage. She most probably remained in England.

2. FREDERICK WILLIAM WHEELER (1884-) was born 14 Apr 1884, baptised 30 Jun 1884, Watlington, Oxfordshire, Eng. Parents: Arthur Frederick Wheeler and Mary Anne Wheeler.

Electoral Roll:

1914, 1915 Frederick William Wheeler, 56 Cantonment St, Fremantle, WA, motor driver.
1916, 1917 Frederick William Wheeler, Broome Hill, labourer.

WHEELER Frederick William: Service Number - 2749: Place of Birth – Lenham, England: Place of Enlistment – Perth, WA: Next of Kin - (Mother) WHEELER Mary Ann.

Frederick William Wheeler served overseas, enlisting in Perth, WA. He signed his attestation papers 26 Apr 16. Occupation chauffeur, father deceased, mother Mary Ann Wheeler, Lenham Health, Kent, England. Date of embarkation 10 Oct 16. Australian Mechanical Transport Service (AMTS), Tidworth, Chelsea, England. 16 Aug 19 special leave 20 days. Disembarked Fremantle, WA, 4 Nov 19. We are not sure of his life following this. Electoral rolls record a Frederick William Wheeler in NSW as a teacher and another as a railway employee in NSW.

3. HENRY EDWARD WHEELER (1891-1918) was born 18 Jun 1891, London, England. He was killed in action in France on 24 Apr 1918. He is buried at Villers-Bretonneux, Departement de la Somme, Picardie, France. HENRY married DAISY ELIZABETH DENNIS 14 Oct 1916, Walworth Common, Southwark, England.

Henry emigrated to WA and served in WW1 in France. He enlisted in 1914, signing his attestation papers on 7 Oct 1914, occupation, farmer, father, ~~John Frederick Wheeler~~. Wife, Mrs H. E. Wheeler, 61 Villa St, Walworth, London, England. During his time overseas he married Daisy Elizabeth Dennis in England in 1916.

WHEELER Henry Edward: Service Number - 1193: Place of Birth – London, England: Place of Enlistment - Blackboy Hill WA: Next of Kin - (Wife) WHEELER Daisy Elizabeth.

4. ARTHUR WALTER WHEELER (1893-1969) was born 6 Apr 1893, St Olave, Southwark, London, England. He died on 18 Oct 1969, Fremantle, WA [Reg. 2700265]. ARTHUR married WINNIFRED VICTORIA ANNIE BASS (1897-1977) 26 Dec 1917, Putney St John the Evangelist, England.

Emigrated to WA. He was married in England while serving in WW1 overseas. Served overseas in France. Signed his Attestation Papers 7 Oct 1914, occupation, farmer, father, ~~John Frederick Wheeler~~, Wife, Mrs. W. V. A. Wheeler, St Lawrence Garage, Gwendoline Av, Putney, London, England. WHEELER Arthur Walter: Service Number - 1195: Place of Birth – London, England: Place of Enlistment - Blackboy Hill WA: Next of Kin - (Wife) WHEELER W Y A. Wounded in Action on 23 Jun 1915. 14 Aug 1915, gunshot wound. 16 Dec 1918, returned to Australia per Leicestershire, for leave. Disembarked Australia 15 Jan 1919.

Electoral Roll:

1925, 1926, 1931 Arthur Walter Wheeler, Babakin, Bruce Rock, farmer, Winnifred Victoria Annie, home duties, Herbert Samuel, labourer.

5. ERNEST GREENLAND WHEELER (1898-1917) was born 23 Mar 1898, Southwark, London, England. He was Killed in Action 6 Jun 1917, France, Flanders. Ernest served in the Manchester Regiment. He enlisted in 1916, aged 21 years. Short Service Attestation: Regiment number 5306. Note: Birth date registered as 1895. Ernest enlisted in Bermondsey, England, residence, Walworth. Rank: private. Battalion: 22 (County of London) Battalion (The Queens). Regimental number 680778.

6. SIDNEY JAMES WHEELER (1903-1960) was born 1903, Southwark, London, England. He married FAITH MURIEL ALLEN 1940, East Coolgardie, Kalgoorlie. WA [Reg. 1800001]. Sidney died in 1960 in Perth, WA [Reg. 102203].

Electoral Roll:

1943 Sidney James Wheeler, 37 Johnson St, Kalgoorlie, Faith Muriel, home duties.

1958 Sidney James Wheeler, 87a Clancy St, Kalgoorlie, miner, Faith Muriel, home duties.

7. HERBERT SAMUEL WHEELER (1905-1991) married 'ELSIE' ALICE BLECHYNDEN (1918-2014) 1941, Perth, WA [Reg. 1011]. Herbert served in the Australian Airforce in WW2. Employment, bus driver, Education Department contract. Joined 16 May 1941. Reserve: Messman. Discharged CPL Cooks assistant, 14 Nov 1945. Service Number - 38998: Date of birth - 06 Apr 1905: Place of birth - LONDON ENGLAND: Place of enlistment – PERTH, WA: Next of Kin - WHEELER ELSIE.

CHILDREN OF 'ELSIE' ALICE BLECHYNDEN (1918-2014) and HERBERT SAMUEL WHEELER (1901-1991) - Jennifer and Ernie.

Aunt Elsie Wheeler (nee Blechynden) and Uncle Bert Wheeler (with Kate Valentine and Leonie Valentine, daughters of Valerie Blechynden). Taken about 1986. Courtesy Peter Valentine.

Via Val Valentine, daughter of Ernest John Blechynden:

"They had two children Jen and Ernie. Uncle Bert and Auntie Elsie farmed Grandad's farm at 'Babakin' - Uncle Bert received a war-service farm and they moved to Arthur River - Grandad Blechynden, sold the "Hillside" Babakin farm and went to live with Uncle Bert and Auntie Elsie.

They retired from there and lived in Applecross, quite close to Uncle Ted (Edwin Thomas) and Auntie Glad. When Uncle Bert died, Auntie Elsie went to live at the RAAF retirement home in Perth. Both Uncle Bert and Auntie Elsie had been in the Air Force during WW2. When Auntie Elsie needed more care, she went to Albany where her son Ernie and wife lived. Jenny, Auntie Elsie and Uncle Bert's daughter, married and I think she had 3 sons. It was after Uncle Bert had died that unfortunately Jenny had, think it was a blood clot to the head, and Jenny never recovered fully and lived in a Care Home - Auntie Elsie used to visit each week. We visited Auntie Elsie and Uncle Bert and Uncle Ted and Auntie Glad quite often when we lived in WA. We left WA in 1975, when Peter got a job at James Cook University. After Uncle Bert died, when I was in WA, I would visit Auntie Elsie, and Auntie Glad. Unfortunately, I never had much to do with Jenny or Ernie.

Elsie and Herbert Wheeler, 50th Wedding Anniversary of Jack and May Blechynden, Trayning, 26th May 1984, cropped photo. Courtesy Val Valentine

Electoral Roll:

1922, 1925, 1926 Herbert Samuel Wheeler, Babakin, farm labourer, Arthur Walter, Babakin, Bruce Rock, farmer, Winnifred Victoria Anne (nee Bass), Babakin, home duties.

1937 Herbert Samuel Wheeler, Babakin, farm labourer

1943, 1949 Herbert Samuel Wheeler, Babakin, farm labourer, Elsie Alice, home duties

1954, 1958, 1968 Herbert Samuel Wheeler, Arthur River, farmer, Elsie Alice, home duties.

1972, 1977, 1980 Herbert Samuel Wheeler, 19 Bombard St, Applecross, Elsie Alice, home duties.

Elsie Alice Wheeler (nee Blechynden) died 2014, Albany WA. Published in The West Australian on 13 Jan 2014.

WHEELER (Elsie Alice): 1918 - 2014, 95 years Devoted Wife of the late Bert Wheeler, loved and respected Mother of Jenny and Ernie. Much loved 2nd Mum of Moya, devoted Granny of 6, Great Granny of 13 and Great -Great Granny of 1. Your never ending, love for family and friends will live on through.

FIFTH CHILD OF CHARLES EDWIN BLECHYNDEN & CAROLINE DAVIES

5. BLECHYNDEN, SYDNEY THOMAS (1881-1959) & SIMPSON, KATHLEEN 'KATE' (1884-1961)

Sydney Thomas Blechynden He was born 2 Jan 1881, 'Seaton Ross', Beverley, WA [Reg. 21501], registered as Sidney Thomas Blechyden (sic). Spelling of his name varying: Sidney/Sydney in assorted records. Sydney died 11 Feb 1959, Swan District, WA [Reg. 20].

Sydney/Sydney (1881-1959), cropped from group photo: sons of Charles Edwin Blechynden: Frank's 80th birthday, Red Hill, 15 Jul 1953. Courtesy Lindsay Adams.

SYDNEY married KATHLEEN 'KATE' PRISCILLA SIMPSON (1884-1961) in 1906 in Beverley, WA [Reg. 3]. Name recorded as Sydney. They had no children.

Beverley Times (WA: 1905 - 1977), Sat 10 Feb 1906, pg 5.
10 Feb 1906 - Wedding. \(nla.gov.au\)

Wedding.
BLECHYNDEN—SIMPSON.
On Wednesday afternoon the marriage of Miss Kathleen Simpson, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Simpson, Beverley, to Mr. S. T. Blechynden, third son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Blechynden, Fremantle, was solemnised in the Sacred Heart Church, Beverley, by Father Lynch, of York. The church was filled with spectators, and as the bride walked up the aisle, leaning on the arm of her father, "The voice that breathed over Eden" was played on the organ by Mrs. Synott. The bridesmaids were Miss Nellie Simpson and Miss Blechynden, while the bridegroom was sustained through the trying ordeal by his brother, Mr. E. Blechynden, as best man. As the newly-wedded pair left the church Mendelsohn's "Wedding march" was played on the organ, and the usual showers of rice were rained upon them. The bride was handsomely attired in a costume of white crepe de chene silk, trimmed with Valenciennes lace, chiffon and medallions, with veil of white tulle and wreath of orange blossoms, and carried in her hand a beautiful ivory bound prayer book, the gift of the bridegroom. Miss Nellie Simpson, bridesmaid, wore a pretty cream voile gown with chiffon sleeves, and trimmed with cream lace and cream silk, with picture hat trimmed with hydrangeas. Miss Blechynden, the other bridesmaid, was dressed in white flowered muslin, with lace trimmings, white hat with feathers and flowers to match. Mrs. Simpson, mother of the bride, wore a beautiful French floral muslin frock, trimmed with white over lace and heliotrope ribbon, black picture hat with black feathers. Mrs. Blechynden, mother of the bridegroom, wore black voile, with over lace and white satin trimming. Mrs. McIvor, the bride's aunt, was dressed in Tusore silk, trimmed with Tassone, French sailor hat with French ribbons to match.	The wedding breakfast was held at the residence of the bride's parents. The Rev. Father Lynch proposed the health of the bride and bridegroom in a happy speech, to which Mr. Blechynden responded. The toasts of "Mr. and Mrs. Simpson," "Mr. and Mrs. Blechynden," "The bridesmaids," "Father Lynch," and "The ladies," were also duly honored and acknowledged. The happy couple left by the half-past five train for Perth, en route to Busselton, where the honeymoon will be spent. The bride's travelling dress was a tailor-made gown of grey tweed, with picture hat trimmed with grey feathers and puppies to match. The following is a list of the wedding presents:— Bridegroom or bride, silver piano; Mr. J. Simpson (bride's father), cheque; Mrs. Simpson (bride's mother), house linen; Mr. E. Simpson, set of carvers; Miss N. Simpson, dinner and tea service; Miss E. Simpson, fruit stand; Miss G. Simpson, candleabra; Miss W. Simpson, moustache cup; Mrs. McIvor, silver egg stand; Mr. and Mrs. Blechynden (parents of bridegroom), silver dinner cruet; Miss Blechynden, gold-edged sugar basin and butterdish; Miss A. Blechynden, biscuit barrel; Messrs. H. and F. Blechynden, ormolu clock; Mr. A. Blechynden, silver butter knife; Mr. and Mrs. E. Blechynden, silver fruit stand; Mr. H. Smith, M.L.A., lamp; Miss Craig, gold-edged salad bowl and jam dish; Mr. R. McClintock, silver-mounted pickle jar; Miss Joyce, silver biscuit barrel; Mrs. C. Austin, buggy rug; Mrs. J. Fleet, serviettes; Miss Clara Fleet, serviette rings; Mr. S. Sugarman, pair of pictures; Mr. W. G. Craig, toast rack and set of cups.

Wedding.

BLECHYNDEN—SIMPSON.

On Wednesday afternoon the marriage of Miss Kathleen Simpson, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Simpson, Beverley, to Mr. S. T. Blechynden, third son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Blechynden, Fremantle, was solemnised in the Sacred Heart Church, Beverley, by Father Lynch, of York. The church was filled with spectators, and as the bride walked up the aisle, leaning on the arm of her father, "The voice that breathed over Eden" was played on the organ by Mrs. Synott. The bridesmaids were Miss Nellie Simpson and Miss Blechynden, while the bride groom was sustained through the trying ordeal by his brother, Mr. E. Blechynden, as best man. As the newly-wedded pair left the church Mendelsohn's Wedding March was played on the organ, and the usual showers of rice were rained upon them. The bride was handsomely attired in a costume of white crepe de chene silk, trimmed with Valenciennes lace, chiffon and medallions, with veil of white tulle and wreath of orange blossoms, and carried in her hand a beautiful ivory bound prayer book, the gift of the bridegroom. Miss Nellie Simpson, bridesmaid, wore a pretty cream voile gown with chiffon sleeves, and trimmed with cream lace and cream silk, with picture hat trimmed with hydrangeas. Miss Blechynden, the other bridesmaid, was dressed in white flowered muslin, with lace trimmings, white hat with feathers and flowers to match. Mrs. Simpson, mother of the bride, wore a beautiful French floral muslin frock, trimmed with white over lace and heliotrope ribbon, black picture hat with black feathers. Mrs. Blechynden, mother of the bridegroom, wore black voile, with over lace and white satin trimming. Mrs. McIvor, the bride's aunt, was dressed in Tusore silk, trimmed with Tassone, French sailor hat with French ribbons to match.

The wedding breakfast was held at the residence of the bride's parents. The Rev. Father Lynch proposed the health of the bride and bridegroom in a happy speech, to which Mr. Blechynden responded. The toasts of "Mr. and Mrs. Simpson," "Mr. and Mrs. Blechynden," "The bridesmaids,"

"Father Lynch," and. "The ladies," were also duly honoured and acknowledged. The happy couple left by the half-past five train for Perth, en route to Busselton, where the honeymoon will be spent.

The bride's travelling dress was a tailor-made gown of grey tweed, with picture hat trimmed with grey feathers and poppies to match.

The following is a list of the wedding presents: —Bridegroom to bride, Ronisch piano. Mr. J. Simpson (bride's father), cheque. Mrs. Simpson (bride's mother), house linen. Mr. E. Simpson, set of carvers. Miss N. Simpson, dinner and tea service. Miss E. Simpson, fruit stand. Miss G. Simpson, candelabra. Miss W. Simpson, moustache cup. Mrs. McIvor, silver egg stand. Mr. and Mrs. Blechynden (parents of bridegroom), silver dinner cruet. Miss Blechynden, gold-edged sugar basin and butterdish. Miss A. Blechynden, biscuit barrel, Messrs. H. and F. Blechynden, ormolu clock. Mr. A. Blechynden, silver butter knife. Mr. and Mrs. E. Blechynden, silver fruit stand. Mr. H. Smith, M.L.A. lamp. Miss Craig, gold-edged salad bowl and jam dish. Mr R. McClintock, silver-mounted pickle jar. Miss Joyce, silver biscuit barrel. Mrs. C. Austin, buggy rug. Mrs. J. Fleet, serviettes. Miss Clara Fleet, serviette rings. Mr. S. Sugarman, pair of pictures. Mr. W. G. Craig, toast rack and set of jugs. Mr. C. Edwards, silver-mounted jam dish. Mr. and Mrs. C. Hine, breakfast cruet. Father Lynch, book "50 years in W.A. Mr. and Mrs. W. McLean, lamp. Mr. J. Punch, dinner set. Mr. and Mrs. Blechynden (Jurokine), watch, chain, and sovereign case to bridegroom, handsome hand bag to bride. Mrs. J. McClintock, silk doyleys. The wedding cake, which was a beautiful specimen of the confectioner's art, was presented by Messrs. Chapman and Stanes.

SIMPSON, KATHLEEN 'KATE' PRISCILLA (1884-1961) was born 19 Jul 1884, Normanville, Civil Yankalilla, SA [Pg. 387, Vol. 332], name written as Catharine Priscilla Simpson, father, JOHN SIMPSON (1858-1938) and mother, MARGARET BACKSHALL (1863-1953) who were married 16 Apr 1883, Pekina, SA [Pg. 1142, Vol. 136]. Registered under Mary Backshall. Kathleen Priscilla Blechynden (nee Simpson) died 18 Aug 1961, City of London, England. Ashes laid to rest in the Anglican Cemetery, Beverley, WA.

The following two pages provide details of Kathleen Priscilla Simpson's family background.

BACKSHALL, MARGARET KATE (1863-1953), Kathleen Priscilla Simpson's mother, was born 3 May 1863, Normanville, SA [Pg. 502, Vol. 28]. Father EDWARD BACKSHALL (1832-1881) and mother, MARY HEFFRONN (1836-1908) who were married 2 Sep 1856, Res of Mr Walsh Yankalilla, SA [Pg. 217, Vol. 27]. Margaret died 25 Nov 1953, Mount Lawley, WA [Reg. 6]. EDWARD and MARY had 12 children, three of whom moved to WA. Details as follows:

1. WILLIAM HENRY BACKSHALL (1857-1921)
2. GEORGE MICHAEL BACKSHALL (1859-1944)
3. MICHAEL JOHN BACKSHALL (1861-1938)
4. MARGARET KATHERINE BACKSHALL (1863-1953) see details above.
5. MARY ELLEN TERESA BACKSHALL (1864-1932)
6. FANNY MATILDA BACKSHALL (1866-)
7. THOMAS BACKSHALL (1868-1941)
8. NORA MARY BACKSHALL (1868-1960)
9. JAMES BACKSHALL (1870-1941)
10. LYDIA BACKSHALL (1872-1953) married ARTHUR JOHN ASHTON, 1898, N. Fremantle, WA [Reg. 550].
11. FREDERICK ANDREW BACKSHALL (1874-1968)
12. BRIDGET CELIA BACKSHALL (1876-1963) married JOHN PATRICK O'NEIL (1874-) 30 Jan 1895, Yankalilla, SA [They had two children: 1. MARY JANE O'NEIL (1896-) was born in SA. 2. MARIA CLARICE O'NEIL (1897-) was born in WA. m2. BRIDGET CELIA O'NEIL (NEE BACKSHALL) (1876-1963) married WILLIAM JAMES CRAIG (1873-1960) 8 Nov 1899, Henley Beach, SA [Pg. 499 Vol 201]. They had two children: OLIVE LAURIE CRAIG (1900-1977) born in QLD and KENNETH HOUSTON CRAIG (1902-1979) who was born in WA. The family remained in WA.

SIMPSON, JOHN (1858-1938), Kathleen Priscilla Simpson's father, was born 4 Dec 1858, Gawler River, SA [Pg. 572, Vol. 14], father, JOHN SIMPSON (1817-1893) and mother, CATHERINE MALONEY (1832-1866) who were married 6 Jul 1851, Gawler, SA [Pg. 411, Vol. 12]. John Simpson died 12 Mar 1938, Maylands, WA [Reg. 489]. JOHN and CATHERINE had four children, all born in SA.

1. WILLIAM SIMPSON (1852-1903),
2. MARY ANN SIMPSON (1854-1929),
3. JANE SIMPSON (1856-1915), and
4. JOHN SIMPSON (1858-1938).

m2. JOHN SIMPSON (1817-1893) married MARGARET FITZGERALD (1833-1888) 1866, Kapunda, SA [Pg. 237 Vol. 68]. They had three children, also born in SA:

1. ANN SIMPSON (1871-),
2. CHRISTOPHER SIMPSON (1871-1886), and
3. JAMES MARTIN SIMPSON (1873-).

John Simpson, his wives and the children from both marriages all lived and remained in SA except for his son John Simson Jr. (1858-1938), who moved to WA.

JOHN SIMPSON (1858-1938) Jr. married MARGARET KATHERINE BACKSHALL (1863-1953) 16 Apr 1883. See details above. They had six children as follows:

1. KATHLEEN 'KATE' PRISCILLA SIMPSON (1884-1961) was born 19 Jul 1884, Normanville, SA [Pg. 387, Vol. 332]. She married SYDNEY THOMAS BLECHYNDEN (1881-1959) in 1906 in Beverley, WA [Reg. 3]. See the rest of this chapter for more details.

2. MARY ELLEN SIMPSON (1887-1965) was born 1887. She married ROBERT HAROLD MCCLINTOCK (1876-1948) 1907, Beverley, WA [Reg. 23]. Mary died 25 Feb 1965, Meltham, WA [Reg. 717].

3. ERNEST EDWARD SIMPSON (1889-1953) was born 1889, Cummundie, SA. He married CATHERINE JOSEPHINE KIRKWOOD (1896-1981) 1921, Beverley, WA [Reg. 5]. Ernest died 1953, Fremantle, WA [Reg. 81].

4. EILEEN NORAH SIMPSON (1892-1968) was born 2 Oct 1892, Port Pirie, SA [Pg. 433, Vol. 508]. She married JOHN BERNARD O'DEA (1884-1960) 29 Feb 1912, Dangan, WA [Reg. 10]. Eileen died 29 Jul 1968, Perth, WA.

5. GRACE LILIAN SIMPSON (1897-1983) was born 24 Mar 1897, Pirie, SA [Pg. 327, Vol. 561]. She married HAROLD HICKS (1898-1982) 14 Nov 1923, Perth, WA [Reg No 1053]. Grace died 19 May 1983, Royal Perth Hospital, WA.

6. WINNIFRED MARGARET SIMPSON (1901-1984) was born 1901, Perth, WA [Reg. 4185]. She married ROBERT ALEXANDER COE (1902-1982) 1923, Perth, WA [Reg. 855].

Electoral Roll:

1906 John Simpson, Bellevue, railway employee, Margaret Kate, home duties.
 1910 John Simpson, Beverley, farmer, Margaret Kate, home duties.
 1915, 1917, 1921 John Simpson, South Caroling, Beverley, farmer, Margaret Kate, married.
 1931 John Simpson, Mt Helena, orchardist, Margaret Kate, home duties.

Electoral Roll:

1903, 1906, 1910, 1913, 1931, 1949, 1958 Sydney Thomas Blechynden, East Lynn, East Beverley, farmer.

Sydney Blechynden farmed the property of East Lynne, in East Beverley. He, together with his brothers Frank and Horace, were frequent winners with their sheep at the Beverley Show.

Australasian (Melbourne, VIC: 1864 - 1946), Sat 22 Nov 1930, pg 37

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article140835778.txt>

By Groper.

SHEEP AT BEVERLEY SHOW

Merino sheep, as usual, made a fine showing at this year's Beverley show. Teams from Messrs. E. T. D. Barrett-Lennard, of Woonderlin, and G. J. Sutherland, of Rose Hill, were outstanding, and annexed the bulk of the awards. The Sutherland Cup, for the breeder obtaining most points in the section, was won by Mr. Lennard with 46 points, Mr. G. J. Sutherland being runner-up with 42 points. Both the grand champion ewe and ram - were drawn from the Woonderlin team, as were the two West Australian bred champions. Other successful breeders were Messrs. C. and M. Smith, of Ferndale; F. Barrett-Lennard, of Drumelyer; J. S. Twine, S. T. Blechynden, of East Lynne; and J. and R. Nicholson, of Hailey. Messrs. J. D. Weaver, of Riverdale/ and R. Husking provided competition in a strong Romney Marsh section. The Riverdale team secured the bulk of the awards and the ewe championship, but Mr. Husking won the ram championship. Messrs. J. and R. W. Nicholson had the Shropshire section to themselves, but they sent in a strong team. Messrs. F. and H. Blechynden, of Roesland, carried all before them in the Dorset Horn classes. Messrs. A. Barrett-Lennard, of Belhus, and A. J. McGlew, of Seaton Ross, sent in strong teams of Border Leicesters, and awards were evenly divided, while Mr. F. J. Davies was also successful. Messrs. H. E. Taylor and Sons and W. C. Cooper and Sons shared the prizes in the Corriedale classes. Quite a good display was provided of fat sheep and lambs. Competition was very keen for the Meggitt's Ltd. challenge cup. Messrs. F. and H. Blechynden were successful with a pen of Dorset Horn cross lambs.

Western Australia.

By Groper.

SHEEP AT BEVERLEY SHOW.

Merino sheep, as usual, made a fine showing at this year's Beverley show. Teams from Messrs. E. T. D. Barrett-Lennard, of Woonderlin, and G. J. Sutherland, of Rose Hill, were outstanding, and annexed the bulk of the awards. The Sutherland Cup, for the breeder obtaining most points in the section, was won by Mr. Lennard with 46 points, Mr. G. J. Sutherland being runner-up with 42 points. Both the grand champion ewe and ram were drawn from the Woonderlin team, as were the two West Australian bred champions. Other successful breeders were Messrs. C. and M. Smith, of Ferndale; F. Barrett-Lennard, of Drumelyer; J. S. Twine, S. T. Blechynden, of East Lynne; and J. and R. Nicholson, of Hailey. Messrs. J. D. Weaver, of Riverdale, and R. Husking provided competition in a strong Romney Marsh section. The Riverdale team secured the bulk of the awards and the ewe championship, but Mr. Husking won the ram championship. Messrs. J. and R. W. Nicholson had the Shropshire section to themselves, but they sent in a strong team. Messrs. F. and H. Blechynden, of Roesland, carried all before them in the Dorset Horn classes. Messrs. A. Barrett-Lennard, of Belhus, and A. J. McGlew, of Seaton Ross, sent in strong teams of Border Leicesters, and awards were evenly divided, while Mr. F. J. Davies was also successful. Messrs. H. E. Taylor and Sons and W. C. Cooper and Sons shared the prizes in the Corriedale classes. Quite a good display was provided of fat sheep and lambs. Competition was very keen for the Meggitt's Ltd. challenge cup. Messrs. F. and H. Blechynden were successful with a pen of Dorset Horn cross lambs.

Sidney Thomas Blechynden died 15 Feb 1959, Swan District, WA [Reg. 20]. Note: name recorded as Sidney. His name was recorded on his headstone as Syd.

Beverley Times (WA: 1905 - 1977), Fri 20 Feb 1959, pg 4

[20 Feb 1959 - The Late Sid. Blechya\[?\] \(nla.gov.au\)](https://nla.gov.au/nla.news-article140835778.txt)

The Late Sid Blechynden

Born at Seaton Ross, Beverley, 78 years ago, the third son of Mr and Mrs Charles Edwin Blechynden, who were among the early comers to these parts. Mr. Sidney Thomas Blechynden, whose death occurred at West Midland last Sunday, had farmed at East Beverley for the past 62 years and was among the district's best-known residents.

His death climaxed a long period of ill health and followed his removal to the city for specialist attention only a few days previously.

He was one of a family of four sons (ed. six) and one daughter. Of these brothers Frank, Ernie, and Alick predeceased him as did also his sister (Mrs. Chandler). The only one of the original family now

The Late Sid. Blechynden

Born at Seaton Ross, Beverley, 78 years ago, the third son of Mr and Mrs. Charles Edwin Blechynden, who were among the early comers to these parts Mr. Sidney Thomas Blechynden, whose death occurred at West Midland last Sunday, had farmed at East Beverley for the past 62 years and was among the district's best-known residents.

His death climaxed a long period of ill health and followed his removal to the city for specialist attention only a few days previously.

He was one of a family of four sons and one daughter. Of these brothers Frank, Eric, and Allick predeceased him as did also his sister (Mrs. Chandler). The only one of the original family now living is Mr. Horace Blechynden, of Beverley.

As a young man he married Miss Kate Simpson and the couple have resided at their East Beverley property, East Lynne, for many years past.

A quiet living citizen he was a good supporter of local organisations although he never sought office. As a young man he played golf with the local club. A keen shooter he appreciated an outing among the kangaroos or on the lakes or river in search of wild duck until ill health precluded participation in these activities.

The funeral took place at the Anglican cemetery on Tuesday afternoon in the presence of a large assemblage of friends and relatives. It was preceded by a service at St. Mary's church conducted by the Rev Paul Atkins who officiated at the graveside.

The arrangements were carried out by Messrs W. J. Purslowe & Son, of Northam.

The funeral took place at the Anglican cemetery on Tuesday afternoon in the presence of a large assemblage of friends and relatives. It was preceded by a service at St. Mary's church conducted by the Rev Paul Atkins who officiated at the graveside.

living is Mr. Horace Blechynden, of Beverley.

As a young man he married Miss Kate Simpson and the couple have resided at their East Beverley property, East Lynne, for many years past.

A quiet living citizen he was a good supporter of local organisations although he never sought office. As a young man he played golf with the local club. A keen shooter he appreciated an outing among the kangaroos or on the lakes or river in search of wild duck until ill health precluded participation in these activities.

The arrangements were carried out by Messrs W. J. Purslowe & Son, of Northam.

Kathleen Priscilla Blechynden (nee Simpson) died 18 Aug 1961, City of London, England. Her ashes laid to rest in the Anglican Beverley, Cemetery, WA.

Beverley Times (WA: 1905 - 1977), Fri 8 Sep 1961, page1

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article202800645.txt>

Ashes Laid to Rest

The ashes of a well-loved citizen of Beverley in the person of Mrs. Kate Blechynden were laid to rest at the Anglican cemetery at a short but impressive ceremony on Saturday morning last.

Mrs. Blechynden died in a London hospital a fortnight ago having taken ill in the course of a world tour on which she embarked some months ago. The mortal remains were cremated in London and the ashes flown to Australia.

Although there was no official notification of the ceremony which was intended to be of a semi-private nature, there was a large attendance of relatives and friends at the service. Organisations with which the late citizen had been actively associated were well represented and there were far more womenfolk present than is normally seen at a local funeral.

The Rev'd Paul Atkins officiated at St. Mary's Church and at the graveside and he paid impressive and eloquent tribute to the life and service of the deceased lady.

The ashes were contained in an urn which was interred in the grave of Mrs. Blechynden's life partner, the late Syd Blechynden, who predeceased her by some years.

Ashes Laid to Rest

The ashes of a well-loved citizen of Beverley in the person of Mrs. Kate Blechynden were laid to rest at the Anglican cemetery at a short but impressive ceremony on Saturday morning last.

Mrs. Blechynden died in a London hospital a fortnight ago having taken ill in the course of a world tour on which she embarked some months ago. The mortal remains were cremated in London and the ashes flown to Australia.

Although there was no official notification of the ceremony which was intended to be of a semi-private nature, there was a large attendance of relatives and friends at the service. Organisations with which the late citizen had been actively associated were well represented and there were far more womenfolk present than is normally seen at a local funeral.

The Rev'd Paul Atkins officiated at St. Mary's Church and at the graveside and he paid impressive and eloquent tribute to the life and service of the deceased lady.

The ashes were contained in an urn which was interred in the grave of Mrs. Blechynden's life partner, the late Syd Blechynden, who predeceased her by some years.

Headstone: Syd Blechynden (1881-1959),
Beverley Cemetery, WA

Headstone: Kathleen Blechynden (nee Simpson)
(1884-1961), Beverley Cemetery, WA

Following the death of Sydney Blechynden and, later, his widow Katherine 'Kate', in 1962 'East Lynne' was purchased by Bruce Blechynden of Kokeby.

Beverley Times (WA: 1905 - 1977), Fri 19 Jan 1962, pg 1
19 Jan 1962 - East Lynne Brings £30,500 \(nla.gov.au\)

East Lynne Brings
£30,500

The well-known East Lynne property at East Beverley, 9 miles from Beverley township, formerly farmed by the late Syd Blechynden and later by his widow, Mrs. Kate Blechynden, who passed away in London whilst on a holiday tour some months ago, was submitted by auction by Wesfarmers on Friday last and realised £30,500.

It was purchased by Mr. Bruce Blechynden, of Kokeby, a relative of the former owners.

The property comprises 2,493 acres of which 1900 acres are cleared. It is well watered and subdivided into 13 main paddocks. Improvements include a bungalow type home of six main rooms in good condition and various farm buildings.

Much interest was taken in the sale which was attended by a very large crowd.

The well-known East Lynne property - at East Beverley, 9 miles from Beverley township, formerly farmed by the late Syd Blechynden and later by his widow, Mrs. Kate Blechynden, who passed away in London whilst on a holiday tour some months ago, was submitted by auction by Wesfarmers on Friday last and realised £30,500.

It was purchased by Mr. Bruce Blechynden; of Kokeby, a relative of the former owners.

The property comprises 2,493 acres of which 1900 acres are cleared. It is well watered and subdivided into 13 main paddocks. Improvements include a bungalow type home of six main rooms in good condition and various farm buildings. Much interest was taken in the sale which was attended by a very large crowd.

Abandoned home at 'East Lynne'

SIXTH CHILD OF CHARLES EDWIN BLECHYNDEN & CAROLINE DAVIES

6. BLECHYNDEN, HORACE EDWIN (1882-1960) & CRAIG, AMY 'ELLA' (1879-1969)

Horace Edwin was Charles Edwin and Caroline Blechynden's sixth child. He was born on 12 Nov 1882 at 'Seaton Ross', Beverley. On 27 Jun 1906, Horace married Amy 'Ella' Craig in Fremantle. They farmed 'Red Hill' and 'Roesland' in partnership with Horace's brother Frank Harrison and his wife Alice (nee Robins). Horace and Amy 'Ella' had four children.

Horace passed away on 2 Sep 1960 at the age of 77 and Amy 'Ella' on 15 Apr 1969 aged 89; both in Beverley. They are buried together in the Beverley Anglican Cemetery.

Horace Edwin Blechynden was born on 12 Nov 1882 at 'Seaton Ross', Beverley, WA [Reg. 23602] and was christened on 10 Dec 1882 at Beverley. He married Amy 'Ella' Craig on 27 Jun 1906 in Fremantle, WA [Reg. 117] and together they had four children: Bruce Edwin (1908), Ella 'Muriel' (1909), Frank Robus (1910) and Colin Horace (1916).

After the retirement of his father, Charles Edwin, Horace and Amy 'Ella' successfully farmed the 'Roesland' and 'Red Hill' properties just south of Beverley in partnership with Horace's older brother, Frank Harrison, and his wife, Alice.

CERTIFIED COPY OF REGISTER OF BIRTH.
BIRTHS in the Beverly District of Western Australia, Registered by James Reardon District Registrar.
CHILD.	PARENTS.	INFORMANT.	WITNESSES.	REGISTRAR.
No.	Name and whether present at Registration or not.	No.	Name and whether present at Registration or not.	No.	Name and whether present at Registration or not.	No.	Name and whether present at Registration or not.	No.	Name and whether present at Registration or not.
232	Horace Edwin Blechynden. Male. Seaton Ross Beverley.	1	Charles Edwin Blechynden. Farmer. Beverley.	1	Caroline Davies. Beverley.	1	Edwin Blechynden. Father. Beverley.	1	James Reardon. Registrar. Beverley.
3. Arthur Leach District Registrar, Beverley, August 1908. I, the Colony of Western Australia, do hereby certify that the above is a true copy of an Entry in a Register of Births kept in this Office. A. Leach Registrar

Birth certificate of Horace Edwin Blechynden

Beverley Times (WA: 1905 - 1977), Sat 28 Jul 1906, pg 6

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article200726860.txt>

Wedding.

BLECHYNDEN—CRAIG.

A correspondent writes:—A very pretty wedding was solemnised in the Congregational Church, North Fremantle, on Wednesday, June 27th, by the Rev. C. E. Meredith. The contracting parties were Mr. Horace E. Blechynden, of Roesland, Beverley, and Miss Amy Ella Craig, North Fremantle, third daughter of the late Mr. William J. Craig, South Australia. The bride, who was given away by her brother (Mr. W. J. Craig) looked charming in a dress of cream silk trimmed with goffered chiffon, silk ribbon, and an orange blossom spray. The usual wreath and veil was worn, and a shower bouquet carried. The bridesmaid, Miss E. Craig (sister of the bride) also looked very nice in a cream muslin desure, trimmed with lace, diamonds and insertion let in, and hat to match, and wore a gold brooch, twin swallows set in pearls (gift of the bridegroom) and carried a bouquet. The two little bridesmaids, Hetty and Reta Solin (nieces of the bride) looked very pretty in their white floral muslins and red sashes, and wore a wreath of flowers, Lily of the Valley, in their hair, and also wore gold brooches (gifts of the bridegroom) and carried crooks with red flowers and streamers. Mr. F. H. Blechynden (brother of the bridegroom) acted as best man and carried out his duties in an efficient manner. The Church was suitably decorated by members of the choir, of which the bride was a member. The church organist, Miss Etta Cook, officiated at the organ. The wedding party drove to the residence of the bride's sister at Claremont, where the wedding breakfast was partaken. The bride and bridegroom left on the following day for Busselton.

The following is a list of presents received:—Bridegroom to bride, gold ring set in diamonds and rubies; bride to bridegroom, silver-mounted walking stick; Mr. and Mrs. Solin (sister and brother-in-law of the bride) wedding breakfast and cake; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Blechynden (parents of bridegroom), two front-room chairs; Mrs. Craig (bride's mother), silk and wool cosy; Mr. F. H. Blechynden, olmela clock; Miss A. M. Blechynden, two pair vases and glass dish; Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Blechynden, silver breakfast cruet; Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Blechynden, set of carvers; Mr. A. G. R. Blechynden, six tumblers and glass jug; Miss E. Craig, half-dozen silver teaspoons; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Craig, tea set; Misses Vida. Rena, and Amy Craig, pair canaries; Mr. and Mrs. S. Craig, set jugs; Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Sandlands, biscuit barrel; Mr. and Mrs. Salmon, trinket set; Mr. and Mrs. A. Charlton, pair pictures; Mr. and Mrs. J. Woods, lamp; Miss G. Woods, pair vases; Miss Kenworthy, silver jam dish; Mr. Albin Solin, pair knife rests; Miss Hetty Solin, cake stand; Reta and Eskel Solin, (2) pair texts; Messrs. Kimmorley Bros. silver butter dish; Mrs. Austin, set jugs; Rev. and Mrs. Meredith, (2) silver serviette rings; Walker Bros., silver pickle jar; W. W. Chipper, silver dinner cruet; Miss M. Shomey (S.A.), two silver jam spoons and butter knife; Mr. Lure (England), trinket box; Mr. and Mrs. J. Y. Prowse, biliatelle game; Mr. J. C. Clark (6) dinner knives and (6) bread and butter knives.

Wedding, BLECHYNDEN—CRAIG.

A correspondent writes:—A very pretty wedding was solemnised in the Congregational Church, North Fremantle, on Wednesday, Jun 27th, by the Rev. C. E. Meredith. The contracting parties were Mr. Horace E. Blechynden, of Roesland, Beverley and Miss Amy Ella Craig, North Fremantle, third daughter of the late Mr. William J. Craig, South Australia. The bride, who was given away by her brother (Mr. W. J. Craig) looked charming in a dress of cream silk trimmed with goffered chiffon, silk ribbon, and an orange blossom spray. The usual wreath and veil was worn, and a shower bouquet carried. The bridesmaid, Miss E. Craig (sister of the bride) also looked very nice in a cream muslin desure, trimmed with lace, diamonds and insertion let in, and hat to match, and wore a gold brooch, twin swallows set in pearls (gift of the bridegroom) and carried a bouquet. The two little bridesmaids, Hetty and Reta Solin (nieces of the bride) looked very pretty in their white floral muslins and red sashes, and wore a wreath of flowers, Lily of the Valley, in their hair, and also wore gold brooches (gifts of the bridegroom) and carried crooks with red flowers and streamers. Mr. F. H. Blechynden (brother of the bridegroom) acted as best man and carried out his duties in an efficient manner. The Church was suitably decorated by members of the choir, of which the bride was a member. The church-organist, Miss Etta Cook, officiated at the organ. The wedding party drove to the residence of the bride's sister at Claremont, where the wedding breakfast was partaken. The bride and bridegroom left on the following day for Busselton.

at Claremont, where the wedding breakfast was partaken. The bride and bridegroom left on the following day for Busselton.

The following is a list of presents received:—Bridegroom to bride, gold ring set in diamonds and rubies; bride to bridegroom, silver-mounted walking stick; Mr. and Mrs. Solin (sister and brother-in-law of the bride), wedding breakfast and cake; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Blechynden (parents of bridegroom), two front-room chairs; Mrs. Craig (bride's mother), silk and wool cosy; Mr. F. H. Blechynden, olmela clock; Miss A. M. Blechynden, two pair vases and glass dish; Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Blechynden, silver breakfast cruet; Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Blechynden, set of carvers; Mr. A. G. R. Blechynden, six tumblers and glass jug; Miss E. Craig, half-dozen silver teaspoons; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Craig, tea set; Misses Vida. Rena, and Amy Craig, pair canaries; Mr. and Mrs. S. Craig, set jugs; Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Sandlands, biscuit barrel; Mr. and Mrs. Salmon, trinket set; Mr. and Mrs. A. Charlton, pair pictures; Mr. and Mrs. J. Woods, lamp; Miss G. Woods, pair vases; Miss Kenworthy, silver jam dish; Mr. Albin Solin, pair knife rests; Miss Hetty Solin, cake stand; Reta and Eskel Solin, (2) pair texts; Messrs. Kimmorley Bros. silver butter dish; Mrs. Austin, set jugs; Rev. and Mrs. Meredith, (2) silver serviette rings; Walker Bros., silver pickle jar; W. W. Chipper, silver dinner cruet; Miss M. Shomey (S.A.), two silver jam spoons and butter knife; Mr. Lure (England), trinket box; Mr. and Mrs. J. Y. Prowse, biliatelle game; Mr. J. C. Clark (6) dinner knives and (6) bread and butter knives.

stick; Mr. and Mrs. Solin (sister and brother-in-law of the bride) wedding breakfast and cake; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Blechynden (parents of bridegroom), two front-room chairs; Mrs. Craig (bride's mother), silk and wool cosy; Mr. F. H. Blechynden, olmela clock; Miss A. M. Blechynden, two pair vases and glass dish; Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Blechynden, silver breakfast cruet; Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Blechynden, set of carvers; Mr. A. G. R. Blechynden, six tumblers and glass jug; Miss E. Craig, half-dozen silver teaspoons; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Craig, tea set; Misses Vida. Rena, and Amy Craig, pair canaries; Mr. and Mrs. S. Craig, set jugs; Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Sandlands, biscuit barrel; Mr. and Mrs. Salmon, trinket set; Mr. and Mrs. A. Charlton, pair pictures; Mr. and Mrs. J. Woods, lamp; Miss G. Woods, pair vases; Miss Kenworthy, silver jam dish; Mr. Albin Solin, pair knife rests; Miss Hetty Solin, cake stand; Reta and Eskel Solin, (2) pair texts; Messrs. Kimmorley Bros., silver butter dish; Mrs. Austin, set jugs; Rev. and Mrs. Meredith, (2) silver serviette rings; Walker Bros., silver pickle jar; W. W. Chipper, silver dinner cruet; Miss M. Shomey (S.A.), two silver jam spoons and butter knife; Mr. Lure (England), trinket box; Mr. and Mrs. J. Y. Prowse, biliatelle game; Mr. J. C. Clark (6) dinner knives and (6) bread and butter knives.

CRAIG, AMY 'ELLA' (1879-1969) was born on 27 Jul 1879 in Yackamorundie, SA, [Pg. No 397, Vol. 224], one of a family of eleven. She passed-away, in her 90th year, 1969, Beverley Hospital, WA [Reg. 7]. Her parents were WILLIAM JOHN CRAIG (1848-1887) and m1. CHARLOTTE BOWLEY (1847-1907) who married on 7 May 1869 in Clare, SA [Pg. No 317, Vol. 79]. They had 11 children, detailed further below. WILLIAM was born 1848, Renfrewshire, Scotland. He died 11 Jul 1887, Yinyarrie, Clare, SA [Pg. No 349, Vol. 164]. His parents were m.1 ARCHIBALD CRAIG (1822-1897) and ANNE RUSSELL (1826-1887) who married on 25 Oct 1850 in Paisley, Renfrewshire, Scotland. Archibald was born 2 Jul 1822, Neilston, Renfrewshire, Scotland and died 20 Jul 1897, Claire, SA [Pg. 319 Vol 244].

Archibald and Anne had six children. Their first child, William John Craig, was born in Scotland as was their second child, Catherine. Sadly, Catherine died in 1852 on board the ship Shackamaxon. Their third child Archibald Craig was born 31 Dec 1853 on board the ship Shackamaxon. Their next three children were all born in SA. Details of the six are as follows:

1. WILLIAM JOHN CRAIG (1848-1887),
2. CATHERINE CRAIG (1852-1853),
3. ARCHIBALD CRAIG (Jnr) (1853-1917),
4. JAMES CRAIG (1855-1909),
5. ALEXANDER CRAIG (1857-1912), and
6. SAMUEL CRAIG (1860-1864).

Archibald's second marriage was to ELIZABETH SCOTT (1855-1940) on 17 Jun 1891, Presbyterian Manse, Adelaide, SA [Pg. 1188 Vol. 167]. They had four children, as follows, all born in SA:

1. LEA JANE MITCHELL CRAIG (1892-1982),
2. HANNAH JOHNSON CRAIG (1894-1980),
3. RUTH EMERSON CRAIG (1894-1899), and
4. JANETTE LYDIA CRAIG (1896-1986).

Archibald, his two wives and children all remained in SA except for William John Craig who moved to WA.

Amy 'Ella' Craig's mother, CHARLOTTE BOWLEY (1847-1907) was born 16 Nov 1847, Goodwood, Adelaide, SA [Pg. 28, Vol. 2]. She died 18 Apr 1907, St George St, Clarence Park, SA [pg. 448, Vol. 324]. Her parents were HENRY BOWLEY (1817-1886) and MARY ANN DEERING GOLDSMITH (1817-1893). Both Henry and Mary were both born in and emigrated from Sussex, England. They were married, 2 Mar 1842, Trinity Church, Adelaide, SA and had 14 children as follows, with Charlotte being their fifth:

1. JOHN HENRY BOWLEY (1842-1913),
2. WILLIAM GEORGE BOWLEY (1843-1901),
3. ALFRED JOHN BOWLEY (1845-1917),
4. MARY ANN BOWLEY (1846-1905),
5. CHARLOTTE BOWLEY (1847-1907),
6. RICHARD BOWLEY (1849-1923),
7. THOMAS BOWLEY (1850-1906),
8. EMILY BOWLEY (1852-1853),
9. EMILY EVELINE (1853-1952),
10. JONATHON BOWLEY (1855-1855),
11. CHARLES WILLIAM BOWLEY (1856-1923),
12. NAOMI OLIVE BOWLEY (1858-1941),
13. ALICE ELIZABETH (1859-1958), and
14. TAMAR ELIZABETH BOWLEY (1861-1946).

m.2 CHARLOTTE CRAIG (NEE BOWLEY) (1847-1907) married GEORGE BILSBOROW (1849-) 26 Mar 1894, Yacka, SA [Pg. 1319, Vol. 178].

WILLIAM JOHN CRAIG (1848-1887) and CHARLOTTE BOWLEY (1847-1907) had 11 children, all born in SA. When their father died in 1887, the 11 children's ages ranged from one to 17. Amy 'Ella' was just six years old. Records show that four of the children: William, Annie, Archibald and Amy Craig moved from SA to WA. Details of the children are as follows:

1. WILLIAM JAMES CRAIG (1870-1940) was born 28 Jun 1870, Koolunga, SA [Pg. No 22, Vol. 85]. He married MARGARET ALICE FLOOD (1869-1950), 1895, Fremantle, WA [Reg. 342]. They had six children, all born in WA: Vida Annie Reta, Irene Amelia, Amy Mildred, Hazel Ruth, Olive Charlotte and Gordon William. William died 18 Sep 1940, 56 Loftus St, Claremont, Perth, WA [Reg. 1714].

2. ALICE MARY CRAIG (1871-1966) was born 30 Sep 1871, Koolunga, SA [Pg. No 89, Vol. 101]. Her first marriage was to DANIEL ROBBIE (1868-1923) 5 May 1903, Residence of W J Craig, Clarence Park, SA [Pg. 659, Vol. 215]. They had eight children. Her second marriage (as a widow) was to JOHN HARRIS (1856-1934) (also a widower), 15 Dec 1926, High St, Kensington, Adelaide, SA [Pg. 942, Vol. 309]. Recorded as Ally Robbie. Alice Mary Robbie (nee Craig) died 12 May 1966 at Eralyn Rest Home, Morissett, NSW, Australia.

HARRIS-ROBBIE—On the 15th December, at the Seventh Day Adventist Church, High Street, Kensington, by Pastor Roenfeldt, John Harris, widower, late of Mount Bryan, to Ally Mary, widow of Daniel Robbie, of Murray Bridge.

HARRIS-ROBBIE—On the 15th December, at the Seventh Day Adventist Church, High street, Kensington, by Pastor Roenfeldt, John Harris, widower, late of Mount Bryan, to Ally Mary, widow of Daniel Robbie, of Murray Bridge.

3. ANNIE JANE CRAIG (1873-1958) was born 14 Jun 1873, Belalie North, SA [Pg. No 108, Vol. 125]. Her first marriage was to PER OLOF SOLIN (1860-1919) 26 Jan 1895, Residence of Alex Craig, Koolunga, SA [Pg. 275, Vol. No. 182]. They had eight children, all born in WA: Olaf Albin Conrad, Liv Hetty Dorrin, Rita Annie Matilda, Raymond Eskil, Anton Lyttleton Wilhelm, Thelma Alice, Edwin Edison and Ivy Ruth. Annie's second marriage was to CARL ALFRED FORSBERG (1878-1946) 1922, Perth, WA [Reg. 1025]. Annie Jane Forsberg, Solin (nee Craig) died 4 Apr 1958, Fremantle, WA [Reg. 125].

4. EDMUND ERNEST CRAIG (1874-1964) was born 17 Oct 1874, Jamestown, SA [Pg. No 254, Vol. 144]. He married CAROLINE BADENOCH (1880-1964) 1 Jun 1904, Bridgewater, SA [Pg. 971, Vol. 219]. They had four children. Edmund died 30 Aug 1964, West Terrace, Adelaide, SA [Pg. 545, Vol. 968].

5. ARCHIBALD SEYMOUR BROUGHTON CRAIG (1875-1959) was born 30 Dec 1875, Broughton, SA [Pg. No 309, Vol. 160]. He married MARGARET LEIGHTON (1880-1977) 1904, Fremantle, WA [Reg. 786]. They had at least one child, born in WA. Archibald died Feb 1959, Cooranbong, Lake Macquarie City, NSW. Buried Avondale, Adventist Cemetery.

6. HERBERT HENRY CRAIG (1877-1951) was born 22 Aug 1877, Yackamorundie, SA [Pg. No 343, Vol. 188]. Herbert died 5 Aug 1951, SA [Pg. 4163, Vol. 771].

7. AMY 'ELLA' CRAIG (1879-1969) was born 27 Jul 1879 in Yackamorundie, SA [Pg. No 397, Vol. 224]. She married HORACE EDWIN BLECHYNDEN (1882-1960) 27 Jun 1906, Fremantle, WA [Reg. 117]. More details on Amy 'Ella' and Horace in this chapter.

8. CHARLOTTE RUSSELL CRAIG (1880-1899) was born 21 Dec 1880, Yacka, SA [Pg. No 265, Vol. 253]. Charlotte died 5 May 1899, Adelaide, SA [Pg. 488, Vol. 260].

9. EMILY ELSIE CRAIG (1882-1940) was born 31 Aug 1882, Moockra North, SA [Pg. No 484, Vol. 288]. Emily Else Craig died 9 Sep 1940, SA [Pg. No 4189, Vol 628].

10. ADA GRAYSON CRAIG (1884-1974) was born 23 Jun 1884, Clare, SA [Pg. No 285, Vol. 329]. Ada married ALBERT RICHARD POMEROY (1880-1930) 20 Aug 1904, Res of Mr. Pomeroy, Clarence Park, SA. They had four children. She died 5 Feb 1974, Glenelg, SA.

11. LILIAN MAY CRAIG (1886-1973) was born 31 Mar 1886, Clare, SA [Pg. No 241, Vol. 371]. She married FREDERICK JOHN FOWLER (1885-1925) 16 Oct 1907, in Unley, SA. They had at least one son and two daughters. Lilian May Fowler (nee Craig) 25 Jan 1973, aged 86. Buried, West Terrace Cemetery, Adelaide, SA.

After their marriage, Horace and Amy 'Ella' Blechynden resided in the 'Roesland' homestead, just south of Beverley, where their four children were born:

1. BRUCE EDWIN BLECHYNDEN (1908-1993),
2. ELLA 'MURIEL' BLECHYNDEN (1909-1993),
3. FRANK ROBUS BLECHYNDEN (1910-1995), and
4. COLIN HORACE BLECHYNDEN (1916-1996).

More details on them and their families further on.

Western Mail (Perth, WA: 1885 - 1954), Thu 21 Jun 1934, pg 10

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article37712198.txt>

STUD FARMS.

Roesland and Red Hill.

Messrs. F. and H. Blechynden are the proprietors of the well-known farming properties, Roesland and Red Hill, comprising approximately 10,000 acres and situated three miles south of Beverley. These are conveniently divided into 25 paddocks. About 6,500 acres are cleared and the average crop sown annually covers 1,000 acres. The balance of cleared land is used for pasture purposes, and maintains about 4,000 sheep throughout the year. The property, through which the Avon River flows, is well watered also by natural springs and commodious dams, while the timber throughout the heavy loam country is York gum and jam.

The proprietors have established and maintain a Dorset Horn stud flock of good proportion and excellent quality, rams from which are distributed to many fat lamb breeders throughout the State. In addition they also maintain a recently-established stud of large white pigs which have gained much popularity among local pig raisers.

STUD FARMS.

Roesland and Red Hill.

Messrs. F. and H. Blechynden are the proprietors of the well-known farming properties, Roesland and Red Hill, comprising approximately 10,000 acres and situated three miles south of Beverley. These are conveniently divided into 25 paddocks. About 6,500 acres are cleared and the average crop sown annually covers 1,000 acres. The balance of cleared land is used for pasture purposes, and maintains about 4,000 sheep throughout the year. The property, through which the Avon River flows, is well watered also by natural springs and commodious dams, while the timber throughout the heavy loam country is York gum and jam.

The proprietors have established and maintain a Dorset Horn stud flock of good proportion and excellent quality, rams from which are distributed to many fat lamb breeders throughout the State. In addition, they also maintain a recently established stud of large white pigs which have gained much popularity among local pig raisers.

Electoral Roll:

1903, 1910, 1946, 1949, Horace Edwin Blechynden, Roesland, Beverley, farmer, Amy Ella, married

1954, 1958 Horace Edwin Blechynden, Hunt Rd, Beverley, farmer, Amy Ella, home duties.

The following articles show that Horace Edwin and Amy 'Ella' Blechynden had compassion for those who were in need. Mr A E Liddiard after being evicted from a house in Perth was offered accommodation for the family and work on a farm in Beverley. This was the farm owned by H E Blechynden.

Daily News (Perth, WA: 1882 - 1955), Wed 14 Jul 1948, pg 8.

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article83751084.txt>

HOMELESS FAMILY IN PUBLIC GARDENS

Daytime 'Home'

PUBLIC GARDENS

A man, his wife and six children aged from 18 months to 13 years have been spending most of their time in Government Gardens since last Friday. They have no home.

They have been allowed to spend the night after 9 o'clock at St. Bartholomew's Hall in Brown-st., East Perth. There they sleep on mattresses placed over forms.

The family are ex-serviceman Mr. A. E. Liddiard, his wife, three sons and three daughters. Another 14-year-old son is living at the crowded home of Mr. Liddiard's mother in East Perth.

The children's meals consist mainly of pies and sandwiches.

Mr. Liddiard said that after being evicted some months ago from a house in Perth, he and his family went to a farm in Beverley. He was injured while working on the farm, went to hospital with a poisoned leg.

While he was in hospital his employer told him he would have to find another job and somewhere else to live.

Mr. Liddiard came to Perth a fortnight ago and got a job. His family followed last Friday.

Because they have nowhere to live the father feels obliged to stay with them during the day. His employer is holding his job for him.

The Child Welfare Department gave him some money to buy food for the children, Mr. Liddiard said, but last night's meals used it up.

He said that he had had an application with the State Housing Commission for four years.

◆ THE LIDDIARDS and six of their seven children (one son is absent at work) are pictured here in Government Gardens, where they spend most of their time because they lack a home. At night they sleep in a hall.

A man, his wife and six children aged from 18 months to 13 years have been spending most of their time in Government Gardens since last Friday.

They have no home. They have been allowed to spend the night after 9 o'clock at St. Bartholomew's Hall in Brown-St, East Perth. There they sleep on mattresses placed over forms.

The family are ex-serviceman Mr. A. E. Liddiard, his wife, three sons and three daughters.

Another 14-year-old son is living at the crowded home of Mr. Liddiard's mother in East Perth.

The children's meals consist mainly of pies and sandwiches.

Mr. Liddiard said that after being evicted some months ago from a house in Perth, he and his family went to a farm in Beverley. He was injured while working on the farm, went to hospital with a poisoned leg.

While he was in hospital his employer told him he would have to find another job and somewhere else to live.

Mr. Liddiard came to Perth a fortnight ago and got a job. His family followed last Friday Because they have nowhere to live the father feels obliged to stay with them during the day. His employer is holding his job for him.

The Child Welfare Department gave him some money to buy food for the children, Mr. Liddiard said, but last night's meals used it up. He said that he had had an application with the State Housing Commission for four years.

Daily News (Perth, WA: 1882 - 1955), Mon 19 Jul 1948, pg 2

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/article/83756044?searchTerm=Blechynden%20poisoned%20leg>

A sacking is denied

LAST Wednesday you published a story about the Liddiard family who had no home. Mr. Liddiard said that while he was in hospital his employer told him he would have to find another job and somewhere else to live. Mr. Liddiard was working for us for four weeks doing light farm work. He said on June 9 that he was not strong enough to do the work and wished to leave at once. He also said he had a poisoned leg and thought he should see a doctor. We told him he could finish as soon as he liked but thought he should see the doctor first in case it was a compensation case. I took him to the doctor and he was put into hospital for 14 days. When he came out, he went to Perth to see about a house and a job. He came back from Perth and told us he had a job and could get a house in a week; and he asked us if his family could stay in our house until then. This they did. — H. E. Blechynden and Son, Beverley.

A sacking is denied

LAST Wednesday you published a story about the Liddiard family who had no home. Mr. Liddiard said that while he was in hospital his employer told him he would have to find another job and somewhere else to live. Mr. Liddiard was working for us for four weeks doing light farm work. He said on June 9 that he was not strong enough to do the work and wished to leave at once. He also said he had a poisoned leg and thought he should see a doctor. We told him he could finish as soon as he liked but thought he should see the doctor first in case it was a compensation case. I took him to the doctor and he was put into hospital for 14 days. When he came out he went to Perth to see about a house and a job. He came back from Perth and told us he had a job and could get a house in a week; and he asked us if his family could stay in our house until then. This they did.—H. E. Blechynden and Son, Beverley.

This old photo with Horace and his brother, Frank Harrison, appeared in the Countryman on 3 Nov 1994 in their 'Flashback' item.

Early days at Beverley. The men in the picture are thought to be Horace and Frank Blechynden and Mr D.H. Forbes.

Horace Blechynden, on a family outing. Proudly showing off their cars. Courtesy Suzanne Halsall

Photo titled: 'Going to Jack Blechynden's at Babakin'.

L-R: Frank Robus, Ella May (wife of Frank), Amy "Ella", Stan Sutherland (husband of Muriel Blechynden), Edna (wife of Bruce), Bruce, Horace Blechynden and Colin. Most likely, Muriel was taking the photo. Although the photo is not dated, it is almost certain that - all dressed up in their finery - the group is heading to the wedding of Ernest John 'Jack' Blechynden and Ellen 'May' Branson on 26 May 1934. Courtesy Lindsay Adams

Amy 'Ella' Blechynden's 69th Birthday, 27 Jul 1948
Held at Sutherland homestead in Katanning, WA.

*L-R, Back Row: Allen & Dennis (sons of Bruce & Edna), Bruce, Geoff & Ross Sutherland.
Middle Row: Ella (wife of Frank), Edna (wife of Bruce), Stan & Muriel Sutherland, Amy 'Ella' (holding Byron Sutherland), Horace, Frank, Nancy (wife of Colin) & Colin.
Front Row: Norma (daughter of Frank & Ella), Neil (son of Bruce and Edna), Margaret & John Sutherland, Cyril (son of Bruce and Edna), Elizabeth and Beverley (children of Colin & Nancy).
Courtesy Lindsay Adams*

Many details of Horace and Amy 'Ella' and family can be read in the following newspaper articles:

Beverley Times (WA: 1905 - 1977), Fri 21 Nov 1952, pg 5

21 Nov 1952 - Mostly Personal \(nla.gov.au\)

Mr Horace Blechynden was the guest of honour at a family gathering held at the residence of his youngest son, Mr F R Blechynden at Red Hill, on the 12th inst. The occasion was his 70th, birthday and the function had been arranged in secret and came as a complete surprise. All members of the family were present and the assemblage numbered about 30, all of whom spent a most enjoyable time. A feature was the cutting of a birthday cake made by his daughter, Mrs S Sutherland, of Katanning, the top being ornamented in the form of a miniature bowling green. Best wishes were expressed and in these a host of friends throughout the district will make belated but none the less sincere endorsement, Horace being held in high esteem as a worthy and estimable citizen.

Note: Frank was the middle son, not the youngest.

Mr Horace Blechynden was the guest of honour at a family gathering held at the residence of his youngest son, Mr F R Blechynden at Red Hill, on the 12th inst. The occasion was his 70th birthday and the function had been arranged in secret and came as a complete surprise. All members of the family were present and the assemblage numbered about 30, all of whom spent a most enjoyable time. A feature was the cutting of a birthday cake made by his daughter, Mrs S Sutherland, of Katanning, the top being ornamented in the form of a miniature bowling green. Best wishes were expressed and in these a host of friends throughout the district will make belated but none the less sincere endorsement, Horace being held in high esteem as a worthy and estimable citizen.

Portraits of Horace Edwin Blechynden (1882-1960) and Amy 'Ella' Blechynden (nee Craig), hanging at the 'Red Hill' homestead. Courtesy Lindsay Adams

Beverley Times (WA: 1905 - 1977), Fri 11 May 1956, pg 5

11 May 1956 - GOLDEN WEDDING CELEBRATED \(nla.gov.au\)

GOLDEN WEDDING CELEBRATED

At the Congregational Church at North Fremantle on the 26th Jun, 1906, the Rev Meradith joined in wedlock Miss Amy Ella Craig and Mr Horace Edwin Blechynden, the former a daughter of a South Australian farmer who had died young leaving a widow and family of 7 girls and 4 boys and the latter a grandson of Harrison Blechynden who had arrived at the Swan River Settlement in 1830, only a year after the foundation of the colony.

The intervening years have been kind to the couple. For the whole of the period, they have resided in this district and memories must have come flooding back to them when on Friday evening of last week, they were the guests at a golden wedding celebration arranged by members of their family which comprises sons Bruce, Frank and Colin and daughter Muriel (Mrs S Sutherland, of Katanning). The function was arranged somewhat ahead of the actual anniversary date due to the imminence of son Frank's departure for England as a member of the Australian rifle shooting team. The tables were

GOLDEN WEDDING CELEBRATED

At the Congregational Church at North Fremantle on the 26th June, 1906, the Rev Meradith joined in wedding Miss Amy Ella Craig and Mr Horace Edwin Blechynden, the former a daughter of a South Australian farmer who had died young leaving a widow and family of 7 girls and 4 boys and the latter a grandson of Harrison Blechynden who had arrived in the Swan River Settlement in 1830, only a year after the foundation of the colony.

The intervening years have been kind to the couple. For the whole of the period they have resided in this district and memories must have come flooding back to them when on Friday evening of last week they were the guests at a golden wedding celebration arranged by members of their family which comprises sons Bruce, Frank and Colin and daughter Muriel (Mrs J Sutherland, of Katanning). The function was arranged somewhat ahead of the actual anniversary date due to the imminence of son Frank's departure for England as a member of the Australian rifle shooting team.

The tables were beautifully decorated when the big assemblage of guests arrived to join in the congratulations to the guests of the evening and to partake of the lovely spread provided by the ladies of the Brookton branch of the CWA.

Chairman of the Road Board Mr A W Miles presided and after the Loyal Toast had been honoured he called on Mr E W Edwards to propose the toast of the "Bride and Bridegroom."

Mr Edwards referred particularly to Mr and Mrs Blechynden's long and honoured service to the Beverley community in both the civic and sporting sphere and made special reference to the fine family with which they have been blessed and who also had contributed much in service to local organisations. The speaker was ably supported by Mr J I Mann, MLA, and the toast was enthusiastically honoured.

In a happily reminiscent vein Mr Blechynden responded to the toast, concluding by expressing his own and his wife's appreciation of years of friendship enjoyed in Beverley and thanking the members of his family who had arranged the night's function.

A number of telegrams of congratulations were read and a toast to "Absent Friends" was proposed by Mr Bruce Broun. A feature of the evening was the cutting of a magnificent two decker wedding cake by the bride. Its decorations were in keeping with the golden table decorations.

Mrs Miles presided at the piano and the breakfast portion of the ceremony concluded with the singing of the National Anthem. After wards the hall was cleared for a short dance and social intercourse.

Among those present was Mr Blechynden's brother Ernest (of Arthur River) and others of special note were Mrs Blechynden's sisters, Mrs Forsberg (East Fremantle) who was matron of honour at the wedding in 1906 and Mrs Lindquist who was bridesmaid. Two of Mrs Forsberg's daughters who at 6 and 8 years of age were flower girls were also in attendance as were 16 grandchildren

Mr Bruce Blechynden ably proposed a toast to the chairman to which Mr Miles responded beautifully decorated when the big assemblage of guests arrived to join in the congratulations to the guests of the evening and to partake of the lovely spread provided by the ladies of the Brookton branch of the CWA. Chairman of the Road Board Mr A W Miles presided and after the Loyal Toast had been honoured, he called on Mr E W Edwards to propose the toast of the Bride and Bridegroom'. " Mr Edwards referred particularly to Mr and Mrs Blechynden's long and honoured service to the Beverley community in both the civic and sporting sphere and made special reference to the fine family with which they have been blessed and who also had contributed much in service to local organisations. The speaker was ably supported by Mr J I Mann, MLA, and the toast was enthusiastically honoured.

In a happily reminiscent vein Mr Blechynden responded to the toast, concluding by expressing his own and his wife's appreciation of years of friendship enjoyed in Beverley and thanking the members of his family who had arranged the night's function.

A number of telegrams of congratulations were read and a toast to "Absent Friends" was proposed by Mr Bruce Broun. A feature of the evening was the cutting of a magnificent two decker wedding cake by the bride. Its decorations were in keeping with the golden table decorations. Mrs Miles presided at the piano and the breakfast portion of the ceremony concluded with the singing of the National Anthem. After wards the hall was cleared for a short dance and social intercourse. Among those present was Mr Blechynden's brother Ernest (of Arthur River) and others of special note were Mrs Blechynden's sisters, Mrs Forsberg (East Fremantle) who was matron of honour at the wedding in 1906 and Mrs Lindquist who was bridesmaid. Two of Mrs Forsberg's daughters who at 6 and 8 years of age were flower girls were also in attendance as were 16 grandchildren. Mr Bruce Blechynden ably proposed a toast to the chairman to which Mr Miles responded.

Horace and Amy 'Ella' Blechynden and family: Horace's 70th birthday
Bruce, Colin, Amy 'Ella', Muriel, Horace and Frank Robus Blechynden
Courtesy Lindsay Adams

Horace and Amy 'Ella' Blechynden
(nee Craig). Courtesy Suzanna Halsall

Horace Edwin Blechynden, passed away on 2 Sep 1960, at his home in Hunt Road, Beverley, at the age of 77. Registered in York, WA [Reg. 23].

Beverley Times (WA: 1905 - 1977), Fri 9 Sep 1960, pg 3
<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article202797678.txt>

Rifle Shooting

Because of the sudden death of Mr. Horace Blechynden there was no shooting on the Beverley range on Sunday. The late citizen, in association with his brother, Frank, were among the earliest enthusiasts in the rifle club movement in this district and early records reveal that they possessed no little ability with the rifle.

Horace's enthusiasm for the sport has been inherited by his sons. Son Frank has been club champion for many years and is the present captain.

Beverley Times (WA: 1905 - 1977), Fri 9 Sep 1960, pg 1
09 Sep 1960 - NOTABLE CITIZEN'S SUDDEN DEMISE \(nla.gov.au\)

NOTABLE CITIZEN'S SUDDEN DEMISE

One of the Beverley districts most respected and notable identities passed away suddenly at his Hunt Road, house on Friday morning of last week. He was Mr. Horace Edwin Blechynden who was a son of one of the earliest families to become established in, his grandfather, Harrison Blechynden having arrived in the state in 1829 (ed. 1830) the year of the Foundation of the colony. Family records can be traced back several hundred years. The record and association with Beverley dates from earliest days.

Harrison Blechynden came to Beverley in the early forties of the last century and leased "Babbyalla" from the Hamersley's remaining there until 1888, when Mr. Bevan Hamersley inherited the property and took up residence there. During the Blechyndens occupation of the farm sons Henry and Charles were born. Henry grew up and worked with his father on "Babbyalla" and after the evacuation of the property purchased "Erindale" in the Mt Kokeby area, later taken over by his son Mr. William Blechynden.

Son Charles, in 1870, took over the "Seaton Ross" property at Beverley on a rental basis, the owner at that time being a Mr. Johnson. He later went to "Mt. Pleasant" but stayed there only three years

NOTABLE CITIZEN'S SUDDEN DEMISE
One of the Beverley district's most respected and notable identities passed away suddenly at his Hunt Road home on Friday morning of last week. He was Mr. Horace Edwin Blechynden who was a son of one of the earliest families to become established in Western Australia, his grandfather, Harrison Blechynden, having arrived in the State in 1829 the year of the foundation of the Colony. Family records can be traced back several hundred years. The record of the association with Beverley dates from the earliest days. Harrison Blechynden came to Beverley in the early forties of last century and ceased "Babylonia" from the Hattersons, remaining there until 1868, when Mr. Bevan Hatterson inherited the property and took up residence there. During the Blechyndens' occupation of the farm sons Henry and Charles were born. Henry grew up and worked with his father on "Babylonia" and after their evacuation of the property purchased "Trendale" in the Mt. Kokyby area, later taken over by his son, Mr. William Blechynden. Son Charles, in 1870, took over the "Seaton Ross" property at Beverley on a rental basis, the owner at that time being a Mr. Johnson. He later went to "Mt. Pleasant" but stayed there only three years before moving to Bridgetown. Later he returned to "Seaton Ross" for a period before purchasing "Roesland" some three miles south of Beverley township. The property was acquired because it was surveyed by Mr. Roe, the State's first surveyor-general, who also surveyed the township. Shortly after this move he purchased on conditional purchase the property known as "Redhill" and added to this six years later by the purchase from Mr. George Shenton of "Killibin" property of 170 acres. Charles Blechynden married Miss C. Davis, of York, in 1872, and there were eight children of the union. Sons, Frank and Horace Edwin (born 1882) were later to become associated with their father in the conduct of "Roesland" and "Redhill" properties with which their names will be always associated.	some years ago in recognition of his sterling service. In recent years he had to forsake active participation in the game but maintained his interest by frequent attendances at the green. He also showed a kindly interest in croquet with which Mrs. Blechynden is closely associated. Rifle shooting was also one of his earliest sporting activities and he played a prominent part in the movement locally. The enthusiasm he manifested is retained by sons Colin, Bruce and Frank who have had outstanding success in the sport, the last named particularly. He was also at one time very fond of field shooting and could look back on many outings on lakes and river. Another local organisation which over many years benefitted greatly from his activities and enthusiasm was the Beverley Agricultural Society of which he was president for a long period and a committeeman for nearly fifty years. Both he and his brother were prominent in Beverley Hospital affairs and served on the local Board for a very long time. The "Redhill" and "Roesland" properties are now combined and are carried on by son, Frank, who in 1946 joined his father in the business under the new name of H. E. Blechynden & Son. Mr. Blechynden died in his sleep at about 8 a.m. on Friday and news of his passing came as a shock to relatives and a legion of friends throughout these areas. He had been ailing for some weeks but it was not realised that the end was so near. District wide regret was manifest, for his many fine attributes as a citizen, husband and father were widely recognised. He continued to have a youthful outlook and was at home with all sections of the local community. To the widow and family much sympathy has been expressed and the very large attendance at the funeral was a tribute to his many fine attributes.

before moving to Bridgetown. Later he returned to "Seaton Ross" for a period before purchasing "Roesland" some three miles south of Beverley township. The property was so named because it was surveyed by Mr. Roe, the States, first surveyor -general who also surveyed the township. Shortly after this move, he purchased on conditional purchase the property known as "Redhill" and added to this six years after by the purchase from Mr. George Shenton of "Killibin" property of 170 acres.

Charles Blechynden married Miss C. Davies of York, in 1872, and there were eight children of the union. Sons, Frank and Horace Edwin (born 1882) were later to become associated with their father in the conduct of "Roesland" and "Redhill" properties with which their names will be always associated.

The two followed progressive methods and became very successful farmers. Frank married and built a residence on "Redhill" and Horace after his marriage to Miss Amy 'Ella' Craig of Yackamorundie, South Australia continued to reside in the "Roesland" homestead where three sons, Bruce, Frank and Colin and a daughter Muriel (now Mrs Stanley Sutherland, of Katanning) were born. The parents later retired to live in Beverley where they purchased a home.

The brothers Frank and Horace established a Dorset Horn stud at "Roesland" in 1924 and had much success with fat lamb production as well as scoring well at agricultural shows. They were also interested, in the breeding of farm horses which they exhibited with success. Frank died a few years ago.

Horace always displayed a lively interest in district activities and sport. He had a great love of bowls and was one of the oldest members of the Beverley Club which he served well as president for a very long period. He was for long a skipper in 'Pennant games and worked unceasingly in the Club's interests. Life membership was conferred on him some years ago in recognition of his sterling service. In recent years he has had to forsake active participation in the game but maintained his interest by frequent attendances at the green. He also showed a kindly interest in croquet with which Mrs. Blechynden is closely associated.

Rifle shooting was also one of his earliest sporting activities and he played a prominent part in the movement locally. The enthusiasm he manifested is retained by sons Colin, Bruce and Frank who have had outstanding success in the sport, the last named particularly. He was also at one time very fond of field shooting and could look back on many outings on lakes and river.

Another local organisation which over many years benefitted greatly from his activities and enthusiasm was the Beverley Agricultural Society of which he was president for a long period and a committeeman for nearly fifty years.

Both he and his brother were prominent in Beverley, Beverley Hospital affairs and served on the local Board for a very long time.

The "Redhill" and "Roesland" properties are now combined and are carried on by son, Frank, who in 1946 joined his father in the business under the new name of H. E. Blechynden & Son.

Mr. Blechynden died in his sleep at about 8 a.m. on Friday and news of his passing came as a shock to relatives and a legion of friends throughout these areas. He had been ailing for some weeks but it was not realised that the end was so near. District wide regret was manifest, for his many fine attributes as a citizen, husband and father were widely recognised. He contrived to have a youthful outlook and was at home with all sections of the local community.

To the widow and family much sympathy has been expressed and the very large attendance at the funeral held on Saturday afternoon was indicative of the esteem in which the deceased had been held. St. Mary's Anglican Church was crowded for the service and an even larger crowd attended at the cemetery where the mortal remains were laid to rest near those of other members of the Blechynden clan who in their generation played their part in the development of this district and whose deeds and work have their place in local history. The Rev'd Atkins officiated and Messrs. Purslowe & Sons carried out the arrangements.

Amy 'Ella' Blechynden (nee Craig), passed-away, in her 90th year, 1969, Beverley Hospital, WA [Reg. 7]. She was buried alongside her husband, Horace, at the Beverley Anglican Cemetery, WA.

Beverley Times (WA: 1905 - 1977), Fri 18 Apr 1969, pg 7
18 Apr 1969 - Death of aged resident \(nla.gov.au\)

Death of aged resident

The death occurred at the Beverley hospital on Tuesday night of Mrs Amy Ella Blechynden, widow of the late Horace Blechynden and mother of a family of three sons (Bruce, Frank, Colin) and a daughter (Muriel). She was in her 90th year and had been ailing for a long time. The funeral is to be held today (Friday) following a service at St. Mary's Anglican Church at 10.30 a.m. Further reference to the late citizen will appear in our next issue.

Death of aged resident

The death occurred at the Beverley hospital on Tuesday night of Mrs Amy Ella Blechynden, widow of the late Horace Blechynden and mother of a family of three sons (Bruce, Frank, Colin) and a daughter (Muriel). She was in her 90th year and had been ailing for a long time. The funeral is to be held today (Friday) following a service at St. Mary's Anglican Church at 10.30 a.m. Further reference to the late citizen will appear in our next issue.

Beverley Times (WA: 1905 - 1977), Thu 24 Apr 1969, pg 3
24 Apr 1969 - Nonagenarian's demise \(nla.gov.au\)

Nonagenarian's demise

The widow of a one-time prominent citizen of this district passed away at the Beverley Hospital on Tuesday night of last week after a long illness. She was Mrs Amy Blechynden and was in her ninetieth year. She was the relict of the late Mr Horace Blechynden who died in Sep 1960, aged 79 years.

Born Amy Ella Craig – at Yakka, South Australia, in Jul 1879 – she was one of a family of twelve and came to this state as a young woman to later meet and marry Horace Blechynden, in Jun 1906. This began her association with the Beverley district with which the Blechynden family has had a long and successful association. Horace acquired the “Roesland” property (surveyed by the State's first Surveyor General G. H. Roe) – whilst his brother Frank farmed the nearby property “Red Hill”. The Blechyndens are still associated with both properties. “Roesland” was the Horace Blechynden family home until 1930 when the parents retired to a home in Hunt Road, Beverley.

Nonagenarian's demise

The widow of a one-time prominent citizen of this district passed away at the Beverley Hospital on Tuesday night of last week after a long illness. She was Mrs Amy Blechynden and was in her ninetieth year. She was the relict of the late Mr Horace Blechynden who died in September, 1960, aged 79 years.

Born Amy Ella Craig – at Yakka, South Australia, in July 1879 – she was one of a family of 12 and came to this State as a young woman to later meet and marry Horace Blechynden, in June 1906. This began her association with the Beverley district with which the Blechynden family has had a long and successful association. Horace acquired the historic “Roesland” property (surveyed by the State's first Surveyor-General, G. H. Roe) – whilst his brother Frank farmed the nearby property of “Red Hill”. The Blechyndens are still associated with both properties. Roesland was the Horace Blechynden family home until 1930 when the parents retired to a home in Hunt Road, Beverley.

There were four children of the marriage – sons Bruce, Frank and Colin and daughter Muriel (now Mrs Stan Sutherland of Katanning). All the boys are married and Bruce and Frank are still associated with Beverley.

Mrs Blechynden was a very active member of the Hospital Auxiliary and was a great lover of flowers which she distributed to the sick as a hospital visitor. Another interest was the CWA and she was a keen croquet and bowls player, participating in croquet pennant play till the age of 80. Her late husband presented a Shield for pennant play between the York, Beverley and Northam Croquet clubs and this is still keenly contested every season by these clubs.

TRIBUTES AT FUNERAL

The Rev. Henry Tassell paid tribute to the life and service of the late Mrs Blechynden, as wife, mother and citizen when he officiated at a service at St. Mary's Anglican Church prior to the interment at the Anglican cemetery on Friday morning. The esteem in which the deceased and her family are held in these parts was reflected in an exceptionally large attendance at Church and graveside and in a wealth of wreaths and floral tributes. The remains were laid to rest beside those of her late husband.

There were four children of the marriage – sons Bruce, Frank and Colin and daughter Muriel (now Mrs Stanley Sutherland of Katanning). All the boys are married, and Bruce and Frank are still associated with Beverley.

Mrs Blechynden was a very active member of the Hospital Auxiliary and was a great lover of flowers which she distributed to the sick as a hospital visitor. Another interest was the CWA and she was a very keen croquet player, participating in croquet pennant play till the age of 80. Her late husband presented a shield for pennant play between the York, Beverley and Northam Croquet clubs and this is still keenly contested every season by these clubs.

TRIBUTES AT FUNERAL

The Rev. Henry Tassell paid tribute to the life and service of the late Mrs Blechynden as wife, mother and citizen when he officiated at a service at St. Mary's Anglican Church prior to the interment at the Anglican cemetery on Friday morning. The esteem in which the deceased and her family are held in these parts was reflected in an exceptionally large attendance at Church and graveside and in a wealth of wreaths and floral tributes. The remains were laid to rest beside those of her late husband.

Headstone: HORACE EDWIN BLECHYNDEN (1882-1960), Beverley Anglican Cemetery, WA.

Headstone: AMY 'ELLA' BLECHYNDEN (NEE CRAIG) (1879-1969), Beverley Anglican Cemetery, WA.

1st CHILD OF HORACE BLECHYNDEN & AMY 'ELLA' CRAIG

Bruce Edwin Davies Blechynden

Edna Irene Blechynden (nee Wood).
Courtesy Suzanne Halsall

1. BLECHYNDEN, BRUCE EDWIN DAVIES (1908-1993) was Horace and Amy 'Ella' Blechynden's first child. He was born on 19 Apr 1908 in Beverley, WA [Reg. 50] and baptised on 27 Jun 1908. On 3 Aug 1934, Bruce married EDNA IRENE WOOD (1908-2001), in Beverley, WA [Reg. 31]. Together, they farmed at 'Burnside' just north of Brookton. Bruce and Edna raised seven children: Neil, Dennis, Allen, Cyril, Lorraine, Lorna and Irene (twins). They became the grandparents of 23 children. Bruce passed away on 2 Aug 1993 and Edna on 12 Dec 2001, both in Beverley. They are buried together in the Beverley Anglican Cemetery.

Edna Irene Wood was born on 6 Apr 1908, Beverley [Reg No 48]. Her parents were ALBERT ALFRED WOOD (1877-1954) and LAVINA FISHER (1872-1960) who were married 1905, Bally Bally, Beverley [Reg No. 2]. The next few pages outline her family background.

Edna's father, Albert, was born 28 Jan 1877 in Balaklava, SA. His parents were ALFRED WOOD (1852-1924) and ALICE ELIZABETH SAINT (1856-1942), who were married 26 Mar 1875, Trinity Church, Riverton, SA. Albert died on 19 Nov 1954 in Beverley, WA [Reg. 41] as the result of a vehicle accident.

They had nine children, as follows, all born and raised in SA. Albert later moved to WA.

1. ALBERT ALFRED WOOD (1877-1954)
2. FREDRICK ARTHUR WOOD (1879-1960)
3. ARTHUR RICHARD WOOD (1881-1970-)
4. OLIVE ALICE WOOD (1883-1966)
5. LUCY AGNES WOOD (1885-1974)
6. CLARENCE ROBERT WOOD (1887-1969)
7. BLANCHE OPAL WOOD (1890-1978)
8. FRANK LIONEL WOOD (1893-1953)
9. IRENE MILLISCENT WOOD (1900-1967-).

Edna's mother, Lavina, was born on 9 Apr 1872 in Grace Plains, SA. Her parents were EDWIN FISHER (1844-1920) and ELIZABETH LOUIE MITCHELL (1845-1927) who were married 27 Feb 1867, Kapunda, SA. Lavina Wood (nee Fisher) died 16 Aug 1960, Beverley, WA [Reg. 102408]. Edwin and Elizabeth had nine children, as follows, all born in SA. Four moved to WA as detailed:

1. ELIZABETH ANN FISHER (1867-1947)
2. LAVINIA FISHER (1869-1872)
3. LAVINIA FISHER (1872-1960). Moved to WA. See details above.
4. WILLIAM EDWIN FISHER (1874-1955). Moved to WA, married ELIZABETH MARIA QUINLAN (1879-1930) in 1900, Northam, WA.
5. ALFRED JAMES FISHER (1876-1964). Moved to WA, married LOUISA KATE ARMSTRONG (1888-1970) 1914, Busselton, WA [Reg. 6000006].
6. ELSIE JANE FISHER (1878-1922)
7. FREDERICK WALTER FISHER (1880-1953). Moved to WA, m1. married GLADYS PEARL LUCY HEYLEN (1889-1940) 7 Jun 1913, Adelaide, SA [Pg. 795 Vol. 255]. Gladys died 10 Feb 1940, Adelaide, SA. Frederick's m2. was to KATHLEEN LESLEY EDITH MARTIN in 1941, Fremantle, WA [Reg. 2700137].
8. EVA OLIVE FISHER (1884-1977)
9. EDITH VICTORIA FISHER (1887-1984).

ALBERT WOOD and LAVINA FISHER had seven children as follows, the third of which was Edna:

1. ALBERTA PEARL WOOD (1906-1994) was born 1 Dec 1906, Beverley, WA [Reg. 2]. He married ELLIOTT ASTLEY PHILLIPS (1908-1998) 1932, Beverley, WA [Reg. 6]. Alberta died 4 Oct 1994, Perth, WA.
2. EDWIN ALFRED WOOD (1907-2002) was born 17 Mar 1907, Beverley, WA [Reg. 48]. Registered as Alfred Edwin. He married AUDREY FRASER KILPATRICK (1909-1948) 1934, Beverley, WA [Reg. 30]. Alfred died 19 Jun 2002, Beverley, WA.
3. EDNA IRENE WOOD (1908-2001). See details in this section.

4. LAWRENCE VERNON WOOD (1910-1965) was born 19 Mar 1910, Beverley, WA [Reg. 81]. Name recorded as Lawrance. He died 15 Oct 1965, Wellington, WA [Reg. 177]. Name written as Laurence.
5. OLIVE LAVINA WOOD (1911-2007) was born 6 May 1911, Beverley, WA [Reg. 99]. She married m.2 WALTER TURNBULL (1908-1999), 1951, Perth, WA [Reg. 946]. (Walter's first marriage had been to FLORA EILEEN KING (1909-) 1931, Perth, WA [Reg. 527]). Olive died 8 Apr 2007, Noranda, WA. Burial Lance Memorial Garden A 0015, Karrakatta Cemetery.
6. ALBERT CLARENCE WOOD (1912-1975) was born 28 Jul 1912, Beverley, WA [Reg. 143]. He married BARBARA S CANDY 1942, Perth, WA [Reg. 658]. Albert died 6 Jul 1975 Bunbury, WA.
7. FREDERICK ROY WOOD (1914-1967) was born 29 Jun 1914, Beverley, WA [Reg. 163]. Registered as Fredrick. Service Number - W73303. Place of enlistment – Beverley, WA. Note the date of birth recorded on his service records (29 Aug 1918) differs from WABDM. Fredrick married BERYL JEAN HOWARD, 1953, Beverley, WA [Reg. 24]. He died 13 Mar 1967, Beverley, WA [Reg.4].

The following news articles describe the passing of Edna's parents, Albert (in 1954 at the age of 77 in a tragic vehicle accident) and Lavina (in 1960 at the age of 88).

Beverley Times (WA: 1905 - 1977), Fri 26 Nov 1954, pg 1

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article202768104.txt>

FATAL ACCIDENT

DEATH OF MR ALBERT WOOD

Well-known Identity

A popular district identity in the person of Mr Albert Alfred Wood died at Beverley Hospital early in the morning of Friday last following an accident on the Bally Bally road the previous day. He was 77 years of age and had resided in the district for about fifty years. There were widespread expressions of sympathy towards the bereaved wife and family in their sudden bereavement.

The accident in which Mr Wood received fatal injuries occurred about half a mile on the Eastern side of the Bally Bally hall where the road has a slight incline and bend. He was motoring to Beverley at about 1 p.m. to attend a meeting of directors of the Co-operative Co, when the car left the road and collided with a tree. Mr Wood received extensive injuries to the body and face and much damage resulted to the vehicle. Brought in to Beverley by Messrs G Carr and Son, who saw the mishap, he was admitted to hospital but survived only a few hours.

The late Mr Wood was born in South Australia and came to the district at about the turn of the century, his arrival co-inciding with the advent of several other Eastern Staters to these parts. He took up farming in the County Peak area which was his home for the remainder of his days.

His community service included a lengthy period as a ward representative on the Beverley Road Board and his interest in the rifle

Beverley Road Board and his interest in the rifle shooting movement extended practically over his whole life. He was a member of the first rifle club formed in Beverley by the late Mr T G Walker and was a foundation member of the old Bally Bally Club where he held office as captain for some years prior to its merger with the Beverley Club. Advancing age did not rob him entirely of his skill and on the week-end preceding his demise he was equal to winning a range trophy at the end-of-season fixture of the local club, of which he was some years ago made a life honorary member.

Another activity in which he took an extraordinary interest was duck shooting at which, when younger, he excelled. It was largely through his enthusiasm and that of others from the Eastern States who had been nurtured in a strict regard for game laws that the present keen observance of the opening of the season in this district has stemmed. He was one of the first honorary game wardens appointed to this district and held office up to the time of his demise.

As a member of the Bowling Club he at one time was most active in the game and

A measure of the deceased's widespread popularity was the very large attendance, over 70 cars being comprised in the cortege as it moved from the church. The Rev Wright officiated and Mr E T Fairhead carried out the arrangements.

FATAL ACCIDENT DEATH OF MR ALBERT WOOD Well-known Identity

A popular district identity in the person of Mr Albert Alfred Wood died at Beverley Hospital early in the morning of Friday last following an accident on the Bally Bally road the previous day. He was 77 years of age and had resided in the district for about fifty years. There were widespread expressions of sympathy towards the bereaved wife and family in their sudden bereavement.

The accident in which Mr Wood received fatal injuries occurred about half a mile on the Eastern side of the Bally Bally Hall where the road has a slight incline and bend. He was motoring to Beverley at about 1 pm to attend a meeting of directors of the Co-operative Co, when the car left the road and collided with a tree. Mr Wood received extensive injuries to the body and face and much damage resulted to the vehicle. Brought in to Beverley by Messrs G Carr and Son, who saw the mishap, he was admitted to hospital but survived only a few hours.

The late Mr Wood was born in South Australia and came to the district at about the turn of the century, his arrival coinciding with the advent of several other Eastern Staters to these parts. He took up farming in the County Peak area which was his home for the remainder of his days.

His community service included a lengthy period as a ward representative on the Beverley Road Board and his interest in the rifle shooting movement extended practically over his whole life. He was a member of the first rifle club formed in Beverley by the late Mr T G Walker and was a foundation member of the old Bally Bally Club where he held office as captain for some years prior to its merger with the Beverley club. Advancing age did not rob him entirely of his skill and on the weekend preceding his demise he was equal to winning a range trophy at the end-of-season fixture of the local club, of which he was some years ago made a life honorary member.

Another activity in which he took an extraordinary interest was duck shooting at which, when younger, he excelled. It was largely through his enthusiasm and that of others from the Eastern States who had been nurtured in a strict regard for game laws that the present keen observance of the opening of the season in this district has stemmed. He was one of the first honorary game wardens appointed to this district and held office up to the time of his demise.

As a member of the Bowling Club, he at one time was most active in the game and at various times has been associated with numerous other district organisations.

The late citizen is survived by a widow, three daughters Alberta (Mrs Phillips) Edna (Mrs B Blechynden) and Olive (Mrs Turnbull) and four sons (Eddie, Vernon, Clarence and Roy).

The funeral took place at the Anglican cemetery on Saturday afternoon following a service at St Mary's Church. A measure of the deceased's widespread popularity was the very large attendance, over 70 cars being comprised in the cortege as it moved from the church. The Rev Wright officiated and Mr E T Fairhead carried out the arrangements.

Death of Lavina Wood (nee Fisher).

Beverley Times (WA: 1905 - 1977), Fri 19 Aug 1960, pg 2
<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article202797531.txt>

Pioneering Woman's Demise

Born at Grace Plains in South Australia eighty-eight years ago, and resident in the Bally Bally district from the time of her marriage as a young woman, Mrs. Lavinia Wood passed away at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Phillips, at Armadale on Monday. She was the widow of the late Albert Wood, and the mother of a family well-known throughout these districts.

Before coming to the West as a young woman the late resident had become engaged to Albert Wood. Both were members of well-known South Australian farming families. Albert came to Western Australia early in the century to take up virgin land at Bally Bally and shortly afterwards she followed, the couple being the first to be married in the Bally Bally hall.

It was the commencement of an association with the district which was to continue throughout the remainder of her life. To the couple was born a family of seven: Alberta (Mrs. Phillips), Eddie, Edna (Mrs. B. Blechynden), Vern (now in control of the property), Olive (Mrs. Turnbull), Clarrie and Roy.

Mr. Wood died as the result of a motoring accident a few years ago and since that occurrence Mrs. Wood has stayed with various members of the family. Her health has been gradually failing of late. A kind and good woman she was representative of the best of the pioneering stock and was widely loved and respected.

The funeral took place at the Anglican Cemetery on Thursday morning after a service at St. Mary's Church and was very largely attended by friends from many parts of the district.

Pioneering Woman's Demise

Born at Grace Plains in South Australia eighty-eight years ago, and resident in the Bally Bally district from the time of her marriage as a young woman, Mrs. Lavinia Wood passed away at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Phillips, at Armadale on Monday. She was the widow of the late Albert Wood, and the mother of a family well-known throughout these districts.

Before coming to the West as a young woman the late resident had become engaged to Albert Wood. Both were members of well-known South Australian farming families. Albert came to Western Australia early in the century to take up virgin land at Bally Bally and shortly afterwards she followed, the couple being the first to be married in the Bally Bally hall.

It was the commencement of an association with the district which was to continue throughout the remainder of her life. To the couple was born a family of seven: Alberta (Mrs. Phillips), Eddie, Edna (Mrs. B. Blechynden), Vern (now in control of the property), Olive (Mrs. Turnbull), Clarrie and Roy.

Mr. Wood died as the result of a motoring accident a few years ago and since that occurrence Mrs. Wood has stayed with various members of the family. Her health has been gradually failing of late. A kind and good woman she was representative of the best of the pioneering stock and was widely loved and respected.

The funeral took place at the Anglican Cemetery on Thursday morning after a service at St. Mary's Church and was very largely attended by friends from many parts of the district.

The following images and articles relate to Bruce and Edna Blechynden's family and 'Burnside' property.

Bruce and Edna Blechynden's four sons: Dennis, Cyril, Neil and Allen.

Cyril still lives on and works the farm, 'Burnside', near Beverley that his father Bruce owned.

Courtesy, Kathryn Mutton.

'Burnside'. Courtesy Ken and Angela Blechynden

*'Burnside' with current owners Cyril, Chris and Vance Blechynden.
Courtesy Ken and Angela Blechynden*

Electoral Roll:

1931 Bruce Edwin Davies Blechynden, Roesland, Beverley, farm hand

1937, 1943, 1949 Bruce Edwin Davies Blechynden, Roesland, Beverley, farm hand, Edna Irene, Burnside, Mt. Kokeby, home duties

1954 Bruce Edwin Davies Blechynden, Burnside, Mt. Kokeby, farmer, Edna Irene, home duties

1977, 1980 Bruce Edwin Davies Blechynden, Gaynor St, Brookton, farmer, Edna Irene, home duties

Following the death of Sydney Blechynden and later of his widow Katherine 'Kate', in 1962 East Lynne was purchased by Bruce Edwin Blechynden of 'Kokeby'.

There are many articles in Trove about the Burnside Poll Stud on 'Lynne View' and 'Burnside'. The article following is just one of them. Comment by Suzanne Halsall, 'Lynne View' in the article is in fact the property 'East Lynne' which Neil farmed.

Lynne View to offer first team

After breeding Poll sheep for 12 years Neil Blechynden of Lynne View stud at Beverley has nominated his first team of rams for the Beverley premating fixture.

The stud has never shown or sold rams before and have kept all rams bred on the property for use in the commercial flock.

However, this year stud principal Mr Neil Blechynden decided to nominate a team for Beverley and will have 30 rams for private sale.

The stud was originally Burnside Poll Merino stud and was established by Neil's father Mr B. E. D. Blechynden in 1957 with a ram and 24 ewes from Zara Poll Merino stud, NSW.

Neil purchased the stud in 1967 and the main sires in use are from Nepowie, The Bluff and Lewisdale.

All the rams offered on Oct 17 are by Lewisdale rams and one of his sires, Lynne View 120.

Neil Blechynden said the Lewisdale ram which he bought in 1976 had bred well and his sons were showing good quality wool and plenty of sire.

L.V. 120 is a better ram than his sire according to Neil and he is pleased with his progeny. Some will be retained in the stud.

All the young rams are fleeced weighted and micron tested as one-year-olds and Neil is aiming to breed a stylish 58 quality wool to micron at 20 to 22 on a good framed sheep.

There are 200 ewes in the stud and 2,300 ewes in the commercial flock that are based on Lynne View lines.

Photo in Newspaper article, see above:

Neil Blechynden, son of Bruce Blechynden of "Lynne View" stud at Beverley: Neil Blechynden and a Lewisdale sire bought in 1966. He is the sire of some of the rams offered in the Beverley sale.

Big bodies and plenty of wool

The BURNSIDE stud of B. E. D. Blechynden and Son of Brookton, will offer 12 Bungaree rams at the sale.

Bruce Blechynden and his son Cyril were foundation members of the Beverley sale and keen supporters of the local show.

At the last two Beverley shows they were awarded the trophy for the most points in the wool section and the grand champion fleeces.

And at the 1979 Beverley ram sale they sold 11 rams for an average of $267.

THE BURNSIDE
stud of B. E. D.
Blechynden and Son of Brookton, will offer 12
Bungaree rams at the sale.

Bruce Blechynden and his son Cyril were foundation members of the Beverley sale and keen supporters of the local show.

Big bodies and plenty of wool

tion of sheep and use them as a guide.

The Blechyndens do their own classing and Cyril said that selection takes place throughout the year as the sheep come through the yards.

However, he shears all the stud sheep on the property and says he can learn the type of skin and feel of the wool qualities of the sheep as they are shorn.

"We do not have any stringent culling percentages but it depends on the quality of the drop,"
he said.

The 2,240 ha family property on the Brookton and Beverley road runs about 500 stud ewes and about 100 rams are sold annually. In addition
1,800 flock ewes and
1,100 wethers are run.

At the 1978 Perth sales they paid $4,000 for an East Bungaree ram and his sons will be available for sale this year. Mr Bruce Blechynden said they look good.

Other rams are by syndicate matings of sons of Annandale rams and East Bungaree sires which are the two families run on the farm.

At the last two Beverley shows they were awarded the trophy for the most points in the wool section and the grand champion fleeces.

And at the 1979 Beverley ram sale they sold 11 rams for an average of $267.

Bruce and Cyril say they are aiming to breed sheep with big bodies and plenty of wool. This year bodyweights of the rams going to the sale will average about 90kg (200lb).

This was proven last year when young ewes' wool sold to 349c a kg at the Wesfarmers October sale at Fremantle. It was also highlighted when a truck driver said to Mr Blechynden that one of their regular ram clients was lucky to get 200 wethers on to a two tray truck.

They don't weigh all the rams and fleeces but random sample a selection of sheep and use them as a guide.

They don't weigh all the rams and fleeces but random sample a selection of sheep and use them as a guide.

● BRUCE (left) and Cyril Blechynden with one of the rams to be offered at the Beverley ram sale on October 17.

Bruce and Cyril say they are aiming to breed sheep with big bodies and plenty of wool This year the bodyweights of the rams going to the sale will average about 90kg (200lb).

This was proven last year when the young ewes' wool sold to 349c a kg at the Wesfarmers Oct sale at Fremantle. It was also highlighted when a truck driver said to Mr. Blechynden that one of their regular ram clients was lucky to get 200 wethers on to a two-tray truck.

They don't weigh all the rams and fleeces but random sample a selection pf sheep and use them as a guide.

The Blechyndens do their own classing and Cyril said that selection takes place throughout the year as the sheep come through the yards.

However, he shears all the stud sheep on the property and says he can learn the type of skin and feel of the wool qualities of the sheep when they are shorn.

"We do not have any stringent culling percentages, but it depends on the quality of the drop," he said.

The 2,240 ha, family property on the Brookton and Beverley Road runs about 500 stud ewes and about 100 rams are sold annually. In addition, 1,800 stud ewes and 1,100 wethers are run.

At the 1978 Perth sales they paid $4,000 for an East Bungaree ram and his sons will be available for sale this year. Mr. Bruce Blechynden said they look good.

Other rams are by syndicate mating of sons of Annandale rams and east Bungaree sires which the two families run on the farm.

Caption, see above: Bruce (left) and Cyril Blechynden with one of the rams to be offered in the Beverley ram sale on Oct 17.

Beverley Times (WA: 1905 - 1977), Fri 26 Aug 1960, pg 1

26 Aug 1960 - "BURNSIDE" RAM BRINGS 280 GUINEAS \(nla.gov.au\)

"BURNSIDE" RAM BRINGS 280 GUINEAS

... A Bungaree blood ram bred, by Messrs. B. E. D. Blechynden & Sons, of "Burnside", Mt Kokeby, realised top price of 280 guineas at the second annual ram sale held at Beverley on Friday last. The purchaser was Mr. L. J. Harvey, of 14 mile brook via Williams and the ram was sold through Messrs. Westralian Farmers Ltd. Messrs. Blechynden & Sons team of 20 rams averaged 70 ½ guineas.

The following article shows that present generations are following in their ancestors' footsteps.

Thirty-kilogram fleece from a Western Australian sheep could top the world record.

ABC Rural by Olivia Garnett Posted Thu 11 Sep 2014

Thirty-kilogram fleece from a Western Australian sheep could top the world record - ABC News

Right: This wether was found in the Avon Valley after running wild for up to four years. His owner says the wool clip weighed in at 30 kilograms.

*Courtesy of Mark Blechynden
(Son of Cyril Blechynden)*

The world's woolliest sheep might just be Western Australian.

There has been much hype this month about Shaun the sheep from Tasmania, who became an international star after growing a fleece that weighed-in at around 23 kilograms.

But Mark Blechynden, from Brookton, in the Avon Valley in the south of Western Australia, says he had a merino wether with a 30-kilogram wool clip in 2011.

"We got a phone call from my neighbour to say that there was a sheep running around along the river and because they didn't have any sheep, they guessed it was one of ours", he explained.

"And yes, it was one of ours and it had been up there for quite some time by the look of the wool on it. We had to go home and get the front-end loader because we couldn't lift it. He was carrying a lot of weight, so we rolled it into the front-end loader bucket and carried him down to the shearing shed and sheared him."

Mr Blechynden believes the sheep escaped his property through a temporary fence when the river flooded. Judging by the length of the wool, he thinks it had been on the run for three or four years.

"It was quite a nice fleece, probably 22 micron," he said.

"The outside of it didn't really look much different to an ordinary fleece. It just had a lot more white wool underneath."

After giving family members samples of the 42-centimetre-long locks of wool as mementoes, Mr Blechynden bailed up the wool like any other fleece and sold it.

"We'll look back through our records and see if we can trace it down," he said.

He shears his sheep flock annually and gets an average wool clip of eight kilograms from each animal.

He's amazed this wether lasted on its own for so long, but says there's plenty of tree shelter and fresh water that would have kept him going.

"He wasn't crutched or drenched or anything like that. You would've thought he'd get fly-blown and died way before that.

"It's unbelievable really."

Mr Blechynden says he didn't think much of it at the time and didn't photograph the scales measuring the fleece.

If it can be proven, this woolly Avon Valley sheep would take the 'world's woolliest sheep' title from New Zealand record holder, Shrek, whose fleece weighed 27 kilograms.

Beverley Times (WA: 1905 - 1977), Fri 9 Jul 1954, pg 2

09 Jul 1954 - A FAMILY OF MARKSMEN \(nla.gov.au\)

A FAMILY OF MARKSMEN

The sons of Mr. and Mrs Horace Blechynden, Bruce, Frank and Colin, share a common ability in the use of the rifle and all are prominent in rifle club circles with many successes and championship titles to their credit. Latest to record a club championship is the youngest of the trio, Colin, who a fortnight ago won the championship medal of the Quairading club at the same time annexing the Patron's trophy for the best shoot off the rifle for the day.

It was one of Colin's final appearances on the Quairading range where he has been so prominent in recent years. Some months ago, he sold his Quairading farm following the purchase, of a property at West Brookton where he now resides. He has joined up with the Pingelly Club where he will no doubt prove an acquisition.

A FAMILY OF MARKSMEN

The sons of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Blechynden, Bruce, Frank and Colin, share a common ability in the use of the rifle and all are prominent in rifle club circles with many successes and championship titles to their credit.

Latest to record a club championship is the youngest of the trio, Colin, who a fortnight ago won the championship medal of the Quairading club at the same time annexing the Patron's trophy for the best shoot off the rifle for the day.

It was one of Colin's final appearances on the Quairading range where he has been so prominent in recent years. Some months ago he sold his Quairading farm following the purchase of a property at West Brookton where he now resides. He has joined up with the Pingelly Club where he will no doubt prove an acquisition.

Bruce's son, Dennis Blechynden sights in for the start of the shoot, Dec 1976

Bruce Edwin Davis Blechynden died 2 Aug 1993, Beverley, WA. Edna Irene Blechynden (nee Wood) died 12 Dec 2001, Beverley, WA. They are buried together in the Beverley Cemetery.

*Headstone of
Bruce Edwin Davies Blechynden (1908-1993)
and Edna Irene Blechynden (nee Wood) (1908-2001), Beverley Cemetery*

Headstones of Bruce and Edna's first child, Neil Edwin Blechynden (1938-1993) and his wife, Joan Myrtle Blechynden (nee Collard) (1931-1978), Beverley Cemetery.

2nd CHILD OF HORACE BLECHYNDEN & AMY 'ELLA' CRAIG

2. BLECHYNDEN, ELLA 'MURIEL' (1909-1993) was born 20 Sep 1909, Beverley, WA [Reg. 129]. She married JOHN STANLEY 'STAN' SUTHERLAND (1903-1991) on 26 Jul 1933 in Beverley, WA [Reg.31] and together they had five children - John, Geoff, Margaret, Ross and Byron.

Ella 'Muriel' Sutherland (nee Blechynden)

*Muriel, Frank and Bruce
Blechynden.
Courtesy Kathryn Mutton*

Muriel Blechynden, approx eight years

SUTHERLAND, JOHN STANLEY 'STAN' (1903-1991)

Via Jill Houghton Family Tree, Ancestry.

Muriel's husband, 'Stan' Sutherland was born 1903, Young, NSW [Reg. 8822], father, GEORGE JAMES SUTHERLAND (1861-1936), mother, AGNES MARY EVANS (1869-1934).

20 Aug 1933 - Marriage Bell's \(nla.gov.au\)

St Mary's Church. Beverley, was the scene of a pretty wedding on July 26, when Muriel, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Blechynden, of Roselands (sic should be Roesland), Beverley, was married to Stanley, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Sutherland, of Bally Bally. The Rev. Elphick officiated. The church was tastefully decorated with gladioli, Geraldton wax and bridal creeper, and the service was fully choral. The bride, who entered the church on the arm of her father, was gowned in soft ivory angel skin lace, cut in classic lines, the skirt following the mould directoire mode and falling in soft flares at the ankles. The bodice was simple with large puffed sleeves ending in tightly fitting period cuffs at the wrists. The veil was long and of delicate lace caught with sprays of orange blossom, and she carried a sheaf of white roses and gladioli. The bridesmaids. Miss Olive Craig (cousin of the bride) and Miss Jessie Sutherland (sister of the bridegroom) wore sealing wax red velvet made sheath fashion, with small puff sleeves and a hip frill that ended at the waist, caught by hand-made roses of gold tissue. Red and gold turbans were worn and each carried a posy of gold roses. Little June Prior and Audrey McGowen acted as trainbearers, and Betty Parrant made a dainty flower girl. They all wore long white frilled georgette frocks with puff sleeves and coronets of red flowers. Mr. James Sutherland carried out the duties of best man, while Mr. Bruce Blechynden acted as groomsman. During the signing of the register Mrs. V. Parrant sang "Because." The bridal party left the church through a guard of honor formed by Girl Guides, after which a reception was held at the Beverley Mechanics' Institute, where Mr. and Mrs. Blechynden received 140 guests, Mrs. Blechynden wearing a charming frock and cape of Burgundy crinkley crepe morocain with gold finishings and crushed velvet trimmings to match. A bouquet of gold roses completed her toilet. Mrs Sutherland looked well in black satin with toque to match, and her bouquet was of red roses. During the breakfast the usual toast list was enthusiastically honored. Later in the evening the happy couple left for their honeymoon, the bride travelling in a smart suit of Wedgewood blue elephant skin crepe with adornment of steel and grey fur. With this were worn snake skin shoes and blue hat. Mr. and Mrs. Stan Sutherland will make their future home in Cunderdin.

Agnes Mary Evans was born 30 Jun 1869, Sydney, NSW [Reg. 1749]. Father, JAMES EVANS (1846-1922), mother, SARAH HAWKINS (1840-1918). She died 5 Jul 1934, Beverley, WA [Reg. 22].

SUTHERLAND, Agnes Mary. Wife of George J, mother of Syd, Lou, Stan, Les, Ruby, Jessie and James. 5 Jul 1934, aged 65 years.

George and Agnes Sutherland had 11 children. They moved as a family from NSW to WA. The Postal Directory recorded George as being a farmer at Mt Kokeby in 1915. His son, Eric George Sutherland signed his Attestation papers in the Imperial Australian Forces, Perth, 30 Jul 1917. Details of their children are as follows:

1. ELSIE D SUTHERLAND (1894-1898) was born 1894, Marrickville, NSW [Reg. 20312]. She died aged 4 years in 1898, Young, NSW [Reg. 12174].

2. LEO J SUTHERLAND (1895-1895) was born in Young, NSW [Reg. 18676]. He died as a baby, Young, NSW [Reg. 7006].

3. SYDNEY RONALD SUTHERLAND (1897-1980) was born 1897, NSW [Reg. 37240]. He died 28 Aug 1980, Geraldton, WA.

4. ERIC GEORGE SUTHERLAND (1899-1918) was born 1899, Bendick Murrell, NSW [Reg. 36416]. Service Number – 8035. Place of Enlistment - Perth WA, signed 30 Jul 1917. Farm hand, age 18 years 10 months. Eric was Killed in Action, in France 23 Aug 1918. Buried at Proyard Wood Military cemetery, 7 ½ miles South, South, East of Albert, France. Heath Cemetery, Harbonnieres, France. His Attestation paper shows the following: Legatee Mary Sutherland, Bally, Bally, Mt Kokeby, Beverley, WA. Letters addressed to Mr. G. Sutherland. Mt Kokeby, WA.

5. LOUIS ARTHUR SUTHERLAND (1901-1977) was born 1901, Young, NSW [Reg. 28442]. He married JESSIE DELLA MCLEAN (1908-1980) 1930, Beverley, WA [Reg. 29]. Louis died 1977, Perth, WA.

6. JOHN STANLEY 'STAN' SUTHERLAND (1903-1991) was born 1903, Young, NSW [Reg. 8822]. He married ELLA MURIEL BLECHYNDEN (1909-1993) on 24 Jul 1933 in Beverley, WA [Reg. 129]. Stan died in 1991, buried Katanning Cemetery.

7. LESLIE ROBERT SUTHERLAND (1904-1986) was born 19 Oct 1904, Young, NSW [Reg. 38824]. He married NELLIE MAY FERGUSON (1907-1970) 22 Jun 1936, Beverley, WA [Reg No 33]. Leslie died 29 Jun 1986, South Perth, WA.

8. RUBY ALICE SARAH SUTHERLAND (1906-1989) was born 1906, Young, NSW [Reg. 30803]. She married ALLAN ROBERT MCLEAN (1906-1967) 1933, Beverley, WA [Reg No 13]. Ruby died 11 Dec 1989, Perth, WA.

9. JOHN SUTHERLAND (1908-1908) was born 1908, Young, NSW [20758]. He died as a baby, Young, NSW [Reg No, 7997].

10. JESSE WINIFRED EVANS SUTHERLAND (1909-1978) was born 1909, Young, NSW [43903]. He married CLARENCE EDWIN BLACKBURN DRAPER 1938, Beverley, WA [Reg. 31]. Jesse died 1978, Swan, WA.

11. WILLIAM JAMES SUTHERLAND (1912-2009) was born 1912, Young, NSW [Reg 12247]. He married LILA BEVERLEY EDWARDS in 1943, Perth, WA [Reg. 208]. Lila lived in Beverley at the time. William died 20 Nov 2009, Wagin, WA.

Electoral Roll:

1916, 1931 George James Sutherland, Grosvenor Farm, Bally Bally, farmer, Agnes Mary, ditto.

POSTAL DIRECTORIES

1915, 1916, 1924. Sutherland G J, Farmer Mt Kokeby

WA Livestock Brands 1912-1962

<https://www.carnamah.com.au/livestock-brands?search=Sutherland>

Sutherland Geo Jas Grosvenor Farm, Mt. Kokeby SD8 1924

George James Sutherland died, 11 Sep 1934. Aged 75 years. Mary Agnes Sutherland died 5 Jul 1934. Aged 65 years. Both are buried in the Anglican Cemetery, Beverley.

The following article relates the history of Mr. George Sutherland and his family.

Young Chronicle (NSW: 1902 - 1940), Tue 15 Sep 1936, pg 2
15 Sep 1936 - MR. GEORGE SUTHERLAND. \(nla.gov.au\)

MR. GEORGE SUTHERLAND.

The death took place at his property, Rose Hill, Mount Kokeby, near Beverley, Western Australia, on Friday, of Mr. George Sutherland (75), for most of his life a well-known resident of the Young district. Twenty-two years ago, he took his growing family to the less settled Western State with a view to establishing them on a sounder basis than appeared possible with the growing shortage of land in N.S.W. His ambitions in this direction have been fulfilled, most of his children now having their own properties in Western Australia. He himself went in for merino sheep breeding, and became one of the most prominent winners at Perth Royal Show.

Mr. Sutherland was born on Mountain View, Bendick Murrell, being the eldest son of the late William McIntosh Sutherland, who came to this district from Bathurst in the early days, and the grandson of Major Sutherland, of the Buffs, who voyaged to Australia with General Stewart.

On attaining young manhood, Mr. Sutherland left Mountain View, the home of his parents, and became the owner of Claremont, Bendick Murrell. He was married in Sydney to Miss Evans and raised a large family. Most of his life in the Young district was devoted to the interests of his property and his family, and he had little time for outside work.

On leaving for Western Australia, Mr. Sutherland's property, "Claremont," went back into the Mountain View estate, and it is now owned by Mr. Frank Sutherland.

In West Australia, where he took up bowling as a hobby, Mr. Sutherland kept in close touch with his brothers and sisters at Young, and came here for visits about once every two years. The last was about twelve months ago last Easter, when he was accompanied by members of his family.

After his return to Mt. Kokeby, he became ill and had been under medical care until his death.

His wife pre-deceased him by about three years. Sons are Sidney, Louis, Leslie, Stanley and James, and daughters Ruby and Jessie, all of West Australia. Sydney and James, the eldest and the youngest of the boys, together with Jessie, live at Claremont. The other three boys have their own properties and Ruby is married. Another boy, Eric, was killed in the war. He enlisted in Western Australia in the early days of the outbreak.

Brothers of the late Mr. Sutherland are Will, of Young; Jack, of Glenroy, Bendick Murrell; Tom, of Killarney Bendick Murrell; Bert, of Bendick Murrell; and Frank, of Nasmyth St., Young. Two brothers are deceased. Sisters are Mrs. K. Lyell, of Sydney; Mrs. A. C. Williams, of Mountain View, Bendick Murrell; and Mrs. A. Cameron, of Northbridge, Sydney.

The funeral took place at Beverley on Saturday.

MR. GEORGE SUTHERLAND.

The death took place at his property, Rose Hill, Mount Kokeby, near Beverley, Western Australia, on Friday, of Mr. George Sutherland (75), for most of his life a well-known resident of the Young district. Twenty-two years ago he took his growing family to the less settled Western State with a view to establishing them on a sounder basis than appeared possible with the growing shortage of land in N.S.W. His ambitions in this direction have been fulfilled, most of his children now having their own properties in Western Australia. He himself went in for merino sheep breeding, and became one of the most prominent winners at Perth Royal Show.

Mr. Sutherland was born on Mountain View, Bendick Murrell, being the eldest son of the late William McIntosh Sutherland, who came to this district from Bathurst in the early days, and the grandson of Major Sutherland, of the Buffs, who voyaged to Australia with General Stewart. On attaining young manhood, Mr. Sutherland left Mountain View, the home of his parents, and became the owner of Claremont, Bendick Murrell. He was married in Sydney to Miss Evans and raised a large family. Most of his life in the Young district was devoted to the interests of his property and his family, and he had little time for outside work.

On leaving for Western Australia Mr. Sutherland's property, "Claremont," went back into the Mountain View estate, and it is now owned by Mr. Frank Sutherland.

In West Australia, where he took up bowling as a hobby, Mr. Sutherland kept in close touch with his brothers and sisters at Young, and came here for visits about once every two years. The last was about twelve months ago last Easter, when he was accompanied by members of his family.

After his return to Mt. Kokeby he became ill and had been under medical care until his death.

His wife pre-deceased him by about three years. Sons are Sidney, Louis, Leslie, Stanley and James, and daughters Ruby and Jessie, all of West Australia. Sydney and James, the eldest and the youngest of the boys, together with Jessie, live at Claremont. The other three boys have their own properties and Ruby is married. Another boy, Eric, was killed in the war. He enlisted in Western Australia in the early days of the outbreak.

Brothers of the late Mr. Sutherland are Will, of Young; Jack, of Glenroy, Bendick Murrell; Tom, of Killarney Bendick Murrell; Bert, of Bendick Murrell; and Frank, of Nasmyth St., Young. Two brothers are deceased. Sisters are Mrs. K. Lyell, of Sydney; Mrs. A. C. Williams, of Mountain View, Bendick Murrell; and Mrs. A. Cameron, of Northbridge, Sydney.

The funeral took place at Beverley on Saturday.

RETURNING TO THE STORY OF JOHN STANLEY 'STAN' SUTHERLAND and ELLA MURIEL BLECHYNDEN:

John Stanley Sutherland was 12 years of age when his father listed their address in WA, as Mt Kokeby in 1915. He was 30 years of age when he married Ella Muriel Blechynden in 1933. Muriel and Stan had five children: John, Geoff, Margaret, Ross and Byron Sutherland.

Electoral Rolls:

1925 John Stanley Sutherland, 'Rosehill', Mt Kokeby, farmhand.

1931 John Stanley Sutherland, Pithara, farmer

1936, 1937, 1943 John Stanley Sutherland, Cunderdin, farmer, Ella Muriel, "Murella", Cunderdin, home duties.

1949, 1954, 1958, 1972 John Stanley Sutherland, "Braeside", Katanning, farmer, Ella Muriel, "Braeside", home duties

1977, 1980, John Stanley Sutherland, 17 Carinya Gardens, Katanning, Ella Muriel, ditto.

WA Livestock Brands 1912-1962

<https://www.carnamah.com.au/livestock-brands?search=Scott>

Sutherland J. S. Braeside, Katanning S8J and 38D, 43E 1962

Purchase of 'Chinocup':

LOST NYABING:

In March 1966 Stan and Muriel Sutherland from "Braeside Farm", Katanning, bought Chinocup Farm (when the farm was purchased it was named "Aorangi" and was later changed to "Chinocup" by Geoff and Geraldine (Gerry) Sutherland). Chinocup is an Aboriginal word of unknown meaning.

The farm was run by John, Geoff and Ross Sutherland (brothers) along with help from their father Stan. The farm cost £28,000.00 ($56,000.00) and was bought on a walk-in-walk-out basis. Its area was 4200 acres (1,700 ha) with only 700 acres (284 ha) cleared at time of purchase. . .

Chinocup: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Chinocup,_Western_Australia

Chinocup is a small town in the Great Southern region of WA. It is situated between the towns of Nyabing and Pingrup. The name is named after the nearby Lake Chinocup, which had been recorded when the area was explored in 1879. The name is Aboriginal in origin but its meaning is unknown.

Map showing Katanning, Nyabing and Pingrup

Old Homestead at Chinocup, as per previous link to Lost Nyabing

Stan Sutherland and Muriel (Blechynden) with Margaret, cropped from larger group photo

Stan Sutherland passed away in 1991 and Muriel in 1993. Both are buried in the Katanning Cemetery.

3rd CHILD OF HORACE BLECHYNDEN & AMY 'ELLA' CRAIG

*Wedding photo:
Frank Robus Blechynden and Ella May Wansbrough.
Courtesy Lindsay Adams*

3. BLECHYNDEN, FRANK ROBUS (1910-1995) was Horace and Amy 'Ella' Blechynden's third child. He was born on 22 Dec 1910, registered in 1911, at 'Red Hill', Beverley, WA [Reg. 17]. On 15 Jul 1936, Frank married ELLA MAY WANSBROUGH (1911-1995), in Beverley, WA [Reg. 40]. They initially farmed 'Roesland' and 'Red Hill' in partnership with Frank's parents, Horace Edwin and Amy 'Ella', and took over the properties when Horace passed away. Frank and Ella had only one daughter, Norma, born on 31 Jan 1938. Ella May passed away on 13 Jan 1995 and Frank Robus on 14 Sep 1995, both in Albany, WA, at the age of 84. They are buried together in the Beverley Anglican Cemetery.

Some images and articles from Frank's younger days follow.

Bruce, Frank and Gordon with rabbits, Roesland

Kangaroo and dog, Roesland in background

Note: Gordon in the photo with rabbits, was possibly George Frederick Blechynden, born in 1916, son of Frederick William Blechynden and Edith Savage, grandson of Jesse William Blechynden and Emma Sarah Dunham.

This below certificate was awarded to Scout Frank Blechynden for rescuing a boy from drowning. How proud his parents must have been.

This Certificate is granted to Scout Frank Blechynden, of Beverley Troop, Western Australia in recognition of his gallantry in rescuing a boy from drowning in the river at Beverley in March 1924.

Following is a segment from a much larger article on the scout movement in Beverley in 1925, which includes mention of Franks' certificate.

Daily News (Perth, WA: 1882 - 1955), Mon 27 Apr 1925, pg 7

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article84259584.txt>

No. 32 Troop (Beverley). -The boys went into camp at their 'Speldhurst' camping ground on Thursday evening the 9th instant at 5 p.m., and broke camp the following Tuesday at 9 a.m. Including Scouters, there were 30 members under canvas, and the boys voted it the best camp they had ever had; and it was! The camp was run strictly on the patrol system throughout, and the points awarded and deducted at the morning inspections resulted in a very keen competitive spirit between the four patrols. Fresh camp 'gadgets' were brought forward for the Scouters' notice by the Patrol Leaders each morning. The "Tigers" won the Patrol competition this year, and they well deserved their success. The camp fire concerts were very successful. Easter Monday was 'visitors' day," when about 50 parents and friends came out to see us, providing, as in previous years a very generous feast, which was much enjoyed. Displays were given in life saving, ambulance work and scouting games. Opportunity was taken to present Scout Frank Blechynden with a certificate for rescuing a boy from drowning. A church parade was held at St. Mary's Anglican Church on Sunday, the 19th instant, when a very interesting address was given by his Grace Archbishop Riley. There was a good attendance of the boys, all of whom were members of the Anglican Church. A farewell, in the form of a social and dance, was tendered to A.S.M. Dean Brown in the Beverley Hall on Monday, the 20th instant. Mr. Brown, who has been with the troop for a period of 11 1/2 years, and has held the position of A.S.M. for three years, was presented with a 'Thanks Badge' in recognition of his valuable services to the troop. Dean was very popular with the boys, and will be missed very much. He left Beverley on the 22nd instant to take up farming pursuits in the Wagin district. He has our best wishes for every success. As customary, the troop attended the local Anzac Day services.

No. 32 Troop (Beverley).—The boys went into camp at their "Speldhurst" camping ground on Thursday evening the 9th instant at 5 p.m., and broke camp the following Tuesday at 9 a.m. In the morning Scouts, there were 30 members under canvas, and the boys voted it the best camp they had ever had; and it was!

The camp was run strictly on the patrol system throughout, and the points awarded and deducted at the morning inspections resulted in a very keen competitive spirit between the four patrols. Fresh camp "gadgets" were brought forward for the Scouters' notice by the Patrol Leaders each morning. The "Tigers" won the Patrol competition this year, and they well deserved their success. The camp fire concerts were very successful. Easter Monday was "visitors' day," when about 50 parents and friends came out to see us, providing, as in previous years, a very generous feast, which was much enjoyed. Displays were given in life saving, ambulance work and scouting games. Opportunity was taken to present Scout Frank Blechynden with a certificate for rescuing a boy from drowning.

A church parade was held at St. Mary's Anglican Church on Sunday, the 19th instant, when a very interesting address was given by his Grace Archbishop Riley. There was a good attendance of the boys, all of whom were members of the Anglican Church.

A farewell, in the form of a social and dance, was tendered to A.S.M. Dean Brown in the Beverley Hall on Monday, the 20th instant. Mr. Brown, who has been with the troop for a period of 11 1/2 years, and has held the position of A.S.M. for three years, was presented with a "Thanks Badge" in recognition of his valuable services to the troop. Dean was very popular with the boys, and will be missed very much. He left Beverley on the 22nd instant to take up farming pursuits in the Wagin district. He has our best wishes for every success.

Ella May Wansbrough, aged 21.
Courtesy Lindsay Adams

WANSBROUGH, ELLA MAY (1911-1995) was born 18 May 1911, Beverley, WA [Reg. 95]. Her parents were CHARLES PRANGLE WANSBROUGH (1875-1939), and ADA ADELAIDE LONGHURST (1872-1949).

'Wansbrough and Blechynden History' written by Ella Blechynden (nee Wansbrough):

On her 76th birthday, 18 May 1987, Ella Blechynden (nee Wansbrough) commenced writing the 'Wansbrough and Blechynden History'. The 100 or so handwritten pages are currently being transcribed by her grandson Lindsay Adams. The first pages vividly describe the history of the Wansbrough's, her parents and grandparents and her life growing up in Bally Bally in the Beverley district. It gives a good insight into life on a typical Beverley farm in the 1920's and early 30's. (Full coverage of her story is too extensive to include here. For those interested, please contact Lindsay Adams.)

Ella describes how, in 1898, her father Charles Prangle took up the virgin block from the Government. 1,600 acres at Bally Bally, 13 miles from Beverley, which they called 'Morrell Dale'. Later, he increased the farm size to 3,249 acres.

Some snippets from Ella's writing:

"In 1901 my father and Grandad built a seven-room house on the farm. The house was made of mud bricks plastered in white. All the timber came from the farm, and my Grandad did all the carpentry work. . .

'Morrell Dale' homestead

Ella continues: "In 1903 Charles Prangle Wansbrough married my mother, Adelaide Longhurst, in Beverley. They had four children; two boys and two girls: Joseph (Joe) Melrose, Edward (Ted) Charles, Linda Phoebe and Ella May. . .

Brother Joe started school at Mt Kokeby. He rode a white pony up the sand plain. 10 miles there and 10 miles back. On 17th December 1912, my father and Mr Ken McLean J.P. and Mr Bert Poyser wrote to the Government to get a school in the district, as there were 12 children available to attend. The school was to be an assisted one and received a subsidy of £7 per child. In addition, the parents contributed £3 per child per year to secure a qualified teacher. . . The school was opened on 7th September 1914 in the supper room of the Bally Bally Hall with desks and furniture from the school at Yarling. . . In May 1915, at the age of four years, I had to go to school to make up the numbers to allow the school to stay open and the teacher to stay. . .

Unfortunately, the 1914 and 1915 summers proved to be very hot and uncomfortable in the supper room. So, my Father wrote to the Education Department to get a school on the five acres of Reserve (block 8820, which was 15 chain from the Bally Bally Hall). . . The Bally Bally School was completed in July 1917.. .

Each of us left the Bally Bally School when we were 12 years old and went to the Midland Junction School on the corner of York Road. The standard of the Midland Junction School was much higher than at Bally Bally. It taught everything, and we left school at 14 or 15. We stayed with Auntie Phoebe and Uncle Bert Brown, whose home was at 25 Sayer St, Midland Junction.

In 1927 I met Frank Blechynden at a dance in the Beverley Hall.. . The Blechynden boys, including Colin, were very much into rifle shooting. Their father Horace and uncle Frank were founding members of the Beverley club. The first range was only half a mile away from Roesland, where they shot into a hill between Horace's Roesland and Uncle Frank's Red Hill a mile further on. Some years later, the range was moved to the present location, where Horace won the Gold Medal for the best score on opening the new range. . .

In 1928 both Frank and Bruce joined the Bally Bally Rifle Club and came shooting every Sunday morning. The Bally Bally range was near the school on Carr's farm, shooting into the hill. Ted, my brother, brought Frank home to Morrell Dale for lunch. After doing the washing up, we all went to play tennis till dark. Most of the players would then go to either the Sutherland's or the Wansbrough's places for tea – twenty or more quite often. After that, we would have a sing-song. And sometimes, when the moon was full, the couples would play hide and seek around the sheds, rocks, etc. Then, at 11 o'clock, we would be called in for supper. After all the visitors had gone home and my family had retired for the night, Frank and I waited till Bruce turned up to take Frank home at about 12 o'clock. Our courting went on for many years.

After looking for a week for a job, I got one at Guildford Grammar School as the Assistant Matron of the Prep school. I earned £1 a week and could stay at the school, but I would rather stay at Auntie's at night. . . After every term, I took the train to Beverley to stay with Mum and Dad. The train trip took six hours when on time. . . When at home for Christmas in 1935, Frank and I, with our parent's consent, set the date for our wedding as 15th July 1936. After we made plans for our house on the farm in February, I went back to work. . . With one of our working men, Don McKay, Frank made the bricks for our home with mud and clay. Our first home had two bedrooms, a lounge-dining room, kitchen, larder and bathroom. A passage ran through it and a veranda around it. . .

When the bricks had hardened, the Davey brothers built our home on the top of a hill with a good view. It was half a mile from the main road and about a mile from the railway line and Avon River to its east. All around the house, we could see most of the Red Hill and Roesland property. And, at night, we could see the lights of Beverley five miles away. It was lovely, and my father named it Bon View. . .

We were married in Saint Mary's Anglican Church in Beverley on the 15th of July 1936 by the Reverend Elphick. Our wedding breakfast was in the Lesser Hall with 125 guests, relations and friends. It all went off very well. . .

August 1936 was very exciting for me being married to Frank, getting a new house on the farm and a new blue enamel stove with a top of stainless steel. Our wood floors were fully covered with lino. There were so many jobs to do in the new house, including putting up a shed and a room for a working man, building a chook shed and fencing around the house. Frank was very busy with those jobs and the farm work as well. I was just as busy painting the floors with black boy gum and methylated spirits, shining like a new pin.

Beverley Times (WA: 1905 - 1977), Fri 7 Aug 1936, pg 3

07 Aug 1936 - WEDDING. \(nla.gov.au\)

WEDDING

BLECHYNDEN-WANSBROUGH

St. Mary's Church, Beverley, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Jul 15, when the marriage was solemnised between Ella, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Wansbrough, Forrest St, Beverley, and Frank, second son of Mr. and Mrs. H.E. Blechynden, of " Roesland," Beverley. The Rev. Elphick officiated and Miss de Lisle presided at the organ. The church had been tastefully decorated by friends for the occasion.

The bride who was given away by her father, was charmingly gowned in white matelassé, fashioned with a shirred front and inlets of lace clasped with two diamantes and shirred bishop sleeves, the skirt

WEDDING.

BLECHYNDEN-WANSBROUGH.

St. Mary's Church, Beverley, was the scene of a pretty wedding on July 15, when the marriage was solemnised between Ella, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Wansbrough, Forrest St., Beverley, and Frank, second son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Blechynden, "Roeland," Beverley. The Rev. Elphick officiated and Miss de Lisle presided at the organ. The church had been tastefully decorated by friends for the occasion.

The bride who was given away by her father, was charmingly gowned in white mattenase, fashioned with a shirred front and inlets of lace clasped with two diamantes and shirred bishop sleeves, the skirt being cut to form a train; her tulle veil was held in place with a coronet of orange blossom. A sheaf of roses and lilies completed her toilette.

She was attended by her two cousins as bridesmaids, Miss Linda Brown and Miss Thelma Hunt, who both wore graceful close-fitting frocks of pink and silver cellophane crepe featuring double puff sleeves, and slightly cowed necks; they wore miniature pink tulle veils caught with a halo of pink and silver leaves and each carried a sheaf of roses and gladiolas to tone.

Mr. C. H. Blechynden ably performed the duties of best man and Mr. R. Kilpatrick acted as groomsmen.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Wansbrough held a reception at the Masonic Hall where they were assisted in receiving the guests by Mr. and Mrs. Blechynden.

Mrs. Wansbrough wore a frock of brown moracain with smart felt hat to match and carried a posy of daphne and roses. Mrs. Blechynden chose a frock of floral wine moracain with a becoming black hat and carried a posy of violets and maiden hair fern.

The Rev. Elphick presided at the reception where the usual toasts were honoured.

During the evening the young couple left by car for their honeymoon, the bride travelling in a smart frock of wine french ottoman, with hat and other accessories to match.

being cut to form a train: her tulle veil was held in place with a coronet of orange blossom. A sheaf of roses and lilies completed her toilette.

She was attended by her two cousins as bridesmaids, Miss Linda Brown and Miss Thelma Hunt, who both wore graceful close-fitting frocks of pink and silver cellophane crepe featuring double puff sleeves, and slightly cowed necks; they wore miniature pink tulle veils caught with a halo of pink and silver leaves and each carried a sheaf of roses and gladiolas to tone.

Mr. C. H. Blechynden ably performed the duties of best man and Mr. R. Kilpatrick acted as groomsmen.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Wansbrough held a reception at the Masonic Hall where they were assisted in receiving the guests by Mr. and Mrs. Blechynden.

Mrs. Wansbrough wore a frock of floral wine marocain with a becoming black hat and carried a posy of violets and maidenhair fern.

The Rev. Elphick presided at the reception where the usual toasts were honoured.

During the evening the young couple left by car for their honeymoon, the bride travelling in a smart frock of wine french ottoman, with hat and other accessories to match.

The next section contains details of Ella May Wansbrough's family.

CHARLES PRANGLE WANSBROUGH (1875-1949) and ADA ADELAIDE LONGHURST (1872-1949) were married 7 Apr 1904, Beverley, WA [Reg. 3].

Charles Prangle Wansbrough and Ada Adelaide Wansbrough (nee Longhurst).
Their portraits hang at the 'Red Hill' homestead built by Frank Harrison Blechynden in 1909, now occupied by descendant David Adams and his wife Gina.

Charles was born on 6 Oct 1875 in Perth, WA [Reg. 16725]. His parents, JOSEPH WANSBROUGH (1851-1935) and MATILDA STYRING MASSINGHAM (1854-1938), were married 22 Dec 1874, York, WA [3848]. Charles died on 12 May 1939 in Beverley, WA [Reg. 16].

*Charles Prangle Wansbrough and Horace Blechynden, 1912.
Courtesy Suzanne Halsall*

Ada was born on 29 May 1872 in Melrose, SA. Her parents, JOHN LONGHURST (1831-1906) and SARAH CHALLINGER (1837-1895), were married 19 Jul 1854, Melbourne, VIC [Reg. 2074]. Ada died on 29 Jul 1949 in Mount Hospital, Perth, WA [Reg. 1630].

Charles and Ada had four children as follows:

1. JOSEPH 'JOE' MELROSE WANSBROUGH (1905-1976) was born 23 Apr 1905, Beverley, WA [Reg No 5]. On 4 Jul 1929 he married EDITH BETSY CHESTER (1907-1999), Beverley, WA [Reg. 25]. Joe died 11 Dec 1976, Beverley, WA.
2. EDWARD 'TED' CHARLES JOHN WANSBROUGH (1907-1991) was born 19 Jan 1907, Beverley, WA [Reg. 26]. On 31 Jan 1933, he married EVELYN MAY CHESTER (1908-), Beverley, WA [Reg No. 4]. Ted died 27 Jul 1991, Albany, WA.
3. PHOEBE 'LINDA' WANSBROUGH (1909-2004) was born 4 Mar 1909, Beverley, WA [Reg. 45]. On 3 Apr 1934, she married WILLIAM THOMAS ROBINS (1908-2004), Beverley, WA [Reg. 22]. Linda died 29 Apr 2004, Beverley, WA.
4. ELLA MAY WANSBROUGH (1911-1995) was born 18 May 1911, Beverley, WA [Reg. 95]. On 15 Jul 1936, she married FRANK ROBUS BLECHYNDEN (1910-1995) in Beverley, WA [Reg. 40].

BEVERLEY TENNIS CLUB, 1899
1946 Beverley Book, pg 17

Back: C.P. Wansbrough, Rev. Secombe (Methodist), G.M. Wansbrough, A. Leach (Postmaster), Miss M. Edwards (now M.E. Ford), Mr. E.J. Monger.
Front: Miss Davey, Miss Hilda Davey (now Mrs. Loftus), Miss Sewell (now Mrs. G.M. Wansbrough), Miss A. Edwards (now Mrs. Butland), Miss K Joyce (now Mrs. Hearne), Miss Mary Joyce (now Mrs. Sullivan).

Names of some of the people mentioned in the Tennis photo 1899 and their marriages, most after 1899:

Charles Prangle Wansbrough married Ada Adelaide Longhurst 1904, Beverley WA [Reg. 3].
 George Murray Wansbrough (1874-1954) married Una Sewell 1901, Beverley, WA [Reg. 7].
 Margaret Edwards married Ernst Ford, 1898, Fremantle, WA [Reg. 10].
 Agnes Matilda Edwards married Alfred Butland, 1901, Fremantle, WA [Reg. 725].
 Hilda Jane Davey married Percival Thomas Loftus, 1901, Fremantle, WA [Reg. 582].
 Kate Joyce married Walter M Hearn, 1906, Perth, WA [Reg. 478].
 Mary Joyce married John Sullivan, 1905, Beverley, WA [Reg. 15].

Where the two Edwards ladies in the Beverley Tennis Club photo fit in:

Margaret Edwards (1873-1958) is the ninth child of Thomas Edwards (1833-1907) and Ann Maria Griffith (1830-1890). She was born in 1873, Beverley, WA [Reg. 14853]. She married Ernst Ford (1872-1959), 1898, Beverley, WA [Reg. 10]. Margaret died on 9 Feb 1958 in York, WA [Reg. 5].

Agnes Matilda Edwards (1872-1954) is the seventh child of William Edwards (1792-1865) and Eleanor Ayling (1798-1871). She was born 6 May 1872, Beverley [Reg No. 13795]. In 1901, she married Alfred Butland (1876-1958) in Fremantle, WA [Reg. 725]. Agnes died 2 Jul 1954, Fremantle, WA [Reg. 239].

GROUP PHOTO TAKEN A. N. A. SPORTS DAY, ABOUT 1900.

1946 Beverley Book, p. 11

(Front Row): John Dexter, J. Wansbrough, ----, S.C. Chester, T Brody, H. G. Langsford, E. Ford, W. Voules Brown, A Wansbrough, H. J. Iles, C. P. Wansbrough, W. McGrisken, E. G. B. Lennard.
 (Back Row): C. Williams, Gould S. Makin, T. Davey, M. Edwards, ----, W. J. Langsford, O. Edwards, ----, Mr. Blechynden, ----, Surveyor Wilson.

The following Obituary gives an excellent summary of the history of Charles Prangle Wansbrough and his family.

Beverley Times (WA: 1905 - 1977), Fri 19 May 1939, pg 5.

19 May 1939 - OBITUARY \(nla.gov.au\)

OBITUARY

CHARLES PRANGLE WANSBROUGH

With the passing on May 12 of Mr. Charles Prangle Wansbrough death has removed one of Beverley's best-known identities, and one who over a long period of years has played a prominent part in the political, social and sporting life of the district. Up till a few years ago he led a very active life, being prominently associated with many movements, but ill- health forced him into retirement, and the evening of his days was spent at his home in Forrest Street, Beverley. For over twelve months he had been unable to move about without assistance, and death, which resulted from a heart attack, came, in the circumstances, as a release from suffering. At the time of his demise, he was aged 63 years.

Deceased was the eldest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wansbrough, who were amongst the first settlers in the Beverley district. He was educated at York and Perth and as a young man, in company with two brothers, entered the service of the Railway Department. Whilst so engaged they took up land at Bally Bally and shortly afterwards left the service to devote their time and talent to the development of the property. Later the partnership was dissolved and the farm was carried on by the subject of this notice. Early in the present century he married Miss Ada Longhurst, of Northam, and of the union were born four children, these being Joseph, Edward, Linda (Mrs. Robins) and Ella (Mrs. F. Blechynden). These, together with a widow, are left to mourn his passing. The sympathy of a district-wide circle of friends goes out to them in their bereavement.

Association with Road Board

Taking a keen interest in the development of the district in which his interests were centred, the late Mr. Wansbrough, as a young man, was elected to the old East Beverley Road Board, on which he served right up to the time of its amalgamation with the Beverley Board. Following the amalgamation, he continued as a representative of his portion of the district and was later to serve as a chairman. He was associated with the Beverley Board at the time of the merging of the Board and Municipality, and in all gave twenty-five years of service in the conduct of local government affairs.

Political Service

It was whilst he was chairman of the Beverley Board that he was prevailed upon to contest the Beverley seat in the Legislative Assembly. He had always taken a keen interest in affairs of State, particularly as they affected the farming community, and his entry into the political arena was successful, he being elected for a term of three years, subsequently serving two further terms in the Assembly. His nine years representation of the district was marked by much organising work on behalf of farmers movements in this State and although he did not often contribute to the debates in the House, he did much practical work and lost no opportunity of furthering the interests of his district. Of his political record one of the finest compliments was paid him by a city daily when it referred to him as "one of the straightest men to ever enter the House." He was an enthusiastic member of the old Farmers and Settlers Association and his interest continued when it became the Primary Producers' Association. The Farmers' Cooperative movement also claimed his enthusiastic support and he did much to further the movement throughout the State. Up to a few months before his death he was a Director of Westralian Farmers' Ltd., and he was prominently associated with the formation of the local Company of which he was made a director in 1919, serving in this capacity for many years.

Sporting Activities

In the sporting sphere deceased had several interests, the most prominent up to the time of his forced retirement being his love of the gun with which he was most capable. He never missed an opportunity to participate in a duck-shooting outing and was a prominent figure on lakes and river on the occasion of the annual opening of the shooting season. Rifle shooting also claimed his attention at one period, but in later years of his life it was in bowls that he found the most enjoyment. He took the keenest interest in the local Club and served a period as President. Other bodies found in him a good supporter and he has held office in almost every Club and Society in this district.

The Funeral

OBITUARY

CHARLES PRANGLE
WANSBROUGH

With the passing on May 12 of Mr. Charles Frangle Wansborough, death has removed one of Beverly's best-known identities, and has placed on a shining pedestal of years his whole prominent part in the political, social and sporting life of the district. Up till a few years ago he led a very active life, being prominently associated with many movements, but ill health forced him into retirement, and the evening of his days was spent at his home in Forrest Street, Beverly. For over twelve months he had been unable to move about without assistance, and death, which resulted from a heart attack, came, in the circumstances, as a release from suffering. At the time of his demise he was aged 63 years.

Deceased was the eldest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wansbrough, who were amongst the first settlers in the Beverley district. He was educated at York and Perth and as a young man, in company with two brothers, entered the service of the Railway Department. Whilst so engaged they took up land at Baily Baily and shortly afterwards left the service to devote their time and talent to the development of the property. Later the partnership was dissolved and the farm was carried on by the subject of this notice.

Early in the present century he married Miss Ada Longhurst, of North am, and of the union were born four children, these being Joseph, Edward, Linda (Mrs. Robins) and Ella (Mrs. F. Blechyn den). These, together with a widow, are left to mourn his passing. The sympathy of a district-wide circle of friends goes out to them in their bereave

Association with Road Board.

Taking a keen interest in the development of the district in which his interests were centred, the late Mr. Wansbrough, as a young man, was elected to the old East Beverley Road Board, on which he served right up to the time of its amalgamation with the Beverley Board. Before the amalgamation he con-

Following the amalgamation he continued as a representative of his portion of the district and was later to serve as a chairman. He was associated with the Beverley Board at the time of the merging of the Board and Municipality, and in all gave twenty five years of service in the conduct of local government affairs.

Political Service

It was whilst he was chairman of the Beverley Board that he was prevailed upon to contest the Beverley seat in the Legislative Assembly. He had always taken a keen interest in affairs of State, particularly as they affected the farming community, and his entry into the political arena was successful, he being elected for a term of three years, subsequently serving two further terms in the Assembly. His nine years representation of the district was marked by much organising work on behalf of farmers movements in this State and although he did not often contribute to the discussion in the House, he did much practical work and lost no opportunity of furthering the interests of his district. Of his political record one may say that he was a man who was in a city daily when he referred to him as "one of the straightest men to ever enter the House." He was an enthusiastic member of the Farmers' Union, the Grange, the National Association and the State Association and his interest continued when it became the Primary Producers Association. The Farmers' Union was his favorite organization and he gave enthusiastic support and he did much to further the movement throughout the State. Up to a few months before his death he was president of the Western Farmers' Ltd., and he was prominently associated with the formation of the local Company of which he was president from 1910 to 1919, serving in this capacity for many years.

Sporting Activities.
In the sporting sphere deceased had several interests, the most prominent up to the time of his forced retirement being his love of the gun with which he was most capable. He never missed an opportunity to participate in a duck-shooting outing and was a prominent figure on lakes and river on the occasion of the an and river on the occasion of the annual opening of the shooting season. Rifle shooting also claimed his attention at one period, but in latter years of his life it was in bowls that he found the most enjoyment. He took the keenest interest in the local Club and served a period as President. Other hobbies found in him a good supporter and he has held office in almost every Club and Society in

The Funeral.
The funeral of the deceased took place on Saturday afternoon and was attended by an exceptionally large gathering, many visitors from other centres being present. The Rev. J. L. Brown spoke of the life of service which had been lived by the departed citizen and gave a message of ed citizen and gave a message of comfort to the bereaved at a preliminary service at St. Mary's Anglican Church prior to the last rites at the Cemetery. The pall bearers were Messrs. F. Longe, A. A. Woods, J. K. McLean, F. Kolpatrick, F. Blechenden, G. E. L. Wrench, F. Davy, W. H. Bateman, H. Blechenden, E. Ford, J. Adamson and N. T. Edwards. Funeral arrangements were carried out by Mr. E. H. Fairhead, and wreaths and floral tributes were received from the following:

His loving wife, Marc and Al; Phyllis and Linda; Eric, Frank and Norma; John, Edna and Mary; William and Mary; and their children, Virginia, Vada and Gus. Also Mary, Lou, Bill and Colin. Members of Beverly's bowling club, The Ridgway family. Beverly Agricultural Society, The Executive Council of Co-operative Farmers of W. Va. and the Farm Management and Staff of the West Virginia Farmers' Ltd., The Directors and Staff of The Beverly Farmers Co-operative, J. C. W. Co., The Farmers and Co. Ltd., Mr. and Mrs. Heyman and family, Nelson and Bern, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Edwards, Ruby and Ernest; and the family of J. T. W. Co. and Fred Harvey and family, Mr. and Mrs. H. Johnson, Sen. Carol, Beane and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Jackson and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Jackson and Boys, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Biedendyck and Miss Roberts, Jim, Clara Mann

Sham and Grace; Mr and Mrs Doug Murray; Mr. Lucas and Dick; Mary and Jim McDonald; Mr and Mrs Geo Carr and family; Berrie and Don Robins; W A & J K McLean and families; Mr and Mrs W R Gillespie; Jack, Della and family; Mr and Mrs D H Forster and family; Mr and Mrs Don Young and family; Syd and Kate Bachymond; Mr and Mrs Tickle and family; Royce, Allan and family; Mrs family; Robert, Allan and family; Muril, Stan and family; Bruce and Edna; Horace and Ella Borchgrevink; Mr and Mrs W L Price; Mrs Ferguson and family; Neil, Len, Syd and Jim; Mrs Draper; Jess, Clarence and Norrie; Mrs M A Hack; Mr and Mrs Frank Barrett Lennard; Jarvis, Robert Duncan and family; Mr and Mrs W H Baseman and May; Mr and Mrs C Prior; Mr and Mrs J R & H D Ed wardly, Mr and Mrs J J Adamson, Mrs Adamson, Mr and Mrs R S Williams, Mr and Mrs Frank Lodge, Mrs R G Hunter, Ted, Peg and Margaret, Mr and Mrs R C Smith and Mr S Smith, Frank and Sheila McDonald, Mr and Mrs Aiken and family, Jack, Madge and Delia Fow, Mr and Mrs Chester

The funeral of the deceased took place on Saturday afternoon and was attended by an exceptionally large gathering, many visitors from other centres being present. The Rev. I. L. Brown spoke of the life of service which had been lived by the departed citizen and gave a message of comfort to the bereaved at a preliminary service at St Mary's Anglican Church prior to the last rites at the Cemetery. The pall bearers were Messrs. F. Lodge, A. A. Woods, J. K McLean, F. Kilpatrick, F. Blechynden, G E. L. Wrench, F Davey. W. H, Bateman, H. Blechynden, E. Ford, J, Adamson and R. T. Edwards. Funeral arrangements were carried out by Mr, E. H. Fairhead, and wreaths and floral tributes were received from the following:

His loving wife; Perc and Al; Phoebe and Linda; Ella, Frank and Norma; Joe, Edie and Boys; Will Lizzie and Family; Sid, Elsie and Verbie, Viola and Gra; Aunt Mary; Lin, Bill and Colin; Members of Beverley Bowling Club; The Ridgeway families; Beverley Agricultural Society; The Executive Council of Co-operative Federation of W.A.; The Directors, Management and Staff of the Westralian Farmers Ltd; The Directors and Staff of The Beverley Farmers' Co-operative Co.: The Staff, Elder Smith and Co. Ltd.; Mr and Mrs Hayman and family; Nell and Bert; Mr and Mrs L A Edwards, Ruby and Ernest; Mr and Mrs J T Willey; Mr and Mrs Fred Davey and family; Mr and Mrs H Johnson Senr.; Cecil, Bessie and family; Mr and Mrs Thos Jackson and Sam; Mr and Mrs A. A. Wood and family; Mr and Mrs Alec Murray and Boys; Mr and Mrs F H Blechynden and Miss Robins; Jim, Clara Mann; Stan and Grace; Mr and Mrs Doug Murray, Mr. Lucas and Dick; Mary and Jim McDonald; Mr and Mrs Geo. Carr and family; Bessie and Don Robins; W A & J K. McLean and families; Mr and Mrs W R Gillespie; Jack. Delia and family; Mr. and Mrs D H Forbes and family; Mr and Mrs Don Young and family; Syd and Kate Blechynden; Mr and Mrs Tickle and family; Ruby, Allan and family; Muriel, Stan and family; Bruce and Edna; Horace and Ella Blechynden; Mr and Mrs W L Price; Mrs Ferguson and family; Nell, Les, Syd and Jim; Mrs Draper, Jess, Clarence and Norrie; Mrs M A Hack; Mr and Mrs Frank Barrett Leonard; Janie, Robert Doncon and family; Mr and Mrs W H Bateman and May; Mr and Mrs C Prior; Mr and Mrs J R & H D Edwards; Mr and Mrs J J Adamson; Mrs Adamson; Mr and Mrs R S Williams; Mr and Mrs Frank Lodge; Mrs R G Hunter; Ted, Pep and Margaret; Mr and Mrs R C Smith and Mr Smith; Frank and Sheila McDonald; Mr and Mrs Aiken and family; Jack, Madge and Delys Fleay; Mr and Mrs Chester and family; Mr and Mrs Simmons; Mrs Collard, Rich and Myrtle; Mr and Mrs G E L Wrench; Mr and Mrs E Ford, Rita and Susie; Mr and Mrs W M Young; Audrey and Eddie Woods; Mr and Mrs Swan and family and Dolly; Mr and Mrs F Kilpatrick and family; Enid and Jack; J L McGowan; Jess and Lou Sutherland and family; Mr and Mrs Peter Edwards and family; Clayton and Mollie and W J Hastings; Tom and Essie Burgess.

Continuing with the story of FRANK ROBUS BLECHYNDEN AND ELLA MAY WANSBROUGH:

Frank Robus and his wife Ella May were working on two properties 'Red Hill' and 'Roesland' together with Frank's father Horace and Uncle Frank Harrison Blechynden. They had one daughter, Norma Ella Ada Blechynden, born on 31 Jan 1938, Beverley, WA.

Frank Robus Blechynden, seeding at 'Red Hill'.
Courtesy Lindsay Adams

Electoral Roll:

1936, 1937, 1943, 1949, 1963 Frank Robus Blechynden, Roesland, Beverley, farmer, Ella May, 'Bon View', Beverley, home duties

1972, 1977 Frank Robus Blechynden, Forrest St, Beverley, Ella May, home duties.

BLECHYNDEN PAGES OUT OF A LEDGER DETAILING WAGES PAID

BLECHYNDEN FR: pages out of a ledger detailing wages paid, 1 Aug 1935 – 17 Jul 1936:

BLECHYNDEN FR: pages out of a ledger detailing wages paid, 1 Aug 1936 – 27 Aug 1937

BLECHYNDEN H: pages out of a ledger detailing wages paid, 1 Aug 1935 – 24 Sep 1937:

BLECHYNDEN FR H: pages out of a ledger detailing wages paid, Aug 1937 – May 1939:

Frank and his brothers Bruce and Colin became well known as they excelled in the sport of rifle shooting in the State team and overseas.

Frank Blechynden representing Australia at Bisley, UK in 1956

Three Blechynden brothers representing Western Australia in the Queens Cup in 1960.

L-R Colin and Bruce, Frank at the front

Beverley Times (WA: 1905 - 1977), Fri 11 Feb 1966, pg 1

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article202731714.txt>

Local Shooter in State Team

Champion Beverley rifle shooter Frank Blechynden has been selected as a member of the ten man team which will represent the State in the Commonwealth matches to be fired in Melbourne from the 8th to 13th March. The team with two coaches and a captain-manager will leave by plane on March 5th. The selection occasions no surprise among followers of rifle shooting in Western Australia as Frank has represented the State on four former occasions and in 1956 was in the Australian team which went to Bisley for the Empire fixtures.

He has won the Beverley championship on over twenty occasions.

Frank has been shooting particularly well in recent weeks, and at Albany at the Great Southern Rifle Clubs Union meeting he won the open championship aggregate over the three days against very strong opposition. In addition he won numerous other trophies.

All rifle shooters will join us in congratulating Frank on his selection and will wish him well in the forthcoming important fixtures.

JACK MANUEL IN GREAT FORM

Another Beverley shooter who went to the Albany meeting with Frank was Jack Manuel and he also was in great form shooting much better than has been the case in recent fixtures been the case in recent fixtures. He scored 389 in the grand aggregate and with this score was well in the running. He scored several 49's and figured prominently among the winners of prize money over the carnival.

Jack and Frank teamed in the pairs event and finished second to two Albany shooters, losing top place by one point.

Local Shooter in State Team

Champion Beverley rifle shooter Frank Blechynden has been selected as a member of the ten-man team which will represent the State in the Commonwealth matches to be fired in 'Melbourne from the 8th to 13th March. The team with two coaches and a captain-manager will leave by plane on March 5th. The selection occasions no surprise among followers of rifle shooting in Western Australia as Frank has represented the State on four former occasions and in 1956 was in the Australian team which went to Bisley for the Empire fixtures.

He has won the Beverley championship on over twenty occasions.

Frank has been shooting particularly well in recent weeks, and at Albany at the Great Southern Rifle Clubs Union meeting he won the open championship aggregate over the three days against very strong opposition. In addition, he won numerous other trophies.

All rifle shooters will join us in congratulating Frank on his selection and will wish him well in the forthcoming important fixtures.

JACK MANUEL IN GREAT FORM

Another Beverley shooter who went to the Albany meeting with Frank was Jack Manuel and he also was in great form shooting much better than has been the case in recent fixtures He scored 389 in the grand aggregate and with this score was well in the running. He scored several 49's and figured prominently among the winners of prize money over the carnival. Jack and Frank teamed in the pairs event and finished second to two Albany shooters losing top place by one point.

Beverley Times (WA: 1905 - 1977), Fri 27 Nov 1959, pg 1

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article202793780.txt>

RIFLE SHOOTING

Frank Blechynden Has 21st Title Success

The Beverley Rifle Club wound up a successful season with an all day shoot over four ranges on Sunday last. The occasion marked the conclusion of the contest for the club championship which has been proceeding throughout the season, and saw the success of Frank Blechynden, the Club captain who won the title for the 21st occasion. Such a record is outstanding in W.A. and probably in Australia. In addition to Frank's local successes he has represented the State at Bisley and in meetings in the Eastern States.

He won this year's title by a margin of 11 points with a grand total for all ranges shot over of 860. In second place was Bob Eyre, Beverley Club secretary with 849, whilst Bruce Blechynden was in third position with 840. Jack Manuel finished fourth with 836.

Sunday's Programme

Good weather favoured marksmen on Sunday and some good scores were noted.

Shooting commenced at the 300 yards range for the Roy Abbey trophy. B. and F. Blechynden top scored each with 49. Others to do well were Bob Eyre (47), Bill Fairhead (46) and Roy Wood (46). With handicap added all these reached the possible 50, necessitating a shoot-off. This was won by Fairhead, who dropped only one point. Wood was second and F. Blechynden third.

Jack Manuel scored a 45 and George Holman a 44 at this range.

500 Yards

Fairhead scored well again at the 500 yards range where he recorded a 49 off the rifle. He finished with eight bulls. Next came F. Blechynden (48), E. Wood (47), A. L. Oliver 47, and Bob Eyre, R. Kempton and Jack Manuel, each 46.

After handicaps had been added Blechynden, Wood, Kempton and Fairhead figured in a shoot-off which was won by Blechynden from Fairhead after the two had tied once again. The winner was awarded the Schleicher trophy.

Both Fairhead and F. Blechynden won century spoons with the extra shot allowed them by reason of their range scores.

followed them by reason of their range scores.

600 Yards

The contest at 600 yards which began the afternoon programme saw a tie between Jack Manuel and Louis Grover. Each scored 48's to reach the possible 50 and they shared the trophy which had been presented by Vern Wood.

Manuel and Grover were outstanding here and the next best tallies came from: Eyre and Fairhead (each 45), G. Holman and B. Blechynden (each 44) and R. Wood and C. Watson (each 43).

Day's Only Possible

The contest over the 700 yards range concluded the day's shooting and saw an outstanding performance by young shooter George Holman who put all ten shots in the bull to record the first possible of his shooting career. He received the congratulations of all concerned.

Next followed Eyre with 49, B. Blechynden with 48 and L. Grover with 47. Fred Sewell also shot well at this range and although he recorded a miss he reached 41 and with his 10 handicap reached the possible 50. In the shoot-off with B. Blechynden, Grover Holman and Eyre, he proved the winner.

Day's Aggregates

The Bill Fairhead trophy for the best off-the-rifle aggregate for the four ranges was won by Bob Eyre after a shoot-off with Frank Blechynden. Each had recorded 187 out of the possible 200. B. Blechynden was close up with 186 and Fairhead scored 185.

The off-handicap aggregate for which Mr. Martin Malone for which Mr. Martin Malone had provided a trophy was won by Bill Fairhead with a total of 197, Eyre being second 196, whilst L. Grover finished with 195.

Presentation of Trophies

The day's activities were followed by the presentation of the day's and the season's trophies by the Club president, Mr. F. W. Edwards.

The President took the opportunity of thanking the various trophy donors for the interest shown in the movement. There was no doubt competitive shooting helped to create interest and the keen rivalry engendered had been responsible for many good performances. Thanks was expressed also to the riflemen who had themselves presented trophies.

He congratulated Frank Blechynden, the Club champion, on another fine performance to include in his long record of successes.

Mr. Edwards said he was pleased to have been associated with the Beverley Rifle Club over the years and he took the opportunity of wishing all a happy Xmas and bright New Year. The speaker also referred to the pleasure it gave to see a good supporter of rifle shooting and a former club champion present in the person of Mr. Horace Blechynden.

Honorary to Secretary

An honorarium from members was presented by the Club captain to Bob Eyre, the secretary.

Thanks to the Treasurer (Bruce Blechynden) and to all members for co-operation and the markers were also thanked for good service.

The club has now gone into recess for the summer.

RIFLE SHOOTING

Frank Blechynden Has 21st Title Success

The Beverley Rifle Club wound up a successful season with an all-day shoot over four ranges on Sunday last. The occasion marked the conclusion of the contest for the club championship which has been proceeding throughout the season, and saw the success of Frank Blechynden, the Club captain who won the title for the 21st occasion. Such a record is outstanding in W.A. and probably in Australia. In addition to Frank's local successes, he has represented the State at Bisley and in meetings in the Eastern States.

He won this year's title by a margin of 11 points with a grand total for all ranges shot over of 860. In second place was Bob Eyre, Beverley Club secretary with 849, whilst Bruce Blechynden was in third position with 840. Jack Manuel finished fourth with 836.

Sunday's Programme

Good weather favoured marksmen on Sunday and some good scores were noted.

Shooting commenced at the 300 yards range for the Roy Abbey trophy. B. and F. Blechynden top scored each with 49. Others to do well were Bob Eyre (47), Bill Fairhead (46) and Roy Wood (46). With handicap added all these reached the possible 50, necessitating a shoot-off. This was won by Fairhead, who dropped only one point. Wood was second and F. Blechynden third.

Jack Manuel scored a 45 and George Holman a 44 at this range.

500 Yards

Fairhead scored well again at the 500 yards range where he recorded a 49 off the rifle. He finished with eight bulls. Next came F. Blechynden (48). E. Wood (47), A. L. Oliver 47, and Bob Eyre, R. Kempton and Jack Manuel, each 46.

After handicaps had been added Blechynden, Wood, Kempton and Fairhead figured in a shoot-off which was won by Blechynden from Fairhead after the two had tied once again. The winner was awarded the Schleicher trophy.

Both Fairhead and F. Blechynden won century spoons with the extra shot allowed them by reason of their range scores.

600 Yards

The contest at 600 yards which began the afternoon programme saw a tie between Jack Manuel and Louis Grover. Each scored 48's to reach the possible 50 and they shared the trophy which had been presenter by Vern Wood.

Manuel and Grover were outstanding here and the next best tallies came from Eyre and Fairhead (each 45) G. Holman and B. Blechynden (each 44) and R. Wood and C". Watson (each 43).

Day's Only Possible

The contest over the 700 yards range concluded the day's shooting and saw outstanding performance by young shooter George Holman who put all ten shots in the bull to record the first possible of his shooting career. He received the congratulations of all concerned.

Next followed Eyre with 49. B. Blechynden with 48 and L. Grover with 47. Fred Sewell also shot well at this range and although he recorded a miss, he reached 41 and with his 10 handicap, reached the possible 50. In the shoot-off with B. Blechynden, Grover Holman and Eyre, he proved the winner.

Day's Aggregates

The Bill Fairhead trophy for the best off the-rifle aggregate for the four ranges was won by Bob Eyre after a shoot-off with Frank Blechynden. Each had recorded 187 out of the possible 200. B. Blechynden was close up with 186 and Fairhead scored 185. The off-handicaps aggregate for which Mr. Martin Malone had provided a trophy was won by Bill Fairhead with a total of 197, Eyre being second 196, whilst L. Grover finished with 195.

Presentation of Trophies

The day's activities were followed by the presentation of the day's and the season's trophies by the Club president. Mr. E. W. Edwards.

The President took the opportunity of thanking the various trophy donors for the interest shown in the movement. There was no doubt competitive shooting helped to create interest and the keen rivalry engendered had been responsible for many good performances. Thanks was expressed also to the riflemen who had themselves presented trophies.

He congratulated Frank Blechynden, the Club champion, on another fine performance to include in his long record of successes. Mr. Edwards said he was pleased to have been associated with the Beverley Rifle Club over the years and he took the opportunity of wishing all a happy Xmas and bright New Year. The speaker also referred to the pleasure it gave to see a good supporter of rifle shooting and a former club champion present in the person of Mr. Horace Blechynden.

Honorarium to Secretary

An honorarium from members was presented by the Club captain to Bob Eyre, the secretary.

Thanks to the Treasurer (Bruce Blechynden) and to all members for co-operation and the markers were also thanked for good service. The club has now gone into recess for the summer.

GREAT SOUTHERN MEMORIES BY J. A. JENONI LIMITED EDITION

Courtesy Lindsay Adams: via grandparents Frank and Ella, Christmas gift, 1983.

A compilation of short family histories from the Great Southern (which, in the case of this book, extends to Beverley), included a piece on the Blechyndens of Roesland – Redhill. Pages 20 -21 follow:

BLECHYNDENS OF ROESLAND — REDHILL

Frank and Ella Blechynden, now retired from active farming, usually spend the summer half of the year at their unit in Middleton Beach Road, Albany and the other half at their home in Beverley. Frank's grandfather, Edwin Blechynden owned the property 'Seaton Ross' and Horace Blechynden his son was born there. Later 'Seaton Ross' was sold and 'Roesland' (the name comes from John Septimus Roe, the first surveyor-general of Western Australia) a farm about 4 kilometres south of Beverley, purchased. This was later joined to 'Red Hill', once the property of Uncle Frank and Aunt Alice Blechynden who had no children.

Horace Edwin Blechynden had four children, Bruce (a Brooklyn farmer), Muriel (Mrs Sutherland of Katanning), Colin (retired to Roleystone) and Frank (retired to Beverley).

Horace Blechynden and his brother Frank (Uncle Frank), in the old days carted local sandalwood to Perth. Present day farmers are now studying how to re-establish these rare trees in a district where once they were so plentiful. Frank mentioned that Mr Ernie Edwards of 'The Park' has succeeded in preserving two or three specimens.

One of the little stories that Horace Blechynden told to illustrate how the bush women of the past calmly got on with the job no matter what the circumstances was this one.

As a youngster he was sent through the bush by his mother to get news of a neighbour, Mrs Austin, who was due to have a baby sometime in the near future. It was before telephones and, with only horse transport, news travelled slowly. When Horace arrived Mrs Austin was hanging out the washing and after he made the enquiry merely replied, "Tell your mother I had the baby last night," then calmly went on with her work.

Frank Blechynden, an ardent rifleman in his younger days, represented the State in competitions around Australia. In 1956 he was chosen to shoot at Bisley, that Mecca for riflshooters. While Frank shot bullseyes, Ella and their daughter, Norma, took the opportunity of touring Europe.

Frank remembers the time when six horses and a wagon were used for carting wheat along the corrugated or sandy roads. One of the wheatlumpers who unloaded and stacked their wheat, all in bags, was the late Claude Coates who with his brother Joe came to live in Middleton Road in their retirement. Small horsedrawn harvesters were used on the land which is now covered so quickly by grandson David Adams driving the latest autoheader.

Frank, like many other farmers including my own father, took a great deal of notice of the long range weather forecasting of the late Inigo Jones. He showed me a newspaper cutting in which Inigo Jones claimed there would be a ten year drought starting in the early eighties and that the Murrumbidgee would be one of the Eastern States rivers to dry up.

Eastern States farmers especially will agree that the drought has started but will pray like the rest of us that it does not go on for the ten year period.

Son-in-law Ron Adams and daughter Norma, both keen at tennis and golf, are now in possession of the Roeslands-Red Hill property and also have a farm behind the Albany aerodrome, previously owned by Jack and Judy Tuffley.

One of the Adams sons, David, is with his parents on the farm. He loves the big machinery which is so necessary for present day efficient rural operations. Another son, Lindsay is in the army at Duntroon.

On the 26th of November 1982 the Red Hill farmhouse suffered damage to its roof, and about 1800 acres of crop was lashed by hail.

The Adams family are keen to see trees and growth established again on over-cleared areas especially where salt has appeared. Hundreds of trees are being planted on the property in the hope of reversing past problems.

Frank and Ella, when health permits, enjoy their games of lawn bowls and are almost as well-known among the bowling fraternity in Albany as at their home grounds at Beverley.

Frank and Ella Blechynden celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary, 15 Jul 1986
 Stan & Muriel Sutherland, Frank and Ella Blechynden, Edna and Bruce Blechynden.
 Courtesy Lindsay Adams.

DEATHS OF FRANK ROBUS BLECHYNDEN & ELLA MAY WANSBROUGH

Ella May passed away on 13 Jan 1995 and Frank Robus eight months afterwards on 14 Sep 1995, both in Albany, WA. They are buried together in the Beverley Anglican Cemetery.

Headstone of Frank Robus Blechynden and Ella May Blechynden (nee Wansbrough). Beverley Anglican Cemetery, WA.

Frank Robus Blechynden and Ella May Wansbrough had one child, Norma Ella Ada Blechynden, born in Beverley on 31 Jan 1938.

Norma did all her junior school years at the Beverley State School, often riding her bike the five miles into town from the farm and back again.

Norma aged two with father Frank on the farm tractor.

Norma with bike (Registration BE: 106)

Money was short in those days. Norma, with her father Frank, spent many a night checking traps for rabbits and then delivering them the next morning to the rabbit man who came along the highway to pick them up. Norma, with her pony and pet grey hound, also spent many hours after school chasing foxes - with the Shire paying three shillings per set of ears and tail.

Norma aged 11 with 'Jack', a favourite horse.

Norma aged 12; with her pony.

Of note, the fencing style in the above right photo is called a Harper Fence developed in Beverley by Charles Harper (1842-1912), agriculturist, legislator and newspaper proprietor.

For years 9 and 10, Norma attended Methodist Ladies College in Perth where she was the college tennis champion in her final year.

Norma returned home to the family property of Red Hill to help on her parents' farm. But there was lots of time for sport; and Norma excelled.

Norma, aged 16, playing Country Week tennis at Kings Park.

Norma heading off to play golf in Beverley.

Norma went on to win the Beverley Ladies Championship on ten occasions – and the Avon Valley Championship several times as well.

Norma as a young woman took up golf and became a keen player. An article from Trove describes the dramatic finish to a Golf Tournament in 1959, when at the age of 21 she won the title.

Beverley Times (WA: 1905 - 1977), Fri 31 Jul 1959, pg 4

31 Jul 1959 - GOLF \(nla.gov.au\)

GOLF

Dramatic Finish to Title Event

Under the most dramatic circumstances ever associated with a golf final in Beverley (and possibly in the State) Norma Blechynden on Sunday defeated the former State player, Beryl Eckersley, 2 up, after a 36 holes battle, in which she had staged a great fight back over the final eighteen. Mrs. Eckersley had been three up on the younger player at the midday adjournment but Norma fought back tenaciously and with a string of five bogey holes from the 23rd to the 27th holes, took the lead and hung on grimly to win the title.

The drama came at the final hole of the match which Mrs. Eckersley needed to win to keep the game alive. Her drive was nicely placed on the fairway whilst her opponent's ball, slightly longer, found the trees off the fairway. The rules set out that the player furthest from the hole plays first and there appears to have been some confusion at this stage for Norma played getting the ball out of a difficult position well to finish about three feet from the pin for what looked like an easy putt for a birdie three.

Mrs. Eckersley called attention to the infringement before playing her second shot which finished pin high a few yards from the green. When the players and gallery arrived at the green there was long discussion on the position and the umpire (Mrs. Brenda Brown) ultimately ruled that Norma's ball be recalled and the shot replayed.

Norma returned to the place from which she had played her second and this time her shot finished about ten yards short of the green. Tension had mounted among the spectators and all concerned by this stage and was at its height as the young player shaped up for her third shot. She deliberated for some time before making a perfect stroke. The ball ran straight to the pin, hung momentarily, and then dropped into the cup for a birdie three and the match and title.

The brilliant finish brought applause from all quarters and Mrs. Eckersley was the first to tender congratulations. That it was achieved under such stress as the circumstances had produced is a fine tribute to the courageous qualities and abilities of the young player who thus achieved an ambition she has cherished since taking up the game a few years ago.

GOLF

Dramatic Finish to Title Event

Under the most dramatic circumstances ever associated with a golf final in Beverley (and possibly in the State) Norma Blechynden on Sunday defeated the former State player, Beryl Eckersley, 2 up, after a 36 holes battle, in which she had staged a great fight back over the final eighteen. Mrs. Eckersley had been three up on the younger player at the midday adjournment but Norma fought back tenaciously and with a string of five bogey fairies from the 23rd to the 27th holes, took the lead and hung on grimly to win the title.

The drama came at the final hole of the match which Mrs. Eckersley needed to win to keep the game alive. Her drive was nicely placed on the fairway whilst her opponent's ball, slightly longer, found the trees off the fairway. The rules set out that the player furthest from the hole plays first and there appears to have been some confusion at this stage for Norma played getting the ball out of a difficult position well to finish about three feet from the pin for what looked like an easy putt for a birdie three.

Mrs. Eckersley called attention to the infringement before playing her second shot which finished pin high a few yards from the green. When the players and gallery arrived at the green there was long discussion on the position and the umpire (Mrs. Brenda Broun) ultimately ruled that Norma's ball be recalled and the shot replayed.

Norma returned to the place from which she had played her second and this time her shot finished about ten yards short of the green. Tension had mounted among the spectators and all concerned by this stage and was at its height as the young player shaped up for her third shot. She deliberated for some time before making a perfect stroke. The ball ran straight to the pin, hung momentarily, and then dropped into the cup for a birdie three and the match and title.

The brilliant finish brought applause from all quarters and Mrs. Eckersley was the first to tender congratulations. That it was achieved under such stress as the circumstances had produced is a fine tribute to the courageous qualities and abilities of the young player who thus achieved an ambition she has cherished since taking up the game a few years ago.

At Country Week tennis in 1958, NORMA ELLA ADA BLECHYNDEN met RONALD JAMES ADAMS. They were married in Beverley's St. Mary's Anglican Church on 15 Jul 1960.

Bride, Norma Ella Ada Blechynden with her parents, Frank Robus and Ella May Blechynden (nee Wansbrough)

Bride: Norma Adams (nee Blechynden), grandparents, Horace and Amy 'Ella' Blechynden (nee Craig) and groom, Ron Adams

Beverley Times (WA: 1905 - 1977), Fri 22 Jul 1960, pg 7

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article202797110.txt>

Adams—Blechynden Wedding

St. Mary's Anglican Church, Beverley was indeed a bower of beauty on Friday, July 15th. Skilful and loving hands of many friends had bedecked it with palest pink peach blossom and carnations to greet Norma, lovely and talented only daughter of Frank and Ella Blechynden—popular members of the old pioneering Blechynden family—on the occasion of her marriage to Ron Adams, youngest son of the well-known Adams family of the North Midlands.

The weather, too, was kind and bright sunshine welcomed the bride as she entered the crowded church on her father's arm. She wore a beautiful full length bridal gown of silver embroidered white nylon. The bodice was cut on simple lines with softly rounded neck line and long tight sleeves pointed over the wrists. The very full skirt featured shirred centre panels. Her fingertip length veil of embroidered tulle fell from a dainty headdress of roses and orange blossom. Her bouquet was of fragrant carnations and tuber roses.

Accompanying bridesmaids were Miss Ann Valentine and Miss Maxine Robins (cousin of the bride) wearing dainty identical short frocks of silver embroidered nylon in love-in-the-mist blue and petal pink, respectively.

They too, featured simple bodice lines, and full bouffant skirts. They wore matching gloves and circlets of rosebuds. Shoes were of silver and they carried bouquets of pink carnations and maiden hair fern tied with silver ribbons.

Best man was Mr. Bob Adams (brother of the bride-groom), and Dr. Brian Ketterer was groomsman.

The Rev'd Paul Atkins conducted the ceremony, and during the signing of the Registrar, Dr. Brian Ketterer gave a very fine rendering of Handels "Where ere you walk". Mrs. Hodgson was at the organ.

Later some two hundred guests from the- Beverley and Coorow districts as well as many other parts of the State gathered to enjoy a sumptuous repast. Regrettably absent was the Hon. D. Brand ' (State Premier) and Mrs. Brandt— old friends of the Adams family who were unable to attend.

Mrs. Blechynden received the guests in a beautifully draped gown of mushroom lace over satin. Her smart hat featured the new bone shade. ' Accessories, were in' black and a lovely spray of pink gladioli completed a charming ensemble.

She was assisted; by Mrs. Adams wearing a smart gown of teal blue pure silk with the new shawl collar and sheath skirt. Her hat was of roses in two tones of blue. Accessories were of black and a dainty spray of pink carnations completed a very smart ensemble.

The Chairmanship of the reception was in the capable hands of the Rev'd Paul Atkins with Mrs. Tassie Edwards at the piano.

After the Loyal Toast the health of the Bride was proposed by Mr. Jack, Woods who paid high tribute to Norma's many talents and achievements in the world of sport. She is both a champion golf and tennis player and also an outstanding Junior Farmer. Ron Adams (the bridegroom) is also a champion golf and tennis player in his own district.

Adams—Blechynden Wedding

(Continued)

St. Mary's Anglican Church, Beverley was indeed a bower of beauty on Friday, July 15th. Skilful and loving hands of many friends had bedecked it with palest pink peach blossom and carnations to greet Norma, lovely and talented only daughter of Frank and Ella Blechynden—popular members of the old pioneering Blechynden family—on the occasion of her marriage to Ron Adams, youngest son of the well-known Adams family of the North Midlands.

The weather, too, was kind and bright sunshine welcomed the bride as she entered the crowded church on her father's arm. She wore a beautiful full length bridal gown of silver embroidered white nylon. The bodice was cut on simple lines with softly rounded neck line and long tight sleeves pointed over the wrists. The very full skirt featured shirred centre panels. Her fingertip length veil of embroidered tulle fell from a dainty headdress of roses and orange blossom. Her bouquet was of fragrant carnations and tuber roses.

Accompanying bridesmaids were Miss Ann Valentine and Miss Maxine Robins (cousin of the bride) wearing dainty identical short frocks of silver embroidered nylon in love-in-the-mist blue and petal pink, respectively.

They too, featured simple bodice lines, and full bouffant skirts. They wore matching gloves and circlets of rosebuds. Shoes were of silver and they carried bouquets of pink carnations and maiden hair fern tied with silver ribbons.

Best man was Mr. Bob Adams (brother of the bride-groom), and Dr. Brian Ketterer was groomsman.

The Rev'd Paul Atkins conducted the ceremony, and during the signing of the Registrar, Dr. Brian Ketterer gave a very fine rendering of Handels "Where ere you walk". Mrs. Hodgson was at the organ.

Later some two hundred guests from the- Beverley and Coorow districts as well as many other parts of the State gathered to enjoy a sumptuous repast. Regrettably absent was the Hon. D. Brand (State Premier) and Mrs. Brandt— old friends of the Adams family who were unable to attend.

Mrs. Blechynden received the guests in a beautifully draped gown of mushroom lace over satin. Her smart hat featured the new bone shade. ' Accessories, were in' black and a lovely spray of pink gladioli completed a charming ensemble.

She was assisted; by Mrs. Adams wearing a smart gown of teal blue pure silk with the new shawl collar and sheath skirt. Her hat was of roses in two tones of blue. Accessories were of black and a dainty spray of pink carnations completed a very smart ensemble.

The Chairmanship of the reception was in the capable hands of the Rev'd Paul Atkins with Mrs. Tassie Edwards at the piano.

After the Loyal Toast the health of the Bride was proposed by Mr. Jack, Woods who paid high tribute to Norma's many talents and achievements in the world of sport. She is both a champion golf and tennis player and also an outstanding Junior Farmer. Ron Adams (the bridegroom) is also a champion golf and tennis player in his own district.

The groom in replying took opportunity of thanking all the friends who had helped with the wedding arrangements and in particular Mrs. Hastings who was responsible for the wonderfully decorated wedding cake later cut by the bride.

The toast of the Bride's parents and Grandparents, was proposed by the Hon. C. R. Abbey, M.L.C., who spoke of Abbey, M.L.C., who spoke of the high regard and esteem in which Frank and Ella, are held, and of Frank's parents who through the long years have made for themselves an honored place in the hearts of their fellow citizens of Beverley.

Mr. Frank Blechynden suitably responded.

The toast of the Groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Adams, was given by Mr. Forrester, Chairman of C.R.H., who in a bright and forceful speech spoke of the stirring service rendered at the North Midlands by Ron's parents. Particularly noteworthy was the fact that under Mr. Adams' leadership the sum of £4000 had been raised in a year to build a combined church at Coorow. Mr. Adams replied in a very witty manner, welcoming Norma into his family and assuring her that although Blechynden was an old and honored name—that of Adams was even older.

"Absent Friends" was proposed by Mr. E. Langer, of Pingelly, and that of "The Chairman" by Mr. E. Edwards. A special toast to the Groom was given by the Chair.

Some thirty telegrams from all over the State and other parts of Australia were read, including one expressing great regret at their inability to attend from the Premier—the Hon. D. Brand and Mrs. Brandt.

Later more young friends of the bride and groom including many members of the Junior Farmers enjoyed dancing to the bright music of the Rhythm Trio.

The happy couple, who were the recipients of a host of useful and valuable presents, left for their honeymoon, the bride wearing a very smart suit in the new shade, with matching small hat and accessories in the new shilly shade. With them all and numerous wishes of their Beverley friends and the sincere hope that God will bless them in their future life together.

The groom in replying took the opportunity of thanking all the friends who had helped with the wedding arrangements and in particular Mrs. Hastings who was responsible for the wonderfully decorated wedding cake later cut by the bride.

The toast of the Bride's parents and Grandparents was proposed by the Hon C. R. Abbey, M.L.C., who spoke of the high regard and esteem in which Frank and Ella, are held, and of Frank's parents who through the long years have made for themselves an honoured place in the hearts of their fellow citizens of Beverley.

Mr. Frank Blechynden suitably responded.

The toast of the Groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Adams, was given by Mr. Forrester, Chairman of C.B.H., who in a bright and forceful speech spoke of the sterling service rendered in the North Midlands by Ron's parents. Particularly noteworthy was the fact that under Mr. Adam's leadership the sum of £6000 had been raised in a year to build a combined church at Coorow. Mr. Adams replied in a very witty manner, welcoming Norma into 'his family and assuring her that although Blechynden was an old and honoured name— that of Adam was even older.

"Absent Friends" was proposed by Mr. E. Lange, of Pingelly, and that of "The Chairman" by Mr. E. Edward. A special toast to the Caterers was given by the Chairman.

Some thirty telegrams from all over the State and other parts of Australia were read, including one expressing great regret at their inability to attend from the Premier--the Hon D. Brand and Mrs. Brand.

Later more young friends of the bride and groom- including many members of the Junior Farmers enjoyed dancing to the bright music of the Rhythm Trio.

The happy couple, who were the recipients of a host of useful and valuable presents, left for their honeymoon, the Bride wearing a very smart suit in the new green, with toning small, hat and accessories in the new whisky shade.

With them go all the best wishes of their Beverley friends and the sincere hope that God will bless them in their future life together.

Norma Ella Ada Blechynden and Ronald James Adams had two children Lindsay Ronald and David Frank Adams.

Four Generations: Amy 'Ella' Blechynden, her son Frank Blechynden with his daughter Norma and her new baby, Lindsay

In Beverley, as well as the farming commitments, Ron and Norma played lots of sport, made lots of great friends, and had many very happy days. Tournaments were won, both in singles and as a couple, both in Beverley, and surrounding districts.

In 1987, Ron and Norma moved from Beverley to the cooler climate of Albany. Here they bought Three Valleys, a 750-acre farm near town, which they worked for 25 years or so.

While still enjoying golf at the Albany Golf Club, where she was a member for 35 years, Norma also took up playing lawn bowls at the Emu Point Sporting Club, having a few successes and making many new lifelong friends.

Ron and Norma planting tree seedlings on 'Three Valleys'

Ron and Norma heading off to bowls.

Another of Norma's loves was growing Regal Pelargoniums and, later, Daylilies. She very much enjoyed being a part of the Albany Horticulture Society, making many more great friends and being honoured with Life Membership in 2008.

Norma Adams (nee Blechynden) passed away on 27 Nov 2019, and husband, Ronald James Adams, on 8 Jul 2021, both in Albany.

4th CHILD OF HORACE BLECHYNDEN & AMY 'ELLA' CRAIG

4. BLECHYNDEN, COLIN HORACE (1916-1996) was born 1916, christened 22 Dec 1916, St Mary's Church, Beverley, WA [Reg No. 152]. Colin died 23 Feb 1996, Brookton, WA.

Studio portrait, Colin Horace Blechynden

COLIN married NANCY ELIZABETH POPE (1920-2003), 1941, Perth, WA [Reg. 768].

Sunday Times*, 23 Feb 1941

★ ★ ★ ★

In honor of Miss Nancy Pope, whose marriage to Mr. Colin Blechynden will take place shortly, a social evening is being held in the Kellerberrin Druids Hall on Tuesday.

★ ★ ★ ★

In honour of Miss Nancy Pope, whose marriage to Mr Colin Blechynden will take place shortly, a social evening is being held in the Kellerberrin Druids Hall on Tuesday.

Wedding photo:
Nancy (nee Pope) and Colin
Blechynden.
Courtesy Libby Peacock

Colin Blechynden

It is interesting that there were two Colin Blechynden's who married a Nancy. Colin Bovell Blechynden (1917-1999) married Annie Marie 'Nancy' White (1914-1994) 8 May 1939, St Paul's Church, at Bridgetown. He is descended from the John Blechynden line from 'Bridgedale', Bridgetown. I wondered if they knew of one another.

Julie Isherwood (daughter of Colin in Bridgetown) commented: With regards the two Colin Blechynden's, I was aware of this. Dad always referred to them as the Beverley ones and we would be proud to be the Bridgetown ones. I am sure the other Colin would say the same. Both Colin's had sons and I believe they both worked for Wesfarmers. My Dad in Bunbury and Beverley Colin in Beverley. At different times their sons passed away and each Colin received sympathy cards for the loss of their sons. This is a vivid memory for me.

POPE, NANCY ELIZABETH (1920-2003) (via the Wilson Family Tree, Ancestry) was born 29 Feb 1920, Dorset, England. Her parents were ALBERT LESLIE POPE (1892-1990) and ETHEL ELIZABETH CHISLETT. Nancy died 13 Jul 2003, Brookton, WA.

The following pages outline Nancy's family background (via the Brown 2018 Family Tree, Ancestry).

Nancy's father, Albert, was born 11 May 1892, Murtoa, VIC [Reg. 25811]. His parents were JOHN POPE (1869-1901) and MARY ANN EASTLAKE (1867-1945) who were married 16 Dec 1889, Ballarat, VIC [Reg. 7047]. They had twelve children. It appears that Albert, his parents and most of his family moved to WA. His brothers Jack and Francis 'Garnet' both married in WA. Albert Leslie Pope died 30 Apr 1990, Dalkeith, WA. John and Mary had six children as follows:

1. ANNIE POPE (1890-1978) was born 1890, Murtoa, VIC [Reg. 34898]. She married ANDREW SMART (1883-1940) 1909, Murchison, WA [Reg No 20]. Annie died 30 Jul 1978.

Electoral Roll:

1912, 1913, Andrew Smart, Anstey St, Day Dawn, hairdresser.
1915, 1916, Andrew Smart, 42 Farmer Street, North Perth, hairdresser, Annie, home duties.
1926 Andrew Smart, Mason St, Cottesloe Beach, news agent, Annie, home duties.
1936 Andrew Smart, Box 1 P.O. Carnamah, storekeeper.

2. ALBERT LESLIE POPE (1892-1990) was born 11 May 1892, Murtoa, VIC [Reg. 25811]. More details following.

3. JACK POPE (1894-1955) was born 1894, Murtoa, VIC [Reg. 14269]. He married ETHEL LAURA TAYLOR (1896-1964) 1917, Leederville, WA [Reg. 8]. Jack died 10 Apr 1955, East Victoria Park, WA [Reg. 832].

Electoral Roll:

1919 Jack Pope, 222 Charles St, Balcatta, dairyman, Ethel Laura, home duties.
1931 49 Canterbury Terrace, Canning, hairdresser, Ethel Laura, home duties.
1954 Jack Pope, 974, Albany Rd, Victoria Park, hairdresser, Ethel Laura, home duties.

4. FRANCIS 'GARNET' POPE (1896-1969) was born 1896, Wangaratta, VIC [Reg. 15689]. He married ANNIE LAWLERS FREMERY (1896-1973) 1920, Perth, WA [Reg. 616]. Registered under Garnet. Francis 'Garnet' died 27 Nov 1969, Mt Pleasant, WA [Reg. 4306].

Electoral Roll:

1922 Garnet Francis Pope, 8 Dean St, Cottesloe, coach trimmer, Annie Lawlers, home duties.
1937 Garnet Francis Pope, 40 Lyall St, motor and coach trimmer, Annie Lawlers, home duties.

5. MAUD VERA POPE (1898-) was born 1898, Benalla, VIC [8558]. She married ANGELO PERLSTEIN (1888-1971), 1941, Sydney, NSW [Reg. 14884]. Details of her death are not known.

Electoral Roll:

1949, 1968 Angelo Perlstein, 17 Herbert Avenue, Newport, NSW, window dresser, Vera Maud, home duties.

6. DOROTHY POPE (1902-1988) was born 1902, Benalla, VIC, [Reg. 715]. She died 1988 in NSW.

More detail on Nancy Elizabeth Pope's father, Albert Leslie Pope:

POPE ALBERT LESLIE (1892-1990) was born 11 May 1892, Murtoa, VIC [Reg. 25811]. Albert died 30 Apr 1990, Dalkeith, WA. During WW1, he joined the Australian Imperial Force, Service Number – 8704, giving his trade as blacksmith. He served in France with the Australian Service Corps and was admitted to hospital a number of times with trench foot in France and England.

Albert Leslie Pope. Via Wilson Family Tree, Ancestry

Albert's attestation papers 7 Jul 1915 show that, at that time, his family was living in Perth, WA. Mother, Mary Anne Pope, 450 William St, Perth, WA.

His service papers show that while Albert was overseas, he met and married a young English woman named Ethel Elizabeth Chislett.

ALBERT married ETHEL ELIZABETH CHISLETT (1894-1955) on 15 Jun 1919, at the Parish Church, Fulwell, UK. He returned to Australia via the Kygoma, 6 Jul 1920, with wife and child.

Part of Albert's AIF service record showing his return home via the Kygoma with wife and child.

Copy of marriage certificate
Albert Leslie Pope and Ethel Elizabeth Chislett

Nancy Elizabeth Pope's mother, CHISLETT, ETHEL ELIZABETH (1894-1955), was born 1894, Okeford, Fitzpaine, Dorset, England. Her parents were HENRY JOHN CHISLETT (1865-1954) and ELIZA JANE HARVEY (1867-1950) who were married 1892, Melksham, Wiltshire, England. Ethel died 26 Aug 1955, Beverley, WA [Reg. 24]. She is buried in the Beverley Anglican Cemetery.

A death notice from the time read:

POPE, Ethel Elizabeth. Wife of Albert Leslie, Mother of Nancy, Joan, John, Betty, Dick and Dell, 26 Aug 1955. Aged 61 years.

ALBERT LESLIE POPE (1892-1990) and ETHEL ELIZABETH CHISLETT (1894-1955) had six children:

1. NANCY ELIZABETH POPE (1920-2003) married COLIN HORACE BLECHYNDEN (1916-1996) 1939, Perth, WA [Reg. 768].
2. JOAN OLIVE POPE (1921-1935) died of meningitis, 1935, Northam, WA [Reg. 227].
3. JOHN 'JACK' LESLIE POPE (1923-2016) married PEGGY MINTON MANN, 1956, Swan, WA [Reg. No.2319]
4. BETTY POPE (1925-) married ROY J WEIR, 1946, Perth, WA [Reg. 2136].
5. ALBERT RICHARD 'DICK' POPE (1927-2004) married DOROTHY JEAN COOPER (1932-2013), 1952, WA [Reg. 1447].
6. JUNE ADELE POPE (1930-2018) married BYRON LELSIE KENNEDY, Sydney, NSW.

Ethel Elizabeth Pope (nee Chislett)

Electoral Roll:

- 1922 Albert Leslie Pope, 30 John St, Cottesloe, carrier, Ethel Elizabeth, married.
 1925, 1936 Albert Leslie Pope, Burracoppin, Northam, farmer, Ethel Elizabeth, married.
 1943, 1949 Albert Leslie Pope, 35 Broome St, Cottesloe, mechanic, Ethel Elizabeth, home duties.
 1958 Albert Leslie Pope, 32 Forrest St, Cottesloe, retired.
 1963 Albert Leslie Pope, Surf Club, Marine Pde, Cottesloe, caretaker.
 1969 Albert Leslie Pope, 43 Warkins Rd, Claremont.
 1977 Albert Leslie Pope, 43 Watkins Rd, Dalkeith.

Serial Number	A.I.F. Form 327	Reference Number
AUSTRALIAN IMPERIAL FORCE Headquarters, LONDON, S.W.1.
CERTIFIED EXTRACT OF A MARRIAGE CERTIFICATE RELATING TO:-
8704	DVE.	POPE A.L., 10th A.A.S.C.
BRIDEGROOM		BRIDE
Surname POPE	Maiden Surname CHISLETT
Christian Names Albert Leslie.	Christian Names Ethel Elizabeth.
Address (at time of marriage) 30, Fulwell Road.		Address (at time of marriage) 30, Fulwell Road.
Occupation Soldier in A.I.F.	Occupation Nil.
Age 27 Condition Bachelor.	Age 24 Condition Spinster.
Name, Address and Occupation of Father John Pope (Blacksmith) (Deceased)		Name, Address and Occupation of Father John Chislett, (Labourer)
Registration District FULWELL.
Marriage solemnized at The Parish Church, according to the rites and Ceremonies of The Established Church by Licence.
Married by Vibert Jackson		Date of Marriage 15th June 1918
Registrar's Reference (i.e., Entry No., etc.) 63
Verified by General Registry Office.
Extracted from Marriage Certificate by KMS.		Date 12.1.20.
Certified correct and checked by Particulars verified with original document.
Checked with Records	Date
Defence advised by List No	Dated	Ref.

Continuing with the life of Colin Horace Blechynden and Nancy Elizabeth Pope:

Colin served during WW2. Libby Peacock commented that he had two years in the Volunteer Defence Corps ('Dad's Army'). The fact that his eyesight was compromised and he wore heavy glasses indicate he wasn't able to serve overseas.

BLECHYNDEN, Colin Horace: Private, 9th (SA) Battalion VDC, Australian Military Forces (Army WW2), Service number W73538.

COLIN HORACE BLECHYNDEN and NANCY ELIZABETH POPE had three children: Beverley, Elizabeth and Malcolm.

Beverley and Libby with their father Colin and his horse and cart! Photo courtesy Libby Peacock.

*Beverley, Malcolm and Libby Blechynden.
Courtesy Libby Peacock.*

Nancy Elizabeth Blechynden (nee Pope) with Beverley, Libby leaning on her & Malcolm baby - having taken a picnic lunch to Colin Horace while he was ploughing I believe! Courtesy Libby Peacock.

Colin leaning against a lovely Jarrah somewhere on the farm in Quairading. Courtesy Libby Peacock

West Australian Lamb Carcass
Competition 1942-
C.B. BLECHYNDEN & CO.
West – Brookton First and Second

DEATH OF SON, MALCOLM JOHN BLECHYNDEN (1949- 1967)

Malcolm John Blechynden died 7 Oct 1967, Katanning, WA [Reg. 77], accidentally killed, aged 18 years.

Via Libby Peacock: Malcolm died in a car accident - on the outskirts of Katanning - on 8th October 1967. He was on his way to play football with the Kojonup football club. Our family was never the same again. Our deepest sympathy to the family.

Headstone of Malcolm John Blechynden, son of Colin and Nancy Blechynden. Beverley Anglican Cemetery

Beverley Times (WA: 1905 - 1977), Fri 5 Feb 1954, pg 3

Quairading Residents Depart

Well-known for several years as residents of the Quairading district Mr and Mrs C H Blechynden and family have left and after a short holiday will take up residence in the Brookton district. Mr Blechynden has purchased Mr C S M McBride's "Dale Park" property 14 miles West of Brookton.

Prior to commencing farming operations Mr Blechynden was employed by Messrs Elder, Smith and Co., Limited. He is a son of Mr and Mrs H E Blechynden and an ex-pupil of the Beverley school.

With his wife Mr Blechynden took an active and keen interest in various sporting bodies at Quairading and will be greatly missed. Like his brothers, Frank and Bruce, of this district, he is a leading rifle shot, and will no doubt join up with the Beverley Club.

They left with the best wishes of the Quairading folk.

Quairading Residents Depart

Well-known for several years as residents of the Quairading district Mr and Mrs C H Blechynden and family have left and after a short holiday will take up residence in the Brookton district. Mr Blechynden has purchased Mr C S M McBride's "Dale Park" property 14 miles West of Brookton.

Prior to commencing farming operations Mr Blechynden was employed by Messrs Elder, Smith and Co., Limited. He is a son of Mr and Mrs H E Blechynden and an ex-pupil of the Beverley school.

With his wife Mr Blechynden took an active and keen interest in various sporting bodies at Quairading and will be greatly missed. Like his brothers, Frank and Bruce, of this district, he is a leading rifle shot and will no doubt join up with the Beverley Club.

They left with the best wishes of the Quairading folk.

The previous article records that Colin like his brothers was a leading rifle shot. The photo of him cropped from the team photo show that in 1961 he was a member of the Australian Rifle Team on a New Zealand Tour.

WA National Rifle Association Team 1962 Swanbourne Rifle Range, courtesy Andrew Matthews

*Colin Blechynden 1961
Australian Rifle Team
New Zealand Tour.
Courtesy Andrew Matthews*

*Frank, Colin, Bruce and their father, Horace Blechynden.
Courtesy Lindsay Adams*

Electoral Roll

1954 Colin Horace Blechynden, Inverall, Quairading, farmer and grazier, Nancy Elizabeth, home duties.
1958 Colin Horace Blechynden, 'Dale Park', West Brookton, farmer, Nancy Elizabeth, home duties.
1963 Colin Horace Blechynden, "Dale Park", West Brookton, farmer, Nancy Elizabeth, home duties.
1972, 1978 Colin Horace Blechynden, 17 Furlowe St, Bicton, salesman, Nancy Elizabeth, home duties.

Colin Horace Blechynden died 23 Feb 1996, Brookton, WA. Nancy Elizabeth Blechynden (nee Pope) died 13 Jul 2003, Brookton, WA

Headstone of Colin Horace Blechynden, Beverley Anglican Cemetery, WA

*Headstone of Nancy Elizabeth Blechynden (nee Pope)
Beverley Anglican Cemetery, WA.*

SEVENTH CHILD OF CHARLES EDWIN BLECHYNDEN & CAROLINE DAVIES

7. BLECHYNDEN, HERBERT WILLIAM (1886-1886)

Herbert William Blechynden was born 16 Feb 1886, Beverley, WA [Reg. 28870]. He was the seventh child born to Charles Edwin and Caroline. Sadly, they had lost baby Albert in 1877. When Herbert was born, the other children were aged as follows: Frank 12 years, Alice 10, Ernest 8, Sydney 5, Horace 4. Alick was to be born later in 1892.

What a sad time for the family when Herbert William Blechynden died as a baby aged just five days, on 20 Feb 1886, Beverley, WA [Reg. 13481].

His name was registered as Herbert on both his birth and death notices, however, on the back of a page in the family bible, it was hand-written as Hubert.

EIGHT CHILD OF CHARLES EDWIN BLECHYNDEN & CAROLINE DAVIES

8. BLECHYNDEN, ALICK GEORGE ROBUS (1892-1917)

Alick George Robus Blechynden was born 22 Feb 1892, Beverley, WA [Reg. 448] and baptised 31 Mar 1892. At the age of fifteen years, he showed great promise as a footballer player, taking part on an Eastern States tour as a 'selected lad' in the Young Australia League.

West Australian (Perth, WA: 1879 - 1954), Tue 20 Aug 1907, pg 6

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article25710740.txt>

YOUNG AUSTRALIA LEAGUE.
THE EASTERN STATES TOUR.
THE SELECTED LADS.

The following list includes the names of all members of the Y.A.F.L. who have been included in the party which will sail for the Eastern States by the s.s. Kyarra, on Saturday next. An analysis of the list will show that West Australian born boys are best represented the birth places of the lads being as follows: 15, Victoria 8, New South Wales 4, South Australia 2. As the first object of the committee is to make the tour of educational value, a selection of candidates was aimed at, with a view to securing as many as possible who had never been away from the State. With three exceptions, all who have been born outside of, arrived as children, too young to retain any recollections of their birth places. With the names of each lad is given town of birth, football record, and the school he represents in parentheses:

Frank W. Buggins, Albany, W.A., (Subiaco), played in test against Newcastle, 1907.

Alick G. Blechynden, Beverley, W.A.
(North Fremantle), secretary school club, 1906 and 1907. . .

Badge: First Juvenile Football West to East Alick Blechynden 1907

YOUNG AUSTRALIA LEAGUE.
THE EASTERN STATES TOUR.
THE SELECTED LADS.

The following list includes the names of all members of the Y.A.F.L. who have been included in the party which will sail for the Eastern States by the s.s. Kyarra, on Saturday next. An analysis of the list will show that West Australian born boys are best represented, the birth places of the lads being as follows:—Western Australia 15, Victoria 8, New South Wales 4, South Australia 2. As the first object of the committee is to make the tour of educational value, a selection of candidates was aimed at, with a view to securing as many as possible who had never been away from the State. With three exceptions, all who have been born outside of Western Australia, arrived as children, too young to retain any recollections of their birth places. With the names of each lad is given town of birth, football record, and the school he represents in parentheses:—

Frank W. Buggins, Albany, W.A., (Subiaco), played in test against Newcastle, 1907.

Alick G. Blechynden, Beverley, W.A., (North Fremantle), secretary school club, 1906 and 1907.

Harold S. Crawford, Perth (Newcastle-street), captain first Australian team at his school, and first Y.A.F.L. premiers of the Perth division. One of the Perth representatives in combined tests against the goldfields, 1905-6.

Alick Blechynden served in the First World War.

Service Numbers:	571, R571
Enlisted:	11 March 1915, Perth, Western Australia
Last Rank:	Sergeant
Last Unit:	28th Infantry Battalion
Born:	Beverley, Western Australia, 22 February 1892
Home Town:	Beverley , Beverley, Western Australia
Schooling:	Beverley Public School and North Fremantle Public School
Occupation:	Farmer
Died:	Killed in Action, France, 28 February 1917, aged 25 years
Cemetery:	Warlencourt British Cemetery Plot: IV. J. I.
Memorials:	Australian War Memorial Roll of Honour , Beverley Jacobs Well District HR , Beverley Mount Kokeby HR , Beverley St Mary's Anglican Church Lynch Gate , Beverley War Memorial

*Blechynden Alick George Robus
Serial Number: 571*

Beverley Times (WA: 1905 - 1977), Sat 25 Dec 1915, pg 2

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article200753544.txt>

Beverley Boys at the Front

The following extracts, are from a letter received from Sergt. C. J. Skipworth, who is at present convalescing in hospital at Malta, where at time of writing (November 11), he expected to spend Christmas: —

On the 30th September or there abouts we had quite a meeting of Beverley boys. Albert Townsend and King Bellingham came round from Anzac to where we were posted and dug me up.

After five or ten minutes I had a "dug out" full of them. There were the two mentioned, Alex. Blechynden, Jack Burgoyne, Eddie Greay and his brother, J. T. Greene, (who used to be at Tom Jones Hotel) and myself, making eight all told. We spent quite a pleasant couple of hours together. It is pleasing to note that of the 14 boys who left Beverley last January none of us up to October 11th (the date I left the Peninsula) had been wounded or killed, although most of us have been unfortunate in getting an attack of disease or have been sent away suffering from shock or such like.

I cannot describe to you any of our views of Gallipoli, as Mr. Censor is pretty handy in making nasty marks with his pen sometimes on people's letters, but I can tell you of a little occurrence in which three Beverley Boys at the Front.

The following extracts are from a letter received from Sergt. C. J. Skipworth, who is at present convalescing in hospital at Malta, where at time of writing (November 11), he expected to spend Christmas —

On the 30th September or thereabouts we had quite a meeting of Beverley boys. Albert Townsend and King Bellingham came round from Anzac to where we were posted and dug me up. After five or ten minutes I had a "dug out" full of them. There were the two mentioned, Alex. Blechynden, Jack Burgoyne, Eddie Greay and his brother, J. T. Greene (who used to be at Tom Jones' Hotel) and myself, making eight all told. We spent quite a pleasant couple of hours together. It is pleasing to note that of the 14 boys who left Beverley last January none of us up to October 11th (the date I left the Peninsula) had been wounded or killed, although most of us have been unfortunate in getting an attack of disease or have been sent away suffering from shock or such like.

I cannot describe to you any of our views of Gallipoli, as Mr. Censor is pretty handy in making nasty marks with his pen sometimes on people's letters, but I can tell you of a little occurrence in which three of us were interested. The three were little Greene from Tom Jones' pub, Alex. Blechynden and myself. We were standing to at the time, and it was midnight on December 27th. The majority of the men of "C" Company were asleep, and here and there sentries were posted to wake them up in case an alarm was given. Greene happened to be the first one in my platoon to do sentry go, and I had just posted him along with three others. Alex. Blechynden was sleeping next to where I had taken up my position between Nos. 10 and 11 platoons, and we were just nicely settled down when Mr. Turk must arouse the neighborhood by firing a big bomb from a trench mortar over our lines. It came exactly where we three were together, and zip through the parapet, jumped the trench, and zip through the parados and expired about one foot over the edge. Just as it exploded Greene and I looked up and we got the force of the backward explosion full in the face, knocking us quite silly for a while. I asked Greene whether he was hit by any pieces; he said "I don't know yet—I haven't looked," still holding his eyes and head with his hands. I pulled his hands down to see, but we were both very lucky—we had escaped being hit by a very small margin, but we both suffered after effects, i.e., pains in the temples and a slight continual headache, from which I am still suffering, although it is over six weeks ago now. The marvel, although it may not appear to be so, was that in the ordinary course of events the trenches are sandbagged up to stop the dirt from falling in, but these weren't, and so the bomb was able to get through the loose dirt. If they had been built properly the bomb would have come into the trench and Alex. B., "Greenie" and I would have been with a few more—blown to bits.

It exploded Greene and I looked up and we got the force of the backward explosion full in the face, knocking us quite silly for a while. I asked Greene whether he was hit by any pieces; he said "I don't know yet—I haven't looked," still holding his eyes and head with his hands. I pulled his hands down to see, but we were both very lucky—we had escaped being hit by a very small margin, but we both suffered after effects, i.e., pains in the temples and a slight continual headache, from which I am still suffering, although it is over six weeks ago now. The marvel, although it may not appear to be so, was that in the ordinary course of events the trenches are sandbagged up to stop the dirt from falling in, but these weren't, and so the bomb was able to get through the loose dirt. If they had been built properly the bomb would have come into the trench and Alex. B., "Greenie" and I would have been with a few more—blown to bits.

On behalf of the boys and myself (concludes Sergt. Skipworth) I wish all the Beverley people a Merry Xmas and a Bright and Prosperous New Year.

of us were interested. The three were little Greene from Tom Jones' pub, Alex. Blechynden and myself. We were standing to at the time, and it was midnight on December 27th. The majority of the men of "C" Company were asleep, and here and there sentries were posted to wake them up in case an alarm was given. Greene happened to be the first one in my platoon to do sentry go, and I had just posted him along with three others. Alex. Blechynden was sleeping next to where I had taken up my position between Nos. 10 and 11 platoons, and we were just nicely settled down when Mr. Turk must arouse the neighbourhood by firing a big bomb from a trench mortar over our lines. It came exactly where we three were together, and zip through the parapet, jumped the trench, and zip through the parados and expired about one foot over the edge. Just as it exploded Greene and I looked up and we got the force of the backward explosion full in the face, knocking us quite silly for a while. I asked Greene whether he was hit by any pieces; he said "I don't know yet—I haven't looked," still holding his eyes and head with his hands. I pulled his hands down to see, but we were both very lucky—we had escaped being hit by a very small margin, but we both suffered after effects, i.e., pains in the temples and a slight continual headache, from which I am still suffering, although it is over six weeks ago now. The marvel, although it may not appear to be so, was that in the ordinary course of events the trenches are sandbagged up to stop the dirt from falling in, but these weren't, and so the bomb was able to get through the loose dirt. If they had been built properly the bomb would have come into the trench and Alex. B., "Greenie" and I would have been with a few more—blown to bits. • • • * On behalf of the boys and myself (concludes Sergt. Skipworth) I wish all the Beverley people a Merry Xmas and a Bright and Prosperous New Year.

On 3 Jan 1916, Alick returned to Beverley on three months convalescence leave having travelled via the Suez Canal on the Ulysses. His family must have welcomed him with open arms. And, to his nieces and nephews, he must surely have been a hero.

Upon his return to the European theatre of the First World War, Alick initially trained in England on the Salisbury Plains where he was promoted to Corporal on 9 Sep 1916.

To the right is a copy of a letter to Frank Robus Blechynden from his Uncle Alick, dated 24 Oct 1916. Young Frank, who was the third child of Horace and Amy 'Ella' Blechynden, born on 22 Dec 1910. Aged about five and a half years, he must have been excited to receive the letter. Alick signed himself 'Cousin Allbin.'

On the 30 Dec 1916, Alick was promoted to the rank of Sergeant.

Tragically, Alick Blechynden was killed in action in France on 28 Feb 1917.

Beverley Times (WA: 1905 - 1977), Sat 24 Mar 1917, pg 6

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article207186449.txt>

Killed in Action

SERGT. ALICK BLECHYNDEN

On Monday last Mr. C. E. Blechynden received word from the military authorities that his son, Alick Blechynden had been killed in action in France on 28th Feb last. The deceased who was 25 years of age, was the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Blechynden, of this town, and joined up as a private with the A.I.F. on the 15th Mar 1915. He served in the Gallipoli campaign, arriving there soon after the landing, where he was constantly in the trenches until he contracted fever, which necessitated his admission to hospital at Alexandria, and he was subsequently invalided home to the West. After about three months sick leave he returned to duty in France, where he had been in active service until his death. When he visited his home about twelve months ago, he held the rank of Lance-Corporal and was promoted to Corporal upon his return to duty, subsequently being raised to the rank of Sergeant about three months ago, and at the time of his death he had a good prospect of attaining commissioned rank. We join with their many friends in extending to the bereaved parents and family our sincere sympathy in their sad loss.

Killed in Action.

—•—

SERGT. ALICK BLECHYNDEN

On Monday last Mr. C. E. Blechynden received word from the military authorities that his son, Sergt. Alick Blechynden, had been killed in action in France on 28th February last. The deceased, who was 25 years of age, was the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Blechynden, of this town, and joined up as a private with the A.I.F. on the 15th March, 1915. He served in the Gallipoli campaign, arriving there soon after the landing, where he was constantly in the trenches until he contracted fever, which necessitated his admission to hospital at Alexandria, and he was subsequently invalided home to the West. After about three months sick leave he returned to duty in France, where he had been in active service up to the time of his death. When he visited his home about twelve months ago he held the rank of Lance-Corporal and was promoted to Corporal upon his return to duty, subsequently being raised to the rank of Sergeant about three months ago, and at the time of his death he had a good prospect of attaining commissioned rank. We join with their many friends in extending to the bereaved parents and family our sincere sympathy in their sad loss.

Defence and war service records

<https://www.naa.gov.au/explore-collection/defence-and-war-service-records>

Follow the link above to view the service records of Alick George Robus Blechynden which contain 99 pages of certificates and letters including details of his service overseas.

The next article, an ANZAC presentation – a summary of Alick George Robus Blechynden's service for his country during the First World War, was composed by Toby and Amy Blechynden, the children of Mark and Denise Blechynden (Mark being the son of Cyril and Chris Blechynden, who reside at 'Burnside.' Cyril being one of the sons of Bruce Blechynden).

ALICK GEORGE ROBUS BLECHYNDEN, KIA, 28 Feb 1917, France.

Compiled by Toby and Amy Blechynden

We have many proud family members that have fought for our freedom from the 1st World War to Afghanistan. But, as this is the centenary year of the beginning of the Great War, we will retrace the life of Alick George Robus Blechynden - our Great, Great, Great Uncle who fought at Gallipoli and on the Western Front.

Alick was born on the 22 February 1892 and grew up on the family farm, "Roesland" south of Beverley. He attended Beverley School and later North Fremantle State School. In 1903 Alick's father, Charles, passed the family farm onto two of Alick's older brothers, Frank and our Great, Great Grandpa, Horace. With this and being the youngest brother, Alick chose to join the Australian Imperial Force. He enlisted on 15 Mar 1915, aged 23 years.

On the 16 Apr 1915 Alick was allocated to C Company, 28th Battalion, with the rank of Private. The unit was raised at Blackboy Hill Camp, Western Australia, and embarked at Fremantle aboard "Ascanius" on 29 Jun 1915 for training in Egypt. It landed at Gallipoli on 10 September 1915 where it reinforced the weary New Zealand and Australian Divisions. While at Gallipoli Alick was promoted to Lance Corporal. As luck would have it, his unit had a relatively quiet time and they departed the peninsula in December 1915 having suffered only light casualties.

After another short period in Egypt, Alick embarked at Suez aboard "Ulysses" on 3 January 1916 for Fremantle and three months leave. This homecoming must have been a great relief to this family. However, it was a relatively short reprieve. He returned to duty on 14 Apr 1916 to embark at Fremantle aboard "Aeneas", again for Egypt. For many, it was not just a war against the enemy but also weather, hygiene and disease. Alick spent many weeks in makeshift hospitals with influenza and enteric fever (typhoid) as battling the poor living conditions took its toll.

Embarking at Alexandria aboard "Tunisian", Alick proceeded to France and the Western Front where he re-joined his battalion on 4 August 1916. As a part of the 2nd Australian Division, it took part in the confused and costly fighting to the east of Flers. The autumn rains had set in by the time Alick reached the Somme Valley, and the whole battlefield had become a sea of mud. Trenches and tracks were often impassable with mud slowing journeys to a kilometre an hour. These were some of the worst conditions Australians experienced on the Western Front.

Alick was promoted to Corporal on the 9 September and Sergeant on the 30 December 1916. The next major battle of the 28th Battalion took place at the Malt Trench in February 1917 after the men went through the worst winter in France for forty years. At this time the first recommendations for Victoria Crosses were made for members of the battalion. It was not until 2 Mar that the 7th Brigade captured portions of the Malt Trench bringing the 2nd Division close enough to be able to attack the R.I. position and withdraw the Germans to the Hindenburg Line.

Alick only saw the beginning of this battle, for as the 28th Battalion was holding the line near Warlencourt, he was killed by a German shell on 28 February while clearing a German dug-out. He was only 25 years old. Alick's death hit hard back home in Western Australia as this letter, dated 21 February 1918, to the Australian Red Cross Society reflects:

"Dear Madam, I am writing to ask you would you be so kind as to find out for me how I can get the belongings of my late son, Sergeant Alick Blechynden No 571 28th Battalion who was killed in action in France on the 28 February 1917 or if your society could get me his things. I would pay any expense that was incurred as it is now a year since he fell and I cannot get any information from the military authorities at all. Trusting your society will give this matter your fullest attention and that you will let me know the result of your inquiries at your earliest and you will greatly oblige his sorrowing parents. Yours very sincerely Charles Edwin Blechynden."

Alick's remains were recovered and buried in the Warlencourt British Cemetery along with 337 identified and 138 unidentified other Australians. For Alick's service during World War 1, the family received his Star Medal, British War Medal, Victory Medal and a Memorial Scroll and Plaque. These medals and plaque were donated to the Beverley RSL on 15 May 2005 and are on display in their hall.

A remembrance plaque is also erected in Lovekin Drive at Kings Park for Alick, being one of 1,200 along the Honour Avenues. These plaques bear witness to their youth and the circumstances of their death in lands far from Australia. It records those who were wounded in action and subsequently died from those wounds, of prisoners-of-war who wasted away under the cruelty of their captors and of those who are, to this day, missing and have no known grave. These plaques are their crosses where ever they rest, and together they continue to share an undying comradeship in this place of peace.

For those that did not return home, they will not be forgotten.
For those that did, enforced their parting words,
"When you go home, tell them of us and say,
For your tomorrow, we gave our today!"

Lest we forget.

28th. Batta. A.I.F. BLECHYNDEN.
Opl. I.G.R. 571.

Killed in Action. 28-2-17

He was returned to Australia from Gallipoli. He came to France on the same boat as myself "Anzacs", 17-4-16. He was in C Coy. We were holding the line near Warlencourt, & He was killed and buried, in company with an officer and others, by a shell, while cleaning out an old German dug-out. His body was not recovered. He came from Beverley, W.A.?

DESCRIPTION: Medium size, Stoutly built, Dark complexion, Very popular.

INFORMANT: Cpl. Johnston, 28th. Batta. A.I.F.

HOME ADDRESS:- Brisbane Fern, Morredin, West Australia.

P. Paul Johnston

Letter from Cpl. Johnston describing how Alick was Killed in Action

Edward St.
Beverley
26. 10. 17

Base Records Dept
Sir

My son Sergeant A. G. R. Blechynden No 571 28th Battalion was killed in Action on the 28th of February & I have not received his deferred pay nor any of his personal belongings & as this is some months ago I think it is time that I heard something of the matter or that the money was paid. I would be pleased if you would give this matter your attention & let me have some satisfaction at your earliest convenience.

Trusting you will oblige
Yours Sincerely
C. E. Blechynden

National Archives of Australia
NAA: B2455, BLECHYNDEN A G R

Letter from Charles Edwin Blechynden requesting deferred pay and personal belongings of his son Alick, KIA.

28th Batta. A.I.F. BLECHYNDEN,
Sgt. G.R. 571

"KILLED IN ACTION"

With reference to your letter relative to the personal effects of the above named deceased soldier - his belongings extracted from his kit bag deposited in this Store comprise a spirit flask, knife and military book, which were despatched on the 16th October 1917 to the Secretary, Department of Defence, Melbourne for transmission to the next of kin :- Mr C. Blechynde Beverley, Western Australia. His identity disc, recovered from the field, was forwarded in the same manner on the 17th January last. There is no record of having received any other effects of his at this Store, still, in the event of anything further coming to hand at a later date you may rest assured it will be forwarded to the registered next-of kin Mr C. Blechynden, as above.

Letter from:- O.C. Kit Store,
110 Grayhound Rd.
Hammersmith, W. 6.

London
6.5.18.

P.

Reply re personal effects. One of many letters following the family being informed about Alick being killed in action.

To view the WW1 Service Record of Alick George Blechynden, see Details \(adfa.edu.au\) or <https://aif.adfa.edu.au/aif/showPerson?pid=25095>.

Headstone of Charles Edwin Blechynden,
Beverley Anglican Cemetery, WA

*Also
In memory of
HIS SON
ALICK
WHO WAS KILLED IN FRANCE
28th February 1917
aged 25 years.*

*Pte A Blechynden:
The 1914-15 Star.
Awarded for service between 5 Aug 1914 and 31 Dec 1915*

Courtesy Lindsay Adams

*Alick Blechynden,
Killed in Action –
France, 28 Feb
1917*

*Alick Blechynden's headstone, Warlencourt British Cemetery (Plot IV, Row J, Grave No. 1), Warlencourt, Pas de Calais, France
Courtesy Lindsay Adams*

KINGS PARK HONOUR AVENUE
Biography presented during plaque dedication:

Sergeant Alick George Robus Blechynden of 28 Battalion was born in Beverley in Mar 1892, the son of Charles and Caroline.

He attended state schools at Beverley and North Fremantle.

The Blechynden families have lived on and farmed 'Roesland', 'Red Hill' and 'Burnside' properties in the south west for many years.

Part of a fence that Alick helped his brothers to erect is still standing on 'Burnside'.

Alick enlisted in Mar 1915 and after training left Fremantle on the troopship 'Aeneas' for Gallipoli.

He then went to Cairo where he was in hospital with influenza.

After he recovered, he went to France and was promoted to corporal in Aug 1916 and was made sergeant in Aug of that year.

Sergeant Alick George Robus Blechynden of 28 Battalion was killed in action by a shell while cleaning out an old German dugout on 28 Feb 1917 near Warlencourt in France. He was 25.

Alick and Leslie were both great grandsons of Harrison Blechynden.

The tree can be visited at number L 315, Lovekin Drive in Kings Park.

*The plaques in Kings Park
 in honour of
 SGT A G R
 BLECHYNDEN
 and PTE LESLIE
 BLECHYNDEN*

Via Ken Blechynden: Our grandsons visited Kings Park and found Leslie and Alick's plaques in the Avenue of Honour. They are both at the same tree.

*Ken's grandsons, sixth generation Blechynden descendants from Harrison and Charlotte.
 Justin and Jackson, looking proud.
 Courtesy Melanie Blechynden*

Alick Blechynden has been acknowledged amongst others on the Young Australia League plaque at Araluen.

Alick Blechynden on the YAL Roll of Honour, Araluen. Courtesy Ken Blechynden

8. THOMAS HARRISON BLECHYNDEN (1849-1933) & ANNIE DUNHAM (1850-1933)

Thomas Harrison was Harrison and Charlotte Blechynden's eight child. He was born on 9 Sep 1849 at 'Babbyalla', East Beverley.

On 24 Sep 1877, Harrison (as he was known) married Annie Dunham at the Anglican Church in Northam and they farmed in Wagin.

Harrison and Annie had no children but did bring up their nephew, Benjamin Lewis Blechynden, the third child of Jesse and Emma Blechynden, from the age of 14 months.

Annie passed away on 4 May 1933 aged 82 and Harrison on 11 Sep of the same year; both in Wagin. They are buried alongside each other in unmarked graves (lots 106 and 107) in the Wagin Cemetery.

BLECHYNDEN, THOMAS HARRISON (1849-1933) was born 9 Sep 1849, 'Babbyalla', East Beverley, WA [Reg. 1376], registered in York. His parents Harrison Blechynden (1802-1873) and Charlotte Robus (1812-1889) emigrated from Kent, England to the newly formed Swan River Colony, on the ship, the Minstrel, on 20 Jan 1830. They were married in Perth on 3 Mar 1832. Their first two children were born in Perth, John, in 1833 and Sarah in 1841. Following Sarah's birth, Harrison and Charlotte Blechynden made the decision to relocate to 'Babbyalla', in the newly zoned district of Beverley. More details re the story of their time in Perth can be read in the chapter on Harrison and Charlotte Blechynden.

According to WA birth records, Elizabeth Anne (known as Anne), was born in 1842 at 'St Aubyns', prior to her parents moving to the property next door named 'Babbyalla'. The next seven children, all boys, were born on 'Babbyalla': Henry George, 1843; Jesse William, 1845, (sadly, Jesse William died in 1846 at the age of 20 months); Walter Edward, 1846; Charles Edwin, 1848; Thomas Harrison, 1849; Jesse William, 1851 and Joseph, 1853.

Jesse was aged two years and Thomas was almost four years of age when baby Joseph was born. One can imagine all the younger children looked up to their oldest brother John, now aged 20 years who spent most of his time with their father working on the property. Their sisters, Sarah aged 12 and Anne 11 years would have been a great help to their mother with the younger ones. Thomas and his brothers, Henry George aged 10 years, William aged 8 years and Charles aged 7 years were all encouraged to do chores around the home and yard. With very little infrastructure in the district at this time there were no schools and any basic education would have been via their parents and perhaps John who most likely had some schooling when living in Perth.

A small service area was established at Edwards Crossing, not far away from 'Babbyalla', consisting of a mud bat store and a wheelwright. The children were taught to ride, and one can imagine often travelled in a horse and cart to Edwards Crossing for supplies. An annual show held at York became quite an important and social occasion with the family travelling to York to take part.

In 1854, their brother John left home at the age of 21, and guided by friendly Aborigines, walked to the Blackwood district and acquired two pastoral leases along the Blackwood River. The younger children and his parents would have missed him immensely.

In the 1859 Census, Thomas Harrison was recorded as being 10 years of age. His father Harrison had written "the younger part of my family either start or are learning", emphasized by - do (ditto) down the aisle. Interesting to see his writing.

By this time his father had worked the farm into a viable concern. As their riding skills increased. Thomas Harrison and his brothers began to help their father on the farm.

Thomas Harrison was aged 11 years when John Blechynden married Elizabeth Green on 23 Feb 1860, at St George's Cathedral in Perth. This would have been an occasion to remember for Thomas Harrison as the family travelled to and joined in the wedding celebrations. John took his bride to settle in a hut on the Blackwood River. They built the first home in the new to be established town Geegelup, later to be named Bridgetown. In 1862, Thomas Harrison's sister Anne Elizabeth Blechynden married Thomas Edwards in York.

He was aged 15 years when in 1864, his brothers Walter and Charles walked to Bridgetown and joined their eldest brother, John. For three years they rented 'Wilgarrup', then owned by Mr. Charles Rose. One can imagine he would like very much to have accompanied them but he was not yet old enough and his father needed his help on the farm. Henry, Thomas (Harrison), Jesse and Joseph working with their father Harrison on the property learned many skills that were to serve them for the rest of their lives.

The district of Beverley had been officially surveyed in 1843 but the township of Beverley was not established until 1868 following being surveyed by George Roe, son of the Surveyor General.

In 1867, Thomas Harrison's sister, Sarah Harrison Blechynden, married John Henry Markham Page in York and Charles Edwin Blechynden married Caroline Mary Davies in 1872 in St Paul's Anglican Church in Beverley.

It must have been a shock to the family when Harrison Blechynden died on the 17 Jul 1873 at Beverley, aged 71 years. Thomas was aged 25 years when his father died, Jesse was aged 22 years and Joseph the youngest was 20 years. One can imagine the whole family came together to mourn the loss of the man who had shaped their lives for so many years. Shortly after his father's death, Walter Edward Blechynden married Jane Needs, in 1873 at the Picton Anglican Church, Bunbury and Henry George Blechynden married Mary Ann Reilly, in 1874, in York.

During this time, Thomas Harrison met and courted a young woman named Annie Maria Dunham, who had been born and lived in York. His brother Jesse was later to court and marry her younger sister Emma.

THOMAS HARRISON BLECHYNDEN (1849-1933) was married 24 Sep 1877, Anglican Church, Northam, WA to ANNIE MARIA DUNHAM (1850-1933), registered in Fremantle, WA [Reg. 4372]. He was aged 28 years and Annie was 27.

This image from Annie Maria Dunham's bible (held by Mary Coulthard), records the marriage of Annie Dunham to Thomas Harrison Blechynden and includes the details of his birth.

"Annie M Dunham
Born Sept 28, 1850
Married September
24/1877
To T H Blechynden

Thomas Harrison Blechynden
Born Sept 9th, 1849"

DUNHAM, ANNIE 'ANNA' MARIA (1850-1933) was born 28 Sep 1850 York, WA [Reg. 1533]. Her name was recorded as Anna Maria. She was the first of six children born to CAROLINE DUNHAM WRIGHT, (NEE PORLEY) (1823-1897) and WILLIAM DUNHAM (1815-1884).

This was Annie's mother Caroline's second marriage. Her first husband Edmund Richard Wright tragically died from drowning in 1847. Caroline and Edmund Wright had three children: Emma Amelia, Ellen Jane and Alfred Ambrose Wright. The children at the time of his death were aged: Amelia, six; Ellen, four; and Ambrose almost one.

Annie's mother Caroline Wright (nee Porley) married William Dunham in 1850. Caroline and William Dunham had 6 children: Annie Maria, William (died as a baby), George William, Lewis James, Walter John and Emma Sarah Dunham.

Pages from Annie Maria Dunham's bible (held by Mary Coulthard) contain a few interesting dates and details regarding this family.

Thomas Harrison
Blechynden
Born Sept 9, 1849
Annie Maria Dunham
Born Sep 28, 1850
Born at York at Brocklesby
.....
In 1841
3rd March Geo went for
Ethel Dunham
Mrs Lott refused to give her up
.....
1917
Fred Blechynden lost at war.
Helen J Quartermaine
Died at Wagin August 12
age 74

John Blechynden Sen
Died at Roesland
Oct 14th 1900
age 67
.....
Alfred A Wright
Died at Perth July 13
(1903)
age 57
.....
Lewis James Dunham
Died at York April 26, 1914
Age 56
.....
Herbert W Dunham
Died of wounds
August 19, 1916
Son of Geo Dunham

1917 April 2nd
Died of Wounds
F. L. Sexton
.....
Annie. M. Blechynden
.....
1917
B L Blechynden
Married to Daisy Powell
April 16
.....
1923
Millie Stirling our sister died May 17

The following pages contain details of Annie Maria Dunham's parents and grandparents:

PORLEY, CAROLINE (1823-1897) Annie Maria Dunham's mother

Discrepancy: Some family sources record Caroline Porley as being born in 1823, others in 1824. Caroline was born 1823, baptised 4 May 1824, Layham, Suffolk, England, daughter of THOMAS PORLEY (1799-1839) and SARAH CHRISP JACKAMAN (1797-1882) who were married 25 Dec 1822, Layham, Suffolk, England. They arrived in the Colony of WA, 23 Aug 1829 per the ship, Marquis of Anglesea with their two children Caroline and Ambrose.

Caroline Dunham (nee Porley) and her mother Sarah Porley (nee Jackaman). Courtesy Mary Coulthard

PORLEY, THOMAS (1799-1839) Caroline Porley's father, Annie Maria Dunham's grandfather

The spelling of the surname of Thomas and his father John varies from Pawly/Pawley to Porley.

Thomas Pawly was born 21 Sep 1799, Layham, Suffolk, England. Parents: JOHN PAWLY (1784-1847) and MARY COOPER (~1767-). Surname for father and son registered as Pawly.

In the following article Thomas Porley is mentioned as one of the party that was sent to retrieve the body of murdered Reuben Beacham. See John Blechynden and Elizabeth Green section for more detailed information regarding the Reuben Beacham and Chippers Leap incident.

The West Australian (Perth WA: 1879-1954), Wed 3 May 1939, pg 21.

Murder of Reuben Beacham 3 Feb 1832, Greenmount Hill, Perth WA. After John Chipper reported Beacham's death, Thomas Porley was one of the party sent up to retrieve Beacham's body.

Thomas Porley died from an accidental blow received in a squabble with some of the whalers on 18 May 1839, Perth, WA. There is more about his death caused by this incident following a bit later.

JACKAMAN, SARAH CHRISP (1797-1882)

Caroline Porley's mother, Annie Maria Dunham's grandmother. Discrepancy: Family Tree records and Births via Ancestry record that Sarah Chrisp Jackaman was born 26 Oct 1796, Raydon, Suffolk, England and her baptism was recorded as 18 Nov 1796.

Extract from a 'Birthday Book' held by Mary Coulthard records Sara was born in 1797.

ROBERT JACKERMAN (1772-) and SARAH CHRISP (1773-) were married 18 Nov 1796, Raydon, Suffolk, England. [FHL Film number: 919628]. Sarah Chrisp Porley (nee Jackaman) died 17 Oct 1882 in York, WA [Reg No. 11610].

WA Museum Welcome Walls: Panel number 94, Fremantle.

<http://museum.wa.gov.au/welcomewalls/names/porley-thomas-sarah>

PORLEY, Thomas & Sarah
1799 – 18 May 1839
6 October 1797 – 17 October 1882
Origin Sussex England
First settled in Perth Town Lot G3, St George's Tce
MARQUIS OF ANGLESEA
Departure Port London/Plymouth
Arrival Year 1829
Fremantle
94
Panel
Read their story

Arrived, bonded servants to R Partridge aboard ANGLESEA 23/08/1829. Children, Caroline (b. May 1823, d. York 09/07/1897. Ambrose (b.1824, d. York 25/01/1842). ANGLESEA foundered Swan River mouth 03/09/1829, then became colony's first Post Office before breaking up. Had 2 more children, Harriet (b. 09/04/1831) and George (b. 1833, d. 1842). Owned a butcher shop on Town Lot G3, St George's Terrace, Perth (Westralia Square). Thomas died accidentally 1839, Perth. Sarah died in York, 1882.

MARQUIS OF ANGLESEA

<https://membership.wags.org.au/1829-ships/102-anglesea>

Settlers Gazette Newsletter of the Swan River Pioneers 1829 – 1838: Issue No.12, Sep 1997

Marquis of Anglesea

SERVANTS
Mary BURTON Maria HARLOW Wm GLOVER Lucy GLOVER & 2chn [William Glover] [Thomas Glover] John MENZIES Henry SAWYER	James BROOKES Claryford BROOKES James LANGRIDGE John WELBOURNE James JENKINS James GILL Mathew GILL Mary Ann GIBB	Thos PAUL [PORLEY] Sarah PAUL [PORLEY] & 2chn [Ambrose Porley] [Caroline Porley] John SMITH James HAMPSHIRE Wm LITTLEMORE

From Dr Alexander Collie's Journal: September 7, 1829. During a gale from the westward on the night of September 3, the ship Marquis of Anglesea (352 tons) which had lately arrived (on August 23rd under the command of Captain W Stewart) with 130 settlers on board and anchored in Gage Roads close to the mouth of the Swan River, drove on shore, bilged and filled with water; all hands were saved with part of the cargo that remained unloaded. This with the previous driving of the Calista shows that Gage Roads, at this season is not safe and may occasion the establishment of another sea-port in Cockburn Sound.

MARQUIS OF ANGLESEA <https://fremantlestuff.info/ships/marquisofanglesea.html>

This is a photograph of the image on an interpretive plaque at Bathers Bay, showing the location of the wreck on Anglesea Point, with South Bay (now filled in and become the Esplanade) to this (southern) side of it.

The Marquis of Anglesea was the sixth ship to arrive at Swan River, anchoring in Gage Roads on 23 August 1829. (See white circle:) On board were 104 passengers mainly from Cornwall. One child was born on the journey. On 4 September, a gale drove the ship onto the rocks dragging its three anchors.

Fortunately, the passengers and most of the cargo had already been unloaded. Damaged beyond repair, the stranded hull of the Marquis of Anglesea was sold to local merchant George Leak for £170. He then leased the wreck to the Government which treated it as a ready-made building. A few modifications and it soon became the Governor's residence, the Harbour Master's office, the Post Office, a prison for refractory servants and the colonial store.

The wreck later became the colonial gaol, housing up to twenty-seven prisoners. For a time, it also housed a mental patient, the deranged surgeon Nicholas Langley. Its final use was as a grain store. After some three years the wreck was finally broken up by heavy seas.

CONDITIONS FOR LAND GRANTS AT SWAN RIVER, Colonial Office, 5 Dec 1828.

<http://gutenberg.net.au/ebooks14/1402751h.html>

The Porley's arrived via the Marquis of Anglesea in September of the first year of the settlement of the Swan River Colony. Their names were recorded in the general muster book.

[Enclosure No. 1a]—continued.
ABSTRACT from General Muster Book—continued.

No.	Date.	Name.	Age.	Place of Birth.	Married or Single.	To what country subject.	Profession or Calling.	Remarks.
194	Sept. 4	Robert A. Partridge	Years.	Shelly	single	Great Britain..	Agriculturist.
195	" 4	John Smith	30	ditto	ditto	ditto
196	" 4	Thomas Porley	29	ditto	married	ditto
197	" 4	Sarah Porley	26	ditto	his wife	ditto
198	" 4	Caroline Porley	7	ditto	children	ditto	General servants.
199	" 4	Ambrose Porley	4	ditto	ditto	ditto
200	" 4	John Wade	25	Hereford	single	ditto	Agriculturist.
201	Sept. 24	Daniel Carter	23	ditto	married	ditto	ditto
202	" 24	Elizabeth Carter	26	ditto	his wife	ditto
203	" 24	John Menzies	16	ditto	single	ditto	Servants.
204	" 24	Henry Sawyer	15	ditto	married	ditto
205	Sept. 25	William Short	..	ditto	single	ditto	Stonemason.
206	" 25	John Patterson	..	ditto	ditto	ditto	Sawyer.
207	" 25	Joseph Key	..	ditto	ditto	ditto	Shipwright.
208	" 25	William Gawler	..	ditto	married	ditto	Government sawyer.
209	" 25	..	..	..	..	..
210	" 25	A. Price	..	ditto	single	ditto	Clerk to secretary.
211	" 25	R. Clint	..	ditto	ditto	ditto	ditto to surveyor.
212	" 25	John Smith	..	ditto	ditto	ditto	Seaman.
213	" 25	Matthew Hargrave	..	ditto	ditto	ditto	Mariner.
214	" 25	John Walgreen	..	ditto	ditto	ditto	ditto
215	" 25	John Cole	..	ditto	ditto	ditto	ditto
216	October 7	Thomas B. Wall	36	Chatham	married	ditto	Carpenter.
217	" 7	Matilda Wall	35	ditto	his wife	ditto
218	" 7	George Wall	8	ditto	children	ditto
219	" 7	Matilda Wall	6	ditto	ditto	ditto
220	" 7	Mary Ann Wall	3	ditto	ditto	ditto
221	Oct. 8	John Kella	24	Bourton	single	ditto	Agriculturist.
222	" 8	Robert Chalmers	..	ditto	ditto	ditto
223	Oct. 13	Henry Trigg	38	Gloucester	married	ditto	Builder.
224	" 13	W. H. Edwards	31	London	ditto	ditto	Boatbuilder.
225	" 13	Thomas Dent	34	Westmoreland	ditto	ditto	Farmer.
226	" 13	Joshua Gregory	39	London	ditto	ditto	Army	On half-pay.

HISTORICAL RECORDS OF AUSTRALIA.

General muster book, Swan River Colony - including Thomas, Sarah, Caroline and Ambrose Porley

Copy of a letter sent prior to the voyage, from Ansell Partridge.
Courtesy Cliff Harris via the records in London.
Cliff is a descendant of the Dunham family.

As I am about to proceed to the West Coast of New Holland by the ship Marquise of Anglesea on Monday . . . and understanding that it is necessary to apply to you for a . . .
of land on my arrival there that I humbly request the same for myself . .

Ansell Partridge and that of my servants Thomas Porley, Wife, two Children and John Smith . . .
the county of Suffolk. My capital . . . in Agricultural implements . . .
the amount of (with cash) £500. Etc . . .

Thomas Porley acquired a land grant, Perth Town Lot G3, located on St George's terrace close to the corner of William St, and set up a butchering business on the site.

Image above courtesy Mary Coulthard. Note: It seems that lot G3 went right through from Hay Street to St George's Terrace. It is interesting that this plot G3 adjoins the land G1 and G2 where Levi Green had his flour mill and home. See the section on Elizabeth Green in the branch of John and Elizabeth Blechynden for more information.

From an article on the inquest of the death of Thomas Porley it becomes apparent that he and Harrison Blechynden were known to one another. This article can be read in the chapter on Harrison Blechynden and Charlotte Robus.

Perth Gazette and Western Australian Journal (WA: 1833 - 1847), Sat 18 May 1839, pg 79

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article639109.txt>

FATAL ACCIDENT THOMAS PORLEY 1799 – 1839

ACCIDENTAL DEATH:

Thomas Porley died last night from an accidental blow received in a squabble with some of the whalers belonging to the 'Elizabeth' whaling ship. An inquiry will most probably be instituted into the circumstances of this occurrence, when we shall make a point of giving the full particulars.

Since writing the foregoing, we have heard that an inquiry took place this morning, before the sitting Magistrates of Perth, when the person who struck Porley was fully relieved from any guilty intention to injure the deceased, he having acted in self-defence.

ACCIDENTAL DEATH.—Thomas Porley died last night from an accidental blow received in a squabble with some of the whalers belonging to the Elizabeth whaling ship. An inquiry will most probably be instituted into the circumstances of this occurrence, when we shall make a point of giving the full particulars.

Since writing the foregoing, we have heard that an inquiry took place this morning before the sitting Magistrates at Perth, when the person who struck Porley was fully relieved from any guilty intention to injure the deceased, he having acted in self-defence.

The Perth Gazette – 25 May 1839:

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/article/639098>

Inquiry Into the Circumstances Attending the Death of Thomas Porley.

Before W. H. Mackie, Esq, Rev. J. Wittenoom, and Hon. P. Brown, George Leake and John Lewis Esquires, Justices of the Peace. On 11 May 1839.

Mr W. Leeder, being sworn, deposed- Shortly after six o'clock this evening, Porley left my yard after assisting Harrison Blechynden to kill a pig for me. I heard his voice shortly afterwards in dispute with some other person near Mr Habgood's, and expecting they were going to fight I went down to the spot, intending to have got Porley home, as he was not sober when he left my yard. When I got down into the street opposite Mr Habgood's, I saw Porley, and a man of colour attempting to strike at him, and then to get out of his way, as if skylarking- it was more like that than a fight. He struck Porley two or three times, and then ran down the cross pathway in front of Mr Habgoods. Porley followed him down the pathway, about two thirds of the way, and then stopped and came back again towards Mr Habgood's. While Porley was doing so, a white lad, who stood at the top of the cross pathway in front of Mr Habgoods, called out to the black man, "Come along Harry the mate wants you", Porley then turned around upon the white lad and said, "What have you to do with Harry?" and immediately struck the white lad. Immediately a tall big man, whose name I understand to be Stillaman, ran from Mr Habgoods fence, and pulled off his jacket, saying, "Oh! You have struck my brother". He said some other words of a threatening kind, which I did not distinctly hear. I tried to stop him, he put himself in a fighting attitude, and said he would give it to me, if I did not get out of the way, or words to that effect. He ran towards Porley; Blechynden came between them, trying to stop Stillaman, shoved him aside, telling him to get out of the way. Stillaman immediately closed with Porley, who received him in an attitude of defence. I did not see whether Porley struck any blows; I saw Stillaman strike Porley one blow; they both fell almost immediately after they closed; they rolled over each other; I think Porley was undermost at first; I did not see Stillaman strike while he was down, as soon as Stillaman rose, he took his jacket, and as he was going into Mr Habgoods, he said, "I thought you would get my temper up". They fell on the pathway close to Mr Habgood's front fence; I was about five or six yards off when

FATAL ACCIDENT.

INQUIRY INTO THE CIRCUMSTANCES
ATTENDING THE DEATH OF THOMAS PORLEY.

Before W. H. Mackie, Esq., Rev. J. Wittenoom, and Hon. P. Brown, George Leake, and John Lewis, Esquires, Justices of the Peace, on the 11th of May, 1859.

Mr. W. Leeder, being sworn, deposed—Shortly after six o'clock this evening, Porley left my yard, after assisting Harrison Blechynden to kill a pig for me. I heard his voice shortly afterwards in dispute with some other person near Mr. Habgood's, and, expecting they were going to fight, I went down to the spot, intending to have got Porley home, as he was not sober when he left my yard. When I got down into the street opposite Mr. Habgood's I saw Porley, and a man of colour attempting to strike at him, and then to get out of his way, as if skilfully—it was more like that than a fight. He struck Porley two or three times, and ran down the cross pathway in front of Mr. Habgood's. Porley followed him down the pathway about two-thirds of the way, and then stopped, and came back again towards Mr. Habgood's. While Porley was doing so, a white lad, who stood at the top of the path near Mr. Habgood's, called out to the black man, "Come along, Harry, the mate wants you." Porley then turned round upon the white lad, and said, "What have you to do with Harry?" and immediately struck the white lad. Immediately a tall, big man, whose name I understand to be Stillaman, ran out from Mr. Habgood's fence and pulled off his jacket, saying, "Oh! you have struck my brother." He said some other words of a threatening kind, which I did not distinctly hear. I tried to stop him. He put himself in a fighting attitude, and said he would give it to me, if I did not get out of the way, or words to that effect. He ran towards Porley; Blechynden came between them and tried to stop Stillaman, shoved him aside, telling him to get out of the way. Stillaman immediately closed with Porley, who received him in an attitude of defence. I did not see whether Porley struck any blows; I saw Stillaman strike Porley one blow; they both fell almost immediately after they closed; they rolled over each other; I think Porley was underneath at first; I did not see Stillaman strike him while he was down. As soon as Stillaman rose, he took his jacket, and as he was going into Mr. Habgood's, he said, "I thought you would get my temper up." They fell on the pathway close to Mr. Habgood's front fence; I was about five or six yards off when they fell. I saw Porley carried away by Blechynden and John Dudley. I did not hear Porley speak after he rose. Porley was the worse for liquor, but he was not so far gone but that he could have walked home.

Cross-examined by the prisoner.—Porley has been addicted to liquor. I did not see him strike.

By the Court.—The blow which Stillaman gave Porley seemed to fall about the breast or neck, but I cannot say which. I cannot say whether he fell on his back or side. They both fell down together. I saw no more than one round. The whole fight was over in two minutes. I did not suppose Porley was dead when he was carried home. He was not in a quarrelsome temper while at my house. He had half a bottle of beer and a glass of rum.

Mr. Harrison Blechynden, butcher, who was employed by the previous witness on the evening the accident occurred to kill a pig, with the assistance of the deceased, confirmed the witness' testimony. The deceased had been known to him since he had been in the Colony, and was often quarrelsome when in liquor, and was much addicted to drink. He was quite sure Porley did not fall from any blow, but from a struggle after Stillaman and deceased closed.

they fell. I saw Porley carried away by Blechynden and John Dudley. I did not hear Porley speak after he rose. Porley was the worse for liquor, but he was not so far gone but that he could have walked home.

Crossed Examined by the Prisoner – Porley has been addicted to liquor. I did not see him strike.

By The Court – The blow which Stillaman gave Porley, seemed to fall about the breast or the neck, but I cannot say which, I cannot say whether he fell on his back or his side. They both fell down together; I saw no more than one round. The whole fight was over in two minutes, I did not suppose Porley was dead when he was carried home. He was not in a quarrelsome temper while at my house, he had had half a bottle of beer and a glass of rum.

Mr Harrison Blechynden, butcher who was employed by the previous witness, on the evening the accident occurred, to kill a pig, with the assistance of the deceased, confirmed the witness' testimony. The deceased had been known to him since he had been in the Colony, and was often quarrelsome when in liquor, and was much addicted to drink. He was quite sure Porley did not fall from any blow, but from a struggle after Stillaman and deceased closed.

Mr John Habgood- About 6 O'clock yesterday evening, at dusk, I was in my store, and heard some persons outside quarrelling outside in the street, I went out and heard Porley say to Stillaman, "You leave me alone! What business have you to push up against me?" Stillaman said, "You d---d old thief, I never touched you." Porley squared up to Stillaman and hit him in the eye. I saw no blow struck by Stillaman, who immediately came into my shop, and said he had been hurt a little. Porley continued quarrelling outside the house, and I went out and told the persons there to take him away, for he was not in a fit state to be left fighting. I returned, and while putting up the things Stillaman had ordered, he ran out, took off his coat, and struck Porley several times, very hard, who was not so drunk, but he could stand, but I could see he had enough, and had no chance with Stillaman.

James Crichton, Esq, Colonial Surgeon. I have this morning examined the body of the deceased (Thomas Porley.) There is no external mark of any blow. I opened the skull, and on separating the scalp from the skull, there was an effusion of blood on the back part of the head. I found an effusion of blood between the dura-mater and the skull, on the inside on the back of the skull, between the skull and the membrane of the brain. On taking off the membrane, I found still further effusion between it and the brain itself. On cutting into the brain, the internal and superficial vessels appeared much enlarged. All these symptoms clearly show that the deceased died of a concussion of the brain, which must have been the result of a fall, and not a blow. Habitual intoxication would occasion an enlargement of the vessels, but not to the extent now visible in the deceased's brain, His brain exhibited marks of old injuries, apparently from falls. A slight concussion might prove fatal to a person addicted habitual intoxication. There was no mark of blows about the head, neck or chest. The state of the deceased's brain was as such to cause sudden death, and the affect, of such injuries would be greatly increased by intoxication at the time of receiving them.

William Sholl, Esq. Surgeon, assisted Dr Crichton to open the body, and concurred in the report made by him in every respect.

Mr. John Habgood.—About six o'clock yesterday evening, at dusk, I was in my store, and heard some persons quarrelling outside in the street. I went out, and heard Porley say to Stillaman, "You leave me alone! what business have you to push up against me?" Stillaman said, "You d---d old thief, I never touched you." Porley squared up to Stillaman, and hit him in the eye. I saw no blow struck by Stillaman, who immediately came into my shop, and said he had been hurt a little. Porley continued quarrelling outside the house, and I went out and told the persons there to take him away, for he was not in a fit state to be left fighting. I returned, and while putting up the things Stillaman had ordered, he ran out, took off his coat, and struck Porley several times very hard, who was not so drunk but he could stand, but I could see he had enough, and had no chance with Stillaman.

James Crichton, Esq., Colonial Surgeon.—I have this morning examined the body of the deceased (Thomas Porley). There is no external mark of any blow. I opened the skull, and on separating the scalp from the skull, there was an effusion of blood on the back part of the head. I found an effusion of blood between the dura-mater and the skull, on the inside of the back part of the skull, between the skull and the membrane of the brain. On taking off the membrane, I found still further effusion between it and the brain itself. On cutting into the brain, the internal and superficial vessels appeared very much enlarged. All these symptoms clearly show that the deceased died of a concussion of the brain, which must have been the result of a fall and not of a blow. Habitual intoxication would occasion an enlargement of the vessels, but not to the extent now visible in the deceased's brain. His brain exhibited marks of old injuries, apparently from falls. A slight concussion of the brain might prove fatal to a person addicted to habitual intoxication. There was no mark of blows about his head, neck, or chest. The state of the deceased's brain was such as to cause sudden death, and the effects of such injuries would be greatly increased by intoxication at the time of receiving them.

William Sholl, Esq., Surgeon, assisted Dr. Crichton to open the body of the deceased, and concurred in the report made by him in every respect.

The prisoner, Thomas Stillaman, headsman of the whaling schooner Elizabeth, made the following statement in his defence:—Yesterday evening I and Robert Lakin were going towards Mr. Habgood's from Mr. Samson's, when we fell in with the deceased near Mr. Habgood's. I bid him good evening, and asked him how himself and his daughter were. He murmured something like "What the h---l is that to you," and I and Mr. Lakin walked on. I partly said to Mr. Lakin the old man has got a fine daughter—I had not got the words out of my mouth, when Porley ran after me and slewed me round. I told him to go home; I did not want any row with him. He insisted on fighting with me, and struck me on the cheek, under my eye. I said, "You d---d old thief, if it was not for your old age, I would shake you out of your shoes," and I went into Mr. Habgood's. I had not been in long before Porley began scuffling with the man of colour now in Court (Harry Lambeth). He ran after Lambeth across the road, and as he was coming back, the mate Mr Lakin sang out for Harry Lambeth, and my brother Samuel, who was standing just outside Mr. Habgood's fence, repeated the call. Porley came up to him, and said to him, "What have you to do with Harry?" and knocked off his hat, and struck him three or four severe blows. I ran out immediately, saying to

The Prisoner, Thomas Stillaman, headsman of the Whaling Schooner Elizabeth, made the following statement in his defence:—Yesterday evening I and Robert Lakin were going towards Mr Habgood's from Mr Samson's, when we fell in with the deceased near Mr Habgood's. I bid him good evening, and asked him how he and his daughter were (Caroline?). He murmured something like "What the H---l is that to do with you," and I and Mr Larkin walked on, I partly said to Mr Larkin, the old man has got a fine daughter – I had not got the words out of my mouth, when Porley ran after me and slewed me around. I told him to go home; I did not want any row with him. He insisted on fighting with me, and struck me on the cheek, under my eye. I said, "You - d---d old thief, if it was not for your age would shake you out of your shoes," and I went into Mr Habgood's. I had not been in long before Porley began scuffling with the man of colour, now in Court (Harry Lambeth). He ran after Lambeth across the road, and as he was coming back, the Mate Mr Lakin sang out for Harry Lambeth, and my brother Samuel, who was standing just outside Mr Habgood's fence, repeated the call, Porley came up to him and said to him, "What have you to do with Harry?" and knocked off his hat, and struck him three or four severe blows. I ran out immediately, saying to Porley, "you have struck me, and I took no notice of it, but now you have struck my brother, I must return it, I closed with him and he fell – and Blechynden came between us. Porley seemed still inclined for fighting, and butted his head against my belly, saying "Down to go you b---r." I fell backwards and he on the top of me, and rolled over on the clay, and I over him. I do not think I hit him a blow the second scuffle, if I did it must have been a slight back blow.

Porley, "You have struck me, and I took no notice of it, but now you have struck my brother, I must return it. I closed with him and he fell—and Blechynden came between us. Porley seemed still inclined for fighting, and butted his head against my belly, saying, "Down to go you b---r." I fell backwards, and he on the top of me, and rolled over on the clay, and I over him. I do not think I hit him a blow the second scuffle; if I did, it must have been a slight back blow.

Mr. Robert Lakin, mate of the Elizabeth, corroborated this statement, and it was further confirmed by the evidence of John Dudley, G. Glyde, Henry Lambeth, and Samuel Stillaman, the prisoner's brother.

The Magistrates, after conferring together for a short time, gave it as their opinion that the evidence was not sufficient to warrant them in committing the aforesaid Thomas Stillaman to take his trial for the manslaughter of the aforesaid Thomas Porley.

Mr Robert Lakin, Mate of the Elizabeth, corroborated this statement, and it was further confirmed by the evidence of John Dudley, G. Glyde, Henry Lambeth, and Samuel Stillaman, the prisoner's brother.

The Magistrate's, after conferring together for a short time, gave it as their opinion, that the evidence was not enough to warrant them in committing the aforesaid Thomas Stillaman to take his trial for the Manslaughter of the aforesaid Thomas Porley.

Caroline Porley was married a year after the accidental death of her father Thomas Porley in 1939.

m.1 CAROLINE PORLEY (1823-1897) married EDMUND RICHARD WRIGHT (1816-1847) 16 Apr 1840 in Perth, WA, when she was 17 years of age.

MARRIAGE: Edmund Richard Wright; Age 24 — Marriage 16 Apr 1840, Perth, WA. Marriage Register: Marriages at Perth in the Year of Our Lord 1839-40 No.33: Edmund Wright of Perth, Bachelor and Caroline Porley of Perth, Spinster-: Ref: SAWA Series S4043.

MARRIAGES AT PERTH IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD, 1939-40

Copy of marriage certificate of Edmund Wright and Caroline Porley.
Courtesy Jean Stallwood

WRIGHT, EDMUND RICHARD (1816-1847), via Geoff's Master Tree, Ancestry, was baptised 10 Apr 1816, son of WILLIAM WRIGHT (1788-1855), coachmaker and JANE HODGE (1782-1851), Great Surrey Street, coachmaker, who were married 31 Jul 1802, Shrewsbury, Shropshire, England.

Notes via Geoff via Ancestry: As Jane Hodge was married as a "Minor" she was likely between 16 and 21 years at that time, making her birth year somewhere from 1781 to 1786. Her age at the 1851 census was given as 69 years.

July 1802, St Martin in the Fields, Westminster, England

Marriage of William Wright Batchelor and Jane Hodge of the same Parish spinster, a Minor, were married in this Church by Licence this 31st day of July 1802.

Edmund Richard Wright arrived in the colony per James Pattison, 19 Aug 1834. (Child migrants sent out by the Children's Friend Society).

Passenger ships arriving in 1829-89: <http://members.iinet.net.au/~perthdps/shipping/mig-wa.htm>

JAMES PATTISON, 19 08 1834, Fremantle London via Cape of Good Hope 97, landed some passengers at King George Sound on June 19; children from the Children's Friends Society were on board.

Perth Gazette and Western Australian Journal (WA: 1833 - 1847), Sat 23 Aug 1834, pg 342

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article641354.tx>

SHIPPING INTELLIGENCE.

Arrival—On Tuesday, the 19th inst., the James Pattison, Capt. Mellish, from London: general cargo. - Passengers, Sir James and Lady Stirling, and family; Mr. Andrew Stirling, Mr. G. Elliot, Mr. and Mrs. Donaldson, Mr. Mellersh, Mr. Mackie, Mr. Stokes, and 41 Steerage Passengers, including 14 boys and 4 girls from the Society for Promoting Juvenile Emigration. Landed at King George's Sound—Capt. Cheyne, Mr. Taylor, Messrs. Lees, Mr. and Mrs. Sheritt, and family; Mr. Jackson, Mr. Belches, Mr. Mudie, Mr. Watt, Mr. Attwood, and 30 Steerage Passengers, including 14 boys from the Society for Promoting Juvenile Emigration.

SHIPPING INTELLIGENCE.

ARRIVAL—On Tuesday, the 19th inst., the James Pattison, Capt. Mellish, from London: general cargo.—Passengers, Sir James and Lady Stirling, and family; Mr. Andrew Stirling, Mr. G. Elliot, Mr. and Mrs. Donaldson, Mr. Mellersh, Mr. Mackie, Mr. Stokes, and 41 Steerage Passengers, including 14 boys and 4 girls from the Society for Promoting Juvenile Emigration. Landed at King George's Sound—Capt. Cheyne, Mr. Taylor, Messrs. Lees, Mr. and Mrs. Sheritt, and family; Mr. Jackson, Mr. Belches, Mr. Mudie, Mr. Watt, Mr. Attwood, and 30 Steerage Passengers, including 14 boys from the Society for Promoting Juvenile Emigration.

Imports per James Pattison shall appear in our next.

THE CHILDREN'S FRIEND SOCIETY: JUVENILE EMIGRANTS TO WESTERN AUSTRALIA, SOUTH AFRICA AND CANADA, 1834-1842, by Geoff Blackburn. Courtesy Jean Stallwood.

Geoff Blackburn's great-great-grandfather was Edmund Richard Wright (1816-1847). His great grandfather was Alfred Ambrose Wright (1846-1903), and his grandfather was Fredrick William Wright (1879-1831).

William Dunham arrived in the Colony in December 1838 on board the "Britomart", which was the same ship that brought out Elijah Quartermaine, (whose grandson Charles Quartermaine later was married to Ellen Jane Wright, one of Dunham's stepdaughters). Also aboard was John Fowler who married Elizabeth Dicey, another CFS ward.

The following articles have a lot of information relating to Edmund Richard Wright (1816-1847). They indicate that he was apprenticed to William Brockman, as was Harrison Blechynden. They cover his unfortunate drowning and the fact that he was known to William Dunham, who later married his widow, Caroline.

THE CHILDREN'S FRIEND SOCIETY, BY GEOFF BLACKBURN, EDMUND WRIGHT, P. 138-139
WRIGHT, Edmund (14) b 1817 (born 1816)

26th May 1835, To the Jailer, Fremantle,

*Sir, You are hereby directed to discharged from your custody the individual named in the margin.
PS. The lad named is to make the best of his way to Mr Brockman's forthwith.*

CSO warded 7/49-page 194 letter No 485

An explanation of the above notice and following inserts from the Perth Gazette and Western Australian Journal, is included in the below informative article by Geoff Blackburn, a descendant of Edmund Wright.

Perth Gazette and Western Australian Journal (WA: 1833 - 1847), Sat 6 Jun 1835, pg 505
<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article640909.txt>

NOTICE. PROCEEDINGS at Law will be taken against any Person employing or harbouring my indentured Servant Edmund Wright.
W M. SHAW
Belvoir, May 29th.

Perth Gazette and Western Australian Journal (WA Sat 23 Oct 1841, Pg 2, Classified Advertising

Notice is hereby given that the partnership lately existing between the undersigned and John Oxley of Perth, as Butchers, has been dissolved. All accounts are requested to be paid to EDMUND WRIGHT. Perth Oct 20.

THE CHILDREN'S FRIEND SOCIETY, BY GEOFF BLACKBURN – EDMUND WRIGHT

WRIGHT, Edmund (14) b 1817

26th May 1835

To the Jailer, Fremantle

Sir,

You are hereby directed to discharge from your custody the individual named in the margin.

P.S. The lad above named is to make the best of his way to Mr Brockman's forthwith.

CSO forwarded 7/49 page 194 letter No 485

The name in the margin is Edmund Wright. This is the earliest known reference to Edmund Wright. What he was doing in the care of the jailer is not known. Wright seems to have been apprenticed to Brockman, although at about the time the letter above was written, William Shaw, Brockman's neighbour at the Upper Swan was advertising ("Perth Gazette" 6th June 1835) Wright as his absconded indentured servant.

In October 1837, Wright advertised his intention to leave the colony in the brig "Hero" ("Perth Gazette" 28th October 1837). This was the same ship on which Wittenoom intended transmitting requests to the London committee of the Children's Friend Society.

It is not known if Wright left on the ship or not. However, the six named passengers included Wright's master, W. L. Brockman as well as a Mr H. Samson. The "Hero" left Fremantle "... for Mauritius and London direct." ("Perth Gazette" 11th Nov 1837 p1003) "The Swan River Guardian" reported that "... Mr Brockman and Mr Spofforth, have left in the "Hero" on their way to Madras, for the purchase of the coarse ewe sheep of India, in order to cross them with our fine merino colonial rams." ("Swan River Guardian" 9th November 1837 p274a)

In December 1837, Wright received goods from London on the "Eleanor", the ship which brought out Mrs Massingham and the girls from the Children's Friend Society (Swan River Guardian 28th December 1837 p274). In February 1839 he was charged and acquitted, of burgling the premises of John and Caroline Okeley.

In the evidence given at the trial Wright states that he lived with Brockman (and previously Mrs Lyttleton) before he was employed by Okeley. At that time he was sleeping in a

The name in the margin is Edmund Wright.

To the Jailer, Fremantle,

Sir,

You are hereby directed to discharge-from your custody the individual named in the margin.

PS. The lad named is to make the best of his way to Mr Brockman's forthwith.

THE CHILDREN'S FRIEND SOCIETY, BY GEOFF BLACKBURN –
EDMUND WRIGHT– continued

shed at the rear of Thomas Porley's house and his chest of possessions were kept in Porley's front room. Porley put up half of Wright's bail of £100, the remainder being provided by John Thomson. (WAS 122 cons 3472/37 - April 1839 case file 191)

Porley was killed in an altercation with some whalers from the "Elizabeth" in the street and laneway adjacent to Habgood's store on the 17th May 1839 ("Perth Gazette" May 18th & 15th 1839 p79, 83 & 84). Wright later married Porley's daughter and only surviving child, Caroline, on the 16th April 1840, presumably acquiring Porley's Perth Town Lot G3, located on St George's Terrace close to the corner of William Street, and the butchering business situated on the site.

In November 1841 he advertised that "... the partnership lately existing between (himself) and John Oxley of Perth as Butchers has been dissolved. All accounts are requested to be paid to Edmund Wright." ("Perth Gazette" 13th November 1841 p2) He donated £1 to the erection of St George's Church in October 1842. Financial pressures forced the sale of the butchers shop and in July 1844 Mr Bracher was advertising "... Lard and home cured Pork, from York, and has the same on sale at Mr Wright's late shop in St George's Terrace". ("Inquirer" 3rd July 1844 p2a and "Perth Gazette" 6th July 1840 p1c)

On the 20th August 1847, Edmund Wright was drowned while attempting to swim his horse across the flooded Canning River at the Rapids Ford (now located at the end of Harris Street, Beckenham, a Perth suburb.) He had been attempting to take a herd of cattle to Fremantle to ship on the "Arpenteur". The following articles appeared in the contemporary newspapers;

"The Arpenteur is expected to sail for the Mauritius about the end of next week. Her owner, Mr Owen we understand contemplates an immediate return to this colony with his vessel, and may be expected in November, when our stock will be in better condition. The present cargo consists of sheep, cattle, and horses, but we have not been able to ascertain the number of each. This morning 21 cows and ten calves passed through Perth on their way to the place of shipment. It had been intended that they should travel on the south side of the river but, we regret to state that, in attempting to cross the Canning last evening, Mr Wright, who had the cattle in charge, was unfortunately drowned. He had been previously warned by Dr.

Inquirer* (Perth, WA: 1840 - 1855), Wed 25 Aug 1847, pg 2

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article65769714.txt>

On Friday evening last, Mr Edmund Wright, while attempting to cross the Canning with cattle, was unfortunately drowned at the rapids, opposite Dr. Shipton's residence. He was warned that the current was too strong, but persisted in making the essay; his horse could not stem the stream, and turned upon his side, when Wright either dismounted or was forced off. It is supposed that in this interval he received some injury from the animal, as he floated some little distance and then sank, without endeavouring to swim, which we understand he was able to do. The Messrs. Hester attempted to rescue him, but were too late. The body has not yet been found. The deceased was highly respected for his industrious habits, and, we regret to hear, has left a wife and several young children to mourn his loss. Subscription lists have been opened for the benefit of the widow and family, one of which lies at our office, where contributions, however trifling, will be thankfully received.

On Friday evening last, Mr. Edmund Wright, while attempting to cross the Canning with cattle, was unfortunately drowned at the Rapids, opposite Dr. Shipton's residence. He was warned that the current was too strong, but persisted in making the essay; his horse could not stem the stream, and turned upon his side, when Wright either dismounted or was forced off. It is supposed that in this interval he received some injury from the animal, as he floated some little distance and then sank, without endeavouring to swim, which we understand he was able to do. The Messrs. Hester attempted to rescue him, but were too late. The body has not yet been found. The deceased was highly respected for his industrious habits, and, we regret to hear, has left a wife and several young children to mourn his loss. Subscription lists have been opened for the benefit of the widow and family, one of which lies at our office, where contributions, however trifling, will be thankfully received.

body has not yet been found. The deceased was highly respected for his industrious habits, and, we regret to hear, has left a wife and several young children to mourn his loss. Subscription lists have been opened for the benefit of the widow and family, one of which lies at our office, where contributions, however trifling, will be thankfully received.

Perth Gazette and Western Australian Journal (WA: 1833 - 1847), Sat 28 Aug 1847, pg 3

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article647771.txt>

By the kindness of Mr Mackie we are enabled to give the official deposition relative to the unfortunate accident which occurred last week on the Canning. The body of Mr Wright had not been found up to last evening. A subscription for the aid of the widow and family is being raised, which we hope to find will be liberally and promptly added to by all classes.

William Dunnom, late of the York district, Agriculturist, on his oath, saith—Yesterday, Friday, the 20th day of August instant, about 12 o'clock at noon, I started in company with Edmund Wright, late of Guildford, agriculturist, from his house near Redcliffe, to drive some cattle to Fremantle by the road on the left bank of the Canning. Wright was on horseback, and I was on foot. We arrived at Mr. Shipton's on the right bank of the Canning, about 5 o'clock yesterday evening. The river was very much swollen. Wright asked Mr. Shipton how the water was. —Mr. Shipton said it was too high to attempt to cross it. Both myself and Mr. Shipton several times advised Wright not to try to cross over. Wright said, "Oh, bother it! let us try—come on Dunnom." He immediately rode his horse into the water, and had got about half way across when he either got off or fell off his horse. I saw him strike out, and saw his head above water for about five minutes, when he disappeared, and I saw no more of him. The current had carried him down, when I last saw him, about fifteen yards from where he entered the water; I did not hear him utter a word or a cry after he entered the river. Two of the young Messrs. Hester, on the left bank of the Canning, searched for his body for some time, I and Mr. Shipton searched for some time on the right bank. I left the Canning about six o'clock last night, about an hour after the accident had happened, and up to that time the body had not been recovered. Mr. Shipton and myself witnessed the accident. I am not aware that any other person (except a native who was assisting me to drive the cattle) saw the accident. Wright was perfectly sober. His horse was a very quiet one. It was some time before the horse could get out of the river. The sun was down at the time.

"By the kindness of Mr Mackie, we are enabled to give the official deposition relative to the unfortunate accident which occurred last week on the Canning. The body of Mr Wright had not been found up to last evening. A subscription for the aid of the widow and family is being raised, which we hope to find will be liberally and promptly added to by all classes.

William Dunnom (sic), late of the York district, Agriculturist, on his oath, saith – Yesterday, Friday, the 20th day of August instant, about 12 o'clock at noon. I started company with Edmund Wright late of Guildford, agriculturist, from his house near Redcliffe, to drive some cattle to Fremantle by the road on the left bank of the Canning. Wright was on horseback and I was on foot. We arrived at Mr Shipton's on the right bank of the Canning, about five o'clock yesterday evening. The river was very much swollen. Wright asked Mr Shipton how the water was. Mr Shipton said it was too high to attempt to cross it. Both myself and Mr. Shipton several times advised Wright not to try to cross over. Wright said, " Oh, bother it let us try come on Dunham." He immediately rode his horse into the water, and had got about half way across when he either got off or fell off his horse. I saw him strike out, and saw his head above water for about five minutes, when he disappeared, and I saw no more of him. The current had carried him down, when I last saw him, about fifteen yards from where he entered the water; I did not hear him utter a word or a cry after he entered the river. Two of the young Messrs. Hester, on the left bank of the Canning, searched for his body for some time, I and Mr. Shipton searched for some time on the right bank. I left the Canning about six o'clock last night, about an hour after the accident had happened, and up to that time the body had not been recovered. Mr. Shipton and myself witnessed the accident. I am not aware that any other person (except a native who was assisting me to drive the cattle) saw the accident. Wright was perfectly sober. His horse was a very quiet one.

It was some time before the horse could get out of the river. The sun was down at the time.

CONTINUING WITH THE STORY OF EDMUND RICHARD WRIGHT AND CAROLINE PORLEY:

Tragically, Edmund Richard Wright (1816-1847) drowned in 1847, WA [Reg. 362], while crossing the Canning River with some cattle. (Via Diary of EMMA SARAH DUNHAM IN 1922). Caroline was now aged about 24 years of age with three young children; Emma aged 6 years, Ellen 4 years, and Alfred 18 months. Edmund Richard Wright was buried at East Perth Cemetery 1 Sep 1847.

CAROLINE and EDMUND, via the Morische Family tree, Ancestry, had three children. More details on each follow in their own sections.

1. WRIGHT, EMMA AMELIA (1841-1923)

2. WRIGHT, ELLEN 'HELEN' JANE (1843-1917)
3. WRIGHT, ALFRED AMBROSE (1846-1903)

Caroline Wright (nee Porley) married a second time. More details follow further on in the chapter.

1st CHILD OF CAROLINE PORLEY & EDMUND RICHARD WRIGHT

1. WRIGHT, EMMA AMELIA (1841-1923) was born 20 May 1841, Perth, WA [Reg. 2]. Her first marriage was to RICHARD BOYCE GOLDSMITH MEARES (1819-1867), 14 Jul 1857, York, WA [Reg. 1078]. She was 16 years of age. There are several variations of Richard's name. With his marriage, he is recorded as Richard Boyce Goldsmith Meares. His death is recorded as Richard Gamble Boyce Meares.. He was born 19 Sep 1819, Brecknock, Breconshire, Wales. His parents were Captain RICHARD GOLDSMITH MEARES (1780-1862), and 'ELLEN' ELEANOR SEYMOUR (1785-1854) who were married 4 Jun 1808, Newcastle Upon Tyne, Northumberland, England. They had nine children as follows:

1. WILLIAM MEARES (1808-1808)
2. ELEANOR WILSONC MEARES (1809-1893)
3. GEORGINA SUSANNA MEARES (1811-1886)
4. JANE VITTORIA MEARES (1812-1891)
5. MARGUERTTA HARVEY SEYMOUR MEARES (1815-1875)
6. SEYMOUR JOHN GOLDSMITH MEARES (1816-1892)
- 7. RICHARD GAMBLE BOYCE MEARES (1819-1867)
8. GEORGE MUNRO MEARES (1822-1897)
9. WILLIAM RICHARD MEARES (1824-1860).

The Gilmore

RICHARD GOLDSMITH MEARES (1780-1862) BIOGRAPHY:

<http://adb.anu.edu.au/biography/meares-richard-goldsmith-2442>.

With his wife Ellen and eight children, Richard Snr arrived at the Swan River Colony in Dec 1829, with Thomas Peel in the Gilmore.

MUSEUM WITHOUT WALLS - MANDURAH COMMUNITY MUSEUM:

Thomas Peel set sail for the newly founded Swan River Colony, WA, in 1829 with three ships: the Gilmore, the Rockingham and the Hooghly. These three ships were loaded with general cargo consisting of farming implements, cattle, horses, and other farm animals, building material and a number of settlers with furniture and other household goods.

EMMA AMELIA WRIGHT (1841-1923) and RICHARD GOLDSMITH BOYCE MEARES (1819-1867) had four children as below. Of note, some family trees have Lucy Seymour Meares (1855-1867) as their first child. This is not correct. She was Lucy Seymour Burges who was born 1855, York, WA [Reg. 2859], parents: Vittoria Jane Meares (1812-1891) and Samuel Evans Burges (1811-1885) who were married 1843, York, WA [Reg. 92]. Lucy Seymour Meares died 1867, Tipperary, York, WA [Reg. 350], aged 11 years.

1. MEARES, RICHARD GOLDSMITH BOYCE (1858-1858) was born 1858, York, WA [Reg.4155]. Richard died as a baby aged 13 days, 1858, York, WA [Reg. 1118]. Name recorded as Richard Goldsmith Boyer.

2. MEARES, GEORGE GOLDSMITH (1859-1930) was born 28 May 1859, York, WA [Reg. 4808]. George married twice. Firstly, to JANE ADELINE POLLARD (1861-1894), 1885, Bunbury, WA [Reg. 5981]. They had two children. Jane died 29 Apr 1894, Perth, WA [Reg. 284]. His second marriage was to ELIZABETH TRAIL MUIR (1868-1945), 1894, Dingup, WA [Reg. 471]. They had six children. George died on 25 Sep 1930, Blackwood, WA [Reg.62].

3. MEARES, RICHARD GOLDSMITH (1862-1886) was born 1862, York, WA [Reg. 6285]. He married MARY ANN MORGAN (1861-1900), 21 Nov 1883, Northam, WA [Reg. 5637]. They had two children. Richard died 31 Oct 1886, Newcastle, WA [Reg. 14279].

4. MEARES, SEYMOUR BOYCE GAMBLE (1864-1934) was born 23 Feb 1864, 'Greenhill', York, registered 1864, York, WA [Reg. 7864]. He married HONORAH 'NORAH' ELLEN CELIA KEARNEY (1873-1956), 1895, Gullaway, (Galena Station, northwest), WA [Reg. 275]. They had six children. Seymour died 19 Nov 1934, York, WA [Reg.26].

Richard died 17 Jan 1867, York, WA [Reg. 3815C]. Twenty-two years after his death, EMMA AMELIA MEARES (NEE WRIGHT) (1841-1923) married a second time to EDMUND JOHN STIRLING (1815-1897), 7 Jul 1889, York, WA [Reg. 8]. Born as Starling. He had previously been married to Ethel Read (see details below). Edmund was born 15 Aug 1815 in Skeyton, Norfolk, England. His parents were EDMUND JOHN STARLING (1773-1852) and JUDITH MASSINGHAM (1777-1865) who were married 12 Jan 1806, Skeyton, North Walsham, Norfolk, England. Edmund arrived on the Ly-ee-Moon 14 Mar 1884, Sydney, NSW. EMMA and EDMUND had no children. Edmund died 2 Nov 1897, York, WA [Reg. 2779] and Emma died on 17 May 1923, York, WA [Reg.10].

m.1 EDMUND JOHN STIRLING (1815-1897) married ETHEL READ (1819-1887) 9 Nov 1836, Perth, WA. They had 13 children, all born in WA. Ethel died in 1887, WA [Reg. 581].

1. SARAH AMELIA ELIZABETH STIRLING (1838-1887),
2. MARY ANN STIRLING (1839-1897),
3. SARAH MARIA STIRLING (1841-1926),
4. JOHN EDMUND STIRLING (1843-1904),
5. LAURA HANNAH STIRLING (1846-1885),
6. FREDERICK ROBERT STIRLING (1847-1907),
7. AGNES STIRLING (1850-1851),
8. EMMA NAOMI STIRLING (1851-1913),
9. AGNES STIRLING (1853-1854),
10. HORACE GEORGE STIRLING (1855-1927),
11. LEVI JAMES KING STIRLING (1857-1929),
12. BALDWIN KING STIRLING (1859-1910), and
13. MADELINE KING STIRLING (1859-1859).

Eastern Districts Chronicle (York, WA: 1877 - 1927), Fri 25 May 1923, pg 2

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article148801437.txt>

OBITUARY.

MRS. E. A. STIRLING.

The death of Mrs. Emma Amelia Stirling, which took place at her residence in Pool Street on Thursday evening, the 17th instant, was briefly referred to in our last issue. The deceased lady, who passed away within eleven days of her 82nd birthday, was born in Perth, but had spent almost all her life in the York district. She was a daughter of the late Mr. Alfred Wright, who was drowned during the fifties in a yachting accident near the Canning Bridge. The deceased was twice married, her first husband being Mr. Richard Goldsmith Meares, who died in York. In the early nineties

-OBITUARY.

MRS. E. A. STIRLING.

The death of Mrs. Emma Amelia Stirling, which took place at her residence in Pool street on Thursday evening, the 17th instant, was briefly referred to in our last issue. The deceased lady, who passed away within eleven days of her 82nd birthday, was born in Perth, but had spent almost all her life in the York district. She was a daughter of the late Mr. Alfred Wright, who was drowned during the fifties in a yachting accident near the Canning Bridge. The deceased was twice married, her first husband being Mr. Richard Goldsmith Meares, who died in York. In the early nineties she married the late Mr. Edmund Stirling, one of Western Australia's earliest journalists, who founded the "Inquirer" and "Daily News" of Perth.

Mrs. Stirling's health had been failing for a very considerable period, and for some months the constant and increasing attendance of her relatives was necessary. Her illness was borne with great fortitude, and she passed quietly away on Thursday evening.

There are two sons—Mr. G. G. Meares, of Bridgetown, and Mr. Seymour B. G. Meares, of Greenhills.

The funeral took place on Sunday of emson, and prior to the interment in the Anglican portion of the Cemetery the Rev. S. S. Bolton conducted a service in Trinity Church. There were many in attendance, including both residents of the town and surrounding districts.

The chief mourners were:—Messrs. George and Seymour

Meares, George and Seymour Meares (sons), Mrs. Harrison Blechynden (sister), B.V., R. G., and T. G. Meares (grandsons), Miss D. M. Meares (granddaughter), and other relatives including nephews and nieces.

The pall-bearers were: Mr. Warren Marwick, J.P., Mr. Harold Brockman, J.P., Mr. G. E. Inkpen, J.P., Mr. W. B. Benson, Mr. R. G. Carr, and Mr. W. Johnson.

Floral tributes and messages of sympathy were received as follows:—From George and family, son Seymour, and family, Anne and James (nephews), Mr. and Mrs. C. Edwards, Mrs. Jay, Mr. and Mrs. Russell, Mrs. Kilo, Mr. and Mrs. Fisher, Messrs. Stuck, W. L. Dunham and family, Mrs. Hine and Joan, Mrs. Hayden, Mrs. Leeder, Mr. and Mrs. G. Pyke and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. White, Mrs. W. Macdonald, Uncle George and Aunt Jane and family, Miss Emma and family, Hilda, Ted, and family, Mrs. F. Taylor and family, Mrs. J. C. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. H. Edwards, Mrs. and Miss Wainwright, Miss Langford, Mr. and Mrs. Keener, Mrs. Ray, and family, Mr. R. Carr and family, Mrs. White (nephews), Mrs. and Miss Chippen, Miss C. Chippen, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Chippen, H. G. Stirling, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hardman, A. Craddock, W. J. Fenton, Gus Fenton, E. Saxson, Mrs. Bell, Mrs. A. C. Pyke (nephews), B. Watson, E. Dale, W. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Meares, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Inkpen and family, Mrs. Barber, Mr. and Mrs. Hickman, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Inkpen, Mr. and Mrs. H. Ashbolt and family, members of Football Club (nephews), Mr. and Mrs. D. McElroy, Mrs. E. Fenton and family, Mrs. Bell and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. Granger and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bolton, Edmund and Emma and family, Messrs. B. and C. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. E. Fenton, Mr. and Mrs. J. Lodge and family, Mr. and Mrs. Smith and family, Mr. W. F. Inkpen, Mrs. H. Ashworth, son, Mr. and Mrs. J. Marwick, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson.

The funeral arrangements were conducted by Messrs. J. L. Wainwright & Sons, Undertakers.

she married the late Mr. Edmund Stirling, one of Western Australia's earliest journalists, who founded the "Inquirer" and "Daily News," of Perth.

Mrs. Stirling's health had been failing for a very considerable period, and for some months the constant and unremitting attention of her relatives was necessary. Her illness was borne with great fortitude, and she passed quietly away on Thursday evening.

There are two sons—Mr. G. G. Meares, of Bridgetown, and Mr. Seymour B. G. Meares, of Greenhills.

The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon, and prior to the interment in the Anglican portion of the Cemetery the Rev. S. S. Bullen conducted a service in Trinity Church. There were many in attendance, including both residents of the town and surrounding districts. The chief mourners were: — Messrs. George and Seymour Meares (sons), Mrs. Harrison Blechynden (sister), B.V., R. G., and T. G. Meares (grandsons), Miss D. M. Meares (granddaughter), and other relatives including nephews and nieces.

The pall-bearers were: Mr. Warren Marwick, J.P., Mr. Harold Brockman, J.P., Mr. G. E. Inkpen, J.P., Mr. W. B. Sexton, Mr. R. G. Carr, and Mr. W. Johnson.

Floral tributes and messages of sympathy were received as follows: —Son George and family, son Seymour and family, Annie and Emma (sisters), Mr and Mrs C. Edwards, Mrs Ley, Mr and Mrs Russell, Mrs Ellis, Mr and Mrs Fisher, Misses Boyd, W. L. Dunham and family, . . .

2nd CHILD OF CAROLINE PORLEY & EDMUND RICHARD WRIGHT

2. WRIGHT, ELLEN 'HELEN' JANE (1843-1917) 'HELEN' was born 1843, Perth, WA [Reg. 187]. On 16 May 1860, she married CHARLES QUARTERMAINE (1838-1910), Beverley, WA [Reg. 1466]. Charles and Helen settled in Wagin where he was a successful farmer at 'Mayfield'. They had one daughter and two sons. Their daughter died at five months of age. Helen died 12 Aug 1917, Wagin, WA.

*Ellen Jane Quartermaine (nee Wright).
Courtesy Mary Coulthard*

QUARTERMAINE, CHARLES (1838-1910) was born 29 Aug 1838 at sea near Cape of Good Hope: His parents ELIJAH QUARTERMAINE (1809-1888) and ELIZABETH M DICKENSON (1819-1873) were married 30 Nov 1835, Garsington, Oxfordshire, England. Charles Quartermaine died 3 Jun 1910, Wagin, WA [Reg. 34]. ELIJAH and ELIZABETH had thirteen children. Their first child, Charles, was born at sea. The rest of the children were born in WA.

1. CHARLES QUARTERMAINE (1838-1910) married ELLEN JANE WRIGHT (1843-1917) as above.
2. ALFRED WILLIAM MCHARLES QUARTERMAINE (1841-1913) married MARYANN ADELINE KNOTT (1844-1920) 1862, Beverley, WA [Reg. 1859].
3. ELIJAH QUARTERMAINE (1842-1916) PARTNERED MARY ANN PETERS (WANTUM) (1846-1914). Recorded as Mary Anne. Mary already had 2 children. Mary and Elijah had 12 children. <https://www.findagrave.com/memorial/189289883/mary-wantum>
4. HENRY QUARTERMAINE (1844-~1844) was born 1844. He died as a baby.
5. EMILY QUARTERMAINE (1847-1928) married HENRY WALTER FLEAY (1841-1908) 1864, Gilgering, Beverley, WA [Reg. 2138].

6. HENRY QUARTERMAINE (1849-1923) married MATILDA MARY NORRISH (1851-1938) 4 Feb 1875, Albany, WA [Reg. 3873].
7. ELIZABETH QUARTERMAINE (1851-1918) married EDWARD SMITH (1849-1925) 8 Feb 1877, Perth, WA [Reg. 4360].
8. ELI QUARTERMAINE (1852-1936) married ELLEN BARRON SMITH (1853-1897) 8 Feb 1877, Albany, WA [Reg. 4255]. m2. ELI QUARTERMAINE (1852-1936) married MARTHA ROSE FOULDS (1872-1963) 1910, Perth, WA [Reg. 100122].
9. JOHN QUARTERMAINE (1855-1919) married JANE TONDUIT (1856-1943) 1882, WA [Reg. 5376]. Recorded as Jane Tonduit.
10. FREDERICK QUARTERMAINE (1857-1930) married FANNY ALICE ANDREWS (1860-1938) 27 Sep 1882, Norring Lake, WA [Reg. 5428].
11. WILLIAM CHARLES ALFRED QUARTERMAINE (1860-1926) married ELIZABETH SMITH (1862-1940) 1883, WA [Reg. 5518].
12. RICHARD QUARTERMAINE (1864-1864) was born 1864, Beverley, WA [Reg. 7976]. He died at three days of age in Beverley [Reg. 2587].
13. * One child who died young, not accounted for.

WA Welcome Walls: <https://museum.wa.gov.au/welcomewalls/names/quartermaine-elijah-0>

Elijah and Elizabeth Quartermaine emigrated from Marsh Baldon, Oxfordshire, England, departing at Plymouth, England arriving in the Swan River Colony in 1838, via the Britomart. Elijah was the original white settler at Katanning in 1842, where he took up farming leases and settled in 1854. As detailed above, Elijah and Elizabeth had 13 children, three of whom died young. The remaining eight sons and two daughters became farmers and married farming families in Wagin and Katanning.

Katikati Advertiser, Tue, Mar 8, 2005 p. 5

HOMEWARD BOUND – PUZZLE SOLVED

A story that began in Katikati as a mystery without much hope of being solved has ended up with two lost old photographs on their way "home" to Australia.

(Note Katikati is a town located between Waihi Beach and Tauranga, North Island, New Zealand.)

KATIKATI ADVERTISER, Tuesday, March 8, 2005 5

OUR PEOPLE, OUR PLACE

Homeward bound — puzzle solved

By ELAINE FISHER

A STORY that began in Katikati as a mystery without much hope of being solved has ended up with two lost old photographs on their way "home" to Australia.

Ellen and Charlie Quartermaine's 1880s wedding photo is on its way to a family reunion in Western Australia, in the hope it can be returned to its descendants.

Glady's and Ken Moore of Keweenaw have agreed to take it, and another old photo found in a box that Sharrin Riley of Katikati brought at a garage sale, is next month's Quartermaine reunion in Katanning near Beverley.

"I will be delighted if the photos can go back to their rightful owners," says Sharrin, who contacted the Advertiser and Bay of Plenty Times for help in finding the Quartermaine family after she rediscovered the photos when she was cleaning a shed at her Hot Springs Rd home last year.

Ellen and Charlie's photo, along with one of their grandson Arnold, were in a box she had bought years ago at a flea market or garage sale. All that Sharrin could remember was that it had been bought in the Bay of Plenty.

The wedding photo had several written on the back by Charlie and Ellen's granddaughter Alice and it was her loving words about her family which prompted Sharrin to try to return the old photos to her descendants.

The newspaper stories brought several calls from people keen to help.

Geoffrey Straker of Tauranga thought Arnold Quartermaine was a soldier in military uniform, could have been the teacher students called "Q" at Wellington College in the 1960s but his year book revealed the English teacher was M. J. Quartermaine.

John Duggan of Katikati, who is a keen genealogist, checked birth, death and marriage records to discover that Charlie Quartermaine was born on a ship rounding the Cape of Good Hope, South Africa, and that he and Ellen married in Washington D.C. Then Elaine Lewis of Levin, whose grandmother was a Quartermaine (without the 'e' connected the Advertiser after a friend told her of the story.

In a letter about the family she said Ellen and Charlie were farmers at Talbot Creek, near Beverley, in Australia in the late 1880s. Charlie, the first of Elijah and Elizabeth's children, was born in 1842.

"The family name has undergone many changes through the years, the New Zealand spelling is minus the 'e'."

The family originated in France, hence the name 'quatre' meaning four and 'main' for hand. They were people who were described as working so fast with their hands that it appeared they had four hands. The first reference of this surname was recorded in the 12th century, one Robertus Quartermaineus, Elaine wrote.

Herbert Quartermains was mentioned in the Mersey Municipalities of Oxfordshire in 1874 AD, an area where the family still lives today.

Elaine has a copy of the family crest, which includes four hands. She was unable to establish a direct personal link with Ellen and Charlie or Alice or Arnold, but suggested a call to Ken and Gladys Moore of Keweenaw could be worthwhile.

Glady's mother was a Quartermaine and Ken has extensively researched the family, writing a Memoir about the Quartermaines of England and Western Australia.

He said Charlie's parents, Elijah and Elizabeth, were married in England in 1838 and later moved to Australia, travelling in a covered wagon (no doubt with infant Charlie) over the Darling Range to York, finally settling at Keweenaw near Beverley where they became successful landowners.

"Their story is filled with hardships and struggles. They faced hard convicts, snakes, the death of several of their babies and isolation," Elaine says.

On April 15 and 16 about 2500 Quartermaine descendants are expected to attend the reunion at Katanning and visit Elijah and Elizabeth's homestead — Ken is to be among the speakers at the event.

It is then that he and Gladys hope to give the old photos to Charlie's branch of the family.

Ellen and Charlie Quartermaine's 1880s wedding photo is on its way to a family reunion in Western Australia in the hope it can be returned to its descendants.

Gladys and Ken Moore of Kawerau have agreed to take it and another old photo found in a box that Sharnie Riley of Katikati bought at a garage sale, to next month's Quartermaine reunion in Katanning near Beverley.

"I will be delighted if the photos can go back to their rightful owners," says Sharnie, who contacted the Advertiser and Bay of Plenty Times for help in finding the Quartermaine family after she rediscovered the photos when spring cleaning a shed at her Hot Springs Rd home last year.

Ellen and Charlie's photo, along with one of their grandson Arnold, were in a box she had bought years ago at a flea market or garage sale. All that Sharnie could remember was that it had been bought in the Bay of Plenty.

The wedding photo had details written on the back by Charlie and Ellen's granddaughter Alice and it was her loving words about her family which prompted Sharnie to try to return the old photos to her descendants.

The newspaper stories brought several calls from people keen to help.

Geoffrey Streeter of Tauranga thought Arnold Quartermaine pictured in military uniform could have been the teacher students called "Q" at Wellington College in the 1940s but his year book revealed the English teacher was M. L. B. Quartermaine.

Helen Duggan of Katikati, who is a keen genealogist, checked birth, death and marriage records to discover that Charlie Quartermaine was born on a ship rounding the Cape of Good Hope, South Africa, and that he and Ellen married in Washington DC.

Then Elaine Lyttle of Levin, whose grandmother was a Quartermain (without the 'e') contacted the Advertiser after a friend told her of the story.

In a letter about the family, she said that Ellen and Charlie were farmers at Talbot Creek, near Beverley, in Australia in the late 1800s. Charlie the first of Elijah and Elizabeth's children was born in 1860.

The family name has undergone many changes through the years, the New Zealand spelling minus the "e". The family originated in France, hence the name "quatre" meaning four and "main" for hand. They were people who were described as working so fast with their hands that it appeared they had four hands. The first reference of this surname was recorded in the 12th Century, one Robertus Quartuormanus," Elaine wrote.

Herbert Quartermain was mentioned in the Merton Muniments of Oxfordshire in 1187 AD, an area where the family still lives today.

Elaine has a copy of the family crest which includes four hands. She was unable to establish a personal link with Ellen and Charlie or Alice or Arnold but suggested a call to Ken and Gladys Moore of Kawerau could be worthwhile.

Gladys' mother was a Quartermaine and Ken has extensively researched the family, writing A Memoir, about the Quartermain's of England and Western Australia.

He said Charlie's parents, Elijah and Elizabeth were married in England in 1838 and later moved to Australia, travelling in a covered wagon (no doubt with infant Charlie) over the Darling Range to York, finally settling at Katanning, near Beverley where they became successful landowners.

Their story is filled with hardships and struggles. They faced heat, convicts, snakes, the death of several of their babies and isolation – it would make a great movie," Ken says.

On April 15 and 16 about 2000 Quartermaine descendants are expected to attend the reunion at Katanning and visit Elijah and Elizabeth's homestead – Ken is to be among the speakers at the event.

It is then that he and Gladys hope to give the old photos to Charlie's branch of the family.

Via Judy Criddle: "These are my great grandparents, Charles Quartermaine 1838-1910 and his wife Ellen Jane Wright. I was at the Quartermaine reunion in Katanning and Ken Moore put up the photo etc of them, the hairs just stood up on my neck. First time I was speechless according to my sister who was standing next to me. It's a lovely story and I thanked Sharnie for trying to find out who they were. I gave the photo to the society, can't remember the ladies name who asked could it be put in with their history. And thank you Mary for copying and enlarging the photo for me. I had never seen that photo, presumed it was sent to a rellie in New Zealand and were in excellent condition after all that time.

ELLEN JANE WRIGHT (1843-1917) and CHARLES QUARTERMAINE (1838-1910) had three children:

1. QUARTERMAINE, ELIZABETH CAROLINE (1861-1861) was born 11 May 1861 York, WA [Reg. 5808]. She died at almost five months on 5 Oct 1861, Plantagenet, WA [Reg. 35].

2. QUARTERMAINE, CHARLES EDMUND (1862-1944) born 7 Jun 1862, York, WA [Reg. 6573]. Charles died 14 Apr 1944, Wagin, (Katanning), WA [Reg No. 24]. CHARLES married LOUISA JANE TONDUT (1870-1926) 1889, Arthur River, (Williams Bridge), WA [Reg. 81]. Her name recorded as Louisa Jane Tondut. Note variations in spelling of Tondut, Tonduit. Registered as being born 1871, Perth, WA [Reg. 12864], father, JAMES TONDUIT, mother, MARY TONDUIT. Registered as Jane Louisa Tonduit. CHARLES and LOUISA had seven children. The births of the children showed a variation of their mother's surname. The first two children, had their mother recorded as Louisa Jane Tonduit. The rest of the children had their mother recorded as Louisa Jane Tondut.

1. ALBERT CHARLES QUARTERMAINE (1889-1963) married FLORENCE AGNES HYNES (1894-1983) 25 Feb 1914, Katanning, WA [Reg. 16].

2. ETHEL VICTORIA PEARL QUARTERMAINE (1892-1969) married HORACE BARRON JOSEPH TAYLOR (1892-1959) Jun 1912, Katanning, WA [Reg. 22].

3. CLARENCE EDWARD AUGUSTUS QUARTERMAINE (1894-1978) married SELINA SADLER (1901-1966) 1924, Perth, WA [Reg. 227].

4. HORACE HERBERT CECIL QUARTERMAINE (1896-1973) married GWENDOLINE PATRICIA HOPE NEWMAN (1920-1982) 1941, Perth, WA [Reg. 2599].

5. MAUD MARY ELLEN QUARTERMAINE (1899-1900) was born. 3 Apr 1899, Wagin, WA [Reg No. 24432]. Maud Mary Ellen Quartermaine died 1901, Wagin, WA [Reg. 1312], aged 10 months. Died in 1900, registered in 1901.

6. LAVINA MAY FRANCES QUARTERMAINE (1901-1966) married FRANCIS MALCOLM HAMERSLEY (1906-1969) 8 Feb 1928, Wagin, WA [Reg. 9].

7. EDMUND ERIC ALFRED QUARTERMAINE (1903-1973) married HILDA MAUDE GIBBS (1902-1979) 11 Jun 1925, Darkan, Wellington, WA [Reg. 52].

3. QUARTERMAINE, ARTHUR ELIJAH (1865-1940) via Brewer & Bertelsen Co Family Tree, Ancestry, was born 13 Jan 1865, Beverley, WA [Reg. 8317]. Arthur died 4 May 1940, Wagin, (Katanning) WA [Reg. 35]. ARTHUR had a child via MATILDA COWAN (1872-1919): Arthur Charles (Quartermaine) was born 28 Nov 1891, Lime Lake, Wagin, WA [Reg. 120]. Father Arthur Elijah Quartermaine, mother, Tilly Cowan. Arthur remained with his mother and his surname changed to Gaunt after his mother's marriage to Walter Gaunt. Charles Gaunt (Quartermaine), died 24 Nov 1931, Perth, WA [Reg. 35].

m.1 MATILDA COWAN (1872-1919) married WALTER GAUNT (1871-1962) 1892, Lake Wagin WA [Reg. 47]. They had six children as follows:

1. FLORRIE MATILDA GAUNT (1893-1964),
2. BERTIE GAUNT (1896-1987),
3. ADA GAUNT (1898-1898),
4. MABEL GAUNT (1899-1988),
5. WALTER WILLIAM HILLIER GAUNT (1901-1959), and
6. FREDERICK GAUNT (1905-1918) - Killed in Action, France.

m. 1 ARTHUR ELIJAH QUARTERMAINE (1865-1940) married m.1 EULALIE MAY TONDUIT (1876-1969) in 1892, Arthur River, (Williams Bridge), WA [Reg. 237]. Recorded as Eulalie Tondut. TONDUIT, EULALIE MAY (1876-1969) via Judy Criddle's Family Tree, Ancestry, was born 20 May 1876, Perth, WA [Reg. 17310] registered under Eulilia May Tondut. Father recorded as CHARLES NICHOLAS TONDUIT (1846-1889), mother, ELIZABETH MARY RAISON (1853-1901) who were married 28 Nov 1870, Perth, WA [Reg. 3212].

m2. EULALIE MAY QUARTERMAINE (NEE TONDUIT) (1876-1969) married ALFRED EDWARD OSBOURNE (1877-1949), 1940, Sydney, NSW [Reg. 771]. Registered as Eulalie. Eulalie May Osbourne, Quartermaine (Nee Tondut) died in 3 Feb 1969, Sydney, NSW.

ARTHUR ELIJAH QUARTERMAINE (1865-1940) and EULALIE TONDUIT (1876-1969) had three children as follows:

1. ARNOLD CHARLES NICHOLAS QUARTERMAINE (1894-1981) was born 15 May 1894, Wagin Lake, WA [Reg. 913]. ARNOLD married IVY GLADYS SEXTON (1897-1993) 1921, Perth, WA [Reg. 100709]. He died 5 Oct 1981, Northam, WA.

2. MURIEL ALICE IRENE QUARTERMAINE (1896-1984) was born 10 Jun 1896, Wagin, (Katanning), WA [Reg. 1072]. MURIEL married FRANCES 'FRANK' PERCY WHITELAW (1884-1971) 22 Nov 1916, Leederville, WA [Reg No. 104]. Muriel died 2 Nov 1982, Kalgoorlie, WA.

Muriel Alice and 'Frank' Whitelaw

3. OLIVE MAUDE QUARTERMAINE (1900-) was born 3 Apr 1900, Perth, WA [Reg 3790]. Baptised 19 Sep 1900, Perth. WA. No other details known.

*Grand Children of Charles Quartermaine and Ellen Jane
Quartermaine (nee Wright),
Children of Arthur Elijah
Quartermaine and Eulalie May Quartermaine (nee Tondut).*

Arnold and Muriel Quartermaine.

Olive Quartermaine

3rd CHILD OF CAROLINE PORLEY & EDMUND RICHARD WRIGHT

3. WRIGHT, ALFRED AMBROSE (1846-1903) was born Aug 1846, York, registered at Middle Swan, WA [Reg. 806]. He married FRANCES LOUISA BROWN (1842-1913) 28 Sep 1867, York, WA [Reg. 2650]. Frances was born 22 Nov 1842, Perth, WA [Reg. 113]. Together, they had seven children as below. Alfred died 13 Jul 1903, Perth, WA [Reg. 2167]. Frances died 20 Jul 1913, Wellington, WA [Reg. 107].

1. HENRY EDWARD WRIGHT (1868-1924) (some family trees in Ancestry have his name as Henry Edmond Wright), was born 22 Feb 1868, York, WA. [Reg. 10602]. Registered as Henry Edward Wright. Henry died 5 Feb 1924, Perth, WA [Reg. 172]. Registered as Henry Eduard (sic). Unmarried.

Electoral Roll:

It is interesting that the Electoral Roll shows records under Henry Edmund and Henry Edward that appear to be the same person.

1903, 1906, 1913 Henry Edmund Wright, Millbrook, Worsley, labourer.

1912, 1913, Henry Edward Wright, Worsley, mill hand.

1914, 1916 Henry Edmund Wright, Holyoak, mill hand.

2. EMILY CAROLINE WRIGHT (1870-1947) was born 11 Jan 1870, York, WA [Reg. 11980]. She married WALTER BENJAMIN SEXTON (1863-1933) 17 Apr 1888, York, WA [Reg. 107]. 5 CHILDREN. Emily died 12 Feb 1947, Perth, WA [Reg. 378].

3. GEORGE ALFRED WRIGHT (1872-1940) was born 11 Mar 1872, York, WA [Reg. 13781]. He married MAUD ELIZABETH MCNESS (1880-1923), registered in 1899, Jarrahdale, WA [Reg. 832]. 4 CHILDREN. George died 19 Apr 1940, Wooroloo, WA [Reg. 90].

4. LILY AMELIA WRIGHT (1875-1875) was born 17 Mar 1875, York, WA [Reg. 16309]. Lily died 7 Jul 1875, York, WA [Reg. 8681], aged 3 months.

5. AMY FRANCES WRIGHT (1876-1819) was born 23 Sep 1876, Beverley, WA [Reg. 17536]. She married JAMES EASTCOTT (1867-1938) 4 Jul 1894, Guildford, WA [Reg. 251]. 10 CHILDREN. Amy died 20 Aug 1919, Wagerup, WA [Reg. 90].

6. FREDERICK WILLIAM WRIGHT (1879-1931) was born 13 Jul 1879, York, WA [Reg. 20167]. He married ALICE MARY HALL (1881-) 1902, Perth, WA [Reg. 1713]. They had one child as detailed below. Frederick died 25 Sep 1931, Wagin, WA [Reg. 50]. Alice Mary Hall was born 4 Jun 1881, Kent Town, SA [Pg. 368 Vol 262]. Parents: PETER HALL (1841-1886) and HELEN GASKELL (1844-1925) who were married 1864, Kadina, SA [Pg. 372 Vol 60]. Alice's parents and siblings remained in SA.

1. ALAN FREDERICK WRIGHT (1903-1972) was born 1903, North Fremantle, WA [Reg. 2844]. Registered as Frederic, parents: Frederick William Wright and Alice Mary Hall. He married HELENA MARY MCINTOSH (1906-1966) 1925, Forbes, NSW.

It appears via the Electoral Roll that Frederick and Alice Mary were separated following 1913. I am not sure what happened to Alice Mary Wright. Their son Alan Frederick Wright was married in 1925 in NSW. There are recordings for Mary Alice Wright in both the WA and SA Census. She is also recorded in 1972, NSW. The death notice for Mary Alice Lloyd Wright in 1991, (has different parents recorded and is not her).

Electoral Roll:

1910 Frederick William Wright, Harvest Rd, North Fremantle, labourer, Alice Mary, married.

1913. Frederick William Wright, Wellington Mill, mill hand, Alice Mary, married.

1915, 1917 Alice Mary Wright, 7 Clive St, West Perth, Home duties. Is this her?

1919 Alice Mary Wright, 164 Oxford St, Balcatta, Home duties.

1922 Frederick William Wright, Springfield, Wagin, farmer.

Frederick William Wright had a child by another woman, Annie Enid Wallace. Annie Enid was not married, aged about 17 years of age. There was a court case – re paternity, see following.

FREDERICK WILLIAM WRIGHT (1879-1931) and ANNIE ENID WALLACE (1896-1991) had one child: They did not marry.

m.1 ANNIE ENID WALLACE (1896-1991) married JOHN LIGHTFOOT (1893-1937), 1917, Katanning, WA [Reg. 28]. They had seven children.

m.2 ANNIE ENID LIGHTFOOT (NEE WALLACE) (1896-1991) married THOMAS JOSEPH BARRETT (1880-1970) 13 Oct 1939, Perth, WA. [Reg. 1625].

CHILD OF FREDERICK WILLIAM WRIGHT (1879-1931) and ANNIE ENID WALLACE (1896-1991)

1. WILLIAM WALLACE (1913-2015). Name changed to Cecil Wallace Blackburn

001 Georg's Master Tree, Family Tree, Ancestry.

William Wallace was born 26 Apr 1913, 23 Walcott St, Mt Lawley, (Wellington), WA [Reg. 827]. Mother Annie Enid Wallace, father not mentioned.

Note: A big scandal in the Courts and papers at the time(Paternity admitted Supreme Court W/1913 Reported "Truth" 31.5.1913).

Adoption: William Wallace was adopted by HARRY E BLACKBURN (1879-1947) and ANNIE REBECCA SHADLOCK (1885-1955) who were married 26 Dec 1910, Basford, Lincolnshire, England, 1 Jan 1937, Perth, WA. BIRTH IN THE STATE OF WA [Reg No. 827/1913, later A 1/1937]

Departure from Fremantle for England, 21 Apr 1915, Fremantle, WA. Passenger list for the Orontes departing Fremantle, WA for London 21 Apr 1915: Mr & Mrs Blackburn are shown on pg 2. Their [adopted] son age almost two not shown – (Geoff commented, "this was not uncommon at the time for very young children".

Residence, 1936 Electoral Roll, Cecil Wallace Blackburn (salesman) recorded as living at 122 McDonald St., Kalgoorlie, together with his adopting father, Harry Blackburn (salesman).

Cecil Wallace Blackburn was engaged once and married twice, all recorded and very complicated in Geoff Blackburn's Family Tree, Ancestry.

Cecil Wallace Blackburn died 2015, Redcliffe, WA.

7. ARTHUR LEWIS WRIGHT (1883-1953) was born 4 Nov 1883, Lyons Mill, WA [Reg. 24640]. He married CATHERINE POWELL (1885-1976), 3 Nov 1913, Kulbin, (Williams), WA [Reg. 22]. They had three children: Frank, Alfred and Frederick. Arthur died 24 Jul 1953, Perth, WA [Reg. 1758].

m.2 CAROLINE WRIGHT (NEE PORLEY) (1823-1897) married WILLIAM DUNHAM (1815-1884), 1850, Perth, WA [Reg no 303].

Via Jean Stallwood: On the marriage certificate when William Dunham married Caroline Wright (nee Porley) it said that Caroline was a publican, she must have leased the Halfway House or Inn which was located off great Eastern Highway. We went there several years ago but there wasn't much left there - a very old fig tree and it was next to a spring. I was told William Dunham leased the Halfway House or Inn but possibly it was transferred to his name when he married Caroline. I haven't checked the licenses. There are no remains left of the Dusty Miller (Ed – a pub. See details below).

COLUMNS		MARRIAGE IN THE STATE OF WESTERN AUSTRALIA
1	REGISTRATION NUMBER	PERTH 303/1850
2	DATE OF MARRIAGE	February 13th 1850
3	PLACE OF MARRIAGE	Registrar's Office
4	PARTIES NAMES	BROODROOM	BRIDE
		William Dunham His x mark	Caroline Wright
5	MARITAL STATUS	--	Widow
6	AGE	--	--
7	OCCUPATION	Farmer	Publican
8	BY	Registrar
9	WITNESSES	(1)	Mr Carter His x mark
		(2)	W C Peters Jnr
10	REGISTRAR	ROBERT C ANDREWS

I certify that the above is a true copy of the particulars recorded in a Register kept in the Office of the Registrar General, Perth, Western Australia.

DATE - 8 SEP 1957

REGISTRATION OFFICER

Copy of marriage certificate of William Dunham to Caroline Wright (nee Porley). Courtesy Jean Stallwood

The next Halfway Inn was located at the Lakes turnoff and the ruins are now fenced off.

My grandfather Walter Dunham's first job was at the York post office.

I've tried to locate William and Caroline Dunham's grave I was told it might be under the Town Hall. The Dunham farm house Brocklesby has been renovated, unfortunately they've changed the name of the house.

You will note that R.G. Mears Jnr is a witness. He married Emma Amelia Wright in 1857 he was considerably older than her. My grandfather Walter Dunham amazingly kept in touch with the families of Edmund Wright and Caroline. I still occasionally ring Roy Meares (now lives in Mandurah) who is a descendant of Richard Gamble Boyce Meares and Emma Amelia Wright. He boarded with my grandparents as did his father before him to attend Bunbury High School. This Meares family moved to Bridgetown. The Quartermaine family also kept in touch – I remember Mrs Quartermaine visiting my mother many times when we lived in Northam. She drove a big Mercedes. As children we thought it was quite smart to have someone visiting us with such a big car, my father owned a Holden.

William Dunham was born 10 Feb 1815, Brocklesby, Lincolnshire, England. Parents: WILLIAM DUNHAM (1785-1847) and DOROTHY KEALAN (1791-1819).

BAPTISMS: Oversby, Lincoln, England 1815, William Dunham.

William Dunham arrived in the Colony per the Britomart, 4 Dec 1838.
Britomart

William Dunham died 6 Oct 1884, York, WA [Reg. 12880], registered under William. Records on graves not easily available, most probably buried in the Pioneer's Cemetery, York.

INQUIRER 28 Apr 1852.

William Dunham took over from Solomon Cook to run the Inn, The Dusty Miller in York.

NOTICE.

WILLIAM DUNHAM begs to inform his friends and public, that he has taken the Inn known as the DUSTY MILLER, York, lately conducted by Solomon Cook, and in soliciting a continuation of their favours, assures them no exertion shall be wanting on his part that may tend to their comfort and satisfaction.

The premises are enlarged, and every convenience and accommodation will be found quite equal to what can be procured elsewhere.

A supply of the best Wines, Spirits and Bottled Beers, constantly on hand.

Good beds and stabling.

SOLOMON COOK begs to return his sincere thanks to his friends and the public for the support he has experienced during the period he has conducted a public business, and informs them that from the importance and extent of his other affairs, he finds it necessary to relinquish the Hotel, and at the same time begs earnestly to recommend his successor William Dunham, to whom he has leased the premises, and from the well known civility and attention all parties experienced during the time W. Dunham kept the Half-way House, he can with confidence assure them they will meet with the same in York. S. C. further informs the public that his store will be continued as usual, and his best attention will be given to keep it constantly supplied with every variety of useful articles at his noted moderate rate of charges.	extent, and any quantity will be paid for in CASH or Goods on delivery in York. NOTICE. WILLIAM DUNHAM begs to inform his friends and the public, that he has taken the Inn known as the DUSTY MILLER, York, lately conducted by Solomon Cook, and in soliciting a continuation of their favours, assures them no exertion shall be wanting on his part that may tend to their comfort and satisfaction. The premises are enlarged, and every convenience and accommodation will be found quite equal to what can be procured elsewhere. A supply of the best Wines, Spirits, and Bottled Beers constantly on hand. Good Beds and Stabling. STRAYED to the run of the undersigned, a Red and White Bull, with star on forehead, no other mark or brand visible. Has been running with my herd since August last. If not claimed within
--	---

The following notes courtesy of Rob Garton Smith:

Dusty Miller

This land was granted to John Henry Monger on 29 September 1843. Sun dried bricks were being made in York from 1840. Let us assume Monger was not going to construct a brick building on land he did not own and so it is not likely it was constructed before 1843. The building was in existence and shown on an early undated map of the York town prior to 1848. Hence, the building was probably constructed around 1845.

In a map of about 1849, the building was shown as being occupied by Solomon Cook. Solomon Cook obtained a "Publican's Spirit Licence" on 11 Feb 1851 for a pub called the "Dusty Miller".

This must have been the public house which was referred to as opening in November 1851 to become the third in York "where the inhabitants scarcely number 100 souls".

William and Caroline Dunham

William and Caroline Dunham ran the Half Way House, south of The Lakes, which was by-passed as a route to York in 1850. In 1855, Robert Doncon who owned the Kings Head Hotel in York built a replacement "Half Way House" at The Lakes. This is not to be confused with the Nineteen Mile Inn just to the north of the York Road 32 km from York.

Solomon Cook sold his pub the Dusty Miller to William Dunham in April 1852 who expanded the premises. He ran the pub with his wife Caroline.

The name of the pub was changed to Dunham's Hotel. Many meetings of the York Agricultural Society were held here.

Dunham didn't pay his bills and in December 1854, Lionel Samson sued him for 114 pounds for goods sold (which we presume was liquor). The Samson business is still in existence and still sells liquor.

The last reference to Dunham's Hotel is in October 1855.

In November 1864, William Dunham was awarded the tender for the next 3 years for delivering mail from Guildford to York for 163 pounds a year, so presumably he had stopped running his hotel.

In 1865 William Dunbar was farming at Brocklesby, a mile from York, which was being put up for sale with vacant possession.

*'BROCKELSBY' – DUNHAM FARMHOUSE, YORK.
Courtesy Jean Stallwood*

Note via Jean Stallwood: The Dunham farmhouse Brocklesby has been renovated, unfortunately they've changed the name of the house.

Mary Coulthard wrote:

This photo of the Dunham Homestead, is where I suspect Emma Sarah Blechynden (1862-1947) had her first three children.

WA Livestock Brands 1912-1962

<https://www.carnamah.com.au/livestock-brands?search=Dunham>

Dunham	L. J.	Brocklesby, York	D4W	1912
Dunham	L. J.	Brockelsby, York	D4W	1924

York: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/York,_Western_Australia

With the increasing population of the Swan River Settlement in 1830, it became evident that suitable land would have to be discovered for the growing of crops needed to provide necessary food.

Ensign Robert Dale, a 20-year-old officer of the 63rd Regiment, led a small party in the first exploratory journey over the Darling Range, during the winter months of 1830 into what was later to be known as the Avon Valley.

He returned with a report of "park-like lands with scattered trees", and after a second expedition, Lieutenant-Governor Stirling concluded that there appeared to be 1,000 square miles of "the finest imaginable sheep-land".

As a result, Stirling decided that the new district should be thrown open for selection and this was done by Government Notice on 11 November 1830. By December 1830, 250,000 acres had been allotted, and in January 1831, 80,000 acres. Before the end of 1831 a further 6,030 acres in small lots had been taken up.

In September 1831 Dale escorted the first party of settlers to the district, reaching the Avon valley on 16 September. They immediately set about the construction of huts, the preparation required for their stock and the cultivation of new land. Dale proposed an area two miles south of the summit of Mt Bakewell as the site for a future town to serve the district.

In September 1833 a garrison of eight troops of the 21st North British Fusiliers was stationed at York. Rules and regulations for the assignment of town allotments at York were gazetted in September 1834 and allotments were advertised for sale from July 1835.

A township did not begin to appear until 1836. In July 1836 York comprised two houses, a barn, an army barracks and some out-houses, with about 50 acres of cleared land. The town grew slowly at first due to difficulties with the local aboriginals, as well as problems associated with using English farming techniques in an unfamiliar climate.

In 1831, Rivett Henry Bland settled in York, and with his business partner, Arthur Trimmer, leased a 10 acre site north of the town (on which Trimmer built a house) and took a grant over a 4,000 acre block to the south which they established as a farm, later called Ballardong Farm, after the Ballardong Noongar, the Aboriginal occupiers of the area. Later, part of the land to the south came to be called Bland's Town or Bland Town. Bland was resident magistrate from 1834 to 1842.

In 1836, John Henry Monger Snr arrived and bought the 10 acres of land immediately north of the town site from Bland and Trimmer for £100 on which the first house in York had been constructed [20] of wattle and daub. Monger opened a hotel by early 1837, constructing in 1842 a "long, low building" opposite the hotel for a store, and "every three months his wagons would journey to Guildford or Perth for supplies".

In 1840, the York Agricultural Society was established, which became very influential in the following years, holding annual shows to the present day. The York Racing Club was established in 1843. Both societies continue today.

A shortage of labour was a problem for the farming community, particularly at harvest time. A sandalwood boom in the late 1840s lifted the town.

At the request of the influential York Agricultural Society, from 1851, convicts were transported to the Colony and relieved the labour shortages. As "ticket-of-leave" men, they constructed many of the early buildings.

AVON TERRACE, YORK:

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Avon_Terrace,_York

At the rear, on Christie Retreat, is the oldest building in the town centre, a former coach house and stables constructed by Monger, becoming a pub called the Dusty Miller run by Solomon Cook, then Dunham's Hotel run by William and Caroline Dunham, and then a boarding house run by George McLeod.

"Solomon Cook owned the hotel till 1852, and when he sold the property William Dunham took over the Dusty Miller. Further The Perth Gazette and Ind Journal of Politics and News 23 Apr 1852. Believe the site was near his mill down by the river behind the IGA hardware store."

BIOGRAPHY Dictionary of Cooke Solomon (1816-1871)

<http://adb.anu.edu.au/biography/cook-solomon-3251>

Solomon Cook (1816?-1871), shipwright, blacksmith and engineer, was born probably in the United States of America, son of Jacob Cook, blacksmith. In December 1848 at the district registry in Albany, WA, he married Elizabeth, daughter of Bob West, sealer. On 9 May 1849 when naturalized an Australian citizen, Cook was living in York, where he had set up as a wheelwright, coach-builder and iron founder. About this time, he was allowed to take stone from government land to build a circular windmill, which was long a landmark in the district.

York Townsite

WILLIAM DUNHAM (1815-1884) and CAROLINE WRIGHT (NEE PORLEY) (1823-1897), via the Robert Bristow Family Tree, had six children. More details on each follow in their own sections.

1. ANNA 'ANNIE' MARIA DUNHAM (1850-1933),
2. WILLIAM DUNHAM (1852-1852),
3. GEORGE WILLIAM DUNHAM (1855-1941),

-
- A sepia-toned photograph of three women standing in front of a large, leafy tree. The woman on the left is standing, the woman in the center is seated, and the woman on the right is standing. They are all wearing long, dark dresses. Behind them is a building with a porch and a railing.

A vintage black and white photograph of three women in late 19th-century attire. Two women stand on either side of a seated woman. They are in front of a wooden fence. The woman on the left is wearing a dark, long-sleeved dress with a high collar and a belt. The woman in the center is seated, wearing a light-colored, long-sleeved dress with a high collar and a belt. The woman on the right is wearing a dark, long-sleeved dress with a high collar and a belt. The photograph is mounted on a dark album page.

The following comments via Heather Hervey:

Caroline Dunham (nee Porley) died in 1897 aged 74 and I would suggest that the photo was taken sometime circa mid 1890s by the clothing. It's likely that Nurse Brown had been employed to care for the elderly Mrs Dunham. Also, Emma Amelia Stirling appears to be "mature" in the photo which would also fit in with a photo being taken circa mid 1890s. Trove has a funeral notice for Caroline Dunham published on 10/7/1897 in the Eastern Districts Chronicle which noted that her funeral is to leave the residence of Mr Edmund Stirling at 3.30 that afternoon. It would appear she was living there at the time of her death.

CENSUS 1859

Form No. 240

CENSUS, 1859.

RETURN of the Number of Persons who Slept on the Premises of William Dargham Cook District on the Night of the 31st day of December, 1859. (To include all persons belonging to the Establishment of the said Wm Dargham who may be in the Dock or on the Month, Coast, Rivers, &c., in places not visited by the Police.)

No.	Name.	Sex.	Age.	Married or Single.	Religion.	Occupation.	Born in what Country.	Every Condition of the Family.	Name of the Ship in which the person arrived in the Country.	Year of arrival in the Country.	Country where born.	Country where Married.	If Married, in what place or on what ship.	Number of children born in present voyage.	Number of children born in previous voyages.
1	William Dargham	M	44	Married	Church of England	Farmer	Engl	Free	Boatman 1853		London	York		None	None
2	Caroline Dargham	F	36	Married	Church of England		Engl	Free	Boatman 1853		London	York
3	Charles Maria Dargham	M	8	Single	"	"	"	"	"		York
4	George Maria Dargham	M	4	"	"	"	"	"	"		York
5	Charles James Dargham	M	2	"	"	"	"	"	"		York
6	William John Dargham	M	2	"	"	"	"	"	"		York
7	Wm Dargham	M	19	"	"	"	"	"	"		York
8	Wm Dargham	M	16	"	"	"	"	"	"		York
9	George Blake	M	33	"	"	"	"	"	"		York
10	Bright George	M	19	"	"	"	"	"	"		York
11	Wm Dargham	M	36	"	"	"	"	"	"		York

AGRICULTURE, &c.

STOCK.

Wheat.	Barley.	Oats.	Hay.	Maize.	Roots and other Food.	Hay and green crops.	Wool.	Cheese and milk sold for sale.	Flax and Linen.	Other.	Value of Crops and Produce.	Value of Stock and other property.	Value of Crops and Produce.	Value of Stock and other property.
Acres.	Acres.	Acres.	Acres.	Acres.	Acres.	Acres.	Acres.	Acres.	Acres.	Acres.	Acres.	Acres.	Acres.	Acres.
19	10	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1

NOTE.—By the Ordinance the 12th Viet. No. 4, any person refusing or neglecting to fill in the above information, or wilfully doing so incorrectly, is subject to a penalty of £5 for each and every refusal, neglect, or wilful inaccuracy.

Signature of Headholder.

William Dargham

Printed at the G.O. W. 14, 6, 510—1000

William Dunham:

1. William Dunham, 44 C/E Married, Farmer, read, Free, Britomart, British 1850 Lincoln, York
2. Caroline Dunham, 36 married, read write, 1829, Marquis of Anglesea, Suffolk York
3. Annie Maria Dunham, 9 single, read write, York
4. George William Dunham, 4 single, York
5. Lewis James Dunham, 2 single
6. Walter John Dunham, 6 months single
7. Alfred Wright, 13 years, read write, Guildford York
8. William Deacons, 36 single, Cashier, 1841 Portsmouth
9. George Blake, 35 single Farm servant 1856 Gloucester
10. Bridget Crough, 19 single Servant 1859
11. Thomas Clark, 26 Single Herdsman 1856 England

29 Acres Wheat, 18 acres Barley, 15 acres Hay and greens, 1 acre kitchen garden, 11 horses, 30 cattle, no sheep, 42 pigs, no goats, 5 cattle, 15 sheep sold and shorn

William Dunham died 6 Oct 1884, York, WA [Reg. 12880], registered under William. Caroline Dunham (Wright nee Porley) died 9 Jul 1897, York, WA [Reg. 2763], aged 74 years.

Records are not easily available about who is buried in the Old Pioneer Cemetery, York. We have not been able to clarify just where William and Caroline were buried. Because they were living in York and owned a business, it is highly likely William and Caroline were buried in the Pioneer Cemetery.

Eastern Districts Chronicle (York, WA: 1877 - 1927), Sat 10 Jul 1897, pg 4

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article148266262.txt>

DEATH of MRS. DUNHAM - One of the oldest settlers of this colony passed away at the residence of Mr. Edmund Stirling early yesterday morning, and her death has thus created another gap in the little band of settlers who arrived in Western Australia in the year of its foundation. We refer to the demise of Mrs. Dunham, sen., who, after years of painful illness borne with wonderful forbearance and Christian fortitude—during the greater portion of which period she was entirely bedridden—calmly and peacefully responded to the summons from the Great Unknown at about 3 am. yesterday. The deceased lady, who commanded the respect and esteem of those acquainted with her, arrived in the colony with her father and mother (Mr. and Mrs. Porley) in the good ship "Marquis of Anglesea" in the year 1829, at the age of six. On April 16, 1840, she married Edmund Wright, whose death occurred a few years afterwards. She again married on February 13, 1850, William Dunham, who also pre-deceased her many years. From that date she had resided in the York district. Her family, by both husbands, consists of seven children—four daughters and three sons, who are all grown up and have families of their own. The deceased had lived with her daughter—Mrs Stirling—some considerable time, who was unremitting in her attention to the afflicted lady. The funeral will leave her late residence for interment in the Wesleyan Cemetery at 3.30 this afternoon.

DEATH OF MRS. DUNHAM.—One of the oldest settlers of this colony passed away at the residence of Mr. Edmund Stirling early yesterday morning, and her death has thus created another gap in the little band of settlers who arrived in Western Australia in the year of its foundation. We refer to the demise of Mrs. Dunham, sen., who, after years of painful illness, borne with wonderful forbearance and Christian fortitude—during the greater portion of which period she was entirely bedridden—calmly and peacefully responded to the summons from the Great Unknown at about 3 am. yesterday. The deceased lady, who commanded the respect and esteem of those acquainted with her, arrived in the colony with her father and mother (Mr and Mrs Porley) in the good ship "Marquis of Anglesea" in the year 1829, at the age of six. On April 16, 1840, she married Edmund Wright, whose death occurred a few years afterwards. She again married on February 13, 1850, William Dunham, who also pre-deceased her many years. From that date she had resided in the York district. Her family, by both husbands, consists of seven children—four daughters and three sons, who are all grown up and have families of their own. The deceased had lived with her daughter—Mrs Stirling—some considerable time, who was unremitting in her attention to the afflicted lady. The funeral will leave her late residence for interment in the Wesleyan Cemetery at 3.30 this afternoon.

OLD CEMETERY

Via Heather Harvey: - there was no plan to the old cemetery as undertakers would buy a lot from the council who would literally sell them a lot with the next consecutive number, without considering which denomination, etc. So, despite the old cemetery being divided with the Catholics buried on the northern side of the path and the Protestants buried on the southern side of the path, the council just gave the undertaker the next lot number from the book - e.g. Joe Smith burial has lot 9, Mary Williams burial has lot 10, Bill Jones burial has lot 11, etc., etc., with no idea of just which side of the path they would be buried. Yes, you can find out just which side of the path they are buried since newspapers would report which part of the cemetery their bodies were interred but to make it worse, the burials were haphazard in that they were not all in straight rows so plots were at different angles, etc. The gravediggers would just dig a hole where they could and not necessarily in the next adjacent site. Since most graves only had wooden markers, not headstones, they have long gone - rotted by weather and eaten by white ants. There are only two left, both held at the Residency Museum. The hand drawn map, created in the late 1960s/early 1970s by a volunteer is not accurate and the grave numbers on that, which reflected the markers at that time, are gone also. I've struggled for many, many months trying to locate gravesites, losing count of the number of days I've walked the cemetery with that hand drawn map and a list of lot numbers, trying to find gravesites and have had to accept that I'll never be able to accurately pinpoint them. If they didn't have a headstone, then they're virtually impossible to find. It's only in the "newer" part of the cemetery, from the early 20th century, when the council drew up a formal plan of the layout of the rows in the various denominations and improved their system of recording the sale of burial lots, that allows you to pinpoint unmarked graves in those sections. The archives have a copy of that volunteer drawn sketch map, as does the Shire, but as I said, it isn't accurate.

The old York cemetery was located on the corner of Great Southern highway and Avon Terrace. The old road into York was Morris Edwards Rd. Most of the old York cemetery is under the main road which now continues on the T junction, turn left to Northam and right to Quairading.

Inquirer and Commercial News (Perth, WA: 1855 - 1901), Fri 30 Jul 1897, pg 4

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/article/66527416...>

At the Wesley Church to-night the Rev. W. H. Hodge, the pastor, conducted an in-memoriam service in connection with the demise of Mrs. William Dunham, who was one of the earliest band of settlers in this colony. The service throughout was in complete harmony with the occasion. The pulpit was dressed in mourning, relieved with decorations of flowers. The hymns and anthems were appropriate, and were well rendered by the choir, the closing anthem being "The Christian's Good - night." The large congregation listened attentively to an able discourse founded on the death of Moses. In his introductory remarks the preacher expressed his sympathy with those who sought reform in the direction of simpler and less expensive funeral customs, and he said that he was an advocate of compulsory State cremation, believing that such would minimise the strongest danger of physical contagion. The rev. gentleman read a short biographical sketch of the deceased lady, who, while residing in the district, was an attendant at the Wesley Church, and throughout a protracted life—not unattended with severe suffering—was a consistent Christian and a good colonist.

YORK NEWS. Jul 17.

At the Wesley Church to-night the Rev. W. H. Hodge, the pastor, conducted an in-memoriam service in connection with the demise of Mrs. William Dunham, who was one of the earliest band of settlers in this colony. The service throughout was in complete harmony with the occasion. The pulpit was dressed in mourning, relieved with decorations of flowers. The hymns and anthems were appropriate, and were well rendered by the choir, the closing anthem being 'The Christian's Good - night.' The large congregation listened attentively to an able discourse founded on the death of Moses. In his introductory remarks the preacher expressed his sympathy with those who sought reform in the direction of simpler and less expensive funeral customs, and he said that he was an advocate of compulsory

State cremation, believing that such would minimise the strongest danger of physical contagion. The rev. gentleman read a short biographical sketch of the deceased lady who, while residing in the district was an attendant at the Wesley Church, and throughout a protracted life — not unattended with severe suffering — was a consistent Christian and a good colonist.

FIRST CHILD OF WILLIAM DUNHAM (1815-1884) AND CAROLINE WRIGHT (NEE PORLEY) (1823-1897)

1. DUNHAM, ANNA MARIA (1850-1933) Annie

Anna Maria Dunham was born 28 Sep 1850, 'Brokelsby', York District, WA [Reg. 1533], recorded as Anna Maria Dunham, father, William, mother, Caroline Pawley (sic).

Anna Maria Dunham died 4 May 1933, Wagin, WA [Reg. 49].

ANNA MARIA DUNHAM married THOMAS HARRISON BLECHYNDEN, 24 Sep 1877, Northam, WA [Reg. 4372], recorded as Annie A Dunham. Thomas, the brother of JESSE BLECHYNDEN who married her sister EMMA SARAH DUNHAM.

THOMAS HARRISON BLECHYNDEN (1849-1933) was born 9 Sep 1849, Beverley, WA [Reg. 1376]. He died 11 Sep 1933, Wagin, WA [Reg. 81]. Registered in Katanning.

ANNA MARIA DUNHAM and THOMAS HARRISON BLECHYNDEN had no children.

More details re Anna Maria and Thomas Harrison Blechynden in the main content of this chapter.

SECOND CHILD OF WILLIAM DUNHAM (1815-1884) AND CAROLINE WRIGHT (NEE PORLEY) (1823-1897):

2. DUNHAM, WILLIAM (1852-1852) Lived only 9 days

Recorded under Unnamed Dunham.

William Dunham born 26 May 1852, father, Wm Dunham, mother, Pawley (sic)

Unknown, York District, WA [Reg. 1848]. Only lived 9 days.

THIRD CHILD OF WILLIAM DUNHAM (1815-1884) AND CAROLINE WRIGHT (NEE PORLEY) (1823-1897)

3. DUNHAM, GEORGE WILLIAM (1855-1941) was born 27 Jun 1855, York, WA [Reg. 2860]. George died 18 Jul 1941, Perth, WA [Reg. 1445]. Prior to his marriage to Sarah Jane Edgar in 1879, George had a son with Fanny Louisa Woods. They were not married.

'FANNY' LOUISA WOODS (1859-1891) was born 1859, Dale River, WA [Reg. 4592], parents: JOHN WILLIAM WOODS (1822-1900) and ELIZABETH WILLIS (1837-1920) who were married 22 Sep 1856, Fremantle WA [Reg. 986]. Fanny died 26 Jan 1891, aged 32 years, at the residence of P Strange, Boyadine, WA [Reg. 168], registered under Fanny Woods. She was the second of ten children.

CHILDREN OF JOHN WILLIAM WOODS (1822-1900) AND ELIZABETH WILLIS (1837-1920):

1. WILLIAM WILLIS WOODS (1857-1829),
2. FANNY LOUISA WOODS (1859-1891),
3. JOHN 'JACKY' WOODS (1861-1947),
4. JAMES WILLIS WOODS (1863-1945),
5. ELLEN 'HELEN' WOODS (1864-1947),
6. ALLEN WOODS (1868-),
7. GEORGE WOODS (1871-1953),
8. JANE WOODS (1874-1961),
9. ELIZABETH WOODS (1875-1935), and
10. ANNIE 'ANN' WOODS (1876-1965).

DUNHAM, ERNEST (1878-1959), son of George William Dunham and Fanny Louisa Woods, was born 26 Jun 1878, Beverley, WA [Reg. 19383].

Note: George was ordered to pay 5/- a week for 3 months then 2/6 a week thereafter, Eastern Districts Chronicle 1877 -1892, 18th Apr 1879.

When George William Dunham married Sarah Jane Edgar, 14 Jun 1879, baby Ernest was promptly dumped on their doorstep. When Sarah Jane Dunham (nee Edgar) died 5 Oct 1884, six-year-old Ernest was then handed to his grandparents William and Caroline Dunham.

Shortly after his grandfather William Dunham died on the 6 Oct 1884 poor young Ernest had to go to his Aunt Emma and Uncle Jesse Blechynden. They had one child at this time, Frederick William born 6 Jul 1883 who was 15 months old. Their next child did not arrive until 8 Apr 1888 being a five-year gap.

In 1892 Ernest (about 14) was selected for employment as a telephonist in York and soon transferred to Wagin.

ERNEST DUNHAM (1878-1959) married MARY MAY MOORE (~1883-1959) Ellie, 9 Aug 1899, Wagin, WA [Reg. 847]. They had ten children.

Ernest Dunham died 2 Feb 1959, Lake Grace, (Katanning), WA [Reg. 10].

It appears Fanny had relationships and children with ANDREW STRANGE (1844-1919) about 1880 and PHAROAH 'RICHARD' STRANGE (1849-1924) about 1889. Both partners appear to have been brothers who married sisters. Andrew married Elizabeth Jane Whittington in 1871 and Pharoah married Julia Whittington in 1878, and both had children from these marriages. Pharoah had children from several different relationships. All complicated.

'FANNY' LOUISA WOODS (1859-1891) and ANDREW STRANGE (1844-1919) HAD ONE CHILD:
EMILY WOODS (1881-1947)

Emily Woods was born 1881, Beverley, WA [Reg. 21632], parents: FANNY WOODS and ANDREW STRANGE.

EMILY WOODS (1881-1947) married JOHN CHARLES STEVEN PEARCE (1865-1945) 'Jack' 1899, Wandering, WA.

'FANNY' LOUISA WOODS (1859-1891) and PHAROAH 'RICHARD' STRANGE (1849-1924) HAD ONE CHILD:

MARY DOROTHY STRANGE (1890-1963)

Mary Dorothy Strange was born 1890, Beverley, WA [Reg. 875]. Parents: Fanny Woods and Pharoah Strange.

MARY DOROTHY STRANGE (1890-1963) married RICHARD GEORGE WOOLHOUSE (1893-1968) 1917, Greenough, WA [Reg. 3100001].

m.1. GEORGE WILLIAM DUNHAM (1855-1941) married SARAH JANE EDGAR (1854-1884), 14 Jun 1879, York, WA [Reg. 4692].

EDGAR, SARAH JANE (1854-1884)

Sarah Jane Edgar was born Apr 1854, registered in Fremantle, WA [Reg. 2339], father, ARCHIBALD EDGAR (1824-1891), born in Scotland and mother, JEMIMA ADAMS (1832-1887), born in England who were married 1850, London, England. They had ten children, Mary Ann and Sarah were born in Fremantle WA, the other eight were registered as being born in York, WA. Sarah Jane Dunham (nee Edgar) died 5 Oct 1884, Perth, WA [Reg. 12818]. Archibald Edgar died 1891, Perth WA [Reg. 12], aged 67 years. Jemima Edgar (nee Adams) died 1887, Perth, WA [Reg. 481, aged 55 years.

1. MARY ANN EDGAR (1852-1917) married GEORGE EDWARDS (1848-1898) 9 Mar 1871, York, WA [Reg. 3232].

2. SARAH JANE EDGAR (1854-1941) married GEORGE WILLIAM DUNHAM (1855-1941) 14 Jun 1879, York, WA [Reg. 4692]. See their details further on.

3. FRANCES LAKE EDGAR (1857-1912)

Family trees have sometimes recorded her as Frances Kate, Lake, Edgar.

Francis Lake Edgar was born 1857, WA [Reg. 3689]. Registered as a male. There is no death registered for Francis Lake Edgar as a baby.

*The next born child number 4, was registered as an unnamed female baby also born in 1857. If they were twins and one was stillborn, perhaps the person registering them made an error in the name and sex.

Frances Kate Lake Edgar was born 19 Mar 1857, York, WA. Via Family Trees, Ancestry.

Frances Lake Lott (nee Edgar) died 26 May 1912, York, WA [Reg. 7100016].

FRANCES LAKE EDGAR (1857-1912) married JOHN LOTT (1849-1913) 1876, York, WA [Reg. 4144].

4. UNNAMED EDGAR (1857-1857) F.

Unnamed female, Elgar, 1857, Perth, WA [Reg. 3689]. *See comments above.

5. ROBERT AUGUSTUS NOEL EDGAR (1858-1935) married MARY WILSON (1877-) 1894, Perth, WA [Reg. 445].

6. AGNES EDGAR (1860-1876) was born 1860, York, WA [Reg. 5514]. She died 1876, York, WA [Reg. 9014], aged 16 years. Death with injury.

7. ARCHIBALD FREDERICK EDGAR (1864-1930) married ELIZABETH SUMMERS (1865-) 1888, Perth, WA [Reg. 270].

8. ANNA JEMIMA EDGAR (1866-) married JOSEPH ANDREW LARNER (1861-1898) 1888, Perth WA [Reg. 281]. Registered as Anne Edgar.

9. WILLIAM ERNEST EDGAR (1868-1913) married EVA MITCHELL (1867-1914) 1891, Perth, WA [Reg. 94].

10. ALICE BEATRICE EDGAR (1872-1876) was born 1872, York, WA [Reg. 14406]. She died 1876, York, WA [Reg. 8808], recorded as aged 3 years.

GEORGE WILLIAM DUNHAM and SARAH JANE EDGAR HAD TWO CHILDREN; the third birth was twins who were stillborn:

1. ETHEL VIDA DUNHAM (1880-1971)

Ethel Vida Dunham was born 10 Nov 1880, York, WA [Reg. 21279].

Ethel Vida Brandon (nee Dunham) died 10 Jun 1971, Kogarah, NSW.

ETHEL VIDA DUNHAM (1880-1971) married LIONEL DAVID BRANDON (1876-1945), 21 Sep 1905, Hurstville, NSW [Reg. 7001]. They had 3 children.

2. ALBERT EDMUND DUNHAM (1882-1980)

Albert Edmund Dunham was born 12 Nov 1882, York, WA [Reg. 23500]. Albert Edmund Dunham died 31 Jul 1980, Perth, WA.

ALBERT EDMUND DUNHAM (1882-1980) married MERCIE ANNE BRANDON (1888-1975), 10 Aug 1923, Perth, WA [Reg. 897]. They had 4 children – 3 daughters and 1 son.

3. TWIN GIRLS - STILLBORN DUNHAM (1884-1884), both female, 5 Oct, 1884, Perth, WA [Reg. 12816] and WA [12817].

Following the stillborn death of their twin baby girls and the death of his wife Sarah Jane at the young age of 30 years, George William Dunham married again.

m.2 GEORGE WILLIAM DUNHAM (1855-1941) married JANE TUNSTALL (1859-1941), 1889, Williams, WA [Reg. 213].

*George and Jane Dunham.
Courtesy Thielmann Family Tree, Ancestry*

JANE TUNSTALL (1859-1941) was born 30 May 1859, Greenough Flats, WA [Reg. 4864], father, GILES TUNSTALL (1814-1861), mother, JANE VILLARS WILLIAMS (1819-1898) who were married 30 Apr 1859, Champion Bay, WA [Reg. 1335]. Note spelling: Tunstill. Jane Tunstall died 14 Dec 1941, Perth, WA [Reg. 2595].

GEORGE WILLIAM DUNHAM and JANE TUNSTALL had three children.

1. ADA MARY CAROLINE DUNHAM (1890-1988) was born 28 Jul 1890, Williams Bridge, WA [Reg. 1093]. She married MARTIN JAMES LACEY (1885-1950), 2 Jul 1910, Perth, WA [Reg. 348]. Ada died 26 Jan 1988, Perth, WA.

2. HERBERT WILLIAM DUNHAM (1892-1916) was born 30 Jun 1892, Wagin Lake, WA [Reg. 1430]. Herbert served in WW1, SERN 3779: POB York WA: POE Perth WA: NOK F Dunham George. He died on 26 Jul 16 of wounds received on 16 Jul 16. Buried, Puchevillers, Departement de la Somme, Picardie, France.

3. UNNAMED DUNHAM (1894-1894) Stillborn, female, born 1894, Wagin, father, George Dunham, mother, Jane Tunstill, WA [Reg. 914], death, WA [Reg. 519].

The following article about George William Dunham was shared with us by Jean Stallwood:

It might be appropriate to mention here an identity who was well-known throughout the upper Helena, although he did not own or lease any land there. He was George Dunham of Wooroloo, who ranged the river as a kangaroo hunter and gum collector in the early 1900's. He was equipped with a dray, two horses, dogs and a gun and would camp in the bush for days at a time while he shot and skinned kangaroos and collected gum for tanning from redgum trees. The skins were sold, as was also the gum, which he collected with a long-handled scraper and stored in sacks. He had a marvellous way with horses and could quieten a wild brumby, freshly caught from the bush, quicker than any man. His dray was drawn by a shafter with a leader out in front and on one occasion he won a bet that he could direct the horses and dray from the platform of the Wooroloo Station; over a crossing about a hundred yards away; back over the crossing and up to the platform again, without he himself leaving the platform. He simply shouted orders to the leader and the horses did the rest! He had a flare for poetry, some of which he composed himself and recited and sang it in the bars of hotels for the entertainment of the patrons. He was a flamboyant bushman of a type for which there is little room in the world of to-day.

George William Dunham,

Most probably Jane Dunham (nee Tunstill)

FOURTH CHILD OF WILLIAM DUNHAM (1815-1884) AND CAROLINE WRIGHT (NEE PORLEY) (1823-1897)

4. DUNHAM, LEWIS JAMES (1857-1914) was born 18 Aug 1857, York, WA [Reg. 3828], father, William Dunham, mother, Caroline Porley. He married LOUISA JANE YOUNG (1859-1944), 13 Sep 1882, York, WA [Reg. 5430]. Lewis died 26 Apr 1914, York, WA [Reg. 13].

CERTIFICATE OF MARRIAGE. 5430
No.	When and Where Married	Place and Surname	Full name of Bride	Age of Bride	Residence	Rank or Profession	Rank or Profession of Father
248	13 Sep 1882	York, Western Australia	Louisa Jane Young	23	York	Housewife	Housewife
			William Dunham	66	York	Housewife	Housewife

Married in the Parish Church of St. Andrew, after Banns, according to the rites and ceremonies of the Church of England.

This Marriage was solemnized between { Louisa Jane Young } { William Dunham }
 in the presence of { Ralph Ashworth }
 { Elizabeth Ashworth }

REGISTRATION OFFICER
 DATE 20 MAR 1913

Copy of marriage certificate of Lewis James Dunham and Louisa Jane Young, witness Ralph Ashworth was Louisa's sister Elizabeth's husband. Courtesy Jean Stallwood.

YOUNG, LOUISA 'AGNES' JANE (1859-1944) (Via Avilla, Mountford Family Tree, Ancestry) was born 31 Dec 1859, registered in 1860, Rottnest, WA [Reg. 5259], father, THOMAS ALEXANDER YOUNG (1816-1873), mother, ELIZABETH DAVIDSON (1821-1899) who were married 16 Jul 1852, Elgin, Moray, Scotland. Thomas Young was a Pensioner guard who arrived in Fremantle on the Stag, 24 May 1855, Fremantle, WA. Louisa Jane Dunham (nee Young) died 27 Dec 1944, York, WA [Reg.71000].

Louisa Jane Dunham (nee Young) born 31 Dec 1859 Rottnest died 27 Dec 1944 York. Louisa was the daughter of Pensioner Guard Thomas Young (arrived on the Stag 1855) born 3 Nov 1816 Elgin Scotland died 27 Nov 1873 West Guildford and Elizabeth Davidson born 25 May 1829 died 12 Sep 1899. Louisa married Lewis James Dunham on the 13 Sep 1882 Holy Trinity Church York. This was a double wedding with Lewis's sister Emma Sarah Dunham born 13 Oct 1862 York died 7 Jul 1947 Beverley to Jessie William Blechynden born 9 Jun 1851 died 1 May 1934

1940 circa Walter, Iris, Louisa, Olive, Jean (my mother) and Lewis Dunham

Louisa Jane Dunham (nee Young) with her daughter Iris Dunham

ELIZABETH DAVIDSON (1821-1899), Louisa Jane Young's mother, was born 25 May, baptised 9 Jun 1821, Elgin, Moray, Scotland, parents: David Davidson, labourer and spouse, Elizabeth. Elizabeth died 12 Sep 1899, WA [Reg. 1875].

Copy of baptism of Elizabeth Davidson. Courtesy Jean Stallwood.

THOMAS ALEXANDER YOUNG (1816-1873), Louisa Jane Young's father, was born 3 Nov 1816, Elgin, Scotland. Parents: WILLIAM YOUNG (1788-1863) and MARGARET 'MILLIE' SMITH (1775-1836) 'Millie' who were married 7 Dec 1817, Montrose, Angus, Scotland. Thomas died 27 Dec 1873, West Guildford, WA [Reg. 6912].

LEWIS JAMES DUNHAM (1857-1914) and LOUISA JANE YOUNG (1859-1944) had six children as below. More details of these six children following in their individual sections:

1. WALTER LEWIS DUNHAM (1883-1953)
2. DUNHAM, HILDA ELIZABETH (1885-1971)
3. DUNHAM, WILLIAM THOMAS (1888-1945)
4. DUNHAM, GEORGE ALFRED (1890-1967)

5. DUNHAM, ANNIE AMELIA (1893-1968)
6. DUNHAM, IRIS EMELINE (1895-1977)

Lewis James Dunham died 26 Apr 1914, York, WA [Reg. 13].

Eastern Districts Chronicle (York, WA: 1877 - 1927), Fri 1 May 1914, pg 4

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article148571464.txt>

OBITUARY

LEWIS JAMES DUNHAM—56.

The stern and unrelenting hand of Death has been busy in this community of late, one of the most recent removals from our midst being Mr. Lewis James Dunham, who at the age of 56 years breathed his last at St. Vincent's Hospital on Sunday night last. The deceased developed an incurable disease many months back and towards the end of last year an operation was performed, with the result that the family were made acquainted with the painful fact that the end was only a matter of a few months at most. He bore his affliction with wonderful patience, and was ever hopeful that a recovery would be made. His condition, however, gradually grew worse, and when on Sunday evening the summons came he passed peacefully away in the arms of his bereaved widow who throughout his long and trying illness was almost continuously at the bedside.

The funeral took place on Monday afternoon, and before the coffin was removed from "Brocklesby," the late residence of deceased, a short service was conducted by the Rev. R. R. Fleming. The procession was lengthy and representative, over thirty vehicles being included. At Wesley Church a most impressive service was conducted by the Rev. Fleming, who delivered an eloquent and appropriate address. There was special singing, the hymns "O God our help in ages past," and "Rock of Ages" being rendered. Miss Vera Pyke, the Church organist, presided at the organ, and as the coffin was borne from the sacred edifice played "The Dead March," the congregation standing with bowed heads. Nearly two hundred persons witnessed the burial, and many were visibly affected. The chief mourners were Messrs. Walter J., William, and George (sons), and George (brother). The deceased leaves a widow and family of three sons and three daughters, two of the latter being married—Mrs. E. Ashbolt of our town, and Mrs. Cruickshank, of Perth. The sympathy extended is widespread. The family are held in the highest esteem, and with those who knew him—and his acquaintance was a pleasure—the deceased was ever regarded as a conscientious and upright resident. In his home his family best knew him, but their loss must be extremely heavy.

bowed heads. Nearly two hundred persons witnessed the burial, and many were visibly affected. The chief mourners were Messrs. Walter J., William, and George (sons), and George (brother). The deceased leaves a widow and family of three sons and three daughters, two of the latter being married—Mrs. E. Ashbolt of our town, and Mrs. A. Cruickshank, of Perth. The sympathy extended is widespread. The family are held in the highest esteem, and with those who knew him—and his acquaintance was a pleasure—the deceased was ever regarded as a conscientious and upright resident. In his home his family best knew him, but their loss must be extremely heavy.

Deceased's father, the late William Dunham, arrived in Western Australia during the year of its foundation—1829—and was thus one of the band of pioneers whose name should be written large in the history of this State.

The funeral arrangements were conducted by Messrs. Wansbrough & Wheeler.

OBITUARY

LEWIS JAMES DUNHAM—56.

The stern and unrelenting hand of Death has been busy in this community of late, one of the most recent removals from our midst being Mr. Lewis James Dunham, who at the age of 56 years breathed his last at St. Vincent's Hospital on Sunday night last. The deceased developed an incurable disease many months back and towards the end of last year an operation was performed, with the result that the family were made acquainted with the painful fact that the end was only a matter of a few months at most. He bore his affliction with wonderful patience, and was ever hopeful that a recovery would be made. His condition, however, gradually grew worse, and when on Sunday evening the summons came, he passed peacefully away in the arms of his bereaved widow who throughout his long and trying illness was almost continuously at the bedside.

The funeral took place on Monday afternoon, and before the coffin was removed from Brocklesby, the late residence of deceased, a short service was conducted by the Rev. R. R. Fleming. The procession was lengthy and representative, over thirty vehicles being included. At Wesley Church a most impressive service was conducted by the Rev. Fleming, who delivered an eloquent and appropriate address. There was special singing, the hymns "O God our help in ages past," and "Rock of Ages" being rendered. Miss Vera Pyke, the Church organist presided at the organ, and as the coffin was borne from the sacred edifice played "The Dead March" the congregation standing with bowed heads. Nearly two hundred persons witnessed the burial, and many were visibly affected. The chief mourners were Messrs. Walter J., William, and George (sons), and George (brother). The deceased leaves a widow and family of three sons and three daughters, two of the latter being married—Mrs. E. Ashbolt of our town, and Mrs. Cruickshank, of Perth. The sympathy extended is widespread. The family are held in the highest esteem, and with those who knew him—and his acquaintance was a pleasure—the deceased was ever regarded as a conscientious and upright resident. In his home his family best knew him, but their loss must be extremely heavy.

Deceased's father, the late William Dunham, arrived in Western Australia during the year of its foundation—1829—and was thus one of the band of pioneers whose name should be written large in the history of this State.

The funeral arrangements were conducted by Messrs. Wansbrough & Wheeler.

LOUISA JANE DUNHAM (nee YOUNG) was honoured with being awarded her Red Cross 20 years of service medal in 1937:

York Chronicle (WA: 1927 - 1954), Fri 8 Oct 1937, pg 3

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article252144287.txt>

PRESENTATION OF RED CROSS MEDAL

A very pleasing ceremony took place at the residence of Mrs. L. Dunham on Monday, September 27 when the officers of the local branch of the Red Cross Society attended to witness the presentation of a 'twenty years' service medal to Mrs. Dunham. In making the presentation, the president (Mrs. J. Campbell MacLachlan) spoke of the great volume of work done by Mrs. Dunham during the war years, and since, on behalf of the soldiers and voiced the pleasure it gave her to present this well merited recognition, which is one of the first to be presented in the State.

Mrs. Dunham, who is just recovering from a severe illness, was wonderfully bright and very delighted to receive the gift. It is anticipated that Lady Mitchell will visit York in the near future and present medals to other members of the society.

A very dainty afternoon tea was kindly provided by Miss Dunham and much appreciated. Those present included Mesdames MacLachlan, A. J. Monger (vice president), R. Loughlin (treasurer) and C. A. Foreman (hon. secretary).

Note: Her Red Cross medal is currently in the possession of Jean Stallwood.

PRESENTATION OF RED CROSS MEDAL

A very pleasing ceremony took place at the residence of Mrs. L. Dunham on Monday, September 27 when the officers of the local branch of the Red Cross Society attended to witness the presentation of a 'twenty years' service medal to Mrs. Dunham. In making the presentation, the president (Mrs. J. Campbell MacLachlan) spoke of the great volume of work done by Mrs. Dunham during the war years, and since, on behalf of the soldiers and voiced the pleasure it gave her to present this well merited recognition, which is one of the first to be presented in the State.

Mrs. Dunham, who is just recovering from a severe illness, was wonderfully bright and very delighted to receive the gift. It is anticipated that Lady Mitchell will visit York in the near future and present medals to other members of the society.

A very dainty afternoon tea was kindly provided by Miss Dunham and much appreciated. Those present included Mesdames MacLachlan, A. J. Monger (vice-president), R. Loughlin (treasurer) and C. A. Foreman (hon. secretary).

Louisa Jane Dunham (nee Young) died 27 Dec 1944, York, WA [Reg. 71000].

York Chronicle (WA: 1927 - 1954), Fri 14 Jun 1940, pg. 2

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article252528734.txt>

BEYOND THE ALLOTTED SPAN

We live in the present, plan for the future, but the only certainty about life is the past. The past is the foundation of our civilisation and to ignore it or to treat it lightly is to waste valuable lessons often learnt at great expense and to lose much of the interest of the present. And so, we will pierce the mists of the yesteryears by taking your minds back to the "good old days."

We will publish reminiscences of those amongst us who have lived beyond the biblical allotted span of seventy years and this week the subject is

Mrs Louisa Jane Dunham

On December 31, 1859, Mrs Louisa Dunham, third daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Young, was born at Rottneest, where her father was one of the soldiers engaged in guarding prisoners on that island. When about a year old her parents transferred to Fremantle and while living there Mrs. Dunham remembers having seen the finishing touches being given to the first bridge at the State's main port. Later the family moved to Guildford and when about eighteen years of age she came to live in York.

On September 13, in 1882, a double wedding was solemnised in Holy Trinity Church, the Rev, Howard officiating. The respective couples were the subject of this reference and the late Mr. Lewis James Dunham and the late Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Blechynden. Mrs Dunham then went to live with her husband on his "Brocklesby" property on the York-Perth Road about a mile from the centre of our town. To this couple were born six children—three sons and three daughters. The former are Walter Lewis, of Bunbury, William Thomas, of York, and George Alfred, of Perth. The daughters are Mesdames E. W. Ashbolt (Hilda), of York, A Cruikshank (Annie), of Victoria Park, and Miss Iris Dunham, who resides with her mother. William and George served overseas in the last war with the 43rd and 48th Battalions respectively. In addition to her sons and daughters Mrs. Dunham has eight grandchildren. Three grandsons have volunteered for service in the present war. Bill Cruikshank is with his unit in a war zone and Lewis and Donald, sons of Walter, are already training in a military camp in Western Australia. Mrs. Dunham's husband passed away on April 26, 1914. In 1934 she came to reside in her present home in Georgiana Street.

Despite her eighty years she interestingly relates how her journey from Guildford to York was made in the mail cart, then driven by the late Mr. Thomas Horton, grandfather of Mr. V. A. Horton, of Macartney street. This latter thoroughfare had not been the centre of much building activity in those days, the only house on the north side between Ulster Road and Avon terrace being that owned by Mr. Harry Stevens. This home stood in a portion of the property now owned by Mr, J. E Sparke. On the southern side of this thoroughfare, then known as the Perth Road, there were four homes, the Hoops, Pyke, Mills and Duff families living at the Avon terrace, Grey, Georgiana, and Howick Street corners respectively.

Gentle and unselfish, an ever-ready friend, this lady, who has always been devoted to her home and family, is held in high esteem by all, who will wish her every happiness.

BEYOND THE ALLOTTED SPAN

We live in the present, plan for the future, but the only certainty about life is the past. The past is the foundation of our civilisation and to ignore it or to treat it lightly is to waste valuable lessons often learnt at great expense and to lose much of the interest of the present. And so we will pierce the mists of the yesteryears by taking your minds back to the "good old days." We will publish reminiscences of those amongst us who have lived beyond the biblical allotted span of seventy years and this week the subject is

Mrs Louisa Jane Dunham.

On December 31, 1859, Mrs. Louisa Jane Dunham, third daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Young, was born at Rottneest, where her father was one of the soldiers engaged in guarding prisoners on that island. When about a year old her parents transferred to Fremantle and while living there Mrs. Dunham remembers having seen the finishing touches being given to the first bridge at the State's main port. Later the family moved to Guildford and when about eighteen years of age she came to live in York.

On September 13, in 1882, a double wedding was solemnised in Holy Trinity Church, the Rev. Howard officiating. The respective couples were the subject of this reference and the late Mr. Lewis James Dunham and the late Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Blechynden. Mrs. Dunham then went to live with her husband on his "Brocklesby" property on the York-Perth road about a mile from the Perth road about a mile from the centre of our town. To this couple were born six children—three sons and three daughters. The former are Walter Lewis, of Bunbury, William Thomas, of York, and George Alfred, of Perth. The daughters are Mesdames E. W. Ashbolt (Hilda), of York, A Cruikshank (Annie), of Victoria Park, and Miss Iris Dunham, who resides with her mother. William and George served overseas in the last war with the 43rd and 48th Battalions respectively. In addition to her sons and daughters Mrs. Dunham has eight grandchildren. Three grandsons have volunteered for service in the present war. Bill Cruikshank is with his unit in a war zone and Lewis and Donald, sons of Walter, are already training in a military camp in Western Australia. Mrs. Dunham's husband passed away on April 26, 1914. In 1934 she came to reside in her present home in Georgiana street.

Despite her eighty years she interestingly relates how her journey from Guildford to York was made in the mail cart, then driven by the late Mr. Thomas Horton, grandfather of Mr. V. A. Horton, of Macartney street. This latter thoroughfare had not been the centre of much building activity in those days, the only house on the north side between Ulster road and Avon terrace being that owned by Mr. Harry Stevens. This home stood in a portion of the property now owned by Mr. J. E. Sparke. On the southern side of this thoroughfare, then known as the Perth road, there were four homes, the Hoops, Pyke, Mills and Duff families living at the Avon terrace, Grey, Georgiana and Howick street corners respectively.

Gentle and unselfish, an ever ready friend, this lady, who has always been devoted to her home and family, is held in high esteem by all, who will wish her every happiness.

DEATH OF MRS LOUISA JANE DUNHAM

York Chronicle (WA: 1927 - 1954), Fri 5 Jan 1945, pg 2

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article252105936.txt>

OBITUARY Mrs. Louisa Jane Dunham At an advanced age, and after a long illness, Mrs. Louisa Jane Dunham, a highly respected resident of our town, passed peacefully away in the local hospital on December 27. The deceased lady, the third daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Young, was born at Rottneest on December 31, 1859, and was therefore within a few days of her 85th birthday. She was 18 years of age when coming to York to reside and most of her long life was lived here. On September 13, 1882, she was married to Mr. Lewis James Dunham in Holy Trinity Church, York, the Rev. Howard officiating. Mrs. Dunham went to live with her husband on his "Brocklesby" property, a mile from the town, but of later years lived in Georgiana street. Her husband having predeceased her in April, 1914, Mrs. Dunham is survived by her family of three sons—Walter Lewis, William and George—and three daughters—Mesdames E. Ashbolt (Hilda) and A. Cruikshank (Annie) and Miss Dunham (Iris). To them deep sympathy has been extended by their many friends. Gentle and kindly natured, an ever ready friend, Mrs. Dunham was devoted to her home and family. For many years she was an ardent church worker and	member of the Methodist Ladies' Guild and an early member of the York Red Cross branch. The funeral, attended by many relatives and friends, took place in the Methodist portion of the cemetery on December 28, the Rev. E. G. Hitchings officiating at the graveside and a prior service in Wesley Church. The chief mourners were Walter and George (sons) and Mr. E. W. Ashbolt (son-in-law). The pallbearers were Messrs. S. F. Morrell, H. L. Evans, E. B. Stacy, T. T. Whitfield, W. Dawkins, H. Smith, H. Giles and R. Inkpen.
--	---

OBITUARY

Mrs. Louisa Jane Dunham

At an advanced age, and after a long illness, Mrs. Louisa Jane Dunham, a highly respected resident of our town, passed peacefully away in the local hospital on December 27. The deceased lady, the third daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Young, was born at Rottneest on December 31, 1859, and was therefore within a few days of her 85th birthday. She was 18 years of age when coming to York to reside and most of her long life was lived here. On September 13, 1882, she was married to Mr. Lewis James Dunham in Holy Trinity Church, York, the Rev. Howard officiating. Mrs. Dunham went to live with her husband on his "Brocklesby" property, a mile from the town, but of later years lived in Georgiana Street. Her husband having predeceased her in April, 1914. Mrs. Dunham is survived by her family of three sons—Walter Lewis, William and George—and three daughters—Mesdames E. Ashbolt (Hilda) and A. Cruikshank (Annie) and Miss Dunham (Iris). To them deep sympathy has been extended by their many friends. Gentle and kindly natured, an ever-ready friend, Mrs. Dunham was devoted to her home and family. For many years she was an ardent church worker and member of the Methodist Ladies Guild and an early member of the York Red Cross branch.

The funeral, attended by many relatives and friends, took place in the Methodist portion of the cemetery on December 28, the Rev. E. G. Hitchings officiating at the graveside and a prior service in Wesley Church. The chief mourners were Walter and George (sons) and Mr. E. W. Ashbolt (son-in-law).

The pallbearers were Messrs. S. F. Morrell, H. L. Evans, E. B. Stacy, T. T. Whitfield, W. Dawkins, H. Smith, H. Giles and R. Inkpen. Mrs. Sarah Ann Smyth and R. Inkpen.

Following are the individual sections on the six children of LEWIS JAMES DUNHAM (1857-1914) and LOUISA JANE YOUNG (1859-1944):

FIRST CHILD OF LEWIS JAMES DUNHAM (1857-1914) and LOUISA JANE YOUNG (1859-1944):

1. WALTER LEWIS DUNHAM (1883-1953) was born 12 Sep 1883, York, WA [Reg. 24460]. He married OLIVE 'JEAN' MELVIN, 8 Jun 1909, Collie, (Wellington), WA [Reg. 51]. They had three children: Lewis, Donald and Jean Dunham. Walter died 23 May 1953, Bunbury, (Wellington), WA [Reg. 74].

OLIVE 'JEAN' MELVIN (1883-1975) was born 31 May 1883, Adelaide, SA [Pg. 15, Vol. 305], parents: WILLIAM MELVIN (1836-1910) and MARTHA THREADGOLD (1843-1923) who were married 24 May 1864, Res of George Tunn Norwood, Adelaide, SA [Pg. 33, Vol. 59].

Olive 'Jean' Dunham (nee Melvin) died 10 Jun 1975, Perth, WA.

The following two pages have details of Olive 'Jean' Melvin's parents and grandparents.

WILLIAM MELVIN (1836-1910), Olive 'Jean' Melvin's father, was born 5 May 1836, Edinburgh, Midlothian, Scotland. Parents DAVID MELVIN (1798-1839) and WILHELMINA BANNERMAN (1805- 1872) who were married 10 Aug 1820 Edinburgh, Midlothian, Scotland. William was the seventh out of eight children who were all born in Scotland. It appears that following their father David Melvin's death, the children and their mother emigrated from Scotland to SA. Isabella is recorded as residing in Scotland in 1841. She married James Whiting in Jun 1851 in Adelaide, SA. David Melvin, 1832, missionary, Edinburgh, Midlothian, Scotland, died 11 Jan 1839 Edinburgh, Scotland. Wilhelmina Melvin (nee Bannerman) died 9 Jul 1872, Adelaide, SA [pg. 230 Vol 48]. William Melvin died 8 Oct 1910, Collie, WA [Reg. 660011].

1. JESSIE MELVIN (1821-1908) 2. ANN MELVIN (1822-1879) 3. MARGARET MELVIN (1824-1906) 4. ISABELLA MELVIN (1826-1915) 5. DAVID MELVIN (1831-) 6. JOHN MELVIN (1832-) 7. WILLIAM MELVIN (1836-1910) 8. DANIEL WILKIE MELVIN (1838-1916).

MARTHA THREADGOLD (1843-1923), Olive 'Jean' Melvin's mother, was born 26 Nov 1843, Ferry Fryston, Yorkshire, England. Parents: ALFRED THREADGOLD (1822-1900) and ELIZABETH DODSON (1824-1898) who were married 22 May 1841, Knottingley, Yorkshire, England. Martha was the eldest of twelve children. The first four children were born in England (Eliza born 23 Oct 1852) and the following children were born in and remained in SA. Martha Threadgold moved to WA.

Emigration: Alfred and Elizabeth Threadgold and their children, Martha, Mary, Thomas and Francis: Departure, 6 December 1850, from Liverpool, Lancashire, England.

Arrival, 4 Apr 1851, Port Adelaide, SA, aboard the ship, Caroline.

Alfred Threadgold died 4 Oct 1900, Yongala, SA.

Elizabeth Threadgold (nee Dodgson) died 27 Mar 1898, Yongala, SA.

Martha Ann Melvin (nee Threadgold) died 1923, Bunbury, WA, [Reg. 6600135].

Olive 'Jean' Melvin's maternal grandparents ALFRED THREADGOLD (1822-1900) and ELIZABETH DODSON (1824-1898) had 12 children.

1. MARTHA ANN THREADGOLD (1843-1923) 2. MARY JANE THREADGOLD (1845-1902) 3. THOMAS THREADGOLD (1847-1925) 4. FRANCIS THREADGOLD (1850-1941) 5. ELIZA THREADGOLD (1852-1936) 6. ALFRED THREADGOLD (1855-1921) 7. WILLIAM JOSEPH THREADGOLD (1857-1930) 8. ROSEANNA THREADGOLD (1860-1952) 9. ELIZABETH THREADGOLD (1863-1863) 10. EDWIN THREADGOLD (1864-1881) 11. SARAH ELIZABETH THREADGOLD (1868-1955) 12. GEORGE DODSON THREADGOLD (1872-)

Olive 'Jean' Melvin's parents: MARTHA ANN THREADGOLD (1843-1923) married WILLIAM MELVIN (1836-1910) 24 May 1864, Norwood, SA [Pg. 33, Vol. 59]. All of their children were born in SA. Sadly, their first three children died young.

1. MINA MELVIN (1865-1869) 2. FLORENCE MELVIN (1866-1869) 3. CLAUDE MELVIN (1868-1869) 4. JESSIE ISABELLA MELVIN (1870-1946) 5. EDITH MELVIN (1872-1933) 6. MARTHA MELVIN (1874-1960) 7. WILLIAM HAROLD MELVIN (1876-1953) 8. FRANK PAGE MELVIN (1878-1931) 9. DUNCAN BEEBY MELVIN (1879-1940) 10. MARGARET MELVA MELVIN (1881-1897) 11. OLIVE JEAN MELVIN (1883-1975) 12. COLIN DOUGLAS MELVIN (1888-1892).

The following article from Trove gives a brief summary of Olive Jean Melvin's parents.

Bunbury Herald and Blackwood Express (WA: 1919 - 1929), Fri 2 Nov 1923, pg 3
<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article87036607.txt>

THE LATE MRS. MELVIN.

A PIONEER COLONIST. FUNERAL IN BUNBURY.

THE LATE MRS. MELVIN.

A PIONEER COLONIST.

FUNERAL IN BUNBURY.

The passing of the late Mrs. Martha Melvin, whose funeral took place on the 23rd ult., removes another of Australia's pioneer colonists.

The deceased lady arrived in Adelaide from Yorkshire 74 years ago, after a voyage of over six months in a sailing vessel. Her childhood days were spent with her parents following farm pursuits in the Yongala district. At the age of 21 she was married to Mr. William Melvin, of Adelaide, and took up residence in that city. Immediately upon arrival in Adelaide she identified herself actively with church and temperance work, particularly in connection with the Flinders Street Baptist Church, of which her husband was a foundation member. Both Mr. and Mrs. Melvin lived to see the Flinders Church grow from its foundation congregation of 26 persons in 1861 to its present proud position as a power for good in the land.

Mrs. Melvin acted as inter-State delegate at conferences of the W.C.T.U. in Melbourne and Sydney, and on arrival in Bunbury in 1897 closely associated herself with the work here, being elected President of the local branch. Her church activities in Bunbury were mainly confined to the Congregational Church, and old residents will remember the active interest displayed by the active interest displayed by the deceased lady and her husband.

Old memories were awakened at the service held in the Congregational Church in connection with the funeral when Mr. Fowler briefly referred to the good works performed by Mrs. Melvin.

After an impressive address the cortege moved away from the church, the pall-bearers being Messrs. Nillson, Haycox, Jno. Teede, Manning, Monkhouse, and E. A. Properjohn. The chief mourners were:—Messrs. W. H. and D. B. Melvin (sons), Mesdames I. W. Pilley, W. Sutcliffe, and W. Dunham (daughters), Mr. W. L. Dunham (son-in-law), and Miss Olive Melvin, Masters Lewis and Donald Dunham (grandchildren). Many representative townsmen paid their last respects to the deceased at the graveside.

Floral tributes and messages of sympathy were received from the following:—Brittain family, Mrs. and Miss D. Kimber, Mr. and Mrs. Fullerton, May, Wal, and family, Will and family, Mrs. Dixon, Charlie, Ethel and Vic., Miss Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Roberts, Mrs. Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Scott, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Properjohn, Mr. and Mrs. J. Teede, Mr. and Mrs. J. Donaldson, Congregational Church Guild, Congregational Church, staff and pupils Senior State School, Mr. and Mrs. J. Monkhouse, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Lloyd, Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Horn, Misses Kimber ("Stebonheath"), Mrs. Peacock, Mr. and Mrs. Bird and Mena, Mrs. Tweedie, Nurse Dovey, Mr. and Mrs. Pugh, Mr. and Mrs. J. House, Mr. and Mrs. Whit-

The passing of the late Mrs. Martha Melvin, whose funeral took place on the 23rd ult., removes another of Australia's pioneer colonists.

The deceased lady arrived in Adelaide from Yorkshire 74 years ago, after a voyage of over six months in a sailing vessel. Her childhood days were spent with her parents following farm pursuits in the Yongala district. At the age of 21 she was married to Mr. William Melvin, of Adelaide, and took up residence in that city. Immediately upon arrival in Adelaide, she identified herself actively with church and temperance work, particularly in connection with the Flinders Street Baptist Church, of which her husband was a foundation member. Both Mr. and Mrs. Melvin lived to see the Flinders Church grow from its foundation congregation of 26 persons in 1861 to its present proud position as a power for good in the land.

Mrs. Melvin acted as inter-State delegate at conferences of the W.C.T.U. in Melbourne and Sydney, and on arrival in Bunbury in 1897 closely associated herself with the work here, being elected President of the local branch. Her church activities in Bunbury were mainly confined to the Congregational Church, and old residents will remember the active interest displayed by the deceased lady and her husband.

Old memories were awakened at the service held in the Congregation Church in connection with the funeral when Mr. Fowler briefly referred to the good works performed by Mrs. Melvin.

After an impressive address the cortege moved away from the church, the pall-bearers being Messrs.

Mrs. J. House, Mr. and Mrs. Whittaker, Stang, Haynes and Western, Nor'-West Whaling Co., Bunbury Lodge No. 70, Mr. and Mrs. Sherlock, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Holywell, Duncan and Annie, granddaughter Olive, Mrs. Dunham and Iris (York), Mrs. Blechynden (Wagin), Mrs. E. Gale, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Ashbolt (York), Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Humphries (Perth), Frank and Ethel, Mr. and Mrs. A. White, Bunbury Senior School (P. and C. Association), Edie and family, Cyril and Sel., Olive and Walter, Jessie, Mrs. M. A. Johns, Mr. and Mrs. W. Morton, Mr. and Mrs. P. Williams and Alice, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Gibson, Miss Davidson, Mrs. Neilson and Stella, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Atkins, Mr. and Mrs. Millen, staff and children Infants' School, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Scott, Mr. and Miss Holtzmann, staff and students Bunbury High School, Holmsen family, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Hamley, Mrs. T. Shaw, Mrs. R. Shute, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. Quartermaine (Wagin), Mr. and Mrs. A. Crimshank (Victoria Park), Mrs. Rossiter (N. Perth), Mr. and Mrs. Fieldus (Geraldton), Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Jones (Subiaco), Mrs. E. C. Elliott (Perth), Mr. and Mrs. Healy, Miss Doreen Marshall, Miss Dorothy Newton, Mr. and Mrs. J. Shaw and family, Miss E. L. Burgess, Miss C. Stevens, Mrs. C. Buchanan, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Carroll, Donaldson and Murray, Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Blythe, Mrs. Barelli (Armada), Women's Christian Temperance Union (Perth), Bunbury District School Board, Mr. and Mrs. J. Dvoretzky, Atkins and Sumpson (Perth), Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Muir.

Nillson, Haycox, Jno. Teede, Manning, Monkhouse, and E. A. Properjohn. The chief mourners were: — Messrs. W. H. and D. B. Melvin (sons), Mesdames I. W. Pilley, W. Sutcliffe, and W. Dunham (daughters), Mr. W. L. Dunham (son-in-law), and Miss Olive Melvin, Masters Lewis and Donald Dunham (grandchildren). Many representative townsmen paid their last respects to the deceased at the graveside.

Floral tributes and messages of sympathy were received from the following: — Brittain family, Mrs. and Miss D. Kimber, Mr. and Mrs. Fullerton, May, Wal, and family, Will and family, Mrs. Dixon, Charlie, Ethel and Vic, Miss Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Roberts, Mrs. Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Scott, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Properjohn, Mr. and Mrs. J. Teede, Mr. and Mrs. J. Donaldson, Congregational Church Guild, Congregational Church, staff and pupils Senior State School, Mr. and Mrs. J. Monkhouse, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Lloyd, Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Horn, Misses Kimber ("Stebonheath"), Mrs. Peacock, Mr. and Mrs. Bird and Mena, Mrs. Tweedie, Nurse Dovey, Mr. and Mrs. Pugh, Mr. and Mrs. J. House, Mr. and Mrs. Whittaker, Stang, Haynes and Western, Nor'-West Whaling Co., Bunbury Lodge No. 70, Mr. and Mrs. Sherlock, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Holywell, Duncan and Annie, granddaughter Olive, Mrs. Dunham and Iris (York), Mrs. Blechynden (Wagin), Mrs. E. Gale, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Ashbolt (York), Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Humphries (Perth), Frank and Ethel, Mr. and Mrs.

(Perth), Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Muir. The late Mrs. Melvin leaves a family of seven children, 26 grandchildren, and three great grandchildren to mourn their loss. The funeral arrangements were carried out by Messrs. Brittain and Son.

A. White, Bunbury Senior School (P. and C. Association), Edie and family, Cyril and Sel., Olive and Walter, Jessie, Mrs. M. A. Johns, Mr. and Mrs. W. Morton, Mr. and Mrs. P. Williams and Alice, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Gibson, Miss Davidson, Mrs. Neilson and Stella, Mr. and Mrs. Geo.

Atkins, Mr. and Mrs. Millen, staff and children Infants' School, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Scott, Mr. and Miss Holtzmann, staff and students Bunbury High School, Holmsen family, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Hamley, Mrs. T. Shaw, Mrs. R. Shute, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. Quartermaine (Wagin), Mr. and Mrs. A. Cruikshank (Victoria Park), Mrs. Rossiter (N. Perth), Mr. and Mrs. Fieldus (Geraldton), Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Jones (Subiaco), Mrs. E. C. Elliott (Perth), Mr. and Mrs. Healy, Miss Doreen Marshall, Miss Dorothy Newton, Mr. and Mrs. J. Shaw and family, Miss E. L. Burgess, Miss C. Stevens, Mrs. C. Buchanan, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Carroll, Donaldson and Murray, Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Blythe, Mrs. Barelli (Armadale), Women's Christian Temperance Union (Perth), Bunbury District School Board, Mr. and Mrs. J. Dvoretzky, Atkins and Simpson (Perth), Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Muir.

The late Mrs. Melvin leaves a family of seven children, 26 grandchildren, and three great grandchildren to mourn their loss. The funeral arrangements were carried out by Messrs. Brittain and Son.

As mentioned previously, WALTER LEWIS DUNHAM married OLIVE 'JEAN' MELVIN, 8 Jun 1909, Collie, (Wellington), WA [Reg. 51].

WEDDING OF WALTER LEWIS DUNHAM AND OLIVE JEAN MELVIN, 8 Jun 1909, Collie, WA.
Courtesy of Jean Stallwood.

Back row, standing: 1. William Thomas Dunham (Uncle Billy), 2. Margaret Pollard (nee Young), 3. Louisa Jane Dunham (nee Young) Walter's mother, 4. Best man L. Looney (Eucla), 5. Annie Amelia (Dot) Dunham – married Andrew Cruikshank, 6. Bride Olive Jean Dunham (nee Melvin), 7. William Melvin (father of the bride), 8. William Harold Melvin, 9. Minister J E Oldfield, 10. Rose Marshall, 11. Amy Marshall, Olive's cousins, nieces of Martha Melvin.

Front row, sitting: 1. Ralph Ashworth, 2. Elizabeth Ashworth (nee Young), 3. Hilda Dunham (identified by her daughter), 4. Olive Mary Melvin flower girl – daughter of William Harold Melvin (married Jack Morrell), 5. Groom Walter Lewis Dunham, 6. Martha Ann Melvin (nee Threadgold) Bride's mother, 7. Martha Mayflower (May) Melvin, 8 Catherine Helena Melvin (nee Johnson)

Eastern Districts Chronicle (York, WA: 1877 - 1927), Sat 3 Jul 1909, pg 2
03 Jul 1909 - Family Notices \(nla.gov.au\)

WEDDING BELLS.

DUNHAM—MELVIN.

At Wesley Church, Collie, on Tuesday, Jun 8, the marriage of Mr W. L. Dunham, of the Eucla telegraph staff, son of Mr and Mrs L. Dunham, of York, to Miss Olive Jean Melvin, youngest daughter of Mr and Mrs W. Melvin, of Collie, was solemnised, the Rev. T. C. Oldfield officiating.

A good number of friends witnessed the ceremony, and the bride, who was given away by her father, looked charmingly pretty in a creme serge dress trimmed with glaze silk and rich lace, with a spray of orange blossom fastened from the shoulder to the waist, an embroidered veil was arranged over a coronet of orange blossom and beautifully dressed hair, and a lovely shower bouquet was carried. The bridesmaids were Miss Dunham, who wore a beautiful dress of creme silk; Miss Dot Dunham, brown voile and lace trimmings; and Miss Olive Melvin (niece of bride), pink nun's veiling trimmed with cream lace and ribbons, and carrying a basket of flowers. Mr Looney, of Eucla, acted as best man.

The wedding party, which consisted of relatives of both families, drove to Mr W. H. Melvin's residence in Wittenoom-street, where the breakfast was partaken of and the usual toasts honoured, after which the wedding group was photographed.

WEDDING BELLS.

DUNHAM—MELVIN.

At Wesley Church, Collie, on Tuesday, June 8, the marriage of Mr W. L. Dunham, of the Eucla telegraph staff, son of Mr and Mrs L. Dunham, of York, to Miss Olive Jean Melvin, youngest daughter of Mr and Mrs W. Melvin, of Collie, was solemnised, the Rev. T. C. Oldfield officiating. A good number of friends witnessed the ceremony, and the bride, who was given away by her father, looked charmingly pretty in a creme serge dress trimmed with glaze silk and rich lace, with a spray of orange blossom fastened from the shoulder to the waist, an embroidered veil was arranged over a coronet of orange blossom and beautifully dressed hair, and a lovely shower bouquet was carried. The bridesmaids were Miss Dunham, who wore a beautiful dress of creme silk; Miss Dot Dunham, brown voile and lace trimmings; and Miss Olive Melvin (niece of bride), pink nun's veiling trimmed with cream lace and ribbons, and carrying a basket of flowers. Mr Looney, of Eucla, acted as best man.

The wedding party, which consisted of relatives of both families, drove to Mr W. H. Melvin's residence in Wittenoom-street, where the breakfast was partaken of and the usual toasts honoured, after which the wedding group was photographed.

Electoral Roll:

1906 Olive Jean Melvin, Throssell St, Collie, sales woman
 William Melvin, Saddler, Martha Melvin, home duties.
 1906 Walter Lewis Dunham, Broad Arrow, Kalgoorlie, postal official
 1910 Walter Lewis Dunham, 25 Museum St, Perth, telegraphist
 1910 Olive Jean Melvin, Throssell St, Collie, sales woman.
 1912, 1913, 1916, 1917 Walter Lewis Dunham, York, Clerk, Olive Jean, married 1919 Walter Lewis Dunham, Forrest St, Kalgoorlie, Clerk, Olive Jean, home duties.
 1922, 1925, 1931 Walter Lewis Dunham, Spencer St, Bunbury, Clerk, Olive Jean, home duties.
 1936, 1937 Walter Lewis Dunham, 58 Campbell St, Kalgoorlie, Olive Jean, home duties.
 1943 Walter Lewis Dunham, 34 Spencer St, Bunbury, postal inspector, Olive Jean, home duties.
 1954, 1958 Olive Jean Dunham, 34 Spencer St, Bunbury, home duties.
 1963, 1972 Olive Jean Dunham, Claudia Hicks Lodge, Bentley, home duties.

In 1946 Walter Dunham was appointed as Superintendent of Post and Telegraphs. The following articles tell of the life and experiences of Mr W Dunham and how life had changed rapidly in Western Australia over his time with the Postal Services.

South Western Times (Bunbury, WA: 1932 - 1954), Thu 7 Mar 1946, pg 15
<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article253118048.txt>

MR. W, DUNHAM
Now Acting
Superintendent of Postal Services

Mr. W. Dunham, who has been transferred to Perth as acting Superintendent of Postal Services, has had a long record of service with the postal department and is well acquainted with Bunbury in the

MR. W. DUNHAMNow Acting
Superintendent of
Postal Services

Mr. W. Dunham, who has been transferred to Perth as acting Superintendent of Postal Services, has had a long record of service with the postal department and is well acquainted with Bunbury in the old days as he started here as junior telegraph operator in 1901.

Since then, Mr. Dunham has seen service in various parts of the State. He received his first transfer to the goldfields in 1903 and remained there for some three years, and was then transferred to Eucla, where he enjoyed the salubrious sea breezes of that rather isolated resort for the next two and a half years.

Mr. Dunham first joined the postal services branch in 1916. From then until 1932 he filled many positions, acting as postmaster at many different centres. For a period of three years he was a member of the staffing committee and did some very effective work in connection with the re-organisation of postmen's duties in the metropolitan area.

Mr. Dunham saw service as District Inspector for three years and he came to Bunbury in his present position as District Postal Inspector in 1938. During those years he has rendered very conspicuous service and while his many friends regret that he is leaving Bunbury, they were not surprised that he was singled out for the position when the post of Superintendent of Postal Services became vacant.

Mr. Dunham points out that he has only been appointed in an acting capacity and has only been temporarily transferred to Perth while acting in that position, but he admits that most important appointments in the service are made in an acting capacity for a start and the acting official is usually confirmed in that position.

It would appear very likely therefore that in course of time, Mr. Dunham will be confirmed in his present acting position as Superintendent of old days as he started here as junior telegraph operator in 1901.

Since then, Mr. Dunham has seen service in various parts of the State. He received his first, transfer to the goldfields in 1903 and remained there for some three years, and was then transferred to Eucla, where he enjoyed the salubrious sea breezes of that rather isolated resort for the next two and a half years.

Mr. Dunham first joined the postal services branch in 1916. From then until 1932 he filled many positions, acting as postmaster at many different centres. For a period of three years, he was a member of the staffing committee and did some very effective work in connection with the re-organisation of postmen's duties in the metropolitan area.

Mr. Dunham saw service as District Inspector for three years and he came to Bunbury in his present position as District Postal Inspector in 1938. During those years he has rendered very conspicuous service and while his many friends regret that he is leaving Bunbury, they were not surprised that he was singled out for the position when the post of Superintendent of Postal Services became vacant.

Mr. Dunham points out that he has only been appointed in an acting capacity and has only been temporarily transferred to Perth while acting in that position, but he admits that most

Mr. W. DUNHAM,
former Bunbury district postal important appointments in the service are made in an acting capacity for a start and the acting official is usually confirmed in that position. It would appear very likely therefore that in course of time, Mr. Dunham will be confirmed in his present acting position as Superintendent of Postal Services in this State.

He took over that position on March 1 and on Tuesday last he was making an official visit to Bunbury. During the time that Mr. Dunham was in Bunbury he was a member of the Rotary Club and took a keen interest in the development of the town, not only from a departmental point of view, but generally and it cannot be denied that over the long period of his association with Bunbury he has seen many outstanding changes.

Mr. Dunham is being succeeded in Bunbury by Mr. C. S. Higgins.

Image: Mr. W. DUNHAM, former Bunbury district postal District Inspector

Kalgoorlie Miner (WA: 1895 - 1954), Wed 24 Sep 1947, pg 4

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article95616414.txt>

PERSONAL

Mr. W. L. Dunham, Superintendent of the Postal Services Branch, and Mr. J. J. Carter, Superintendent of Mails, arrived in Kalgoorlie yesterday. Mr. Carter, who came to this State from Victoria seven months ago, is making his first official visit to the goldfields. Mr. Dunham was District Postal Inspector at Kalgoorlie from 1932 to 1938 and will probably retire from the position of Superintendent of Postal Services early next year. He joined the service at York, in 1898 as an unpaid cadet. After several years at Bunbury, he arrived in Broad Arrow as a telegraph operator in 1903, was later stationed at Gwalia,

Mr. W. L. Dunham, Superintendent of the Postal Services Branch, and Mr. J. J. Carter, Superintendent of Mails, arrived in Kalgoorlie yesterday. Mr. Carter, who came to this State from Victoria seven months ago, is making his first official visit to the goldfields. Mr. Dunham was District Postal Inspector at Kalgoorlie from 1932 to 1938 and will probably retire from the position of Superintendent of Postal Services early next year. He joined the service at York, in 1898 as an unpaid cadet. After several years at Bunbury he arrived in Broad Arrow as a telegraph operator in 1903, was later stationed at Gwalla, and from 1905 was employed as a telegraph operator at Eucla until the station was abolished in 1908, and direct overland operating from Perth to Adelaide was brought into operation. He spent the next eight years in Perth and in 1916 returned to Coolgardie as a clerk in the postal services branch. In 1921 he went to Bunbury and when the new postal district was opened in the South-West was acting district postal inspector for a period of approximately two years. A period of staff investigation work throughout the State was followed by his appointment to Kalgoorlie as District Postal Inspector. Mr. Dunham recalled yesterday that his arrival in Kalgoorlie coincided with the revival in the mining industry and during the six years he was here many changes took place in old mining centres that experienced renewed activity with the mining boom. Although his subsequent appointment to Bunbury as District Postal Inspector occurred during the war years, Mr. Dunham again experienced a busy period because of the demand for foodstuffs and the consequent progress in the South-West. He was promoted to the position of Superintendent of the Postal Services Branch in February, 1946.

and from 1905 was employed as a telegraph operator at Eucla until the station was abolished in 1908, and direct overland operating from Perth to Adelaide was brought into operation. He spent the next eight years in Perth and in 1916 returned to Coolgardie as a clerk in the postal services branch. In 1921 he went to Bunbury and when the new postal district was opened in the South-

West was acting district postal inspector for a period of approximately two years. A period of staff investigation work throughout the State was followed by his appointment to Kalgoorlie as District Postal Inspector. Mr. Dunham recalled yesterday that his arrival in Kalgoorlie coincided with the revival in the mining industry and during the six years he was here many changes took place in old mining centres that experienced renewed activity with the mining boom. Although his subsequent appointment to Bunbury as District Postal Inspector occurred during the war years, Mr. Dunham again experienced a busy period because of the demand for foodstuffs and the consequent progress in the South-West. He was promoted to the position of Superintendent of the Postal Services Branch in February, 1946.

Daily News (Perth, WA: 1882 - 1955), Sat 15 Nov 1947, pg 21

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article79811072.txt>

HE REMEMBERS MAIL, GOLD DELIVERIES BY COACH

A man who remembers vividly the days when mails and gold were carried in picturesque Cobb and Co. coaches will retire this month from the P.M.G.'s Department.

He is Superintendent of Postal Services W. L. Dunham, who has had 49 years' service with the department.

Mr. Dunham recalls the times when, as a postal clerk at Leonora in 1908, he often saw the coaches guarded by mounted police to protect the valuable gold consignments.

"It was just like a 'Wild West' film, only there were no Indians," he said.

Since 1898 he has visited every post office in the State south of Onslow, has been district inspector in charge of each of the five postal districts in the State.

"An inspector in the early days had to get around his district the best way he could, in buggies, sulkies and sometimes on horseback," said Mr. Dunham.

"Nowadays, with modern transport facilities, an inspector can cover his district in one-third of the time."

He estimates that since 1916 he has covered 200,000 miles by car on official business.

Mr. Dunham has also been a telegraphist and a senior postal clerk. He has been Superintendent of Postal Services since March, 1946.

When he retires, Mr. Dunham hopes to travel around Australia and visit the place on the Queensland coast on the Queensland coast where one of his sons was killed during the war. He would also like to go to Germany to see where his other son was killed.

A man who remembers vividly the days when mails and gold were carried in picturesque Cobb and Co. coaches will retire this month from the P.M.G.'s Department.

He is Superintendent of Postal Services W. L. Dunham, who has had 49 years' service with the department.

Mr. Dunham recalls the times when, as a postal clerk at Leonora in 1908, he often saw the coaches guarded by mounted police to protect the valuable gold consignments. "It was just like a 'Wild West' film, only there were no Indians," he said.

Since 1898 he has visited every post office in the State south of Onslow, has been district inspector in charge of each of the five postal districts in the State. "An inspector in the early days had to get around his district the best way he could, in buggies, sulkies and sometimes on horseback," said Mr. Dunham. "Nowadays, with modern transport facilities, an inspector can cover his district in one-third of the time."

He estimates that since 1916 he has covered 200,000 miles by car on official business.

Mr. Dunham has also been a telegraphist and a senior postal clerk. He has been Superintendent of Postal Services since March, 1946.

When he retires, Mr. Dunham hopes to travel around Australia and visit the place on the Queensland coast where one of his sons was killed during the war.

He would also like to go to Germany to see where his other son was killed.

Jean Stallwood has written a letter to the National Archive informing and requesting they update information about her grandfather William Dunham being the superintendent of Postal Services. She is currently updating a book she had written about her grandfather William Dunham.

1949 Post Office Administrative Staff in Perth. This photo was given to Jean Stallwood by Mr. Halvorsen's daughter.

Kalgoorlie Miner (WA: 1895 - 1954), Tue 26 May 1953, pg 4
26 May 1953 - Death of Mr. W. L. Dunham \(nla.gov.au\)

Death of Mr. W. L. Dunham

LONG SERVICE WITH P.M.G.

Bunbury, May 25. — Mr. Walter Lewis Dunham (69), formerly Superintendent of Postal Services, Perth, died suddenly here on Saturday.

Mr. Dunham first joined the P.M.G. Department as a cadet in York in 1899.

In 1936 he was appointed district inspector of the Eastern Goldfields district, with headquarters in Kalgoorlie.

In 1939 he was transferred as district inspector to Bunbury.

He was finally promoted to Superintendent of Postal Services, Perth, in 1946.

The funeral was held at Bunbury today.

Death of Mr. W. L. Dunham

LONG SERVICE WITH P.M.G.

Bunbury, May 25 — Mr. Walter Lewis Dunham (69), formerly Superintendent of Postal Services, Perth, died suddenly here on Saturday.

Mr. Dunham first joined the P.M.G. Department as a cadet in York in 1899.

In 1936 he was appointed district inspector of the Eastern Goldfields district, with headquarters in Kalgoorlie.

In 1939 he was transferred as district inspector to Bunbury.

He was finally promoted to Superintendent of Postal Services, Perth, in 1946.

The funeral was held at Bunbury to-day.

South Western Times (Bunbury, WA: 1932 - 1954), Thu 28 May 1953, pg 1
28 May 1953 - SUDDEN DEATH OF HIGHLY RESPECTED BUNBURY CITIZEN \(nla.gov.au\)

SUDDEN DEATH OF HIGHLY RESPECTED BUNBURY CITIZEN

Mr. Walter Lewis Dunham (69), a former District Postal Inspector at Bunbury, and later Superintendent of Postal Services, Perth, died suddenly at his Spencer Street home on Saturday last.

The passing of Mr. Dunham has removed one of Bunbury's most respected citizens. Mr. and Mrs. Dunham suffered the greatest heartbreak any parents could endure when, during World War II, they lost both their sons, Lewis and Donald, who were killed in action with the R.A.A.F.

SUDDEN DEATH OF HIGHLY RESPECTED BUNBURY CITIZEN

Mr. Walter Lewis Dunham (69), a former District Postal Inspector at Bunbury, and later Superintendent of Postal Services, Perth, died suddenly at his Spencer-street home on Saturday last.

The passing of Mr. Dunham has removed one of Bunbury's most respected citizens.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunham suffered the greatest heartbreak any parents could endure when, during World War II, they lost both their sons, Lewis and Donald, who were killed in action with the R.A.F.

While the late Mr. Dunham became well known because of the high position he held in the Postal Department, he probably was better known to Bunbury residents for the keen interest he took in the cultural side of the town's affairs, and more especially for the part he played in Bunbury's war effort.

A former Rotarian, the late Mr. Dunham at one time held the position of president of the Bunbury club.

The late Mr. Dunham first joined the P.M.G. Department in 1899 as a cadet in York. Later he was stationed in various parts of the State. He was at Eucla when that town was an important telegraph repeating station.

He first came to Bunbury from Coolgardie early in 1920. Promotion continued to come his way, and he was then appointed district inspector of the Eastern Goldfields with headquarters in Kalgoorlie. Mr. Dunham was transferred to Bunbury in 1939 in the capacity of district postal inspector. In 1946 he was appointed to the highest position in the postal services branch—superintendent of postal services, Perth—retiring from the department in 1947.

The fact that Mr. Dunham was highly regarded by the department was reflected by the large number of P.M.G. officials who attended the funeral on Monday.

A large section of Bunbury businessmen were also at the graveside to pay their last respects to a man who had served Bunbury well.

During the periods he was resident in Bunbury, the late Mr. Dunham had been associated with several orders of Freemasonry.

He left a widow and one married daughter.

The funeral was in the Congregational portion of the Bunbury cemetery on Monday afternoon. Pall bearers were Messrs. W. A. Halvorsen, S. L. Olive, G. Perkins, Jolly, F. Roberts and R. Fowler.

While the late Mr. Dunham became well known because of the high position he held in the Postal Department, he probably was better known to Bunbury residents for the keen interest he took in the cultural side of the town's affairs, and more especially for the part he played in Bunbury's war effort (sic. effort).

A former Rotarian, the late Mr. Dunham at one time held the position of president of the Bunbury club.

The late Mr. Dunham first joined the P.M.G. Department in 1899 as a cadet in York. Later he was stationed in various parts of the State. He was at Eucla when that town was an important telegraph repeating station.

He first came to Bunbury from Coolgardie early in 1920. Promotion continued to come his way, and he was then appointed district inspector of the Eastern Goldfields with headquarters in Kalgoorlie. Mr. Dunham was transferred to Bunbury in 1939 in the capacity of district postal inspector. In 1946 he was "appointed to the highest position in the postal services branch—superintendent of postal services, Perth—retiring from the department in 1947.

The fact that Mr. Dunham was highly regarded by the department was reflected by the large number of P.M.G. officials who attended the funeral on Monday.

A large section of Bunbury businessmen were also at the graveside to pay their last respects to a man who had served Bunbury well. During the periods he was resident in Bunbury, the late Mr. Dunham had been associated with several orders of Freemasonry.

He left a widow and one married daughter.

The funeral was in the Congregational portion of the Bunbury cemetery on Monday afternoon. Pall bearers were Messrs. W. A. Halvorsen, S. L. Olive, G. Perkins, Jolly, F. Roberts and R. Fowler.

SECOND CHILD OF LEWIS JAMES DUNHAM (1857-1914) and LOUISA JANE YOUNG (1859-1944):

2. DUNHAM, HILDA ELIZABETH (1885-1971)

Hilda Elizabeth Dunham was born 24 Jul 1885, York, WA [Reg. 26584].

Hilda Elizabeth Ashbolt (nee Dunham) died 7 Jan 1971, York, WA [Reg. 3].

HILDA ELIZABETH DUNHAM (1885-1971) married EDWARD WILLIAM ASHBOLT (1884-1965) 7 Sep 1910, York, WA [Reg. 26]. They had two children: Jean Louisa and Iris Amy.

EDWARD WILLIAM ASHBOLT (1884-1965)

Edward William Ashbolt was born 2 Jul 1884, York, WA [Reg. 25281], registered under Ashbold.

Parents: HENRY ASHBOLT (1856-1940) and HARRIET HANNAH FISHER (1855-1946) who were married 1880, York, WA [Reg. 5004].

Edward William Ashbolt died 1966, Perth, WA [Reg. 91].

Eastern Districts Chronicle (York, WA: 1877 - 1927), Fri 16 Sep 1910, pg 3

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article148565855.txt>

WEDDING.

ASHBOLT—DUNHAM.

A very pretty wedding was solemnised at Wesley Church, on the 7th inst. the contracting parties being Mr Edward Ashbolt and Miss Hilda Dunham, eldest daughter of Mr L. J. Dunham, both of this town. The Rev. F. S. Finch officiated. The church was nicely decorated for the occasion, and a large number of relatives and friends witnessed the ceremony. The bride, who was given away by her father, was dressed in crepe de chine, the bodice being made, with a tucke of net yoke and drapings of material, the sleeves of finely tucked material, and braided with a narrow silk braid on net. The skirt was made in semi-empire effect, with front panels tucked and beaded, and finished at hem with a plait of narrow braid. The usual wreath and veil were worn. The bridesmaids (Miss Amy Ashbolt, and Misses Annie and Iris Dunham) wore dresses of white organdie muslin, daintily trimmed with valenciennes insertion and muslin embroidery, and wore gold necklets, the gifts of the bride's groom. Mr. George Ashbolt acted as best man. The hymn "The Voice that breathed o'er Eden," was sung as the bride walked up the aisle on the arm of her father, and at the conclusion of the ceremony Mrs Finch played "The Wedding March," on the church organ. The newly-wedded couple were pelted with confetti as they left the church, and drove off to the Oddfellows' Hall, where a reception was subsequently held. The guests were numerous, and a very pleasant afternoon was spent. The usual toasts were honored. In the evening a large party were also entertained by the bride's parents in honor of the event. Mr and Mrs Ashbolt were the recipients of many congratulations, and the wedding presents were numerous and useful.

The following is a list of the presents received: —Father of bride, block of land; mother of bride, gold pendant; parents of bridegroom, toilet set; Mrs Stirling (aunt), cheque; Mrs Piesse (Newcastle), crumb tray and brush; Mr and Mrs S. B. Meares, silver-plated bread saw; Mr H. M. Edwards, cutlery and silver; Members of Y.W.C.T.U., bedroom clock; Mr E. W. Fleay, case afternoon teaspoons; Mr and Mrs S. Fisher and family, dinner set; Miss Stone and Mr. Geo. Ashbolt, lamp and table centre; Mr and Mrs Geo. Ellis, afternoon tea-set; Miss T. Ashworth, silver bread fork; Miss Emily Ashworth, specimen glasses; Miss Ruby Ashworth, salad bowl; Miss Jessie McKay, pair of compote dishes; Mrs. G. Ley, salad bowl; Misses Jessie and Ruth Edwards, picture; Mrs Reg. Monger (Greenhills), silver and glass pickle jar; Mr Arthur Giles, breakfast cruet; Mr and Mrs T. H. Blechynden (uncle and aunt), cushion and pickle jar; Mr and Mrs H. Smith, silver and glass jam dish; Master Allan Smith, pair jam dishes; Mr W Dawkins, silver tea pot; Mr Geo. Dunham, silver afternoon tea spoons; Mr and Mrs R. Ashworth, set jugs; Master Leslie Arnold, jam-pot; Mr and Mrs W. Smith, teapot; Residents of Balladong, silver teapot; Young men of Balladong, silver and cut glass dish; Mr and Mrs J. Meinick, silver salt cellars; Mr H. Ashbolt (Katanning), silver cruet and jam dish; Master Fred. Ashbolt, water jug; Mr and Mrs Deans, salad bowl and sweet dish; Mr and Mrs T. T. Whitfield, set of carvers and fancy work; Mr and Mrs Harkness, silver and cut glass butter dish; Misses Gladys and Ivy Hyde, fruit dish; Miss Carmen Monger, pair d'oyley's; Mrs Turvey, jam pot, pickle jar, and sweet dish; Mrs J. Giles, compote dish; Mrs N. Trew, salad bowl, water jug, and ornaments; Miss Thielemann, silver and china fruit dish; Miss Thieleman, silver and glass jam dish; Mr and Mrs Sweet (Claremont), ivory salad servers; Mr and Mrs T. McKay, silver and cut glass butter dish; Mrs Kruger and Miss Bennet, pair vases; Mr and Mrs S. Hyde jardiniere; Mr and Mrs A. Giles, pair fruit dishes; Miss Amy Ashbolt, pair of pictures; Rev and Mrs J Finch, d'oyleys; Miss McQuillan, gipsy table cover; Miss Sullivan, silver butter knives and jam spoon; Miss Essie Ashworth, bread and butter plates; Master N. Ashworth. sugar basin; Mrs. Wray and family (Perth), afternoon tea

WEDDING.
ASHBOLT-DUNHAM.

A very pretty wedding was solemnised at Wesley Church, on the 7th inst. the contracting parties being Mr Edward Ashbolt and Miss Hilda Dunham, eldest daughter of Mr L. J. Dunham, both of this town. The Rev. F. S. Finch officiated. The church was nicely decorated for the occasion, and a large number of relatives and friends witnessed the ceremony. The bride, who was given away by her father, was dressed in crepe de chine, the bodice being made with a tucke of net yoke and drapings of material, the sleeves of finely tucked material, and braided with narrow silk braid on net. The skirt was made in semi-empire effect, with front panels tucked and beaded, and finished at hem with a plait of narrow braid. The usual wreath and veil were worn. The bridesmaids (Miss Amy Ashbolt, and Misses Annie and Iris Dunham) wore dresses of white organdie muslin, daintily trimmed with valenciennes insertion and muslin embroidery, and wore gold necklets, the gifts of the bride's groom. Mr. George Ashbolt acted as best man. The hymn "The Voice that breathed o'er Eden," was sung as the bride walked up the aisle on the arm of her father, and at the conclusion of the ceremony Mrs Finch played "The Wedding March," on the church organ. The newly-wedded couple were pelted with confetti as they left the church, and drove off to the Oddfellows' Hall, where a reception was subsequently held. The guests were numerous, and a very pleasant afternoon was spent. The usual toasts were honored. In the evening a large party were also entertained by the bride's parents in honor of the event. Mr and Mrs Ashbolt were the recipients of many congratulations, and the wedding presents were numerous and useful.

wedding presents were numerous and useful.

The following is a list of the presents received: —Father of bride, block of land; mother of bride, gold pendant; parents of bridegroom, toilet set; Mrs Stirling (aunt), cheque; Mrs Piesse (Newcastle), crumb tray and brush; Mr and Mrs S. B. Meares, silver-plated bread saw; Mr H. M. Edwards, cutlery and silver; Members of Y.W.C.T.U., bedroom clock; Mr E. W. Fleay, case afternoon teaspoons; Mr and Mrs S. Fisher and family, dinner set; Miss Stone and Mr. Geo. Ashbolt, lamp and table centre; Mr and Mrs Geo. Ellis, afternoon tea-set; Miss T. Ashworth, silver bread fork; Miss Emily Ashworth, specimen glasses; Miss Ruby Ashworth, salad bowl; Miss Jessie McKay, pair compote dishes; Mrs. G. Ley, salad bowl; Misses Jessie and Ruth Edwards, picture; Mrs Reg. Monger (Greenhills), silver and glass pickle jar; Mr Arthur Giles, breakfast cruet; Mr and Mrs T. H. Blechynden (uncle and aunt), cushion and pickle jar; Mr and Mrs H. Smith, silver and glass jam dish; Master Allan Smith, pair jam dishes; Mr W Dawkins, silver tea pot; Mr Geo. Dunham, silver afternoon tea spoons; Mr and Mrs R. Ashworth, set jugs; Master Leslie Arnold, jam-pot; Mr and Mrs W. Smith, teapot; Residents of Balladong, silver teapot; Young men of Balladong, silver and cut glass dish; Mr and Mrs J. Meinick, silver salt cellars; Mr H. Ashbolt (Katanning), silver cruet and jam dish; Master Fred. Ashbolt, water jug; Mr and Mrs Deans, salad bowl and sweet dish; Mr and Mrs T. T. Whitfield, set of carvers and fancy work; Mr and Mrs Harkness, silver and cut glass butter dish; Misses Gladys and Ivy Hyde, fruit dish; Miss Carmen Monger, pair d'oyley's; Mrs Turvey, jam pot, pickle jar, and sweet dish; Mrs J. Giles, compote dish; Mrs N. Trew, salad bowl, water jug, and ornaments; Miss Thielemann, silver and china fruit dish; Miss Thieleman, silver and glass jam dish; Mr and Mrs Sweet (Claremont), ivory salad servers; Mr and Mrs T. McKay, silver and cut glass butter dish; Mrs Kruger and Miss Bennet, pair vases; Mr and Mrs S. Hyde jardiniere; Mr and Mrs A. Giles, pair fruit dishes; Miss Amy Ashbolt, pair of pictures; Rev and Mrs J Finch, d'oyleys; Miss McQuillan, gipsy table cover; Miss Sullivan, silver butter knives and jam spoon; Miss Essie Ashworth, bread and butter plates; Master N. Ashworth. sugar basin; Mrs. Wray and family (Perth), afternoon tea set; Miss Bailey, tumblers; Miss K Flynn, afternoon teaspoons; Lucy and Willie Whitfield, pair salt cellars; Mr J. G. Stone, butter knives; Mrs Sargent, fretwork glove box; Mr and Mrs C. O. Elliott, cruet; Miss Bradley, jam dish; Mr and Mrs Knight, silver and ruby glass pickle jar; Mrs Mary Wansbrough, silver and glass pickle jar; Mr and Mrs G. E. Inkpen, primus stove; Mr and Mrs W. L. Dunham, silver serviette rings; Baby Lewis, silver vase; Mr and Mrs Theo. Fleay, lamp; Mrs S. Pyke, sweet dishes and flower stand; Mr and Mrs Wiseman flower stand.

The following three pages have details of Edward William Ashbolt's parents and grandparents.

HENRY ASHBOLT (1856-1940) Edward William Ashbolt's father

Henry Ashbolt was born 28 Jun 1856, York, WA. Parents: WILLIAM ASHBOLT (1817-1872) and LYDIA MILLS (1821-1878) who were married 24 Nov 1844, Boxworth, St Ives, Cambridge, England. They had ten children. The first four were born in England. Their first child Jane died as a baby. Their fifth child John Ashbolt born in 1854, and the others were born in York, WA.

Henry Ashbolt died 1940, York, WA [Reg. 7100035]. William Ashbolt died 12 Jun 1872, York, WA [Reg. 6272], aged 55 years. Lydia Ashbolt (nee Mills) died 17 Sep 1878, York, WA [Reg. 9884], aged 58 years.

Edward William Ashbolt's maternal grandparents: WILLIAM ASHBOLT (1817-1872) and LYDIA MILLS (1821-1878) had ten children:

1. JANE ANN ASHBOLT (1844-1845) 2. ANN ASHBOLT (1845-1851) 3. JANE ASHBOLT (1848-1898) 4. SARAH ANN ASHBOLT (1851-1927) 5. JOHN ASHBOLT (1854-1931) 6. HENRY ASHBOLT (1856-1940) 7. SAMUEL ASHBOLT (1858-1859) 8. SAMUEL ASHBOLT (1860-1862) 9. MATILDA ELIZABETH ASHBOLT (1863-1945) 10. LOUISA ASHBOLT (1867-1895)

HARRIET HANNAH FISHER (1855-1946) Edward William Ashbolt's mother

Harriet Hannah Fisher was born 4 Sep 1855, York, WA [Reg. 2911]. Parents: GEORGE FISHER (1811-1855) and SARAH MARY JORDAN (1810-1891) who were married 4 May 1835, Bearfield, Bradford, Devon, England. Harriet was the last of nine children. Their first four children were born in England. Their fifth child, Mary born in 1845 followed by the others was born in York, WA.

Emigration: 1843, via the ship Success: George, Eliza Fisher with their children, James, Ruth and Sarah.

Following the death of her husband Henry Fisher in 1855, m2. SARAH MARY FISHER married HENRY STEPHEN CARTER (1823-1902) 1856, York, WA [Reg. 929].

Harriet Hannah Ashbolt (nee Fisher) died 13 May 1946, at her residence, Grey St, York, WA [Reg. 7100013].

George Fisher died 24 Jan 1855, York, WA [Reg. 704].

Sarah Mary Carter, Fisher (nee Jordan) died 23 Mar 1889, Northam, WA [Reg. 563], aged 79-80 years.

<https://www.findagrave.com/memorial/224545781/sarah-carter>

Edward William Ashbolt's maternal grandparents: GEORGE FISHER (1811-1855) and SARAH MARY JORDAN (1810-1891) had nine children.

1. ELIZA FISHER (1835-1894) 2. GEORGE FISHER (1837-1879) 3. RUTH FISHER (1841-1853) 4. JAMES FISHER (1842-1899) 5. MARY FISHER (1845-1848) 6. MARY FISHER (1848-1910) 7. SARAH FISHER (1850-1859) 8. SAMUEL FISHER (1852-1931) 9. HARRIET HANNAH FISHER (1855-1946).

Edward William Ashbolt's parents: HENRY ASHBOLT (1856-1940) and HARRIET HANNAH FISHER (1855-1946) had seven children:

1. GEORGE HENRY ASHBOLT (1882-1959) married EDITH FANNY STONE (1880-1963) 25 Jun 1913, York, WA [Reg. 7100009].
2. EDWARD WILLIAM ASHBOLT (1884-1966) married HILDA ELIZABETH DUNHAM (1885-1971) 7 Sep 1910, York, WA [Reg. 26].
3. LEWIS ASHBOLT (1885-1970) married ALVA ADELINE GUDE (1900-1976) 1927, Perth, SWA [Reg. 100906].
4. HORACE JAMES ASHBOLT (1887-1969) married IVY COOK (1894-1948) 1931, Swan, WA [Reg. 6100017].
5. FRANK ASHBOLT (1889-1966) married MINNIE MCGRATH (1895-1949) 1931, Perth, WA [Reg. 101300].
6. AMY SUSANNAH ASHBOLT (1891-1975) Electoral Roll: 1925, 1954, Grey St York, shop assistant.
7. FREDERICK ASHBOLT (1893-1970) married LILIAN CHARLOTTE THRUM (1894-1977) 26 Mar 1921, Perth, WA [Reg. 100327].

York Chronicle (WA: 1927 - 1954), Fri 13 Dec 1940, pg 2

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article252530197.txt>

OBITUARY

Mr. Henry Ashbolt

The death of Mr. Henry Ashbolt, an old and highly respected resident of our town, occurred at his home in Grey street early on Monday morning. Although the deceased's health had at intervals during the year been indifferent, his rather sudden death came as a shock to his relatives.

Mr. Ashbolt was born on June 28, 1856, at the home of his parents on the property now owned by the Misses Spice. As a young man he spent a considerable time shepherding sheep east of York for the late Mr. William Parker and was afterwards engaged in team work between York and Fremantle and later worked in the town and district before retiring to live quietly in Grey street. On November 18, 1880 he married Miss Harriett Hannah Fisher and the diamond wedding of this couple was celebrated last month. The deceased was an upright man and an ardent follower of his church.

Mr. Ashbolt is survived by his widow and adult family of six sons—George, Edward, Horace, Frank, Fred and Lewis—and a daughter—Miss Amy Ashbolt—and to them expressions of deepest sympathy have been extended by a wide circle of friends.

The funeral, at which there was a large attendance of relatives and friends, took place in the Methodist portion of the cemetery on Tuesday afternoon. The Rev. J. Pole officiated at the graveside and at a prior service

OBITUARY

Mr. Henry Ashbolt

The death of Mr. Henry Ashbolt, an old and highly respected resident of our town, occurred at his home in Grey street early on Monday morning. Although the deceased's health had at intervals during the year been indifferent, his rather sudden death came as a shock to his relatives. Mr. Ashbolt was born on June 28, 1856, at the home of his parents on the property now owned by the Misses Spice. As a young man he spent a considerable time shepherding sheep east of York for the late Mr. William Parker and was afterwards engaged in team work between York and Fremantle and later worked in the town and district before retiring to live quietly in Grey street. On November 18, 1880 he married Miss Harriett Hannah Fisher and the diamond wedding of this couple was celebrated last month. The deceased was an upright man and an ardent follower of his church.

Mr. Ashbolt is survived by his widow and adult family of six sons—George, Edward, Horace, Frank, Fred and Lewis—and a daughter—Miss Amy Ashbolt—and to them expressions of deepest sympathy have been extended by a wide circle of friends.

The funeral, at which there was a large attendance of relatives and friends, took place in the Methodist portion of the cemetery on Tuesday afternoon. The Rev. J. Pole officiated at the graveside and at a prior service in the Methodist Church. The chief mourners were George, Edward, Horace, Frank, Fred and Lewis (sons), Harry (grandson), Mr. Aaron Giles (brother-in-law), Messrs. A. and H. Giles (nephews).

The pallbearers were Messrs. A. Thorn, H. L. Evans, Roy Inkpen, H. Smith and W. A. Smith and J. Wells (representing M.U.O.F.S. Lodge).

Mr. Ashbolt had been a member of the M.U.O.F.S. Lodge for nearly sixty years and brethren of that order formed up inside the cemetery gates and at the conclusion of the church service the lodge service was read by P.G. Bro. E. G. Nottle.

The funeral arrangements were carried out by Mr. J L Wansbrough, undertaker.

York Chronicle (WA: 1927 - 1954), Fri 31 May 1946, pg 2

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article252109980.txt>

OBITUARY

Passing of a Nonagenarian

MRS. HANNAH HARRIETT ASHBOLT

After a short illness the death of Mrs. Hannah Harriett Ashbolt, relict of the late Mr. Henry Ashbolt, occurred at her late residence in Grey street on Wednesday of last week. Mrs. Ashbolt, youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Fisher, was born in York on September 4, 1855. She was married in the Anglican Church at York on November 18, 1880. Mrs. Ashbolt was devoted to her family and church and was a member of the Methodist Church choir for many years. She often told the story of how, in her early life, when she was engaged with the Lennard family on the Dale, west of Beverley, the bush ranger, Moondyne Joe, and his two men called at the homestead and demanded food, while they were being pursued by the police.

Mrs. Ashbolt's husband having predeceased her some years ago, she is survived by a family of six sons—Messrs. George (Victoria Park), Edward (York), Horace and Frank (Victoria Park), Fred (York) and Lewis (Victoria Park)—and a daughter, Miss Amy Ashbolt, of York. To them deepest sympathy has been exdeeped sympathy has been extended by their numerous friends. The funeral, attended by a large number of relatives and friends, took place in the Methodist portion of the local cemetery on Thursday afternoon of last week. The Rev. A. L. Meyer officiated at the graveside and at a prior service in the Methodist Church. The chief mourners were:—George, Edward, Horace, Frank, Fred and Lewis (sons), Bill, Bryan and Frankie (grandsons), Messrs. E. Trew, Gordon Fisher, C. J. Ashbolt, Arthur Giles, Hilbert Giles and George Ellis (nephews).

The pallbearers were:—Messrs. A. Thorn, J. H. Prunster, C. V. Harris, H. Smith, R. Porter and R. Towell.

The funeral arrangements were carried out by Mr. J. L. Wansbrough.

OBITUARY

Passing of a Nonagenarian MRS. HANNAH HARRIETT ASHBOLT

After a short illness the death of Mrs. Hannah Harriett Ashbolt, relict of the late Mr. Henry Ashbolt, occurred at her late residence in Grey street on Wednesday of last week. Mrs. Ashbolt, youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Fisher, was born in York on September 4, 1855. She was married in the Anglican Church at York on November 18, 1880. Mrs. Ashbolt was devoted to her family, and church and was a member of the Methodist Church choir for many years. She often, told the story of how, in her early life, when she was engaged with the Lennard family on the Dale, west of Beverley, the bush ranger, Moondyne Joe, and his two men called at the homestead and demanded food, while they were being pursued by the police.

Mrs. Ashbolt's husband having predeceased her some years ago, she is survived by a family of six sons—Messrs. George (Victoria Park), Edward (York), Horace and Frank (Victoria Park), Fred (York) and Lewis (Victoria Park)—and a daughter. Miss Amy Ashbolt, of York. To them deepest sympathy has been extended by their numerous friends. The funeral, attended by a large number of relatives and friends, took place in the Methodist portion of the local cemetery on Thursday afternoon of last week. The Rev. A. L. Meyer officiated at the graveside and at a prior service in the Methodist Church. The chief mourners were:—George, Edward, Horace, Frank, Fred and Lewis (sons), Bill, Bryan and Frankie (grandsons, Messrs. E. Trew, Gordon Fisher, C. J. Ashbolt, Arthur Giles, Hilbert Giles and George Ellis (nephews).

The pallbearers were:—Messrs. A. Thorn, J. H. Prunster, C- V. Harris, H. Smith, R. Porter and R. Towell.

The funeral arrangements were carried out by Mr. J. L. Wansbrough.

Electoral Roll:

1910 Hilda Elizabeth Dunham, York, dressmaker. Parents: Louis Dunham, Brocklerby (Brocklesby) Farm, farmer, Louisa Dunham, home duties.

1910 Edward William Ashbolt, Grey St, York, carter

1917, 1931, 1943, 1949 Edward William Ashbolt, Guildford Rd, York, carter, Hilda Elizabeth, married.

1958, 1963 Edward William Ashbolt, 53 State St, Victoria Park, Hilda Elizabeth, home duties.

THIRD CHILD OF LEWIS JAMES DUNHAM (1857-1914) and LOUISA JANE YOUNG (1859-1944):

3. DUNHAM, WILLIAM 'BILLY' THOMAS (1888-1945)

William Thomas Dunham was born 5 Feb 1888, York, WA [Reg. 360]. Unmarried.

William Thomas Dunham died 5 Feb 1945, Bunbury, (Wellington), WA [Reg. 22]

*William Thomas Dunham.
Courtesy Jean Stallwood.*

History of Schooling in the Avon Valley

https://educationdocbox.com/Private_School/76907552-History-of-schooling-in-the-avon-valley-wa.html

Shire of Beverley Rural Schools, p. 54 – 58

Shire of York Rural Schools, p. 65 – 70, p. 79

Schools in Beverley operated from 1859- 1946 and numbered 16, with only a couple located in the township of Beverley and the remaining schools were dotted in the surrounding areas. Mourambine School was funded by the Anglican Church (Buchanan2002:189). Beverley currently has only one District High school in the township from PP-yr10. An Aboriginal school was operated from 1924. York contained operational schools from 1841-1975 and boasted a total of 33 schools located between York and Northam and Beverley. Only 4 schools were located in the township of York with the remaining rural schools being located in surrounding regions. York contains only one District High school today from PP-yr1

SCHOOL PRIZE GIVING ARTICLES

Following are segments cropped from the articles from Trove about school presentation ceremonies at the end of the year, in which William Thomas Dunham and many others are mentioned. To view images of the articles, follow the links.

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article148381369.txt>

1. YORK STATE SCHOOL, 1901: Courtesy Jean Stallwood. DUX OF SCHOOL - Willie Dunham

Eastern Districts Chronicle (York, WA: 1877 - 1927), Sat 21 Dec 1901, pg 2

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article148406633.txt>

The annual presentation of prizes took place at York State School on Fri afternoon. The schoolroom had never looked better, tastefully decorated for the occasion and the children presented a very healthy appearance. The privileged winners of course appeared particularly jubilant, while the unsuccessful ones were almost equally so in anticipation, no doubt, of the Christmas vacation. . .

Prize List.

. . . Dux of School: "Willie Dunham. Proximo: Philip Sargent.

Class VII. —Dux: Ted Steward. 1st Girls: Alice Downey and Louisa Pyke. equal. Sewing, and Painting: Leta Wansbrough.

2. YORK STATE SCHOOL, 1908: Courtesy Jean Stallwood. W Dunham

Eastern Districts Chronicle (York, WA: 1877 - 1927), Sat 18 Apr 1908, pg 2

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article148614202.txt>

On Thursday afternoon, prior to the State School entering upon its Easter vacation, the distribution of attendance prizes and medals for the years 1906 and 1907 took place in the presence of several members of the local Education Board, and a number of visitors. . .
. . . Ex VII. —K. Harris, M. Stewart, W. Dunham.

Sunday Times (Perth, WA: 1902 - 1954), Sun 4 May 1913, pg 9

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article57746109.txt>

P and T Department: Appointments Confirmed, William Thomas Dunham, lines man;

Dunham William Thomas: SERN 2319: POB York WA: POE Perth WA: NOK M Dunham Louisa Jane

William Thomas Dunham signed his Attestation Papers 15 May 1916. Embarked Fremantle vis the Melbourne. 29 Dec 2016 proceeded overseas to France per SS Golden Eagle. Wounded in action 11 Oct 17. Re-joined 43rd Bn 27 May 17. 24 May 18 Wounded in action - mustard gas poisoning. Returned to Australia per England, 19 Oct 18. Valvular disease of the heart.

Electoral Roll:

1910, 1912, 1913, 1915 William Thomas Dunham, York, farmer

1919 William Thomas Dunham, 25 Museum St, North Perth, telephone lineman.

1831, William Thomas Dunham, 196 Bulwer St, North Perth, lineman.

1943 William Thomas Dunham, Georgina St, York.

York Chronicle (WA: 1927 - 1954), Fri 9 Feb 1945, pg 2

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article252106280.txt>

The death of Mr. William Thomas Dunham, second son of the late Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Dunham, occurred at St. Claire Hospital, Bunbury, on February 6. He had not enjoyed good health for a number of years. Mr. Dunham was born in York 57 years ago and spent the early portion of his life in our district. He was engaged, for many years as a postal official and served with the 43rd Battalion in the 1st A.I.F. Lately he had been residing at Spencer Street, Bunbury. He was held in high regard by a wide circle of friends. The funeral took place in the Methodist portion of the Bunbury cemetery on Wednesday afternoon. Mr Dunham was a brother of Messrs. Walter and George Dunham, of Bunbury and Perth respectively, Mesdames E. Ashbolt (York), A. Cruikshank (Victoria Park) and H. Giles (York), to whom deep expressions of sympathy have been extended.

The death of Mr. William Thomas Dunham, second son of the late Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Dunham, occurred at St. Claire Hospital, Bunbury, on February 6. He had not enjoyed good health for a number of years. Mr. Dunham was born in York 57 years ago and spent the early portion of his life in our district. He was engaged for many years as a postal official and served with the 43rd Battalion in the 1st A.I.F. Lately he had been residing at Spencer street, Bunbury. He was held in high regard by a wide circle of friends. The funeral took place in the Methodist portion of the Bunbury cemetery on Wednesday afternoon. Mr Dunham was a brother of Messrs. Walter and George Dunham, of Bunbury and Perth respectively, Mesdames E. Ashbolt (York), A. Cruikshank (Victoria Park) and H. Giles (York), to whom deep expressions of sympathy have been extended.

FOURTH CHILD OF LEWIS JAMES DUNHAM (1857-1914) and LOUISA JANE YOUNG (1859-1944):

4. DUNHAM, GEORGE ALFRED (1890-1967)

George Alfred Dunham was born 27 May 1890, York, WA [Reg. 734].

George Alfred Dunham died 12 Feb 1967, Mt Lawley, WA [Reg. 6272]. Burial Karrakatta Cemetery, Garden of Remembrance/ Crematorium Rose Garden / Garden 8 / 0004.

GEORGE ALFRED DUNHAM (1890-1967) married AGNES MAY BRITTAIN (1889-1971) 25 Mar 1916, Wesley Church, Perth WA [Reg. 307].

Eastern Districts Chronicle (York, WA: 1877 - 1927), Fri 12 May 1916, pg 2
<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article148579153.txt>

WEDDING BELLS.

DUNHAM—BRITTAIN.

The marriage of Mr. George Alfred Dunham, the youngest son of the late Mr. Lewis J., and Mrs. Dunham, of "Brockleby," York, to Miss Agnes May Brittain, youngest daughter of Mr. F. W. Brittain, of North Perth, was solemnised at Wesley Church, Perth, on March 25. The bride, who looked charming in a cream tailor costume, with black picture hat, and carrying a posey of cream roses, was given away by her brother, Mr. J. B. Brittain. Miss L. McLeod acted as bridesmaid, and wore shell pink crepe-de-chene, with black hat, and carried a posey of pink roses. Mr. C. S. ("Bert") Pyke performed the duties of best man. At the conclusion of the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. S. Stones, of Leader Street, Leederville, where the happy couple were the recipients of hearty congratulations from relatives and friends. Numerous useful and costly presents were received, together with messages conveying best wishes for the future. The honeymoon was spent at Kalamunda.

The bridegroom occupies a position in the Central Railway Booking Office, and together with Mrs. Dunham spent last weekend in York.

WEDDING BELLS.

DUNHAM—BRITTAIN.

The marriage of Mr. George Alfred Dunham, the youngest son of the late Mr. Lewis J., and Mrs. Dunham, of "Brockleby," York, to Miss Agnes May Brittain, youngest daughter of Mr. F. W. Brittain, of North Perth, was solemnised at Wesley Church, Perth, on March 25. The bride, who looked charming in a cream tailor costume, with black picture hat, and carrying a posey of cream roses, was given away by her brother, Mr. J. B. Brittain. Miss L. McLeod acted as bridesmaid, and wore shell pink crepe-de-chene, with black hat, and carried a posey of pink roses. Mr. C. S. ("Bert") Pyke performed the duties of best man. At the conclusion of the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. S. Stones, of Leader street, Leederville, where the happy couple were the recipients of hearty congratulations from relatives and friends. Numerous useful and costly presents were received, together with messages conveying best wishes for the future. The honeymoon was spent at Kalamunda.

The bridegroom occupies a position in the Central Railway Booking office, and together with Mrs. Dunham spent last week-end in York.

AGNES MAY BRITTAIN (1889-1971) was born 1889, Perth, WA [Reg. 595]. Parents: FREDERICK WILLIAM BRITTAIN (1846-1917) and ELIZABETH COX (1851-1896) who were married 1875, Guildford, WA [Reg. 3894]. They had nine children. Agnes May Dunham (nee Brittain) died 14 Feb 1971, Inglewood, WA [Reg. 743]. Karrakatta Cemetery, Ashes scattered at Karrakatta.

The following three pages contain details of Agnes May Brittain's parents and grandparents:

FREDERICK WILLIAM BRITTAIN (1846-1917) Agnes May Brittain's father

Frederick William Brittain was born 1846, Newton, Cambridgeshire, England. Parents: JAMES BRITTAIN (1823-1901) and ANN DANIELS (1825-1899) who were married 12 Aug 1844, Wisbech, Cambridgeshire, England.

Frederick William Brittain died 1917, 94 Alma Rd, North Perth, WA.

James Brittain died 15 Dec 1901, Perth, WA [Reg. 2231]. Parents: Benjamin Brittain and Sarah.

Ann Brittain (nee Daniels) died 21 Oct 1899, Municipality of Perth, WA [Reg. 1940] aged 74 years.

Agnes May Brittain's grandparents: JAMES BRITTAIN (1823-1901) and ANN DANIELS (1825-1899) had eleven children:

The first three children were born in England. Elizabeth born 1852 and the rest following were born in WA. Harriet aged three years and Ellen aged one year, both died in 1858.

1. FREDERICK WILLIAM BRITTAIN (1846-1917)
2. SARAH ELIZABETH BRITTAIN (1848-1935)
3. BENJAMIN BRITTAIN (1849-1927)
4. ELIZABETH BRITTAIN (1853-1927)
5. HARRIET BRITTAIN (1854-1858)
6. ELLEN BRITTAIN (1856-1858)
7. JOSEPH BRITTAIN (1859-1906)
8. ANN MARY BRITTAIN (1861-1897)
9. JOHN JAMES BRITTAIN (1864-1933)
10. HARRIETT ELLEN BRITTAIN (1866-1922)
11. ALFRED ERNEST BRITTAIN (1868-1942)

ELIZABETH COX (1851-1896) Agnes May Brittain's mother

Elizabeth Cox was born 1851, Killeady Cross Roads, Cork, Ireland. Parents: HUDSON COX (1826-1882) and ELIZABETH HALLIDAY (1828-1883) who were married 27 Apr 1849, Antrim County, Northern Ireland.

Emigration: Arrival 13 Jun 1853, Fremantle, WA, on Passenger Ship Sabrina departing from Liverpool.

Elizabeth Brittain (nee Cox) died 15 Oct 1896, Perth, WA [Reg. 1615], aged 46 years.

Hudson Cox died 1882, Perth, WA [Reg.11363], aged 56 years.

Elizabeth Cox (nee Halliday) died 1883, Perth, WA [Reg. 11701], aged 55 years.

Agnes May Brittain's maternal grandparents: HUDSON COX (1826-1882) and ELIZABETH HALLIDAY (1828-1883) had eight children: The first two were born in Northern Ireland. William Cox born 1854 and the others were born in Fremantle, WA. Jane married James Hayes in 1885 and moved to SA. The others remained in WA.

1. ELIZABETH COX (1851-1896) 2. JOSEPH H COX (1853-1935) 3. WILLIAM COX (1854-1936) 4. JANE COX (1856-1917) 5. HUDSON COX (1858-1946) 6. NATHANIEL ALEXANDER COX (1865-1913) 7. AGNES COX (1867-1888) 8. ESTHER (ESTER) COX (1870-1951)

FREDERICK WILLIAM BRITTAIN (1846-1917) and ELIZABETH COX (1851-1896) had eight children as follows:

1. FREDERICK WILLIAM BRITTAIN (1876-1902) was born 1876, Perth, WA [Reg. 17059]. Frederick died 6 May 1902, Perth, WA [Reg. 2053].

2. JAMES HUDSON BRITTAIN (1878-1879) was born 1878, Perth, WA [Reg.18896]. James died 1879, Perth, WA [Reg. 9968], aged 11 months.

3. m1 ALBERT EDWARD BRITTAIN (1879-1925) married MAUDE MARIE KENNEY (1884-) 1904, Perth, WA [Reg.1183]. One child, Millicent Agnes Brittain, died aged 11 months.

m2. ALBERT EDWARD BRITTAIN (1879-1925) married m2. GLADYS DILLON BELL (1888-1972) 21 Feb 1908, Perth, WA [Reg. 100096]. Four children.

m3. ALBERT EDWARD BRITTAIN (1879-1925) married ETHEL MAY WOOLCOCK (1886-1969) 1917, West Perth, WA [Reg.100217].

4. ANNIE ELLEN ETHEL BRITTAIN (1881-1956) married SYDNEY STONES (1877-1918) 1904, Perth, WA [Reg. 1613].

5. JAMES ERNEST BRITTAIN (1883-1955) married m2. THERESA SHARPE 16 Jun 1926, Bunbury, Wellington, WA; [Reg. 6600064]. Registered as Theresa Sharpe.

m1. THIRZA MARIA TAGG (1876-1969) married CHARLES ROBERT SHARPE (1875-1919) 4 Aug 1900, Swadlincote, Derbyshire, England. Her name as per records.

6. ELIZABETH MAY BRITTAIN (1885-1885) was born 1885, Perth, WA [Reg. 26549]. She died in 1885, Perth, WA [Reg. 1376], aged 4 months.

7. AUBREY CHARLES BRITTAIN (1887-1888) was born 1887, Perth, WA [Reg. 6110]. He died 1888, Perth, WA [Reg. 220], aged 10 months.

8. AGNES MAY BRITTAIN (1889-1971) married GEORGE ALFRED DUNHAM (1890-1967) 25 Mar 1916, Wesley Church, Perth WA [Reg. 307].

Daily News (Perth, WA: 1882 - 1955), Thu 12 Jul 1917, pg 3

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article81019452.txt>

The Late Mr. F. W. Brittain.—

The funeral of the late Mr. Frederick William Brittain, of 94 Alma-road, North Perth (eldest son of the late Mr. James Brittain, builder and contractor), took place on Saturday afternoon, and was largely attended. The deceased, aged 71 years, was born at Wisbech, Cambridgeshire, England, and with his parents arrived in this State in the sailing ship Sir Walter Raleigh, about the end of the year 1853, resided in the Eastern States about four years, and in this State 59 years. He leaves a grown-up family of two sons and two daughters to mourn their loss. The cortege moved from his late residence, 94 Alma-road, North Perth, and proceeded by road to the Wesleyan portion of the Karrakatta Cemetery, where the remains were interred. The Rev. Brian Wibberley conducted the burial service. The chief mourners were:—Messrs. A. E. Brittain and J. E. Brittain (sons), Mesdames S. Stones and G. Dunham (daughters), Mr. S. Stones (son-in-law), Mesdames A. E. Brittain, J. E. Brittain (daughters-in-law), Messrs. B. Brittain and Alf. E. Brittain (brothers), Mesdames S. Howlett, S. B. Devenish, C. D. Longson (sisters), Messrs. S. Howlett, J. Cox, J. Carter (brothers-in-law), Mesdames Alf. E. Brittain, J. Cox, J. Carter (sisters-in-law), Mrs. J. Steele (niece), Mr. V. Needham (ne-phew). The pall-bearers were:—Capt. C. H. Wilson, Messrs. H. T. Bell, F. L. Glaskin, W. Tapping, E. J. Read, and

W. Barnett. Among those present were:—Messrs. E. G. Joyce, R. Hood, D. A. James, G. Pounder, M. Stack, Captain Bantock, Mesdames H. Glaskin, Coffen, Kennedy, Sadlier, Costello, Pounder, Miss Glaskin. Wreaths were sent by Mr. and Mrs. Bert Brittain, Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Stones, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Brittain, Mr. and Mrs. G. Dunham and daughter, Mr. Ben Brittain, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Howlett, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Brittain, Miss Ethel Brittain, Mr. and Mrs. Carter and family, Mr. Mrs. J. Cox and family, Misses Beryl and Irene Stones, Mr. and Mrs. A. Glaskin, Miss Joan Glaskin, Miss Jessie Brittain, Mr. and Mr. V. Needham, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Swain, Mr. and Mrs. N. Sampson, Mr. and Mrs. Gundil. Numerous messages of sympathy were received.

The Late Mr. F. W. Brittain. —

The funeral of the late Mr. Frederick William Brittain, of 94 Alma-road, North Perth (eldest son of the late Mr. James Brittain, builder and contractor), took place on Saturday afternoon, and was largely attended. The deceased, aged 71 years, was born at Wisbech, Cambridgeshire, England, and with his parents arrived in this State in the sailing ship Sir Walter Raleigh, about the end of the year 1853, resided in the Eastern States about four years, and in this State 59 years. He leaves a grown-up family of two sons and two daughters to mourn their loss. The cortege moved from his late residence, 94 Alma-road, North Perth, and proceeded by road to the Wesleyan portion of the Karrakatta Cemetery, where the remains were interred. The Rev. Brian Wibberley conducted the burial service. The chief mourners were: — Messrs. A. E. Brittain and J. E. Brittain (sons), Mesdames S. Stones and G. Dunham (daughters). Mr. S. Stones (son-in-law), Mesdames A. E. Brittain, J. E. Brittain (daughters-in-law), Messrs. B. Brittain and Mr. E. Brittain (brothers). Mesdames S. Howlett, S. B. Devenish, C. D. Longson (sisters), Messrs. S. Howlett, J. Cox, J. Carter (brothers-in-law), Mesdames Alf. E. Brittain, J. Cox, J. Carter (sisters-in-law), Mrs. J. Steele (niece), Mr. V. Needham (ne-phew). The pall-bearers were: — Capt. C. H. Wilson, Messrs. H. T. Bell, F. L. Glaskin, W. Tapping, K. J. Read, and W. Barnett. Among those present were: — Messrs. E. G. Joyce, R. Hood, D. A. James, G. Pounder, M. Stack, Captain Bantock, Mesdames, H. Glaskin, Coffen, Kennedy, Sadlier, Costello, Pounder, Miss Glaskin. Wreaths were sent by Mr. and Mrs. Bert Brittain, Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Stones, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Brittain, Mr. and Mrs. G. Dunham and daughter, Mr. Ben Brittain, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Howlett, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Brittain, Miss Ethel Brittain, Mr. and Mrs. Carter and family, Mr. Mrs. J. Cox and family, Misses Beryl and Irene Stones, Mr. and Mrs. A. Glaskin, Miss Joan Glaskin, Miss Jessie Brittain, Mr. and Mr. V. Needham, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Swain, Mr. and Mrs. N. Sampson, Mr. and Mrs. Gundil. Numerous messages of sympathy were received.

Returning to George Alfred Dunham (1890-1967) and Agnes May Brittain (1889-1971):

George Alfred Dunham served overseas in the First World War: SERN 3262: POB York WA: POE Perth WA: NOK W Dunham Agnes May. Private, 46th Battalion / 8th Reinforcements, left Fremantle A34 Persic on 29 Dec 1916. 16 Jul 17 Proceeded to France via Southampton. 4 Aug 17 46th Bn, Havre. 4 Jan 18, promoted Lance Corporal. Disembarked Fremantle, Jun 20.

WAG Railways employed George as a clerk then a booking clerk at Perth Station until 13 Mar 1929.

The next article tells of a fatal crash in which George Alfred Dunham was involved and was lucky to have survived.

West Australian (Perth, WA: 1879 - 1954), Thu 22 Nov 1928, pg 23

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.newsarticle32239322.txt>

KILLED ON YORK ROAD.
"ALL OVER IN A FLASH."

Verdict of Accidental Death.

The inquest on the death of Roy Hutchens (46), a railway booking clerk, of Bourke-street; Leederville, who died as the result of a motor car capsizing on the York-road near Mundaring on October 7, was concluded yesterday, after two adjournments. Sergeant Switsur conducted the inquiry before Mr. J. C. Irvine, J.P., Acting Coroner, and Mr. N. P. Lappin appeared in the interests of Albert Turner, of Hilda-street, Subiaco, the driver of the car, against whom previous witnesses had alleged insobriety.

William Francis Bell, a passenger in a motor lorry which Turner's car had passed just before the capsize, said that he judged the speed of the car to be about 36 miles per hour, and heard no warning of its approach. It swung in short in front of the lorry and followed a snake-like course before it overturned. One of the rear wheels went down into the gutter on the left side of the road, which apparently caused the car to drag across the road, to the opposite side. There the two off-side wheels ran off the macadam into the gutter. The car was turned back on to the road and capsized, making a complete round turn sideways and landing on its wheels again. Hutchens was lying on the road, to all appearances, dead. Two men in the back of the car were tangled up in the framework of the hood. The driver seemed to be upset by the shock of the accident, and witness could not say whether he was under the influence of liquor. One of the passengers was, however, suffering from the effects of alcohol.

Turner, a railway booking clerk, said that after passing the lorry he felt a bump as if he had hit a stone, which caused the car to skid. "

It practically got out of my control." he said. "It was all over in flash. The next thing I knew I saw my passengers lying on the road."

He had driven his companions that day from Perth to York, he added, and during the trip he had taken six glasses of beer. However, he considered himself absolutely sober. After the accident he had been examined by Dr. Badock, of Midland Junction, who gave him a clean bill. The deceased, a big heavy man, was helpless to assist himself by reason of the fact that he had a wooden leg, which was wedged in the car. At no time during the day had he exceeded 25 miles per hour.

George Alfred Dunham and Walter Murton Norton, railway booking clerks, and passengers in the car, could recall nothing of the actual circumstances of the accident until they came to after the capsize. They returned home in the same car, driven by Turner.

The Acting Coroner returned a finding that the deceased came by his death as the result of a motor car accident.

Electoral Roll:

1913, 1916 George Alfred Dunham, 25 Museum St, North Perth, clerk, brother, William Thomas Dunham, telephone lineman.

1917 George Alfred Dunham, 1004 Hay St, West Perth, clerk, Agnes May, home duties.

1931 George Alfred Dunham, 59 Malcolm St, West Perth, railway officer, Agnes May, home duties.

1954 George Alfred Dunham, 25 Joseph St, Wembley, railway officer, Agnes May, home duties.

1963 George Alfred Dunham, 112 First Av, Mt Lawley, retired, Agnes May, home duties

KILLED ON YORK ROAD.
"ALL OVER IN A FLASH."

Verdict of Accidental Death.

The inquest on the death of Roy Hutchens (46), a railway booking clerk, of Bourke-street, Leederville, who died as the result of a motor car capsizing on the York-road near Mundaring on October 7, was concluded yesterday, after two adjournments. Sergeant Switsur conducted the inquiry before Mr. J. C. Irvine, J.P., Acting Coroner, and Mr. N. P. Lappin appeared in the interests of Albert Turner, of Hilda-street, Subiaco, the driver of the car, against whom previous witnesses had alleged insobriety.

William Francis Bell, a passenger in a motor lorry which Turner's car had passed just before the capsize, said that he judged the speed of the car to be about 36 miles per hour, and heard no warning of its approach. It swung in short in front of the lorry and followed a snake-like course before it overturned. One of the rear wheels went down into the gutter on the left side of the road, which apparently caused the car to drag across the road to the opposite side. There the two off-side wheels ran off the macadam into the gutter. The car was turned back on to the road and capsized, making a complete round turn sideways and landing on its wheels again. Hutchens was lying on the road, to all appearances dead. Two men in the back of the car were tangled up in the framework of the hood. The driver seemed to be upset by the shock of the accident, and witness could not say whether he was under the influence of liquor. One of the passengers was, however, suffering from the effects of alcohol.

Turner, a railway booking clerk, said that after passing the lorry he felt a bump as if he had hit a stone, which caused the car to skid.

"It practically got out of my control," he said. "It was all over in flash. The next thing I knew I saw my passengers lying on the road."

He had driven his companions that day from Perth to York, he added, and during the trip he had taken six glasses of beer. However, he considered himself absolutely sober. After the accident he had been examined by Dr. Badock, of Midland Junction, who gave him a clean bill. The deceased, a big heavy man, was helpless to assist himself by reason of the fact that he had a wooden leg, which was wedged in the car. At no time during the day had he exceeded 25 miles per hour.

George Alfred Dunham and Walter Murton Norton, railway booking clerks, and passengers in the car, could recall nothing of the actual circumstances of the accident until they came to after the capsize. They returned home in the same car, driven by Turner.

The Acting Coroner returned a finding that the deceased came by his death as the result of a motor car accident.

FIFTH CHILD OF LEWIS JAMES DUNHAM (1857-1914) and LOUISA JANE YOUNG (1859-1944):

5. DUNHAM, ANNIE AMELIA 'DOT' (1893-1968) was born 18 Feb 1893, York, WA [Reg. 423]. She married ANDREW CRUIKSHANK (1886-1971) 6 Nov 1913, York, WA [Reg. 18]. Dot died 23 Nov 1968, Perth, WA [Reg. 4208].

Annie Amelia (Dot) Dunham. Courtesy Phyl Dunham

Eastern Districts Chronicle (York, WA: 1877 - 1927), Fri 7 Nov 1913, pg 5

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article148278185.txt>

ANGLICAN CHURCH.—The Very Reverend H. F. Mercer, Dean of Perth, will be the preacher on Sunday morning at 11 in Holy Trinity Church, York. In the afternoon service will be held in St. Paul's Church, Tipperary, at 3.15. The Dean and Mrs. Mercer are the guests of Mrs. Bullen at the Rectory.

WEDDING.—The marriage of Miss Annie ("Dot") Dunham, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Dunham, of "Brocklesby," York, with Mr. Andrew Cruikshank, of the Postal Department, Perth, and youngest son of Mr. G. W. Cruikshank, of Leura, N.S. Wales, was quietly solemnised at "Brocklesby" yesterday afternoon, the Rev. J. Tiller officiating. The attendance, owing to the indisposition of the bride's father, was limited to members of the family. The bride was given away by her father, while the bride's sister, Iris, acted as bridesmaid, and Mr. Brennand, of Perth, performed the duties of best man. The wedding presents were numerous and useful, and quite a sheaf of messages of congratulation were received. Mr. and Mrs. Cruikshank caught the 6 o'clock train for the City, their future home being at Victoria Park.

Wedding. —The marriage of Miss Annie ("Dot") Dunham, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Dunham, of "Brocklesby," York, with Mr. Andrew Cruikshank, of the Postal Department, Perth, and youngest son of Mr. G. W. Cruikshank, of Leura, N.S. Wales, was quietly solemnised at "Brocklesby" yesterday afternoon, the Rev. J. Tiller officiating. The attendance, owing to the indisposition of the bride's father, was limited to members of the family. The bride was given away by her father, while the bride's sister, Iris, acted as bridesmaid, and Mr. Brennand, of Perth, performed the duties of best man. The wedding presents were numerous and useful, and quite a sheaf of messages of congratulation were received. Mr. and Mrs. Cruikshank caught the 6 o'clock train for the city, their future home being at Victoria Park.

ANDREW CRUIKSHANK (1886-1971) was born 6 Nov 1886, Brompton Park, Hindmarsh, SA [pg. 352, Vol 385]. Parents: GEORGE CRUIKSHANK (1860-1949) and ELIZA HIBBS (1860-1903). Andrew died 28 Apr 1971, Perth, WA .

The following pages have details of Andrew Cruikshank's parents:

GEORGE CRUIKSHANK (1860-1949) married ELIZA HIBBS (1860-1903) 8 Apr 1876 Port Adelaide, SA [pg. 35, Vol 197]. Father: Andrew Cruikshank, Spouse Father: Joseph Hibbs.

GEORGE CRUIKSHANK (1860-1949) Andrew Cruikshank's father

George Cruikshank was born 1860, UK. Parents: Andrew Cruikshank (1840-)
George Cruikshank died 1949, East Coolgardie, WA [Reg. 5]. This could be him.

Via Cruikshank Family Tree, Ancestry. They have his name as George Watson Cruikshank.
George, a carpenter emigrated to Adelaide on the "Forfarshire" from Plymouth leaving UK Nov/Dec 1873 arriving Adelaide 08.02.1874. We believe he was the 2nd son, and moved to Australia as his brother was inheriting the family farm in the UK.

Electoral Roll:

This appears to be George and his son James. Eliza had died.

1912 George Cruikshank, Wiluna, miner.

1917 George Cruikshank, Mt Magnet, miner.

1934 George Cruikshank, Goongarrie, (Kalgoorlie, Menzies), prospector, James, prospector.

1937 George Cruikshank, Goongarrie, prospector, James, prospector.

ELIZA HIBBS (1860-1903) Andrew Cruikshank's mother

Eliza Hibbs was born 1860, UK. Parents: JOSEPH HIBBS (1840-). Eliza Cruikshank (nee Hibbs) died 1903, Coolgardie, WA. [273], parents: Joseph Hibbs and unknown Goddard. Family Trees Ancestry have her death as 1894. I can't find a registration for 1894.

Emigration: Eliza Hibbs and George Cruikshank, 1874

South Australian Advertiser (Adelaide, SA: 1858 - 1889), Mon 9 Feb 1874, pg. 3

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article28728105.txt>

ARRIVAL OF THE FORFARSHIRE.

It is pretty evident the Commissioners showed great judgment when the Forfarshire was selected to carry emigrants, for a finer vessel could scarcely be desired. She is a ship of 1,238 tons, with fine beam and good height between decks. She left London on November 13th, and Plymouth on November 23rd, having on board 419 persons; and such good regulations have been observed on the voyage that the mortality has been very low.

The following is a list of the passengers:

[Both Eliza Hibbs and George Cruikshank were recorded as passengers.]

Andrew Cruikshank's parents, GEORGE CRUIKSHANK (1860-1949) and ELIZA HIBBS (1860-1903) had seven children: Their children were all born in SA. Sadly, Helen died aged two years and David at almost six weeks.

1. HELEN CRUIKSHANK (1877-1880) was born 8 Jan 1877, New Liverpool, Port Adelaide, SA [Pg. 409 Vol 177]. Died, aged two years, 1880, Port Augusta, SA [pg. 258 Vol 101].

2. DAVID CRUIKSHANK (1878-1878) was born 2 Sep 1878, Port Pirie, SA [Pg. 340 Vol 208]. Died aged almost six weeks, 27 Oct 1878, Port Pirie, SA [pg. 378 Vol 90].

3. JOHN 'JACK' CRUIKSHANK (1880-1967) was born 18 Feb 1880, Port Augusta, Frome, SA [Pg. 226 Vol 235]. He married ANNIE AGNUS MURPHY (1874-1960) 1908. Perth, WA [Reg. 1908]. John Cruikshank died 16 Apr 1967, Moorabbin, VIC.

Electoral Roll:

1906 John Cruikshank, Hunt St, Coolgardie, telegraph operator.

1916, 1917 John Cruikshank, cr. 30 1st Avenue and Carrington St, Maylands, telegraphist, Annie Agnus, home duties.

1924, 1931, 1936 John Cruikshank, Lucknow St, Melbourne, Telegraphist, Annie Agnus, home duties.

1949 John Cruikshank, 26 Florence St, Balaclava, nil, Annie Agnus, home duties.

4. JAMES 'JIM' CRUIKSHANK (1882-1966) was born 6 Mar Quorn, Frome, SA [Pg. 288 Vol 279]. He died 1966, Mukinbudin WA [Reg 4100058].

Electoral Roll:

I think this is James with his father George Cruikshank.

1934 George Cruikshank, Goongarrie, (Kalgoorlie, Menzies), prospector, James, prospector.

1937 George Cruikshank, Goongarrie, prospector, James, prospector.

5. ARCHIBALD WATSON CRUIKSHANK (1884-1968) was born 13 Aug 1884, Semaphore, Port Adelaide, SA [Pg. 179 Vol 334]. He married LAVINA ROSE BOOTH (1890-1972) 1910, Port Adelaide, SA. Archibald died Mount Hawthorn, Perth, WA [Reg. 102057].

Electoral Roll:

1912 Archibald Cruikshank, Lock St, Sunning Hill, civil servant, Lavinia Rose, home duties.

1916 Archibald Cruikshank, Haden St, Osbourne Park, telegraphist, Lavinia Rose, home duties.

1931, 1937 Archibald Cruikshank, Main St, Osbourne Park, telegraphist, Lavinia Rose, home duties.

6. ANDREW CRUIKSHANK (1886–1971) was born 6 Nov 1886, Brompton Park, Hindmarsh, SA [Pg. 352 Vol 385]. He married ANNIE AMELIA 'DOT' DUNHAM (1893-1968) 6 Nov 1913, York, WA [Reg. 18]. Andrew died 28 Apr 1971, Perth, WA. More details following.

7. ELIZA ELLEN CRUIKSHANK (1891–) was born 19 Jan 1891, Wolseley, Wellington, SA [Pg. 330 Vol 472]. Further details on Eliza are elusive.

CHILDREN OF ANNIE AMELIA 'DOT' DUNHAM (1893-1968) and ANDREW CRUIKSHANK (1886-1971):
Variations of spelling, Cruikshank, Cruickshank.

1. MAY CRUIKSHANK (1914-1940) was born 26 Jul 1914, Perth, WA [Reg. 1298]. Recorded as Cruickshank. May died 26 Apr 1940, Perth, WA [Reg. 757] aged 26 years. Recorded as Cruikshank.

Electoral Roll:

1937 May Cruikshank, 38 Hubert St, Victoria Park, clerk. Living with her parents Annie and Andrew and sister 'Nelly'.

2. NELLIE CRUIKSHANK (1915-2005) was born 21 Aug 1915, Perth, WA [Reg. 1383]. Recorded as Cruickshank. Nellie died 2 Jul 2005, Bentley, Perth, WA.

Electoral Roll:

1937 Nellie Cruikshank, 38 Hubert St, Victoria Park, clerk. 1937, living with her parents, Annie and Andrew and sister May.
1954 Nellie Cruikshank, 38 Hubert St, Victoria Park, clerk. 1937, living with her parents, Annie and Andrew.

3. WILLIAM DUNHAM CRUIKSHANK (1917-1986) was born 1917, York, WA [Reg. 47]. Recorded as Cruikshank. Married SHIRLEY ALISON WOOD (1918-1987). William died 2 Jul 1986, Nedlands, WA.

Electoral Roll:

Surname recorded as Cruikshank.

1943 William Dunham Cruikshank, 38 Hubert St, Victoria Park, process engraver, Nelly, sister, Clerk. Parents: Andrew Cruikshank, telegraphist, Annie Amelia, home duties.

1949, 1980 William Dunham Cruikshank, 144 Lockhart St, South Perth, engraver, Shirley Alison, home duties.

Electoral Roll:

Andrew and Annie Cruikshank

1931, 1934, 1937, 1943, 1949, 1954 Andrew Cruikshank, Hubert St, Victoria Park, telegraphist, Annie Amelia, married.

*Annie (nee Dunham) and Andrew Cruikshank.
Courtesy Pat 2 Family Tree, Ancestry*

SIXTH CHILD OF LEWIS JAMES DUNHAM (1857-1914) and LOUISA JANE YOUNG (1859-1944):

6. DUNHAM, IRIS EMELINE (1895-1977)

Via Stallwood (Andre) Family Tree, Ancestry.

Iris Emeline Dunham was born 1 Mar 1895, York, WA [Reg. 391].

Iris Emeline Giles (nee Dunham) died 8 May 1977, York, WA.

IRIS EMELINE DUNHAM (1895-1977) married HILBERT GEORGE GILES (1896-1958) 6 Jan 1945, York, WA [Reg. 1]. Reception held at the residence of Mrs. E.W. Ashbolt, Perth Road, York, WA.

*Wedding Hilbert George Giles and Iris Emeline Dunham, Methodist Church, York.
Courtesy Stallwood Family Tree.*

HILBERT GEORGE GILES (1896-1958) was born 1896, York, WA [Reg. 4026]. Parents: AARON GILES (1862-1942) and MATILDA ELIZABETH ASHBOLT (1863-1945) who were married 1890, York, WA [Reg. 60]. Hilbert died 2 Dec 1958, York, WA [Reg. 46].

The following three pages have details of Hilbert George Giles' parents and grandparents:

AARON GILES (1862-1942) Hilbert George Giles' father

Aaron Giles was born 1862, York, WA [Reg. 6774]. Parents: ISAAC GILES (1819-1878) and ELIZABETH ANN CHEVERIL (1835-1923).

Aaron Giles died 26 Aug 1942, York, WA [Reg. 7100020].

ISAAC GILES (1819-1878) and ELIZABETH ANN CHEVERIL (1835-1923) who were married 1855, Registry Office, York, WA [Reg. 893].

m2. ELIZABETH ANN CHEVERIL (1835-1923) married DAVID HAYES 1885. Beverley, WA [Reg. 6255], registered as David Hay.

Isaac Giles died 4 May 1878, York, WA. Via Family Tree. Can't find registration.

Elizabeth Hayes, Ann Giles (nee Cheveril) died 23 Nov 1923, York, WA [Reg. 7100023]. Registered as Elizabeth Hayes, Parents: Jesse Cheveril and Elizabeth Sops.

Hilbert George Giles' grandparents, ISAAC GILES (1819-1878) and ELIZABETH ANN CHEVERIL (1835-1923) had eight children: Elizabeth's first child Harriet was born in Guildford and her father was named on the certificate as John Mills, (convict). The rest of the Giles children were born in York. Their last child Alfred sadly died at 5 months.

1. HARRIET MILLS (1852-1928)- GILES 2. GEORGE GILES (1855-1915) 3. WALTER GILES (1857-1931) 4. CHARLES GILES (1860-1932) 5. AARON GILES (1862-1942) 6. ISAAC GILES (1864-1950) 7. JOHN GILES (1869-1945) 8. ANN 'HANNAH' GILES (1872-1901) 9. ALFRED GILES (1877-1877).

MATILDA ELIZABETH ASHBOLT (1863-1945) Hilbert George Giles' mother

Matilda Elizabeth Ashbolt was born 1863, York, WA [Reg. 7227]. Parents: WILLIAM ASHBOLT (1817-1872) and LYDIA MILLS (1821-1878) who were married 24 Nov 1844, Boxworth, St Ives, Cambridgeshire, England.

Matilda Elizabeth Giles (nee Ashbolt) died 1945 York, WA [Reg. 7100018].

William Ashbolt died 12 Jun 1872, York, WA [Reg.6272], aged 55 years.

Lydia Ashbolt (nee Mills) died 17 Sep 1878, York, WA [Reg. 9884], aged 58 years.

Hilbert George Giles' maternal grandparents, WILLIAM ASHBOLT (1817-1872) and LYDIA MILLS (1821-1878) had ten children:

The first four children were born in England.

Their first child Jane Ann died at the age of 1 year. Their second child Ann died at the age of six years. This was a sad time for William and Lydia.

They emigrated from England to WA with their two children, Jane and Sarah.

Their fifth child John born in 1854 was born in WA, most probably Perth.

The rest were born in York. Sadly, they lost two more children. Samuel born 1858, died in 1859 aged 1 year, the next child also named Samuel, born in 1860, died in 1862 aged 2 years.

1. JANE ANN ASHBOLT (1844-1845) 2. ANN ASHBOLT (1845-1851) 3. JANE ANN ASHBOLT (1846-1898) 4. SARAH ANN ASHBOLT (1851-1927) 5. JOHN ASHBOLT (1854-1931) 6. HENRY ASHBOLT (1856-1940) 7. SAMUEL ASHBOLT (1858-1859) 8. SAMUEL ASHBOLT (1860-1862) 9. MATILDA ELIZABETH ASHBOLT (1863-1945) 10. LOUISA ASHBOLT (1867-1895)

Hilbert George Giles' parents, AARON GILES (1862-1942) and MATILDA ELIZABETH ASHBOLT (1863-1945) had seven children.

Their first child John died aged 4 months, the second child, unnamed, died at birth and the third child Lindsay died aged between 1-2 years.

1. JOHN WILLIAM GILES (1890-1891) Died aged 4 months

John William Giles was born 1890, York, WA [Reg. 53].

John William Giles died 1891, York, WA [Reg. 229], aged 4 months.

2. UNNAMED GILES (1891-1891)

Unnamed Giles, was born 1891, York, WA [Reg.1377].

Unnamed Giles, died 1891, York, WA [Reg.592], 10 minutes.

3. LINDSAY ROY GILES (1893-1895) Died aged 1-2 years

Lindsay Roy Giles was born 1893, York, WA [Reg. 429].

Lindsay Roy Giles died 1895, WA [Reg. 42].

4. ARTHUR HENRY GILES (1894-1976)

Arthur Henry Giles was born 1894, York, WA [Reg. 2060].

Arthur Henry Giles died 1976 Northam, WA [Reg. 4900097], registered year 1977.

ARTHUR HENRY GILES (1894-1976) married KATHLEEN EDNA PRIEST (1903-1956) 1928, York, WA [Reg. 7100011].

5. HILBERT GEORGE GILES (1896–1958)

Hilbert George Giles was born 1896, York, WA [Reg. 4026].

Hilbert George Giles died 1958, York, WA [Reg. 7100046].

HILBERT GEORGE GILES (1896-1958) married IRIS EMELINE DUNHAM (1895-1977) 6 Jan 1945, York, WA [Reg. 1]. Reception held at the residence of Mrs. E.W. Ashbolt, Perth Road, York, WA. More details on this couple following.

6. RAYMOND CLIFFORD GILES (1903–1994)

Raymond Clifford Giles was born 1903, York, WA [Reg. 6879].

Raymond Clifford Giles died 16 Jul 1994, Narrogin, WA.

7. MYRTLE LOUISA GILES (1908–1980)

Myrtle Louisa Giles was born 1908, York, WA [Reg. 28].

Myrtle Louisa McQueen (nee Giles) died 1980, Northam, WA.

MYRTLE LOUISA GILES (1908–1980) married DONALD CLARENCE MCQUEEN (1900-1940) 1934, York, WA [Reg. 7100016].

Electoral Roll:

Hilbert's parents, Aaron and Matilda Giles

1910, 1912, 1921, 1937 Aaron Giles, Ulster Rd, York, foreman, Matilda, married.

1943 Matilda Giles, Ulster Rd, York, married.

The following articles give some details of the history of Hilbert's father, Aaron Giles:

York Chronicle (WA: 1927 - 1954), Fri 4 Sep 1942, pg 2

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article252101884.txt>

OBITUARY

Mr. Aaron Giles

After a short illness the death of an old and highly respected resident of the town, Mr. Aaron Giles, of Ulster road, occurred in the local hospital on August 26. The deceased had been an inmate of that institution for a little over a week prior to his demise. The fourth son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Giles, he was born at "Woodaling," better known as the 19-mile, on the York-Perth road, on November 18, 1862. At an early age he was engaged in shepherding for the late Mr. Joseph Hicks, later in carting sandalwood, and afterwards worked on the railway line from Chidlow's Well to Beverley. He was employed by the local municipal council for about thirty-nine years, until he retired some years ago, and in this capacity proved a faithful and conscientious employee. On March 9, 1890 his marriage to Matilda, third daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Ashbolt, was solemnised in the Methodist Church, York, by the late Rev. George.

Mr. Giles is survived by his widow, three sons—Arthur, Hilbert and Ray—and one daughter—Myrtle (Mrs. D. McQueen)—and deepest expressions of sympathy have been extended to them by their many friends.

their many friends.

The funeral, which was attended by many relatives and friends, took place in the Methodist portion of the cemetery on Thursday afternoon, the Rev. E. G. Hitchings officiating at the graveside and at a prior service in the Methodist Church. The deceased was a very old member of the York Lodge of M.U.L.O.O.F.S. and the lodge service was read by P.G. Bro. W. A. Smith.

The chief mourners were Arthur, Hilbert and Ray (sons), Messrs. Isaac and John Giles (brothers), Messrs. E. and F. Ashbolt and S. Giles (nephews).

The pallbearers were Messrs. A. Thoro, R. Carr and R. Ashworth and J. Wells, W. A. Smith and T. Halliday (representing the York Lodge of M.U.L.O.O.F.S.).

The funeral arrangements were carried out by Mr. I. L. Wansborough, undertaker.

ObituaryMr. Aaron Giles

After a short illness the death of an old and highly respected resident of the town, Mr. Aaron Giles, of Ulster Road, occurred in the local hospital on August 26. The deceased had been an inmate of that institution for a little over a week prior to his demise. The fourth son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Giles, he was born at "Woodaling," better known as the 19-mile, on the York-Perth Road, on November 18, 1862. At an early age he was engaged in shepherding for the late Mr. Joseph Hicks, later in carting sandalwood, and afterwards worked on the railway line from Chidlow's Well to Beverley. He was employed by the local municipal council for about thirty-nine years, until he retired some years ago, and in this capacity proved a faithful and conscientious employee. On Mar 9, 1890 his marriage to Matilda, third daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Ashbolt, was solemnised in the Methodist Church, York by the late Rev. George.

Mr. Giles is survived by his widow, three sons —Arthur, Hilbert and Ray — and one daughter —Myrtle (Mrs. D. McQueen) — and deepest expressions of sympathy have been extended to them by their many friends.

The funeral, which was attended by many relatives and friends, took place in the Methodist portion of the cemetery on Thursday afternoon, the Rev. E. G. Hitchings officiating at the graveside and at a prior service in the Methodist Church. The deceased was a very old member of the York Lodge Of M.U.I.O.O.F.S. and the lodge service was read by P.G. Bro. W. A. Smith.

The chief mourners were Arthur, Hilbert and Ray (sons), Messrs. Isaac and John Giles (brothers), Messrs E. and F. Ashbolt and S. Giles (nephews).

The pallbearers were Messrs, A. Thorn, R. Carr and R. Ashworth and J Wells, W. A. Smith and T. Halliday (representing the York Lodge of M.U.I.O.O.F.S.)

The funeral arrangements were carried out by Mr. T. L. Wansbrough, undertaker.

Electoral Roll:

Iris's name recorded as Iris Emeneline

1925, 1931 Hilbert George Giles, Ulster Rd, York, labourer.

1949 Hilbert George Giles, Georgiana St, York, boot repairer, 1954 Hilbert George Giles, Town Hall, Avon Terrace, caretaker, Iris Emeneline, home duties.

1963 Iris Emeneline Giles, 21 Georgina St, York, home duties.

1972 Iris Emeline Giles, Ningana, Bentley.

FIFTH CHILD OF WILLIAM DUNHAM (1815-1884), AND CAROLINE WRIGHT (NEE PORLEY) (1823-1897)

5. DUNHAM, WALTER JOHN (1859-1861) Died aged 1 year

Walter John Dunham was born 27 Jun 1859, York, WA [Reg. 4699], father, William Dunham, mother, Caroline Pauley (sic.), WA [Reg. 4600]. When Walter John Dunham was born his siblings were aged approx: Anna Maria Dunham, 9 years; (William Dunham born in 1852 had only lived 9 days); George William Dunham, 4 years; Lewis James Dunham, 2 years; Emma Sarah Dunham had not yet been born. The older Wright children were aged approx: Emma Amelia Wright, 18 years; Ellen Jane Wright, 16 years and Alfred Ambrose Wright, 14 years.

It was a sad time for the family when Walter John Dunham died 1861, York, WA [Reg. 1629], registered in 1861, recorded under Denham.

SIXTH CHILD OF WILLIAM DUNHAM (1815-1884), AND CAROLINE WRIGHT (NEE PORLEY) (1823-1897)

6. DUNHAM, EMMA SARAH (1862-1947) was born 13 Oct 1862, York, WA, father, William Dunham, mother, Caroline Porley, [Reg. 6700]. Emma Sarah Dunham died 7 Jul 1947, Beverley, WA [Reg. 22]. Emma married JESSE WILLIAM BLECHYNDEN (1851-1934), 13 Sep 1882, York, WA [Reg. 5431] and together they had seven children. More details follow in their own chapter. Jesse was born 9 Jun 1851, Beverley, WA [Reg. 1705]. He died 1 May 1934, Beverley, WA [Reg. 11].

CONTINUING ON WITH THOMAS HARRISON BLECHYNDEN (1849-1933) AND ANNIE MARIA DUNHAM (1850-1933)

Following their marriage, Thomas Harrison Blechynden 1849-1933) and Annie Maria Dunham (1850-1933), did not have any children.

Annie's sister and Thomas's brother, Jesse William Blechynden (1851-1934) and Emma Sarah Dunham (1862-1947) had seven children.

1. BLECHYNDEN, BENJAMIN LEWIS (1891-1971) & POWELL, ELLEN 'DAISY' (1898-1968)

Benjamin Lewis Blechynden.
Courtesy Mary Coulthard.

A vintage studio portrait of a young boy, likely from the late 19th or early 20th century. The boy is seated on a large, weathered log, holding a large, dark-handled saw across his lap. He is dressed in a dark blue sailor-style suit with white trim on the collar and cuffs, a white shirt with a dark bow tie, and dark boots. To his right, a dark hat sits on a stand. The background is a mottled, studio-style backdrop. The image is framed by a white border.

The following pages contain details of Ellen's parents and grandparents.

GEORGE POWELL (1836-1902), convict, Dancy's father, was born 21 Jul 1836, Abbey Dore, Herefordshire, England. Parents: m.1 JOHN POWELL (1799-1867) and MARY CHADDICK (1801-1864) who were married 18 Nov 1817, Aconbury, Herefordshire, England. George died 24 Aug 1902, Chittibin, Northam, WA [Reg. 1750], aged 66 years. GEORGE married MARIA MINARD (1842-1901) 26 Sep 1861, Abbey-Dore Parish, Herefordshire, England.

Richard Jenkins	Baliff	Ym	50	Baliff	No	Peterchurch
Anna Mungard	Baliff	Ym	18	Baliff	No	St. John
George Powell	Ym	23	No	No	No	No

A Wholesale Sheep Stealer. George Powell (against whom 5 bills had been found for sheep stealing) pleaded guilty to three of the indictments, but not guilty to two of the charges. The Chairman enquired if the prisoner was known. Supt. Blossett answered that he had known the prisoner for several years, but had never suspected him of any offence till the present charges were brought against him. The Chairman said it was necessary to visit these offences with severe punishment. Sentenced to six years penal servitude.

Transferred to Australia on the Ship Clara 13 Apr 1864. Police No 7821. Ticket of Leave 16 Mar 1865. Conditional Freedom 22 Nov 1869 Toodyay.

George Powell arrived Fremantle via the Clara (convict) 13 Apr 1864. Three years later his wife Maria, with Dansy, three years and Sarah, two years, followed on the Palestine in 1867.

MARIA MINARD (1842-1901), Dansy's mother, was born 1842, Hereford, Herefordshire, England. Parents: FRANCIS MINARD (1813-1866) and ELIZABETH 'BETSY' (1810-1883) who were married 25 May 1835, Saint Devereux, Hereford, England. Maria died 1901, Northam, WA [Reg. 156], aged 57 years, parents: Francis and Betsy Minard.

GEORGE and MARIA had eight children as follows:

1. DANZEY POWELL (1862-1928) was baptised 11 Mar 1862, Abbey Dore, Herefordshire, England, (name recorded as Dansey). He died 26 Mar 1928, Mount View Farm, Wagin, (Katanning), WA [Reg. 17], registered under Dansy. DANSY married ELLEN MATILDA BIRD (1865-1936), in 1894, Carnarvon, WA [Reg.74], name recorded as Danzey (sic) Dansy. More details on Dansy and Ellen further on.

2. SARAH JANE POWELL (1864-1927) was born 1864, Bromyard, Herefordshire, England.

SARAH married EDWIN FLYNN (1862-1946) 29 Sep 1886, St George's Cathedral, Perth, WA [Reg. 6295]. 11 children as follows: 1. Unnamed Female Flynn (1887-1887), 2. John Edwin Flynn (1888-1922), 3. Minard Flynn (1890-1915), 4. Eunice Flynn (1891-1964), 5. Phoebe Flynn (1893-1893) died aged 12 days, 6. William Flynn (1895-1899), 7. Mabel Maria Flynn (1898-1925), 8. Catherine Maud Flynn (1898-1898), 9. Daisy Edith Flynn (1903-1903) died aged 7 months, 10. George Robert Flynn (1905-1990), and 11. Francis Albert Flynn (1907-2001).

3. GEORGE POWELL (1870-1957) was born 7 Jun 1870, Northam, WA [Reg. 12474].

m.1 GEORGE married MARY ANNIE WESTERN (1874-1960) 29 Apr 1891, Wongamine, WA [Reg. 163]. They had one child, Charles Douglas Powell (1895-1895), who sadly died at the age of five months.

m.2. MARY ANNIE WESTERN (1874-1960) married ERNEST CROMPTON CORK (1869-1956) 1900, Perth WA [Reg. 1082]. One child: Inez Western Cork was born 1900, Subiaco, WA [Reg. 4670], Parents: Ernest Cork and Annie Western. They moved to NSW. m.2 GEORGE partnered with ELIZABETH SOPHIE BARRETT (1880-1933) 1902, Kalgoorlie, WA. I can't find a marriage registration. They had two children: 1. George Francis Minard Powell (1904-1980) was born 1904, WA [Reg. 4260], and 2. Barrett Edward Valentine Powell (1906-1979) was born 1906, Goomalling, (Northam), WA [Reg. 279]. Elizabeth Sophie Powell (nee Barrett) died 1933, Goomalling, WA [Reg. 4900070], Parents: George Seal Barrett and Mary Jones.

4. JAMES POWELL (1872-1934) was born 1872, Northam, WA [Reg. 14080]. JAMES married ELIZABETH JANE REILLY (1875-1929), 16 Mar 1897, St Andrews Church, Coolgardie, WA [Reg. 82]. They had 7 children as follows: 1. Margaret Maria Powell (1898–1980) 2. Daisy Violet Powell (1899–1961) 3. Angelina May Powell (1901–1974) 4. David Solomon Powell (1903–1984) 5. Dephress Mary Maude Powell (1908–1971) 6. Iris Victoria Powell (1911–1988) 7. Stella Mae Powell (1913–1997).

5. JOHN FRANCIS POWELL (1875-1957) was born 1875, Northam, WA [Reg. 16372]. JOHN married m.2. ELIZABETH WILKINS (NEE BONSER) 1866-1918), 1897, Northam, WA [Reg. 762]. They had seven children (one stillborn): 1. John Albert Powell (1896-1952) 2. Lionel Daniel Powell (1898–1963) 3. George Francis Powell (1900–1962) 4. Cecil Sydney Powell (1902–1971) 5. Percival Percy Powell (1906–1964) 6. Stillborn POWELL (1908–1908) 7. Donald Dausey Powell (1908–1989). m.1. ELIZABETH BONSER (1866-1918) married JAMES WILKINS (1860-1895) 25 Apr 1883, Northam, WA [Reg. 5479]. They had five children: 1. Henry Wilkins (1884–1957) 2. Margaret Rose Wilkins (1886–1938) 3. James Wilkins (1888–1970)

4. William Wilkins (1891–1918) 5. Frederick Thomas Wilkins (1893–1923). m.2 JOHN FRANCIS POWELL (1875–1957) married MARJORIE RICHARDS (1892–1955) 1926, Northam, WA. They had one child: Murray Kenneth Powell (1927–1928).

6. JOSEPH CHARLES POWELL (1876–1898) was born 1876, Middle Station, (Northam), WA [Reg. 17720]. Joseph died 1898, Northam, WA [Reg. 1653].

7. WILLIAM LIONEL POWELL (1879–1959) was born 1879, Northam, WA [Reg. 19774]. WILLIAM married ROSE CHARLOTTE 'LOTTIE' WESTERN (1886–1917), 30 Sep 1902, Northam, WA [Reg. 1153]. They had five children. Sadly, they lost three: two at birth and one at two days. 1. Percival 'Percy' Roy Powell (1905–1905) 2. Douglas Lionel Powell (1906–1906) 3. Ruby Myrtle Greta Powell (1907–1971) 4. William Lionel Powell (1908–1908) 5. Alfred Norman Powell (1911–2001).

8. ALBERT CHARLES POWELL (1880–1964) was born 1880, Chittering, WA [Reg. 21546]. ALBERT married MARGARET WILKINS (1886–1938), 23 Feb 1903, Northam, WA [Reg. 1093]. They had twelve children as follows: 1. Regina May Powell (1904–1988) 2. Herbert Reginald Nelson Powell (1905–1961) 3. Allen Ethelbert Powell (1907–1943) 4. Albert Henry Powell (1910–1971) 5. Ivan Charles Powell (1912–1979) 6. Annie Powell (1914–1977) 7. James George Powell (1916–1986) 8. Vera

Veronica Powell (1918–1996) 9. Evelyn Powell (1920–1988) 10. William Frederick Powell (1923–2010) 11. Unnamed (stillborn) Powell F (1925–1925) 12. Gwendoline Powell (1926–1983)

*George Powell and six sons:
Danzy, centre of front row.
Via Sharon Jane Facinelli Family Tree,
Ancestry, shared on 02 Feb 2014.*

BIRD, ELLEN MATILDA (1865–1936), Ellen's mother, was born 10 May 1865, York, WA [Reg. 8548]. Parents: THOMAS BIRD (1834–1886) and SELINA REYNOLDS (1838–1915) who were married 14 Jun 1855, York, WA. THOMAS and SELINA REYNOLDS (1838–1915) had 14 children as follows:

1. THOMAS BIRD (1855–1884) married ELLEN MITCHEL (1860–1894), 28 Sep 1882, Northampton, WA [Reg. 5361]. They had two children. 1. Mary Jane 'May' Mitchell Bird (1883–1965), and 2. Violet Verina Bird (1885–1885) who died at seven weeks.

2. CAROLINE BIRD (1857–1897) married ALFRED HUNT HUBBLE (1862–1887), 17 Jun 1881, York, WA [Reg. 5118]. They had four children: 1. Jane Hubble (1881–1961), 2. Selina Hubble (1883–1970), 3. Alice Gertrude Hubble (1885–1978), and 4. Alfred William Thomas Hubble (1887–1920). CAROLINE with partner ERNEST DUCKHAM, had a child about five years after death of her first husband Alfred Hubble and two years before her remarriage to Alfred Martin. Ernest Henry Martin (1892–1971), was born 1892, Northam, WA [Reg. 1101], registered under Ernest Duckham, father Alfred Duckham, mother Caroline Bird. m2. CAROLINE HUBBLE (NEE BIRD) (1857–1897) married ALFRED ERNEST MARTIN (1867–) 1894, Northam, WA [Reg. 191]. They had two children: 1. William John Martin (1894–1972), and 2. Charles Henry Martin (1897–1898), died aged 10 months.

3. HENRY BIRD (1859-1859) was born 31 Jan 1859, Salt River, York, WA [Reg. 4582]. Henry died as a baby 1859, York, WA. Buried York Cemetery.

4. EDWIN BIRD (1861-1936) (a twin) married m2. LILLIAN 'LILLIE' ELIZABETH BIRD (NEE FREEMAN) (1869-1957), 1898, Fremantle, WA [Reg. 498]. Following his brother Alfred's death, Edwin married his widow, Lillian. Edwin and Lillian had six children: 1. Laura Bird (1898-1969), 2. Edwin Bird (1900-1975), 3. Hilda May Bird (1903-1974), 4. Pearline Lillian Bird (1905-1985), 5. Eleanor (Nellie) May Bird (1907-1974), and 6. Robert James Bird (1909-1950). m1. LILLIAN married ALFRED BIRD (1863-1896) 1887, Carnarvon, WA [Reg. 172]. Alfred and Lillian had four children: 1. Alfred Vaughan Bird (1889-1896), 2. Samuel Bird (1891-1962), 3. William Thomas Bird (1893-1893) died at five weeks, and 4. William Edwin Bird (1894-1969).

5. HENRY BIRD (1861-1927) (a twin) married FLORENCE AMY THOMPSON (1877-1952) 1897, VIC [Reg. 510]. Register under Flo Thompson. They had four children (the first two were born in Ballarat VIC, the next two in Coolgardie and Kalgoorlie, WA): 1. Myrtle Josephine Bird (1897-1908), 2. Ivy May Bird (1904-2001), 3. Henry Bird (1910-1988), and 4. William Kent Bird (1913- 1977). Henry Bird was born 1861, Salt River, (York), WA [Reg. 6200]. He died 1927, East Coolgardie, WA [Reg. 82]. Florence died 1952, East Coolgardie, WA [Reg. 1800150].

6. ALFRED BIRD (1863-1896) married LILLIAN 'LILLIE' ELIZABETH FREEMAN (1869-1957), 1887, Carnarvon, WA [Reg. 172]. As per above [see 4], Alfred and Lillian had four children. Following Alfred's death, Lillian married his brother Edwin – see details above.

7. ELLEN MATILDA BIRD (1865-1936) married DANSY POWELL (1862-1928), 1894, Carnarvon, WA [Reg. 74], name recorded as Danzey (sic) Dansy. 10 children. More details following.

8. SAMUEL BIRD (1867-1945) was born 1867, York, WA [Reg. 10152]. Samuel died 1945, Perth, WA [Reg. 540].

Electoral Roll:

There are two people registered under the same name, in the same districts which caused some confusion. The other Samuel is Samuel Bird (1891-1962) who married Hilda Grace Houghton (1891-1972) in 1934.

1922, 1925 Samuel Bird, Gascoyne Rd, Yankee Town, carrier.

1931, 1936, 1943 Samuel Bird, Mt Sandiman, pastoralist.

Note: Samuel Bird's sister Ann Maria was married twice. Her second husband Edward Henry Graham was recorded as being a shearer on Sandiman Station.

9. ANN MARIA BIRD (1870-1954) married EDWARD CHARLES DEVENISH (1866-1954), 6 Aug 1890, Carnarvon, WA [Reg. 180]. They had six children: 1. Arthur Samuel Devenish (1890-1980) 2. William Henry Devenish (1893-1910) 3. Ernest Devenish (1895-1923) 4. Amelia Rachel Devenish (1900-1965) 5. Robert Edward Devenish (1905-1951) 6. Doris Letitia Mary Devenish (1910-1984). Ann and Edward then divorced. Ann then gave birth to another two children to Edward Henry Graham as follows. The children were registered under Devenish. Ann married Edward Graham in 1919. 1. Laborist Victorious Annie Devenish (1911-1958) (as registered), born 1911 East Carnarvon, Gascoyne, WA [Reg. 21] (Annie was registered as the child of Edward Devenish but in his divorce case Edward Graham was named as her father). Annie Graham died 1958, Perth, WA [Reg. 2812]. 2. Ida Kathleen Maude Devenish (1916-1952) born 23 Jun 1916, Carnarvon, Gascoyne, WA [Reg. 21]. Both registered numbers are 21. Ida was registered as the child of Edward Devenish but in his divorce case Edward Graham was named as her father. Not shown as a child of Edward Devenish on his death notice. m.2 ANN MARIA DEVENISH (NEE BIRD) (1870-1954) married EDWARD HENRY GRAHAM (1871-1940), 1919, Gascoyne, (Carnarvon), WA. They had two children. Edward was a shearer on Mt Sandiman Station in the Gascoyne. Ann and Edward Graham were in Carnarvon. Ann at Granny Bird Plantation, housewife, and Edward at Yankee Town, shearer.

10. JOHN HENRY BIRD (1872-1891) was born 1872, York, WA [Reg. 14072]. John died 1891, Carnarvon, WA [Reg. 458], aged 19 years.

11. ROBERT BIRD (1875-1956) married LUCY MAUD WALKER (1882-1955), 6 Feb 1901, Carnarvon, WA [Reg. 813]. They had eight children: 1. Selina Mary Ellen Bird (1904-1904) died at three months, 2. Doris Maude Bird (1905-1906) died at six weeks, 3. Louisa Margaret Bird 'Lovie' (1907-1988), 4. Ann May Bird 'Pat' (1909-1999), 5. Maud 'Sally' Bird (1910-1971), 6. Ruth Bird (1912-1912) died at two days, 7. Delia Bird 'Della' (1916-1984) twin, and 8. Barbara Bird (1916-1975) twin.

12. WILLIAM BIRD (1877-1878) was born 15 Dec 1877, York, WA [18701]. William died 2 Feb 1878, aged 6 weeks. [Reg. 9600].

13. CHARLOTTE BIRD (1879-1966) married WILLIAM DOUGLAS FREEMAN (1871-1933), 16 Jun 1897, Carnarvon, WA [Reg.634]. They had fifteen children: 1. Sydney Douglas Freeman (1898-1971), 2. Lilly Pearlina Freeman (1900-1973), 3. William Eric Freeman (1901-1902) died aged one, 4. Ellen Amelia Freeman (1902-1998), 5. Selina Gladys Freeman (1904-1904) died at 15 days, 6. William Herbert Freeman (1905-1953), 7. Edith Maude Freeman (1908-1972), 8. Samuel George Freeman (1910-1981), 9. Aubrey James Douglas Freeman (1911-1968), 10. Alfred Robert Augustus Freeman (1914-1995), 11. Rubena Lottie Freeman (1916-1984), 12. Lorne Robert Freeman (1918-), 13. Avril Dolores Freeman (1919-1999), 14. Harold Jeffrey Freeman (1921-1921) died at 19 days, and 15. Leonard Owen Freeman (1923-1960). I cannot find a registration or details for Lorne Robert Freeman.

14. CHARLES BIRD (1881-1881) was born 7 Jul 1881, York, WA [Reg. 22090]. Charles died 8 Jul 1881, aged 1 day, WA [Reg. 11011].

The following unbelievable article was found in Trove by Mary Coulthard, relating to the marriage of Edwin Bird (above) to his brother Alfred's widow.

Coolgardie Miner (WA: 1894 - 1911), Wed 6 Jul 1898, pg 6.

This is getting to be an almighty moral colony. Anyway Ned Bird and Lily Bird, of Fremantle, must think so, for they have both been convicted for perjury for swearing before a parson that there was no impediment to their marriage. Ned Bird married his brother's widow, and an old Act, passed in the time of Henry VIII, and which has never been repealed, has been raked up, and the two Birds have been trapped. If Lily was such a good wife to Ned's brother Alfred, that Ned considered her the best woman in the world for him, why the dickens should someone trot out an Act, passed in the dark ages to punish him? It's a man-o'-war to a mile post that neither of the Birds knew anything about Henry VIII's Act when they thought of mating and building their little nest. It will be pretty tough if the male Bird has to flutter round for a season in a Government cage whilst the lady Bird sits brooding on a perch outside. If it was not lawful for them to marry, are they married? If they are not married is it lawful to punish them?

NOTES AND COMMENTS. BY SMILER.

This is getting to be an almighty moral colony. Anyway, Ned Bird and Lily Bird, of Fremantle, must think so, for they have both been convicted for perjury for swearing before a parson that there was no impediment to their marriage. Ned Bird married his brother's widow, and an

Two little birds in love, sir,
Two little birds in love;
'Nd the mate of the prettiest bird, sir,
Trying his wings up above.

Two little birds in love, sir,
Two little birds in love;
'Nd one of them was a rooster,
'Nd one was a turtle dove.

Two little birds in love, sir,
Two little birds in love;
'Nd each of 'em wanted the other,
In spite of the bird up above.

So each of 'em married the other,
And trusted the rest to fate;
But a lawyer raided the birds' nest
With an act of Henry VIII.

Now it's two little birds in trouble,
Two little birds in pain.
Will they ever go home to the cosy nest
To bill and to coo again?

old Act, passed in the time of Henry VIII, and which has never been repealed, has been raked up, and the two Birds have been trapped. If Lily was such a good wife to Ned's brother Alfred, that Ned considered her the best woman in the world for him, why the dickens should someone trot out an Act, passed in the dark ages to punish him? It's a man-o'-war to a mile post that neither of the Birds knew anything about Henry VIII's Act when they thought of mating and building their little nest. It will be pretty tough if the male Bird has to flutter round for a season in a government cage whilst the lady Bird sits brooding on a perch outside. If it was not lawful for them to marry, are they married? If they are not married, is it lawful to punish them?

*Two little birds in love, sir,
Two little birds in love;
'Nd the mate of the prettiest bird, sir,
Trying his wings up above.*

*Two little birds in love, sir,
Two little birds in love;
'Nd one of them was a rooster,
'Nd one was a turtle dove.*

*Two little birds in love, sir,
Two little birds in love;
'Nd each of 'em wanted the other,
In spite of the bird up above.*

*So, each of 'em married the other,
And trusted the rest to fate;
But a lawyer raided the birds' nest,
With an act of Henry VIII.*

*Now it's two little birds in trouble,
Two little birds in pain.
Will they ever go home to the cosy nest
To bill and to coo again?*

ELLEN MATILDA BIRD (1865-1936) and DANSY POWELL (1862-1928) had ten children:

Ellen Daisy Powell's parents.

1. JAMES ALFRED POWELL (1896-1983). No birth record found. However, he is listed on his parents' headstones, and on his own it states son of Dansy and Ellen Powell with year of birth given.
2. UNNAMED POWELL (1897-1897) F Stillborn. Unnamed Powell was stillborn, 1897, Carnarvon, WA [Reg.1400] [Reg. 1236].
3. DANZEY ALFRED LIONEL POWELL (1897-1980) married KATHLEEN ROBINSON (1913-1976) 8 Jan 1937, Perth, WA [Reg. 104]. Registered as Dauzey.
4. ELLEN DAISY POWELL (1898-1968) married BENJAMIN LEWIS BLECHYNDEN (1891-1971) 16 Apr 1917, Katanning, WA [Reg. 17]. More details on Ellen and Ben following.
5. GEORGE BADEN POWELL (1900-1990) married NELLIE MAY BIRD (1907-1974) 24 APR 1926, Wagin, WA [Reg. 6].
6. ALBERT JOHN (JACK) POWELL (1902-1978) married MYRTLE GLADYS EILEEN THOMPSON (1904-1980) 22 Sep 1927, Narrogin, WA [Reg. 46].
7. EUNICE MARIA POWELL (1905-1987) married ALEXANDER LAMOND DAVIDSON (1899-1987) 5 Dec 1928, Wagin, WA [Reg.73].
8. AMY CALLAGIDDY POWELL (1907-1984) married JAMES LAMOND DAVIDSON (1906-1954) 2 Mar 1932, Wagin, WA [Reg. 16]. Registered in 1933.
- m2. AMY CALLAGIDDY DAVIDSON (NEE POWELL) (1907-1984) married ALEXANDER GEORGE EDWARDS (1896-1979) 21 Jan 1961, Armadale, Perth, WA [Reg. 21]. Registered at Canning.
9. OLIVE MAY POWELL (1909-1984) married ALAN DALY (1910-1952) 21 Nov 1930, Katanning, WA [Reg. 72]. Divorce.
- m2. OLIVE MAY POWELL (1909-1984) married DAVID WILLIAM GAME (1915-1971) 7 Jul 1943, Perth, WA [Reg. 1636].
10. JESSIE POWELL (1911-1981) married JACK HENRY MARRELL (1907-1999) 23 Apr 1930, Wagin, WA [Reg. 35].

Thomas Bird died 8 Nov 1886, Carnarvon, WA [Reg. 14399]. Buried Carnarvon Cemetery.

Eastern Districts Chronicle* (York, WA: 1877 - 1927), Sat 27 Nov 1886, pg 2
<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article148604271.txt>

The death of Mr. Thomas Bird, which we recorded in our issue of the 13th instant, was caused by a fall from the jetty at Carnarvon. The deceased broke his neck.

SATURDAY, NOV. 27th, 1886.
 The death of Mr. Thomas Bird, which we recorded in our issue of the 13th instant, was caused by a fall from the jetty at Carnarvon. The deceased broke his neck.

Selina Bird (nee Reynolds) died 15 Apr 1915, Yankee Town, Carnarvon, WA [Reg. 4].

Northern Times (Carnarvon, WA: 1905 - 1952), Sat 24 Apr 1915, pg 5

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article75110014.txt>

MRS. BIRD, SENR.
DEATH OF AN OLD COLONIST

By the passing away of Mrs. Selina Bird at Yankee Town last week, the Gascoyne has lost one of its oldest and best respected residents and pioneers. Born in Paddington, England, some 78 years ago, the deceased lady arrived in the colony when quite a child and resided at Woodside near York for a number of years. There she was married in 1854 to the late Thomas Bird, and thirteen children were born, six of whom are still living. Her brother, Mr. Thomas Reynolds, still resides at Meckering.

The Bird family arrived in the Gascoyne district some 35 years ago and the late Mrs. Bird was the first white woman to settle with a family in Carnarvon. Owing to the untimely death of her husband, which occurred some three years later, she led an active and strenuous life right up to the time of her death. During her long residence in the district, she has held the esteem and respect of all with whom she came into contact, and her charity has been unbounded. Her presence will be missed by old residents, who have a loving remembrance of Old Lady Bird, as she was more familiarly known. The deceased lady leaves a family of three sons and three daughters to mourn their loss. Ned, Sam and Bob., and Mrs. Freeman and Mrs. Devenish, reside in Carnarvon, while Mrs. Powell lives in Wagin. There are thirty-eight grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren still living.

The end came very unexpectedly, as the day previous to the paralytic stroke she was in town visiting her relations and appeared in the best of health. After she was found in her home by Miss Maggie Walker, lying unconscious, she never rallied, and passed away the following day.

The funeral, which was a very lengthy one, left her late residence at Yankee Town and proceeded to St. George's Church, where the Rev. W. Sharp made an impressive address, dwelling on the late lady's life and the esteem in which she was held. The pall-bearers were Messrs. C. Turner, C. Wheelock, A. Woolley and W. Russell. The chief mourners Messrs. Ned. and Sam Bird (sons), W. Freeman (son-in-law), Sam. and Edwin Bird, Syd. and Herbie. Freeman, and Arthur and Eddie Devenish (grandsons). The funeral arrangements were carried out by Mr. P. T. Batty, and the Rev. W. Sharp officiated at the graveside. The following sent wreaths: —Mr., and Mrs. Ned. Bird and family; Mr. and Mrs. Bob. Bird and family; Mr. Sam. Bird; Mr. and Mrs. Freeman and family; Mr. and Mrs. Devenish and family; Rev. and Mrs. W. Sharp and family; Mrs. D. Wilson; Mrs. Skipworth; Mr. and Mrs. Con. Glasson and family; Mrs. Glasgow and family; Dr. and Mrs. Gordon; Mr. and Mrs. Davies; Mrs. Smith and family; Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Morgan; Mr. and Mrs. Wheelock; Leura Farm employees; Mr. and Mrs. Kirkby; Mr. Chas. Turner; Mr. and Mrs. Marmion; Mr. and Mrs. Glaris; Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Lefroy; Mr. and Mrs. Whitlock; Mr. W. E. Fenner; Mr. and Mrs. Foss; Mr. D. Kemp; Mr. and Mrs. G. Young; Mr. and Mrs. Watkins; Mr. and Mrs. Loudon; Mr. and Mrs. Nicol; Mr. and Mrs. Batty; Mrs. Barratt; Mr. and Mrs. N. Morgan; Mrs. Travers; Mrs. E. Morgan; Mr. and Mrs. Ayliffe; Mr. and Mrs. Newman; Miss Herbert and Mr. Snook; Mr. and Mrs. Pearson; Mr. and Mrs. Woolley; Mrs. Fitzpatrick; Mrs. Donleavy and Mr. Henfry; Mr. and Mrs. Maitland; Pat, Mary and Jane Turner.

MRS. BIRD, SENR.

DEATH OF AN OLD COLONIST

By the passing away of Mrs. Selina Bird at Yankee Town last week, the Gascoyne has lost one of its oldest and best respected residents and pioneers. Born in Paddington, England, some 78 years ago, the deceased lady arrived in the colony when quite a child and resided at Woodside near York for a number of years. There she was married in 1854 to the late Thomas Bird, and thirteen children were born, six of whom are still living. Her brother, Mr. Thomas Reynolds, still resides at Meckering. The Bird family arrived in the Gascoyne district some 35 years ago and the late Mrs. Bird was the first white woman to settle with a family in Carnarvon. Owing to the untimely death of her husband, which occurred some three years later, she led an active and strenuous life right up to the time of her death. During her long residence in the district, she has held the esteem and respect of all with whom she came into contact, and her charity has been unbounded. Her presence will be missed by old residents, who have a loving remembrance of Old Lady Bird, as she was more familiarly known. The deceased lady leaves a family of three sons and three daughters to mourn their loss. Ned, Sam and Bob., and Mrs. Freeman and Mrs. Devenish, reside in Carnarvon, while Mrs. Powell lives in Wagin. There are thirty-eight grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren still living.

The end came very unexpectedly, as the day previous to the paralytic stroke she was in town visiting her stroke she was in town visiting her relations and appeared in the best of health. After she was found in her home by Miss Maggie Walker, lying unconscious, she never rallied, and passed away the following day. The funeral, which was a very lengthy one, left her late residence at Yankee Town and proceeded to St. George's Church, where the Rev. W. Sharp made an impressive address, dwelling on the late lady's life and the esteem in which she was held. The pall-bearers were Messrs. C. Turner, C. Wheelock, A. Woolley and W. Russell. The chief mourners Messrs. Ned. and Sam. Bird (sons), W. Freeman (son-in-law), Sam. and Edwin Bird, Syd. and Herbie. Freeman, and Arthur and Eddie Devenish (grandsons). The funeral arrangements were carried out by Mr. P. T. Batty, and the Rev. W. Sharp officiated at the graveside. The following sent wreaths: —Mr., and Mrs. Ned. Bird and family; Mr. and Mrs. Bob. Bird and family; Mr. Sam. Bird; Mr. and Mrs. Freeman and family; Mr. and Mrs. Devenish and family; Rev. and Mrs. W. Sharp and family; Mrs. D. Wilson; Mrs. Skipworth; Mr. and Mrs. Con. Glasson and family; Mrs. Glasgow and family; Dr. and Mrs. Gordon; Mr. and Mrs. Davies; Mrs. Smith and family; Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Morgan; Mr. and Mrs. Wheelock; Leura Farm employees; Mr. and Mrs. Kirkby; Mr. Chas. Turner; Mr. and Mrs. Marmion; Mr. and Mrs. Glaris; Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Lefroy; Mr. and Mrs. Whitlock; Mr. W. E. Fenner; Mr. and Mrs. Foss; Mr. D. Kemp; Mr. and Mrs. G. Young; Mr. and Mrs. Watkins; Mr. and Mrs. Loudon; Mr. and Mrs. Nicol; Mr. and Mrs. Batty; Mrs. Barratt; Mr. and Mrs. N. Morgan; Mrs. Travers; Mrs. E. Morgan; Mr. and Mrs. Ayliffe; Mr. and Mrs. Newman; Miss Herbert and Mr. Snook; Mr. and Mrs. Pearson; Mr. and Mrs. Woolley; Mrs. Fitzpatrick; Mrs. Donleavy and Mr. Henfry; Mr. and Mrs. Maitland; Pat, Mary, and Jane Turner.

Dansy Powell died 26 Mar 1928, Mount View Farm, Wagin, (Katanning), WA [Reg. 17], registered under Dansy.

Northern Times (Carnarvon, WA: 1905 – 1952), Sat 31 Mar 1928, pg 6

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article74904849.txt>

OBITUARY

MR. DANSY POWELL

The death of Mr. Dansy Powell, at the age of 68, took place at Wagin on Monday last after a lengthy period of ill health.

Mr. Powell was one of the pioneers of the Gascoyne district, having come here with a survey party in 1882. Shortly afterwards he took up Meeragoolia and later, having disposed of that, property to Mr. Dan Matheson, took up the Calligiddy country, which we understand was the first portion of the area between Carnarvon and the Wooramel to be taken up and stocked. Disposing of Callagiddy 1909, he, with Mr. H. Cordes, purchased Gnaraloo Station, and removed with his family to Wagin, where he entered into farming pursuits. About twelvemonth ago Mr. Cordes sold his interest in Gnaraloo to Mr. Powell, and shortly afterwards, owing to failing health, Mr. Powell disposed of the property to Messrs. A. Fleming and Baden Powell (son of the deceased).

Mr. Powell married Miss Bird, sister of Messrs. Sam and R. Bird, of Sandman Station.

OBITUARY

MR. DANSY POWELL

The death of Mr. Dansy Powell, at the age of 68, took place at Wagin on Monday last after a lengthy period of ill health.

Mr. Powell was one of the pioneers of the Gascoyne district, having come here with a survey party in 1882. Shortly afterwards he took up Meeragoolia, and later, having disposed of that property to Mr. Dan Matheson, took up the Calligiddy country, which we understand was the first portion of the area between Carnarvon and the Wooramel to be taken up and stocked. Disposing of Callagiddy in 1909, he, with Mr. H. Cordes, purchased Gnaraloo Station, and removed with his family to Wagin, where he entered into farming pursuits. About a twelvemonth ago Mr. Cordes sold his interest in Gnaraloo to Mr. Powell, and shortly afterwards, owing to failing health, Mr. Powell disposed of the property to Messrs. A. Fleming and Baden Powell (son of the deceased).

Mr. Powell married Miss Bird, sister of Messrs. Sam and R. Bird, of Mt. Sandiman Station.

Ellen Matilda Powell (nee Bird) died 25 Aug 1936, Wagin, WA [Reg. 71].

Wagin Argus & Arthur, Dumbleyung, Lake Grace Express (WA: 1924 - 1954), Thu 3 Sep 1936, pg 3

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article258185463.txt>

OBITUARY

LATE ELLEN MATILDA POWELL.

Another of the district's pioneers in the person of person of Mrs. E. L. Powell, passed away at the Government Hospital, Wagin on August 25th. The deceased lady, who was aged 71 year, was born at York and had lived for a great many years in the Wagin district.

The funeral, which was largely attended, took place at the Wagin Cemetery on August 26th, at 3 p.m., the Rev. Archdeacon Burbidge officiating at the graveside.

The Chief Mourners at the Graveside were:—James Powell, Baden Powell, and Jack Powell (sons); Alex Davidson, Jack Morrell, Allan Daly, and Jim Davidson (sons-in-law); and Noel Powell (grand-son).

The Pall Bearers were Messrs. H. C. Ainsworth, Morrell, H. Gannaway, B. Becker, N. Thompson and R. Howie.

Telegrams were received from the following:—Sister Lottie and family (Carnarvon); Jack and Margaret and family (Mandurah); Brothers Bob and Sam, and Sister-in-law Lucy (Carnarvon); Bob and Pearl (niece and nephew, Carnarvon); Mr. and Mrs. Grist and Girls (Ballaying); Mrs. S. E. Pearce; Mrs. A. L. Cox; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Seal and family (Bayswater); Mr. and Mrs. H. Davidson and daughter (Mt. Lawley).

Wreaths and Floral Tributes were received from the following:— Her Loving Family; Jack and Gladys, and grand-children Gloria and Hilda; Jessie and Jack, and grandchildren Ray, Norman, Rosa and Fay; Lincoln, Amy, Jim, and Jimmy; Nellie, Baden, and family; Eunice, Alex, Bonnie, Betty, Maxie and Jim; Elsie and Norman; Mrs. E. Bird (Carnarvon); Ethel, Morley and Bill; Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Thompson; Mr. and Mrs. P. Dwyer; Mr. and Mrs. H. Cousins; Mr. and Mrs. H. Taylor, Gladys and Ron.; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Paterson; Victor Hansen; Officers and Members of the Druids Lodge; Mrs. Thompson, senr.; Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Morrell; Mr. and Mrs. J. Lucas and family; Mrs. Andrews and family; Mrs. Wheatley and Ina; Mrs. Becker and family; Richardson & Co., Wagin; Mr. and Mrs. T. W.

OBITUARY

LATE ELLEN MATILDA POWELL.

Another of the district's pioneers in the person of person of Mrs. E. L. (sic.) Powell, passed away at the Government Hospital, Wagin on August 25th. The deceased lady, who was aged 71 years, was born at York and had lived for a great many years in the Wagin district.

The funeral, which was largely attended, took place at the Wagin Cemetery on August 26th. at 3 p.m., the Rev. Archdeacon Burbidge officiating at the graveside.

The Chief Mourners at the Graveside were:—James Powell, Baden Howell, and Jack Powell (sons); Alex Davidson, Jack Morrell, Allan Daly, and Jim Davidson (sons-in-law); and Noel Powell (grand-son).

The Pall Bearers were Messrs. H. C. Ainsworth, Morrell, H. Gannaway, B. Becker, N. Thompson and R. Howie.

Telegrams were received from the following:—Sister Lottie and family (Carnarvon); Jack and Margaret and family (Mandurah); Brothers Bob and Sam, and Sister-in-law Lucy (Carnarvon); Bob and Mrs. Becker and family; Richardson & Co., Wagin; Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Box and family; Mrs. F. C. Hansen and family; Mr. and Mrs. Watling; Mrs. L. E. Piesse and family; Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Gannaway and family; Mrs. Paterson, Gladys and Allen; Mr. and Mrs. Simpson and family; Mr. and Mrs. Sprigg and family; Allan, Olive, Veronica and Dicky; Mr. and Mrs. Ennis and family; Mr. and Mrs. P. Turner and family; Mr. C. Skinner; Mr. and Mrs. R. Holland and family; Mr. and Mrs. F. Fealy and family; Mr. and Mrs. F. Buck and family; Mr. F. Wilson and Mrs. Kelly; Mr. and Mrs. S. Pierce and family; Mr. H. A. Pfeiffer, Robina and Verdie; Mr. and Mrs. G. Mallen; Mr. and Mrs. Simon Pearce; Mr. Doig and family; Wagin District Farmers' Coop. Co. Ltd.; Mr. and Mrs. Pellham, Myrtle and Hector; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Messer; Mrs. Sproule; Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Vickers and family; Geo. Griffiths; Mr. and Mrs. W. Cross; Mr. and Mrs. Bert Orr; Mr. and Mrs. J. Wellard; Mr. and Mrs. H. Frost; Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Cross; Mr. and Mrs. R. Lowe; Mr. and Mrs. H. Gannaway and Girls; Mr. and Mrs. Derell; May, Harry, Colin and Moyle (Bassendean); Uncle George, Minard and Eddie; Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Goldsmith.

The funeral arrangements were carried out by Mr. H. A. Pfeiffer, Undertaker, of Wagin.

Pearl (niece and nephew, Carnarvon); Mr. and Mrs. Grist and Girls (Ballaying); Mrs. S. E. Pearce; Mrs. A. L. Cox; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Seal and family (Bayswater); Mr. and Mrs. H. Davidson and daughter (Mt. Lawley).

Wreaths and Floral Tributes were received from the following:— Her Loving Family; Jack and Gladys, and grand-children Gloria and Hilda; Jessie and Jack, and grandchildren Ray, Norman, Rosa and Fay; Lincoln, Amy, Jim, and Jimmy; Nellie, Baden, and family; Eunice, Alex, Bonnie, Betty, Maxie and Jim; Elsie and Norman; Mrs. E. Bird (Carnarvon); Ethel, Morley and Bill; Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Thompson; Mr. and Mrs. P. Dwyer; Mr. and Mrs. H. Cousins; Mr. and Mrs. H. Taylor, Gladys and Ron.; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Paterson; Victor Hansen; Officers and Members of the Druids Lodge; Mrs. Thompson, senr.; Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Morrell; Mr. and Mrs. J. Lucas and family; Mrs. Andrews and family; Mrs. Wheatly and Ina; Mrs. Becker and family; Richardson & Co., Wagin; Mr. and Mr. T. W. Box and family; Mrs. F. C. Hansen and family; Mr. and Mrs. Watling; Mrs. L. E. Piesse and family; Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Gannaway and family; Mrs. Paterson, Gladys and Allen; Mr. and Mrs. Simpson and family; Mr. and Mrs. Sprigg and family; Allan, Olive, Veronica and Dicky; Mr. and Mrs. Ennis and family; Mr. and Mrs. P. Tumor and family; Mr. C. Skinner; Mr. and Mrs. R. Holland and family; Mr. and Mrs. F. Fealy and family; Mr. and Mrs. F. Buck and family; Mr. F. Wilson and Mrs. Kelly; Mr. and Mrs. S. Pierce and family; Mr. H. A. Pfeiffer, Robina and Verdie; Mr. and Mrs. G. Mallen; Mr. and Mrs. Simon Pearce; Mr. Doig and family; Wagin District Farmers' Coop. Co. Ltd.; Mr. and Mrs. Pellham, Myrtle and Hector; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Messer; Mrs.

Sproule; Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Vickers and family; Geo. Griffiths; Mr. and Mrs. W. Cross; Mr. and Mrs. Bert Orr; Mr. and Mrs. J. Wellard; Mr. and Mrs. H. Frost; Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Cross; Mr. and Mrs. R. Lowe; Mr. and Mrs. H. Gannaway and Girls; Mr. and Mrs. Derell; May, Harry, Colin and Moyle (Bassendean); Uncle George, Minnard and Eddie; Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Goldsmith.

The funeral arrangements were carried out by Mr. H. A. Pfeiffer, Undertaker, of Wagin.

Headstone of Dansy Powel and Ellen Mathilda (nee Bird)

In Memory of DANSY BELOVED HUSBAND OF ELLEN MATHILDA POWELL
 FOND FATHER OF JAMES LIONEL DAISY BADEN
JOHN EUNICE AMY OLIVE AND JESSIE
 Died 28th March 1928
 Aged 66 years
 EVER REMEMBERED

ALSO OUR DEARLY BELOVED MOTHER
 WHO LEFT US 25 AUG 1936
 AGED 71 YEARS

CONTINUING THE STORY OF THOMAS HARRISON BLECHYNDEN (1849-1933), ANNIE MARIA DUNHAM (1850-1933) AND THEIR 'SON' BENJAMIN LEWIS BLECHYNDEN (1891-1971):

On previous trips to Bridgetown, Harrison, (as he was known), found some land in Wagin where he wanted to build his house and settle down. He purchased Williams Lot 1932 of 224 acres and was one of the first settlers in the Wagin district.

WAGIN HISTORICAL VILLAGE: <https://www.australiasgoldenoutback.com/products/wagin-historical-village>

The Wagin Historical Village has the following interesting photo taken at 'Sunnyside' farm west of Wagin in 1895. The description names Thomas Harrison Blechynden as the second from the left.

Sunnyside' farm west of Wagin in 1895: Harrison (Thomas Harrison) Blechynden second from the left.

Notes re the chaff cutting scene at Wagin farmer Simon Pearce's property 'Sunnyside'.

Following is a range of various items regarding Thomas Harrison Blechynden and family found in Trove.

Thomas Harrison Blechynden was a Wagin farmer. In 1877 he signed a petition regarding discrimination against expees.

Eastern Districts Chronicle (York, WA: 1877 - 1927), Sat 19 Sep 1885, pg 3

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article148587029.txt>

Thomas Harrison Blechynden, for riding on his 4-horse timber carriage without reins, was fined 10s.

Thomas Harrison Blechynden, for riding on his 4-horse timber carriage without reins, was fined 10s.

The carriage may well have been similar to the one on the right operated by Thomas's nephew John William Blechynden of Bridgetown.

Thomas Harrison (Harrison) was an active member of the community, entering in the local shows, donating to fundraising events.

He was elected Vice in the "1893 & 1895 Roads Board Elections for Arthur..TH Blechynden (Vice)".

Thomas Harrison Blechynden was a shareholder in the Wagin Flour Mill & attended meetings.

He was on the General Committee for the Agricultural Society Wagin.

The following image, featuring the home of Thomas Harrison Blechynden, dated 1908, appeared in the Countryman, Western Mail (Perth, WA: 1885 - 1954), Sat 25 Jan 1908, pg. 23

IN RECENT weeks we have been featuring pictures taken from our old times.
This picture was published in Jan 1908 and show the home of Mr H Blechynden, a pioneer of Wagin.

Annie Maria and Thomas Harrison Blechynden with Benjamin Lewis Blechynden outside their home at Wagin. Benjamin was 17 years of age.

In 1908 Thomas Harrison Blechynden sold 124 acres to C Piesse – see letters following:

LETTER DATED 27 Jan 1907

Wagin

July 27th 1907

Mr H Blechynden,

Dear Sir,

I just have not time this morning to do as I promised – but will on my return from Perth – fix the matter up -in the meantime Mr T Blechynden and yourself may rest content that I will fix the matter up as promised by me.

Yours

Faithfully,

C Piesse

LETTER DATED 3 Feb 1908, No 56

LETTER DATED 3 Feb 1908, No 57

Mr H Blechynden
Farmer. Wagin
7 Feb 3rd 1908 56

Dear Sir. I am sending herewith a letter for you to sign addressed to E H Abelson Esq Surveyor asking him to Survey your block of land (billed in Dec 1932 into two sections one of 100 acres and the other 124 acres (the Northern end) for the purpose of transfer to me in accordance with the desire of yourself & Mrs Blechynden you can post the letter direct to Mr Abelson or return to me whichever you think best. When the Survey is completed I will send you a form for your wife to sign withdrawing her ~~second~~ Mortgage - and will pay off the Mortgage to the Agricultural Bank provided same does not exceed £100/- one hundred & the balance of the further considerations you are to receive in a clear Receipt for all claims I had against you on the date we made the agreement - Subject to the delivery by you of Seventy five bags of wheat which was to be credited to the said account prior to the giving to you of the full & clear Receipt of all my claims against you as calculated on the date aforesaid (25 July 1908). - Whether amount ~~was~~ shows as owing to me by you after the delivery of the wheat will be the balance I pay you (by crediting same in A/c) on the purchase of the 124 acres before mentioned.

Mr H Blechynden 2 57

I am to bear all expense of Survey and Transfer as agreed - and you shall any expense connected with the withdrawal of Mrs Blechynden Mortgage for £100 - and the Renewal of Mortgage to her as promised by you - The only difference in Mrs Blechynden's case is that you give her a 1st Mortgage this time or pay her off in cash -

You have agreed to ~~assist~~ assist in the erection of a division fence on the dividing survey line - the material in the old fence to be used for the purpose as far as it will go - I will find the netting and balance of any material required to complete it if there is any shortage of wire -

I think I have referred to all the matters we agreed on - if not please advise me.

Sorry for delay. but I have been very busy -

I want to put in writing the offer I made to you viz that if you can within one month from date of transfer to me dispose of the property to my advantage you are at liberty to do so provided I am refunded all out of pocket expenses and the price paid for the said land.

Hoping Mr Blechynden is better. Yours faithfully
C. H. Gale

In 1911 Thomas "Harrington" Blechynden was Confirmed at St George's Wagin.

Note that he is recorded on this Confirmation certificate as "Harrington". He was 63 years old in 1911. The record was signed by the Rector who knew him as Thomas and not being familiar with the name Harrison possibly wrote down what he thought he had heard. That is pure speculation of course.

Confirmation certificate of Thomas Harrison Blechynden, Saint George's Church, Wagin, 1911

1912 Southern Argus & Wagin Arthur Express listed as Second place for Langshan Rooster

1912 Livestock brand registered Brooklyn Wagin B7H

1916 Sandbag Subscription Fund TH Blechynden 3/- Wagin

1916 Apr attended Agricultural Society Annual meeting in Wagin was on the General Committee.

1917 Harrison, Annie Maria & Emma Sarah Blechynden (half-sisters to Ellen Jane) attended the funeral of Hellen (Ellen) J Quartermaine (daughter of Edmund & Caroline Wright) in Wagin along with many other family members.

1918 Aug Donation to Wagin Hospital, Mrs. Blechynden, 1 fowl & eggs, Mr. Blechynden 2 flannel shirts.

Meet Uncle Maurie, our ABC Spirit of Volunteering Award winner

<https://www.abc.net.au/radio/perth/programs/mornings/maurice-becker/13354222>

Maurie Becker featured in the item above, still volunteers in 2021 at the Wagin Historical Village and helped our researchers with various items for the Blechynden Project.

'Uncle Maurie'

Wagin stalwart and all-round legend Maurice Becker has nabbed the ABC's Spirit of Volunteering Award WA. The 91-year-old has volunteered with the Wagin Woolorama for nearly 50 years, helping out with the fashion parade.

'Uncle Maurie' has also given his time to the Wagin Rotary Club and the local footy club, and currently volunteers at the Wagin Historical Village. "I guess I'm inspired to help my community," he said back when we caught up with him in April.

The gentleman on the right in this photo of prize rams with Dansy Powell is believed to be Maurie's father, a good friend of the Powell family.

Mr Becker and Dan Powell with two magnificent rams. Courtesy Mary Coulthard

Southern Argus and Wagin-Arthur Express

(Perth, WA: 1905 - 1924), Sat 24 Aug 1918, pg 2

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/article/206567296>

Auction Sale.

— Mr H. S. Goldsmith gives full particulars elsewhere that next Wednesday (August 28th) a general sale will take place at Mr T.H. Blechynden's farm, 3 1/2 miles west of Wagin at 2.30 p.m. The hundred-acre farm which was one of the first Selected in the district, will be offered for sale at 3.30 p.m.

The article on the right contains the full particulars of the property (and chattels) mentioned above. This provides an interesting description of farm and household items in a standard wheatbelt farmhouse at that time.

Auction Sale H. S. Goldsmith Has received instructions from Mr T. H. Blechynden to sell by Public Auction on WEDNESDAY NEXT, the 28th August, at 2.30 p.m.; his Freehold Farm of 100 acres, situated 3 1/2 miles West of Wagin. Same is fenced, 40 acres cleared, 14 acres under crop of oats, and 1 1/2 acres of garden, assorted fruits. Stone-house 2 rooms and lean-to kitchen. Iron shed 22 x 12; a good stoned well—has never been dry since put down. Also the undermentioned goods and chattels. This property is situated 3 1/2 miles from Wagin, near the Blechynden Water Scheme. It is splendid quality land, and is an ideal spot for a dairy or mixed farming. As Mr Blechynden is leaving the district, it presents a good opportunity to those on the look-out for a nice handy property. Land will be offered at 3.30 p.m. The general sale will start at 2.30 on the premises.	start at 2.30 on the premises. 2 Tubs, 3 buckets, 2 lanterns; 3 small kitchen tables, 2 kitchen safes, 1 kettle (iron), 1 saucepan, 1 10-gal. boiler, 2 buggy lamps, 1 fender and fire irons, 2 axes, 3 flat irons, 2 fry pans, boot jack, wire clothes line, 2-gal. ironstone jar, 3 lamps, cups, saucers, plates, etc., kitchen dresser, 2 chairs, ball binder twice, 2 door mats, washstand and toilet ware, 1 double iron bedstead and wire mattress, 1 double-barrel gun, new 6 x 8 tent, 1 Coolgardie stretcher, 1 Oliver plow No. 3, 2 harrows, 1 set buggy harness, 1 hand chaffcutter (2 knives), 4 sets plow chains, several collars, hames and bridles, 1 good saddle and bridle (gray), 1 100-gal. tank, 1 75-gal. trough on stand, 1 grindstone, 1 good steel bar, small galvanised trough. Sundries:—3 pairs good fowls, 1 spring cart, 9 good sheep. H. S. GOLDSMITH Auctioneer, Sworn Valuator, and General Agent, Tudhoe-st., Wagin
---	--

Electoral Roll:

Thomas Harrison and Annie Maria Daisy Blechynden and Benjamin Lewis Blechynden:

1910 Thomas Harrison Blechynden, Puntapin Rock, farm hand Annie, Waderlocking, Wagin, married.

Note Puntapin Rock is a granite rock formation located approximately 4 km (2.5 mi) southeast of Wagin.

1913,1916 Thomas Harrison Blechynden, Wagin, farmer, M Annie Maria, Wagin, married.

1916 Benjamin Lewis Blechynden, Moodiarrup, via Wagin, farmer

1925 Thomas Harrison Blechynden, Wagin, labourer

1925 Benjamin Lewis Blechynden, Pingelly, labourer Ellen Daisy, Main Camp, Beverley, housewife

1931 Benjamin Lewis Blechynden, East Beverley, farm hand.

1931 Thomas Harrison Blechynden, Trent Street, Wagin, retired Annie Maria – same address.

1936,1937 Benjamin Lewis Blechynden, Wongan Hills, labourer

1936 Ellen Daisy Blechynden, Kudardap, home duties

1943 Benjamin Lewis Blechynden, Forrest Street Beverley, farm hand.

1954,1958 Ellen Daisy Blechynden, Trayning, home duties.

Back: Benjamin Lewis Blechynden, abt. 17 years of age, and Annie Blechynden Front: Thomas Harrison Blechynden

Annie Maria Blechynden (nee Dunham), died 4 May 1933 in Wagin, WA [Reg. 49]. Thomas Harrison Blechynden died 11 Sep 1933 in Wagin, WA, aged 84 years, Reg district, Katanning, registered year 1933, [Reg. 81]. They are buried in the Wagin Cemetery in unmarked graves; however, a plaque is dedicated to them in the old church in the Wagin Historical Village.

Thomas Harrison Blechynden and Annie Maria Blechynden (nee Dunham) are buried here in Lot 106 and 107 in the Wagin Cemetery.

Plaque in the old church,
Wagin Historical Village

Wagin Argus & Arthur, Dumbleyung, Lake Grace Express (WA: 1924 - 1954), Thu 18 May 1933, pg 2 18 May 1933 - OBITUARY \(nla.gov.au\)

OBITUARY

LATE MRS. BLECHYNDEN.

With the death of Mrs. Blechynden, who passed away at the Wagin Hospital on Thursday 4th of May, Wagin loses yet another of its pioneers.

The deceased lady, who was 82 years of age, was born in York, and came to reside in Wagin over thirty years ago.

The funeral took place on Saturday May 6th, at the Wagin Cemetery. The Rev. Archdeacon Burbridge officiated at the Church and at the graveside.

The Pall Bearers were Messrs F. Hamersley, L. Abbot, A. Quartermaine, H. Quartermaine, E. Quartermaine and T. Mears.

Wreaths and floral tributes were sent by the following: Her Loving Husband; Loving sister Emma and nieces and nephews, Ethel ? ----- ? and family, Norm, Elsie and Desmond; Eunice and Alex Davidson and also little Ron; Edmund, Eric and Hilda; Amy and Jim also Eunice and Alex; ----- ? and Nellie ? and family, Frank, Ween, and Norma, Mr and Mrs E.T. Thompson. and Mr and Mrs R Patterson, H. Gladstones and Family, Mrs D Powell, also Mr and Mrs A. Albert, Mercie and little Neville (Lake Grace; Ernie, Mary and family (Lake Grace); Mr and Mrs Austin Piesse; Mr and Mrs L.H. ? Absolom; Albert Florrie And family; Mr and Mrs Albert Horn and Family; Mr and Miss Kernutt; E. Morsley and Billie; Mrs Millen and Emme; Mrs C.A. Piesse and Family; M rand Mrs S. Pearce Snr.; Mr and Mrs RA Oliver; Mr and Mrs T. W. Box and Family; Mr and Mrs Bilston and Family; Mrs JW Thompson; Mr and Mrs A.E. Gell and Family; Mr and Mrs Hubert Nelson; Mr H.A. Pfeiffer Verdie and Robina; Archdeacon and Mrs J. Burbidge; Mr and Mrs Baldwin and family; Mr and Mrs J. Nelson and Family; Mr and Mrs E. Mildwaters and Family Mr and Mrs Percy Gell and Family; Mrs WJ Piesse and Family; Mr and Mrs R.N. Hubbard; Mr and Mrs and Miss Good; Mr Mrs Frank. Piesse and Family; G Kersley and Family. The Funeral arrangements were carried out by Mr HA Pfeiffer, Undertaker Wagin.

OBITUARY

Late Mrs Blechynden.

With the death of Mrs. Blechynden, who passed away at the Wagin Hospital on Thursday 4th of May, Wagin loses yet another of its pioneers.

The deceased lady was 82 years of age, was born in York and came to reside in Wagin over thirty years ago.

The funeral took place on Sat May the 6th at the Wagin Cemetery, The Rev. Archdeacon Burbridge officiated at the Church and at the Graveside.

The Pall Bearers were Messrs F. Hamersley, L. Abbot, A. Quartermaine, H. Quartermaine, E. Quartermaine and T. Mears.

Wreaths and floral tributes were sent by the following: Her Loving Husband; Loving sister Emma and nieces and nephews, Ethel ? ----- ? and family, Norm, Elsie and Desmond; Eunice and Alex Davidson and also little Ron; Edmund, Eric and Hilda;

Amy and Jim also Eunice and Alex; ----- ? and Nellie ? and family, Frank, Ween, and Norma, Mr and Mrs E.T. Thompson. and Mr and Mrs R Patterson, H. Gladstones and Family, Mrs D Powell, also Mr and Mrs A. Albert, Mercie and little Neville (Lake Grace; Ernie, Mary and family (Lake Grace); Mr and Mrs Austin Piesse; Mr and Mrs L.H. ? Absolom; Albert Florrie And family; Mr and Mrs Albert Horn and Family; Mr and Miss Kernutt; E. Morsley and Billie; Mrs Millen and Emme; Mrs C.A. Piesse and Family; M rand Mrs S. Pearce Snr.; Mr and Mrs RA Oliver; Mr and Mrs T. W. Box and Family; Mr and Mrs Bilston and Family; Mrs JW Thompson; Mr and Mrs A.E. Gell and Family; Mr and Mrs Hubert Nelson; Mr H.A. Pfeiffer Verdie and Robina; Archdeacon and Mrs J. Burbidge; Mr and Mrs Baldwin and family; Mr and Mrs J. Nelson and Family; Mr and Mrs E. Mildwaters and Family Mr and Mrs Percy Gell and Family; Mrs WJ Piesse and Family; Mr and Mrs R.N. Hubbard; Mr and Mrs and Miss Good; Mr Mrs Frank. Piesse and Family; G Kersley and Family. The Funeral arrangements were carried out by Mr HA Pfeiffer, Undertaker Wagin.

West Australian (Perth, WA: 1879 - 1954), Wed 17 May 1933, pg 6
17 May 1933 - COUNTRY NEWS. \(nla.gov.au\)

COUNTRY NEWS.

WAGIN. — Mrs. Annie Maria Blechynden, an old pioneer of, the district died at Wagin on May 4, at the age of 82 years. The funeral on May 5 was largely attended. — The WAGIN.—Mrs. Annie Maria Blechynden, an old pioneer of the district died at Wagin on May 4, at the age of 82 years. The funeral on May 5 was largely attended.—The annual May ball, organised by the Anglican Ladies' ...

Wagin Argus & Arthur, Dumbleyung, Lake Grace Express (WA: 1924 - 1954), Thu 28 Sep 1933, pg 1
28 Sep 1933 - OBITUARY \(nla.gov.au\)

OBITUARY

LATE T. H. BLECHYNDEN.

Another of Wagin's early pioneers passed away in the Wagin Hospital on Monday September 11th, in the person of Mr. James (Thomas) Harrison Blechynden.

The deceased gentleman had been ill for a short period prior to his death, and at the time of his demise was 84 years of age. He was born in Beverley in 1849, but spent the last 40 years of his life in the Wagin District.

The funeral took place from the Church of England on Wednesday September 13th, the Rev. Archdeacon W. Burbidge officiating at the Church and at the graveside.

The Pall Bearers were Messrs. M. Quartermaine (Senr.), H. Gladstones (Senr.), T. Ashworth, E. McGlinn, E. Quartermaine (Jnr.), and J. Watson.

Wreaths and floral tributes were sent by the following: —Ethel, Horrie and family; Edmond, Eric and Hilda; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Quartermaine; Mrs. Thompson (Senr.); Mrs. Becker and family; Mr. and Mrs. J. Davidson; Mrs. D. Powell; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Piesse and family; Mr. and Mrs. C. Good and family; Mr. and Mrs. H. Gladstones and family; Mr. and Mrs. J. Nelson; Mr. and Mrs. H. Nelson; and Mr. and Mrs. Vickers and family. The funeral arrangements were carried out by Mr. H. A. Pfeiffer, Undertaker, -Wagin.

Note: There appears to be an error here - Mr. James (Thomas) Harrison Blechynden. Perhaps he was also known as James?

OBITUARY

LATE T. H. BLECHYNDEN.

Another of Wagin's early pioneers passed away in the Wagin Hospital on Monday September 11th, in the person of Mr. James Harrison Blechynden.

The deceased gentleman had been ill for a short period prior to his death, and at the time of his demise was 84 years of age. He was born in Beverley in 1849, but spent the last 40 years of his life in the Wagin District.

The funeral took place from the Church of England on Wednesday, September 13th, the Rev. Archdeacon W. Burbidge officiating at the Church and at the graveside.

The Pall Bearers were Messrs. M. Quartermaine (Senr.), H. Gladstones (Senr.), T. Ashworth, E. McGlinn, E. Quartermaine (Jnr.), and J. Watson.

Wreaths and floral tributes were sent by the following:—Ethel, Horrie and family; Edmond, Eric and Hilda; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Quartermaine; Mrs. Thompson (Senr.); Mrs. Becker and family; Mr. and Mrs. J. Davidson; Mrs. D. Powell; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Piesse and family; Mr. and Mrs. C. Good and family; Mr. and Mrs. H. Gladstones and family; Mr. and Mrs. J. Nelson; Mr. and Mrs. H. Nelson; and Mr. and Mrs. Vickers and family.

The funeral arrangements were carried out by Mr. H. A. Pfeiffer, Undertaker, Wagin.

BENJAMIN LEWIS BLECHYNDEN (1891-1971) and ELLEN DAISY POWELL (1898-1968) were married 16 Apr 1917, Katanning, WA [Reg. 17] and went on to have seven children as follows.

Wedding photo: Benjamin Lewis Blechynden and Ellen Daisy Powell, other people unknown.

Further details on these children can be found in the next section following, dedicated to her grandfather, Benjamin Lewis Blechynden, contributed by Mary Coulthard.

1. BLECHYNDEN, DANCY LEWIS WILLIAM (1918-1991) (Note: There are variations in registration records of his name - family members say he was called Dancy.

Dansy Lewis William Blechynden was born 17 Mar 1918, Katanning, WA [Reg. 84], registered as Dansy. Dansy Lewis William Blechynden died 5 Mar 1991, Girrawheen, WA.

DANSY LEWIS WILLIAM BLECHYNDEN (1918-1991) married ESTHER MABEL DAVENPORT (1906-1986), 1948, Northam, WA [Reg. 16], registered as Dansy. They had 2 children, Rae and Valma.

2. BLECHYNDEN, ELLEN 'NELLIE' MAY PEACE (1919-1957)

Ellen May Peace Blechynden was born 18 Jul 1919, Katanning, WA [Reg. 147].

Ellen Nellie Beaumont (Yeaman, nee Blechynden) died 19 Feb 1957, Geraldton, WA [Ref No. 24].

m. 1 ELLEN MAY PEACE BLECHYNDEN (1919-1957) married JAMES YEAMAN (1906-1975), 1940, Perth, WA [Reg. 342]. Divorced.

m. 2 ELLEN MAY PEACE YEAMAN (NEE BLECHYNDEN) (1919-1957) married ARTHUR CHARLES BEAUMONT (1916-2001) 14 May 1947, Perth, WA [Reg. 1277].

3. BLECHYNDEN, THOMAS ALBERT BADEN (1921-1989)

Thomas Albert Baden Blechynden was born 14 Apr 1921, Beverley, registered Katanning, WA [Reg. 125]. Thomas Albert Baden Blechynden died 5 Aug 1989, Perth, WA.

THOMAS ALBERT BADEN BLECHYNDEN (1921-1989) married RUBY MARY LEE 'POLLY' (1921-2005) 30 Dec 1940, Perth, WA [2767]. They had four children:

4. BLECHYNDEN, AMY SARAH ANNIE (1923-2007)

Amy Sarah Annie Blechynden was born 22 Jan 1923 Pingelly WA [Reg. 33].

Amy Sarah Annie McGregor (nee Blechynden) died 15 Mar 2007, Mandurah, WA.

AMY SARAH ANNIE BLECHYNDEN (1923-2007) married ALLAN WALTER MCGREGOR (1917-2002), 27 Dec 1945, Perth, WA [Reg. 128]. No children.

5. BLECHYNDEN, OLIVE BEATRICE PEARL (1924-1976)

Olive Beatrice Pearl Blechynden was born 24 Dec 1924, Perth, WA [Reg. 2422].

Olive Beatrice Bird (Buckley, nee Blechynden) died 4 Mar 1976.

m.1 OLIVE BEATRICE PEARL BLECHYNDEN (1924-1976) married PATRICK JOHN BUCKLEY (1921-1962), 1943, Wiluna, (East Murchison, WA [Reg. 8]. They had four children.

m.2 OLIVE BEATRICE PEARL BUCKLEY (NEE BLECHYNDEN) (1924-1976) married WALTER LESLIE BIRD, 1964, Perth, WA [Reg. 883]. No children.

6. BLECHYNDEN, EVELYN EUNICE JESSIE (1926-2013)

Evelyn Eunice Jessie Blechynden was born 25 Sep 1926, Beverley, WA [Reg. 199]. Evelyn Eunice Jessie Blechynden died 3 Feb 2013, Beverley, WA.

m1. EVELYN EUNICE JESSIE BLECHYNDEN (1926-2013) married ALFRED WILLIAM WARE (1925-2002), 1948, Beverley District, WA [Reg. 22]. 11 children. Divorced

m.2 EVELYN EUNICE JESSIE WARE (NEE BLECHYNDEN) (1926-2013) married HERBERT GEORGE 'TOM' BAKER (1901-1991) 1980, Northam, WA.

7. BLECHYNDEN, JOY POWELL (1929-2005)

Joy Powell Blechynden was born 8 Jul 1929, Wagin, registered in Katanning, WA [Reg. 173], registered under Joy.

Joy Gracie (Nee Blechynden) died 30 Oct 2005, Albany, WA.

JOY POWELL BLECHYNDEN (1929-2005) married JAMES ALEXANDER GRACIE (1926-2008), 1946, Perth, WA [Reg. 1520]. Children: Ronald (dec.), Cheryl and Beverley.

THE FOLLOWING SECTION DEDICATED TO HER GRANDFATHER, BENJAMIN LEWIS BLECHYNDEN, CONTRIBUTED BY MARY COULTHARD.

BLECHYNDEN
Benjamin

Benjamin Lewis Blechynden

B: 3 Jan 1891 Beverley, WA (Reg York 55)

D: 24 Jul 1971 Beverley, WA (Reg York 15)

M: Ellen Daisy Powell 16 Apr 1917 Wagin, WA (Reg Katanning 17)

D: Canning 1968 Reg:36

Wedding photo: Benjamin Lewis Blechynden and Ellen Daisy Powell

Parents: Dansy Powell B: Hertfordshire UK 1862 D: 23 Mar 1928 Reg: Katanning 17, Ellen Matilda Bird B:10th May 1865 Reg: York 8548 D:26 Aug 1936, Reg: Katanning 71.

Benjamin was the third child of Jesse William Blechynden and Emma Sarah (Dunham) Blechynden.

Ben was born in Beverley but grew up in Wagin, WA. When he was very, young 14 months old, he went to live with his Uncle Thomas Harrison Blechynden and Aunt Annie Maria (Dunham) Blechynden. I think this was because his mother had problems with her health, or her eyesight, as she was blind in later life.

Whilst visiting brother Jesse and sister Emma, Harrison and Annie would have been overjoyed after 14 years of longing for a child of their own on the 17 Mar 1892 Emma handed the responsibility of Benjamin over to her sister and brother-in-law to bring him up as their own son.

From Annie Maria Blechynden's Bible

A sad day for Jesse, Emma, brother Fred now aged nine, sister Ida aged four years and cousin Ernest Dunham aged 14 who was fostered by Jesse and Emma. There would have been many tears of sadness and happiness as Emma reflected on what a wonderful sister she had and the gift of Motherhood she had given her, I can imagine Annie's tears of happiness still flowing as she gathered Bennie to her to wave goodbye as the heavy wooden cart slowly made its way out of Beverley on their long journey home to Wagin.

Benjamin thrived under the care of his doting foster parents and "Bennie" as they fondly called him was their pride and joy. Ben attended school, his letter to "Aunt Mary" of The Western Mail 13 Sep 1902 Brooklyn near Wagin. This is the first letter I have written to you. I live 3 miles from Wagin. I walk to school every day. I often get a ride home. We have 5 young pigs and a little foal. It rained here yesterday. I hope they got some at York. Good-Bye from your loving nephew, Benjamin Blechynden.

Benjamin Lewis Blechynden

"Uncle Harrison" (as he was known) used to travel by horse drawn wagon down to Bridgetown to see the family there, (John Blechynden's family), and up to Beverley to see the family there. Ben would go with him and they would camp and sleep under the wagon at night sometimes away from home for many weeks at a time. Aunt Annie visited the family in Beverley with him sometimes - (Auntie Kit's Letter).

Ben married Ellen Daisy Powell, 16 Apr 1917, the same day as his elder brother, Fredrick William Blechynden, was killed in action WW1.

In the early years of their marriage 1919, Ben was working for his father-in-law Dansy (Dan) Powell in Wagin. Whilst working there breaking horses, he broke his leg rather badly. The horse jammed him against the fence, he jumped off and the broken bone impacted, leaving him with a shortened leg and a stay in the Wagin Hospital.

Southern Argus and Wagin-Arthur Express (Perth, WA: 1905 - 1924), Sat 11 Oct 1919, pg 2

LOCAL AND GENERAL ITEMS: Accidents. —During the week. Mr Ben. Blechynden, who was driving a mob of horses Thursday, had his leg broken below the knee by being kicked by one of the animals. Both unfortunates are doing well, the latter being removed to the hospital.

By this time Ben and Daisy had two young children born in Wagin, (Reg, Katanning), Dansy (Dan) only a toddler and Ellen (Nellie) only three months old. So, the family went to live with Daisy's parents, Dansy Powell (1862 – 26 Mar 1928) and Ellen Matilda (Bird) Powell (10 May 1865 – 26 Aug 1936). They lived on one of Dansy's farms in Wagin while Ben was recuperating and doing odd jobs around the place. His leg was always a problem and he was left with a permanent limp. Some years later whilst working on my maternal grandmother, (Thora Jean (Antony) Lee's) farm, "Nil Desperandum" at North Garret out of Southern Cross, the comb of the header became jammed. As Ben bent to clear it, the handle came up and hit him in the eye. He lost his eye and his cheek bone was broken.

It wasn't long before the babies started arriving and Daisy was caught up in the chores of the incessant washing, meals and cleaning with six young children. It was a never-ending task, then in Mar 1928 Daisy's father Dansy was taken ill and the family made the trip to Wagin. Sadly, he died on 26 Mar 1928.

Above: Children of Benjamin Lewis Blechynden and Ellen Daisy Blechynden (nee Powell)

Left: Standing: Jessie Powell m: Jack Henry Marrel, Benjamin Lewis Blechynden. Centre: Dan, Ellen Matilda (Bird) Powell (Grandmother) and Ellen. Front: Tom, Evelyn nursed by Grannie Amy, and Olive

After their return home to Beverley, Daisy became restless and unhappy and decided to leave. Ben, having been brought up as an only child, was thrown into chaos. His brother Bob (Alfred Walter) and wife, Mary (Doohan), came to the rescue taking the two boys Dan and Tom for a time so he could sort himself out. After some time, Daisy returned home and everything returned to normal for a while as they tried to make a go of repairing their marriage. Baby Joy was born 7 Jul 1929 in Wagin. On Fri 2 Aug 1929, Ben put a notice in the West Australian stating he was not responsible for his wife Ellen Daisy Blechynden's debts. Daisy's father had left her a small amount of money and, in October 1929, Daisy contested her Father's Will and received an Annuity of 150 Pounds for life. She returned to Ben and the family in December 1930 only staying for three weeks.

New Call (Perth, WA: 1931 - 1934), Thu 17 Dec 1931, pg 18

MRS. BLECHYNDEN PAYS

In "The New Call" of November 26, was told the story of the difficulties experienced by the Child Welfare Department in getting recognition from Mrs. Blechynden, of Busselton, in the matter of the maintenance of her children. After considerable negotiation, during which Mrs. Blechynden told the department that she did not intend to pay and they could do what they liked about it, she was persuaded to come to court on Monday week, and consented to enter into a bond to pay £5 forthwith and five pounds a month thereafter. So that's that. In connection with this matter, Mr. Blechynden writes from Jacob's Well to make his position in the matter clear. He says that he was never summoned to court for the maintenance of his six children. But because he was not in a position to maintain them, he was advised by Mr. Jacoby, J.P., of Brookton, to have the children committed to the State through the Beverley Children's Court, and this was done. Mr. Blechynden is paying 5/- a week.

Dan and Tom went to The Salvation Army Boys Home in Nedlands and the girls Ellen, Amy, Olive and Evelyn into The Salvation Army Girls Home in Cottesloe. Olive and Evelyn were fostered out from here to a family named McDonald, Olive going on to win a Scholarship and going to Boarding School in Northam. Baby Joy stayed with Daisy. Daisy was required to pay maintenance for their upkeep.

Ben and Daisy divorced in 1937 and Ben continued to work on farms around the Beverley district until he retired at about 70 years of age. He lived with his sister, Evalyn Annie Blechynden, in Hunt Street Beverley until his death in the Beverley Hospital on the 24 Jul 1971 at the age of 80.

1. Dansy Lewis William Blechynden: WX11361. B: 17 Mar 1918 Wagin, Reg: 84 Katanning, D: 5 Mar 1991 Girrawheen. Married Esther Mabel Davenport 9 Feb 1948 Northam. Esther Mabel Blechynden b: 20 Apr 1906, Reg: 205 E Coolgardie: D: 18 Sep 1986. Two children. (Rae Naomi B: 4 Jun 1949 D: 21 Mar 1980). Esther trained as a nurse at Kalgoorlie Regional Hospital & was Matron at Kununoppin 4yrs +, Bruce Rock 2.5 years, Mt Barker 6 years & Southern Cross Hospitals also relieving at several other hospitals. Information from Trove and her daughter, Valma Treen.

Dansy L Blechynden

*Esther M (Davenport)
Blechynden*

*Esther M (Davenport)
Blechynden*

2. Ellen May Peace (Nellie) Blechynden B: 18 Jul 1919 Wagin, Reg: No 147 Katanning: D: 19 Feb 1957 Mullewa. Married (1) Patrick James Yeaman (Div), (2) Arthur Charles Beamont B: 18 Jan 1916, M: 14 May 1947, D: 16 Mar 2010 Geraldton. 1 child Karlene Elizabeth B: 11 Jan 1954: D: 2 Mar 2020.

Arthur, Nell & Karlene Beamont

Nell & Karlene

Karlene Beamont

3. Thomas Albert Baden Blechynden: WX8062 B: 14 Apr 1921 Wagin, Reg No 125 Katanning, D: 5 Aug 1989 Palmyra. M: Ruby Mary Lee (Polly) 30 Dec 1940, Ruby Mary Lee: B: 19 Feb 1921 Quairading Reg: Beverley 33. D: 11 Nov 2005 (4 Children, Thomas Alfred dec) parents M: 25 Dec

1917: Sidney Gordon Lee WX 5242. B: 1891 Wodonga Vic. Reg: 8069/1891: D: 15th Dec 1953 Reg: Broome 30. Thora Jean Antony. B: 3 Aug 1896 Yea Vic. Reg: 32200/1896. D: 28 Sep 1951 Reg Swan: 113. 4 children.

Thomas Albert 'Tom' and Ruby Mary Blechynden. Tom in RSL Band Uniform.

WX 8062 PTE. T. BLECHYNDEN 2/16 BN. A.I.F.
Enl. 16 Aug 40. Dis. 21 Apr 45. W.I.A. Served in Australia, the Middle East and New Guinea.
P.M.G. at Southern Cross.

*Wedding day, 30 Dec 1940
Thomas Albert Baden Blechynden and Ruby
Mary Lee (Polly)*

Thomas Alfred Blechynden

(Thomas Albert and Ruby Mary Blechynden) (circ 1976)
Tom and Ruby (Polly) Blechynden

Polly Blechynden
(circ 1996)

4. Amy Sarah Annie Blechynden: B: 22 Jan 1923 Pingelly Reg: Beverley 33. D: Mandurah 2007. M: Walter Allan McGregor: WX497: 27 Dec 1945. B: 13 Oct Reg: 1551 Perth 1917. D: Mandurah 2002. No children. Sally and Wally fostered several children.

Amy Sarah Annie (nee Blechynden) and Walter Allan McGregor

5. Olive Beatrice Pearl Blechynden: B: Perth 24th Dec 1924, Reg No 3422. D: 4th Mar 1976. M: Patrick John Buckley (1) 4 children. M : (2) Walter Leslie Bird 1964, no children.

Olive Beatrice Pearl Blechynden

Patrick John Buckley

Nell, Tom and Olive Buckley

6. Evelyn Eunice Jessie Blechynden: B: 25th Sep 1926 Reg 199 Beverley: D: 3 Feb 2013 M: (1) Alfred Ware. B: 18th Feb 1925, (York Reg: 14.) D: 30th Sep 2002, 13 children, divorced. M: (2) Herbert George Baker 24th Aug 1980, born 1901, died 1991.

Alfred Ware

Evelyn Ware (nee Blechynden)

Evelyn Ware (nee Blechynden)

*Headstone of Alfred William and Evelyn Ware (nee Blechynden).
Beverley Methodist and Catholic Cemetery*

7. Joy Powell, born 7 Jul 1929 [Reg No 173], Katanning. Died 30 Oct 2005, Albany WA. Married James Alexander Gracie Perth, WA, 1946 [Reg. 1520] B: 21 Oct 1926 Collie WA, [Reg: Wellington 432]. D: 18 Sep 2008 Albany. 8 children.

Joy & Jim Gracie

Jim & Joy Gracie

Olive, Joy & Amy Blechynden

*Evalyn Annie Blechynden, Ellen Daisy Blechynden
holding Tom Blechynden, Ellen & Dan Blechynden in front*

*Left: Dan Blechynden. Right: Tom Blechynden,
Salvation Army Boys Home
circ 1930*

*Ellen Matilda Powell holding
Dansy L Blechynden
(Grandson)*

*Parents & Aunt of Ruby M (Lee)
Blechynden, Sidney G Lee, Mary J
Antony, Thora J Antony, (Bride)*

Tom, Ellen, Dan and Amy Blechynden

DEATH OF BENJAMIN LEWIS BLECHYNDEN

Beverley Times (WA: 1905 - 1977), Sat 31 Jul 1971, pg 7
31 Jul 1971 - Ben Blechynden dies at 80 \(nla.gov.au\)

Ben Blechynden dies at 80

An aged resident who many years ago farmed a small acreage of land in the Morbining area of this district and for years afterwards helped on various district properties, died at the age of 80 on the 24th inst.

He was Mr Ben Blechynden who in the evening of his life has spent much of his time at the residence of his sister, Miss Eva Blechynden of Hunt Rd. Beverley. He was also a frequent visitor to Perth where he had friends and relatives.

The late Mr Blechynden was a member of families which had association, with this district and state from the earliest days and he had records in his possession which dated back to the early forties of the last century.

He was the father of a large family – Dan, Nell (deceased), Tom, Amy (Mrs McGregor), Olive (Mrs Bird) and Ev. (Mrs Ware of Beverley). He was the grandfather of 22 and a great-grandfather of 17. There are two brothers, Bob and Ernie, both well known here.

The funeral took place at the Anglican cemetery on Tuesday . . . and many friends and relatives were in attendance.

*Plaque commemorating Benjamin.
 Old church in the Wagin Historical Village.*

Ben Blechynden dies at 80

An aged resident who many years ago farmed a small acreage of land in the Morbining area of this district, and for years afterwards helped on various district properties, died at the age of 80 on the 24th inst.

He was Mr Ben Blechynden who, in the evening of his life, has spent much of his time at the residence of his sister, Miss Eva Blechynden, of Hunt Rd., Beverley. He was also a frequent visitor to Perth where he had friends and relatives.

The late Mr Blechynden was a member of families which had association with this district and State from the earliest days and he had records in his possession which dated back to the early forties of the last century.

He was the father of a large family — Dan, Nell (deceased), Tom, Amy (Mrs. McGregor), Olive (Mrs Bird), and Ev. (Mrs Ware, of Beverley). He was the grandfather of 22 and a great-grandfather of 17. There are two brothers, Bob and Ernie, both well-known here.

The funeral took place at the Anglican cemetery on Tuesday afternoon, following a service at St. Mary's Church. The Reverend Henry Tassell officiated and many friends and relatives were in attendance.

9. JESSE WILLIAM BLECHYNDEN (1851-1934) & EMMA SARAH DUNHAM (1862-1947)

Jesse William was Harrison and Charlotte Blechynden's ninth child. He was born on 9 Jun 1851 in Beverley.

On 13 Sep 1882, Jesse William married Emma Sarah Dunham in the Anglican Holy Trinity Church at York. He was 31 years of age and she 20.

Together, they went on to have seven children and raised another.

Jesse William passed away on 1 May 1934 at the age of 82, and Emma on 7 Jul 1947 at 84, both in Beverley. They are buried in the Beverley Anglican Cemetery.

.

BLECHYNDEN, JESSE WILLIAM (1851-1934) was born 9 Jun 1851, Beverley, WA [Reg. 1705]. He was the ninth child and seventh son of Harrison Blechynden (1802-1873) and Charlotte Robus (1812-1889). His parents, Harrison Blechynden and Charlotte Robus emigrated from Kent in England to the newly formed Swan River Colony, arriving on the ship Minstrel on 20 Jan 1830. They were married in Perth on 3 Mar 1832.

Their first two children, John born in 1833 and Sarah Harrison born 1841 were born in Perth. Due to changing circumstances, Harrison and Charlotte Blechynden and their two children, John and Sarah travelled by horse and cart over the ranges to 'St Aubyns', in the newly zoned district of Beverley. According to records 'St Aubyns' at this stage had a barracks on the property. It was here where their third child, Elizabeth 'Anne' was born on 19 Mar 1842.

Looking to settle and raise their family Harrison and Charlotte Blechynden leased the property 'Babbyalla', next to 'St Aubyns', where they remained until many years later when Bevan Hamersley inherited the property of 'Babbyalla' Estate and took up residence there in 1888. This can all be found in the individual chapters on Harrison and Charlotte Blechynden

The next seven children, all boys, were born on 'Babbyalla': Henry George born 1843, followed by Jesse William, (his namesake, born in 1845 and who died as a toddler on 1946), Walter Edward born 1846, Charles Edwin born 1848, Thomas Harrison born 1849 and Jesse William born 1851, named after his brother.

At the time of Jesse William's birth his siblings were aged as follows: John 18 years, Sarah 10 years, Elizabeth 9 years, Henry 8 years, Walter 5 years, Charles 3 years and Thomas 21 months. In Feb 1853, number ten child, Joseph, yet another son, was added to the family.

One can imagine it was an unruly household with seven energetic boys. The girls, Sarah and Elizabeth would have been kept very busy helping their mother with basic household chores and keeping the younger ones in order. The children all grew up on 'Babbyalla'. Jesse was too young to have a lot to do with his older brother John who, in 1854, walked to the Blackwood district at the age of 21, guided by friendly Aborigines and acquired two pastoral leases along the Blackwood River.

Jesse was recorded as being eight years in the 1859 Census. 'Babbyalla' by this time was a going concern and his father was busy working from dawn until dusk. The children were given chores around the house and yard from a very early age. They were all taught to ride horses and when old enough progressed to helping their father on the farm. One can imagine they often travelled to the small settlement at Edwards Crossing by horse and cart to visit the new mud bat store and the wheelwright. Jesse was excited and looked forward to taking part when the family travelled each year to attend the Agricultural shows held at York.

Life on the farm and in the surrounding district was busy and as the older children left home, the younger children including Jessie and Joseph had very little formal education. No schools had been established in the district close to 'Babbyalla' and the first one in Beverley was established in 1873 when Jessie was 21 years old.

Jesse was only six years of age when John Blechynden married Elizabeth Green on 23rd of Feb 1860, at St George's Cathedral in Perth. This was possibly his first trip to the big city, which took several days, stopping to overnight on the way. What an adventure.

His sister Elizabeth married Thomas Edwards in March 1862 in the nearby thriving town of York. In 1864, looking to the future and seeking land for themselves, his brothers Walter Edward and Charles Edwin left 'Babbyalla' and walked to Bridgetown to visit their older brother John who was now established with his own home and property.

The children left at 'Babbyalla' were now aged as follows: Sarah 23 years, Henry 21 years, Thomas 16 years, Jesse 13 years and Joseph 11 years. The younger boys now joined their older brother Henry with their father working on the farm. They all put on their best clothes when his sister Sarah married John Henry Markham Page in November 1867 in York. Jesse was now aged 16 years of age and working as hard as his father at the multitude of farming tasks on the property.

Another chance to dress up and celebrate was the occasion when Charles Edwin married Caroline Mary Davies in Apr 1872 at the nearby St Paul's Church in Beverley. Henry George Blechynden took up land at Mr. Kokeby, the property being known as 'Erindale', across the other side of the Avon River from 'Babbyalla'.

However, life was about to change dramatically for the family when their father Harrison Blechynden died on the 17th Jul 1873, aged 71 years. It was a sad day when the funeral took place at St Paul's Church, Edwards Crossing and he was laid to rest at the Edwards Crossing Cemetery, Beverley. Life had to continue on, Thomas Harrison, Jesse and Joseph together with their mother, working the farm at 'Babbyalla'. Jesse's mother Charlotte was aged 61 years, Henry George was now aged 30 years, Thomas 24 years, Jesse 22 years and Joseph 20 years.

Soon after his father's death, Walter Edward Blechynden married Jane Needs in Oct 1873 in the Picton Anglican Church, Bunbury. Henry was married in York 27 May 1874 to Mary Ann Reilly.

Thomas 'Harrison' married Annie Maria Dunham in Sep 1877 in the Anglican Church, Northam. Annie's sister Emma Sarah was just 15 years of age. Perhaps it was at the wedding when she caught the eye of Harrison's brother Jesse. Spending time with his brother and new wife Annie Marie, Jesse began to court her sister Emma Sarah Dunham.

At the age of 31 years, JESSE WILLIAM BLECHYNDEN (1851-1934) was married in the Holy Trinity Church York to EMMA SARAH DUNHAM (1862-1947), 13 Sep 1882 WA [Reg. No 5431]. Emma Sarah was aged 20 years.

No.	When and where Married	Name and Signature	Age or about the age of 21 years	Condition	Rank or Profession	Residence at the time of Marriage	Father's Name and Residence	Rank or Profession of Father
1002	Sept 13 1882	Jesse William Blechynden	31	Bachelor	Farmer	Beverley	Blechynden	Farmer
281	Sept 13 1882	Emma Sarah Dunham	20	Spinster		York	Dunham	Farmer
Married in the Parish Church, with consent of Parents after Banns by me, after 21th according to the rites and ceremonies of the Church of England duly made as by Law required. This Marriage was solemnized between us } Jesse W. Blechynden & Emma Sarah Dunham } in the presence of } Joseph Blechynden & W. H. Jones

Copy of marriage certificate for Jessie William Blechynden and Emma Sarah Dunham.
Courtesy Tracey Currigan

This was a double wedding, celebrated with Emma's older brother, LEWIS JAMES DUNHAM (1857-1914) whose bride was LOUISA JANE YOUNG (1859-1944) [Reg. 5430].

Brothers, Thomas and Jesse Blechynden married sisters Anna Maria and Emma Sarah Dunham. One can imagine it was a joyous occasion as many members of both families attended.

DUNHAM, EMMA SARAH (1862-1947)

Emma Sarah Dunham was born 13 Aug 1862, York, WA [Reg. 6700]. Father WILLIAM DUNHAM (1815-1884), mother, CAROLINE PORLEY (1823-1897), (m.2), WA [Reg. 6700]. Emma was the sister of Annie Maria who married Jesse's brother, Thomas Harrison Blechynden. Emma's birth also recorded as 13 Oct 1862, possibly christening. Emma died 1947, Beverley, WA [Reg. 22].

*Emma Sarah Dunham.
Courtesy Mary Coulthard*

Note: To avoid repetition, for a more extensive view of Emma and Annie Dunham's parents' William Dunham (1815-1884) and Caroline Wright (nee Porley) (1823-1897) and family, go to the preceding chapter on Thomas Harrison Blechynden (1849-1933) and Annie Marie Dunham (1850-1932).

CAROLINE PORLEY (1823-1898). Discrepancy: Family researchers have Caroline Porley as being born in 1823, others in 1824.

Emma's mother, Caroline Porley, was born 1823, baptised 4 May 1824, Layham, Suffolk, England, daughter of THOMAS PAWLY/PORLEY (1799-1839) and SARAH CHRISP JACKAMAN (1797-1882) who were married 25 Dec 1822, Layham, Suffolk, England. They arrived in the Colony of WA, 23 Aug 1829 per Marquis of Anglesea. Caroline Dunham (Wright nee Porley) died 9 Jul 1897, York, WA [Reg. 2763], aged 74 years. Note: The spelling of the surname of Thomas and his father John varies from Pawly/Pawley to Porley. Caroline's father Thomas appears to have gone by the spelling of Porley on his emigration voyage and in some histories, researchers have his name as Thomas Harrison Porley.

Caroline's father, Emma's grandfather, THOMAS PAWLY/ PORLEY (1799-1839) was born 21 Sep 1799, Layham, Suffolk, England. He was baptised 20 Oct 1799, Layham, Suffolk, England. Parents: JOHN PAWLY (1784-1847) and MARY COOPER (~1767-). Thomas Porley died 18 May 1839, Swan River Colony, Perth, WA.

SARAH CHRISP JACKAMAN (1797-1882). Many researchers have Sarah Crisp Jackoman/Jackaman born in 1796. Family records have her as being born in 1797.

Caroline's mother, Emma's grandmother, SARAH CHRISP JACKAMAN (1797-1882) was born 26 Oct 1796/1797, Raydon, Suffolk, England. Bapt. 18 Nov 1796, Raydon, Suffolk, England. FHL Film number:

919628, year as recorded. The family birthday book currently owned by Mary Coulthard has her birth year as 1797. Sarah's parents: ROBERT JACKERMAN (1772-) and SARAH CHRISP (1773-) were married 18 Nov 1796, Raydon, Suffolk, England. FHL Film number: 919628. Spelling of names as recorded. Sarah Chrisp Porley (nee Jackaman) died 17 Oct 1882 in York, WA [Reg. 11610], aged 85 years.

Caroline Dunham (nee Porley) and her mother Sarah Porley (nee Jackaman). Courtesy Mary Coulthard

Thomas Porley (1799-1839) and Sarah Chrisp Jackaman (1797-1882) had two children: Caroline and Ambrose, both born in Layham, Suffolk, England. More details about them following.

Thomas Porley (1799-1839) and Sarah Chrisp Jackaman (1797-1882) and their two children: Caroline and Ambrose, arrived 23 Aug 1829, Swan River Colony (Perth), WA, via the ship:

Marquis of Anglesea, departure Port London/Plymouth 94 panel. Bonded servants to R Partridge.

Marquis of Anglesea (1815 ship): Marquis of Anglesea \(1815 ship\) - Wikipedia

Per Wikipedia: Marquis of Anglesea arrived at the Swan River Colony on 23 Aug 1829. Although she was anchored at Gage Roads, some distance from Cockburn Sound and Fremantle, she landed her 90 settlers, 14 troops, and almost all of her cargo. She was the sixth vessel to arrive at the Colony. A gale drove Marquis of Anglesea ashore on 4 September 1829, wrecking her beyond repair. However, she did not break up, as had been expected. Instead, the colony found several uses for her. She had been condemned and sold for £180 to George Leake. He turned around and leased her to the government for £100 per year. She then was variously the Governor's residence when he visited Fremantle, the Harbour Master's office, the Post Office, a colonial gaol, and a prison ship for refractory servants. She was 's first prison hulk. A storm finally destroyed her some three years later.

Swan River Penal Colony – ABC

Swan River penal colony - ABC News \(Australian Broadcasting Corporation\)

A Panorama of the Swan River Settlement; detail showing beached Marquis of Anglesea, water colour drawing, 1830-1832. Mitchell Library, State Library of NSW. ML 827

AMBROSE PORLEY (1826-1842), Sarah and Thomas Porley's second child, was born ~1826, Layham, Suffolk, England. In the General muster book, Swan River Colony at the end of 1829, Ambrose was recorded as being four years and his sister Caroline seven years. The 1832 Census records his age as six. Swan River Colony 1832 Census #461. In 1840, he was granted land in Fee Simple in Perth being Lot O 11. More details further on. The Welcome Walls have Ambrose being born in 1824 and dying in 1842, aged 16 years.

Ambrose Porley died 1842, WA [Reg. 20]. Record in East Perth Cemetery - Buried 25 Jan 1842, aged 16, died from Mortification (Gangrene). Search Database - East Perth Cemeteries

The Dictionary of Western Australians, pre-1829-1888, compiled by Rica Erickson:

<http://www.friendsofbattleylibrary.org.au/the-bicentennial-dictionary-of-western-australians.html>

According to records in the above, after their arrival, Thomas and Sarah Porley had two more children.

PORLEY. Thomas. b. 1799. d. 18.5.1839. arr. 23.8.1829 per Marquis of Anglesea with wife & 2 chd. m. (UK) Sarah JACKAMAN b. 1803 d. 17.10.1882 (York). Chd. Caroline b. 1822/3 d. 1897. Ambrose b. 1825, Harriet b. 1831 (Perth) d. ? 1831 / 2, George Ambrose b. 1833 d. 1842. Of yeoman stock, they came as servants of R. A. Partridge. Made a living as a butcher (1837 Census). His widow visited VIC 24 Dec 1854 per Vivid.

Discrepancy: In the Dictionary there is mention of George Ambrose Porley b. 1833 d. 1842 in WA. but no mention of the death of Ambrose Porley born in England, WA Registrations has a record for the death of Ambrose Porley, 1842, aged 9 years WA [Reg. 20]. Ambrose born in England would have been 16 years and this is recorded in his burial records. I cannot find a death for George Ambrose in the Western Australian Registration for Deaths. If this was the registration for George Ambrose, he would have been nine years of age. It appears there may have been a bit of confusion by the person registering the death. Did both Ambrose and George die in 1842? I can find no further mention of George Ambrose, (note the duplication of Ambrose in the name). It is all a bit of a puzzle. Were they the same person?

Thomas Porley owned a butcher shop on Town Lot G3, St George's Terrace, Perth (Westralia Square). Thomas Porley died accidentally 1839, Perth (Ed. His death is outlined in comprehensive detail in Thomas Harrison and Annie Maria Blechynden's section). Sarah Porley (nee Jackaman) died in York, 1882, aged 82 years. WA [Reg. 11610].

Surmising: Further to Thomas's butcher shop mentioned above, Harrison Blechynden also had property E3 close to this area and from newspaper articles, they were known to one another as recorded in the chapter on Harrison Blechynden during his time following his arrival in the Swan River Colony. Perhaps Thomas Porley butchered the meat supplied by Harrison Blechynden and William Brockman, via 'Herne Hill'. Perhaps Harrison and Thomas Porley worked together as butchers, even in the same shop.

The following article provides an interesting account of George Grey's exploration in 1841 where Thomas Porley is referred to. Follow the link if you want further references:

Daily News (Perth, WA: 1882 - 1950), Sat 22 Jun 1935, pg 18

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/article/84177323?searchTerm=Barron%20v%20Porley>

Early Justice in This State

REVEALED IN OLD COURT RECORDS - How Criminals were Treated (By Alec Gollan)

From the books and documents which record the earliest court proceedings in WA, and which were recently rediscovered in the vaults of the Supreme Court buildings, can be gleaned many interesting and historic facts. A few of them are detailed here:

... Edward Barron, a victualler, of Perth; was one of many orators who started his Bill of Complaint with the formula of "humbly complaining

Edward Barron, a victualler, of Perth, was one of many orators who started his Bill of Complaint with the formula of "humbly complaining sheweth unto your honor." He told in his plaint that Thomas Porley, a kangaroo shooter, had sold a block of land in Adelaide-terrace for £5 to John Hosier, a laborer; that Hosier had built a dwelling upon it and had made other improvements; that Hosier had had a judgment secured against him by Sir Charles Wyndham Burdett, a baronet; that as Hosier had not been able to discharge his liability to the baronet the latter had sold him up; that at a public auction of the seized property he (Barron) had offered £20 and that bid had been accepted, and that Porley refused to give him possession of the property.

It does not matter who won the suit, but property owners and others will be interested to know that it was possible at one time to purchase land in Adelaide-terrace with a house built upon it for £20.

sheweth unto your Honor". He told in his plaint that Thomas Porley, a kangaroo shooter, had sold a block of land in Adelaide-terrace for £5 to John Hosier, a laborer; that Hosier had built a dwelling upon it and had made other improvements; that Hosier, had a judgment secured against him by Sir Charles Wyndham Burdett, a baronet; that as Hosier had not been able to discharge his liability to the baronet the latter had sold him up; that at a public auction of the seized property he (Barron) had offered £20 and that bid had been accepted, and that Porley refused to give him possession of the property.

It does not matter who won the suit, but property owners and others will be interested to know that it was possible at one time to purchase land in Adelaide-terrace with a house built upon it for £20.

TWO EXPEDITIONS OF DISCOVERY IN NORTH-WEST AND WA, DURING THE YEARS 1837-39

<https://www.cambridge.org/core/books/journals-of-two-expeditions-of-discovery-in-northwest-and-western-australia-during-the-years-1837-38-and-39/CB3B97510A7E9D70FDB029C428D2493F>

Chapter 4: From Gairdner's Range to Perth HOSPITABLE RECEPTION BY THEM.

... Anxious questions were put by the men as to their distance from Perth, and the natives all told them they would see it the next morning, "whilst the sun was still small;" and on further enquiry it turned out that a kangaroo hunter of the name of Porley was at a hut distant only seven miles from us, and according to the account of the natives he had a supply of provisions with him. . .

IMBAT'S NOTIONS. My intentions in going on were to have everything prepared for the men on their arrival at the hut; but when I reached it, I found it deserted, the owner having returned to Perth. . .

Sarah Porley, Kangaroo dogs for sale -May 1840.

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/article/638660?searchTerm=Porley>

TO BE SOLD, TWO YOUNG KANGAROO DOGS, 14 months old, apply to S. PORLEY, Perth. May 28, 1840.

Colonial Secretary's Office, Perth,
December 2, 1840.
DEEDS OF GRANT.

NOTICE is hereby given that the undermentioned Deeds of Grant in Fee Simple of Crown Lands and Town Allotments, have passed the Executive Council, and are now ready for delivery at this Office.

Joseph Ellis,	part of Perth	V	24
David Ward,	Perth lot	L	23
Thomas Salkild,	do.	S	25
George Cheyne,	Albany sub.	A	3
Do,	do. lot	S	14
Hugh Macdonald,	do.		84
Thos. Millard,	Guildford lot		4
George Cheyne,	Albany lot	S	16
R. M. Brown,	Freemantle		639
W. S. & L. Burges,	Perth lot	D	1
James Drummond,	do.	L	57
John Mason,	Albany		54
Peter Belcher,	do.	B	5
Samuel Moore,	Perth	C	2
George Cheyne,	Albany	S	20
T. B. Sheratt,	do.	B	20
Do,	do.	B	50
Mark Head,	Perth	L	87
Hugh Macdonald,	Albany	S	39
W. S. & L. Burges,	Perth	S	23
Ambrose Porley,	do.	O	11
James Drummond,	do.	L	58
George Cheyne,	Albany	B	18
T. B. Sheratt,	do.		170
Hugh Macdonald,	do.	S	37
Ann Watson,	Perth	V	6
Richard Hinds,	do.	L	234
Wm. Turner,	Freemantle		280
Do,	Perth sub.	No.	10
Lionel Samson,	Freemantle sub.		O
T. B. Sheratt,	Albany		172

By His Excellency's command,
PETER BROWN.

Perth Gazette and Western Australian Journal (WA: 1833 - 1847), Sat 5 Dec 1840, pg 4

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/article/642531?searchTerm=Porley>

Colonial Secretary's Office, Perth, December 2, 1840. DEEDS OF GRANT.

NOTICE is hereby given that the undermentioned Deeds of Grant in Fee Simple of Crown Lands and Town Allotments . . .

Ambrose Porley Perth Deed of Grant of town allotment O 11.
(Sadly, Ambrose died two years later).

Perth Gazette and Western Australian Journal (WA: 1833 - 1847), Sat 10 May 1845, pg 2

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/article/645871?searchTerm=Porley>

SHERIFF'S OFFICE.
Perth, 8th May 1845
In the Civil Court,
George Green v. Edmund Wright,
Peninsular, near Perth.

ON Thursday, the 15th instant, at 12 at noon, the Sheriff will cause to be offered for sale by public auction, on the premises of Mrs. Porley, at the Peninsular, near Perth, the following goods and chattels (unless they are previously sold by private contract, or the above execution be satisfied), viz.:—

Two cows in milk, a bull calf, three horses, two saddles, leader and wheel cart harness, two martingales, three collars and sundry pieces of harness, a lot of old iron, a cart; household furniture, consisting of chairs, tables, sofa, bedsteads and bedding, &c; a double barrel gun, writing desk, nine wine glasses, pair salts, sugar basin, two punch bowls, jugs, workbox, tea caddy, sundry books, telescope, sundry crockery, knives and forks, spoons, plates, chimney ornaments, shells, a quantity of men's and women's wearing apparel, piece of carpet, a cradle, tea trays, fruit basket, two saws, bridle, pair stirrups, gambol, milk tins and dishes, set of weights and scales, nine bottles of mustard, kitchen utensils, lamps, oil can, sundry tools, washtubs, beetle and wedge, and sundry other articles.

SHERIFF'S OFFICE.
Perth, 8th May, 1845.
In the Civil Court,—
GEORGE GREEN v. EDMUND WRIGHT,
Peninsular, near Perth.

ON Thursday, the 15th instant, at 12 at noon, the Sheriff will cause to be offered for sale by public auction, on the premises of Mrs. Porley, at the Peninsular, near Perth, the following goods and chattels (unless they are previously sold by private contract, or the above execution be satisfied), viz.:—

Two cows in milk, a bull calf, three horses, two saddles, leader and wheel cart harness, two martingales, three collars and sundry pieces of harness, a lot of old iron, a cart; household furniture, consisting of chairs, tables, sofa, bedsteads and bedding, &c.; a double barrel gun, writing desk, nine wine glasses, pair salts, sugar basin, two punch bowls, jugs, workbox, tea caddy, sundry books, telescope, sundry crockery, knives and forks, spoons, plates, chimney ornaments, shells, a quantity of men's and women's wearing apparel, piece of carpet, a cradle, tea trays, fruit basket, two saws, bridle, pair stirrups, gambol, milk tins and dishes, set of weights and scales, nine bottles of mustard, kitchen utensils, lamps, oil can, sundry tools, washtubs, beetle and wedge, and sundry other articles.

GEO. FRED. STONE,
Sheriff.

Note: Surmising: The Peninsular was in South Perth. George Green was the father of Elizabeth Green who married John Blechynden. George Green was involved in the building of many of the earliest prominent buildings in Perth. Thomas Porley died from an accident in 1839. Mrs Porley was Thomas Porley's wife, Sarah Chrisp (nee Jackaman) (1797-1882), who was still alive at the time of this article, 1845. She died in 1882 in York. Their daughter Caroline Porley who was single, married Edmund Wright in 1841. It is highly likely Sarah Porley following her husband's death, perhaps due to arrears following his death, was forced via the sheriff's office to sell their home items to pay the bills.

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/article/65770942?searchTerm=Porley>
Inquirer (Perth, WA: 1840 - 1855), Wed 12 May 1847, pg. 3

The Committee of the Western Australian Mining Company in account with the Shareholders.

S. Porley, horse-hire £1.4s

Note: Sarah Porley (nee Jackaman) was the wife of Thomas Porley (1799-1839)

The Committee of the Western Australian Mining Company in account with the Shareholders.
Dr.	£	s. d.
To balance as per account passed 31 Mch. 1847	830	9 10
—
Cr.	£	s. d.
Thomas, 6 weeks' wages to the 29th March	9	0 0
C. Von Biers, harness, saddle and bridle	10	2 0
H. L. Cole, sinking in shaft and cartage	21	4 0
Mangles & Co., sundries	1	7 0
T. Clayer, making tent, saddle-bags, &c.	2	18 0
S. Porley, horse-hire	1	4 0
Francisco, horse	16	16 0
Dr. Von Sommer, 1 month's salary to 15th April	8	6 8
J. W. Gregory, 1 month's ditto to 4th April	5	0 0
S. P. Phillips, horse	10	0 0
Secretary, petty disbursements	5	0 0
C. King, making windlass, buckets, &c.	10	13 6
E. Stirling, advertisements in Inquirer	1	15 0
L. Samson, Paxton's account for crucibles, &c.	3	0 7
Habgood, sundries	6	13 11
Shenton, hay and ditto	5	0 8
J. W. Gregory, 1 month's salary to 4th May	5	0 0
By balance	703	8 6
	£830	9 10

Perth Gazette and Western Australian Journal (WA: 1833 - 1847), Sat 4 Jun 1842, pg 2
<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/article/643602?searchTerm=Porley>

This is an extract from a larger item regarding an 1842 horse race. The colony was still in its infancy then. Readers might like to look up the article.

Porley's Grey, aged, Wright 2 2

Surmising: Thomas Porley died in 1839. His daughter Caroline married Edmund Wright in 1841. The article was written in June 1842. As Porley's Grey was entered as aged, it is likely he was originally owned by Thomas Porley and entered by Caroline's husband Edmund Wright.

After this, the Officer's purse of £20 was run for, and won by Heard's Napoleon. Mr. Hamersley withdrew Lucifer; Mr. Bruckman's Lady Emma was also withdrawn. Porley's Grey, hitherto the winner of all stakes, entered as aged, did his work well, and gave Napoleon some trouble to compete with him. In this race all the horses were of Colonial breed, and Napoleon decidedly the favorite—

After this, the Officer's purse of £20 was run for, and won by Heard's Napoleon. Mr. Hamersley withdrew Lucifer; Mr. Brockman's Lady Emma was also with-drawn. Porley's Grey, hitherto the winner of all stakes, entered as aged, did his work well, and gave Napoleon some trouble to compete with him. In this race all the horses were of Colonial breed, and Napoleon decidedly the favorite—

Napoleon, 4 years. old,	Heard,	1 1
Homicide, 4 "	H. Samson,	4 3
Screwery, 2 "	Phillips,	dist.
Jack, 4 "	Cole,	dist.
Nelson, 4 "	Chipper,	dist.
Porley's Grey, aged,	Wright,	2 2

Napoleon, 4 yrs. old,	Heard,	1 1
Homicide, 4 "	H. Samson,	4 3
Screwery, 2 "	Phillips,	dist.
Jack, 4 "	Cole,	dist.
Nelson, 4 "	Chipper,	dist.
Porley's Grey, aged,	Wright,	2 2

The Ladies' purse, £25, was reserved for a future occasion, there being but two horses entered for this stake, Mr. Yule's

SUMMARY OF PART OF A SIX PAGE DIARY WRITTEN BY EMMA SARAH DUNHAM IN 1922, DAUGHTER OF m. 2 CAROLINE PORLEY (1823-1897) AND WILLIAM DUNHAM (1852-1852):

Grandmother of Emma Sarah Blechynden – Sarah Chrisp Jackaman born 26 Oct 1797 married Thomas Porley about the year 1822. Carolyn Porley, daughter, born May 1823 (Ed. 1824) in England, Ambrose Porley, son of the above, Ambrose died when he was 16 years old in WA. Caroline Porley married Edmund Wright when she was seventeen years of age in 1841. Emma Amelia Wright born 28 May 1841, Hellen (sic) Jane Wright born Apr 27, 1843 and Alfred Ambrose Wright born - daughters and son of Edmund and Caroline.

Emma Amelia Wright married Richard Gamble Boyce Meares about 1857 they had four sons one died in infancy and the third died about 1883. George Goldsmith Meares and Seymour Boyce Gamble Meares are still living this is the year 1923. Richard Gamble Boyce Meares husband of Emma Amelia Meares died about 1867. In the year 1889 Emma Amelia Meares married Edmund Stirling who died in the year 1897. Emma Amelia Stirling died May 17th, 1923.

Edmund Wright drowned while crossing the Canning River with some cattle. Caroline Wright widow of Edmund Wright married William Dunham in 1850.

TRANSLATION FROM PART OF THE SIX PAGE DIARY WRITTEN BY EMMA SARAH DUNHAM IN 1922:

Just on the outskirts of the town of York, there stands a house built by a small farmer named William Dunham. Sometime in the year 1849 or a few years before perhaps but in 1850 he married (Mrs. Caroline Wright) a widow with three children two daughters and a son. Emma Amelia Wright who when she was only sixteen married Richard G.B. Meares. She had four sons. She is now living at Pool Street York and her first son died while a baby, her second G.G. Meares is living at Bridgetown, he has a large family of girls and two sons who are both married and reside near Bridgetown. Richard her third son died some few years ago – married M.A. Morgan her fourth son S.B. Meares lives in Greenhill's, he is married and has got 4 boys and two girls. Dorothy, Boyce, Richard, Thomas, Milly and Alf. Helen Jane Wright when she was seventeen married Charles Quartermaine, she had one daughter who died in infancy and two sons who both are now residing near Wagin, Edmond and Arthur. Helen died at Wagin in 1917 her two sons are married, and both have families. Edmund married Louisa Tondut and Arthur married Lily Tondut. Edmund's children, Albert, Ethel, Clarence, Horace, Maud, Levinia and Edmund Quartermaine.

Arthur's children Arnold, Alice and Olive, Alice and Arnold both married. Alfred Ambrose Wright married when he was twenty-one, he had four sons and two daughters their names are Henry E Wright (not married), Emily (now Mrs. Walter Sexton), George A Wright, Amy (Mrs. Eastcott) now dead, William and Arthur Wright. Emily Sexton's childrens names are Frank killed in action, Ivy now (Mrs. A. Quartermaine), April and Ruby. Now I must go back to continue about my late Father and Mother William and Caroline Dunham of Brocklesby near York, they married in 1850 and first came to live in our old home that is now over seventy-two years ago. My eldest sister Annie Maria Dunham was born in the old home which has undergone some alterations since then. She is now almost 72 years old, then came my brother William who died in infancy when only nine days old. My brother George William was born on June 27th 1855,...

This is a copy of Annie's writing 20th 1914
 I am on the outskirts of the town of York Western Division.
 There stands a house built by a small farmer named William ~~of~~ Dunham some time in the year 1850 or a few years before perhaps but in 1850 he married a widow with three or four children two daughters and one son Emma Amelia Wright who when she was only sixteen married Richard 4th Meers she had four sons, she is now living at Park Street York, and her first son died while a baby her second 4th Meers is living at Bridgeton he has a large family of girls and two sons who are both married and live near Bridgeton, Richard her 3rd son died some few years ago, married her fourth son 8th Meers lives at Greenhills he is married and has got 4 boys and two girls Dorothy, Joyce, Richard, Thomas, Milly and Chas. Eden Jane Wright when she was seventeen married Charles Quartermaine she had one daughter who died in infancy, and two sons who both are now near to my house Edwin and Arthur, Alice died at Wigan in 1914, her two sons are married and both have families, Edwin married Louise London and Arthur married Lily London grandfather of Emma & Blechynden born later 1914, Sarah Crisp Jackson married Thomas Berley about the year 1880 over leaf .....unfortunately, the end of the letter.

JESSE and EMMA had seven children of their own as follows. Due to the circumstances outlined, when he was six years of age, Ernest Dunham (1878-1959), was also taken in and raised by Jesse and Emma. More details on this in their individual sections.

1. FREDERICK WILLIAM BLECHYNDEN (1883-1917),
2. IDA MAY BLECHYNDEN (1888-1961),
3. BENJAMIN LEWIS BLECHYNDEN (1891-1971),
4. ALFRED WALTER 'BOB' BLECHYNDEN (1894-1976),
5. EVELYN ANNIE BLECHYNDEN (1896-1982) (Twin),
6. GEORGE SEYMOUR BLECHYNDEN 1896-1896) (Twin), and
7. HORACE ERNEST BLECHYNDEN (1899-1955).

5th, 2nd and 4th children of Jesse William Blechynden and Emma Sara (Dunham):
 Evelyn Annie (Eva), Ida May (standing) and Alfred Walter Blechynden

Jesse William Blechynden was a Beverley farmer. He signed their marriage certificate with a X. Being born in 1851, Jesse had very little or no schooling. No schools had been established in the district and the first one in Beverley was established about 1872. The following article found in Trove is written with very strong feeling and emotion. Perhaps he had someone scribe it for him.

West Australian (Perth, WA: 1879 - 1954), Tue 17 Jul 1883, pg 2

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article2989156.txt>

THE LABOUR QUESTION.

To the Editor of the West Australian.

Sir, -In your issue of the 26th June appears a letter signed "Labourer", upon the immigration question. As you have given space in your columns for "Labourers" remarks and your own, you will, with, equal justice to me as an employer, publish my reply. In the first paragraph of your correspondent's letter, he complains of the want of proper house accommodation provided for farm servants and others employed in the country. I challenge "Labourer" to point out one single instance where the men servants are 'compelled' to seek their own lodgings, or lie down like a pig or a dog. I can scarcely descend to notice such untruthful and contemptible remarks. There are exceptional cases where servants sleep in barns or stables and are found in the morning comfortably wrapped up in their master's sacks and wool bags. Instances may be mentioned where they sleep in the straw of the barn yard during the summer months, not from necessity, but from choice, and experience no ill effects from exposure in this genial climate of Western Australia. Your correspondent must be suffering from mental haziness. Does he suppose the intending immigrant would be afraid to come here, where he might do better than at home, because there were no quarters for him to live in when employed in the country? This would be a difficulty easily got over, nor do I think it calls for any legislative enactment to remedy the evil complained of. Such immigrants certainly would not be a very desirable body of men, especially when we remember, "He tempereth the winds to the shorn lamb." Nor would such men be likely to "leave their footprints on the sands of time."

I have now done with your correspondent's letter, and will devote a few words to a truthful version of our real position. Labour is very scarce, however, but this is not due to the causes mentioned by your correspondent. All kinds of labour are both scarce and dear, as you already know through your numerous correspondents from other parts of the colony. In a tour through this district during the ploughing season the want of labour was painfully visible to me. On some large farms I noticed one or two boys engaged in ploughing, where, some years ago, I have seen twenty men at work, and where you will now see more empty men's cottages than hands. This is not a solitary case; many others might be mentioned.

It must be most flattering to Mr. Padbury to hear that he is the only settler who provides proper lodgings for his hands, and to be held up as an example. Your correspondent is also in error when he states that work of a permanent nature is not obtainable. I hope he will suggest some means of getting us out of our present difficulties. I will not refer your readers to your office for my name, but will fearlessly sign myself,

Yours obediently,

JESSE BLECHYNDEN.

Wellington District, July 16th.

THE LABOUR QUESTION.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE WEST AUSTRALIAN.

SIR,—In your issue of the 26th June appears a letter signed "Labourer," upon the immigration question. As you have given space in your columns for "Labourers" remarks and your own, you will, with equal justice to me as an employer, publish my reply. In the first paragraph of your correspondent's letter, he complains of the want of proper house accommodation provided for farm servants and others employed in the country. I challenge "Labourer" to point out one single instance where the men servants are compelled to seek their own lodgings, or lie down like a pig or a dog. I can scarcely descend to notice such untruthful and contemptible remarks. There are exceptional cases where servants sleep in barns or stables, and are found in the morning comfortably wrapped up in their master's sacks and wool bags. Instances may be mentioned where they sleep in the straw of the barn yard during the summer months, not from necessity, but from choice, and experience no ill effects from exposure in this genial climate of Western Australia. Your correspondent must be suffering from mental haziness. Does he suppose the intending immigrant would be afraid to come here, where he might do better than at home, because there were no quarters for him to live in when employed in the country? This would be a difficulty easily got over, nor do I think it calls for any legislative enactment to remedy the evil complained of. Such immigrants certainly would not be a very desirable body of men, especially when we remember, "He tempereth the winds to the shorn lamb." Nor would such men be likely to "leave their footprints on the sands of time."

I have now done with your correspondent's letter, and will devote a few words to a truthful version of our real position. Labour is very scarce, however, but this is not due to the causes mentioned by your correspondent. All kinds of labour are both scarce and dear, as you already know through your numerous correspondents from other parts of the colony. In a tour through this district during the ploughing season the want of labour was painfully visible to me. On some large farms I noticed one or two boys engaged in ploughing, where, some years ago, I have seen twenty men at work, and where you will now see more empty men's cottages than hands. This is not a solitary case; many others might be mentioned.

It must be most flattering to Mr. Padbury to hear that he is the only settler who provides proper lodgings for his hands, and to be held up as an example. Your correspondent is also in error when he states that work of a permanent nature is not obtainable. I hope he will suggest some means of getting us out of our present difficulties. I will not refer your readers to your office for my name, but will fearlessly sign myself,

Yours obediently,

JESSE BLECHYNDEN.
Wellington District, July 16th.

POSTAL DIRECTORIES

<https://www.slwa.wa.gov.au/explore-discover/wa-heritage/post-office-directories>

1895 Jesse Blechynden Labourer

Beverley Times (WA: 1905 - 1977), Thu 28 Nov 1974, pg 6

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article202743007.txt>

In this article there is mention of Police Constable Thomas Edwards in 1881, visiting the station, claimed by Jess Blechynden.

AS IT WAS . . .

The following items, culled from the diary kept by Police Constable Thomas Edwards -Beverley's first police officer have been supplied by Mr H. T. (Bubs) Edwards. Readers will no doubt appreciate this peep at some early history of our district. The extracts read:

August 22nd, 1881: Left station at 1.00p.m. for bush in search of native "Toby" having received information he was in the neighbourhood of Hancock's and Fleay's. . .

. . . Now at the station, claimed by Jesse Blechynden. October 18th, 1881: Patrolling district and arrested aboriginal native "Yowan" on warrant charged with spearing aboriginal native woman "Amoo" through the thigh — Also took in "Amoo's" man "Weerell" as witness. October 31st, 1881: Left the station for York at 7a.m...

Jesse William
Blechynden. Courtesy
Mary Coulthard

Electoral Roll:

1910 Jesse William Blechynden, Farmers paddock, East Beverley, contractor, Emma Sarah Blechynden, Salt Spring, housekeeper.

1913, 1917, 1925, 1931 Jesse William Blechynden, Mt Kokeby, farm assistant, Emma Sarah Blechynden, Bellbelling, Beverley, housekeeper.

1935 Emma Sarah Blechynden, Bellbelling, Beverley, housekeeper.

Jesse William Blechynden (1851-1934) died 1 May 1934 in Beverley, WA. (Age 82 years). Buried May 1934, Anglican section, Beverley Cemetery, WA

Funeral

The funeral of the late Mr. Jesse Blechynden took place in the Anglican Cemetery, Beverley on Wednesday of last week. The Rev Jones Evans, of Brookton was the officiating Clergyman and a number of relatives and friends of the deceased identity gathered at the graveside. Funeral arrangements were carried out by Mr. E. H. Fairhead. Wreaths were received from the following: Wife and family, Will and Arthur, Fred and

Funeral.

The funeral of the late Mr. Jesse Blechynden took place in the Anglican Cemetery, Beverley, on Wednesday of last week. The Rev. Jones Evans, of Brookton, was the officiating clergyman and a number of the relatives and friends of the deceased identity gathered at the graveside. Funeral arrangements were carried out by Mr. E. H. Fairhead. Wreaths were received from the following:

Wife and family, Will and Arthur, Fred and Vera, Dorothy, Clarie, Mollie and Sylvia, Ernie and Ida and family, Freddy and Emily, Kathleen, Mr. and Mrs. Onslow Smith and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bubs Grover and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Grover and family, Vera, Dorothy, Clarrie, Mossie and Sylvia, Ernie and Ida and family, Freddy and Emily, Kathleen, Mr. and Mrs. Onslow Smith and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bubs Grover and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Grover and family.

Headstone of Jesse William Blechynden,
Anglican section, Beverley Cemetery.

Fob Watch chain which belonged to Jessie William Blechynden and was handed down to Mary Coulthard.

Via Mary Coulthard:

Sarah was blind later in life. She used to position herself in the middle of her house so that she knew when visitors were there and could have a chat and keep up to date with what was happening in the family. I remember Mum telling me that she and Dad went to visit Emma Sarah, if anyone walked through, she would collar them! "Who's that! who's that?" Mum (Polly) who had not been told this, was "collared! Why didn't I ask her what they chatted about???"

The Late Mrs E. S. Blechynden
DAUGHTER OF PIONEERS

Brief reference was made in last issue to the passing at the Beverley Hospital of Mrs Emma Sarah Blechynden, mother of a family of sons and daughters well-known in this district, and widow of the late J W Blechynden, who was born in the district and was one of the early day sandal wood carters. The late Mrs Blechynden, who was 84 years of age at the time of her demise, was born in York; being the youngest daughter of the late William and Caroline Dunham. Before he began farming operations in the York district her father was for a period the mail contractor and coach driver between Guildford and York. She was married at the age of 20 and came to Beverley where she lived for the remainder of her days, the greater part of the time being spent in the Morbining area. She had been ill for a lengthy period and her death occurred within a few days of her admission to hospital.

The deceased citizen's family comprises: Ida (Mrs E Jackson, Main Camp), Ben (Southern Cross) Alfred (Morbining), Eva (Beverley) and Ernest (Morbining). She is also survived by a number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren. The funeral took place at the Methodist Cemetery on July 9th, after a service at the Church. The Rev. McNair officiated and the arrangements were carried out by Mr E T Fairhead. The pallbearers were Messrs F Hobbs, S Manuel, I Fitchell, W Young, W Curtis and S Wansbrough.

Emma Sarah Blechynden when she was at Doug House, Forest St, Beverley.

Emma Sarah DUNHAM (1862-1947) died 7 Jul 1947 Beverley, WA (Age 84 Years). Buried at Beverley, WA.

Beverley Times (WA: 1905 - 1977), Fri 18 Jul 1947, pg 1
18 Jul 1947 - The Late Mrs E. S. Blechynden \(nla.gov.au\)

The Late Mrs E. S. Blechynden

DAUGHTER OF PIONEERS

Brief reference was made in last issue to the passing at the Beverley Hospital of Mrs Emma Sarah Blechynden, mother of a family of sons and daughters well-known in this district, and widow of the late J. W. Blechynden, who was born in the district and was one of the early day sandal wood carters. The late Mrs Blechynden, who was 84 years of age at the time of her demise, was born in York; being the youngest daughter of the late William and Caroline Dunham. Before he began farming operations in the York district her father was for a period the mail contractor and coach driver between Guildford and

York. She was married at the age of 20 and came to Beverley where she lived for the remainder of her days, the greater part of the time being spent in the Morbinning area. She had been ailing for a lengthy period and her death occurred within a few days of her admission to hospital.

The deceased citizen's family comprises: Ida (Mrs E Jackson, Main Camp), Ben (Southern Cross) Alfred (Morbining), Eva (Beverley) and Ernest (Morbining). She is also survived by a number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren. The funeral took place at the Methodist Cemetery on July 9th, after a service at the Church. The Rev, McNair officiated, and the arrangements were carried out by Mr E. T. Fairhead. The pallbearers were Messrs F Hobbs, S Manuel, I Petchell, F Young, W Curtis and S Wansbrough.

In Loving Memory
OF
OUR DEAR MOTHER
EMMA SARAH
BLECHYNDEN
WHO PASSED AWAY
7TH JULY 1947
AGED 84 YRS.

AT REST

Headstone of Emma Sarah Blechynden (nee Dunham), Methodist section, Beverley Cemetery.

JESSE WILLIAM BLECHYNDEN - FAMILY BIBLE

Above images of Family Bible of Jesse William and Annie Maria Blechynden

Transcription by Angela Blechynden from Jesse William Blechynden's Family Bible, following. Please note that these transcribed pages may contain names and dates of the living. Please be aware of privacy and confidentiality.

Pages from Jesse and Annie Blechynden's Bible

DNA EVIDENCE via Tracey Currigan, 10 Jul 2021:

Although there is no DNA proof, my mother discovered in her research and family knowledge that Horace Ernest Blechynden, along with three other siblings (at least) was the biological son of John Edwards (eldest son of Thomas and Ann Maria Edwards).

Emma was John's live-in housekeeper/nanny after the death of his wife, leaving him with five children aged seven and under to care for. Emma and Jesse were no longer living together.

When John Edwards died, Horace Ernest kept working his farm, Bellbeling. There is DNA evidence that his older brother, Alfred Walter Blechynden, was fathered by John Edwards.

This means that Horace and Ethel were actually first cousins. (ed. Ethel (Edwards) was the wife of Horace – see details further on.)

FIRST CHILD OF JESSE BLECHYNDEN & EMMA DUNHAM

1. BLECHYNDEN, FREDERICK WILLIAM (1883-1917) & SAVAGE, EDITH (1894-1973)

Frederick William Blechynden was born 6 Jul 1883, York, WA [Reg. 37]. Recorded as Fredk William. Frederick was killed in action in Lagnicourt, France 16 Apr 1917.

Frederick William Blechynden

FREDERICK BLECHYNDEN (1883-1917) married EDITH SAVAGE (1894-1973), 7 May 1914, Beverley, registered in York, WA [Reg. 8].

Edith Savage was born 18 Apr 1894, Beverley, WA, father, HARRY SAVAGE (1868-1944), mother, CHARLOTTE SARAH BISHOP (1871-1927), WA [Reg. 714]. Edith Sims (Blechynden nee Savage) died 14 Mar 1973, Northam, WA, aged 73 years. Buried Northam Cemetery, WA.

Following are details of Edith Savage's parents Harry Savage (1868-1944) and Charlotte Sarah Webb Bishop (1871-1927, and her grandparents.

HARRY SAVAGE (1868-1944) was born 1868, Bosmere, Suffolk, England, parents: GEORGE SAVAGE (1844-1918) and EMMA PLUMMER (1843-1928) who were married 1866, Stowlangtoff, Suffolk, England. Harry was the third child of twelve children. The family all remained in England except for Harry who emigrated to WA. Harry died 3 Aug 1944, Beverley, WA [Reg. 400031], aged 78 years, parents George Savage and Emma Plummer.

CHARLOTTE SARAH WEBB BISHOP (1871-1927) was born 7 Jul 1871, York, WA [Reg. 13245]. Registered as Charlotte, Sarah Webb Bishop. Parents: JAMES JOHN BISHOP (1838-1911) and MARY ANN COLE (1842-1913) who were married 10 Feb 1860, York, WA [Reg. 1511]. Registered as Mary Ann Cole. Charlotte was the eighth of twelve children who were all born in WA.

Harry and Charlotte married in 1895, York, WA [Reg. 155]. Registered as Charlotte Sarah Bishop. They had seven children.

Edith Savage's grandparents.

1. EDITH SAVAGE (1894-1973) 'Edi' married PTE. FREDERICK BLECHYNDEN (1883-1917) 7 May 1914, Beverley, registered in York, WA [Reg. 8]. They had two children. After her husband Frederick was Killed in Action in 1917, Edith married again. More details following.

m.2 EDITH BLECHYNDEN (NEE SAVAGE) (1894-1973) married JOSEPH WILLIAM SIMS (1889-1960), 1918, York, WA [Reg. 5]. They had four children. Gertrude Charlotte, Lily May Gale, Edith and Edith.

2. GEORGE SAVAGE (1895-1970) married GERTRUDE ELSIE ROBERTS (1897-1978) 4 Oct 1916, North Beverley, WA [Reg. 400035]. They had seven children.

3. MARY MADGE SAVAGE (1897-1983) married HERBERT CARR (1897-1972) 16 Apr 1917, Haisthorpe, Beverley, WA [Reg. 400014]. They had four children.

4. GERTRUDE CHARLOTTE SAVAGE (1904-1991) 'Gertie' married ROBERT GEORGE SIMS (1893-1963) 1923, Haisthorpe, Beverley, WA [Reg. 400044]. They had three children.

5. HILDA EMMA SAVAGE (1907–1930) married ALFRED ADDERSON COLLINS (1902-1985) 19 Nov 1926, York, WA [Reg. 7100002].
6. LILY MAY SAVAGE (1910–1992) married GEORGE PHILLIP GALE (1913-1993) 1935, Wiluna, East Murchison, WA [Reg. 4500063]. Registered under George Philip Yale, sic. They had two children.
7. RITA SAVAGE (1913–1915) was born 1913, York, WA [Reg. 62]. She 1915, York, WA [Reg. 7100002], aged 1 year.

Edith Savage was married twice.

m.1 EDITH SAVAGE (1894-1973) married FREDERICK BLECHYNDEN (1883-1917), 7 May 1914, Beverley, registered in York, WA [Reg. 8]. Tragically, Frederick Blechynden was killed in action in Lagnicourt, France on 16 Apr 1917.

FREDERICK and EDITH had two children as follows:

1. BLECHYNDEN, GEORGE SEYMOUR (1915-1916) was born 1915, Victoria Park, WA [Reg. 520]. He died 1916, Perth, WA [Reg. 100011], aged nine months.

2. BLECHYNDEN, GORDON FREDERICK (1916-1999) was born 3 Jun 1916, Perth, WA [Reg. 998]. He married DOROTHY 'DOT' BINGHAM, 1940, Swan, WA [Reg.1] and they had five children. Gordon died 6 Jul 1999.

FREDERICK WILLIAM BLECHYNDEN was Killed in Action during WW1. He embarked at Fremantle WA on HMAT A28 "Miltiades", 7 Aug 1916. 5 Dec 1916 Proc. O/Seas to France per S.S. "Princess Victoria" – Folkstone, England. Posted to Etables, France. SERN 5993, POB (given as) York WA: POE Perth WA: NOK W Blechynden Edith. Killed in action in Lagnicourt, France 16 Apr 1917. No known grave. Following is a letter contributed by Mary Coulthard. It was written by Frederick to his sister Ida Jackson while he was still awaiting departure for France. It doesn't have much historical information but is included for general interest. (Typed as written).

Claremont
25 6 16

My Dear Sister

Just a line to let you know I received Mother letter a day ago. I have got a very bad cold it seems to be going about have had it ever since I went to Claremont. We are having a lot of rain down every day this week. It has been wet. I did write to Bob whilst camped in Bunbury. Also had a letter from him a few days ago he got my letter that I wrote eight months ago he say that he thought 6 weeks was a long time but when it came to six months it was a bit too bad. I am writing to him again today There is some talk of us sailing on the 7th of July but I don't think they really know when we are going. We will be going straight to France when we do go. Well, I can't think of any more for this time so Ta. Ta. From your Loving

Bro F.W. Blechynden

P.S. this is Photo is my Tent Mates.
Note: It is not known where this photo is.

FREDERICK WILLIAM BLECHYNDEN - KILLED IN ACTION, 16 APR 1917, FRANCE WW1.

Following being notified of her husband Frederick William Blechynden being Killed in Action, Edith wrote a letter a letter requesting his death certificate. What a sad time for her and his family.

Following is a letter sent to Edith by the Australian Imperial Force saying they did not know the last resting place of Frederick William Blechynden. The letter is cropped into sections in order to fit it on the page.

Letter informing Edith that they at this stage had no knowledge of his last resting place.

Beverley Times (WA: 1905 - 1977), Sat 20 Apr 1918, pg 4. 20 Apr 1918 - Family Notices \(nla.gov.au\)

IN MEMORIUM

Anzac Heroes

BLECHYNDEN. -In loving memory of Private Frederick William Blechynden killed in action in France April 16, 1917: loved son of Jesse William and Emma Sarah Blechynden; brother of Mrs. Ida Jackson, Benjamin, private Alfred Walter (Bob), on active service, and Eva and Ernest; husband of Edith, and father of little Gordon.

Cemetery Details | CWGC

Australian National Memorial, Villers-Bretonneux, France. Villers-Bretonneux is a village about 15 km east of Amiens. The Memorial stands on the high ground ('Hill 104') behind the Villers-Bretonneux Military Cemetery, Fouilloy, which is about 2 km north of Villers-Bretonneux on the east side of the road to Fouilloy.

Image of Frederick William's details, Villers Bretonneux Memorial. Courtesy Lindsay Adams.

Above: Wall of Honour at the Aust War Memorial.

*Left: Blechynden Frederick William
Killed in action in France 16 Apr 1917.*

m.2 EDITH BLECHYNDEN (NEE SAVAGE) (1894-1973) married JOSEPH WILLIAM SIMS (1889-1960), 1918, York, WA [Reg. 5]. Via the Phillip Gregory Mouritz Family Tree, Joseph was born 1889, York, WA [Reg. 1192]. His father was WILLIAM JAMES SIMS (1863-1939) and mother, MARGARET HOULIHAN (1865-1919). Joseph died in 1960 at Kalgoorlie Regional Hospital, WA [Reg. 213].

CHILD RAISED BY JESSE WILLIAM BLECHYNDEN & AND EMMA SARAH DUNHAM

ERNEST DUNHAM (1878-1959) Taken in by Jessie and Emma and Blechynden

In 1878, Emma's brother George William Dunham (1855-1941) had a child out of wedlock with Fanny Woods (1859-1891), named Ernest Dunham. As mentioned previously, when he was six years of age, Ernest was taken in by Emma and Jesse Blechynden.

Ernest Dunham was born 28 Jun 1878, Beverley, WA [Reg. 19383], parents recorded as GEORGE WILLIAM DUNHAM and FANNY WOODS. His parents were not married.

When George William Dunham married Sarah Jane Edgar on 14 Jun 1879, baby Ernest was promptly dumped by Fanny on their doorstep.

m.1. GEORGE WILLIAM DUNHAM (1855-1941) married SARAH JANE EDGAR (1854-1884), 14 Jun 1879, York, WA [Reg. 4692].

On the 5 Oct 1884 Sarah died and Ernest, then aged six years, was handed to his grandparents William and Caroline Dunham. Sadly, his grandfather William Dunham died the following day on 6 Oct 1884. Six-year-old Ernest was then taken by his Aunt Emma and Uncle Jesse Blechynden. Emma and Jessie had one child at this time, Frederick William born 6 Jul 1883, who was 15 months old. Their next child did not arrive until 8 Apr 1888, being a five-year gap. In 1892 Ernest (about 14) was selected for employment as a telephonist in York and soon transferred to Wagin.

Mary Coulthard commented: THIS STORY is from Neville Dunham's book "Across the Lake." Mum always said Ernest was dumped on the doorstep in a basket and always referred to him as the baby in the basket! She must have heard that story from Grandad Ben, as she never knew who it was and was overjoyed when she read it in Nev's book!

To avoid repetition, more details on Fanny Woods can be found in the section on Ernest Dunham (1878-1959) in the Dunham section of Thomas Harrison Blechynden and Emma Sarah Dunham.

ERNEST DUNHAM (1878-1959) married MARY MAY MOORE (~1883-1959) Ellie, 9 Aug 1899, Wagin, WA [Reg. 847]. He died 2 Feb 1959, Lake Grace, (Katanning), WA [Reg. 10].

SECOND CHILD OF JESSE BLECHYNDEN & EMMA DUNHAM

2. BLECHYNDEN, IDA MAY (1888-1961) & JACKSON, ERNEST EDWARD (1872-1948)

Thank you to Robyne Lancaster who is from this line and shared much of this information from her own tree and research via Geoff Blackburn, whose great-great-grandfather was Edmund Richard Wright (1816-1847).

BLECHYNDEN, IDA MAY (1888-1961) was born 8 Apr 1888, Beverley, WA [Reg. 442]. She died 11 Dec 1961, Beverley, WA [Reg. 40]. Buried Beverley Cemetery.

Ida May Blechynden

IDA married ERNEST EDWARD JACKSON (1872-1948) on 1 Jan 1907, Beverley, WA [Reg. 2]. Ernest was born 1872, Perth, WA [Reg No 14220]. Parents: THOMAS JACKSON (1818-1882) and ELIZABETH SNART AYERS (1842-1883) who were married 18 Oct 1869, Perth, WA [Reg. 3022]. Ernest died 1948, Beverley, WA [Reg. 16].

The next few pages contain details of Ernest Edward Jackson's parents and his grandparents.

AYERS, ELIZABETH 'BETSY' SNART (1842-1883) (via Kathleen Cox family Tree, Ancestry) was born 1842, Stamford, Lincolnshire, England, Baptised 22 May 1842, Stamford, Lincolnshire, England. Her parents were THOMAS AYERS (1816-1874) and MATILDA SNART (1818-1874) who were married 27 Feb 1836, Northamptonshire, England. Betsy was the fourth out of ten children, eight of who were born in Peterborough, Northamptonshire, England. Emigration: 31 May 1852, Swan River Colony (Perth), WA via the Raleigh.

Following their arrival in WA, their ninth child, Alfred Thomas, was born 1855, Perth, WA [Reg. 2837] and tenth, John William Mansfield Ayers was born 27 Jun 1857, Adelaide, SA [Pg. 94 Vol 11]. Sadly, he died at the age of two years in 1859, VIC. [Reg. 412].

Thomas and Matilda and children Henry, Frederick, Richard, Alfred (born 1855) moved to New Zealand via the Dunedin in 1860. Henry was aged 17 years. Robert appears on passenger list for the ship Pirate travelling from Melbourne to join his family who arrived in Dunedin the previous year. Thomas stayed in SA. Mary Ann, Charles and Elizabeth remained in WA. Thomas Alfred Ayers died 23 Oct 1897, Dunedin, Otago, New Zealand. Matilda Ayers (nee Snart) died 15 Jan 1874, Caversham, Dunedin, Otago, New Zealand.

CHILDREN OF THOMAS AYERS (1816-1874) AND MATILDA SNART (1818-1874):

1. THOMAS AYERS (1835-1911)
2. MARY ANN AYERS (1838-1923)
3. CHARLES WILLIAM AYERS (1840-1889)
- 4. ELIZABETH SNART AYERS (1842-1883)
5. HENRY AYERS (1844-1910)
6. ROBERT AYERS (1845-)
7. FREDERICK AYERS (1848-1930)
8. RICHARD AYERS (1851-1930)
9. ALFRED THOMAS AYERS (1855-1933)
10. JOHN WILLIAM MANSFIELD AYERS (1857-1859).

The following children remained in WA.

1. THOMAS AYERS (1835-1911) married CATHERINE MATILDA ENDERSBY (1841-1912) 1862, Perth, WA [Reg. 1763]. Registered as Matilda Enderby, sic.

2. MARY ANN AYERS (1838-1923) married WILLIAM ROLFE (1830-1898) 11 Jul 1853, Perth, WA [Reg. 522]. She then married a second time to GEORGE THOMAS LADHAMS (1831-1921) 1898, Albany, WA [Reg.1448].

3. CHARLES WILLIAM AYERS (1840-1889) married ELIZABETH HANNEY (1856-1878) 1872, Albany, WA [Reg. 3470].

4. ELIZABETH SNART AYERS (1842-1883) Ernest Edward Jackson's mother. Details, following.

m.1 ELIZABETH SNART AYERS (1842-1883) married GEORGE SHARMAN (1829-1881) 18 Sep 1857, Perth, WA [Reg. 1100]. Registered as Betsy Elizabeth Snart Ayers. GEORGE was a convict, registration No: 3507, tried in Lincoln, 3 Jul 1851, term 10 years, Arrival via the ship Adelaide, 3 Jul 1853. George died 1881, WA [Reg. 11103]. Registered under Shearman. ELIZABETH and GEORGE had six children, as follows, all born in WA.

1. GEORGE HENRY SHARMAN (1856-1914) married FLORENCE MARY DAVIS (1871-1925), 1891, York, WA [Reg. 236].
2. THOMAS HENRY SHARMAN JACKSON (1860-1952) (birth registered under Sharman, surname later changed to Jackson) married EMILY TREW (1856-1950), 3 Sep 1884, Perth, WA [Reg. 5836].
3. ALICE SOUTCOTE SHERMAN (1862-1914) (birth registered under Sherman, surname later changed to Jackson) married DAVID LYONS (1856-1917), 1881, Perth, WA [Reg. 5218].
4. MARTHA LOUISA SARAH SHERMAN (1864-1939) (birth registered under Sherman, surname later changed to Jackson) married BENJAMIN GEORGE HENRY COX (1855-1942), 3 Aug 1880, Perth, WA [Reg. 4931].
5. WILLIAM HENRY SOUTH SHERMAN (1866-1939) (birth registered under Sherman, surname later changed to Jackson) married MARY MARTIN (1872-1954), 1898, Beverley, WA [Reg. 11].
6. ALFRED AUGUSTAS SHERMAN (1868-1934) (birth registered under Sherman, surname later changed to Jackson) married NORAH MARTIN (1874-1945), 1895, Beverley, WA [Reg.273].

m.2 ELIZABETH SHARMAN (NEE AYERS) (1842-1883) married THOMAS JACKSON (1818-1882) 1869, Perth, WA [Reg. 3022], registered as Elizabeth Ayres. THOMAS was born 1818, Horncastle, Lincolnshire, England. He died 19 Dec 1882, Guildford, WA [Reg. 11629] aged 56 years. Thomas was a convict, a brick and tile maker, sentenced for seven years. He arrived in Fremantle, WA on 31 Jan 1852, on the Marion a convict ship. Reel number FCN42, Reference number ACC 128/40-43. His age given as 33 years, approx. birth date 1819. Discrepancy: This differs from his death date in 1882, aged 56 years which would make his birth date 1826. He obtained his Ticket of Leave on 31 Jan 1852 and a conditional pardon on 27 Jan 1854. ELIZABETH and THOMAS had six children as follows:

1. WALTER FREDERICK JACKSON (1870-1914) was born 1870, Perth, WA [Reg. 12554]. Walter died 21 Aug 1914, Beverley, WA [Reg.40].
2. ERNEST EDWARD JACKSON (1872-1948) was born 1872, Perth, WA [Reg. 14220]. Ernest died Jun 1948, Beverley, WA [Reg. 16]. ERNEST married IDA MAY BLECHYNDEN (1888-1961) on 1 Jan 1907, Beverley, WA [Reg. 2]. More details below.
3. FREDERICK CHARLES JACKSON (1874-1902) was born 1874, Perth, WA [Reg. 16055]. Frederick died 20 Dec 1902, Perth, WA [Reg. 2664]. Burial, Beverley Anglican Cemetery, WA.
4. AGNES ELIZABETH JACKSON (1876-1876) was born 1876, Perth, WA [Reg. 17479]. Agnes died aged two months 28 Sep 1876, WA [Reg. 9051]. Buried, 29 Sep 1876, East Perth Cemetery, WA.
5. HERBERT EDWARD JACKSON (1877-1879) was born Sep 1877, Perth, WA [Reg. 18403]. Herbert died aged one year six months, 1 Mar 1879, WA [Reg No 10096]. Buried 2 Mar 1879, East Perth Cemetery, WA. Cause of death, croup.
6. DAVID ALBERT HERBERT JACKSON (1881-) was born 1881, Perth, WA [Reg No.,21975]. Via Ancestry Family Tree. Married in New Zealand to Lilly (1885-)

m.3 ELIZABETH SNART JACKSON (NEE AYERS) (1842-1883) married WILLIAM PARKER, 13 Aug 1883, Guildford, WA [Reg. 5551]. Registered under Elizabeth Jackson.

CHILDREN OF IDA MAY BLECHYNDEN (1888-1961) and ERNEST EDWARD JACKSON (1872-1948): Via Kathleen Cox Family Tree, Ancestry.

1. JACKSON, FREDERICK ERNEST (1907-1989) was born 23 Oct 1907, Beverley, WA [Reg. 138]. He died 15 Jul 1989, Kewdale, WA. FREDERICK married m1. IRENE VERONICA 'VERA' NOONAN (1911-1937) 10 Nov 1930, Beverley, WA [Reg No. 43]. FREDERICK m2. MARJORIE SHEILS (1918-2005), 1939, Northam, WA [Reg No. 62].

2. JACKSON, HAZEL MAY (1910-1998) was born 16 Apr 1910, Beverley, WA [Reg. 77]. Hazel died 3 Jun 1998, Beverley, WA. HAZEL married WILLIAM ANGUS MCDONALD (1906-1948), 19 Jun 1927, Beverley, WA [Reg. 22].

3. JACKSON, DOUGLAS EDWARD (1912-1970) was born 17 Jun 1912, Beverley, WA [Reg. 79]. He died 6 Nov 1970, Perth, WA [Reg. 4122]. DOUGLAS married THISBE REGINA 'DOLLY' SASSELLA (1918-2018), 24 Aug 1935, Beverley, WA [Reg. 34]. Registered as Thisbe Regina Jackson.

4. JACKSON, CLARENCE WILLIAM (1919-1980) was born 23 Jun 1919, Reg District, Beverley, WA [Reg. 78]. He died 1980, Gascoyne, WA [Reg. 61]. CLARENCE married m.2 BARBARA CAMPBELL MCLEAN PEIRCE (NEE WILLIAMSON) (1915-), 1941, Perth, WA [Reg. 2303]. (m.1 BARBARA CAMPBELL MCLEAN WILLIAMSON (1915-) married STANLEY PEIRCE (1912-1977) Apr 1934, Perth, WA [Reg. 2303]. Peirce is the correct spelling. Divorced, 1941).

5. JACKSON, MAURICE ALFRED (1922-2008) was born 24 Aug 1922, Beverley, WA [Reg. 169]. MAURICE married DULCIE MARGARET BINNEY (1926-1981), 22 Jan 1942, Beverley, WA [Reg. 2].

6. JACKSON, SYLVIA LORNA (1925-1983) was born 23 Apr 1925, Beverley, WA [Reg. 111]. SYLVIA married ALLEN HUGHES HART (1925-1974), 6 Dec 1943, Perth, WA [Reg. 2678].

Beverley Times (WA: 1905 - 1977), Fri 11 Jun 1948, pg 7
<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article201840395.txt>

The Late Ernest Edward Jackson

LONG ASSOCIATION WITH DISTRICT

A 50 years association with Beverley was ended when the death occurred early last week of Mr. Ernest Edward Jackson, of Main Camp. The son of a Perth brickmaker he came to the district as a young man and during his long period of residence here has followed the occupation of contractor and Road Boad employee. In 1907 he married Miss I. M. Blechynden, of this district, the ceremony taking place at St. Mary's Anglican Church, with Canon Groser officiating. His passing at the age of 75 followed a long period of ill-health and he is mourned by a widow and family comprising sons Fred, Douglas, Clarence and Maurice and daughters Hazel (Mrs. McDonald of Tennant Creek, NT) and Sylvia (Mrs. Hart, of Narrogin). Also surviving him are two brothers, Mr. Thomas Jackson, of Beverley, and Mr. Ben Jackson, of Pingelly. To the bereaved the sympathy of a wide circle of friends has been extended.

THIRD CHILD OF JESSE BLECHYNDEN & EMMA DUNHAM

3. BLECHYNDEN, BENJAMIN LEWIS (1891-1971) & POWELL, ELLEN 'DAISY' (1898-1968)

Mary Coulthard is from this line

Benjamin Lewis Blechynden was born 3 Jan 1891, York, WA [Reg. 55]. Christened 25 Feb 1891 Place: Glenrock, Beverley, WA. At the age of 20 months, he went to live with and was brought up by Emma's sister, Annie Maria and Jesse's brother, Thomas Harrison Blechynden, who were married in 24 Sep 1877 and had no children.

Benjamin Lewis Blechynden

BENJAMIN married ELLEN 'DAISY' POWELL (1898-1968) 16 Apr 1917, Wagin, (Katanning), WA [Reg. 17]. Their story can be read in the chapter on Thomas Harrison Blechynden (the eighth child of Harrison and Charlotte).

FOURTH CHILD OF JESSE BLECHYNDEN & EMMA DUNHAM

4. BLECHYNDEN, 'BOB' ALFRED WALTER (1894-1976) & DOOHAN, MARY (1900-1980)

BLECHYNDEN, 'BOB' ALFRED WALTER (1894-1976) was born 19 Jun 1894, Beverley, WA [Reg. 1138]. Alfred died 7 Sep 1976, Beverley, WA. He was buried 10 Sep 1976 at the Beverley Cemetery. (Unmarked grave), grave memorial 206000163.

*Alfred Walter Blechynden
cropped from a larger photo.*

DNA tests show that Emma Sarah Dunham had a son with John Edwards. The baby was named Alfred Walter and on his birth certificate he was acknowledged as Alfred Walter Blechynden.

REGISTER OF BIRTH.
(CAUTION—Nothing whatever, besides the particulars directed to be recorded, should be written in this form. Mews and explanations, when any are necessary, should be on separate paper.)
No.	When and where born.	Name (if any).	Sex.	Name and Surname of Father.	Name and Maiden Surname of Mother.	Rank or Profession of Father.	Signature, Description, and Residence of Informant.	When Registered.	Signature of Registrar.	Optional Name if added after Registration of Birth.
28	19 June 1894 at Beverley	Alfred Walter	Male	Jesse William Blechynden	Emma Sarah Dunham formerly	Shepherd	Emma Sarah Blechynden formerly Dunham Mother of child Beverley	1894	[Signature]

Copy of Birth certificate of Alfred Walter Blechynden, father's name Jesse Blechynden, mother Emma Sarah Blechynden formerly Dunham.

The following page contains some details of John Edwards (1855-1926), the genealogical father of Alfred Walter Blechynden.

1. JOHN EDWARDS (1855-1926) DNA - father of Alfred Walter Blechynden

John Edwards was born 8 Jul 1855, Stafford, Thomas Edwards, parents: Thomas Edwards (1833-1907) and Ann Maria Griffiths (1830-1890). Thomas Edwards, wife Ann Maria (nee Griffith) and their infant son John, emigrated departing from Southampton, England, via the 'City of Bristol', arriving in Perth, on 8 Aug 1857. John Edwards died 12 Oct 1926, Beverley, WA [Reg. 47].

JOHN EDWARDS (1855-1926) married MARY ANN GOULDING (1850-1884), 18 Feb 1877, Beverley, WA [Reg No. 4244].

When Mary Edwards died in 1884, John Edwards was left with five young children: John Thomas Edwards aged 7 years, Amy Susannah Edwards aged 5 years, Emily Alice Matilda aged 4 years and twins, Mabel Maria and Maud Eleanor Edwards aged 1 year.

See also the section following Horace – seventh child of Jesse William Blechynden (1851-1934) And Emma Sarah Dunham (1862-1947) for more details regarding John Edwards

In 1884, Emma Sarah and Jesse Blechynden's first baby Fred was aged just one year. As mentioned previously, following the death of William Dunham on 6 Oct 1884, six-year-old Ernest Dunham (1878-1959) was then taken by his Aunt Emma and Uncle Jesse Blechynden.

NOTE: Family sources say Emma Sarah Dunham worked as a housekeeper for John Edwards from about 1884 after John's wife died.

During the next ten years, Emma and Jessie Blechynden had six more children registered with them as parents: Ida in 1888 and Benjamin in 1892. Their fourth child Alfred Walter was born in 1894. He was named and brought up with the surname of Blechynden. Another three children were born to Emma and Jesse: Twins: Evelyn Annie and George Seymour in 1896, (sadly George died aged one month). Their seventh child Horace Ernest was born in 1899.

Alfred Walter Blechynden served in WW1, SERN 1899, POE Blackboy Hill WA. He was wounded in action in France, losing his left eye.

Canvas Kit Bag belonging to Alfred Walter Blechynden, Service Number: 1899 AIF 28th Infantry Battalion. Dead Finish Museum, Beverley, WA.

Alfred Walter Blechynden

ALFRED WALTER BLECHYNDEN (1894-1976) married MARY CHRISTINA DOOHAN (1900-1980), 27 Apr 1921, Beverley, WA [Reg. 31].

BEVERLEY
WESTERN AUSTRALIA
CERTIFICATE OF MARRIAGE.

When and where Married.	Christian Name and Surname of the Parties.	Age.	Condition of the Parties (Single or Married, Widowed, etc.)	Rank or Profession, or Occupation.	Bachelors.	Parents' Christian Names and Surnames.	Rank or Profession of Father.	Mother's Christian Name and Surname.
April 24 th Wesley Church Beverley	Alfred Walter Blechynden & Mary Christina Doohan	26 20	Single	Farmer	Farmer	Wm. William Blechynden William Doohan	Farmer	Emma Sarah Dunham Mary Ellen Fitzgerald
Married in Wesley Church Beverley according to Rules of Methodism by Mr. Alfred Walter Blechynden		I certify that the consent of William Doohan the Father of Mary Christina Doohan was given to the Marriage between the parties named in this Certificate.		I certify that the consent of the		This marriage was celebrated between, as by Mr. Alfred Walter Blechynden		Signature of Minister or District Registrar		Signature of Minister or District Registrar		Signature of Minister or District Registrar

Witnesses: M. L. Doohan, A. W. Blechynden, J. A. W. Doohan, W. Doohan

Signature of Minister or District Registrar: M. L. Doohan

Date: 30/4/21

Signature: J. A. W. Doohan

Copy of marriage certificate of Alfred Walter Blechynden and Mary Christina Doohan

DOOHAN, MARY CHRISTINA (1900-1980)
Via Dalton Family Tree, Ancestry.

Mary Christina Doohan was born 20 Jul 1900, New Angledool, NSW [Reg. 24469], parents recorded as William Doohan and Mary E L. WILLIAM DOOHAN (1875-1925) married MARY E L FITZGERALD (1880-1942), 1899, Walgett, NSW [Reg. 1990]. Recorded as Mary E L Fitzgerald.

Mary Christina Blechynden (nee Doohan) died 3 Jul 1980, Beverley, WA. Recorded as Mary Christina Blechynden, parents: William Doohan and Mary Ellen Fitzgerald.

Beverley Times (WA: 1905 - 1977) Sat 30 Apr 1921, pg 3

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article201859325.txt>

WEDDING BELLS.

BLECHYNDEN—DOOHAN.

At the Methodist Church, Beverley, on Wednesday last, the Rev. A. Schroeder joined in wedlock Mr. Alfred Walter Blechynden (late of the A.I.F.) son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Blechynden, and Miss Mary Christina Doohan, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Doohan, both of Beverley.

The Church was tastefully decorated by friends of the bride. The bride was given away by her father, and the bridegroom was supported by Mr. W. Doohan, junr. (brother of the bride) as best man. The bridesmaids were Miss Nellie Doohan (sister of the bride) and Miss Hazel Jackson. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, where the toasts usual to the occasion were duly honored.

The bride wore a dress of white; - silk with bead trimmings, a lace hat, and carried a bouquet of fern and roses.

The bridesmaids wore white muslin dresses with blue sashes, black picture hats trimmed with pale blue flowers and ribbon and carried baskets of white chrysanthemums and fern.

We join with their many friends in wishing the newly wedded couple many years of happiness and prosperity together.

Wedding Bells.

'BLECHYNDEN—DOOHAN.

At the Methodist Church, Beverley, on Wednesday last, the Rev. A. Schroeder joined in wedlock Mr. Alfred Walter Blechynden (late of the A.I.F.) son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Blechynden, and Miss Mary Christina Doohan, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Doohan, both of Beverley. The Church was tastefully decorated by friends of the bride. The bride was given away by her father, and the bridegroom was supported by Mr. W. Doohan, junr. (brother of the bride) as best man. The bridesmaids were Miss Nellie Doohan (sister of the bride) and Miss Hazel Jackson. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, where the toasts usual to the occasion were duly honored.

The bride wore a dress of white silk with bead trimmings, a lace hat, and carried a bouquet of fern and roses.

The bridesmaids wore white muslin dresses with blue sashes, black picture hats trimmed with pale blue flowers and ribbon, and carried baskets of white chrysanthemums and fern.

We join with their many friends in wishing the newly wedded couple many years of happiness and prosperity together.

Wedding photo: Alfred Walter Blechynden 'Bob'
and Mary Christina Doohan, 1921

The following two pages have details of Mary Christina Doohan's parents William Doohan (1875-1925) and Mary Ellen Louise Fitzgerald (1880-1942) and grandparents.

DOOHAN WILLIAM (1875-1925), Mary's father (via the Worley/Watkins Family tree, Ancestry) was born 16 Feb 1875, Coonamble, NSW. Parents: BERNARD JOHN DOOHAN (1835-1918) and MARY ANN CANHAM (1843-1925) who were married 31 Dec 1860, Maitland, NSW [Reg. 2041], registered under Bernard Doughan and Mary Ann Canham. William died 23 Aug 1925, Beverley, WA [Reg. 49], aged 51 years.

Mary Christina Doohan's grandparents, Bernard John Doohan and Mary Ann Canham had nine children, all born and remained in NSW, except for William who after his marriage to Mary Fitzgerald moved to WA. Sadly, Isabella born in 1872, died in 1873 at the age of one. Can't find a registration.

1. MARY ANN DOOHAN (1861-1926) 2. PATRICK DOOHAN (1864-1915) 3. ANASTASIA BRIDGET DOOHAN (1866-1925) 4. ELLEN (NELL) JANE DOOHAN (1870-1950) 5. ISABELLA DOOHAN (1872-1873) 6. WILLIAM DOOHAN (1875-1925) 7. MARTIN JAMES DOOHAN (1877-) 8. ROSE DOOHAN (1881-) 9. JESSIE MAY REEVES DOOHAN (1883-1943).

WILLIAM DOOHAN (1875-1925) married MARY E L FITZGERALD (1880-1942), 1899, Walgett, NSW [Reg. 1990]. Their first two children were born in NSW. Their third child Bernard and the others following were born in Beverley WA. More details following.

FITZGERALD, LOUISE MARY ELLEN (1880-1942), Mary's mother, (via the Worley/Watkins Family Tree, Ancestry) was born 29 Sep 1880, Mundoona via Kotupna, VIC [Reg. 20598]. Recorded as Louise Mary Ellen Fitzgerald. Parents: JOHN FITZGERALD and ANNIE DAVIS. Louise died 3 Dec 1942, Beverley, WA [Reg. 63], aged 62 years. Registered as Mary Ellen Louisa Doohan.

Mary Ellen was the third of seven children. The first five were born in VIC, the last two in WA. It appears they all moved to and remained in NSW except for Mary Ellen, who moved to WA following her marriage to William Doohan in NSW, and her sister, Frances Alice.

1. EMILY KATHLEEN FITZGERALD (1876-1942)
2. ANNIE ELIZABETH FITZGERALD (1877-1968)
3. LOUISE MARY ELLEN FITZGERALD (1880-1942) married WILLIAM DOOHAN (1875-1925) 1899, Walgett, NSW [Reg. 1990].
4. FLORENCE MAY FITZGERALD (1882-1963)
5. FRANCES ALICE FITZGERALD (1885-1920) married WILLIAM JAMES WHITE (1862-1925) 1902, Beverley, WA [Reg. 13].
6. JOHN ROBERT FITZGERALD (1887-1967)
7. GEORGE THOMAS FITZGERALD (1889-)

CHILDREN OF WILLIAM DOOHAN (1875-1925) AND MARY ELLEN LOUISA FITZGERALD (1880-1942), Mary Christina Doohan's parents:

1. MARY CHRITINA DOOHAN (1900-1980) was born 20 Jul 1900, New Angledool, NSW [Reg. 24469]. Mary died 3 Jul 1980, Beverley, WA. MARY married ALFRED WALTER BLECHYNDEN (1894-1976), 27 Apr 1921, Beverley, WA [Reg. 31].

2. WILLIAM ROBERT GEORGE DOOHAN (1902-1937) was born 22 Mar 1902, Narromine, NSW [Reg. 14685]. He died 12 Aug 1937, Northam, WA [Reg. 142]. WILLIAM married ALICE ETHEL KRINKS (1904-1960), 1923, Beverley WA [Reg. 6].

3. BERNARD JOHN DOOHAN (1903-1992) was born 19 Jan 1903, East Beverley, WA [Reg. 12]. He died 1992, Mosman Park, WA. BERNARD married BRENDA ELEANOR VANSTAN (1910-1955), 1933, Fremantle, WA [Reg. 36].

4. EMILY ROSE MAY DOOHAN (1905-1923) was born 15 Aug 1905, East Beverley, WA [Reg. 66]. Emily died 24 Apr 1923, Beverley, WA [Reg. 24].

5. JESSIE ELLEN LOUISA DOOHAN (1907-2002) (1907-2002) was born 3 Mar 1907, Beverley, WA [Reg. 62]. She died 22 Jun 2002, Carlisle, WA. JESSIE married GLADSTONE JAMES CLARENCE WHYATT (1910-1989), 5 Sep 1934, Beverley, WA [Reg. 33].

6. DANIEL VICTOR DOOHAN (1908-2004) was born 1908, Beverley, WA [Reg. 104], registered as Victor DM Doohan. Daniel died 2004, WA. m.1 DANIEL VICTOR DOOHAN (1908-2004) married MARJORIE DORIS DIPROSE (1905-), 1926, Beverley, WA [Reg. 46]. m.2 DANIEL VICTOR DOOHAN (1908-2004) married DOROTHY THELMA MAY KANE (1911-2005), 1933, Yilgarn, WA [Reg. 15].

7. NOEL STEPHEN ARTHUR DOOHAN (1910-1993) was born 10 Dec 1910, Beverley, WA [Reg. 13], registered in 1911. Noel Stephen Arthur Doohan died 30 Nov 1993, Bentley, WA. NOEL married ELINOR LITTLE (1910-1993), 1938, Northam, WA [Reg. 75].

8. LEILA ALICE DOOHAN (1914-2013) married PATRICK CONNELLY (1906-1994) 1933, Beverley, WA [Reg. 400028].

9. ALFRED FREDERICK GORDON DOOHAN (1915-1937) was born 11 May 1915, Beverley, WA [Reg. 61]. He died 1937, Perth, WA [Reg. 265].

10. UNAMED DOOHAN (1916-1916) male was not born alive, 1916, Beverley, WA [Reg. 400080].

11. PEARL MARGARET DOOHAN (1924-1972) was born 26 Dec 1924, Beverley, WA [Reg. 1]. She died 8 Jul 1972, Perth, WA. PEARL married EDWIN A GILCHRIST (1917-1981), 1943, Beverley, WA [Reg. 20].

Electoral Rolls

1910, 1913 William Doohan, Forrest View, East Beverley, farmer, Mary Ellen Louise, same address.
1925 William Doohan, Sewell St, Beverley, farmer, Mary Ellen Louise, same address.

Beverley Times (WA: 1905 - 1977), Fri 28 Aug 1925, pg 3

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article201788395.txt>

OBITUARY.

MR. WILLIAM DOOHAN.

The death of Mr William Doohan occurred on Sunday last (23rd) at the local hospital. Deceased was an old resident, having been engaged in farming at Morbining in the East Beverley district and thro' the effects of drought and ill health he sold out in 1914 and came into town and sought lighter work.

On Good Friday last he had the misfortune to break a blood vessel, with the result that he was in hospital for some weeks — in fact he had only been at work again for a fortnight when he contracted pneumonia. Naturally, not having fully recovered his strength, it went hard with him, and on Sunday night the end came — heart failure being the cause. The funeral took place on Tuesday last and was well attended — the Rev. G. E. Jones officiating. Deceased who was 51 years of age, leaves a widow, 4 daughters (Mrs. Blechynden, (East Beverley), Nellie, Louie and Pearl), and 6 sons (Will, Katanning), Bernard (Narrogin), Dan, Noel, Herb and Alf.

Obituary.

MR. WILLIAM DOOHAN.

The death of Mr William Doohan occurred on Sunday last (23rd) at the local hospital. Deceased was an old resident, having been engaged in farming at Morbining in the East Beverley district until thro' the effects of drought and ill health he sold out in 1914 and came into town and sought lighter work. On Good Friday last he had the misfortune to break a blood vessel, with the result that he was in hospital for some weeks—in fact he had only been at work again for a fortnight when he contracted pneumonia. Naturally, not having fully recovered his strength, it went hard with him, and on Sunday night the end came—heart failure being the cause. The funeral took place on Tuesday last and was well attended—the Rev. G. E. Jones officiating. Deceased who was 51 years of age, leaves a widow, 4 daughters (Mrs Blechynden (East Beverley), Nellie, Louie, and Pearl), and 6 sons (Will (Katanning), Bernard (Narrogin), Dan, Noel, Herb and Alf.

Beverley Times (WA: 1905 - 977), Fri 11 Dec 1942, pg 5

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article201834475.txt>

OBITUARY

MRS M. E. L. DOOHAN

The death occurred at the Beverley hospital, during the early hours of Thursday, December 3rd, of Mrs Mary Ellen Louisa Doohan, relict of the late William Doohan.

Deceased, whose health had caused great concern over the last few years, was born in Victoria 62 years ago. The early period of her life was spent in N.S.W., where she was married towards the end of last century.

About 1903, accompanied by her late husband and 2 small children, the deceased came to W.A. and commenced farming in the Beverley district where her late mother, sister Mrs F A White, and brother Rev G T Fitzgerald, of Adelaide, had already made their home.

The deceased had a family of 6 sons and 5 daughters all of whom received their education in the Beverley district, although she was predeceased by 2 sons and 1 daughter. Three of her sons are members of the armed forces, 2 serving with the A.I.F. and 1 in the Air Force.

A funeral service was conducted in the Methodist Church by Mr Royce before her remains were interred in the Methodist Cemetery in the presence of her family and friends, on December 4.

The chief mourners were: Messrs Bernard, Dan and Herbert Doohan (sons) Mesdames A W Blechynden (sons) Mesdames A W Blechynden (daughters) Messrs A W Blechynden, P Connelly and G Whyatt (son-in-law) Mrs D Doohan (daughter-in-law) Mr F Blechynden (grandson) Mrs J Sing (granddaughter) Mrs F A White (sister) and Mrs A Allvar (niece).

OBITUARY

MRS M. E. L. DOOHAN

The death occurred at the Beverley hospital, during the early hours of Thursday, December 3rd, of Mrs Mary Ellen Louisa Doohan, relict of the late William Doohan.

Deceased, whose health had caused great concern over the last few years, was born in Victoria 62 years ago. The early period of her life was spent in N.S.W., where she was married towards the end of last century.

About 1903, accompanied by her late husband and 2 small children, the deceased came to W.A. and commenced farming in the Beverley district where her late mother, sister Mrs. F. A. White, and brother Rev. G. T. Fitzgerald, of Adelaide, had already made their home.

The deceased had a family of 6 sons and 5 daughters all of whom received their education in the Beverley district, although she was predeceased by 2 sons and 1 daughter. Three of her sons are members of the armed forces, 2 serving with the A.I.F. and 1 in the Air Force.

A funeral service was conducted in the Methodist Church by Mr. Royce, before her remains were interred in the Methodist Cemetery in the presence of her family and friends, on December 4.

The chief mourners were: Messrs Bernard, Dan and Herbert Doohan (sons) Mesdames A. W. Blechynden, P. Connelly, Miss P. Doohan (daughters), Messrs A. W. Blechynden, P. Connelly and G. Whyatt (son-in-law) Mrs. D. Doohan (daughter-in-law) Mr. F. Blechynden (grandson), Mrs. J. Sing (granddaughter), Mrs. F. A. White (sister) and Mrs. A. Allvar (niece).

1st CHILD OF ALFRED WALTER BLECHYNDEN & MARY CHRISTINA DOOHAN

1. BLECHYNDEN, MARY 'KATHLEEN' (1922-1932) was born 2 Feb 1922, Beverley, WA [Reg. 38]. Recorded as Mary K. Simi Bennett has a copy of her birth certificate.

Kathleen, as did many others, joined Grandma's Corner for Catholic children. See the following extracts from letters. Tragically, she died on 9 Apr 1932, Beverley, WA [Reg. 20], accidentally killed at the age of ten. As per her burial article from Trove, the service was held at the Methodist Church and the graveside in Beverley.

Western Mail (Perth, WA: 1885 - 1954), Thu 18 Feb 1932, pg 12

ANOTHER NEW MEMBER.

Jacob's Well, via York.

My Dear Aunt Mary, - As this is the first time I have written to you, I would like you to enrol me as one of your nieces. My sister is one of your many nieces, so I thought I would write while I remembered it. I am 10 on the 12th of this month. I had a tooth out on Friday and I did not cry. We have got eight little lambs. I am starting school the day after I am 10. We drive seven miles to school. Hoping to see my letter in print. I remain, your loving friend.

KATHLEEN BLECHYNDEN.

Welcome to the corner, Kathleen. You were a brave girl not to cry when you had your tooth out. You said your birthday was on the 2nd of this month, so I took it that you meant the 12th. AUNT MARY.

Kathleen was a very excited little girl and like many her age was a bit confused as to the date of her oncoming birthday. How tragic that she was to lose her life shortly after her tenth birthday.

Photo via Simi Bennett. Via Uncle Fred China Sing.

ANOTHER NEW MEMBER.
Jacob's Well, via York.
My Dear Aunt Mary.—As this is the first time I have written to you, I would like you to enrol me as one of your nieces. My sister is one of your many nieces, so I thought I would write while I remembered it. I am 10 on the 12th of this month. I had a tooth out on Friday and I did not cry. We have got eight little lambs. I am starting school the day after I am 10. We drive seven miles to school. Hoping to see my letter in print. —I remain, your loving friend.
KATHLEEN BLECHYNDEN.
Welcome to the corner, Kathleen. You were a brave girl not to cry when you had your tooth out. You said your birthday was on the 2nd of this month, so I took it that you meant the 12th.
AUNT MARY.

Western Mail (Perth, WA: 1885 - 1954), Thu 21 Apr 1932, pg 53

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article38891624.txt>

ISOBEL REID (Dulbelling). "I am writing to tell you some very, very sad news. Our Silver Chain has lost one of its shining links who had joined another chain far brighter than ours. Yesterday, Kathleen Blechynden, of Jacob's Well met with a terrible accident and was killed. I do not know exactly what happened, but she was killed by a horse." What sad news, Isobel! My deepest sympathy is with her parents in their sorrow. - AUNT MARY.

EXTRACTS FROM LETTERS.
ISOBEL REID (Dulbelling).—"I am writing to tell you some very, very sad news. Our Silver Chain has lost one of its shining links who had joined another chain far brighter than ours. Yesterday, Kathleen Blechynden, of Jacob's Well met with a terrible accident and was killed. I do not know exactly what happened, but she was killed by a horse. What sad news, Isobel! My deepest sympathy is with her parents in their sorrow.—AUNT MARY.

Beverley Times (WA: 1905 - 1977), Fri 15 Apr 1932, pg 3

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article201806943.txt>

FATAL ACCIDENT.
A CHILD KILLED

The death occurred under tragic circumstances on Saturday last, of Mary Kathleen Blechynden aged 10 years, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. "Bob" Blechynden, of East Beverley. Her untimely demise came as a result of an accident on her father's farm just before noon on the day mentioned.

From information gleaned by a representative of this paper it appears that the child went into a paddock adjacent the house to bring in a horse which she intended to harness and drive to a neighbour's farm. After catching the animal, which was reputedly of a very quiet nature and was used by the children in their daily drive to school, she secured it with a neck rope, and, apparently with childish faith in the quiet disposition of her charge, tied the lead end of the rope around her own body. In such fashion she brought the horse into the yard adjacent the house, and her young brother went into the nearby stable to obtain a bridle. In procuring it the other horses for some reason became startled and rushed out, and the horse to which the unfortunate girl was attached took off. The child was dragged for over a mile, before the animal pulled up against a fence.

The distraught parents were quickly on the scene, and their worst fears were confirmed when they saw the shocking nature of the child's injuries. In addition to a large head wound her arm was fractured and her face and body covered with cuts and abrasions, whilst the rope had cut deeply into her flesh. The lifeless body was released from the rope and P.C. Rea was summoned. The remains were later brought into the morgue. It is considered probable that death came quickly as a result of the wound sustained when the child's head struck an obstruction just after the horse started.

An inquest was opened at the Court House, Beverley, before Mr. D. H. Forbes, (Acting Coroner) on Saturday afternoon. After formal evidence had been heard the inquiry was adjourned till to-morrow (Saturday).

FATAL ACCIDENT.

A CHILD KILLED

The death occurred under tragic circumstances on Saturday last, of Mary Kathleen Blechynden aged 10 years, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. "Bob" Blechynden, of East Beverley. Her untimely demise came as a result of an accident on her father's farm just before noon on the day mentioned.

From information gleaned by a representative of this paper it appears that the child went into a paddock adjacent the house to bring in a horse which she intended to harness and drive to a neighbours' farm. After catching the animal, which was reputedly of a very quiet nature and was used by the children in their daily drive to school, she secured it with a neck rope, and, apparently with childish faith in the quiet disposition of her charge, tied the lead end of the rope around her own body. In such fashion she brought the horse into the yard adjacent the house, and her young brother went into the nearby stable to obtain a bridle. In procuring it the other horses for some reason became startled and rushed out, and the horse to which the unfortunate girl was attached took off. The child was dragged for over a mile, before the animal pulled up against a fence. The distraught parents were quickly on the scene, and their worst fears were confirmed when they saw the shocking nature of the child's injuries. In addition to a large head wound her arm was fractured and her face and body were covered with cuts and abrasions, whilst the rope had cut deeply into her flesh. The lifeless body was released from the rope and P.C. Rea was summoned. The remains were later brought into the morgue. It is considered probable that death came quickly as a result of the wound sustained when the child's head struck an obstruction just after the horse startled.

An inquest was opened at the Court House, Beverley, before Mr. D. H. Forbes. (Acting Coroner) on Saturday afternoon. After formal evidence had. been heard the inquiry was adjourned till tomorrow (Saturday).

Beverley Times (WA: 1905 - 1977), Fri 15 Apr 1932, pg 3

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/article/201806991>

THE FUNERAL.

News of the tragic happening quickly spread throughout the district, and expressions of sympathy for the bereaved family were heard from all quarters. The widespread regret was reflected in the large attendance at the Methodist Church and at the graveside on Sunday afternoon, when the funeral took place. In addition to a large gathering of friends and relatives, the local troop of Girl Guides and Brownies were present, the deceased child being a member of the latter body. The Rev. Elms officiated at church and graveside and the funeral arrangements were carried out by Messrs. G. Hicks and R. F. Davey.

THE FUNERAL.

News of the tragic happening quickly spread throughout the district, and expressions of sympathy for the bereaved family were heard from all quarters. The widespread regret was reflected in the large attendance at the Methodist Church and at the graveside on Sunday afternoon, when the funeral took place. In addition to a large gathering of friends and relatives, the local troop of Girl Guides and Brownies were present, the deceased child being a member of the latter body. The Rev. Elms officiated at church and graveside and the funeral arrangements were carried out by Messrs. G. Hicks and R. F. Davey.

2nd CHILD OF ALFRED WALTER BLECHYNDEN & MARY CHRISTINA DOOHAN

2. BLECHYNDEN, EMILY 'EM' MURIEL (1923-2016) was born 3 Aug 1923, Beverley, WA [Reg. 149]. Emily Muriel Sing (nee Blechynden) died 2016, WA.

CHILD				PARENTS		INFORMANT	WITNESS	REGISTRAR
No.	(1) When and (2) Where Born	(3) Name and (4) Whether present at Registration or not	Sex	FATHER: (5) Name and (6) Residence, (7) Date of Birth, (8) Age, and (9) Birth-place	MOTHER: (10) Name and (11) Residence of the Mother, (12) Age, and (13) Birth-place	(14) Signature, (15) Description, and (16) Residence of Informant	(17) Accidental, (18) Name by which certified, and (19) Name of Occupancy or other Witness	(20) When registered and (21) Where
1	3 rd August, 1923	Emily Muriel	F	Alfred Walter Blechynden, Farmer, 29 years, Beverley, WA.	Mary Christina Doohan, 23 years, Angledale, N.W.	Emily Muriel Blechynden, Mother, 30 years, Beverley, WA.	Mr. Hodgson, M.B.	3 rd August, 1923, Beverley

Copy of birth certificate of Emily Muriel Blechynden

Emily and her brother Frederick Blechynden, Photo via Simi Bennett. Via Uncle Fred China Sing.

Emily 'Em' Sing. Courtesy Simi Bennett and Mary Coulthard

EMILY MURIEL BLECHYNDEN (1923-2016) married JAMES SING (1920-2004), 17 Oct 1942, Beverley, WA [Reg. 27]. Registered under Sing.

Emily 'Em' Sing. Courtesy Simi Bennett and Mary Coulthard

Weekly Gazette (Goomalling, WA: 1924 - 1946), Fri 27 Nov 1942, pg 1
<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article253431148.txt>

Wedding

SING—BLECHYNDEN

A wedding of interest to many local residents took place at the Anglican Church, Beverley, on October 17th, when Rev. Paisly joined in wedlock, James (A.I.F.), twin son of Mrs. E. Sing of Goomalling, and Emily Muriel, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Blechynden, of East Beverley.

The bride, who entered the church on the arm of Mr. E. Dewer (brother-in-law of the bridegroom) looked charming in a trained gown of white georgette. The bodice of silk lace was finished at the neck with a sprig of orange blossom; her full lengthed veil, trimmed with lace flowers, was held in place with a heart-shaped silk lace halo and a sprig of orange blossom. A Beautiful sheaf of white roses, carnations, stocks, maiden hair fern and fish bone fern was carried

The bridesmaid, Miss Margaret Edwards, wore a frock of mauve taffeta, with a shirred bodice, and silver accessories. Her mauve halo was finished with tiny mauve flowers, and she wore mauve mittens and carried a sheaf of mauve and pink roses, carnations, stocks and "fishbone fern. Little Betty Kemp and Margaret Connolly acted as flower girls. They looked sweet in their pink and mauve frocks, respectively, and carried posies of pink and mauve flowers. The duties of best man were carried out by Mr. Fred Blechynden, brother of the bride.

After the ceremony Mrs. Blechynden, assisted by the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Sing, received the guests at the Lesser Hall, Mrs. Blechynden wearing a frock of navy-blue georgette, with navy and white accessories and carrying red roses. Mrs. Sing chose a frock of floral georgette and carried golden dawn roses.

After the usual toasts had been honoured, the happy couple left by car for their honeymoon, the bride travelling in a powder blue heavy silk crepe frock, with navy and white accessories.

Wedding

SING—BLECHYNDEN

A wedding of interest to many local residents took place at the Anglican Church, Beverley, on October 17th, when Rev. Paisly joined in wedlock, James (A.I.F.), twin son of Mrs. E. Sing of Goomalling, and Emily Muriel, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Blechynden, of East Beverley.

The bride, who entered the church on the arm of Mr. E. Dewer (brother-in law of the bridegroom) looked charming in a trained gown of white georgette. The bodice of silk lace was finished at the neck with a sprig of orange blossom; her full lengthed veil, trimmed with lace flowers, was held in place with a heart-shaped silk lace halo and a sprig of orange blossom. A beautiful sheaf of white roses, carnations, stocks, maiden hair fern and fish bone fern was carried.

The bridesmaid, Miss Margaret Edwards, wore a frock of mauve taffeta, with a shirred bodice, and silver accessories. Her mauve halo was finished with tiny mauve flowers, and she wore mauve mittens and carried a sheaf of mauve and pink roses, carnations, stocks and fishbone fern. Little Betty Kemp and Margaret Connolly acted as flower girls. They looked sweet in their pink and mauve frocks, respectively, and carried posies of pink and mauve flowers. The duties of best man were carried out by Mr. Fred Blechynden, brother of the bride.

After the ceremony Mrs. Blechynden, assisted by the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Sing, received the guests at the Lesser Hall, Mrs. Blechynden wearing a frock of navy blue georgette, with navy and white accessories and carrying red roses. Mrs. Sing chose a frock of floral georgette and carried golden dawn roses.

After the usual toasts had been honoured, the happy couple left by car for their honeymoon, the bride travelling in a powder blue heavy silk crepe frock, with navy and white accessories.

SING, JAMES (1920-2004), twin of Alfred, was registered under his mother's surname Ah Sing at birth. James later simplified his surname to Sing. James was born 7 Oct 1920, West Northam, WA [Reg. 345]. When the twins were born, Alfred was the first born, WA [Reg. 344]. Parents: ALFRED JAMES DENNIS (1874-1936) and EMILY JANE AH SING (1887-1974).

*James and his twin brother Alfred.
 Courtesy Simi Bennett*

James Sing, (also known as James Ah Sing) died 23 Mar 2004, Beverley, WA.

The following four pages have details of James Ah Sing's parents: ALFRED JAMES DENNIS (1874-1936) and EMILY JANE AH SING (1887-1974) and grandparents, LESTER DENNIS (1830-1900) and DINAH ROSER (1842-1910):

ALFRED JAMES DENNIS (1874-1936) James Sing's father

Our Family Tree and its Blended Branches, Ancestry. DNA

Alfred James Dennis was born 5 May 1874, Goomalling, WA [Reg. 15690]. Parents: LESTER DENNIS (1830-1900) and m.2 DINAH ROSER (1842-1910).

Alfred James Dennis.

Simone Bennett originally shared this on 25 May 2021, Ancestry

LESTER DENNIS (1830-1900) James Sing's grandfather

Lister (Lester) Dennis was born 1830, Fordham, Cambridgeshire, England.

Lester Dennis died Toodyay, WA [Reg. 2215] aged 69 years.

CONVICT: Lester Dennis (3344) Firing barn and building, Cambridge, Cambridgeshire, England, 19 Jul 1851. Transported, arrival, 23 May 1855.

m.1 LESTER DENNIS (1830-1900) Convict married JANE KIDD (1826-1866) 13 Apr 1860, Glen Avon, WA [Reg. 1422]. Recorded as Lister. They had three children. Jane Dennis (nee Kidd) died 1866, Perth, WA [Reg. 3134]. Following Jane's death, Lester was married again.

m.2 LESTER DENNIS (1830-1900) and m.2 DINAH ROSER (1842-1910), who were married Guildford, WA [Reg. 2531]. This was Lester Dennis' second marriage. They had eight children.

ALFRED JAMES DENNIS WAS MARRIED TWICE.

m.1 ALFRED JAMES DENNIS (1874-1936) married ADA ADESSA CLARKE (1887-1946), 14 Oct 1903, St John's Church, Northam, WA [Reg. 1127].

Northam Advertiser (WA: 1895 - 1955), Wed 21 Oct 1903, pg 3

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article211685069.txt>

DENNIS-CLARKE.

(From a Correspondent.)

A quiet wedding took place at St. John's Church on Wednesday last, 14th inst., the contracting parties being Mr. Alfred James Dennis, of Goomalling, and Miss Ada A. Clarke, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Clarke of Midland Junction. The bride was given away by her father, and was attended by four bridesmaids. Mr. W. Clarke acted as best man. At the conclusion of the ceremony and the signing of the necessary documents, the happy couple adjourned to the residence of Mr. Henry G. Dennis, where a large gathering had assembled to congratulate and welcome the newly married couple, also to celebrate the tying of the nuptial knot, after which an adjournment was made to the large implement shed which was neatly fitted up for the occasion, where a good substantial spread was provided and laid out by the mother and sister of the bridegroom, to which 50 odd friends and relations sat down to partake of the delicious and tasty things. After the important portion of this programme had been disposed of, the speechmaking commenced.

DENNIS-CLARKE.
(From a Correspondent.)
A quiet wedding took place at St. John's Church on Wednesday last, 14th inst., the contracting parties being Mr. Alfred James Dennis, of Goomalling, and Miss Ada A. Clarke, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Clarke of Midland Junction. The bride was given away by her father, and was attended by four bridesmaids. Mr. W. Clarke acted as best man. At the conclusion of the ceremony and the signing of the necessary documents, the happy couple adjourned to the residence of Mr. Henry G. Dennis, where a large gathering had assembled to congratulate and welcome the newly married couple, also to celebrate the tying of the nuptial knot, after which an adjournment was made to the large implement shed which was neatly fitted up for the occasion, where a good substantial spread was provided and laid out by the mother and sister of the bridegroom, to which 50 odd friends and relations sat down to partake of the delicious and tasty things. After the important portion of this programme had been disposed of, the speechmaking commenced. The speakers wished all good luck to the bridegroom and bride, prosperity, and the other financial success that this world can give, and trusted that they would live a long and prosperous life. The bridegroom, on rising to respond, was again heartily cheered, and he thanked all those present for the nice expressions said of himself and wife, which brought the formal portion to a close, and Mr. and Mrs. Dennis left for their new home at Goomalling. The happy couple were the recipients of a large number of very valuable and useful presents.

The speakers wished all good luck to the bridegroom and bride, prosperity, and the other financial successes that this world can give, and trusted that they would live a long and prosperous life. The bridegroom, on rising to respond was again heartily cheered, and he thanked all those present for the nice expressions said of himself and wife, which brought the formal portion to a close, and Mr. and Mr. Dennis left for their new home at Goomalling. The happy couple were the recipients of a large number of very valuable and useful presents.

Children of ALFRED JAMES DENNIS (1874-1936) AND ADA ADESSA CLARKE (1887-1946):

1. FLORENCE HOPE DENNIS (1904-1979) 2. ALFRED OGELSBY DENNIS (1906-1983) 3. THOMAS EMANUEL DENNIS (1907-1968) 4. LESLIE JAMES DENNIS (1916-1989) 5. ALLAN LESTER DENNIS (1918-1923) 6. RONALD GEORGE DENNIS (1922-1990)

Electoral Roll:

1910, 1916, 1917 Alfred James Dennis, Goomalling, farmer, Ada Adessa, Grassdale, Goomalling, married.

1925 Alfred James Dennis, Wellaton Street, Midland Junction, labourer, Ada Adessa, same address, housewife.

1931 Alfred James Dennis, Goomalling, labourer

Weekly Gazette (Goomalling, WA: 1924 - 1946), Fri 26 Jun 1936, pg 1

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article240113822.txt>

The death occurred in the city on Friday of last week of Alfred James Dennis, a well-known identity of Goomalling who, for some weeks, had been in low health and had gone to Perth a short while before his death to go into hospital. The deceased, who was 60 years of age, had spent practically all his life in this locality, where he has two surviving brothers, and at one time owned a farm on the Karranajin road which is now part of Smith's Estate. His widow (who was formerly Miss Ada Clarke) and a family of four sons and two daughters reside at Midland Junction, where the funeral took place last Saturday afternoon.

The death occurred in the city on Friday of last week of Alfred James Dennis, a well-known identity of Goomalling who, for some weeks, had been in low health and had gone to Perth a short while before his death to go into hospital. The deceased, who was 60 years of age, had spent practically all his life in this locality, where he has two surviving brothers, and at one time owned a farm on the Karranajin road which is now part of Smith's Estate. His widow (who was formerly Miss Ada Clarke) and a family of four sons and two daughters reside at Midland Junction, where the funeral took place last Saturday afternoon.

ALFRED JAMES DENNIS (1874-1936) partnered EMILY JANE SING (1887-1974): They had nine children.

EMILY JANE AH SING (1887-1974) James Sing's mother

This is a very complex family tree. Detailed family Trees on Ancestry. For more details contact family members from this line.

*Emily Jane Ah Sing.
Courtesy Simi Bennett*

Emily Jane Ah Sing was born on 26 Jun 1887 in Middle Swan, WA [Reg. No. 811], recorded under Emily Ahsing. Parents: WILLIAM AHSING (1855-1942) and JULIA ANNA HITCHCOCK (1853-1932).

Emily Jane had one child with UNKNOWN. She had one child with WALTER JOHN YARDLEY (1873-1962). She had nine children with ALFRED JAMES DENNIS (1874-1936).

Note: Walter John Yardley and Alfred James Dennis had other children bearing their surnames from previous marriages. All very complicated. There may be errors or discrepancies. For more details check family trees on Ancestry or with family members.

Emily Ah Sing died on 29 Mar 1974 in Northam, WA, at the age of 86, and was buried there.

CHILD OF EMILY JANE AH SING (1887-1974) AND UNKNOWN:

1. MARGARET EVELYN AHSING (1905-1983) born 1905, Midland, WA [Reg. 6833], father unknown, mother recorded as Emily AHSING. Emily Jane was aged about 18 years.

MARGARET EVELYN AH SING (1905-1983) married BRYAN CULLENANE (1909-1992) 1928, Swan, WA [Reg. 6100059]. They had two children.

The next child to be born to Emily Jane Ah Sing in 1908 was fathered by Walter John Yardley. Walter had been married and had children by his first wife Hilda Sidonia, who had died in 1905.

CHILD OF EMILY JANE AH SING (1887-1974) AND WALTER JOHN YARDLEY (1873-1962):

2. EUNICE PHOEBE AHSING (1908- 1994) born in 1908, Northam, WA [Reg. 116]. Registered under Eunice Phoebe Ahsing, mother Emily AHSING.

PHOEBE EUNICE SING (1908- 1994) married LESLIE EDWARD LAWRENCE (1900-1934) 1930, Northam, WA [Reg. 4800040]. Registered under Phoebe Eunice Sing.

m2. PHOEBE EUNICE LAWRENCE (1908- 1994) married CHARLES LEONARD VICTOR FROST (1897-1970) 4 Jul 1936, Fremantle, WA [Reg. 2700233].

WALTER JOHN YARDLEY (1873-1962) The father of Emily Jane Ah Sings's second child Eunice Phoebe born in 1908.

m.1 WALTER JOHN YARDLEY (1873-1962) married HILDA SIDONIA BOWD (1876-1905) 11 Apr 1898, Helena Valley, WA [Reg. 1526]. They had two children. Hilda died 1905, WA [Reg. 2748].

m2. WALTER JOHN YARDLEY (1873-1962) married ELEANOR MARGARET COUSINS (1878-1963) 1 Jun 1911, Perth, WA [Reg.100351]. Registered under Couzens. They had two children.

Electoral Roll:

1903 Walter John Yardley, Newcastle Street, Midland Junction, fireman, Hilda Sidonia, wife
1910, 1912 Walter John Yardley, Newcastle Street, Midland Junction, labourer

Following the death of his wife Hilda Sidonia in 1905, Walter John Yardley married again.

m.2 WALTER JOHN YARDLEY (1873-1962) married ELEANOR MARGARET COUSINS (1878-1963) 1 Jun 1911, Perth, WA [Reg. 351]. They had two children.

Electoral Roll:

1917, 1926, 1931, 1943 Walter John Yardley, George St, Midland Junction, motorman, Eleanor Margaret, home duties.
1958 Walter John Yardley, 1 Peel St, East Guilford, labourer, Eleanor Margaret, 42 George St, Midland Junction, home duties.

As indicated above, Walter John Yardley fathered Phoebe Eunice Ahsing after his first wife died and before his second marriage to Eleanor Margaret Cousins.

CHILDREN OF ALFRED JAMES DENNIS (1874-1936) AND EMILY JANE AH SING (1887-1974):

Via "Our Family Tree and its blended branches", Ancestry.

Note: The birth registrations of all of these children have variations of their mother's surname of AhSing, Ah Sing, Ah-Sing and Sing as recorded below. The surnames had changed to Sing, with the registration of their marriage.

1. EDITH IRENE AHSING (1912-1918) was born in 1912, Northam, WA [Reg. 309]. She died 1918. Northam, WA [Reg. 4900166], aged 6 years.

2. STANLEY NORMAN SING (1915-1987) was born 1915 Northam, WA [Reg.47]. He married HESTER NAOMI MOODY (1916-2005) 1940, Goomalling, [WA [Reg. 4900135].

3. SIDNEY AH SING (1918-1990) was born 1918, Northam, WA [Reg.266]. Registered as Sidney. He died 20 Oct 1990, Quairading, WA.

4. ALFRED AHSING (1920-1992) was born 1920, Northam, WA [Reg.344] (A twin). He married EDNA JEAN KEMPTON (1929-2001) 1847. Beverley, WA [Reg. 18].

5. JAMES AHSING (1920-2004) was born 1920, Northam, WA [Reg. 345]. (A twin). He married EMILY MURIAL BLECHYNDEN 1942, Beverley, WA [Reg. 400027], names as registered. See elsewhere for more details on this couple.

6. DAPHNE MAY AH-SING (1923-2006) was born 1923 Northam, WA [Reg. 192]. She married ERIC STANLEY DEWAR (1913-1999) 1940, Northam, WA [Reg. 33].

7. RONALD ARTHUR SING (1925-2005) was born 1925, Northam, WA [Reg. 379]. He married DOREEN ISABEL FAIRHEAD (1931-1998) 1953, Northam, WA [Reg. 12].

8. GLADYS ETHEL AH SING (1927-2009) was born 1927, Northam, WA [Reg. 420]. She married GUS WATKINS (1921-2017) 1946. Northam, WAQ [Reg. 7].

9. ERIC SING (1932-1990) was born 1932, Northam, WA [Reg. 323]. He married MAXINE IDA MARKEY 1955, Perth, WA [Reg. 2043].

Electoral Roll:

Recorded as Emily Jane Ahsing and Emily Jane Sing.

1912, 1916 Emily Jane Ahsing, Grass Dale, Goomalling, lady help.

1921, 1925 Emily Jane Ahsing, Throssell Street, Northam, domestic duties.

1931, 1936 Emily Jane Sing, Forward Street, Goomalling, laundress.

1968 Emily Jane Sing, Goomalling, home duties.

1972 Emily Jane Sing, 293 Duke St, Northam, home duties.

Continuing with the story of EMILY MURIEL BLECHYNDEN (1923-2016) AND JAMES AH SING (1920-2004):

CHILDREN OF EMILY MURIEL BLECHYNDEN (1923-2016) AND JAMES AH SING (1920-2004):

1. ROBERT ALFRED SING (1946-2009) and VALERIE JOY FOWLER

2. NEVILLE DAVID SING (1948-2019) and ALMA ELIZABETH COTTER (1949-2017)
3. NOELAND LLOYD SING (1950-2007) and DEBBIE SCHLEIKE
4. FREDERICK JAMES SING and BERYL MARGARET BOYLE (1944-2012)

Many thanks to Simi Bennett who has contributed many items and photos to the Project.

This is her explanation of her family connection:

"My Nana was Emily Blechynden /Sing daughter of Alfred Walter Blechynden and Mary Christina Doohan /Blechynden. Emily married James Ah Sing my granddad. I am one of the daughters of Neville and Alma Sing.

FAMILY PHOTOS – courtesy Simi Bennet

Back: L-R: Alfred Sing, Ronald Sing, James Sing.

Front, L-R: Gus Atkins, Gladys Atkins (nee Sing), Emily Sing (nee Blechynden), (James Wife); Doreen, (Ronald's Wife); Jessie Jean Sing (nee Macdonald), (Alfred's wife); Daphne Dewer (nee Sing); Eric Sing.

Back: James Sing, Alfred Blechynden.
Middle Row: Valerie, Emily Blechynden Sing, Mary Doohan Blechynden, Rochelle, Me (Simi), Irene Warry - Cotter -Hough, (no relation to Rochelle) Front Row: Jamie.

Rochelle Sing - Hough, (daughter of Robert Sing and Valerie Fowler); Alma Cotter - Sing - Patterson holding Erica Sing – Smith - Faithfull; Alfred Walter Blechynden holding me, Simi.

Back: Jim Sing, John Blechynden
Front: Tom Blechynden and Wally McGregor (Amy Blechynden's husband)

Alma Cotter - Sing - Patterson
Mary Blechynden (nee Doohan) holding grandson Frederick James Sing, Alfred Walter Blechynden

Alfred Walter
Blechynden and Frederick James Sing, grandson)

James Sing with granddaughter Rochelle Sing
Hough and Emily Sing (nee Blechynden).

Emily Sing (nee Blechynden)
and James Sing

3rd CHILD OF ALFRED WALTER BLECHYNDEN & MARY CHRISTINA DOOHAN

3. BLECHYNDEN, FREDERICK WILLIAM DOOHAN (1925-1977) was born 31 Jan 1925, Beverley, WA [Reg. 37]. He died 1 May 1977, aged 52 years, Mount Barker, WA. Buried Beverley Anglican Cemetery, WA.

BLECHYNDEN FREDERICK WILLIAM DOOHAN: Service Number - 83181: Date of birth - 31 Jan 1925: Place of birth - BEVERLEY WA: Next of Kin - BLECHYNDEN ALFRED

Frederick William Doohan Blechynden

Frederick William Doohan
enlisted 13 Apr 1943.
Application for service in the RAAF overseas, Guard, Group 28
R.A.A.F. Darwin, leading aircraftsman 6 Oct 45.

Letter written requesting release from service to return to the farm at Morbining, due to the deterioration of his father Alfred Walter Blechynden's health.
Approved 16 Nov 45. Discharged 6
Dec 45.

A.B. 202.

THE COMMISSIONERS OF THE AGRICULTURAL BANK OF WESTERN AUSTRALIA.

In reply please quote 62/38 SSS. HRD/JE

Correspondents will greatly facilitate the transaction of their business by:
Confining each letter to one subject.
Writing on one side only of the paper.
Addressing all letters to the General Manager.

Your Ref. _____ PERTH 26th June, 1945.

The Commanding Officer,
Group 28, R. A. A. F.
DARWIN.

Dear Sir,

83181, Blechynden, F.W., L.A.C.

I understand from the father of the above named that an application is being made for the release of L.A.C. Blechynden, and it is desired that the following information be passed on to you.

According to our Inspector's reports F.W. Blechynden did all the work on the property prior to his enlistment and was more or less indispensable to this Bank's client, A.W. Blechynden. Since the son's absence the position generally has deteriorated, owing to the father's physical condition and general ineptitude for farming. Under the circumstances it is considered that the son's release would be very desirable.

Yours faithfully,

for GENERAL MANAGER.

National Archives of Australia

NAA: A9301, 83181

FREDERICK WILLIAM DOOHAN BLECHYNDEN (1925-1977) married m.2 BARBARA LAVINIA MARGARET GROVER (1922-2009), 1949, Beverley, WA [Reg. 20]. BARBARA (via the Waddell Family Tree, Ancestry) was born 6 Aug 1922, Beverley, WA [Reg. 180]. Parents: HENRY JOSEPH GROVER (1886-1974) and CLARA MAY MAUD MOULTON (1891-1975) who were married 1912, Beverley, WA. Barbara died 21 Sep 2009, Beverley, WA.

HENRY JOSEPH GROVER (1886-1974), Barbara's father, was born 12 Apr 1886, Gilgering, WA [Reg. 28577]. Parents: GEORGE ALBERT GROVER (1855-1921) and MARGARET WATKINS (1857-1936) who were married 1 Jan 1877, Beverley, WA [Reg. 4274]. Henry was the ninth child of thirteen children. Sadly, his sister Susannah, born in 1888, died in 1891, WA Reg. 357], aged three years.

CLARA MAY MAUD MOULTON (1891-1975), Barbara's mother, was born 5 Jun 1891, Beverley, WA [Reg. 703]. She was the eldest of ten children born to LOUIS JAMES MOULTON (1863-1950) and ANNIE MAY OTWAY (1874-1935) who were married 1891, Beverley, WA [Reg. 59].

m. 1 BARBARA LAVINIA MARGARET GROVER (1922-2009) married m.1 CHARLES PATRICK CAUDLE (1918-1998), 1939 Beverley, WA [Reg. 24]. m.2 CHARLES PATRICK CAUDLE (1918-1998) married m.2 WINNIFRED DORIS ANDERSON (NEE WEBB (1922-1994)), 18 Aug 1953, Perth, WA [Reg. 1829].

The following interesting article featuring Barbara's father Henry Joseph Grover (1886-1974) gives an indication of his life and his family at that time.

Beverley Times (WA: 1905 - 1977), Thu 12 Dec 1974, pg 1

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article202743063.txt>

A PIONEER PASSES

Another of the district's pioneers passed away at the Beverley Hospital after a lengthy period of ill-health on Sunday last. He was Mr. Henry Joseph (Bubs) Grover, who at 88 years had from his humble stance in the community life, seen most of the pageantry associated with the good and bad years of the district.

With his wife and large family he had become a well known and respected figure from one end of the district to the other. 'Bubs' was born at Gilgering - his father at the time being one of the many men employed on the construction of the Great Southern Railway. As a young man he found employment on many properties in this and surrounding areas.

He married Clara Moulton, daughter of one of the first families to become established at the Dale, and the ceremony took place in 1911 at St. Peter's Church, Gilgering with Canon Groser officiating.

It was, as a youth employed near Beverley, that he suddenly became dissatisfied with the nature of his work and decided to seek another job with "Stump-jump" Smith, the inventor whose contribution to agriculture was the perfection of the stump-jump plough which was to revolutionise farming practice throughout W.A. and the Commonwealth (The story of the inventor's association with this town was related recently through these columns by local writer 'Bubs' Edwards).

Further reference was made by the same writer last week to the late citizen's activity - with others - in the capture of wild brumbies when they came to water at a pool on the Avon River near Kokeby. The story embraced some of the history of a particularly famous buckjumper which was acquired by a travelling show and billed as "Midnight Cyclone". The horse appeared with success in various parts of the Commonwealth.

'Bubs' Grover was one of the district's best known gun-lovers who delighted in participating in field, river and lake shooting, and from the days of his youth he had never failed to attend the opening of the duck shooting season, in these areas.

As a young man, working on a property at Brookton, he thought nothing of walking the length of the Southern Branch of the Avon River to its junction with the main stream at Jurakine. He was also a keen fisherman on the Dale River pools when cobblers were prevalent and much sought after.

In later years he became associated with the outside staff of the local Road Board, and it was whilst in its employ that his working life was suddenly ended following an accident in the vicinity of the Town Hall. As a pensioner he has lived quietly in retirement ever since - his main activity

A PIONEER PASSES

Another of the district's pioneers passed away at the Beverley Hospital after a lengthy period of ill-health on Sunday last. He was Mr. Henry Joseph (Bubs) Grover, who at 88 years had from his humble stance in the community life, seen most of the pageantry associated with the good and bad years of the district.

With his wife and large family, he had become a well-known and respected figure from one end of the district to the other. 'Bubs' was born at Gilgering - his father at the time being one of the many men employed on the construction of the Great Southern Railway. As a young man he found employment on many properties in this and surrounding areas.

has lived quietly in retirement ever since - his main activity during this period being the cultivation of a vegetable patch
continued on page 5 . . .

A PIONEER PASSES continued from page 1

He is survived by his wife, Clara, and a family comprising five sons (Lionel, Louis, Rede, Kevin and Mervyn) and five daughters (Stella, Vera, Barbara, Daphne and Shirley). Another son, Leo, predeceased him a few years ago.

The funeral took place at the Anglican cemetery following a service at St. Mary's Church yesterday afternoon - Canon Henry Tassell officiating for the last rites.

He married Clara Moulton, daughter of one of the first families to become established at the Dale, and the ceremony took place in 1911 at St. Peter's Church, Gilgering with Canon Groser officiating.

It was, as a youth employed near Beverley, that he suddenly became dissatisfied with the nature of his work and decided to seek another job with "Stump-jump" Smith, the inventor whose contribution to agriculture was the perfection of the stump-jump plough which was to revolutionise farming practice throughout W.A. and the Commonwealth (The story of the inventor's association with this town was related recently through these columns by local, writer 'Bubs' Edwards).

Further reference was made by the same writer last week to the late citizen's activity -with others - in the capture of wild brumbies when they came to water at a pool on the Avon River near Kokeby. The story embraced some of the history of a particularly famous buckjumper which was acquired by a travelling show and billed as "Midnight Cyclone". The horse appeared with success in various parts of the Commonwealth.

'Bubs' Grover was one of the district's best known gun lovers who delighted in participating in field, river and lake shooting, and from the days of his youth he had never failed to attend the opening of the duck shooting season, in these areas.

As a young man, working on a property at Brookton, he thought nothing of walking the length of the Southern Branch of the Avon River to its junction with the main stream at Jurakine. He was also a keen fisherman on the Dale River pools when cobblers were prevalent and much sought after.

In later years he became associated with the outside staff of the local Road Board, and it was whilst in its employ that his working life was suddenly ended following an accident in the vicinity of the Town Hall. As a pensioner he has lived quietly in retirement ever since - his main activity during this period being the cultivation of a vegetable patch
continued on page 5 . . .

A PIONEER PASSES

continued from page 1

He is survived by his wife, Clara, and a family comprising five sons (Lionel, Louis, Rede, Kevin and Mervyn) and five daughters (Stella, Vera, Barbara, Daphne and Shirley). Another son, Leo, predeceased him a few years ago. The funeral took place at the Anglican cemetery following a service at St. Mary's Church yesterday afternoon -Canon Henry Tassell officiating for the last rites.

The following interesting article featuring Barbara Grover's grandfather, James Louis Moulton (1863-1950), gives an indication of his life and family at that time.

Beverley Times (WA: 1905 - 1977), Fri 20 Jan 1950, pg 1

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article201843928.txt>

Aged Resident's Death MR JAMES LOUIS MOULTON A life linked with the earliest days in the State's history came to a close with the death on the 11th inst, of Mr James Louis Moulton, at the age of 87 years. His demise terminated a long period of declining health and occurred at the residence of his son, Mr Bevan Moulton, with whom he was residing at the time. Deceased's grandfather was lost at sea and his father James Matthew Moulton, was among the first to arrive in the State and settled with his wife at York where the subject of this notice was born. Shortly afterwards the family moved to the Dale to take up the work of pioneering new country and of creating a home in the then wilderness. The land selected was near the present Dale Hall.	Carrying on in the footsteps of his father the son, Louis, acquired land in 1896 and from the virgin bush developed the Yallering property. As a young man he married Anne Maria Otway, member of another well-known Dale family. At Yallering a large family of five sons and five daughters were born. The deceased retired from active farming in 1920, the property being taken over by a son, Bert, but he continued to live at the farm until the death of his wife in 1935, since when he has resided with various members of the family. The family has been prominently associated with Dale activities throughout the years. Those to survive the late citizen are: Sons—Bert (Dale) James (Bencubbin) Bevan (Dale) Clarence (Beverley) and Rede (Narrogin); daughters—Clara (Mrs H Grover, Beverley) Nell (Mrs Pickles, Perth) Ivy (Mrs Callaghan, Perth) Hilda (Mrs H Smith, Perth) and Lilly (Mrs J Pink). There are 38 grandchildren and 22 great grandchildren.	Aged Resident's Death MR JAMES LOUIS MOULTON A life linked with the earliest days in the State's history came to a close with the death on the 11th inst, of Mr James Louis Moulton, at the age of 87 years. His demise terminated a long period of declining health and occurred at the residence of his son, Mr Bevan Moulton, with whom he was residing at the time. The funeral took place at the Methodist Cemetery on the afternoon of the 12th inst, after a service at the Methodist Church. The Rev W A Fawell, of Brookton, officiated. Practically the whole of the Dale community appeared to be represented at the ceremony as well as many friends of the family from other parts of the district. Mr E T Fairhead carried out the arrangements and the pall bearers were: Messrs W Hobbs, H G Langsford, S Hutchinson, Bert Simmons, A McCallum, and M Hick.
---	---	---

Deceased's grandfather was lost at sea and his father James Matthew Moulton, was among the first to arrive in the State and settled with his wife at York where the subject of this notice was born. Shortly afterwards the family moved to the Dale to take up the work of pioneering new country and of creating a home in the then wilderness. The land selected was near the present Dale Hall.

Carrying on in the footsteps of his father the son, Louis, acquired land in 1896 and from the virgin bush developed the Yallering property. As a young man he married Anne Maria Otway, member of another well-known Dale family. At Yallering a large family of five sons and five daughters were born.

The deceased retired from active farming in 1920, the property being taken over by a son, Bert, but he continued to live at the farm until the death of his wife in 1935, since when he has resided with various members of the family.

The family has been prominently associated with Dale activities throughout the years. Those to survive the late citizen are: Sons—Bert (Dale) James (Bencubbin) Bevan (Dale) Clarence (Beverley) and Rede (Narrogin); daughters—Clara (Mrs H Grover, Beverley) Nell (Mrs Pickles, Perth) Ivy (Mrs Callaghan, Perth) Hilda (Mrs H Smith, Perth) and Lilly (Mrs J Pink). There are 38 grandchildren and 22 great grandchildren.

The funeral took place at the Methodist Cemetery on the afternoon of the 12th inst, after a service at the Methodist Church. The Rev W A Fawell, of Brookton, officiated. Practically the whole of the Dale community appeared to be represented at the ceremony as well as many friends of the family from other parts of the district. Mr E T Fairhead carried out the arrangements and the pall bearers were: Messrs W Hobbs, H G Langsford, S Hutchinson, Bert Simmons, A McCallum, and M Hick.

CHILDREN OF FREDERICK WILLIAM DOOHAN BLECHYNDEN (1925-1977) AND BARBARA LAVINIA MARGARET GROVER: Ray, Lew and Kaye, Stepchildren: Deanne and Daphne.

Electoral Roll:

1949 1958 Frederick William Doohan Blechynden, Morbinning, farmer

1958 Frederick William Doohan Blechynden, Morbinning, farmer, Barbara Lavinia Margaret, home duties.

1968, 1972 Frederick William Doohan Blechynden, Kendenup, farmer, Barbara Lavinia Margaret, home duties.

1963 Charles Patrick Caudle, Yoongarilup, farm hand, Winnifred Doris, home duties

1968 Charles Patrick Caudle, 41 Forrest St, Beverley, farmer, Winnifred Doris, home duties

Frederick William Doohan Blechynden died 1 May 1977, aged 52 years, Mount Barker, WA. Barbara Lavinia Margaret Blechynden (nee Grover) died 21 Sep 2009, Beverley, WA. They are buried together at the Beverley Anglican Cemetery, WA.

Headstone of Frederick and Barbara Blechynden (nee Grover), Beverley Anglican Cemetery

Returning to ALFRED WALTER BLECHYNDEN (1894-1976) and MARY CHRISTINA DOOHAN (1900-1980):

Electoral Roll:

1925, 1931, 1936, 1937, 1943, 1949 Alfred Walter Blechynden, Morbinning, Beverley, farmer, Mary Christina, home duties

1958 Alfred Walter Blechynden, Riverside, Beverley, farmer, Mary Christina, home duties

1972 Alfred Walter Blechynden, Sewell St, Beverley, farmer, Mary Christina, home duties

MORE ABOUT BEVERLEY <http://www.beverleywa.com/about.html#>

Official survey of the Beverley district took place in 1843. The Beverley townsite was established around 1868 and its status was enhanced with the extension of the electric telegraph from York in 1877. Other communities arose as more and more land was taken up. Localities such as The Dale, Mt Kokeby, East Beverley, Morbinning and Bally Bally had their own schools and district halls. Only the halls at Morbinning, Bally Bally and The Dale remain.

Morbinning is an area located about 25 kilometres east of Beverley. This map shows the area of Morbinning and its relationship with Beverley, Bally Bally and Kokeby mentioned throughout the Project.

Map showing Morbinning

Alfred Walter Blechynden (1894-1976) died 7 Sep 1976, Beverley, WA. Buried 10 Sep 1876 at the Beverley Cemetery. (Unmarked grave), grave memorial 206000163.

Beverley Times (WA: 1905 - 1977), Thu 23 Sep 1976, pg 8

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article202745530.txt>

VALE 'BOB' BLECHYNDEN

With the passing of Alfred Walter ('Bob') Blechynden at the Beverley Hospital on Tuesday, September 7th, a strong link with the early days of the Morbinning area was severed.

Although retired for many years with his wife in Beverley, he farmed the property of his parents, the late Mr and Mrs J. W. Blechynden, at Morbinning, after being invalided from the Army during World War I.

He was the third son of a family of six, and his sister, Eva, of Hunt Road, Beverley, is the sole surviving member of the family. Another sister, Ida, and brothers, Fred, Ben, and Ernie, predeceased him.

'Bob' Blechynden enlisted in the Army at the age of 21 and, as a member of the 28th Infantry Battalion saw service in the Middle East, and it was at Gallipoli that he was wounded – losing an eye as a result.

After his return to Australia he married Miss Mary Doohan and of the union two daughters Kathleen (deceased) and Emily (Mrs. Jim Sing, of Beverley), and a son, Fred (Kendenup), was born. Kathleen's death occurred under tragic circumstances on the farm when, as a young girl, she was dragged by horse that bolted.

Aged 82, Bob was possessed of a quiet nature and a sense of humour. He was a firm favourite with both the young and old, and possessed an inexhaustible fund of anecdotes and information on the early day of this area.

To his bereaved wife, family and sister goes the sincere sympathy of a wide circle of friends.

A service was held in St. Mary's Church, Beverley, on September 10 prior to the funeral cortege leaving for the Church of England cemetery.

VALE 'BOB' BLECHYNDEN

With the passing of Alfred Walter ('Bob') Blechynden at the Beverley Hospital on Tuesday, September 7th, a strong link with the early days of the Morbinning area was severed.

Although retired for many years with his wife in Beverley, he farmed the property of his parents, the late Mr and Mrs J. W. Blechynden, at Morbinning, after being invalided from the Army during World War I.

He was the third son of a family of six, and his sister, Eva, of Hunt Road, Beverley, is the sole surviving member of the family. Another sister, Ida, and brothers, Fred, Ben, and Ernie, predeceased him.

'Bob' Blechynden enlisted in the Army at the age of 21 and, as a member of the 28th Infantry Battalion saw service in the Middle East, and it was at Gallipoli that he was wounded - losing an eye as a result.

After his return to Australia, he married Miss Mary Doohan and of the union two daughters Kathleen (deceased) and Emily (Mrs. Jim Sing, of Beverley), and a son, Fred (Kendenup), was born. Kathleen's death occurred under tragic circumstances on the farm when, as a young girl, she was dragged by horse that bolted.

Aged 82, Bob was possessed of a quiet nature and a sense of humour. He was a firm favourite with both the young and old, and possessed an inexhaustible fund of anecdotes and information on the early day of this area. To his bereaved wife, family and sister goes the sincere sympathy of a wide circle of friends.

A service was held in St. Mary's Church, Beverley, on September 10 prior to the funeral cortege leaving for the Church of England cemetery.

Mary Christina Doohan died 3 Jul 1980, Beverley, WA.

Headstone of Mary Christina Blechynden (nee Doohan), Beverley Cemetery

In Loving Memory of MARY CHRISTINA BELOVED WIFE OF BOB LOVING MOTHER OF
KATHLEEN, EMILY & FRED
PASSED AWAY 3RD JULY 1980
AGED 79 YEARS
R. I. P.

FIFTH CHILD OF JESSE BLECHYNDEN & EMMA DUNHAM

5. BLECHYNDEN, EVELYN 'EVA' ANNIE (1896-1982)

Evelyn Annie Blechynden was born 5 Nov 1896, Beverley, WA [Reg. 36], a twin to George Seymour Blechynden. Name recorded as Evalyn Annie. She was christened 13 Jan 1897, Beverley, WA. She remained Single.

Evelyn 'Eva' Annie Blechynden

Left: A copy of the Baptism certificate for Evelyn Annie Blechynden. Courtesy Mary Coulthard: Translation of Eva's Baptism Certificate following:

*Beverley W.A.
13th January 1897
I hereby certify that I have this day Baptised
Evelyn Annie Blechynden
Infant daughter of Jesse William and Emma Sarah Blechynden
Both of Beverley*

Geo Henry Veslin,

This letter written to Alf by Eva shows how she has written out her Mum's diary and hopes Babs will one day type it out. It also shows she that she enjoyed embroidering doylies. Courtesy Mary Coulthard.

Note: Family records show that Eva lived with her mother Emma Sarah Dunham on 'Bellbeling' Farm in the Morbinning area.

Via Tracey Currihan:

From my mother's research and from electoral rolls it seems that Evalyn (she was known as Eva but is often recorded as Evelyn), lived on Bellbeling Farm as did her mother Emma Sarah, nee Dunham along with her brother Horace Ernest and his wife, Ethel Maria, nee Edwards. This farm belonged to John Edwards (eldest son of Thomas and Ann Maria Edwards). Emma Sarah Dunham was a live-in housekeeper and nanny for John Edwards and his young family after his wife died. After John's death in 1926, Emma Sarah Blechynden and their son Horace Ernest remained on the farm. It seems likely that this is the farm in Morbinning that Evalyn lived on for many years until she moved to Hunt Rd in Beverley.

Above: Google Street view has this home at 53 Hunt Road, Beverley which is presumably the one Eva lived in.

Mary Christina Doohan (nee Blechynden), Evelyn Annie Blechynden and Erica, Mary's great grandchild.

Electoral Roll

1925, 1937, 1943, 1954. Evelyn Annie Blechynden, Morbining, Beverley – see map of Morbining area further back.
 1960, 1963, 1977, 1980, Evelyn Annie Blechynden, 53 Hunt Rd, Beverley

Evelyn Annie Blechynden died 17 Aug 1982, Beverley, W.A. Burial: Aug 1982, Beverley Cemetery.

Headstone of Evelyn Annie Blechynden, Beverley Cemetery

SIXTH CHILD OF JESSE BLECHYNDEN & EMMA DUNHAM

6. BLECHYNDEN, GEORGE SEYMOUR (1896-1896)

George Seymour Blechynden was born 5 Nov 1896, Beverley, WA [Reg. 35], a twin to Evelyn Annie. He died at one month of age on 7 Dec 1896, Wagin, WA. Registered 1897, WA [Reg. 1369]. Buried at the Wagin Cemetery.

SEVENTH CHILD OF JESSE BLECHYNDEN & EMMA DUNHAM

7. BLECHYNDEN, HORACE ERNEST (1899-1955) & EDWARDS, ETHEL MARIA (1911-1985)

BLECHYNDEN, HORACE ERNEST (1899-1955) was born 3 Apr 1899, Beverley, WA [Reg. 19]. He married ETHEL MARIA EDWARDS (1911-1985), 31 Oct 1929, Beverley, WA [Reg. 63]. Horace died 15 Apr 1955, Beverley, WA [Reg. 9]. Buried 18 Apr 1955, St Mary's Cemetery, Beverley.

*Ethel Maria Blechynden (nee Edwards).
 Courtesy Tracey Currigan*

EDWARDS, ETHEL MARIA (1911-1985) was born 1 Dec 1911, Beverley, WA [Reg. 1], registered year, 1912, father, EDWARD WILLIAM (NED) EDWARDS (1871-1956), mother, ADA MARY BERTHA FLEAY (1876-1922) who were married 1903, Gilgering, WA [Reg. 2067]. Ethel Maria Blechynden (nee Edwards) died 1 Oct 1985, Beverley, WA. Buried Beverley Anglican Cemetery, WA.

THE FOLLOWING SIX PAGES CONTAIN A BRIEF HISTORY OF ETHEL MARIA EDWARDS PARENTS, EDWARD WILLIAM (NED) EDWARDS (1871-1956) AND ADA MARY BERTHA FLEAY (1876-1922):

EDWARDS, EDWARD WILLIAM 'NED' (1871-1956), Ethel Maria Edward's father

Edward William Edwards was born 1871, Beverley, WA [Reg. 13252], son of THOMAS EDWARDS (1833-1907) and ANN MARIA GRIFFITH (1830-1890).

THOMAS EDWARDS (1833-1907) Ethel Maria Edward's grandfather

Thomas Edwards was born 25 Jul 1833, Gungrog, Fawr, Montgomery, Wales.

Thomas Edwards died 17 Nov 1907, 'Rockfield', Beverley, WA [Reg. 36].

m. 1 THOMAS EDWARDS (1833-1907) married ANN MARIA GRIFFITH (1830-1890), 7 May 1855, Tipton, Staffordshire, England.

BOOK: Thomas Edwards of Beverley Immigrant Policeman, settler, by Mollie Bentley

<http://www.hesperianpress.com/index.php/booklist/2011-06-17-00-41-54/t-titles/329-thomas-edwards-of-beverley>

ANN MARIA GRIFFITH (1830-1890), Ethel Maria Edward's grandmother was born 1830, Llanidloes, Montgomery, Wales, daughter of BENJAMIN GRIFFITH (1791-1859) and ELIZABETH WIGLEY (1795-1860) who were married 25 May 1816, Trefeglwys, Montgomeryshire, Wales. Ann died 13 Aug 1890, Beverley, WA [Reg No. 445].

Thomas Edwards, wife Ann Maria (nee Griffith) and their infant son John, emigrated departing from Southampton, England, via the City of Bristol, arriving in Perth on 8 Aug 1857. Thomas joined the Colonial Police Force in 1858. He and his wife initially settled in York. They then moved to the new town of Beverley. In Nov 1861 Ann was appointed post mistress. Thomas also commenced farming on land acquired which they called 'Rockfield'. More can be read on this couple in Beverley, Our journey through time pgs. 60-62.

PC Thomas Edwards, right, with two associates, York, 1872 Beverley Our Journey in time, pg. 61.

Ann Maria Edwards (nee Griffith) and Thomas Edwards

CHILDREN OF THOMAS EDWARDS (1833-1907) and ANN MARIA GRIFFITH (1830-1890):
Ethel Maria Edward's grandparents

1. JOHN EDWARDS (1855-1926) was born 8 Jul 1855, Staffordshire, England. He married MARY ANN GOULDING (1850-1884), 18 Feb 1877, Beverley, WA [Reg No. 4244]. John and Mary Edwards had five children together. Mary Edwards died as a young mother at the age of 33 years. Family records show that Emma Sarah Dunham acted as John Edward's housekeeper. DNA shows that John Edwards had a son with Emma Sarah Dunham. He was named Alfred Walter and on his birth certificate he was acknowledged as Alfred Walter Blechynden. More details can be read in Alfred Walter Blechynden's chapter. John Edwards died 12 Oct 1926, Beverley, WA [Reg. 47].

2. EMILY EDWARDS (1858-1860) was born in 1858, York, WA [Reg. 4489]. She died aged between 1- 2 years on 24 May 1860, York, WA [Reg. 1427].

3. SUSANNAH EDWARDS (1860-1947) was born in 1860, Beverley, WA [Reg. 5330A]. She died 1 Apr 1947, Beverley, WA [Reg. 11].

4. RICHARD THOMAS EDWARDS (1862-1946) was born in 1862, Beverley, WA [Reg. 6462]. He married ANNIE WILSON BLOOMFIELD (1863-1933), 1891, Beverley, WA [Reg. 317]. Richard died 28 Aug 1946, Beverley, WA [Reg. 18].

5. JULIA EDWARDS (1864-1935) was born in 1864, Beverley, WA [Reg. 7789]. She married EDMUND HORACE SMITH (1855-1931), 1885, Beverley, WA [Reg. 6253]. Julia died 8 Jan 1935, Beverley, WA [Reg. 5].

6. SEABRIGHT EDWARDS (1866-1939), recorded as Lee Bright, was born in 1866, Beverley, WA [Reg. 9357]. She married GEORGE DIFFEN (1867-1940), 1892, Beverley, WA [Reg. 351]. Seabright Diffen (nee Edwards) died 27 Nov 1939, Swan, WA [Reg. 91].

7. MARY ANN EDWARDS (1868-1943) was born in 1868, Beverley, WA. She married EPHRAIM HENRY FAIRHEAD (1864-1941), 1891, Beverley, WA [Reg. 398]. Mary Ann Fairhead (nee Edwards) died 12 Sep 1943, Beverley, WA [Reg. 38].

8. EDWARD 'NED' WILLIAM EDWARDS (1871-1956), Ethel Maria Edward's father, was born in 1871, Beverley, WA [Reg. 13252]. He married ADA MARY BERTHA FLEAY (1876-1922), 1903, Gilgering, WA [Reg. 2067]. Their fifth child, ETHEL MARIA EDWARDS (1911-1985) married HORACE ERNEST BLECHYNDEN (1890-1955), 1929, Beverley, WA [Reg. 196]. Horace Blechynden was the seventh child of Jesse William Blechynden (1851-1934) and Emma Sarah Dunham (1862-1947). Edward died 6 Oct 1956, Gilgering, WA [Reg. 28].

9. MARGARET EDWARDS (1873-1958) was born in 1873, Beverley, WA [Reg. 14853]. She married ERNST ALBERT FORD (1872-1959), 1898, Beverley, WA [Reg. 10]. Registered as Ernst Ford. Margaret Ford (nee Edwards) died 9 Feb 1958, York, WA [Reg. 5].

 Following is a brief history of Ethel Maria Edward's, mother, ADA MARY BERTHA FLEAY (1876-1922):

ADA MARY BERTHA FLEAY (1876-1922) Birth registered as Mary Ada Bertha Fleay. She was born 8 Jan 1876, Beverley, WA [Reg. 16867]. Parents JOHN FLEAY 1848-1932 and SOPHIA BARTRAM (1851-1899) who were married 21 Nov 1872, Beverley, WA [Reg. 3509], name recorded as Sofhia. Ada Mary Bertha Edwards (nee Fleay) died 23 Aug 1922, Beverley, WA [Reg. 65]. Recorded under Ada Mary Bertha Edwards, aged 47 years, Parents John Fleay and Sophia Bartram.

https://www.findagrave.com/memorial/179874280/ada-bertha_mary-edwards

Discrepancy: Find a Grave: The Beverley Anglican Cemetery and Ada's headstone have the year she died as 1923. She was registered in the WA Deaths as dying in 1922.

Headstone of Ada Edwards, wife of Edward William Edwards, Beverley Anglican Cemetery.

Discrepancy: Ada died 23 Aug 1922 – see above.

EDWARD WILLIAM EDWARDS (1871-1956) married ADA MARY BERTHA FLEAY (1876-1922) 1903, Gilgering, WA [Reg. 2067].

*Wedding, 1903:
Edward William
Edwards and Ada
Mary Bertha Fleay*

Bertha Fleay,

CHILDREN OF ADA MARY BERTHA FLEAY (1876-1922) AND EDWARD WILLIAM EDWARDS (1871-1956: Ethel Maria Edward's parents.

1. ATHOL WILLIAM THOMAS EDWARDS (1903-1982) was born 17 Dec 1903, Beverley, WA, registered in 1904, WA [Reg. 3]. Athol William Thomas Edwards died 21 Jul 1982, Beverley, WA. Buried Beverley Shire, Cemetery. ATHOL married ESTHER MAY JONAS (1899-1971), 21 Jun 1930, Beverley, WA [Reg. 28].

2. ERNEST DONALD EDWARDS (1906-1956) was born 2 Apr 1906, Beverley, WA [Reg. 29]. Ernest Donald Edwards died 2 Jul 1956, Beverley, WA [Reg. 400019]. ERNEST married HANNAH WARE (1906-1985), 1936, Beverley, WA [Reg. 41]. Name recorded as Johanna, WA [Reg. 101].

3. STELLA SOPHIA EDWARDS (1908-1987) was born 4 Apr 1908, Beverley, WA [Reg No 47]. Stella Sophia Edwards died 30 May 1987, Beverley, WA. STELLA married LAURENCE HENRY KEMP (1906-1994), 7 May 1929, Beverley, WA [Reg. 27]. LAURENCE was born 26 Feb 1906, Kent, Sussex, England, father, William Kemp and mother, Elizabeth Wilmshurst. Laurence died 7 Feb 1994, Beverley, WA.

4. THEO JOHN 'BILL' EDWARDS (1910-1983) was born 3 Aug 1910, Beverley, WA [Reg. 139]. Theo died 18 Apr 1983, Beverley, WA, aged 72 years. THEO married MAISIE CAROLINE ROSINA GREEN (1912-1985) 1937, Beverley, WA [Reg. 38].

5. ETHEL MARIA EDWARDS (1911-1985) was born 1 Dec 1911, Beverley, WA, Reg 1912, WA [Reg. 1]. Ethel Maria Blechynden (nee Edwards) died 4 Oct 1985, Beverley, WA. ETHEL married HORACE ERNEST BLECHYNDEN (1890-1955), 1929, Beverley, WA [Reg. 196].

Following the death of his first wife Ann Maria (nee Griffith) in 1890, Thomas Edwards married again. Edward William Edward' father, Ethel Maria Edward's grandfather.

m.2 THOMAS EDWARDS (1833-1907) married ELIZABETH BARTRAM (1855-1932), 31 May 1892, York, WA [Reg. 195]. ELIZABETH was born 1855, York, WA [Reg. 2819], parents JAMES BARTRAM (1827-1905) and JANE ANN WILLIAMS (1830-1870) who were married 1851, Res Office, [Reg. 354]. Jane Ann Williams – arrival 15 Oct 1841, Fremantle, via the Ganges.

CHILDREN OF THOMAS EDWARDS (1833-1907) AND ELIZABETH BARTRAM (1855-1932):

1. ERNEST JAMES EDWARDS (1893-1894) was born in 1893, Beverley, WA [Reg. 1337]. Ernest died aged 17 months, 20 Dec 1894, Beverley, WA [Reg. 44].

2. FRANK BARTRAM EDWARDS (1895-1917) was born in 1895, Beverley, WA [Reg. 60]. Frank served in WW1. Killed in Action in France 1917.

3. ALEXANDER GEORGE EDWARDS (1896-1972) was born in 1896, Beverley, WA [Reg. 21]. Alexander died 19 Dec 1972, Wagin, WA. m.1 ALEXANDER married RUBY SARAH FLORENCE FLEAY (1893-1958), 1920, Beverley, WA [Reg. 12]. m.2 ALEXANDER married AMY CALLAGIDDY DAVIDSON (NEE POWELL) (1907-1984), 1961, Canning District, WA [Reg. 21]. Mary Coulthard's Aunt.

CONTINUING WITH THE STORY OF HORACE ERNEST BLECHYNDEN (1899-1955) AND ETHEL MARIA EDWARDS (1911-1985)

1st CHILD OF HORACE ERNEST BLECHYNDEN & ETHEL MARIA EDWARDS

1. BLECHYNDEN, ERNEST 'JOHN' (1930-1960)

Ernest John Blechynden was born 4 Jun 1930, Beverley, WA [Reg No 128].

m.1 ERNEST JOHN BLECHYNDEN (1930-1960) married m2. MARY ANNE JUNE ROSER (1930-2018) 'MARIE' 1960, York, WA [Reg.14]. Registered as Mary Anne June, Roser. Mary Anne June had been married before.

Ernest John Blechynden died 12 Aug 1960, Northam, WA [Reg. 68], accidentally killed, registered in Northam. Via Bible. Killed in a Railway crossing accident at Northam returning from an Eastern States trucking run.

Ernest and Marie were married only two weeks before Ernest was killed. It would be an extremely sad occasion. The photo below is believed to be the last known photo of Ernest John Blechynden before he was tragically killed on a trip carting rabbits back from Mundrabilla, located 60-70 kilometres West of Eucla. See newspaper article following.

Image taken on one of many rabbit expeditions of the Sing and related Blechynden families to the Nullarbor region while working for rabbit exporting company J.W. Wynne.

Frank Trott sitting, James Sing (grandad) Alfred Singer, in white top. Alfred Sing (Great Uncle) Ernest John Blechynden on roof top. Photo courtesy Simi Bennett descendant of James Sing in black singlet.

The following photos and articles are courtesy Simi Bennett to show the scale of the operation. Anywhere from 2000-3000 rabbits would be caught and processed for export. Freezer trucks were used so none of the rabbit was wasted. See also the article below from Trove about J. Wynne Rabbit Exporter whom the Sings and the Beverley boys dealt with for their rabbiting business. It explains how the rabbits were processed.

Great Southern Herald (Katanning, WA: 1901 - 1954), Fri 11 Dec 1953, pg 2

A New Industry in Katanning - 3,000 RABBITS CHILLED PER WEEK - Great Southern Herald \(Katanning, WA: 1901 - 1954\) - 11 Dec 1953

A New Industry in Katanning 3,000 RABBITS CHILLED PER WEEK

A New Industry in Katanning 3,000 RABBITS CHILLED PER WEEK

The Katanning depot, established by rabbit exporter Mr J. Wynne, has already received excellent support from the district although this is only its third week of operation.

Katanning manager Mr J. Smith stated the local depot opened on November 20 and 980 pairs of rabbits were received during the first week. In the second week of operations, 1200 pairs were received and it is anticipated the number will grow to 1,500 pairs this week. After Christmas a minimum of 4,000 pairs per week is expected.

A pick-up truck from the depot has been making a regular run through the immediate area to collect carcasses from trappers. Last week, the run was extended to Broomehill, and now has been further increased to take in Tambellup. Those wishing to supply rabbit carcasses to the works are invited to contact Mr J. Smith. Arrangements will also be made to pick up rabbits where-ever offering

All carcasses are taken from the chilling chambers at Katanning, as well as the Narrogin and Dwellingup depots, to Perth in special trucks. At the Perth works the carcasses are skinned, cellophane wrapped in 60 lb packs and snap frozen. All the works output is exported to England, being packed in special cases for the overseas market.

MODERN CHILLERS

The depot at Katanning consists of two chilling chambers, each 18' by 7', and capable of holding 4,000 carcasses each. The chambers are constructed of asbestos and insulation is provided by two feet of tightly packed wood shavings on the sides, top and bottom. Inside the chambers, carcasses are suspended from poles along between the chilling coils. The plant comprises an 18 hp diesel driving a 7 ton compressor. Although already well and truly in use, the chambers are incomplete as the exterior walls have still to be erected, and a verandah to be built in.

Katanning manager, Mr Smith, and his family are at present living in temporary quarters, but a residence will be erected adjacent to the works immediately after Christmas.

The Katanning depot, established by rabbit exporter Mr J. Wynne, has already received excellent support from the district although this is only its third week of operation.

Katanning manager Mr J. Smith stated the local depot opened on November 20 and 980 pairs of rabbits were received during the first week. In the second week of operations, 1200 pairs were received and it is anticipated the number will grow to 1,500 pairs this week. After Christmas a minimum of 4,000 pairs per week is expected.

A pick-up truck from the depot has been making a regular run through the immediate area to collect carcasses from trappers. Last week, the run was extended to Broomehill, and now has been further increased to take in Tambellup. Those wishing to supply rabbit carcasses to the works are invited to contact Mr J. Smith. Arrangements will also be made to pick up rabbits where-ever offering.

All carcasses are taken from the chilling chambers at Katanning, as well as the Narrogin and Dwellingup depots, to Perth in special trucks. At the Perth works the carcasses are skinned, cellophane wrapped in 60 lb packs and snap frozen. All the works output is exported to England, being packed in special cases for the overseas market.

MODERN CHILLERS

The depot at Katanning consists of two chilling chambers, each 18' by 7', and capable of holding 4,000 carcasses each. The chambers are constructed of asbestos and insulation is provided by two feet of tightly packed wood shavings on the sides, top and bottom. Inside the chambers, carcasses are suspended from poles slung between the chilling coils. The plant comprises an 18 hp diesel driving a 7-ton compressor. Although already well and truly in use, the chambers are incomplete as the exterior walls have still to be covered, a verandah to be erected, and the power plant room built in.

Katanning manager, Mr Smith, and his family are at present living in temporary quarters, but a residence will be erected adjacent to the works immediately after Christmas.

Photos courtesy Simi Bennett. Above, left: Nanna Sing (Emily Blechynden), great Uncle Alfred and grandad (James Sing). Rawlinna 1961. Above, right: Beverley Boys Gang on the Nullarbor, 1954-1960. L-R: Jim Sing, Alfred Sing and E J Blechynden is in there, John (E.J.) Blechynden is on the far right holding a kangaroo, but I am unsure of who the rest are.

Ernest John Blechynden died 12 Aug 1960, Northam, WA [Reg. 68], accidentally killed.

Article: Perth, WA, Sat, Aug 13 1960. Courtesy Tracey Currigan.

Beverly Times (WA: 1905 - 1977), Fri 11 Nov 1960, pg 1

11 Nov 1960 - Truckers' Deaths Were Accidental \(nla.gov.au\)

Truckers' Deaths Were Accidental

After an all-day sitting at Northam Court-house on November 1st, Coroner K. H. Hogg returned a finding of accidental death at the inquest on two men who lost their lives in a level-crossing smash at Northam racecourse on August 13.

The men were Ernest John Blechynden (30) and Lionel Charles Loxton (26), occupants of a Leyland diesel wagon conveying rabbits for Diamond Ice and Cold Storage, from Mundrabilla on the Nullarbor to Perth. On a downhill grade, the truck had hit a train on the crossing, causing extensive damage. Front of the vehicle was sheared off and smashed to pieces. Accident took place about 8 a.m. and Blechynden was killed instantly. Loxton died at Northam hospital about 3 p.m. that day.

Inquest on Nov. 1 occupied from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Twelve witnesses were called.

Mr. J. O'Halloran was counsel for the vehicle owners, Diamond Ice and Cold Storage; Mr. R. Ambrose for the insurers; Mr. J. Toohey for Mrs. Blechynden, widow of one deceased; Mr. P. Sharpe for the relatives of Loxton; and Mr. R. B. Clarke was the W.A.G.R. representative.

Evidence available failed to show which of the two men was driving at the time of the smash.

Coroner's finding was that both men died from injuries received when a Leyland Lippo diesel wagon, in which one was driving and the other a passenger, struck a railway train at the level crossing on Great Eastern Highway near Northam racecourse. Death was accidental and there was no blame attachable to the train crew in any way.

Coroner added he was satisfied that the railway flashing lights were working at the time.

—Northam "Advertiser"

Truckers' Deaths Were Accidental

After an all-day sitting at Northern Court-house on November 1st, Coroner K. H. Hogg returned a finding of accidental death at the inquest on two men who lost their lives in a level-crossing smash at Northam racecourse on August 13.

The men were Ernest John Blechynden (30) and Lionel Charles Loxton (26), occupants of a Leyland diesel wagon conveying rabbits for Diamond Ice and Cold Storage, from Mundrabilla on the Nullarbor to Perth. On a downhill grade, the truck had hit a train on the crossing, causing extensive, damage. Front of the vehicle was sheared off and smashed to pieces. Accident took place about 8 a.m. and Blechynden was killed instantly. Loxton died at Northam hospital about 3 p.m. that day.

Inquest on Nov. 1 occupied from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Twelve witnesses were called.

Mr. J. O'Halloran was counsel for the vehicle owners, Diamond Ice and Cold Storage; Mr. R. Ambrose for the insurers; Mr. J. Toohey for Mrs. Blechynden, widow of one deceased; Mr. P. Sharpe for the relatives of Loxton; and Mr. R. B. Clarke was the W.A.G.R. representative. Evidence available failed to show which of the two men was driving at the time of the smash. Coroner's finding was that both men died from injury received when a Leyland Lippo diesel wagon, in which one was driving and the other a passenger struck a railway train at the level crossing on Great Eastern Highway near Northam racecourse. Death was accidental and there was no blame attachable to the train crew in any way.

Coroner added he was satisfied that the railway flashing lights were working at the time. —Northam "Advertiser"

The following article about the accident contains a few more details about Earnest John Blechynden.

Beverly Times (WA: 1905 - 1977), Fri 19 Aug 1960, pg 1

19 Aug 1960 - Death in Level Crossing Smash \(nla.gov.au\)

Death in Level Crossing Smash

Death struck with shattering suddenness on a level crossing just East of Northam on Saturday when a heavily laden truck collided with a passenger train and as a result a Morbinning widow, Mrs. Ethel Blechynden and her family are mourning the loss of an eldest son, Ernest John Blechynden, whilst a Perth woman, Mrs. Norma Loxton and her two children were bereft of a husband and father, Lionel Charles Loxton. Within hours of the accident Mrs. Loxton's cup of sorrow had been added to by the death of her father, Mr. Harry Noble, who collapsed and died when he was about to visit his daughter. Also bereaved by the tragedy is Mrs. Marie Blechynden, wife of John Blechynden, and her three children by a former marriage.

The two victims of the smash, which was one of the worst recorded in this State in recent years, were in the truck which was loaded with frozen rabbits from the Nullarbor Plain and was proceeding to Perth. The force of the impact was so great that the Three weeks ago he married at Beverley a former resident of the Eastern States and became the stepfather of three young children. The couple had taken up residence at Belmont.

John Blechynden was associated with the Morbinning tennis and badminton clubs during his association with the area and was one of the first enthusiasts when the T.Q. Car Club was formed at Beverley.

News of the tragedy was conveyed to the bereaved at Beverley on Saturday afternoon and brought spontaneous expressions of sympathy from a very wide circle of friends and acquaintances throughout the district. Further evidence of sorrow felt was forthcoming when the funeral took place at the Anglican cemetery on Monday afternoon, following a service at St. Mary's Church. There was a large attendance at both church and graveside. The Rev'd Paul Atkins officiated for the last rites.

Better known locally by his second name, John Blechynden was born in this district thirty years ago, the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Blechynden, of Morbinning, both parents being members of families with very long association with Beverley. After leaving school he worked with his father on the family property and this association continued till about two years ago, his responsibilities in the interim having increased with the sudden death of his father in 1955. A younger member of the family, Don, was later able to play a bigger part in the conduct of the farm and John sought and secured a position as a truck driver on the inter-State run. He was thus engaged when he met his death.

Death in Level Crossing Smash

Death struck with shattering suddenness on a level crossing just East of Northam on Saturday when a heavily laden truck collided with a passenger train and as a result a Morbinning widow, Mrs. Ethel Blechynden and her family are mourning the loss of an eldest son, Ernest John Blechynden, whilst a Perth woman, Mrs. Norma Loxton and her two children were bereft of a husband and father, Lionel Charles Loxton. Within hours of the accident Mrs. Loxton's cup of sorrow had been added to by the death of her father, Mr. Harry Noble, who collapsed and died when he was about to visit his daughter. Also bereaved by the tragedy is Mrs. Marie Blechynden, wife of John Blechynden, and her three children by a former marriage.

The two victims of the smash, which was one of the worst recorded in this State in recent years, were in the truck which was loaded with frozen rabbits from the Nullarbor Plain and was proceeding to Perth. The force of the impact was so great that the passenger train, which was also Perth bound, was derailed. Fortunately, none of the passengers were seriously injured.

Better known locally by his second name, John Blechynden was born in this district thirty years ago the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Blechynden, of Morbinning, both parents being members of families with very long association with Beverley. After leaving school he worked with his father on the family property and this association continued till about two years ago, his responsibilities in the interim having increased with the sudden death of his father in 1955. A younger member of the family, Don was later able to play a bigger part in the conduct of the farm and John sought and secured a position as a truck driver on the inter-State run. He was thus engaged when he met his death.

Three weeks ago, he married at Beverley a former resident of the Eastern States and became the stepfather of three young children. The couple had taken up residence at Belmont.

TRAIN HIT —AND 2 MEN DIE

* From Jack Coulter
TWO rabbit truckers were killed when their vehicle crashed into and derailed a train on a crossing near Northam early today.
One of the men, killed outright, had found peace under the logic wheels of a carriage, had been married two weeks. A receipt for his bride's wedding ring was found in the John Blechynden was associated with the Morbining tennis and badminton clubs during his association with the area and was one of the first enthusiasts when the T.Q. Car Club was formed at Beverley. News of the tragedy was conveyed to the bereaved at Beverley on Saturday afternoon and brought spontaneous expressions of sympathy from a very wide circle of friends and acquaintances throughout the district. Further evidence of sorrow felt was forthcoming when, the funeral took place at the Anglican cemetery Monday afternoon, following a service at St Mary's Church. There was a large attendance at both church and graveside. The Rev M Paul Atkins officiated for the last rites.

Headstone, Ernest John Blechynden, Beverley Cemetery, photo courtesy Bonny Meares

Funeral

At the funeral of the late Ernest John Blechynden on Monday wreaths and floral tributes were received from the following:—

Mum, Don and Pat; Rita, Stan Cummings and Family; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Caudle; Manuel Family; Olive and Walter Swan; Fred and Marj; Doug and Dot; Dot and Bill; Mr. and Mrs. Syd Wansbrough; Shiela and Vern; Daphne and Ken; Fay, Rede and Boys and Mrs. L. Smith; Brian and Emily Negus; Dorry, Dan and Family; Colin and Des; Shirley, Curley and Boys; Louis and Joyce; Ev, Alf and Family; Jim, Phyl, Tom and Dawn; All at "Sleepy Hollow"; Bob and Mary; Barrow and Richardson; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Fowler; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Gillespie; Siella, Laurie, Dennis and Jean; Mick, Lorna Grover and Family; Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Grover; Doree; Fred Hobbs and Family; Daphne and Gerald; Athol, Jo, Paul and Royce; Kevin Eileen and Family; Staff of Diamond Ice Co.; Tom, Polly and Family; Ivy, Eric McLean and Family; Em, Jim, Fred, Robert, Neville and Noel; Maureen, Cyril and Family; Reta Ford; Don, Polly and Family; George and Silvia Negus; Keith, Beryl and Family; Della, Bevan Barnsley and Girls; Ada, Fred and Girls; Phoebe, Vic Frost and Family; Members Narragin T.Q. Car Club; Marj, Reg and Glenys; Deanne, John and Donna; Aunty Eva and Aunty Ida; Beverley Farmers Co-Op Ltd.; Ray, Louie and Kay; Mr. and Mrs. Curtis and Ted; Horace and Ella Blechynden; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Boyle; Barb and Fred; Ella and Frank; Uncle Bill, Aunty Maisie, Bob and Malcolm; Pearl, Bill and Family; Bill, Alma and Family; Beverley T.Q. Car Club; Daph, Allan and Family; Trix, Fred and Family; Daph, Eric and Family; Hannah and Boys; Mr. and Mrs. J. Ferguson and Family; John, Ruth Johnson and Family; Patten Meat Pty., Ltd.; Jim, Em and Family; Betty and Bert; Shirley, Geoff and Family; The Barrow Family; Meg and Dud Ratcliffe; Stan, Terry and Yvonne; Prideaux Family; Alf, The Bryan Family; Management and Employees Diamond Ice Co.; Mr. and Mrs. J. Jacoumis; Mabel and Pat Jackson and Family; Beryl and Eric Murray; Alex and Alice Murray and Family; Walter and Maggie Carr; Gran and Tom Baker; Clarrie, Babs and Bob; Dulcie, Moss and Girls; Phil, Val and Family; Mr. and Mrs. G. Carr and Family; Amy Edwards; Schlechers and Staff; Bruce, Edna and Family; Hastings Family; Betty and Jack Miller.

2nd CHILD OF HORACE ERNEST BLECHYNDEN & ETHEL MARIA EDWARDS

2. BLECHYNDEN, ADA KATHLEEN (1933-1989)

Ada Kathleen Blechynden was born 9 Jul 1933, WA. Ada Kathleen Purnell (nee Blechynden) died 26 Apr 1989, WA. ADA married ALFRED ARTHUR PURNELL (1920-2008) 1954, Beverley, WA [Reg. 22]. They had four children: Kathleen, Dianne, June and Judith Purnell.

ALFRED ARTHUR PURNELL (1920-2008) was born 29 Oct 1920, Calingiri, (registered in Northam), WA [Reg. 370]. Alfred died 18 Jun 2008, burial Wongan Hills, Wongan-Ballidu Shire, WA. Alfred's parents were ARTHUR STEPHEN PURNELL (-1959) and ELEANOR GOODALL SHERWOOD (-1948) who were married 1912, Perth, WA [Reg. 100490]. Arthur and Eleanor had at least four children:

1. Frank Stephen (1914-1985),
2. Dorothy May, born 1919,
3. Alfred Arthur Purnell, born 1920, and
4. Valentine Edgar (1923-1967).

Eleanor died 1948, Wongan Hills, (Moora), WA [Reg. 4200043], aged 65 years. Her father was Frank Goodall. Arthur Stephen Purnell died 1959, Wongan Hills, (Northam), WA [Reg. 4900087], aged 72 years. His father, Pathahia (as registered, in 1891 Census, Pethahiah) Alfred Purnell.

Toodyay Herald (WA: 1912 - 1954), Thu 2 Dec 1948, pg 3

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article149360520.txt>

Late Mrs. A. Purnell

We regret to report the death of Mrs. A. Purnell, of Calingiri, who passed away on Sat, 27th, at her home in the eastern district of Calingiri.

Mrs. Purnell was well known throughout the countryside and was of a genial and kindly disposition. Her husband who farmed in partnership with his brother-in-law Mr. Giles, was of the pioneer families of the Calingiri district. Mrs. Purnell had been in a state of bad health for a number of years. Her death was somewhat sudden and to the older generation came as a shock.

Mrs. Purnell allied herself vigorously in progressive movements for all social development. She was a kindly neighbour and will long be remembered by friends old and young for the kindly and sympathetic interest she took in their affairs, and in the raw period of the farming depression this kindly disposition was more often than not put to practical application which was keenly appreciated.

This district mourns the passing of a pioneer and offers the condolence to those left behind to mourn.

We regret to report the death of Mrs. A. Purnell, of Calingiri, who passed away on Sat, 27th, at her home in the eastern district of Calingiri.

Mrs. Purnell was well known throughout the countryside and was of a genial and kindly disposition. Her husband who farmed in partnership with his brother-in-law Mr. Giles, was of the pioneer families of the Calingiri district. Mrs. Purnell had been in a state of bad health for a number of years. Her death was somewhat sudden and to the older generation came as a shock.

Mrs. Purnell allied herself vigorously in progressive movements for all social development. She was a kindly neighbor and will long be remembered by friends old and young for the kindly and sympathetic interest she took in their affairs, and in the raw period of the farming depression this kindly disposition was more often than not put to practical application which was keenly appreciated.

This district mourns the passing of a pioneer and offers the condolence to those left behind to mourn.

3rd CHILD OF HORACE ERNEST BLECHYNDEN & ETHEL MARIA EDWARDS

3. BLECHYNDEN, DONALD WILLIAM (1934-2014) was born 18 Nov 1934, WA. Donald died 18 Nov 2014, Orelia, Kwinana City, WA.

Following his brother Ernest's death in 1860 after being killed in an accident, (see his section for more details), Donald married his widow 'Marie'. This was her third marriage. Mary Anne June Walker had been married before her move to WA to Roy Alexander Roser in QLD. I can't find a registration for this marriage.

DONALD WILLIAM BLECHYNDEN (1934-2014) married m3. MARY ANNE JUNE BLECHYNDEN (1930-2018), 1962, York, WA [Reg. 14]. Registered as Mary Anne June Blechynden. They had two children: Leslie and Brian.

MARY 'MARIE' ANNE JUNE WALKER (1930-2018) (via the Edwards Family Tree, Ancestry) was born 16 Jun 1930, Brisbane, Qld. Parents: LESLIE NORMAN WALKER (1899-1974) and OLIVE ROSE HEFEREN (1903-1983) who were married 7 Jun 1919, Ashfield, NSW [Reg. 4425]. Mary Anne June Walker was the fifth of six children. Marie died 12 Oct 2018, Toowoomba, QLD.

Mary Anne Jane Walker partnered with Roy Alexander Roser. I cannot find a record of this but they appear together in the Electoral Roll in 1954.

Electoral Roll:

1954 Mary Anne Jane Roser, 14 Perry St, Harlaxton, Qld, home duties, Roy Alexander Roser, labourer.

Mary Anne Jane Roser moved to and remarried twice. The Electoral Roll shows many entries for Roy Alexander Roser who remained in QLD, (not recorded here).

Electoral Roll:

1963 Donald William Blechynden, Morbinning, labourer.

1968 Donald William Blechynden, Morbinning, labourer, Mary Anne June Blechynden, Morbinning, home duties.

1972 Donald William Blechynden, 16n First Av, Safety Bay, labourer, Mary Anne June, home duties.

1977 Donald William Blechynden, 4a Rae Rd, Safety Bay, tradesman.

1977 Mary Anne June Blechynden, 8 Searl St, Toowoomba, Qld.

1980 Mary Anne June Blechynden, 31 3c, Margaret St, Toowoomba, Qld.

1980 Donald William Blechynden, 14 McLarty Rd, Shoalwater, Rockingham, Valma Mary, cook.

It appears that by 1977 Mary Anne June Blechynden moved back to QLD.

In 1980 The Electoral Roll records DONALD BLECHYNDEN (1934-2014) and VALMA MARY MOYLE (1932-2003) were living together in Rockingham, WA. Find a Grave records of Valma Mary Moyle, (see below) show Donald Blechynden as her Spouse. VALMA was born 1932, WA. Parents: ALFRED CYRIL MOYLE (1897-1971) and MARY AGNES HANLON (1873-1963) who were married 1928, Swan, Bassendean, WA [Reg. 6100053]. They had at least two children. Valma died 5 Aug 2003, WA. See <https://www.findagrave.com/memorial/213586904/valma-mary-blechynden>

Electoral Roll:

Valma May Moyle / Blechynden

1954, Valma May Boyle, Caves House, Yallingup, domestic, Alfred Cyril Moyle, manager, Mary Agnes, home duties.

1980 Donald William Blechynden, 14 McLarty Rd, Shoalwater, Rockingham, Valma Mary, cook.

4th CHILD OF HORACE ERNEST BLECHYNDEN & ETHEL MARIA EDWARDS

4. BLECHYNDEN, PATRICIA STELLA (1945-) was born 18 Sep 1945. She married DAVID NEIL ST. JACK (1941-1995), 27 Jun 1961, Quairading, (York), WA [Reg. 23].

DAVID NEIL ST. JACK (1941-1995) was born 1941, WA. David's parents: RAY NEIL ST JACK (1910-2005) and ELEANOR ALDYTH FOWLER (1916-2003) were married 24 Feb 1941, Beverley, WA [Reg. 7]. David Neil St. Jack died 29 Mar 1995, York, WA. Buried at the York Cemetery.

The following two pages contain details of David Neil St Jack's parents and grandparents.

RAY NEIL ST JACK (1910-2005) David Neil St Jack's father

Ray Neil St Jack was born 27 May 1910, Hillview, Mt Barker, WA [Reg.91], registered under Saint Jack. Ray Neil St Jack died 21 Mar 2005, York, WA.

ELEANOR ALDYTH FOWLER (1916-2003) David Neil St Jack's mother

Eleanor Aldyth Fowler was born 24 Sep 1916, Beverley, WA [Reg.151]. Parents: ALDRED HERBERT FOWLER (1883-1963) and ELLA FAITH BLAKISTON (1891-1972) who were married 9 Nov 1911, Beverley, WA [Reg. 42]. Eleanor was the fourth out of six children. Eleanor St Jack (nee Fowler) died 20 Mar 2003, Mandurah, WA.

Beverley Times (WA: 1905 - 1977), Fri 7 Mar 1941, pg 3

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article201830643.txt>

WEDDING.

ST. JACK — FOWLER.

A pretty wedding was solemnised at St. Mary's Anglican Church, Beverley on Monday February 24, between Raymond Neil, son of Mrs and the late Mr St. Jack, of Balkuling, and Eleanor Aldyth, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H A, Fowler, of Balkuling. The Rev J L Brown officiated.

The bride was given away by her father. She wore a cream satin frock, with a long train and beautiful handworked veil, held in place by a coronet of orange blossoms and 2 pearl pins, (worn by her grandmother, Mrs Blakiston, at her wedding some 50 years ago). She carried a bouquet of cream roses, white heather, white astors, and maiden hair fern.

The bride was attended by her two sisters, Muriel and Margaret. They wore frocks of pink and mauve taffeta, with matching veils held with posies of blossoms. They carried posies of pink astors and roses.

Mr Norris Draper acted as bestman, and Mr Lindsey Fowler as groomsman.

Mrs P Hunt (a friend of the family) played the organ, and the Church had been prettily decorated by friends of the bride.

Later a reception was held at the Lesser Hall where guests were received by the bride's mother who chose a fingered grey sheer with navy accessories, and wore a spray of red roses. Miss M. Pearson, in the unavoidable absence of the groom's mother, assisted in receiving the guests. She wore a floral sheer with white accessories and wore a spray of red roses.

After the reception the happy couple left for their honeymoon, the bride travelling in a dainty frock of floral English sheer with pink coat, and navy accessories.

Included in the toast list was one honouring the bride's two brothers who are both serving with the military forces.

After leaving the Church the wedding party visited the bride's grandmother who is an inmate of the Beverley Hospital.

WEDDING.

ST. JACK — FOWLER.

A pretty wedding was solemnised at St. Mary's Anglican Church, Beverley on Monday February 24, between Raymond Neil, son of Mrs and the late Mr St. Jack, of Balkuling, and Eleanor Aldyth, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H A, Fowler, of Balkuling. The Rev J L Brown officiated.

The bride was given away by her father. She wore a cream satin frock, with a long train and beautiful handworked veil, held in place by a coronet of orange blossoms and 2 pearl pins, (worn by her grandmother, Mrs Blakiston, at her wedding some 50 years ago). She carried a bouquet of cream roses, white heather, white astors, and maiden hair fern.

The bride was attended by her two sisters, Muriel and Margaret. They wore frocks of pink and mauve taffeta, with matching veils held with posies of blossoms. They carried posies of pink astors and roses.

Mr Norris Draper acted as bestman, and Mr Lindsay Fowler as groomsman.

Mrs P Hunt (a friend of the family) played the organ, and the Church had been prettily decorated by friends of the bride.

Later a reception was held at the Lesser Hall where guests were received by the bride's mother who chose a fingered grey sheer with navy accessories, and wore a spray of red roses. Miss M Pearson, in the unavoidable absence of the groom's mother, assisted in receiving the guests. She wore a floral sheer with white accessories and wore a spray of red roses.

After the reception the happy couple left for their honeymoon, the bride travelling in a dainty frock of floral English sheer, with pink coat, and navy accessories.

Included in the toast list was one honouring the bride's two brothers who are both serving with the military forces.

After leaving the Church the wedding party visited the bride's grandmother who is an inmate of the Beverley Hospital.

The following Obituary of David St Jack's grandfather Alfred Herbert Fowler, gives some idea of life at that time in the early days of WA, where his mother and she and her brothers and sisters grew up.

Beverley Times (WA: 1905 - 1977), Fri 29 Nov 1963, pg 1

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article202724223.txt>

Herbert Fowler Dies at Eighty

Born at Craneford, South Australia on November 23rd, 1883, the sixth member of a family of fourteen, Mr. Alfred Herbert Fowler passed away at his home in Forrest Street, Beverley on Sunday last, the day succeeding his 80th birthday. He had been ailing for some time and his passing was not unexpected.

Herb Fowler was a particularly well-known resident of these parts having been associated with the Beverley and adjacent districts since coming to the State with several of his brothers when he was 19 years of age.

The move to W.A. was in the wake of difficult conditions prevailing in the sister State. As a youth he had been employed in numerous avocations including a term as a builder's assistant, and on his father's farm. He was also employed for a time in a country store. All this provided some background for activities he was later to pursue in Western Australia.

The brothers on arrival in the State found jobs in country areas.

Herb assisted on a dairying property near the city for a time, working for a pittance before he and his brother Fred moved to York, carrying their swags from Spencers Brook onwards. They secured work on farms and a little later Herb became assistant to a beekeeper with 200 hives in the East Beverley district. He stayed with him long enough to learn some of the apiarist's trade before earning more money as a builders assistant. Brothers Albert and Don joined them later at East Beverley to take up over 700 acres of land, launching out on a farming career which claimed the brothers' attention for most of their later lives.

In 1907 Herb returned to South Australia where he worked for a period, but the call of the West was strong and he returned here after a year or two to resume his association with the land. In 1909 he met and fell in love with Miss Ella Faith Blakiston, the couple being married in 1911 at Beverley. The couple lived at East Beverley but later had associations with the Kulin district for some time before returning here. A large family of five sons and four daughters was born to Mr. and Mrs. Fowler over the years.

Later more land was acquired and progress was made despite the difficulties with which farmers were beset over some of the early years. Not the least of these was the onset of the rabbit problem. Herb in these years also undertook various other activities, including for a time a wheat firm agency. Another job was that of wheat inspector for the Beverley, York and Kellerberrin districts.

Ultimately with his sons, he acquired about 5,000 acres of land between Cunderdin and Balkuling, where they grew

6,000 bushels of wheat in 1929. Mr. Fowler's health first began to fail in 1946, and he disposed of his farm interests to live with Mrs. Fowler in the metropolitan area. Later they were at Mt. Lawley for a time before they accepted a position at Balkuling where Mr. Fowler became Postmaster. At this centre they were interested in many district activities.

Later on vacating the position they retired to Beverley to live among many old friends, and to make many new ones. Until recently Herb was a regular bowler and a welcome figure on the green.

THE FUNERAL

The funeral took place at the Anglican Cemetery Beverley following a service at St. Mary's Church on Tuesday morning. There was a very large gathering of members of the Fowler families from various parts of the State and the city as well as a big representation of district friends.

The pallbearers were Messrs. Adam Murray, Con Smith, J. Barrow, Jack Fleay, Stan Minchin, Cecil Bateman and Geo. Savage.

Herbert Fowler Dies at Eighty

Born at Craneford, South Australia on November 23rd 1883, the sixth member of a family of fourteen, Mr. Alfred Herbert Fowler passed away at his home in Forrest Street, Beverley on Sunday last, the day succeeding his 80th birthday. He had been ailing for some time and his passing was not unexpected.

Herb Fowler was a particularly well-known resident of these parts having been associated with the Beverley and adjacent districts since coming to the State with several of his brothers when he was 19 years of age.

The move to W.A. was in the wake of difficult conditions prevailing in the sister State. As a youth he had been employed in numerous avocations including a term as a builder's assistant, and on his father's farm. He was also employed for a time in a country store. All this provided some background for activities he was later to pursue in WA.

The brothers on arrival in the State found jobs in country areas.

Herb assisted on a dairying property near the city for a time, working for a pittance before he and his brother Fred moved to York, carrying their swags from Spencers Brook onwards. They secured work on farms and a little later Herb became assistant to a beekeeper with 200 hives in the East Beverley district. He stayed with him long enough to learn some of the apiarist's trade before earning more money as a builder's assistant. Brothers Albert and Don joined them later at East Beverley to take up over 700 acres of land, launching out on a farming career which claimed the 'brothers', attention for most of their later lives. In 1907 Herb returned to South Australia where he worked for a period; but the call of the West was strong and he returned here after a year or two to resume his association with the land. In 1909 he met and fell in love with Miss Ella Faith Blakiston, the couple being married in 1911 at Beverley. The couple lived at East Beverley but later had associations with the Kulin district for some time before returning here. A large family of five sons and four daughters was born to Mr. and Mrs. Fowler over the years.

Later more land was acquired and progress was made despite the difficulties with which farmers were beset over some of the early years not the least of these was the onset of the rabbit problem. Herb in these years also undertook various other activities, including for a time a wheat firm agency. Another job was that of wheat inspector for the Beverley, York and Kellerberrin districts.

Ultimately with his sons, he acquired about 5,000 acres of land between Cunderdin and Balkuling, where they grew 6,000 bushels of wheat in 1929. Mr. Fowler's health first began to fail in 1946 and he disposed of his farm interests to live with Mrs. Fowler in the metropolitan area. Later they were at Mt. Lawley for a time before they accepted a position at Balkuling where Mr. Fowler became Postmaster. At this centre they were interested in many district activities. Later on, vacating the position they retired to Beverley to live among many old friends, and to make many new ones. Until recently Herb was a regular bowler and a welcome figure on the green.

THE FUNERAL The funeral took place at the Anglican Cemetery Beverley following a service at St. Mary's Church on Tuesday morning. There was a very large gathering of members of the Fowler families from various parts of the State and the city as well as a big representation of district friends. The pallbearers were. Messrs. Adam Murray, Con Smith. J Barrow, Jack Fleay, Stan Minchin, Cecil Bateman and Geo. Savage.

Returning to PATRICIA STELLA BLECHYNDEN (1945-) and DAVID NEIL ST. JACK (1941-1995)

Via WikiTree: In 1968 he (David Neil St. Jack) was a builder living at 2 Broome St York. In 1977 he was a farm hand at Talbot Brook near York. In 1980 he was a farmer at Upper Beverley Rd York. They had four children David, Colleen, Peter and Josephine St Jack.

Electoral Roll:

1910 Horace Ernest Blechynden

1925 Horace Ernest Blechynden, Morbinning, farmer

1936, 1943 Horace Ernest Blechynden, Morbinning, East Beverley, farm hand, Ethel Maria, Bellbeling Farm, Morbinning, East Beverley, home duties.

Via Tracey Currigan:

Horace and his wife Ethel Maria, his mother Emma Sarah Blechynden (nee Dunham) and his sister Evelyn 'Eva' lived on Bellbeling Farm. The farm belonged to John Edwards (eldest son of Thomas and Ann Maria Edwards). After John's death in 1926, Emma Sarah Blechynden and their son Horace Ernest remained on the farm.

Horace Ernest Blechynden, 'Ernie,' died 15 Apr 1955, Beverley, WA. Buried 18 Apr 1955, St Mary's Cemetery, Beverley, aged 56 years. Ethel Maria Blechynden (nee Edwards) died 1 Oct 1985, Beverley, WA, aged 73 years.

Headstones of Horace Ernest 'Ernie' and Ethel Maria Blechynden (nee Edwards), Beverley Cemetery

THE BLECHYNDEN FAMILY IS RELATED TO TWO DIFFERENT EDWARDS LINES

WILLIAM EDWARDS AND HARRISON BLECHYNDEN FAMILIES: TIMELINE:

In the very early days of settlement in the Swan River Colony, as pioneers, William Edwards and Harrison Blechynden were close neighbours in the newly established Beverley District. At this time when there was as yet very little infrastructure, they would have relied on one another in times of difficulty and as a result one could imagine, formed a close friendship.

20 Jan 1830: the following arrived per the Minstrel: HARRISON BLECHYNDEN (1802-1873), GEORGE BLECHYNDEN (1806-1889) CHARLOTTE AUGUSTA ROBUS (1812-1889), WILLIAM LOCKE BROCKMAN (1803-1872) and wife ANN FRANCES ISABELLA HAMERSLEY (1808-1876) and baby son Edmund Brockman.

14 May 1830: WILLIAM EDWARDS (1792-1865) arrived per Rockingham with his wife ELEANOR AYLING (1798-1871) and family: Eliza, William, Caroline, Mary. It is highly likely that William Edwards and Harrison Blechynden knew one another prior to moving to the District of Beverley. Both arrived as new members of the Swan River Colony in the same year and both lived for a while in the Guildford region. William and Eleanor arrived in the Swan River Colony with four children and were older than Harrison and Charlotte. When Harrison and Charlotte gave birth to their third child Elizabeth 'Anne' Blechynden on 'St Aubyns' it is highly likely that Eleanor Edwards their neighbour also newly arrived in the district may have helped Charlotte with the birth of Elizabeth ‘Anne’ and many of her other children that followed born on ‘Babbyalla’.

On 19 Mar 1842, Eleanor Edwards would have been aged about 44 years. At this stage her children were aged approximately: Eliza 24 years, William 21 years, Caroline 18 years, Mary 16 years, Matilda 11 years, Alfred 8 years, Charles 6 years and Thomas aged 4 years. It is highly likely the three older Edwards children may have remained in Guildford as they married soon after. In 1842, John Blechynden born in 1833 would have been about 9 years and his sister Sarah just 1 year of age. One can imagine John Blechynden, Alfred, Charles and Thomas Edwards would have grown up together, socialising at the York Show and family gatherings. ‘St Aubyns’ according to records at this stage had a barracks on the property. EDMUND THOMAS HENRY BARRETT-LENNARD (1823-1895) arrived at ‘St Aubyns’ at this time as manager aged about 19 years. He did not marry until much later when he married ELIZABETH ANN SMITH (1833-1886) ‘ELIZA’, in 1854, Beverley, WA.

In 1842, York put on what was to become an annual Agricultural Show and Annual fair. This was to become a most important social event for the settlers. In October 1843, the first race meeting was held. The Blechyndens and Edwards would have been very involved as a family in the events, travelling by initially by horse and as rough roads were formed by horse and carriage.

An official survey of the Beverley district took place in 1843. The 1843 census recorded the population of WA as 3,842.

By 1852, A small service area consisting of a mud bat store and a wheelwright was being established at Edwards Crossing which was 13 kilometres away. One can imagine the family would have travelled by horse and cart to obtain goods at the store.

8 Aug 1857: THOMAS EDWARDS (1833-1907) and his wife ANN MARIA GRIFFITH (1830-1890), and their infant son John, arrived via the ‘City of Bristol’. Thomas Edwards (not related to William Edwards), joined the Colonial Police Force in 1858. He and his wife initially settled in York. Thomas Edwards and his wife Ann moved to the new town of Beverley and Ann was appointed post mistress in November 1861. Thomas also commenced farming on land acquired which they called ‘Rockfield’.

SPECIFICALLY, THESE ARE THE BLECHYNDEN/EDWARDS CONNECTIONS FROM BOTH OF THESE LINES:

1. ELIZABETH ‘ANNE’ BLECHYNDEN (1842-1927) married in York to THOMAS EDWARDS (1838-1903) son of WILLIAM EDWARDS (1792-1865) AND ELEANOR AYLING (1798-1871)

2. CHARLES EDWIN BLECHYNDEN (1848-1918) was married 1872 in Beverley, WA to CAROLINE MARY DAVIES (1850-1942). Caroline was the daughter of THOMAS DAVIES (1825-1902) and MATILDA EDWARDS (1831-1887). Matilda Edwards was the sixth child of WILLIAM EDWARDS (1792-1865) and ELEANOR AYLING (1798-1871).

And THOMAS EDWARDS (1833-1907) married ANN MARIA GRIFFITH (1830-1890) 7 May 1855, Tipton, Staffordshire, England. 8. EDWARD WILLIAM EDWARDS (1871-1956) married ADA MARY BERTHA FLEAY (1876-1922), 1903, Gilgering, WA [Reg. 2067]. 5. ETHEL MARIA EDWARDS (1911-1985) married HORACE ERNEST BLECHYNDEN, 1929, Beverley, WA [Reg. 196].

10. JOSEPH BLECHYNDEN (1853-1938) & GRACE HANCOCK (1858-1947)

Joseph was Harrison and Charlotte Blechynden's tenth child. He was born on 9 Feb 1853 in Beverley.

On 4 Oct 1893, Joseph married Grace Emma Hancock at St. Mary's Anglican Church, Beverley. He was 40 years of age, and she 35.

They farmed 'Gingaring' in the Brookton-Pingelly area and had two children.

John passed away on 6 May 1938 at the age of 85, and Grace on 15 May 1947 at 88. They share a grave in the Pingelly Cemetery.

BLECHYNDEN, JOSEPH (1853-1938) was born 9 Feb 1853 Beverley, registered in York, WA [Reg. 2018]. He was the tenth child of Harrison Blechynden and Charlotte Robus who were married in Perth on 3 Mar 1832. Harrison Blechynden and Charlotte Robus emigrated from Kent in England to the newly formed Swan River Colony arriving in Perth on the same ship the Minstrel on 20 Jan 1830. Their first two children John and Sarah were born in Perth. Their parents then moved to 'St Aubyns', land granted in the newly zoned district of Beverley, owned by Edward Pomeroy Barrett-Lennard and entrusted to his nephew Edmund Thomas Barrett-Lennard. Joseph's sister Elizabeth 'Anne' was born on 'St Aubyns', prior to them moving to the property next door called 'Babbyalla'. It was here that the next seven children were born and grew up. Sadly, their fifth child, Jesse William, died at the age of 20 months.

Joseph Blechynden

At the time of his birth Joseph's siblings were aged as follows: John 20 years, Sarah Harrison 12 years, Anne 11 years, Henry George 10 years, Walter Edward 7 years, Charles Edwin 5 years, Thomas Harrison 4 years and Jesse 20 months (named after the Jesse who died).

Six boys under ten were quite a challenge and one can imagine at times life in the house and yards were chaotic. Their older brother John was working on the farm with their father from morning to night and their sisters were kept busy with their mother working in the house and cooking for such a large number. As soon as they were able, they were allocated chores around the house and yard. The children were taught to ride at an early age. The family often travelled by horse and cart to the black smiths and the mud bat store, a couple of properties away at Edwards Crossing to shop for supplies. There were no schools in the district and the boys had little schooling as such.

Joseph was still a baby and quite unaware, when in 1854, his eldest brother John left home at the age of 21 and walked to the Blackwood district guided by friendly Aboriginals. As a result, he acquired two pastoral leases along the Blackwood River.

The farm 'Babbyalla', was recorded as being a viable concern in the Census of 1859 and Joseph was written on the form as being six years of age. He enjoyed going with the family when they travelled by horse and cart to participate in the annual Agricultural Shows which were held every year at York.

One can imagine he was a very excited young boy, when at seven years of age he travelled with his family to join the celebrations of his brother John Blechynden being married to Elizabeth Green in Feb 1860, at St George's Cathedral in the growing city of Perth. It would have been a long trip for a small boy, from 'Babbyalla', staying overnight at the halfway house along the way. As they came to the city he would have been mesmerized by the constant stream of hundreds of horses and carts and people strolling around talking loudly as they went about their business. The people at the wedding were dressed in the height of fashion and his family looked very smart in their very best clothes.

This was followed by another wedding when his sister Anne married Thomas Edwards in March 1862 in the nearby town of York. Weddings were a great time of celebration as people gathered together, once again dressed in their best clothes.

In 1864, looking to their future, his brothers Walter Edward and Charles Edwin left home. They walked to the Blackwood District and joined their eldest brother, John at Bridgetown. 'Babbyalla' had lost some of their oldest members of the family. The children left at 'Babbyalla' were now aged as follows: Sarah 23 years, Henry 21 years, Thomas 16 years, Jesse 13 years and Joseph 11 years. There was much to do on the farm and the younger boys were now expected to pull their weight in helping their father and older brother Henry.

Joseph's sister Sarah married John Henry Markham Page in Nov 1867 in York. Both of his sisters had now left the nest. Joseph was now aged 14 years of age and working as hard as Henry, Thomas and Jesse with his father, Harrison, at the multitude of tasks on the property. Horses were very much part of their life as they looked after their large flock of sheep and worked on their crops.

The Beverley townsite was established around 1868 and life became easier as people settled in the town and Government services were progressively introduced.

His brother, Charles Edwin had returned to the district and was married in Beverley to Caroline Mary Davies in Apr 1872 settling at Mount Kokeby on the property of 'Erindale', nearby.

It was a big blow to the family when their father Harrison died at the age of 71 years on 17 Jul 1873. A large crowd gathered to support the family at the funeral which was held at Edwards Crossing. Thomas was 24 years; Jesse was almost 23 years and Joseph 20 years.

Joseph Blechynden

Three months following the funeral, Walter Edward who was now living on his own property 'Glenpennant' in the Warren District, was married in Oct 1873 to Jane Needs in the Picton Anglican Church, Bunbury.

The three youngest, Thomas (often known as 'Harrison'), Jesse and Joseph lived at home with their mother Charlotte, and continued farming on 'Babbyalla', sometimes finding work on other properties nearby.

It was mentioned in family records that Joseph Blechynden fathered a child out of wedlock. WA records show that he did in fact have a child.

FRANCIS BLECHYNDEN (1876-) was born 18 Mar 1876, Bungarring, Beverley, WA [Reg. 17145], father, JOSEPH BLECHYNDEN, mother, LUCY WITTENE (born 1855). Lucy's Aunt Elizabeth Martin registered the birth on 19 May 1876 in York.

BIRTH IN THE STATE OF WESTERN AUSTRALIA
No.	When and where born	Name (if any)	Sex	Name and Surname of Father	Name and Maiden Surname of Mother	Rank or Profession of Father	Signature, Description, and Residence of Informant	When Registered	Signature of Registrar
1910	18 March 1876 Bungarrig Beverley	Francis	Male	Joseph Blechynden	Lucy Wittene	Fanner	Eliza Jane Pennyfather Caretaker of the Mother of the Child York, W.A.	17 May 1876	[Signature]

Birth certificate Francis Blechynden, 1876, Beverley,

The landowner of the property of Bungarrig mentioned on the birth certificate where the baby was born in 1876 was Charles Hines. Charles had a sister Lucy Hine (1859-1937).

https://www.carnamah.com.au/WA-directories?starts_with=H&page=133

Hines C. Landowner Beverley 1876 WA Almanack
Joseph was aged 23 years. Lucy Wittene may have been working and living at Bungarrig. It would be interesting to find out what happened to Lucy and baby Francis.

Deaths: WA registration: This appears to be Francis dying as a baby, under the name of Francis Blechynden Hinds in 1877, aged 1 year.

Hin	Francis	1	Unkno	Unkno	Unkno	933	187
ds	Blechynd		wn	wn	wn	5	7
	on			Lucy

Note spelling of Blechyndon and Hinds in WA Registration.

Marriage: WA Records BDMs: Charles Hines (1855-1911) was married 1879 to Eliza Jane Pennyfather (1859-1942), York, WA [Reg. 4620].

Joseph's brother, Thomas Harrison, married Annie Maria Dunham in Northam in Sep 1877. Joseph and Jesse continued working on 'Babbyalla'.

In Sep 1882, Jesse William Blechynden married Emma Sarah Dunham in York. Brothers, Thomas and Jesse Blechynden had married sisters, Anna Maria and Emma Sarah Dunham.

On Mon 25 Aug 1884, an add was put in the York newspaper via Joseph Blechynden re stud and agistment services at 'Babbyalla'.

Eastern Districts Chronicle (York, WA: 1877 - 1927), Mon 15 Sep 1884, pg 2

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article148586420.txt>

"YOUNG TARRAGON"

*will stand for the season at Babalella (sic) stables at 30s., per mare; paddock provided at 1/6 per week, but no responsibility incurred.
JOSEPH BLECHYNDEN, Beverley, August 5th, 1884.*

N O T I C E .
"YOUNG TARRAGON"
will stand for the season at Babalella stables at 30s., per mare; paddock provided at 1/6 per week, but no responsibility incurred.
JOSEPH BLECHYNDEN,
Beverley, August 5th, 1884.

Life was not easy following Harrison's death, and Joseph's mother, Charlotte, was put under a lot of stress. When two of her flocks of sheep became infected with scab, she did her best to remedy the situation by washing them in a pool at Butlers Pool, on 'Mt. Pleasant', in the Avon River. She was brought before the courts and a harrowing time followed as this was processed and the penalty was severe. This can be read about in her own chapter. Thank goodness the Governor came to the party:

Sat 17 Dec 1887

Our readers may remember that early in last October Mrs C. A. Blechynden of Beverley, was fined no less than £11,400 by the York bench for having committed a breach of the Seal Act by washing eleven hundred and forty sheep in Butler's Pool, Beverley. Upon such an extraordinary penalty being inflicted Mrs Blechynden laid the matter before His Excellency the Governor and we are informed that last Tuesday His Excellency was pleased to reduce the fine to £20. We are glad that His Excellency saw his way to reducing to a reasonable sum a penalty, the enforcement of which, would have meant simply utter ruin to an old and highly respected resident.

There was an enormous change to the family when it was known that Mr. Bevan Hamersley had inherited the property of 'Babbyalla' and intended to take up residence there. Joseph's mother Charlotte wrote a letter in 1888 letter requesting a grant of land. She said that she and her husband had rented a farm from MR HAMERSLEY for 44 years and also leased CROWN LAND.

Bevan Hamersley took up residence at 'Babbyalla' in 1888.

In 1888 Joseph's brother, Charles Edwin Blechynden, purchased 'Roesland', so called because it was surveyed by Mr. Roe at the same time as he surveyed the Beverley township.

Following the evacuation of 'Babbyalla', Charlotte and, presumably, Joseph moved to live with Charles Edwin and his wife Caroline.

Joseph began farming at 'Oakdale', a property some nine miles east of Beverley, where he farmed in partnership with his mother Charlotte and brother.

Charlotte Blechynden (nee Robus) died on 13 Sep 1889. This was a sad time for the whole family. She had been there for them all through 'thick and thin'. Many people, including family and friends, came to honour her at her funeral at Edwards Crossing.

Life continued on for Joseph and having a strong interest in horses, we next have details of him as Clerk of Course of the Beverley Race Club.

Eastern Districts Chronicle (York, WA: 1877 - 1927), Sat 11 Apr 1891, pg 8

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article148138084.txt>

BEVERLEY RACE CLUB.

Stewards:

Messrs. J. P. Dempster, D.
Kilpatrick,
T. Edwards, sen., G. E.
Inkpen* & B. Hamersley.

Judge:

H. Lukin, Esq., J.P.

Starter:

Mr. E. B. Lennard, jr.

Clerk of Course:

Mr. Joseph Blechynden.

BEVERLEY RACE CLUB.

Stewards:

Messrs. J. P. Dempster, D. Kilpatrick,
T. Edwards, sen., G. E.
Inkpen, & B. Hamersley.

Judge:

H. Lukin, Esq., J.P.

Starter:

Mr. E. B. Lennard, jr.

Clerk of Course:

Mr. Joseph Blechynden.

THE next meeting of the above Club will take place on WEDNESDAY, MAY 6, 1891, when the following races will be run:—

Joseph Blechynden was named as executor acting for the Estate of George Lomas.

West Australian (Perth, WA: 1879 - 1954), Tue 19 Nov 1895, pg 6

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article4540946.txt>

GEORGE LOMAS, Deceased

PURSUANT to an Act of the Imperial Parliament, made and passed in the 22nd and 23rd years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter 35, instituted "An Act to Farther Amend the Law of Property and to Relieve Trustees" (adopted by Local Ordinance 31 Vict. No. 8), notice is hereby given that all Creditors and other persons having any CLAIMS or DEMANDS upon or against the estate of GEORGE LOMAS late of Beverley, in the colony of Western Australia, Farmer, who died at Oakdale, Beverley, on the 28th day of September, 1895, and probate of whose Will was granted by the Supreme Court to JOSEPH BLECHYNDEN, of Oakdale, Beverley, the executor therein named, on the 28th day of October, 1895, are hereby required to send in writing particulars of their Claims or Demands to the said Joseph Blechynden on or before the 21st day of December next. And notice is hereby also given that at the expiration of the last mentioned day the said Joseph Blechynden will proceed to distribute the assets of the said George Lomas among the parties entitled thereto, having regard only to the claims and demands of which he shall then have had notice, and that the said Executor will not be liable for the assets of the said George Lomas, deceased, or any part thereof so distributed to any person of whose claim the said executor has not had notice at the time of the distribution.

Dated this 14th day of November, 1895.

DARBYSHIRE & PILKINGTON
York
Solicitor to the Executor.

JOSEPH BLECHYNDEN (1853-1938) was married on 4 Oct 1893, St Mary's Anglican Church, Beverley, WA [Reg. 310], to GRACE BRIDGET EMMA HANCOCK (1858-1947). Joseph was aged 40 years and Grace was aged 35 years. Joseph took his bride back to 'Oakdale' where they set up home and where their two children were born. More details further on.

Via the Hancock Book: "The Rector of Beverley has confirmed that theirs was the first recorded marriage in the new church which was consecrated on the 30 Nov 1892."

ST MARY'S ANGLICAN CHURCH

<https://www.nationaltrust.org.au/services/st-marys-anglican-church-beverley/>

This iconic building in Beverley has held a prominent place in the community since it was built in 1892, holding countless weddings, baptisms, confirmations and funerals. St Mary's Anglican church remains a local landmark on the corner of John and Husking Streets, and still contributes to the community's sense of place.

The first Rector, the Reverend Groser, was not only a theologian of note but had a nous for business. His foresight was remarkable as he drove the fundraising efforts and enthusiasm of the local community to donate their time and significant resources to build the church from local stone. Heavy stone was carted in by horse drawn wagons, then lifted higher and higher to complete the structure over eight months. All the work was done voluntarily with time and resources freely given.

St Mary's Anglican church, Beverley

This was the first Anglican Church in Beverley townsite. It cost 475 pounds and was consecrated by Reverend Parry on 30th November 1892. The Chancel and Vestry were added in 1904 at a cost of 290 pounds. A memorial tower to Mr WH de Lisle, added in 1914, was too heavy for the foundation and was removed in 1926.

The Lytch Gate was a War Commemoration and was dedicated on Remembrance Day 11 November 1956. The Porch was added in 1963 in memory of Mena Smith.

The Memorial Lytch gate mentioned is the only one of its type in WA.

The Lytch Gate, St Mary's Anglican Church, Beverley

HANCOCK, GRACE BRIDGET EMMA (1858-1947)

Grace Bridget Emma Hancock was born 25 Nov 1858, Boyadine, WA [Reg. 4469], the sixth daughter of eleven children of GEORGE HANCOCK (1810-1871), mother, SOPHIA GREGORY (1823-1906). Her parents arrived per Warrior, 12 Mar 1830. The same family line as the late Lang Hancock. They resided in Pingelly, Lomos and Green Hills, WA. Grace Bridget Emma Blechynden (nee Hancock) died 15 Apr 1947, York Hospital, WA [Reg. 12]. She was buried at Pingelly Cemetery, Anglican section.

THE HANCOCK STORY by H. L. (Mick) Kilpatrick

"Grace Emma was the tenth child and sixth daughter of George and Sophia Hancock. She was born at Boyadine on the 25th, November 1858."

Book: THE HANCOCK STORY
by H. L. (Mick) Kilpatrick:

George Hancock: February 1833 Granted town lot W26.
In 1841, George Hancock was an officer protecting timber lands.
1 January 1842, Belmont, Western Australia:
George Hancock opens public house 'The Mermaid' in Belmont.
Boat carries cargo across river to Perth 7am returns same evening.
14 Mar 1844.
George Hancock appointed mail contract between Perth and Albany.
George Hancock held a pastoral lease in 1853 at Williams.
George Hancock employed 2 ticket of leave men from 1864-1871.

George Hancock was a farmer at 'Gingaring', Beverley, Avon Loc. 22. Sons were pastoralists at 'Ashburton Downs'.

The following pages have details of the parents of Grace Bridget Emma Hancock, George Hancock (1810-1871) and Sophia Gregory (1823-1906):

GEORGE HANCOCK (1810-1871) married SOPHIA GREGORY (1823-1906) 23 Dec 1839, Belmont. WA. HANCOCK, GEORGE (1810-1871) was born 1810, Devon, England. He was baptised 10 Jul 1810, Coldridge, Devon, England, parents JOHN HANCOCK (1775-1838) and GRACE ELDRIDGE (1782-1833). George. He died 25 Aug 1871, Avondale, Beverley, WA [Reg. 5055] aged 59 years. Registered in 1971. Buried Gilgering Cemetery, York Shire, WA. There is a discrepancy with George Hancock's death date. In many articles and on his headstone, it records him as having died in 1872. WA registration has him as dying in 1871.

JOHN HANCOCK (1775-1837) and GRACE ELDRIDGE (1775-1833) were married 7 Aug 1802, Coldridge, Devin, England.

HANCOCK, JOHN (1775-1837) was born 27 Sep 1775, Coldridge, Devon, England. Parents: JOHN SCOTT HANCOCK (1752-1808) and ANN LEACH (1753-) who were married 24 Apr 1775, Coldridge, Devon, England. (Hancock recorded as Hanlake). He died 28 Nov 1837, Swan River Colony, (Perth), WA. Discrepancy some have his death as 1838.

ELDRIDGE, GRACE (1782-1833) was born about 1782, Coldridge, Devon, England. Parents: WALTER ELDRIDGE (1755-) and MARY (query BAKER). Many family trees have Grace recorded as Grace Eldridge Baker. Grace Hancock (nee Eldridge) died 23 Nov 1833, Belmont, Swan River Colony, WA. Buried Guilford Cemetery, WA.

JOHN HANCOCK (1775-1837) and GRACE ELDRIDGE (1775-1833) had five children. The following data is from Family Trees in Ancestry. I cannot vouch for some of the following facts.

1. FRANCES FANNY HANCOCK (1803-) married HUMPHREY DRAKE (1797-) 10 Aug 1824, Coldridge, Devon, England. She did not emigrate.

2. JAMES HANCOCK (1804-1812) was christened 26 Dec 1804, Coldridge, Devon, England. He died 31 Jan 1812, at the age of 8 years, Coldridge, Devon, England.

3. MARY HANCOCK (1807-1852) Did not emigrate. She was christened, 17 Nov 1807, Coldridge, Devon, England. Mary married THOMAS PRICE (1785-) 8 Aug 1830, Liverpool, Lancashire, England. This may be her.

4. GEORGE HANCOCK (1810-1871) emigrated to the Swan River Colony. More details on George following.

5. JAMES HANCOCK (1812-) emigrated to the Swan River Colony. Property Feb 1833, Perth, WA, Granted town lot W76. 29 Nov 1848, Belmont, WA. James reported to have absconded from business by father and brother (John and George). Departure, 1850, Fremantle, left per "Lapwing" for SA.

EMIGRATION:

Grace Bridget Emma Hancock's father George Hancock, labourer, aged 18 years and his brother James, carpenter aged 20 years, emigrated with their parents, John Hancock aged 50 years, carpenter and his wife Grace aged 48 years, to WA, by the ship Warrior shortly after the foundation of the Colony, arriving, 12 Mar 1830.

Thank you to bluett (colblue1) Family Tree, Ancestry for sharing your research.

Arrival: 12 Mar 1830, Fremantle, WA. Arrived per 'Warrior,' indentured to Capt. F.H. BYRNE. John and his wife Grace brought the family to W.A. from Devon Occupation: 1830, Swan River Colony (Fremantle), WA. Hired as a carpenter by Capt. F.H. Byrne.

Property: Feb 1833, Fremantle, WA, Granted Fremantle lot 424.

Occupation: 2 Jun 1838, Belmont, WA. Owned a pit saw business and house in Belmont. Employed servant (Thomas Cook).

Death of John Hancock (1775-1837), 28 Nov 1837, Belmont City, WA.

<https://www.findagrave.com/memorial/179359760/john-hancock>

Discrepancy. Some have him dying in 1838.

Headstone John Hancock, Guildford Cemetery, WA

*In Memory of JOHN / GRACE HANCOCK
Died at Belmont 1837
At Rest*

GREGORY, SOPHIA (1823-1906) Grace Bridget Emma Hancock's mother

Sophia Gregory was born 5 May 1823, "Elm Grove", Southsea, Hampshire, England. She was baptised 14 Sep, Saint Mary's Church, Portsea, Hampshire, England. Parents: JOHN HENRY GREGORY (1794-1866) SNR. and MARY WILLIAMS MONTGOMERY (Widow DORMAN) (1792-1857) who were married 19 Jan 1815, Saint Mary's Church, Portsea, Hampshire, England.

Sophia Hancock (nee Gregory) died 28 Aug 1906, Gilgering, WA [Reg. 19].

GREGORY, JOHN HENRY (1794-1866) SNR. Grace Bridget Emma Hancock's maternal grandfather

John Henry Gregory was born 1794, "Elm Grove", Southsea, Portsea Island, Hampshire, England. He died 12 May 1866, Northam, WA [Reg. 3253]. Buried Northam Pioneer Cemetery.

MONTGOMERY, MARY WILLIAMS (1792-1857) Grace Bridget Emma Hancock's maternal grandmother

Mary Williams Montgomery was born 1792, London, Greater London, England. Mary had been married before. She was the widow of Mr. Dorman. Mary Dorman and her husband had a son named James Dorman, born in 1813.

JAMES 'JOHN' DORMAN (1813-1879). Note: his birth name was James Dorman, he adopted the surname Gregory from his mother's second marriage. He was born 20 Jan 1813, Portsea, Hampshire, England. He died 9 Jan 1879, Beverley, WA [Reg. 10033]. Registered under Jas Gregory.

Emigration: Arrived with family per Warrior, 12 Mar 1830 Fremantle, Swan River colony, WA.

JAMES DORMAN GREGORY (1813-1879) married m.2 JANE ELIZA BYFIELD (NEE COATES) (1822-1872) Widow, 3 Oct 1863, Mid Swan, WA [Reg. 2056].

Note: Previously known as James Dorman, in his marriage was registered as James Dorman Gregory and Jane Eliza Byfield.

m.1 JANE ELIZA COATES (1822-1872) married EDWARD JOHN HAROLD BYFIELD (1811-1863), 7 Jun 1841, Perth, WA. Jane Eliza Coates was born in England. James Dorman and Jane Eliza Gregory had three children:

1. HENRY DORMAN GREGORY (1864-1923)
2. MARY ELIZA GREGORY (1865-1867) DIED AGED 18 MONTHS.
3. UNNAMED GREGORY (1867-1867).

HENRY DORMAN GREGORY (1864-1923) married MARY JANE COATES (1855-1933) 1887, Guildford, WA [Reg.129].

m.2 MARY WILLIAMS DORMAN (nee MONTGOMERY) (1792-1857) married JOHN HENRY GREGORY (1794-1866) Snr. 19 Jan 1815, Saint Mary's Church, Portsea, Hampshire, England.
CHILDREN OF JOHN HENRY GREGORY (1794-1866) AND MARY WILLIAMS DORMAN (nee MONTGOMERY) (1792-1857):

1. ELIZABETH GREGORY (1818-1830) was born 22 Jun 1818, Hampshire, England. She died 6 Oct 1830, Guildford, WA, aged about 13 years.

2. MARY ANN GREGORY (1820-1829) was born 19 Mar 1820, Hampshire, England. She died 7 Apr 1829, Hampshire, England, aged 9 years.

3. SOPHIA GREGORY (1823-1906) married GEORGE HANCOCK (1810-1871) 23 Dec 1839, Belmont, WA. Sofia is the mother of Grace Hancock who married Joseph Blechynden.

4. ELIZA GREGORY (1824-1844) was born 21 Dec 1824, Portsmouth, Hampshire, England. She died 5 May 1844, York, WA [Reg. No 114], aged 19 years.

5. JOHN HENRY WILLIAMS GREGORY (1826-1914) married EMMA MASSINGHAM (1826-1914), 20 Jan 1851, York, WA [Reg. 338], registered as Nessingham.

6. WILLIAM GEORGE JOSEPH GREGORY (1829-1853) married ELIZA JONES (1845-1923) 1862, Victoria Plains, WA [Reg. 1906]. Is this William John Gregory? The passenger list on the Warrior (see following), records his name as William John Gregory aged one year. William John Gregory and Willian George Joseph Gregory are both recorded in a number of different family trees with the same birth date and parents. Are they the same person? William George Joseph Gregory died in 1853, WA [Reg. 534]. I can't find a death for William John Gregory.

EMIGRATION: Gregory family

Sophia's maternal grandparents, John Henry and Mary Gregory and family arrived via the Warrior on 12 Mar 1830 to the Swan River Colony. John Henry Gregory aged 37 years, with his wife Mary Williams Montgomery (Dorman) aged 38 years, children: James Dorman, aged 17 years, Elizabeth Gregory aged 13 years, Sophia Gregory aged 7 years, Eliza Gregory aged 5 years, John Henry Williams Gregory aged 4 years and William John Gregory aged 1 year.

Note: James Dorman from Mary's first marriage according to family records was recorded on the ship as being 17 years. Family records have him born in 1813, which makes him 23 years.

PASSENGER SHIPS ARRIVING IN:

<https://fremantlestuff.info/ships/warrior.html>

The WARRIOR was a 485-tonne wooden-hulled, copper-sheathed sailing ship which was launched at Chepstow in 1828. She sailed from London and Portsmouth on October 23, 1829 and travelled via St Jago and the Cape of Good Hope to the Swan River Colony, Hobart Town and Sydney. Captain John Stone was in command and she carried 27 officers and 4 guards as well as her 166 passengers.

Warrior – Passenger list:

<http://www.perthdps.com/shipping/warrior.htm>

Passenger list from the Warrior on 12 Mar 1830 to the Swan River Colony:

	Name	Age	Family/Single	Occupation	Comments
GREGORY	John Henry	37	F		...
GREGORY	Mary Williams	38	F	Wife	nee MONTGOMERY or DORMAN
GREGORY	James Dorman	17	F	Child	Stepson to J.H. GREGORY
GREGORY	Elizabeth	13	F	Child
GREGORY	Sophia	7	F	Child
GREGORY	Eliza	5	F	Child
GREGORY	John Henry Williams	4	F	Child
GREGORY	William John	1	F	Child
HABGOOD	William	24	S	Agriculturalist
HANCOCK	John	50	F	Carpenter	Servant for Capt F.H.
BYRNE
HANCOCK	Grace	48	F	Wife	nee ELDRIDGE
HANCOCK	James	20	F	Carpenter & Labourer
HANCOCK	George	18	F	Labourer

Gregory, Habgood and Hancock, passengers who arrived on the ship the Warrior

The following is from the Obituary of John Henry Gregory (1826-1914) Jnr, son of John Henry Gregory (1794-1866) Snr, giving a brief history of the family's arrival, settling in the new Swan River Colony and their movement further inland.

Narrogin Observer and Williams District Representative (WA: 1905 - 1930), Sat 23 May 1914, pg. 4

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article209880631.txt>

Death of Mr. John Henry Gregory.

THIS above old gentleman, who was for many years associated with Narrogin and the Great Southern districts, passed away at his home, Northam, on Saturday last at the ripe age of 83 years. Mr. Gregory was associated with Western Australia since the age of three, and was probably the oldest colonist of which the State could boast. Mentally and physically he was a remarkable man, and it was a matter for astonishment to many people only a few years back to see this sturdy old pioneer constantly knocking about the country on horseback in pursuit of his duties as forest ranger for the South West and Southern districts. He still worked industriously for several hours every day, and a few days prior to his death he was engaged in carting hay, when he slipped off the load and fell to the ground. He sustained a slight concussion, but at first it was thought that the injury would not prove serious. On the following day an attack of bronchitis gave serious alarm to his friends and medical adviser (Dr. Rockett), but on Saturday morning the old gentleman seemed better. At about 6 o'clock that evening, however, he suddenly collapsed, and passed peacefully away. The funeral took place on Tuesday morning.

The deceased gentleman was born in the county of Hampshire, England, in 1826, when George the Fourth was King. Late in 1829 he left England with his parents in the ship Warrior (Captain Stone), bound for Australia. The family consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Gregory, consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Gregory, their three sons and two daughters. The Warrior's passengers were landed at South Beach, Fremantle, on March 12, 1830, upwards of 84 years ago. Captain James Stirling, the first Governor of Western Australia, had then been in office about nine months. These early settlers met with great hardships, chiefly from shortage of food supplies. In 1836 young Gregory went to school at the first educational establishment founded in Perth, the teacher being Mr. Spencer, father of the ex-Auditor General. The Rev. J. B. Wittenoom, grandfather of Sir Edward, was subsequently the head of the school. In those early days the Gregorys had many encounters with troublesome natives, and not a few hair-breadth escapes. In 1841, when between 14 and 15 years of age, Mr. Gregory journeyed across the hills with a team in charge of Mr. Elijah Cook, one of the pioneers. It took them four days to reach York, and the treachery of the natives kept them constantly on guard. Their load consisted of material for Grindle's Hotel, the second hotel built in York, and subsequently called the King's Head Inn. In 1842 Mr. Gregory commenced work on Mr. Hewson's farm in the Toodyay district. At that time there was no farming machinery, everything was primitive, and the working hours were from 4 in the morning until 9 at night. The plough of that day was all of wood, excepting the share itself, and there were skids instead of wheels. Sowing was all done on the broadcast system, experts doing up to 18 acres a day. Harvesting, threshing, and clearing were still more tedious undertakings. In 1849 Mr. Gregory launched out on his own account and took up a farm seven miles north of York. On one occasion he secured a crop of 37 bushels to the acre. In 1856 he occasionally secured a crop of 37 bushels to the acre. In 1856 he rented what was known as Thompson's Head—an uncleared grant in the Northam district, which he developed and worked for about 30 years. In 1887 he gave up Thompson's Head and devoted his energies to developing the Burlong Pool farm, which he had already acquired and where he worked until 1892. In that year, and at the age of 66, he joined the Government service and was appointed forest ranger on the Great Southern line. This position he held for 17 years, retiring on a pension in 1909 at the age of 83. In 1851 Mr. Gregory married Miss Massingham, of York, who survives him. He also leaves a family of four sons and four daughters. His sons are Messrs. J. H., C. J. and F. A. Gregory, of Northam, and Mr. W. G. Gregory, of York. His youngest son (Mr. F. A. Gregory) is the State Electoral Officer for the East Province, and was away at Kellerberrin conducting the election when his father died. The daughters of the deceased are Mrs. N Hancock, of Narrogin; Mrs. J. J. Lloyd (wife of the Acting Deputy Postmaster-General in Perth); and Misses R. and C. Gregory. He also leaves a number of grandchildren. Mr. and Mrs. Gregory celebrated their diamond wedding in Northam on January 19, 1911.

Death of Mr. John Henry Gregory.

The above old gentleman, who was for many years associated with Narrogin and the Great Southern districts, passed away at his home, Northam, on Saturday last at the ripe age of 83 years. Mr. Gregory was associated with since the age of three, and was probably the oldest colonist of which the State could boast. Mentally and physically, he was a remarkable man, and it was a matter for astonishment to many people only a few years back to see this sturdy old pioneer constantly knocking about the country on horseback in pursuit of his duties as forest ranger for the South West and Southern districts. He still worked industriously for several hours every day, and a few days prior to his death he was engaged in carting hay, when he slipped off the load and fell to the ground. He sustained a slight concussion, but at first it was thought that the injury would not prove serious. On the following day an attack of bronchitis gave serious alarm to his friends and medical adviser (Dr. Rockett), but on Saturday morning the old gentleman seemed better. At about 6 o'clock that evening, however, he suddenly collapsed; and passed peacefully away. The funeral took place on Tuesday morning.

The deceased gentleman was born in the county of Hampshire, England, in 1826, when George the Fourth was King. Late in 1829 he left England with his parents in the ship Warrior (Captain Stone), bound for Australia. The family consisted of, Mr. and Mrs. Gregory, their three sons and two daughters. The Warrior's passengers were landed at South Beach, Fremantle on March 12, 1830, upwards of 84 years ago. Captain James Stirling, the first Governor of WA, had then been in office about nine months. These early settlers met with great hardships, chiefly from shortage of food supplies. In 1836 young Gregory went to school at the first educational establishment founded in Perth, the teacher being Mr. Spencer, father of the ex-Auditor General. The Rev. J. B. Wittenoom, grandfather of Sir Edward, was subsequently the head of the school. In those early days the Gregorys had many encounters with troublesome natives, and not a few hair-breadth escapes. In 1841, when between 14 and 15 years of age, Mr. Gregory journeyed across the hills with, a team in charge of Mr. Elijah Cook, one of the pioneers. It took them four days to reach York, and the treachery of the natives kept them constantly on guard. Their load consisted of material for Grindle's Hotel, the second hotel built in York, and subsequently called the King's Head Inn. In 1842 Mr. Gregory commenced work on Mr. Hewson's farm in the Toodyay district. At that time there was no farming machinery, everything was primitive, and the working hours were from 4 in the morning until 9 at night. The plough of that day was all of wood, excepting the share itself, and there were skids instead of wheels. Sowing was all done on the broadcast system, experts doing up to 18 acres a day. Harvesting, threshing, and clearing were still more tedious undertakings. In 1849 Mr. Gregory launched out on his own account and took up a farm seven miles north of York. On one occasion he secured a crop of 37 bushels to the acre. In 1856 he rented what was known as Thompson's Head — an uncleared grant in the Northam district, which he developed and worked for about 30 years. In 1887 he gave up Thompson's Head and devoted his energies to developing the Burlong Pool farm, which he had already acquired and where he worked until 1892. In that year, and at the age of 66, he joined the Government service and was appointed forest ranger on the Great Southern line. This position he held for 17 years, retiring on a pension in 1909 at the age of 83. In 1851 Mr. Gregory married Miss Massingham, of York, who survives him. He also leaves a family of four sons and four daughters. His sons are Messrs. J. H., C. J. and F. A. Gregory, of Northam, and Mr. W. G. Gregory, of York. His youngest son (Mr. F. A. Gregory) is the State Electoral Officer for the East Province, and was away at Kellerberrin conducting the election when his father died. The daughters of the deceased are Mrs. N Hancock, of Narrogin; Mrs. J. J. Lloyd (wife of the Acting Deputy Postmaster-General in Perth); and Misses E. and C. Gregory. He also leaves a number of grandchildren. Mr. and Mrs. Gregory celebrated their diamond, wedding in Northam on January 19, 1911.

Western Mail (Perth, WA: 1885 - 1954), Thu 21 Jul 1938, pg 15

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article37853063.txt>

PIONEERING FAMILIES.
Memories of Early Days.
ACCORDING to Kimberley's "West

The Hancocks.

George Hancock and J. and G. Hancock are named among the first settlers in the Beverley district. George Hancock came from Devonshire in the Sulphur (sic.) shortly after the foundation of the colony. Mrs. George Hancock, who died at Aubrey Hill, Beverley, at the advanced age of 83, came from England in the Warrior. The couple, with three young children, settled in the district in 1848. George Hancock, having established his family on the land, died in 1871 but his widow survived until 1907, outliving most of the original pioneers who made their homes in the district.

The Hancocks.
George Hancock and J. and G. Hancock are named among the first settlers in the Beverley district. George Hancock came from Devonshire in the Sulphur shortly after the foundation of the colony. Mrs. George Hancock, who died at Aubrey Hill, Beverley, at the advanced age of 83, came from England in the Warrior. The couple, with three young children, settled in the district in 1848. George Hancock, having established his family on the land, died in 1871 but his widow survived until 1907, outliving most of the original pioneers who made their homes in the district. George Everitt and Aubrey John Hancock, sons of the pioneering couple, were born in the Boyandine district and remained on the paternal farm for some time. An elder brother, J. F. Hancock, engaged in pastoral occupations in the North-West. The two younger brothers were in partnership on the home block for some years but finally Mr. A. J. Hancock took up a farm on his own account at West Dale.

George Everitt and Aubrey John Hancock, sons of the pioneering couple, were born in the Boyandine district and remained on the paternal farm for some time. An elder brother, J. F. Hancock, engaged in pastoral occupations in the North-west. The two younger brothers were in partnership on the home block for some years but finally Mr. A. J. Hancock took up a farm on his own account at West Dale.

Note: Mr George Hancock arrived on the ship the Warrior.

CHILDREN OF GEORGE HANCOCK (1810-1871) AND SOPHIA GREGORY (1823-1906):

Via Colin Bluett Family Tree. Grace Bridget Emma Hancock's grandparents.

1. JOHN FREDERICK HANCOCK (1841-1902) was born 21 Apr 1841, Guildford, WA. John married MARY STRANGE (1847-1884), 20 Aug 1867, Beverley, WA [Reg. 2634]. He died 22 Aug 1902, Ashburton Downs, WA [Reg. 2271], registered in York aged 61 years.

I have added this article found on Trove which illustrates the hardships and difficulties these pioneers faced in these harsh and isolated areas in the Western Australian outback. What courage and fortitude they had.

Western Mail (Perth, WA: 1885 - 1954), Thu 23 Apr 1942, pg 16

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article38422358.txt>

TOP OF THE HILL

"DOING A PERISH"

Dodging Death on the Long Dry Trails.

By "Adam Bushie"

DEAR "John,"—It was early in the seventies that John and Herbert Hancock rode from Roebourne to the Eastern Districts—York. In this instance was their objective for the purpose of acquiring horses for themselves and other stations in the North.

Meeting another North-Wester (Donald McLeod, I think) preparing for the overland trip with sheep, they decided to travel over together, the Hancocks acting as guides and scouts for water. Having horses only, they could do this without delaying the sheep.

Highway and By-way

Conducted by John McLeod

The trip was without any untoward incident as far as Bilbatonie on the Ashburton, just below where Boolaloo homestead is today. Here it was agreed that the Hancocks would push on, as from here the stages were always dry, and the sheep could only move forward as shorter stages were found for them. Jas. Dalton was sent by McLeod, with the Hancocks, to report back if any stage was found to be too long for the sheep.

In riding south, the Hancocks had found Mt. Stuart claypan full, and assumed from their limited knowledge that it was well-nigh permanent; they decided to make that their first night after leaving the sheep at Bilbatonie. One can realise their unpleasant surprise to find it bone-dry, as they had no water in their bags. Dalton returned to report to McLeod and the Hancocks went on. With them, they had a Beverley abo. named Johnny. Their next reported water was in the Kain. After leaving Mt. Stuart, the earliest track crossed the Kain a considerable distance from the present route, kept some distance to the west of the Red Hill; stuck to the head of Warnamoo Creek, followed it down some distance, then across somewhere about where Gaza station is today, and in to Robe Pool; they knew nothing of the Robe Creek and Chalyarn.

The Hancocks arriving at the Kain found the water salt, so decided it better to strike out for known water, rather than waste precious time looking for doubtful supplies. So the end of the second day found them on the head of Warnamoo Creek with 100 head of thirsty horses, but very fortunately a nice patch of nearly green grass was sufficient to help the horses and to hold them.

On the third day, it was decided to leave the horses where they were, to get the three best in the mob and press on to water, namely Robe Pool. Before long however both the abo's horse and John Hancock's knocked up, leaving Herbert Hancock—light lad at the time—the only hope of the party. He was also by far the best mounted, as they had foreseen such a contingency. He took the waterbags and set off for the Robe Pool, leaving his brother and the abo. to follow on foot, with only a faint hope of seeing them alive again.

Still probably 20 miles to water, a very tired horse on arrival at the water, which meant at least several hours' spell there for the horse, then a ride back in the night, through country that does not lend itself to cross-country travelling at night.

So he arrived at the water, and in furnishing me with some of the details, a few years before his death, he explained the dreadful situation waiting at the water to rest his horse, knowing it was useless to attempt to return with a tired horse and every minute lessened his chance of getting back in time to save his brother.

Then as he sat there, what seemed the impossible happened; he heard a horse bell just up on the bank. He of course concluded he was getting delicious from anxiety, but again the bell was heard and this time he ran up on the bank to find the Roebourne policeman and a tracker had arrived, probably the only white man to visit the place since the Hancocks had passed down, about twelve months before.

The policeman, having occasion to visit Mardie station—just started there—had decided to do a little exploring on his own, and intended to follow the Robe up, and make across to the Millstream, and so back to Roebourne.

It is needless to say that the police acted very promptly—got his fresh horses and all three started back towards the west, and by travelling well into the night, they found the abo. Johnny about sunrise, about an hour later, just conscious, in a very bad way. He had retained his senses and not committed any of the usual blunders; he had even succeeded in tethering the delicious aboriginal to a shady tree, before he left him to go on down the creek towards water.

By leaving John Hancock and Johnny under the care of the black-tracker, Herbert Hancock and the policeman went back and gathered all the horses, who had fortunately stayed on the green feed, brought them along and by that time the sick men were able to sit on a horse and walk the way to Robe Pool, which they reached late that night. From here the police went on their way to the Millstream, and back to Roebourne. The Hancocks finished their trip without further incident, and with all their horses.

It was from Dalton, I heard the end of the sheep journey. Dalton returning to Bilbatonie, McLeod went forward and found water, probably about where the Mt. Stuart shearing shed is, because Dalton was quite clear that when they brought the sheep through, they kept to the east of Mt. Stuart, and that they also found water up the Kain, a long way above the old track and that eventually the sheep were travelled from the Kain along the present route to Roebourne. Also that the sheep were left in charge of Jas. Kain, at what they always spoke of afterwards as Kain's Camp, on the Kain river. McLeod going in search of a better route found Chalyarn and of course cut the dry stage in two. He arrived in Roebourne with practically all his stock and so ended what might have been a very tragic trip.

ADAM BUSHIE.

TOP OF THE HILL

"DOING A PERISH"

Dodging Death on the Long Dry Trails.

By "Adam Bushie"

DEAR "John,"—It was early in the seventies that John and Herbert Hancock rode from Roebourne to the Eastern Districts—York in this instance was their objective for the purpose of acquiring horses for themselves and other stations in the North.

Meeting another Northwester (Donald McLeod, I think) preparing for the overland trip with sheep, they decided to travel over together, the Hancocks acting as guides and scouts for water. Having horses only, they could do this without delaying the sheep.

The trip was without any untoward incident as far as Bilbatonie on the Ashburton, just below where Boolaloo homestead is today. Here it was agreed that the Hancocks would push on, as from here the stages were always dry, and the sheep could only move forward as shorter stages were found for them. Jas. Dalton was sent by McLeod, with the Hancocks, to report back if any stage was found to be too long for the sheep.

In riding south, the Hancocks had found Mt. Stuart claypan full, and assumed from their limited knowledge that it was well-nigh permanent, they decided to make that their first night after leaving the sheep at Bilbatonie. One can realise their unpleasant surprise to find it bone dry, as they had no water in their bags. Dalton returned to report to McLeod and the Hancocks went on. With them, they had a Beverley abo. named Johnny. Their next reported water was in the Kain. After leaving Mt. Stuart, the earliest track crossed the Kain a considerable distance from the present route, kept some distance to the west of the Red Hill; stuck to the head of Warnamoo Creek, followed it down some distance, then across somewhere about where Gaza station is today, and in to Robe Pool; they knew nothing of the Robe Creek and Chalyarn.

The Hancocks arriving at the Kain found the water salt, so decided it better to strike out for known water, rather than waste precious time looking for doubtful supplies. So, the end of the second day found them on the head of Warnamoo Creek with 100 head of thirsty horses, but very fortunately a nice patch of nearly green grass was sufficient to help the horses and to hold them. On the third day, it was decided to leave the horses where they were, to get the three best in the mob and press on to water, namely Robe Pool. Before long however both the abo's horse and John Hancock's knocked up, leaving Herbert Hancock—light lad at the time—the only hope of the party. He was also by far the best mounted, as they had foreseen such a contingency. He took the waterbags and set off for the Robe Pool, leaving his brother and the abo. to follow on foot, with only a faint hope of seeing them alive again. Still probably 20 miles to water, a very tired horse on arrival at the water, which meant at least several hours' spell there for the horse, then a ride back in the night, through country that does not lend itself to cross-country travelling at night.

So, he arrived at the water, and in furnishing me with some of the details, a few years before his death, he explained the dreadful situation waiting at the water to rest his horse, knowing it was useless to attempt to return with a tired horse and every minute lessened his chance of getting back in time to save his brother.

Then as he sat there, what seemed the impossible happened; he heard a horse bell, just up on the bank. He of course concluded he was getting delirious from anxiety, but again the tinkling was heard and this time he ran up on the bank to find the Roebourne policeman and tracker had arrived, probably the only white man to visit the place since the Hancocks had passed down, about twelve months before.

The policeman, having occasion to visit Mardie station-just started then-had decided to do a little exploring on his own, and intended to follow the Robe up. and make across country from further up the Robe to the Millstream, and so back to Roebourne.

It is needless to say that the police acted very promptly-got his fresh horses and all three started back to rescue the perishing, and by travelling well into the night, they found the abo. Johnny about sunrise next morning, and John Hancock, about an hour later, just conscious, in a very bad way. He had retained his senses and not committed any of the usual blunders; he had even succeeded in tethering the delirious aboriginal to a shady tree, before he left him to go on down the creek towards water.

By leaving John Hancock and Johnny under the care of the blacktracker, Herbert Hancock and the policeman went back and gathered all the horses, who had fortunately stayed on the green feed, brought them along and by that time the sick men were able to sit on a horse and away they went for Robe Pool, which they reached late that night. From here the police went on their way, to the Millstream and back to Roebourne. The Hancocks finished their trip without further incident, and with all their horses.

It was from Dalton I heard the end of the sheep journey. Dalton returning to Bilbartonie, McLeod went forward and found water, probably about where the Mt. Stuart shearing shed is, because Dalton was quite clear that when they brought the sheep through, they kept to the east of Mt. Stuart, and that they also found water up the Kain, a long way above the old track and that eventually the sheep were travelled from the Kain along the present route to Roebourne. Also, that the sheep were left in charge of Jas. Kain, at what they always spoke of afterwards as Kain's Camp, on the Kain river. McLeod going in search of a better route found Chalyarn and of course cut the dry stage in two. He arrived in Roebourne with practically all his stock, and so ended what might have been a very tragic trip.

ADAM BUSHIE.

2. EMMA MARY HANCOCK (1842-1928) was born 19 Dec 1842, Guildford, WA [Reg. 182]. She married 'WILLIAM' JOHN WITHNELL (1824-1898), 19 May 1859, East Beverley, WA [Reg. 1364], registered as John, in York. They settled in Roebourne in the 1860s at 'Yeera-Muk-A-Doo', see the story in Mt Welcome – The Saga of the North West, written about the Withnell and Hancock families. Emma died 16 May 1928, Mount Lawley, WA [Reg. 777].

This article is one of many found in Trove telling the story of the pioneering Withnell family who ventured further to the north of WA.

West Australian (Perth, WA: 1879 - 1954), Sat 20 Sep 1952, pg 18

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article49053610.txt>

The Name Will Be Withnell

By a happy association of events distant over 100 years from each other, Withnell House will be opened today at 68 Guildford-road, Mt. Lawley.

This allotment was part of an original grant of land made in 1829 to William Withnell, the grandfather of James Aubrey Withnell, after whom Withnell House is named.

Grandfather, father and son were all pioneers. William, the grandfather, was one of the earliest settlers in this State. His son John was among the pioneers of the North-West and James distinguished himself as a pioneer pastoralist.

When William and his family arrived at Swan River, John was a toddler. He was reared on a farm in the York district and grew up to love the land and to live close to it when necessary.

By JOHN MALCOLM

North With Hope

At an early age John Withnell married Emma Hancock, of Beverley. For a while they remained at Beverley. Then, hearing of the great possibilities of the North-West, they chartered the small vessel Sea Ripple and fitted it out to carry north their stock and their belongings—and all their hopes.

This was in the sixties and James Withnell was born in 1869 at Mt. Welcome station in the first house of what is Roebourne.

Mt. Welcome was the first station to be established by the Withnells. The locality was not as good as they had hoped, so John and Emma walked from there to the Sherlock River. There they found better pastures. They surveyed the area themselves, roughly with chain and compass, established the Sherlock station and sold Mt. Welcome.

While on Mallina, James Withnell stumbled on gold, literally stumbled on it, for he picked up a stone he had kicked to throw at a crow, saw a glint in it and stayed his arm. He recognised the stone as being identical with gold specimens that had been shown him a few years before when men had passed through the Sherlock bound for Kimberleys to prospect. This was the beginning of the Pilbarra goldfield.

Strenuous Days

The childhood lot of James Withnell consisted of the difficult days at Mt. Welcome and the strenuous times at the Sherlock and then at Mallina station, which was established by John Withnell to give the boys something of a heritage.

Discouraged by a succession of bad years and difficult times, James Withnell walked off Mallina station in the nineties and came south to try his luck at prospecting. He got together an outfit and went out east of Kalgoorlie getting a little gold; then the north called to him again and early in this century he bought in with his mother and brother at Karratha station.

After a few years there he sold out his share and took over Dirk Hartog station, subsequently buying Mardie and then Edjudina.

No other family established more stations in the North-West than the Withnells. Mt. Welcome and the Sherlock, then Mallina, Karratha, Dirk Hartog, Chirrita, Mardie and Edjudina—these represented the vast area of pastoral country opened up and developed by one family.

James Withnell was a man honoured for his courage, his kindness and his initiative. He was a student of native lore and liked to learn the ways of his native to learn the ways of his native elpers.

His is a fitting spirit to reside in the hostel for teenage boys to be in by the Salvation Army in Withnell House. This property has been presented for the purpose by Mrs. Ellen Withnell, a partner in his North-West pioneering days, as a memorial to her husband.

The Name Will Be Withnell

By a happy association of events distant over 100 years from each other, Withnell House will be opened today at 68 Guildford-road, Mt. Lawley. This allotment was part of an original grant of land made in 1829 to William Withnell, the grandfather of James Aubrey Withnell, after whom Withnell House is named.

Grandfather, father and son were all pioneers. William, the grandfather, was one of the earliest settlers in this State. His son John was among the pioneers of the North-West and James distinguished himself as a pioneer pastoralist.

When William and his family arrived at Swan River, John was a toddler. He was reared on a farm in the York district and grew up to love the land and to live close to it when necessary.

North With Hope

At an early age John Withnell married Emma Hancock, of Beverley. For a while they remained at Beverley. Then, hearing of the great possibilities of the North-West, they chartered the small vessel Sea Ripple and fitted it out to carry north their stock and their belongings—and all their hopes. This was in the sixties and James Withnell was born in 1869 at Mt. Welcome station in the first house of what is Roebourne.

Mt. Welcome was the first station to be established by the Withnells. The locality was not as good as they had hoped, so John and Emma walked from there to the Sherlock River. There they found better pastures. They surveyed the area themselves, roughly with chain and compass, established the Sherlock station and sold Mt. Welcome.

While on Mallina, James Withnell stumbled on gold, literally stumbled on it, for he picked up a stone he had kicked to throw at a crow, saw a glint in it and stayed his arm. He recognised the stone as being identical with gold specimens that had been shown him a few years before when men had passed through the Sherlock bound for Kimberleys to prospect. This was the beginning of the Pilbarra goldfield.

Strenuous Days

The childhood lot of James Withnell consisted of the difficult days at Mt. Welcome and the strenuous times at the Sherlock and then at Mallina station, which was established by John Withnell to give the boys something of a heritage.

Discouraged by a succession of bad years and difficult times. James Withnell walked off Mallina station in the nineties and came south to try his luck at prospecting. He got together an outfit and went out east of Kalgoorlie getting a little gold; then the north called to him again and early in this century he bought in with his mother and brother at Karratha station.

After a few years there he sold out his share and took over Dirk Hartog station, subsequently buying Mardie and then Edjudina.

No other family established more stations in the North-West than the Withnells. Mt. Welcome and the Sherlock, then Mallina, Karratha, Dirk Hartog, Chirrita. Mardie and Edjudina--these represented a vast area of pastoral country opened up and developed by one family.

James Withnell was a man honoured for his courage, his kindness and his initiative. He was a student of native lore and liked to learn the ways of his native helpers.

His is a fitting spirit to reside in the hostel for teenage boys to be run by the Salvation Army in Withnell House. This property has been presented for the purpose by Mrs. Ellen Withnell, a partner in his North-West pioneering days, as a memorial to her husband.

3. ELIZA MARY HANCOCK (1845- 1924) was born 9 Feb 1845, Guildford, WA [Reg. 529]. Eliza Mary Farmer (nee Hancock) died 23 Dec 1924, Boddington, WA [Reg. 6], registered in 1925. She married THOMAS FARMER (1835-1900), 1863, Beverley, WA [Reg. 1985].

4. HERBERT WILLIAM HANCOCK (1847-1847) was born 10 Apr 1847, Guildford, WA [Reg. 938]. Herbert William Hancock died 28 Apr 1847, aged 18 days, Beverley, WA [Reg. 255].

5. FANNY LOUISA HANCOCK (1848-1927) was born 13 Jun 1848, Dale River, Beverley, WA [Reg. 1154]. Fanny Louisa Kilpatrick, (Fisher, nee Hancock) died 27 Feb 1927, Beverley, WA [Reg.10]. Fanny married twice. First to GEORGE FISHER (1836-1879), 1866, Beverley, WA [Reg. 2464]. Second to DAVID KILPATRICK (1852-1931) 1879, Albany WA [Reg. 4679].

6. SOPHIA JANE HANCOCK (1850-1871) was born 1850, York, WA [Reg. 1487]. She died at the age of 21 on 10 Apr 1871, Roebourne, WA [Reg. 5024].

7. HERBERT WILLIAM HANCOCK (1852-1936) was born 24 Jun 1852, 'Boyadine', Beverley, Registered, York District, WA [Reg. 1862]. See the relating article, back with his brother John Frederick Hancock. He died 1 Mar 1936, Northam, WA [Reg. 55]. Herbert married ALICE JANE WILDING (1863-1906) 'JESSIE', 1886, 'Rocliffe' farm, Northam, WA [Reg. 6270]. Registered in York.

8. EDITH CAROLINE HANCOCK (1854-1930) was born 7 Nov 1854, York, WA [Reg. 2597]. Edith Caroline Fleay (nee Hancock) died 7 Aug 1930, Darkan, WA [Reg. 69], registered in Katanning. She married WILLIAM FLEAY (1852-1937), 1873, Gilgering, Beverley, WA [Reg. 3612].

9. JAMES GREGORY HANCOCK (1857-1935) was born 3 Feb 1857, York, WA [Reg. 3676]. He died 15 Apr 1935, Narrogin, WA [Reg. 19]. Registered in Williams. James married FRANCES ELIZABETH ALDOM (1855-1944) 2 Apr 1883, Northam, WA [Reg. 5477].

10. GRACE EMMA HANCOCK (1858-1947) was born 25 Nov 1858, at Boyadine, Dale River, WA [Reg. 4469]. Grace Emma Blechynden (nee Hancock) died 15 May 1947, York, WA [Reg. 12]. She married JOSEPH BLECHYNDEN (1853-1938), 1893, St Mary's Church, Beverley, WA [Reg. 310].

11. AUBREY JOHN HANCOCK (1863-1943) was born 10 Jun 1863, 'Boyadine', Beverley, WA [Reg. 7170]. He died 4 Jun 1943, Gilgering, WA [Reg. 23], aged 80 years. (See article below).

12. GEORGE EVERET HANCOCK (1865-1930) was born 27 Sep 1865, Beverley, WA [Reg. 9134]. Registered 1866. He died 6 Apr 1930, Gilgering, WA [Reg. 65], registered in Northam. (See article below).

The following article about their sons Aubrey and George, records some of the history of the George and Sophia Hancock family:

The Encyclopedia of Western Australia p. 635. Courtesy of Steve Anderson.

AUBREY JOHN HANCOCK and GEORGE EVRITT HANCOCK, Beverley.

The gentlemen under review are sons of the late George Hancock, who came from Devonshire, England, by the sailing vessel "Sulphur", shortly after the foundation of the Western Australian colony. Their mother, the late Mrs. Sophia Hancock, who died at Aubrey Hill, Beverley at the advanced age of eighty-three years, was also born in England, and came to the State with her parents in the ship "Warrior", which arrived at Fremantle on January 6, 1830, Mrs. Hancock then being seven years of age. She passed the remainder of her life in this State, and at the time of her death was the oldest resident of Beverley, having survived all those sturdy earlier pioneer settlers who first made their homes in this now flourishing district. Mr. and Mrs. Hancock, with their three children came to the neighbourhood in 1848. Beverley being then but little more than a wilderness, where only a few scattered residents has begun to conquer the wilds and form an agricultural centre. Joining this little band the worthy couple did their part towards the development of the place, and during the long period of fifty-nine years spent by Mrs. Hancock in Beverley she set a bright example of true and loyal womanhood and endeared herself to all with whom she came in contact. The Messrs. A. J. and G. E. Hancock are both natives of the Boyadine district, the elder brother having been born on June 10, 1863, and the younger on September 27, two years later; at the close of their studies, which they pursued at the local school, each in turn became connected with farming pursuits on the home property, then managed by their mother, the late George Hancock having died in 1871. At the age of fourteen Mr. Aubrey J. Hancock left the Beverley district to join his eldest brother, the late John Frederick Hancock – father of Messrs. Hancock Brothers of Ashburton Downs, in the north-west-in pastoral occupations on the "Hill" Station at Broome, which association continued for some years. Upon disposing of this property, the partnership was dissolved, and Mr. A. J. Hancock returned to his native place near Beverley, where he was laid aside from active pursuits for several years through a severe illness. Upon regaining his health, he became connected with Mr. George Evritt in farming operations on the old homestead holdings, and remained in partnership with him for about ten years. Ultimately the older of the two brothers launched out on an independent career, taking up a farm of 1,400 acres of land at West Dale, to the clearing and development of which he has since devoted his energies. He has at the present time over 300 acres under cultivation, while a flock of 500 crossbred sheep forms a profitable department of industry. The homestead property-which is still carried on by the younger brother comprises about 1,000 acres of very fine sheep country, well-watered by running brooks and in every respect suited to grazing and stock raising purposes. The general utility type is favoured by Mr. Hancock in the building up of his flock, which is also comprised of crossbreds; and the 300 acres of land devoted to tillage yield him good returns. Both the brothers are members of the Beverley Agricultural Society and Mr. G. E. Hancock is associated with the Masonic fraternity, his lodge being the Beverley, W. A. C. They are loyal supporters of the Anglican Church communion, and for some years past church services have been held twice monthly in the old homestead, lent by the owner for that purpose. Of quiet temperament and habits and unassuming manner, they take but little part in the public life of the district, preferring to devote the whole of their time and attention to the management of their landed interests. Mr. A. J. Hancock, however is distinguished for his love of horses and is recognised as one of the most fearless horsemen in the district, particularly in the chase, kangaroo-hunting being his favourite pastime.

13. EVELYN JANE ELIZA HANCOCK (1868-1944) was born 29 May 1868, 'Spring Dell', Beverley, WA [Reg. 18778]. Evelyn Jane Eliza Tepper (nee Hancock) died 3 Feb 1944, Nedlands, Perth, WA [Reg. 295], aged 75 years. Buried at Gilgering, WA. Evelyn married JOHN WILLIAM OTTO TEPPER (1868-1957), 1 Mar 1897, Roebourne, WA [Reg. 1451].

Item 134 - Return of persons on the premises of Geo Hancock

Return of persons on the premises of Geo Hancock - State Records Office of WA \(sro.wa.gov.au\)

Item 134 - Return of persons on the premises of Geo Hancock

Form No. 240

CENSUS, 1859.

RETURN of the Number of Persons who Slept on the Premises of Geo Hancock in the Perth District on the Night of the 31st day of December, 1859. (To include all persons belonging to the Establishment of the said Geo Hancock who may be in the Inn or on the Road, Coast, Rivers, &c., in places not visited by the Police.)

No.	Name	Sex	Age	Married or Single	Religion	Occupation	Read & Write	From Overseas	Year of arrival in the Colony	Country where born	Country where married	If married or with child where he or she is	Number of Male Aborigines in permanent employ	Number of Female Aborigines in permanent employ
1	Geo Hancock	Male	49	Married	Protestant	Adventurer	1	Yes	1830	England	Wales
2	Eliza Hancock	Female	36	Married	"	"	1	Yes	1830	England	Wales		1
3	John Hancock	Male	19	Single	"	"	1	Yes		Protestant
4	Eliza Hancock	Female	15	Single	"	"	1	Yes		Protestant
5	Eliza Hancock	Female	9	Single	"	"	1	Yes		Protestant
6	Robert Hancock	Male	7	Single	"	"	1	Yes		Protestant
7	Edith Hancock	Female	5	Single	"	"	1	Yes		Protestant
8	James Hancock	Male	3	Single	"	"	1	Yes		Protestant
9	Grace Hancock	Female	1	Single	"	"	1	Yes		Protestant
10	John Smith	Male	22	Single	"	Shepherd	1	Yes		Protestant
11	Ed. Burgess	Male	53	Single	"	Shepherd	1	Yes	1831	England	Wales
12	Robert Gubbins	Male	50	Single	"	Cartwright	1	Yes	1837	England	Wales
13	Robert Anderson	Male	35	Single	"	Cartwright	1	Yes	1833	England	Wales
14	James Martin	Male	26	Married	"	Labourer	1	Yes	1839	England	Wales
15	Henry Martin	Male	20	Married	"	"	1	Yes	1839	England	Wales
16	Robert Martin	Male	69	Married	"	Labourer	1	Yes	1835	England	Wales
17	Thomas Martin	Male	2	Single	"	"	1	Yes	1839	England	Wales

AGRICULTURE, &c.												STOCK.
Wheat	Rape	Oats	Rye	Maize	Barley and other Cereals	Hay and green crop	Turnips	Chopped and ready for sale	Kitchen Garden	Potatoes	Onions	Turnips	Produce of Vineyard and Vines	Horses	Cattle	Sheep	Pigs	Cows	Swine and other stock owned and occupied during the year 1859	Swine and other stock owned and occupied during the year 1859	Swine and other stock owned and occupied during the year 1859
400	8	"	"	"	"	16	31	"	"	"	"	2	"	10	50	1600	25	"	10	80	1000

Note.—By the Ordinance the 12th Vict. No. 4, any person refusing or neglecting to fill in the above information, or wilfully doing so incorrectly, is subject to a penalty of £3 for each and every refusal, neglect, or wilful inaccuracy.

Signature of Householder, Geo Hancock, Dec 31/59

Printed at the G.P.O. No. 14, G. 1850—0000.

Unfortunately, some of the words in the census are hard to decipher.

PERSONS ON THE PREMISES OF GEO HANCOCK 1859:

[George] Geo Hancock,
 Sophia Hancock, 36 married
 John Hancock, 19 single Eliza Hancock, 15 single Sophia Hancock, 9 single Herbert Hancock, 7 single Edith Hancock, 5 single James Hancock, 3 single Grace Hancock, 1 single

John Smith, 22 Shepherd
 Jos [Joseph] Burges, 58 Shepherd
 Mark Gallacher [Gallagher], 50 Shepherd
 Saml, sic [Samuel] Anderson, 25 Carter
 James Merton, 26 married Carter
 Nancy Merton 20 married
 Richd [Richard] Risk 49 married Labourer
 Thomas Merton 2 single Labourer

Grace was only one year old in 1859 when the census was held. George Hancock died 25 Aug 1871, Avondale, Beverley, WA [Reg. 5055] aged 59 years, registered in 1971. Buried Gilgering Cemetery, York Shire, WA. Discrepancy, the Gilgering Cemetery and headstone has his death year as 1872.

Perth Gazette and West Australian Times (WA: 1864 - 1874), Fri 18 Aug 1871, pg 2

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article3749246.txt>

HANCOCK. —Suddenly at Spring Dell, near York, on Sunday, the 6th instant, Mr. GEORGE HANCOCK, aged 59 years; deeply lamented by a sorrowing family.

HANCOCK.—Suddenly at Spring Dell, near York, on Sunday, the 6th instant, Mr. GEORGE HANCOCK, aged 59 years; deeply lamented by a sorrowing family.

Sophia Hancock (nee Gregory) died 28 Aug 1906, Gilgering, WA [Reg. 19].

Beverley Times (WA: 1905 - 1977), Sat 1 Sep 1906, pg 5.

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article200727165.txt>

Death of an Old Colonist.

MRS. SOPHIA HANCOCK.

Death has removed from our midst an old pioneer colonist in the person of Mrs Sophia Hancock, of Aubrey Hill, Beverley, at the age of 83 years. The deceased lady was born in England, and arrived in W.A. with her parents in the ship Warrior on the 6th of January, 1830, being only seven years old. She passed the whole of her life in this State, and was the oldest resident of Beverley, having survived all those sturdy early pioneer settlers who first made their homes in this now flourishing district. Mrs. Hancock, with her husband and three young children, came to Beverley, then a wilderness, with a few scattered brother settlers, in the year 1848, and lived here ever since, nearly 59 years. Hopeful herself, she inspired hope in others, her pure and simple faith, her staunch friendships, her great love of all that was good, and her big loyal heart (being a true English woman) has endeared her to all who came in contact with her in life, and death has left a bright example for her children to follow, and her numerous family of four sons and six daughters mourn the loss of a beloved and honored mother. She leaves fifty grand-children and sixty great grand children. Her eldest son, the late John F. Hancock, of Ashburton Downs, in the North-West, pre-deceased her, having passed away just four years ago, and one daughter died in Roeburne about 34 years ago at the age of 21 years.

The funeral took place at the Gilgering Cemetery on Thursday afternoon, and was largely attended by friends and sympathisers of the bereaved family. The Rev. Canon Groser conducted the funeral service. A large number of beautiful wreaths were sent as tokens of affection by the friends and admirers of the deceased, among which were the following:—Mr. and Mrs. Horace Smith and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Withnell and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gregory and family, Canon and Mrs. Groser, Mr. and Mrs. Edwards (Rockfield), Georgie and Grace, Ethel and Alec, Onslow and Jack, Maud and Fanny, Mr. and Mrs. F. Fleay, Emma, Edith, and Grace, Mr. and Mrs. Hicks and family, James, Aubrey, and Everett, Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Brou, Mr. and Mrs. G. Brown, her brother John, May and Aubrey Fleay, Mr. and Mrs. Bone and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Fleay, Herbert and family, Horace Withnell, Herbert and Lilla Withnell, Arthur and Grace Loton, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Lepper, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Mears, T. H. Wilding, Mrs. and Miss Wilding, from Bally Bally, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Thomas.

Death of an Old Colonist

MRS. SOPHIA HANCOCK.

Death has removed from our midst an old pioneer colonist in the person of Mrs Sophia Hancock, of Aubrey Hill, Beverley, at the age of 83 years. The deceased lady was born in England, and arrived in W.A. with her parents in the ship Warrior on the 6th of January, 1830, being only seven years old. She passed the whole of her life in this State, and was the oldest resident of Beverley, having survived all those sturdy early pioneer settlers who first made their homes in this now flourishing district. Mrs. Hancock, with her husband and three young children, came to Beverley, then a wilderness, with a few scattered brother settlers, in the year 1848, and lived here ever since, nearly 59 years. Hopeful herself, she inspired hope in others, her pure and simple faith, her staunch friendships, her great love of all that was good, and her big loyal heart (being a true English woman) has endeared her to all who came in contact with her in life, and death has left a bright example for her children to follow, and her numerous family of four sons and six daughters mourn the loss of a beloved and honored mother. She leaves fifty grand-children and sixty great grandchildren. Her eldest son, the late John F. Hancock, of Ashburton Downs, in the North-West, pre-deceased her, having passed away just four years ago, and one daughter died in Roebourne about 34 years ago at the age of 21 years.

The funeral took place at the Gilgering Cemetery on Thursday afternoon, and was largely attended by friends and sympathisers of the bereaved family. The Rev. Canon Groser conducted the funeral service. A large number of beautiful wreaths were sent as tokens of affection by the friends and admirers of the deceased, among which were the following:—Mr. and Mrs. Horace Smith and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Withnell and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gregory and family, Canon and Mrs. Groser, Mr. and Mrs. Edwards (Rockfield), Georgie and Grace, Ethel and Alec., Onslow and Jack, Maud and Fanny, Mr. and Mrs. F. Fleay, Emma, Edith, and Grace, Mr. and Mrs. Hicks and family, James, Aubrey, and Everett, Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Broun, Mr. and Mrs. G. Broun, her brother John, May and Aubrey Fleay, Mr. and Mrs. Bone and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Fleay, Herbert and family, Horace Withnell, Herbert and Lilla Withnell, Arthur and Grace Loton, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Lepper, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Mears, T. H. Wilding, Mrs. and Miss Wilding, from Bally Bally, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Thomas.

<https://www.findagrave.com/memorial/76485859/george-hancock>

Headstone of George Hancock and Sophia Gregory, York Shire Cemetery, WA. Discrepancy, the headstone has his death year as 1872.

Gilgering cemetery where a number of other family members are also buried. Gilgering is about halfway between York and Beverley.

THE HANCOCK STORY by H L (Mick) KILPATRICK: JOSEPH BLECHYNDEN (1853-1938),

I have taken the liberty of transcribing a few of the pages from this excellent book, which features the story of Joseph and Grace Blechynden and their two children.

Photos of Grace Hancock (nee Blechynden) and Joseph Blechynden via The Hancock Story.

“Most of her early life was spent in the Beverley District, with her education almost certainly being provided by her parents.

When she was in her twenties Grace holidayed for a while in the North-West with her brothers and sisters. It was during this time she was a bridesmaid at the marriage of her niece, Emily Ellen Withnell, to John Goldsmith Meares at Roebourne on the 16th, December 1886. She later returned to her home at Boyadine.

On the 4th October 1893 Grace Emma Hancock was married to Joseph BLECHYNDEN at St. Mary’s Anglican Church, Beverley. The Rector at Beverley has confirmed that theirs was the first recorded marriage in the new church which was consecrated on the 30th November 1892.” See also photo and information at the start of this branch.

JOSEPH and GRACE had two children as follows. More details on these two in their Individual chapters.

- 1. GEORGE BLECHYNDEN (1894-1981), and
- 2. GRACE BLECHYNDEN (1899-1989).

THE HANCOCK STORY by H L (Mick) KILPATRICK: JOSEPH BLECHYNDEN (1853-1938), pgs. 228 & 229

“Joseph was the youngest of nine children of Harrison and Charlotte Blechynden. His mother’s maiden name was Robus and both his parents came to WA on the “Minstrel” in January 1830, in a party brought from England by Mr. William J. Brockman. It is believed that Harrison Blechynden, like George Hancock had said he would never own land in the Swan River Colony as it was too poor to grow wheat.

Harrison and Charlotte made their home at Beverley, which was where Joseph spent his early life. Some of his brothers and sisters remained in the Beverley district, while others decided to settle in the Bridgetown area.

Like others of his family, Joseph was a farmer, and after their marriage, he and Grace set up their home at “Oakdale”, a property some nine miles east of Beverley, where he farmed in partnership with his mother and brother. The first few years of their married life were spent on that farm, during which their two children were born.

About 1904 they moved from the farm at Beverley to another in the Aldersyde district, as Joseph required more land for his flock of Merino sheep. This mixed farming, freehold property was on the road leading east from Pingelly and was known as “Gingaring”.

Already on the property was what had once been a substantial mud brick house, as well as the remnants of an orchard, which had been planted by its previous owner. The dwelling had not been occupied for many years and was in a bad state of repair. It had an old thatched roof, which leaked, and it was not until 1913 that they were able to replace it with an iron roof, thus providing a catchment for precious rainwater.

During the period when the family were unable to obtain any rainwater, their supplies had to be drawn from a spring. This was some fifteen chains downhill from where the house was built and all water needed for household purposes had to be carted uphill in a cask or containers mounted on a wooded sled and hauled by a horse. Quite often Grace and her daughter had to carry it by hand because the men went into the fields and “forgot” to replenish the water supplies.

For a long time after moving there it must have been very lonely for Grace, particularly as there were no women in the vicinity for quite some time. Eventually one of their farmhands brought his wife and two children to live in a small cottage on “Gingaring”, so she finally had some female company. A strong link always remained between these two women long after the other family moved away to start up their own farm.

Grace loved gardening and soon had a vegetable patch and flower garden established. Trying to revive the orchard and grapevines was a big job, but to some extent she succeeded, thus providing the family with a fresh supply of fresh fruit.

She ran chickens as well as milking cows, with some of the eggs and cream being sent into town for sale. She always made her own bread, jams and preserves, as well as delicious buttermilk scones which were cooked on a griddle.

"Gingaring" was the last stop for those passing through on their way east in search of land. As well as potential settlers, the travellers included those sent out to survey the area. As more land was taken up around Corrigin and beyond, there was a fairly constant stream of passers- by.

Grace always provided a meal for those in need and was often called upon to help people who became sick and were brought in from the outlying districts.

As well as their farming property, they also held an adjoining pastoral lease on which they shepherded their sheep. Joseph was always more interested in that side of their activities than in growing wheat.

He possessed a gift as far as animals and stock were concerned and he earned himself quite a reputation as the local "vet". His knowledge was a very big asset in the treatment of animals who had eaten the various types of poison plants growing in the area.

About four times a year the Blechyndens drove a horse and sulky across the old sand plain to visit relatives still living at Beverley. It would have been a long and lonely drive through a lot of uninteresting country. Much of this was then considered to be almost useless sandplain, has completely changed with the advent of subterranean clovers.

Gradually the rest of the surrounding land was taken up, which meant the end of the great loneliness of the early years in that then remote area. Social gatherings and entertainment began to take place as more people made their homes in the district.

After World War 1 Joseph and his wife left the farm in the hands of their son, George, and took over a smaller holding named "Lyndhurst", in the same area.

Grace and Joseph later retired to Pingelly, by which time they had seen the introduction of a weekly mail service, as well as dances and sports meetings, which showed that the area was no longer the isolated spot it had been."

Pingelly Express (WA: 1905 - 1906), Sat 10 Feb 1906, pg 2
10 Feb 1906 - Local and General. \(nla.gov.au\)

Local and General.

Death in the Bush. —Between 4 and 4 o'clock on Thursday afternoon, the 1st inst., a report received by Constable Foulkes, Pingelly, to the effect that the dead body of an elderly man had been found lying on the Daylerking road, about half a mile from the Gingaring homestead, the finder being Mr Joseph Blechynden, farmer, of that district. Mr. Foulkes lost no time in procuring a horse and cart, and proceeded to the spot. Arrived there, he found the body to be that of John Matthews, aged 69 years, a native of Wiltshire, England, and that death had evidently resulted from heat apoplexy

The deceased was a shepherd in the employment of Mr. Blechenden (sic should be Blechynden), and it appears he had been at Daylerking, seven miles away, for the purpose of fencing in a paddock for sheep. He had completed this job, and was apparently making his way back to look for his sheep, that

Death in the Bush.—Between 4 and 4 o'clock on Thursday afternoon, the 1st inst., a report was received by Constable Foulkes, Pingelly, to the effect that the dead body of an elderly man had been found lying on the Daylerking road, about half a mile from the Gingaring homestead, the finder being Mr Joseph Blechenden, farmer, of that district. Mr. Foulkes lost no time in procuring a horse and cart, and proceeded to the spot. Arrived there, he found the body to be that of John Matthews, aged 69 years, a native of Wiltshire, England, and that death had evidently resulted from heat apoplexy. The deceased was a shepherd in the employment of Mr. Blechenden, and it appears he had been at Daylerking, seven miles away, for the purpose of fencing in a paddock for sheep. He had completed this job, and was apparently making his way back to look for his sheep, that being the programme which had been arranged, but when within only half a mile from his destination he was apparently seized with a fatal attack. There were no signs of any struggle, nor of the presence of any other person than deceased. Constable Foulkes, however, considered it his duty to make perfectly sure that there were no grounds for suspecting any foul play, and followed the poor fellow's tracks all the way to the Daylerking camp, but found nothing to weaken the conclusion that death was due to natural causes. The remains were then brought into Pingelly, and Mr. G. M. Sewell, J.P., having given the necessary authority, were buried in the Church of England cemetery, the Rev. A. D. Webb officiating at the grave. Matthews had not been long in this district, and hardly anything was known of his antecedents.

being the programme which had been arranged, but when within only half a mile from his destination.

he was apparently seized with a fatal attack. There were no signs of any struggle, nor of the presence of any other person than deceased. Constable Foulkes, however, considered it his duty to make perfectly sure that there were no grounds for suspecting foul play, and followed the poor fellow's tracks all the way to the Daylerking camp, but found nothing to weaken the conclusion that death was due to natural causes. The remains were then brought into Pingelly, and Mr. G. M. Oswell, J.P., having given the necessary authority, were buried in the Church of England cemetery, the Rev. A. D. Webb officiating at the grave. Matthews had not been long in this district, and hardly anything was known of his antecedents.

From many letters sent to Aunt Mary by their daughter Grace – see in her chapter, delivering of the mail became an important part of their lives at Gingaring.

Commonwealth of Australia Gazette (National: 1901 - 1973), Sat 25 Jul 1914 (No.45), pg 1284

25 Jul 1914 - . - Trove \(nla.gov.au\)

Commonwealth of Australia, Postmaster-General's Department, 22nd Jul, 1914.
Conveyance of Mails.

TENDERS are hereby invited, and will be received by the Deputy Postmaster-General, at the General Post Office, Perth, until Three p.m. on Wednesday, the 9th September, 1914, for the conveyance of Post Office mails as undermentioned, for one, two, or three years, from the 1st January, 1915: —

236. To and from Pingelly, Landscape, and Quarining Pool, via Nyamutin, Jangering, Aldinga, and Cross roads and Nyanarling, once a week.

237. To and from Pingelly and Mourambine, first trip, via Bassendean and Ashfield, three times a week; second trip, via Schoolhouse, Beambine, Grasslands, Powell's, and Gingaring, three times a week; third trip, via Bassendean, Ashfield, Beambine, Wynarling, and Cowering, three times a week.

238. To and from Pingelly and Wandering, via Hadlegh, Myrtle Vale, Ivanhoe, Nimberdelling, Walwalling, Glen Erne, Salt Springs, Taylor's Well, Hastings, Cooranning, Noombling, Hotham, Pumphreys, Staunton Springs, Mount Royal, and other homesteads en route, twice a week.

237. To and from Pingelly and Mourambine, first trip, via Bassendean and Ashfield, three times a week; second trip, via Schoolhouse, Beambine, Grasslands, Powell's, and Gingaring, three times a week; third trip, via Bassendean, Ashfield, Beambine, Wynarling, and Cowering, three times a week.

Electoral Roll:

1903 Blechynden Joseph, Oakdale, farmer, Grace Emma, Oakdale, housewife

1910 Blechynden Joseph, East Pingelly, farmer, Grace Emma, Oakdale, housewife

1913, 1917, 1925 Blechynden Joseph, Jingaring, farmer, Grace Emma, Jingaring, Pingelly, married

1937 Blechynden Joseph, "Lyndhurst, East Pingelly, Farmer, Grace Emma, Jingaring, Pingelly, married

1938 Blechynden Joseph died in 1938)

1943 Blechynden Grace Emma, Pingelly, home duties

Note the spelling of Jingaring. There is a hill called Jingaring and a Jingaring Rd. Jingaring Nature Reserve is northwest of Jingaring Hill, East Pingelly.

BLECHYNDEN OF GINGARING – JOSEPH BLECHYNDEN (1853-1938)

By Grace Worner, nee Blechynden, Jul 11, 1979,

p. 274 Pioneer Records in the Battye Library.

BLECHYNDEN OF GINGARING

Joseph bought the eighty acre freehold property known as 'Gingaring' from Andrew Walton about 1904. No old records of the exact date is known.

It had been started much earlier by one of the Smith family whose descendants still farmed at 'Beambine' and Pingelly.

In their day, a quite substantial five room mud brick – or batt – house had been built and the main rooms with their thick high walls are still lived in. There were other buildings including a two room batt cottage, yards and stables. Unfortunately, the family moved and the only use was for stock. The buildings and fairly extensive orchard were in a bad way.

Joseph was the younger son of Harrison and Charlotte Blechynden who came to the Swan River in the party brought out in the ship 'Minstrel' by William Lock Brockman in January, 1830. Charlotte's maiden name was Robus and she accompanied Mrs. Brockman and she and Harrison married in 1832.

In 1893, Joseph married Grace Emma Hancock, whose parents had come from England on the 'Warrior' in March, 1830.

Joseph and Grace had two children – George born in 1894, Grace born in 1899, so we, George and Grace are still living at

Joseph Blechynden

A copy of the pages from BLECHYNDEN OF GINGARING – JOSEPH BLECHYNDEN (1853-1938)

By Grace Worner, nee Blechynden, Jul 11, 1979, pages 275 – 277 this date – are grand children of two of the earliest families settled on the 'Swan'.

So much for the family.

Father had been farming at 'Oakdale', East Beverley, but far fields looked greener and he wanted more pastoral lease for his flock of Merino sheep. He knew the country, as quite a youth he had been there with Smith. At the time of procuring, no one had lived there for sometime, so it must have been a daunting to Mother on arrival at the end of a slow trip per cart. A lot of the thatch had gone from the high pitched roof, windows broken and dirt everywhere. I was only about four and have no clear recollection of the time. I think two young hands, Will and Harry Johnson were employed and no doubt some cleaning up soon took place, though Willie was mainly a teamster. Efforts were made to repair the roof, but no one had the skill of the old English thatchers, and we really never had a completely waterproof roof over our heads until 1913, when some general restoration including an iron roof was done. The sound of rain on that roof was music to our ears and we could get rain water. 'Gingaring' was noted for its spring of beautiful soft running water, but with great lack of common sense we thought, the house was built about fifteen chains further up the hill and in the days before mills and pumps, that really meant something.

The water was brought up in a hoghead on a horse drawn sled and later a tank on a home made trolley, but often it had to be hand carted if the men forgot about it. Father enlarged the holding and held a large pastoral lease on which the sheep were shepherded. He liked doing this himself as he was more interested in stock than farm work. He employed reliable native shepherds, one in particular was named Billy Garlett, a fine type, always reliable with the sheep and later doing contract work. His elder son, Ernie was also a fine teamster afterwards.

Willie Johnson went back to Beverley and George White took his place and brought his young wife, Violet and two children to live in the cottage. The conditions were as tough as ours, but some woman's company must have meant a lot to Mother, as it was a lonely life. The Whites later left and started on their own, still battling, but between Mother and Mrs. White, a strong link of 'Old Times' always remained. It was men's country in those early years. The road eastward from Pingelly was right past the back door, so we saw those going to make homes further out, men looking for land. It was a staging place with teams, because of unlimited water. I cannot recall all the Surveyors and their parties who made camp and worked for miles around. I remember the names of Flint Hartung and Goyder – who later was an early settler of Corrigin – were among them and the usual travellers on horse or foot just moving from west to east or east to west. Mother used to say that she only felt slightly afraid one day. A man came asking for the usual handout, which was given to all, black or white. He was civil, but she did not like his looks and apparently 'Ring', a strong roo dog and a noted roo killer, did not like him either. He got up from his mat and stood against Mother's knees, rolling an eye at the man and just lifting one side of his top lip showing magnificent white fangs. The man said, "That dog doesn't seem to like me, would he go me?" "If I told him, he would", said Mother. The man went on his way and no trouble, which was possibly quite well for him, as I am sure had he put his hand on Mother, 'Ring' would have sprung into action, and no nipping around the ankles either, he would have got the roo treatment – teeth in the neck.

How did we live? Well, as I have stated – things were tough – so much to be done, fencing, clearing, machinery and as is the case so often, or used to be, the home improvements and comfort were always 'next year'.

The kitchen started with an open fire and three iron bars, always a large 'fountain' would be called an urn now – for hot water and bars for the pots and camp oven and flat griddle iron, on which I remember Mother made lovely buttermilk griddle scones. Then came a Colonial oven set in, still the bars on top with fire under to heat the oven for baking, all these and lots more are now on show in the country museums that every town has. Finally, came a Metters stove and Mother said 'bye bye' to blackened pots. She loved gardening and always grew her own vegetables and flowers which she said gave her company and cheer which she must have often needed, being cut off from contact with family and friends at Beverley except about four times a year when we drove per horse and sulky down the old sandalwooders' track (incidentally, we passed by the grave of Tommy Orange who had been buried where his body was found. He was the first to settle and built a little shack at where Bulgee is now).

Once, after five weeks without mail, Harry was sent per horseback to Pingelly for it. He was a taciturn chap – never wasted words. On his return in the evening, he did not come in and Mother went out and said, 'Where's the letters?'. 'None', said Harry. 'Why?' 'Office shut, holiday'. I guess her saving sense of humour failed her that night. She worked on the old fruit trees and vines and brought them back to bearing and we always had plenty of figs and grapes. Not much else survived the years of neglect. Some of the fig trees are still bearing, I had fruit from them last Summer.

Land was being taken up and other settlers came and the isolation gradually faded away. The George Waltons started a new farm at 'Woglin' near Corrigin, and Mrs. Walton used to journey back and forth. A dear motherly soul and she always stayed the night with us and once when she found Mother sickly, she insisted on staying and doing the washing before journeying on. Mother, of course, did her share of tending the sick and injured as they were ferried in from further east.

Father was the local bush 'vet' and his understanding of animals made him a pretty good one. He often ran the sheep in the heavily infested Box poison country and the idea got around, he had bred 'poison proof sheep'. A stranger at a sale one day, quite seriously asked him, 'Blechynden, is it true your sheep are poison proof?' Just as seriously, Father answered, 'Yes, quite true, so long as they keep it on the outside of them, if they get on the outside of the poison, they are not'. He just knew pretty well what stage the plant was attracted to them, but it didn't always work, there were losses, some times big ones.

Two of Father's nephews, Sam and Walter Edwards, came fairly soon after us and settled on the river further out and that seemed to give a family link. 'Talga', they named their run.

Farmers moved in and it was no longer isolated. Picnics, sports and dances brought people together and by the time we had a weekly road mail (horse and sulky) delivered to our front gate by Mr. George Holyoak. We knew civilization had really caught up with us. In 1916 George went to the Great War. On his return, he took over the property and Father moved to a small one. George had been badly wounded and after a few years, the hard work told and he sold out.

The property has had several owners since. Each improving it and modernizing until today.

The old name has gone from the map and the splendid property of 'Fairhaven' has taken its place.

'Vale Gingaring'. Grace Worner, nee Blechynden.
July 11, 1979.

Joseph had grown up at Beverley and the family had worked in close contact with the local Aborigines. Grace, now as a farmer's wife came into contact with the local Aborigines frequently.

She became concerned as to their welfare and as a result applied to the Aborigines Department for a tent and blankets for natives.

Application via Grace Blechynden for a tent and blankets for natives'

Item 1901/0331 - Mrs Grace Blechynden. Oakdale. Accounts for relief to natives and blankets for natives

FILES - CHIEF PROTECTOR OF ABORIGINES - Mrs Grace Blechynden. Oakdale. Accounts for relief to natives and blankets for natives

Identify area		Reports
Reference code	AU WA 53005 - cons255 1901/0331	Export
Title	Mrs Grace Blechynden. Oakdale. Accounts for relief to natives and blankets for natives	Public Case
Dated	1901-04-26 - 1901-04-26 (Accumulation)
Level of description	Item
Context area
Name of creator	AU WA 667 - ABORIGINES DEPARTMENT [1] (1898-04-01 - 1908-12-31)
Repository	State Records Office of Western Australia
Conditions of access and use area
Conditions governing access	Open
Conditions governing access (legacy)	Open access

Following is an interesting web site about our Aborigines especially at the beginning of the settling of WA.

Nyungar tradition: glimpses of Aborigines of south west Australia, pg. 20

https://aiatsis.gov.au/sites/default/files/catalogue_resources/m0022954_a.pdf

Initially Aborigines were employed as shepherds, farmhands and general household helps. Because of their knowledge and understanding of the country they were also co-opted to accompany explorers, assist settlers move from one area to another, and escort prisoners and carry mail between districts. They were also called upon to act as interpreters with other Aboriginal groups. Among those who assisted settlers in many ways were Durangod, Joolonga, Wayrang and Jim, four Murray River Aborigines who carried letters within the Leschenault area in 1838; Nindup and Makintosh, York Aborigines who escorted prisoners from York to Perth in 1840; Yugan and Wawayran who carried mail from Leschenault to Pinjarra in 1839, but who would not travel any further north because they did not want to come face to face with the Perth Aborigines whom they regarded as hostile; mail carriers Dindu, Ninda and Jack of Pinjarra who bore mail to Perth; mail carriers Dick and Gattabonnayon of Leschenault; and William, Kenny, Biranga, Bushell, Hohindon and Paddy of the Vasse who carried mail between there and Leschenault.

The Brands Directory:

https://www.slp.wa.gov.au/gazette/gazette.nsf/gazlist/876C4CA59E0A93BF48257C0D00494814/\$file/gg056.pdf

Sheep earmarks and brands: p. 15, no 877 Joseph Blechynden Gingarring, Pingelly

877	Blechynden, Joseph ..		Gingaring	Pingelly
-----	-----------------------	---	-----------------	----------

Joseph Blechynden died at Pingelly on 6 May 1938, aged 85 years in Pingelly Hospital, WA. He was buried May 1938 Pingelly Cemetery, Pingelly, WA.

Beverley Times (WA: 1905 - 1977), Fri 20 May 1938, pg 3

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article252273227.txt>

Another Old Pioneer Passes.

DEATH OF JOSEPH BLECHYNDEN.

A link with the early days of this State was severed when an old settler in the person of Joseph Blechynden passed to his rest in the Pingelly Hospital, on Friday, May 6. Aged 85 years, the deceased had been ailing for some time and had been an inmate of the Pingelly Hospital for the past five months, so that his demise was not wholly unexpected.

Joseph Blechynden was born at Beverley in 1853 and was the seventh son of Harrison Blechynden who came out here by the sailing ship "Egyptian," [Note: Correction: "Egyptian" should be the "Minstrel"] when the colony was twelve months old. It was at Beverley that he spent the greater part of his life and it was here he met and married Grace Hancock, whose people had arrived here from the Old country by the "Warrior" in 1830. Of the union there were two children, George Blechynden, of Pingelly, and Mrs. G. Worner, Lomos. These, who may well claim to be real West Australians, with their mother survive to mourn the passing of one who was a grand father and husband and a fine old gentleman.

Thirty-four years ago, he went to Pingelly and took up the Gingaring property East of the line. Here he lived and farmed for many years and was a well-known and respected member of the community. He leaves behind him a wife, a son and daughter, a daughter-in-law, a son-in-law, several grandchildren, a brother living at Manjimup, and numerous other relatives, many of whom were represented at the funeral.

Grace Emma Blechynden died in York on the 15 May 1947, at the age of 88 years. She and Joseph are both buried at Pingelly.

Pingelly-Brookton Leader (WA: 1925 - 1954), Thu 29 May 1947, pg 2

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article252417531.txt>

DEATH OF DISTRICT Pioneer

Grace Emma Blechynden

Over the past few years many of the old settlers have passed on, leaving but few who can claim association with the early settlement and pioneering days of the district. It is with regret that we record the further loss in the death of Grace Emma Blechynden, relict of the late Joseph Blechynden, who passed away in the York Hospital on Thursday, May 15, after a short illness. She was aged 88 years. Her passing occasioned considerable regret amongst the legion of friends that she had made during her association with the district, which represents a term of over 40 years, and in her passing the district has lost a link with the past history and a person of character and spirit.

Mrs Blechynden's parents (Mr. and Mrs. Hancock) arrived in WA from the Old Country by the Warrior in 1830, and their daughter Grace subsequently met and married Joseph Blechynden at Beverley. There were two children of the union, George Blechynden of Pingelly and Mrs G. Worner, at one time of Lomos, but now of Greenhills. The couple came from Pingelly in 1904 and took up the Gingaring property east of the Line, where they lived and farmed for many years and were well known and respected members of that community. Following the death of her husband, the property was disposed of, and Mrs. Blechynden has since lived with her children. She had enjoyed good health in past months, and it was whilst the guest of her daughter at Greenhills that she contracted the illness which brought about her sudden demise. Of kindly disposition, Mrs. Blechynden took an active interest at all times in the spiritual and social life of the community and was a good friend to many early settlers in the district. We extend to her son and daughter our sympathy in the loss of their mother.

The funeral took place on Saturday afternoon when, after a service in St. Luke's Church, the body was laid to rest in the Anglican portion of the Pingelly Cemetery. There was a representative gathering at the church and at the graveside which indicated still further the high esteem in which the deceased lady had been held by residents of this and surrounding districts.

Coffin-bearers were, Messrs. W. O. Scudds, C. P. Green, L. Watson and C. D. Cartwright; whilst pallbearers were, Messrs. C. Ford, T. Johnstone, C. H. Overheu, Ford-Bailey.

Both services were conducted by Canon E. J. T. Atwell and the funeral arrangements were in the hands of Mr. J. L. Wansbrough, of York.

A large number of floral tributes and messages of condolence were received, amongst which were: —Loving son George and daughter-in-law May; Loving daughter Grace and grandson Gordon; Doreen, Tom and baby Laurence; Grand-daughters Shirley and Dawn; Jim, Kath, Aubrey and Beth (Williams); Vernon, Hannah Williams and family; Bert, May and Fanny (Dookening); Emma, Dorothy and Charlie (Dookening); Emma and family (Williams); Arthur, Sidy and family (Williams); Gwen and Bill Robinson; Frank (Beverley); Horace and Ella (Beverley); Mr. and Mrs. Turpin and Stan; Eva, Queen and children; Les, Lucy and children; Bert and May; Womens' Auxiliary, R-S.L.; Mr.

Death of District Pioneer

Grace Emma Blechynden.

Over the past few years many of the old settlers have passed on, leaving but few who can claim association with the early settlement and pioneering days of the district. It is with regret that we record the further loss in the death of Grace Emma Blechynden, relict of the late Joseph Blechynden, who passed away in the York Hospital on Thursday, May 15, after a short illness. She was aged 88 years. Her passing occasioned considerable regret amongst the legion of friends that she had made during her association with the district, which represents a term of over 40 years, and in her passing the district has lost a link with the past history and a person of character and spirit.

Mrs. Blechynden's parents (Mr. and Mrs. Hancock) arrived in Western Australia from the Old Country by the Warrior in 1830, and their daughter Grace subsequently met and married Joseph Blechynden at Beverley. There were two children of the union, George Blechynden, of Pingelly, and Mrs. G. Worner, at one time of Lomos, but now of Greenhills. The couple came to Pingelly in 1904 and took up the Gingaring property east of the Line, where they lived and farmed for many years, and were well known and respected members of that community. Following the death of her husband, the property was disposed of, and Mrs. Blechynden has since lived with her children. She had enjoyed good health in past months, and it was whilst the guest of her daughter at Greenhills that she contracted the illness which brought about her sudden demise.

Of kindly disposition, Mrs. Blechynden took an active interest at all times in the spiritual and social life of the community and was a good friend to many early settlers in the district. We extend to her son and daughter our sympathy in the loss of their mother.

The funeral took place on Saturday afternoon when, after a service in St. Luke's Church, the body was laid to rest in the Anglican portion of the Pingelly Cemetery. There was a representative gathering at the church and at the graveside which indicated still further the high esteem in which the deceased lady had been held by residents of this and surrounding districts.

Coffin-bearers were, Messrs. W. O. Scudds, C. P. Green, L. Watson and C. D. Cartwright; whilst pallbearers were, Messrs. C. Ford, T. Johnstone, C. H. Overheu, Ford-Bailey.

Both services were conducted by Canon E. J. T. Atwell and the funeral arrangements were in the hands of Mr. J. L. Wansbrough, of York.

A large number of floral tributes and messages of condolence were received, amongst which were:—Loving son George and daughter-in-law May; Loving daughter Grace and grandson Gordon; Doreen, Tom and baby Laurence; Grand-daughters Shirley and Dawn; Jim, Kath, Aubrey and Beth (Williams); Vernon, Hannah Williams and family; Bert, May and Fanny (Dookening); Emma, Dorothy and Charlie (Dookening); Emma and family (Williams); Arthur, Sidy and family (Williams); Gwen and Bill Robinson; Frank (Beverley); Horace and Ella (Beverley); Mr. and Mrs. Turpin and Stan; Eva, Queen and children; Les, Lucy and children; Bert and May; Womens' Auxiliary, R-S.L.; Mr. Ford Bailey and family; Mr. and Mrs. F. E. White; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Overheu; Mrs. Brown and Hazel; Mrs. Monger; Canon and Mrs. Atwell; St. Luke's Vestry and Guild; Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Barnett; Mr. and Mrs. Gericke; C and P Whitfield (Greenhills); Mr. and Mrs. Allen and family (Greenhills); Mrs. George Fairhead and family; Pingelly Farmers' Co-op.; Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Chapman; Mr. and Mrs. Rawley; Mr. and Mrs. F. Archer and family; Mr. and Mrs. Sandercock (Bulyee); Mr. and Mrs. C. Ford and family; Mr. and Mrs. W. Giles and family; Mr. and Mrs. L. Watson, Enid and Margaret; Miss E. McBurney; Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Scudds and family; Mrs. Edwards and Betty; Mr. and Mrs. Baldock; Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Kerr and family; Mr. and Mrs. Mahoney and family; Mr. and Mrs. Eric Giles; Mr. and Mrs. Gill Gardiner; Mr. and Mrs. Reg. Parker and Jack.

Ford Bailey and family; Mr. and Mis. F. E. White; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Overheu; Mrs. Brown and Hazel; Mrs. Monger; Canon and Mrs. Atwell; St. Luke's Vestry and, Guild; Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Barnett; Mr. and Mrs. Gericke; C and P Whitfield (Greenhills); Mr. and Mrs. Allen and family (Greenhills); Mrs. George Fairhead and family; Pingelly Farmers' Co-op.; Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Chapman; Mr. and Mrs. Rawle; Mr. and Mrs. F. Archer and family; Mr. and Mrs Sandercock (Bulyee); Mr. and Mrs. C. Ford and family; Mr. and Mrs. W. Giles and family; Mr. and Mrs. L. Watson, Enid and Margaret; Miss E. McBurney; Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Scudds and family; Mrs. Edwards and Betty; Mr. and Mrs. Baldock; Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Kerr and family; Mr. and Mrs. Mahoney and family; Mr. and Mrs. Eric Giles; Mr. and Mrs. Gill Gardiner; Mr. and Mrs. Reg, Parker and Jack.

Headstone and grave of Joseph and Grace Emma Blechynden at the Pingelly Cemetery. Via Find a Grave and Blechynden Family Facebook page. Contributed to both by Dianne Bax Blechynden.

FIRST CHILD OF JOSEPH BLECHYNDEN & GRACE HANCOCK

1. BLECHYNDEN, GEORGE (1894-1981) & TURPIN, MABEL ESTHER (1899-1998)

George Blechynden was born 2 Aug 1894, 'Oakdale', Beverley, WA [Reg. 1296]. baptised 4 Oct St Mary's Church, Beverley, WA. He died 31 Jan 1981, Hollywood Hospital. Buried at Karrakatta Cemetery, WA. George Blechynden served during WW1 – details further on.

George Blechynden

Segments from the following article show us that George, at the age of 15 years, was a winning scholar at the Erindale State School break-up.

Beverley Times (WA: 1905 - 1977), Sat 25 Dec 1909, pg 7

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article200735829.txt>

Erindale State School.

XMAS VACATION.

(From a Correspondent).

The scholars of the Erindale State School gave an exhibition at their breaking-up in the Bally Bally Agricultural Hall on Friday, December 17th in conjunction with which a Xmas tree on the most up-to-date style was carried out, and in the evening a concert and cantata by the pupils was successfully given.

Erindale State School.

XMAS VACATION.

(From a Correspondent).

The scholars of the Erindale State School gave an exhibition at their breaking-up in the Bally Bally Agricultural Hall on Friday, December 17th, in conjunction with which a Xmas tree on the most up-to-date style was carried out, and in the evening a concert and cantata by the pupils was successfully given.

The chair was occupied by Mr. D. Kilpatrick, who pointed with pride to the rapid advancement of the district, not only as the producer of wheat, wool, etc., but also to the crowd of fine-healthy "kiddies," which would do credit to any district. . .

. . . To enumerate the various items would require too much of your space, but amongst the pupils requiring special mention the following may be noted: — Lorna Burrowes, singing, dancing and recitation; George Blechynden, recitation; Pearl Elliott, song. The club swinging and pole drill exhibition of the pupils were an eye-opener to the parents and friends, as also was the gavotte by the Misses Pansy and Muriel Elliott. In the second part the pupils performed the cantata, "Soot and the Fairies," in a most masterly manner to the evident delight of the large audience who applauded the children's efforts in no unmistakable way. The principal characters were ably represented by the following: —Queen, Miss Pearl Elliott; "Soot," Master G. Blechynden; "Dr. Sunlight," Master R. Duncanson; "State Secretary," Miss M. Elliott.

The Rev. Mr. Humphries presented the medal given by our member (Mr. J. M. Hopkins, MLA.), to the winning scholar, Master George Blechynden, in a few well-chosen remarks.

Miss Coffey was made the recipient of a very nice present of a silver mounted brush and -comb, suitably inscribed, from the parents and friends as a mark of their esteem and appreciation of their efforts in the rapid strides made in the children's advancement.

After the concert a social was held and the hall was again packed to its utmost, dancing being kept up to the small hours, at the conclusion of which votes of thanks and "Auld Lang Syne" terminated what must be considered one of the best entertainments ever held at the Bally Bally Hall. The musical part of the programme was ably carried out by Miss Pearl Kilpatrick and Mrs. Burrowes.

To enumerate the various items would require too much of your space, but amongst the pupils requiring special mention the following may be noted: — Lorna Burrowes, singing, dancing and recitation; George Blechynden, recitation; Pearl Elliott, song. The club swinging and pole drill exhibition of the pupils were an eye-opener to the parents and friends, as also was the gavotte by the Misses Pansy and Muriel Elliott. In the second part the pupils performed the cantata, "Soot and the Fairies," in a most masterly manner to the evident delight of the large audience who applauded the children's efforts in no unmistakable way. The principal characters were ably represented by the following: —Queen, Miss Pearl Elliott; "Soot," Master G. Blechynden; "Dr. Sunlight," Master R. Duncanson; "State Secretary," Miss M. Elliott.

The Rev. Mr. Humphries presented the medal given by our member (Mr. J. M. Hopkins, M.L.A.), to the winning scholar, Master George Blechynden, in a few well-chosen remarks.

Miss Coffey was made the recipient of a very nice present of a silver-mounted brush and comb, suitably inscribed, from the parents and friends as a mark of their esteem and appreciation of their efforts in the rapid strides made in the children's advancement.

After the concert a social was held and the hall was again packed to its utmost, dancing being kept up to the small hours, at the conclusion of which votes of thanks and "Auld Lang Syne" terminated what must be considered one of the best entertainments ever held at the Bally Bally Hall.

The musical part of the programme was ably carried out by Miss Pearl Kilpatrick and Mrs. Burrowes.

History of Schooling in the Avon Valley, p. 54

<http://toodyaydhs.wa.edu.au/assets/Uploads/History-of-Schooling-Avon-Valley-R-Doughty-2016.pdf>

1889 Bally Bally, Dale, East Beverley, Erindale, South Caroling, Mount Caroling, Mount Kokeby and Jacob's Well Schools

A number of schools were established in 1889. Each were a small school that local residents were required to document the names, ages and number of students expected in order for the government to fund them. Issues existed as to the location, suitable land and access to water and most land was obtained from farmers donating sections of their farms.

<https://recordsearch.naa.gov.au/SearchNRetrieve/Interface/ViewImage.aspx?B=3091744>

George Blechynden served during WW1: B2455 BLECHYNDEN G Blechynden George: SERN 5321 POB Beverley WA: POE Blackboy Hill WA: NOK F Blechynden Joseph.

He signed his Attestation Papers 23 Mar 16. On 4 Dec 1916, he proceeded overseas to France via Princess Victoria, 13 Mar 1917 - wounded in action. Returned to Australia from England per "A 38", 11 Sep 17. George Blechynden's records of his service overseas can be viewed in the Service Records National Archives of Australia.

Pingelly Leader (WA: 1906 - 1925), Thu 6 Dec 1917, pg 3

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article210220292.txt>

Welcome Home to Private Geo. Blechynden.

(From a Correspondent)

Welcome Home to Private Geo. Blechynden.

(From a Correspondent)

A crowd of about 50 persons paid a surprise visit to "Gingaring" (the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Blechynden) last Thursday evening and gave a rousing "welcome home" to their son, Private Geo. Blechynden, one of our returned heroes.

Private Blechynden left W.A. about 18 months ago with one of the reinforcements of the glorious 28th Battalion, and after going through the usual training in England, he saw 4 1/2 months' service in the trenches in France until wounded last March, and, after a spell in hospital under different specialists, was ultimately invalided home to the "Golden West." He still has to undergo six months' treatment at the base hospital, and we all sincerely trust that such treatment will be highly successful.

Parlor games were indulged and heartily enjoyed by all until the arrival of several belated visitors, when the large dining-room was cleared for dancing. A long and varied programme of dances, songs, recitations, etc., was gone through.

After supper, speeches were delivered by Messrs. Hancock, Pyke, Leslie, Powell, G. Smith and H. Allen, welcoming Private Blechynden back home again, applauding him for having done his duty so nobly, and trusting that he would soon recover from his wounds and be spared to be a comfort and joy to his parents in the years to come.

Private Blechynden, speaking with emotion, appropriately returned thanks, and, at his request, the memory of fallen comrades was solemnly honored by all standing.

Mr. J. Blechynden also thanked the company for their presence there that evening and for the great reception accorded his son.

Miss Ethel Bowron was heartily thanked for her dance music, whilst some splendid songs were rendered by Mrs. Grime, "Vanity Fair"; the Misses G. Blechynden and M. Turpin, duet, "God's Domain, Australia"; Miss Blechynden, "My Little Grey Home in the West" and "Scottish Folk Song"; Miss Hilda Young, "Men of Harlech"; Mr. Grime, "Flight of Ages"; Mr. P. Young, "Jack's the Boy," and Mr. W. Woolhouse, "Gallant Dicks," and, encore, "Here we come gathering Nuts and May"; Recitations, Private G. Blechynden, Miss Ellen Johnson, Messrs. Geo. Leslie and W. Woolhouse. Mr. Leslie also gave a splendid exhibition of the "Sword Dance."

The ladies are to be heartily congratulated on the very nice supper provided.

The fun was kept going fast and furious until daylight, when "Auld Lang Syne" and the "National Anthem" brought a memorable gathering to a close.

A crowd of about 50 persons paid a surprise visit to "Gingaring" (the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Blechynden) last Thursday evening and gave a rousing "welcome home" to their son Private A Geo. Blechynden, one of our returned heroes.

Private Blechynden left W. A. about 18 months ago with one of the reinforcements of the glorious 28th Battalion, and; after going through the usual training in England, he saw 4 1/2 months' service in the trenches in France until wounded last March, and, after a spell in hospital under different specialists, was ultimately invalided home to the "Golden West." He still has to undergo six months' treatment at the base hospital, and we all sincerely trust that such treatment will be highly successful.

Parlor games were indulged and heartily enjoyed by all until the arrival of several belated visitors, when the large dining-room was cleared for dancing. A long and varied programme of dances, songs, recitations, etc., was gone through.

After supper, speeches were delivered by Messrs. Hancock, Pyke; Leslie, Powell, G. Smith and H. Allen, welcoming Private Blechynden back home again, applauding him for having done his duty so nobly, and trusting that he would soon recover from his wounds and be spared to be a comfort, and joy to his parents in the years to come.

Private Blechynden, speaking with emotion, appropriately returned thanks, and, at his request, the memory of fallen comrades was solemnly honored by all standing.

Mr. J. Blechynden also thanked the company for their presence there that evening and for the great reception accorded his son.

Miss Ethel Bowron was heartily thanked for her dance music whilst some splendid songs were rendered by Mrs Grime, "Vanity Fair"; the Misses G. Blechynden and M. Turpin, duet, "God's Domain, Australia"; Miss B Blechynden, "My Little Grey Home in the West" and Scottish Folk. Song; Miss Hilda Young, "Men of Harlech"; Mr. Grime, "Flight of Ages"; Mr P. Young, "Jack's the Boy," and' Mr. W. Woolhouse, "Gallant Deeds" and encore, "Here we come gathering Nuts and May"; Recitations, Private G. Blechynden, Miss Eileen Johnson, Messrs. Geo. Leslie and W. Woolhouse. Mr. Leslie also gave a splendid exhibition of the "Sword Dance."

The ladies are to be heartily congratulated on the very nice supper provided. The fun. was kept going fast and furious until day light when 'Auld -Lang Syne" and the "National Anthem" brought a memorable gathering to a close.

George Blechynden

GEORGE BLECHYNDEN (1894-1981) married MABEL ESTHER 'MAY' TURPIN (1899-1998) 6 Apr 1921 at St. Luke's Church, Pingelly, WA [Reg. 20]. Anglican.

<https://www.churchesaustralia.org/list-of-churches/locations/western-australia/directory/1566-st-luke-and-st-pauland%2339%3Bs-anglican-church>

The St Luke and St Paul's Anglican Church was opened on 19 Feb 1902 by the Bishop of Perth, Right Rev Charles Owen Leaver Riley. Renovations were carried out together with construction of a new rectory in 1966. These were consecrated by the Right Rev R G Hawkins and the church renamed St Luke and St Paul's Anglican Church.

TURPIN, MABEL ESTHER (1899-1998)

Mabel Esther Turpin was born 3 Jun 1899, QLD [Reg. 009292], parents: WILLIAM TURPIN (1860-1949) and LOUISA MARIA PURSELL BEAUCLERC (1873-1948) who were married 6 Apr 1894, Brisbane, QLD [Reg. B016731 pg. 1506]. Mabel Esther Blechynden (nee Turpin) died 28 Dec 1998, Greenmount, WA.

The following five pages contain details of Mabel Esther Turpin's parents William Turpin (~1861-1949) and Louisa Maria Pursell Beauclerc (1873-1948) and family:

TURPIN, WILLIAM, Mabel's father, was born about 1861, Essex, England. Parents, query: William Turpin (1834-1905) and Esther Sarah Turpin (1829-1916). He died 22 Jan 1949, Williams, WA [Reg. 7]. Buried Pingelly Cemetery, aged 88 years. Salvation Army. See Obituary.

BEAUCLERC, LOUISA MARIA PURSELL, Mabel's mother, was born 14 Jan 1873, QLD [Reg. B015302, pg. 858]. Parents: FREDERICK CHARLES BEAUCLERC (1851-1879) and ELIZA MOODY (1851-1934) were married 18 Jun 1872, QLD [Reg. 1872/B/3597]. *This was her father's third marriage. She died 7 Jun 1948, Pingelly, WA [Reg. 27] aged 75 years. Salvation Army.

Brisbane Courier (Qld: 1864 - 1933), Tue 25 Jun 1872, pg 2
25 Jun 1872 - Family Notices \(nla.gov.au\)

MARRIAGE BEAUCLERC—MOODY. —On the 18th June, by the Rev. W. T. Harte, Frederic Beauclerc, eldest son of Frederic Beauclerc, surgeon to H.M. 99th Regiment to Eliza, second daughter of Mr. Adam Moody, grazier, of Oxley Creek.

* An intriguing, story of bigamy by Frederick Charles Beauclerc, can be viewed via the following links to Trove.

Queenslander (Brisbane, Qld: 1866 - 1939), Sat 1 Nov 1873, pg 3

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article27278258.txt>

Queenslander (Brisbane, Qld: 1866 - 1939), Sat 6 Dec 1873, pg 3

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article27278705.txt>

CHILDREN OF FREDERICK CHARLES BEAULERC (1851-1879) AND ELIZA MOODY (1851-1934):

Mabel Esther Turpin's grandparents.

1. LOUISA MARIA PURSELL BEAULERC (1873-1948), Mabel Esther Turpin's mother, was born 14 Jan 1873, QLD [Reg. B015302, pg. 858]. Louisa died 7 Jun 1948, Pingelly, (Williams), WA [Reg. 27].

LOUISA married WILLIAM TURPIN (1833-1905), 6 Apr 1894, Brisbane, QLD [Reg. B016731 pg. 1506].

2. HENRY WILSON STANTON BEAULERC (1876-1953) was born 1876, QLD [Reg. 003841, pg. 857].

He married EDITH SIMPSON, 1908, QLD [Reg. B006459, pg. 1506] and died 4 Mar 1952, Brisbane., QLD [Reg. B036853, pg. 135].

3. FREDERICK JOHN BEAULERC (1878-1955) was born 1878, QLD [Reg. 001620, pg. 857]. He married CATHERINE FORD, 4 Nov 1902, QLD [Reg. B00223, pg. 1506]. Frederick died 8 Sep 1955, QLD [Reg. B009710, pg. 150].

CHILDREN OF WILLIAM TURPIN (~1861-1949) AND LOUISA MARIA PURSELL BEAULERC (1873-1948), Mabel Esther Turpin's parents

1. EVELYN LOUISA FLORENCE TURPIN (1894-1975) was born 7 Nov 1894, QLD [Reg. 009583, pg. 26557]. She married ROBERT TAYLOR JARDINE WIGHAM 1915, York, WA [Reg. 16]. Evelyn Louisa Florence Wigham (nee Turpin) died 3 Jul 1975, Williams, WA.

2. STANLEY WILLIAM HALL TURPIN (1896-1983) was born 6 May 1896, Brisbane, QLD [Reg. 009471, pg. 26558]. He died 4 May 1983, Pingelly, WA. Burial, Pingelly, WA. Stanley, son of the late William and Louisa, brother of Eveline, Mabel, Muriel and Lucy; died 4 May 1983 aged 86.

Electoral Roll:

1972, 1980, Stanley William Hall Turpin, Yealering, Ollie Turpin, Yealering, home duties, Rodney Kenneth Turpin, Yealering, shearer; Kenneth Walter Turpin, Yealering, shearer

3. HENRY WILSON STANTON TURPIN (1898-1898) was born 8 Jun 1898, QLD [Reg. 009369, pg. 26557]. He died as a baby on 25 Jul 1898, QLD [Reg. 003897, pg. 26557].

4. MABEL ESTHER TURPIN (1899-1998) was born 3 Jun 1899, QLD [Reg. 009292]. She died 28 Dec 1998, Greenmount, WA. Mabel married GEORGE BLECHYNDEN (1894-1981) 6 Apr 1921 at St. Luke's Church, Pingelly, WA [Reg. 20]. Anglican.

5. ETHEL ANNIE TURPIN (1901-) was born 10 Jul 1901, QLD [Reg. 009850, pg. 26557].

6. MURIEL ELIZA TURPIN (1904-1989) was born 9 Aug 1904, QLD [Reg. B008926, pg. 26558]. married THOMAS BESWICK (1903-1982), 1934, Beverley, WA [Reg. 28]. Muriel died 26 Sep 1989, Yealering,

WA. Burial, Yealering, WA. Muriel Eliza 9.8.1904- 26.9.1989; loved mother and gran of Kathleen, Tom and their families

7. LUCY MAY TURPIN (1907-1999) was born 1907, Beverley, WA [Reg. 67]. married WALTER CHARLES LESLIE TURPIN (1900-1981) 1930, Beverley, WA [Reg. 33]. Lucy died 11 Oct 1999, Sir Charles Gardiner Hospital, Perth, WA.

The following two articles give some idea of the history of the Turpin family, their daughter Mabel and when they came to WA.

Louisa Maria Pursell Turpin (nee Beauclerc) died 7 Jun 1948, Pingelly, WA [Reg. 27] aged 75 years. Salvation Army.

Pingelly-Brookton Leader (WA: 1925 - 1954), Thu 1 Jul 1948, pg 6

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article252423710.txt>

OBITUARY

Louisa Maria Turpin

The death occurred in the Narrogin District Hospital on Sunday, June 6, after a short illness of Louisa Maria Turpin, aged 75 years. Her passing, occasioned considerable regret throughout this area of the State and more particularly in the Milton-Yealering district, where she had resided for some 42 years.

Deceased was born on January 24, 1873 and her maiden name was Beauclerc. She married William Turpin on April 6 1894, in Brisbane, and the young couple lived in that city until 1905 when Mr. Turpin came West and selected virgin country 28 miles East of Pingelly, which has since been known as "Crossroads." Mrs Turpin and family came westward approximately 12 months later.

The Turpin's were pioneers in every sense of the word and their names will always be linked with the early history and development of the Milton area. Louisa Maria Turpin was one of the first white women to settle in that particular district and her fine spirit and radiant personality never flagged in times of hardship or adversity and she must have been an inspiration to her husband as she was to residents who knew her. Straightforward in action and purpose and possessing a generous nature, she assisted in anything of a social, religious or sporting character which she considered would be of value to the community, whilst it is safe to say there are few residents in that particular area who at some time or other, had not been assisted by some kindly action or word on the part of the deceased. Little wonder then that Mrs. Turpin was held in most affectionate regard by such a wide circle of friends and that her passing should have occasioned sincere regret on all sides.

The deceased leaves a husband, four daughters, Eva (Mrs. Wigham, Yealering), Mabel (Mrs. G. Blechynden, Pingelly), Muriel (Mrs. Beswick, Yealering), Lucy (Mrs. Turpin, Daglish) and son Stan (East Pingelly)

The funeral took place on Tuesday, June 8 and proceeded from the Salvation Army Church where a short service had been conducted, to the Salvation Army portion of the Pingelly cemetery, where the body was subsequently laid to rest. Captain Jones, of the Salvation Army, and the Rev. Shearn,

OBITUARY

Louisa Maria Turpin

The death occurred in the Narrogin District Hospital on Sunday, June 6, after a short illness, of Louisa Maria Turpin, aged 75 years. Her passing occasioned considerable regret throughout this area of the State and more particularly in the Milton-Yealering district, where she had resided for some 42 years.

Deceased was born on January 24, 1873 and her maiden name was Beauclerc. She married William Turpin on April 6, 1894, in Brisbane, and the young couple lived in that city until 1905 when Mr. Turpin came West and selected virgin country 28 miles East of Pingelly, which has since been known as "Crossroads." Mrs. Turpin and family came westward approximately 12 months later.

The Turpins were pioneers in every sense of the word and their names will always be linked with the early history and development of the Milton area.

Louisa Maria Turpin was one of the first white women to settle in that particular district and her fine spirit and radiant personality never flagged in times of hardship or adversity and she must have been an inspiration to her husband as she was to residents who knew her. Straightforward in action and purpose and possessing a generous nature, she assisted in anything of a social, religious or sporting character which she considered would be of value to the community, whilst it is safe to say there are few residents in that particular area who at some time or other, had not been assisted by some kindly action or word on the part of the deceased. Little wonder then that Mrs. Turpin was held in most affectionate regard by such a wide circle of friends and that her passing should have occasioned sincere regret on all sides.

The deceased leaves a husband, four daughters, Eva (Mrs. Wigham, Yealering), Mabel (Mrs. G. Blechynden, Pingelly), Muriel (Mrs. Beswick, Yealering), Lucy (Mrs. Turpin, Daglish) and son Stan (East Pingelly).

The funeral took place on Tuesday, June 8 and proceeded from the Salvation Army Church where a short service had been conducted, to the Salvation Army portion of the Pingelly cemetery, where the body was subsequently laid to rest. Captain Jones, of the Salvation Army, and the Rev. Shearn, Presbyterian minister from Yealering, combined the service at the graveside.

Coffin-bearers were Messrs. W. McDonnell, A. Walton, J. N. Barber, H. Ayers.

Floral tributes were received from the following:—

Her loving Husband, Daughters and Son; Mabel, George, Shirley and Dawn; Great grandsons Laurence and Geoffrey; Doreen and Tom; Lucy, Len and children; Grace and Gordon; Agnes and Norm Barber and family; Rocky Ridge; Mr. and Mrs. A. Rawle; Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Ayers; Mr. and Mrs. C. Turner; Mrs. E. A. Shipley and family; Amy Wilkie; Alma, Collin, Bill and Dig Mahoney; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mahoney; Mr. and Mrs. A. Giles; Mr. and Mrs. Gack; Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Treasure and family; Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Hill and family; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hill and family; Mr. and Mrs. T. Poulter and family; Mrs. M. D. Edwards; Mrs. Marlow and Mrs. Lacey and families; The Comrades and Officers of the Pingelly Corps; Mr. and Mrs. Shearn and Mrs. Harris; Pingelly Farmers' Co-operative Co.; Pingelly Home League Members; Women's Auxiliary; Bill and Gwen Robinson; John Wigham and family (North Perth); Mr. and Mrs. Laurie Watson, Enid and Margaret; Ada, Len, Beryl and Bernice and Mrs. Atkins (Cottesloe); Mrs. Monger;

Presbyterian minister from Yealering, combined the service at the graveside. Coffin-bearers were Messrs. W. McDonnell, A. Walton, J. N. Barber, H. Ayers.

Floral tributes were received from the following: —

Her loving Husband, Daughters and Son; Mabel, George, Shirley and Dawn; Great grandsons Laurence and Geoffrey; Doreen and Tom; Lucy, Les and children; Grace and Gordon; Agnes and Norm Barber and family; Rocky Ridge; Mr. and Mrs. A. Rawle; Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Ayers; Mr. and Mrs. C. Turner; Mrs. E. A. Shipley and family; Amy Wilkie; Alma, Colin, Bill and Dig Mahoney; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mahoney; Mr. and Mrs. A. Giles; Mr. and Mrs. Gack; Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Treasure and family; Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Hill and family; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hill and family; Mr. and Mrs. T. Poultney and family; Mrs. M. D Edwards; Mrs. Marlow and Mrs. Lacey and families; The Comrades and Officers of the Pingelly Corps; Mr. and Mrs. Shearn and Mrs. Harris; Pingelly Farmers' Co-operative Co.; Pingelly Home League Members; Women's Auxiliary; Bill and Gwen Robinson; John Wicham and family (North Perth); Mr. and Mrs. Laurie Watson, Enid and Margaret; Ada, Len, Beryl and Bernice and Mrs Atkins (Cottesloe); Mrs. Monger; The Fuller family; Johnny and Pearl Lawton. W. James and Sons, Narrogin, handled the funeral arrangements.

William Turpin died 22 Jan 1949, Williams, WA [Reg. 7]. Buried Pingelly Cemetery, aged 88 years. Salvation Army.

Pingelly-Brookton Leader (WA: 1925 - 1954), Thu 10 Feb 1949, pg 5

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article252485556.txt>

OBITUARY

William Turpin.

Mr. William Turpin, a pioneer of the Milton Cross Roads districts, passed away at his home in Yealering on Saturday, January 22. Deceased was 88 years of age and was an Englishman by birth.

As a young man, William Turpin lived in Essex, where he received a sound education. He migrated to Australia in his early twenties and settled down in Brisbane. Here he married and lived until 1905 when he came to the West, ultimately taking up virgin country at what is now known as Cross Roads, in the Milton district. He was the first Justice of the Peace in this district and he was always actively connected with anything of a progressive nature, while his work for the Church and Sunday School will be long remembered. In his younger days he was quite a prominent cricketer.

As old age advanced, Mr. Turpin and his wife, who passed away last year, moved to Yealering, where they lived for the remainder of their lives. Their son, Stan, carries on the farm which they established.

Mr. Turpin leaves four daughters, Eva (Mrs. Wigham, Yealering), Mabel (Mrs. G. Blechynden, Pingelly), Muriel (Mrs. Beswick, Yealering), Lucy (Mrs. Turpin, Daglish), and their son Stan (East Pingelly).

Deceased was buried on Monday, January 24, in the Pingelly cemetery. A combined service was held by Captain Jones (Salvation Army), and Mr. Shearn (Presbyterian Minister at Yealering).

Pall-bearers were Messrs. C. Hickmott, W. Townsend, H. Ayers, J. N. Barber, McDonald and C. Fuller.

Hickmott, W. Townsend, H. Ayers, J. N. Barber, McDonald and C. Fuller.

Wreaths were received from: —His loving family; Grandchildren Tom and Doreen; Great grand-children Laurence and Geoffrey; Emily, George and family; The Hiller family; Officer and Comrades Salvation Army; The Salvation Army young people; Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Shearn; Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Treasure and family; Mr. and Mrs. George McDonald; Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Ayers.

Wm. James and Sons conducted the funeral.

OBITUARY

William Turpin.

Mr. William Turpin, a pioneer of the Milton Cross Roads districts, passed away at his home in Yealering on Saturday, January 22. Deceased was 88 years of age and was an Englishman by birth. As a young man, William Turpin lived in Essex, where he received a sound education. He migrated to Australia in his early twenties and settled down in Brisbane. Here he married and lived until 1905 when he came to the West, ultimately taking up virgin country at what is now known as Cross Roads, in the Milton district. He was the first Justice of the Peace in this district and he was always actively connected with anything of a progressive nature, while his work for the Church and Sunday School will be long remembered. In his younger days he was quite a prominent cricketer. As old age advanced, Mr. Turpin and his wife, who passed away last year, moved to Yealering, where they lived for the remainder of their lives. Their son, Stan, carries on the farm which they established. Mr. Turpin leaves four daughters, Eva (Mrs. Wigham, Yealering), Mabel (Mrs. G. Blechynden, Pingelly), Muriel (Mrs. Beswick, Yealering), Lucy (Mrs. Turpin, Daglish), and their son Stan (East Pingelly). Deceased was buried on Monday, January 24, in the Pingelly cemetery. A combined service was held by Captain Jones (Salvation Army), and Mr. Shearn (Presbyterian Minister at Yealering). Pallbearers were Messrs. C. Hickmott, W. Townsend, H. Ayers, J. N. Barber, McDonald and C.

Fuller. Wreaths were received from: —His loving family; Grandchildren Tom and Doreen; Great grandchildren Laurence and Geoffrey; Emily, George and family; The Hiller family; Officer and Comrades Salvation Army; The Salvation Army young people; Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Shearn; Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Treasure and family; Mr. and Mrs. George McDonald; Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Ayers. Wm. James and Sons conducted the funeral.

Continuing with the story of GEORGE BLECHYNDEN (1894-1981) and MABEL ESTHER 'MAY' TURPIN (1899-1998):

The following translations from the Hancock story, section on Joseph Blechynden, give an excellent summary of George Blechynden and his life.

THE HANCOCK STORY by H L (Mick) KILPATRICK: JOSEPH BLECHYNDEN (1853-1938), 231

George was the eldest of the two children born to Grace Emma and Joseph Blechynden. His birth took place at "Oakdale", Beverley, on the 2nd, August 1894.

His early life was spent in the Beverley district. When he was approximately 10 years of age his family moved to a farm named "Gingaring" in the Aldersyde area, near Pingelly. This property was very run down when the Blechyndens purchased it, so no doubt George would have had to help his parents with all types of work that needed to be done.

During the First World War George enlisted in the A.I.F. (Australian Imperial Forces) and saw service overseas. He was badly wounded while serving with the army in France. Following his discharge, he returned to the family farm at Aldersyde.

On 6th April 1921 George Blechynden was married to Mabel Esther TURPIN at St. Luke's Anglican Church, Pingelly. Mabel was born on the 3rd June 1899 in QLD and came to WA when only seven years of age, as her family had decided to settle in the East Pingelly district.

George and Mabel made their home on the farm at Aldersyde, with George subsequently taking over "Gingaring" when his parents bought a smaller holding in the same district. However, because of the war wounds he had received, farm work became too heavy for him, so he decided a change of occupation was needed and consequently disposed of the Aldersyde property.

The family moved to Vine Street, North Perth, and George worked as a taxi driver around Perth and the metropolitan area, being employed during this time by Alpine Taxis. Later, for a short time he was an insurance agent.

In common with many other families, they lost everything during the depression and consequently decided to return to Pingelly.

For the rest of his working life George operated an agency business in that town, in addition to which he was the mail contractor for the East Pingelly-Aldersyde areas for a period of 24½ years.

In conjunction with these two enterprises, he also worked as a private wool buyer. This job involved going from property to property at shearing time, endeavouring to purchase

George was the eldest of the two children born to Grace Emma and Joseph Blechynden. His birth took place at "Oakdale", Beverley, on the 2nd August 1894.

His early life was spent in the Beverley district. When he was approximately 10 years of age his family moved to a farm named "Gingaring" in the Aldersyde area, near Pingelly. This property was very run-down when the Blechyndens purchased it, so no doubt George would have had to help his parents with all types of work that needed to be done.

During the First World War George enlisted in the A.I.F. (Australian Imperial Forces) and saw service overseas. He was badly wounded while serving with the army in France. Following his discharge, he returned to the family farm at Aldersyde.

On the 6th April 1921 George Blechynden was married to Mabel Esther TURPIN at St. Luke's Anglican Church, Pingelly. Mabel was born on the 3rd June 1899 in Queensland and came to Western Australia when only 7 years of age, as her family had decided to settle in the East Pingelly district.

231

George and Mabel made their home on the farm at Aldersyde, with George subsequently taking over "Gingaring" when his parents bought a smaller holding in the same district. However, because of the war wounds he had received, farm work became too heavy for him, so he decided a change of occupation was needed and consequently disposed of the Aldersyde property.

The family then moved to Vine Street, North Perth, and George worked as a taxi driver around Perth and the metropolitan area, being employed during this time by Alpine Taxis. Later, for a short time, he was an insurance agent.

In common with many other families, they lost everything during the Depression and consequently decided to return to Pingelly.

For the rest of his working life George operated an agency business in that town, in addition to which he was the mail contractor for the East Pingelly-Aldersyde areas for a period of some 24½ years.

In conjunction with these two enterprises, he also worked as a private wool buyer. This job involved going from property to property at shearing time, endeavouring to purchase wool clips at a negotiated price on the farm. This was in opposition to the auction system used by the large stock firms, where the price was unknown until the time of sale. The advantage of dealing directly with a wool buyer was that the farmer had his money immediately shearing was completed and the wool baled. In most cases, all that was then left for the farmer to do was deliver the wool to the nearest railway siding. Many of these wool buyers had direct contracts with overseas mills.

George was very involved in community work, especially for the Red Cross. He also worked hard on the collection of money for various charities. In addition, he was a staunch member of the Returned Servicemen's League. Mabel was an Auxiliary Member of the same organization and in this capacity helped with catering for various social functions around the district. Her local church, including the Ladies' Guild, was another of her interests. They both enjoyed gardening, which included growing their own vegetables.

As they got older they moved into a retirement unit at Pingelly.

George Blechynden died at Hollywood Repatriation Hospital on the 31st January 1981, aged 86 years. He was cremated at Karrakatta.

For three years following the death of her husband, Mabel spent time living with each of her daughters in turn. She now resides at Undercliffe Nursing Home, Greenmount.

wool clips at a negotiated price on the farm. This was in opposition to the auctioneering system used by the large stock firms, where the price was unknown until the time of sale. The advantage of dealing directly with a wool buyer was that the farmer had his money immediately shearing was completed and the wool baled. In most cases, all that was then left for the farmers to do was to deliver the wool to the nearest railway siding. Many of these wool buyers had direct contact with overseas mills.

George was very involved in community work, especially for the Red Cross. He also worked hard on the collection of money for various charities. In addition, he was a staunch member of the Returned Servicemen's League. Mabel was an Auxiliary Member of the same organisation and in this capacity helped with catering for various social functions around the district. Her local church, including the Ladies Guild, was another of her interests. They both enjoyed gardening, which included growing their own vegetables.

As they got older, they moved into a retirement unit at Pingelly.

George Blechynden died at the Hollywood Repatriation Hospital on the 31st January 1981, aged 86 years. He was cremated at Karrakatta.

For three years following the death of her husband, Mabel spent time living with each of her daughters in turn. She now resides at Undercliffe Nursing Home, Greenmount."

1st CHILD OF GEORGE BLECHYNDEN & MABEL ESTHER TURPIN

1. BLECHYNDEN, DOREEN ESTHER (1922-2019) was born 29 Nov 1922, Beverley, WA [Reg. 237]. She married THOMAS GEORGE RAYNER (1914-2004), 9 Mar 1946, Perth, WA [Reg. 644], a postmaster at Koorda. Doreen died 24 Oct 2019, WA.

West Australian (Perth, WA: 1879 - 1954), Sat 2 Mar 1946, pg 13

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article50328412.txt>

Approaching Marriages.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Blechynden, Parker Street, Pingelly, have pleasure in announcing that the marriage of their eldest daughter, Doreen Esther, to Thomas George Rayner, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Rayner, Northampton, will take place on Saturday, March 9, 1946 at St. George's Cathedral, at 5 pm.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Blechynden, Parker-street, Pingelly, have pleasure in announcing that the marriage of their eldest daughter, Doreen Esther, to Thomas George Rayner, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Rayner, Northampton, will take place on Saturday, March 9, 1946 at St. George's Cathedral, at 5 pm.

THOMAS GEORGE RAYNER (1914-2004) was born 10 Apr 1914, Geraldton, WA [Reg. 56]. Parents: GEORGE PATRICK RAYNER (1886-1972) and REBECCA ELLEN CRIPPS (1890-1969) who were married 1913, Geraldton, WA [Reg. 2900040]. Thomas died 18 Dec 2004, Bunbury, WA. Buried Bunbury Cemetery, WA.

The following four pages have brief details of the history of Thomas George Rayner's mother Eliza Margaret Rayner (1869-1945) and grandparents Mary Creggan (1844-1915) and Robert Rayner (1823-1886).

GEORGE PATRICK RAYNER (1886-1972) Thomas George Rayner's father

George Rayner was born 15 Sep 1886, Greenough, WA [Reg. 29067], registered as George Rayner, mother, ELIZA MARGARET RAYNER, father not recorded. George Patrick Rayner died 1972, Geraldton, Wav [Reg. 2900008], aged 86 years, mother registered as Eliza Margaret Rayner, father nor recorded. Buried Geraldton Cemetery, WA.

ELIZA MARGARET RAYNER (1869-1945) George Patrick Rayner's mother

Eliza Margaret Rayner was born 1869, Perth, WA [Reg. 11728], parents: ROBERT RAYNER (1823-1886) and MARY CRAIGHEN (1844-1915), spelling of names as registered. Eliza Margaret Beringer (nee Rayner) died 1945, Geraldton, WA [Reg. 2900081], aged 76 years, parents: Robert Rayner and Mary Creagan.

This was her father, Robert Rayner's second marriage. m2. ROBERT RAYNER (1823-1886) married MARY CREGHAN (1844-1915) 1 Jan 1864, Northam, WA [Reg. 1990], registered as registered under Robert Raynor and Mary Creghan.

When she was 17 years of age Eliza Margaret Rayner gave birth to George Patrick Rayner, in 1886, the father not recorded. Some Family Trees in Ancestry have George Patrick Rayner as the twelfth child of Robert and Mary Rayner – it is likely that Eliza was assisted in bringing up George by her parents Robert and Mary Rayner.

MARGARET ELIZA RAYNER (1869-1945) married NICHOLAS ALEXANDER BERINGER (1873-1950) 1898, Greenough, WA [Reg. 725]. Margaret was now aged 29 years.

NICHOLAS ALEXANDER BERINGER (1873-1950)

Nicholas Alexander Beringer was born 1873, Goulburn, NSW [Reg. 10679]. Parents registered as CHARLES ANTHONY BERINGER (1833-1894) and ELIZABETHA CHRISTINA. (Carl Anton Beringer and Elizabetha Christina Hubinger were both from Germany). Their names both varied following their move to Australia. Nicholas Alexander Beringer died 1950, Fremantle, WA [Reg. 2700283]. Parents registered as Carl Anton Beringer and Elizabeth Christine (Craig as recorded). I think a bit of confusion here.

CARL BERINGER (1833-1894) and ELIZABETH CHUBINGER (1831-1916) were married 1865, Sydney, NSW [Reg. 290]. Names above as registered. They had four children, their parents' registered names varying in spelling for each child, ie. from Carl to Charles Beringer and Elizabetha to Elizabeth Hubinger.

1. CHARLES PHILLIP NICHOLAS BERINGER (1866-1943)
2. EDMUND AUGUST BERINGER (1871-1947)
3. CAROLINE ELEANORE BERINGER (1874-1928)
4. NICHOLAS ALEXANDER BERINGER (1873-1950).

Nicholas Alexander Beringer and his family moved to WA.

Carl Anton Beringer (name as registered), died near Geraldton [Reg. 908], aged 61 years.

Elizabeth Christina Beringer (name as registered), died 1916, Geraldton, WA [2900006] aged 79 years.

CHILDREN OF MARGARET ELIZA RAYNER (1869-1945) AND NICHOLAS ALEXANDER BERINGER (1874-1950):

Sadly, they lost their twins: William Charles and Sydney Robert in 1911 at the age of eight months.

1. NICHOLAS ERNEST BERINGER (1899-1970)
2. HAROLD BERINGER (1900-1977)
3. WILLIAM CHARLES BERINGER (1911-1911)
4. SYDNEY ROBERT BERINGER (1911-1911)
5. LIONEL HENRY AUSTIN BERINGER (1915-1994).

ROBERT RAYNER (1823-1886) Margaret Eliza Rayner's father, Thomas George Rayner's great-grandfather

Robert Rayner was a convict. He was married in England.

m1. ROBERT RAYNER (1823-1886) married CAROLINE MANNING (1824-1896) 18 Oct 1846, Norfolk, England.

They had three children. 1. GEORGE RAYNER (1846-1907) 2. CAROLINE RAYNER (1847-) 3. ELIZABETH RAYNER (1849-1924).

Robert Rayner was sentenced and transported to WA, Convict #2639, arriving 5 Apr 1854. Caroline and the three children remained in England. Robert Rayner died 1886, Greenough, WA [Reg. 13703], aged 59 years. Mary Rayner (nee Creggan) died 1915, Northampton, WA [Reg. 5000018], father registered as Patrick Cragen.

As mentioned previously: m2. ROBERT RAYNER (1823-1886) married MARY CREGHAN (1844-1915) 1 Jan 1864, Northam, WA [Reg. 1990], registered as Robert Raynor and Mary Creggan.

CHILDREN OF ROBERT RAYNER (1823-1886) AND MARY CREGHAN (1844-1915).

The children's mother was recorded as Mary with various spellings of Cregan, Creggan, Cragan, Craighen, etc, father Robert Rayner.

1. JAMES RAYNER (1864-1915)
2. JOHANNAH RAYNER (1865-1949)
3. MARY JANE RAYNER (1866-1941)
4. ROBERT JOHN RAYNER (1868-1911)
5. ELIZA MARGARET RAYNER (1869-1945)
6. THOMAS MICHAEL RAYNER (1871-1944)
7. WILLIAM RAYNER (1873-1902)
8. EMILY JULIA RAYNER (1875-1943)
9. ANN ELIZABETH RAYNER (1878-1878)
10. HENRY RICHARD 'HARRY' RAYNER (1879-1952)
11. MAY FRANCES RAYNER (1882-1930)

REBECCA ELLEN CRIPPS (1890-1969) Thomas George Rayner's mother

Rebecca Ellen was born 20 Dec 1890, Northampton, WA [Reg. 183]. Parents: CHARLES THOMAS CRIPPS (1854-1923) and m2. MARGARET HAIGH (1859-1923) who were married 25 Jan 1882, Gwalia, (Northampton), WA [Reg. 5231].

Rebecca Ellen Rayner (nee Cripps) died 22 Aug 1969, Geraldton, WA [Reg. 2900097], aged 78 years, parents: Charles Thomas Cripps and Margaret Williams.

CHILDREN OF CHARLES THOMAS CRIPPS (1854-1923) AND m2. MARGARET HAIGH (1859-1923), Thomas George Rayner's maternal grandparents.

Rebecca Ellen was the fifth of eight children.

1. THOMAS CHARLES CRIPPS (1882-1958)
2. HANNAH MARY CRIPPS (1884-1956)
3. DAVID WILLIAMS CRIPPS (1886-1924)
4. SARAH JANE CRIPPS (1888-1975)
5. REBECCA ELLEN CRIPPS (1890-1969)
6. ERNEST JOHN CRIPPS (1893-1957)
7. MARGARET ADA CRIPPS (1896-1989)
8. ELSIE GEORGIE CRIPPS (1899-1968)

m1. MARGARET WILLIAMS (1859-1923) married ALLEN HAIGH (1854-1880) 1876, Northampton, WA [Reg. 4126].

They had three children. 1. MARY ANN HAIGH (1877-1877) 2. ELIZABETH ANN HAIGH (1878-1949) 3. SELINA MARY HAIGH (1880-1949). Sadly, Mary Ann died aged 20 days. Following her husband Allen's death Margaret married again.

CHILDREN OF GEORGE PATRICK RAYNER (1886-1972) and REBECCA ELLEN CRIPPS (1890-1969), Thomas George Rayner's parents:

Thomas George was the eldest of six living children. Sadly, George and Rebecca had three children not born alive. Unnamed male in 1915, Mary Rayner 1932 and Unnamed male in 1933.

1. THOMAS GEORGE RAYNER (1914-2004) married DOREEN ESTHER BLECHYNDEN (1922-2019) 9 Mar 1946, Perth, WA [Reg. 644]. Postmaster at Koorda.

2. UNNAMED RAYNER (1915-1915) M. Stillborn. Unnamed Rayner was not born alive, 1915, Geraldton, WA [Reg. 129]. Parents: George Patrick

3. ELSIE MADELINE RAYNER (1916-2000) married WILFRED CHARLES GREGORY (1925-) 1948, Perth, WA [Reg. 1051].

4. DULCIE ELIZABETH RAYNER (1918-2011) married ALLEN LOUIS GEORGE RALPH (1913-1999) 1944, Northampton, WA [Reg. 3].

5. WILLIAM ARTHUR RAYNER (1921-1992) married JOYCE MARY CURTIN (1927-2013) 1948, Northampton, WA [Reg.].

6. NORMAN CHARLES RAYNER (1924-) married m2. DORIS FRANCES GUNNER 1950, Perth, WA [Reg. 861]. M1. DORIS FRANCES TITE married LIONEL FREDCOVE GUNNER 1925, Highgate Hill, Perth WA [Reg. 101307].

7. EDWIN JOHN RAYNER (1927-1972) married PATRICIA GARDINER 1954, Perth, WA [Reg. 112].

8. MARY RAYNER (1932-1932) F. Stillborn. Mary Rayner was not born alive 1932, Northampton, WA [Reg. 5000018]. Parents: George Patrick Rayner and Rebecca Ellen Cripps.

9. UNNAMED RAYNER (1933-1933) M. Stillborn. Unnamed Rayner was not born alive, 1933 Northampton, WA [Reg.5000004]. Parents: George Patrick Rayner and Rebecca Ellen Cripps.

Electoral Roll:

1912 George Patrick Rayner, Eradu, repairer, Mary Rayner, Greenough, widow.
 1917 George Patrick Rayner, Nabawah, farm hand, Rebecca Ellen, married.
 1922 George Patrick Rayner, Northampton, farm hand, Rebecca Ellen, married.
 1931 George Patrick Rayner, Lynton Station Northampton, farm hand, Rebecca Ellen, home duties.
 1943 George Patrick Rayner, Olgivie, Greenough, labourer, Rebecca Ellen, home duties.
 1958 George Patrick Rayner, 9 Snowden St, Geraldton, Rebecca Ellen, home duties.

CHILDREN OF DOREEN ESTHER BLECHYNDEN (1922-2019) AND THOMAS GEORGE RAYNER (1914-2004): Laurence, Geoffrey Dennis, Margaret Doreen and Brian Leslie Rayner.

Electoral Roll:

1937 Thomas George Rayner, Northampton, carrier
 1949, 1954, 1977, 1980 Thomas George Rayner, 16 Parker St, Pingelly, grader driver, Doreen Esther, home duties.

2nd CHILD OF GEORGE BLECHYNDEN & MABEL ESTHER TURPIN2. BLECHYNDEN, SHIRLEY MAY (1924-2011)

was born 13 May 1924, Beverley, WA [Reg. 94]. She married HUGH GEORGE HATCHER (1924-1976), 1949, Perth, WA [Reg. 800].

Pingelly-Brookton Leader (WA: 1925 - 1954), Thu 7 Apr 1949, pg 1

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article252486953> .txt

WEDDINGHatcher—Blechynden.

St. Mary's, West Perth, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Saturday, March 26, when the marriage was solemnised of Shirley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Blechynden, of Pingelly and Hugh, eldest son of Mrs. and the late Mr. H. Hatcher, of Pingelly.

The bride was given away by her father and looked, lovely in white lace, fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, long sleeves and train. Her tulle veil was held in place by a lace coronet, and she carried a sheaf of roses, carnations and gladioli.

Bridesmaids Dawn Blechynden and Daphne Hatcher chose pink sprigged organdy gowns with very full skirts, puff sleeves and tustle bows. Pink straw picture hats with posies to tone completed their, toilette.

Tiny flower girls, Maralyn and Jennifer Turpin, were sweet in pale blue organdy with Old World bonnets and baskets of pink gladiolus and hyderangeas.

Harold Ball and Syd. Hatcher attended the groom.

The reception was held in Subiaco and was attended by near relatives.

Mrs. Blechynden received her guests wearing mid blue crepe with black accessories, assisted by Mrs. Hatcher in wine coloured frock with black accessories. Shirley's travelling choice comprised pale blue crepe frock relieved with beige lace and navy-blue shoes, gloves, handbag and hat, bonnet style.

WEDDING
Hatcher—Blechynden.

St. Mary's, West Perth, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Saturday, March 26, when the marriage was solemnised of Shirley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Blechynden, of Pingelly and Hugh, eldest son of Mrs. and the late Mr. H. Hatcher, of Pingelly.

The bride was given away by her father and looked lovely in white lace, fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, long sleeves and train. Her tulle veil was held in place by a lace coronet, and she carried a sheaf of roses, carnations and gladioli.

Bridesmaids Dawn Blechynden and Daphne Hatcher chose pink sprigged organdy gowns with very full skirts, puff sleeves and tustle bows. Pink straw picture hats with posies to tone completed their toilette.

Tiny flower girls, Maralyn and Jennifer Turpin, were sweet in pale blue organdy with Old World bonnets and baskets of pink gladiolus and hyderangeas.

Harold Ball and Syd. Hatcher attended the groom.

The reception was held in Subiaco and was attended by near relatives.

Mrs. Blechynden received her guests wearing mid blue crepe with black accessories, assisted by Mrs. Hatcher in wine coloured frock with black accessories.

Shirley's travelling choice comprised pale blue crepe frock relieved with beige lace and navy blue shoes, gloves, handbag and hat, bonnet style.

HUGH GEORGE HATCHER (1924-1976) was born 22 Sep 1924, Pingelly, Beverley Dist, WA. Parents: HAROLD SIDNEY HATCHER (1883-1942) and RUBY BOWDEN (1900-1983) who were married 1923, Pingelly, Beverley, WA [Reg. 400048]. Hugh died 1976, Shelley, Perth, WA [Reg. 100116] aged 53 years.

HAROLD SIDNEY HATCHER (1883-1942), Hugh George Hatcher's father, was baptised 11 Nov 1883, Marnhull, Dorset, England. Parents: HUGH JAMES HATCHER (1856-1947) and EMMA MARSH (1859-1927) who were married 27 Apr 1881, Marnhull, Dorset England. Harold Sidney was the second of eleven children all born in England. Harold arrived 14 Jul 1910, Fremantle, WA. His parents and siblings remained in England. He died 1942, Pingelly, Beverley WA [Reg. 400022].

CHILDREN OF HUGH JAMES HATCHER (1856-1947) and EMMA MARSH (1859-1927), Hugh George Hatcher's paternal grandparents.

1. WALTER JOHN HATCHER (1882-1949)
2. HAROLD SIDNEY HATCHER (1883-1942)
3. FRED HATCHER (1885-1970)
4. ERNEST HATCHER (1886-1929)
5. IDA MARY ANN HATCHER (1887-1977)
6. ETHEL GRACE HATCHER (1889-1977)
7. LOUISA KATE HATCHER (1891-1965)
8. HUGH JAMES HATCHER (1892-1917)
9. ARTHUR HATCHER (1894-1972)
10. MAGGIE HATCHER (1896-1978)
11. AGNES MABEL HATCHER (1899-1963)

RUBY BOWDEN (1900-1983) Hugh George Hatcher's mother

Ruby Bowden was born 31 Mar 1900, Perth, WA [Reg. 3674]. Parents: GEORGE BOWDEN (1855-1928) and EMILY GEORGINA BAKER (1873-1968) who were married 1898, Kalgoorlie, WA [Reg. 271]. Both George Bowden and Emily Georgina Baker were born in VIC and moved to WA.

Ruby Hatcher (nee Bowden) died 1983, Narrogin, Williams, WA [Reg. 6700041]. Parents: George Bowden and Emily Baker.

George Bowden died 21 Mar 1928, Pingelly, WA [Reg. 40001], parents: Charles Joseph Bowden and Julia Huggins.

Emily Georgina Bowden (nee Baker) died 9 Jul 1968, Greenmount, WA [Reg. 6100128], parents: George Baker and Jane Button.

CHILDREN OF GEORGE BOWDEN (1855-1928) AND EMILY GEORGINA BAKER (1873-1968), Hugh George Hatcher's maternal grandparents.

Ruby was the second of ten children. Sadly, George and Emily lost five babies at or just after birth: Mabel Emily died in 1902, aged 7 months; Violet in 1904, aged 7 months; Edward in 1908, Henry Ernest aged 7 weeks and a female baby not born alive in 1912. I cannot find a registration for George born in 1898 in Kalgoorlie.

1. GEORGE BOWDEN (1898-)
2. RUBY BOWDEN (1900-1983)
3. MABEL EMILY BOWDEN (1901-1902)
4. ETHEL BOWDEN (1902-1954)
5. VIOLET BOWDEN (1903-1904)
6. ROSE EMILY BOWDEN (1904-1975)
7. JESSIE MAY BOWDEN (1907-1953)
8. EDWARD BOWDEN (1908-1908)
9. HENRY ERNEST BOWDEN (1909-1909)
10. UNNAMED BOWDEN (1912-1912), F.

Electoral Roll:

1910, 1917, 1918 George Bowden, Pingelly, teamster, Emily Bowden, Pingelly, married 1931, 1934 Emily Bowden, Pingelly, married.

CHILDREN OF HAROLD SIDNEY HATCHER (1883-1942) AND RUBY BOWDEN (1900-1983), Hugh George Hatcher's parents.

1. HUGH GEORGE HATCHER (1924-1976) married SHIRLEY MAY BLECHYNDEN (1924-2011) 1949, Perth, WA [Reg. 800].

2. SIDNEY ERNEST HATCHER (1925-2012) married MARGARET PHYLLIS BALDOCK (1929-2018) 21 Apr 1951, Williams, WA [Reg. 33].

3. DAPHNE ROSE HATCHER (1927–1972) married DENNIS BERWICK FORD (1929-2002) 1952, Beverley, WA [Reg. 22].

4. PHYLLIS D HATCHER (1930-2019) married IVAN VICTOR BOWRON (1925-2020) 1951, Beverley, WA [Reg. 36].

CHILDREN OF SHIRLEY MAY BLECHYNDEN (1924-2011) AND HUGH GEORGE HATCHER (1924-1976):
Coralie, Jillian, Sheryl and Judith Hatcher.

Electoral Roll:

1949, 1954 Hugh George Hatcher, Railway Promenade, Queens Park, carpenter, Shirley May, home duties.

1963, 1968 Hugh George Hatcher, 107 Seven Oakes St, Queens Park, carpenter, Shirley May, home duties.

3rd CHILD OF GEORGE BLECHYNDEN & MABEL ESTHER TURPIN

3. BLECHYNDEN, DAWN AUDREY (1930-) was born 15 Dec 1930, Perth, WA [Reg. 4082]. Reg in 1931. She married HERMAN KEITH NOACK (1928-2020), 1952, Perth, WA [Reg. 2564].

Comments via Susanne Wheatley: Herman Keith's father, also Herman Keith Noack - Married Zenovia Winifred "Winnie" Broun. Winnie was a daughter of Charles McBryde Broun. Charles was brother to my Great Grandfather - Ernest Malcolm Felix Broun. Charles and Ernest, I believe grew up on Roesland - they helped their father, Charles Frederick Broun, run the Great Southern Railway shop out of Roesland and also the mobile shop which travelled ahead of the railway gangs. Circa 1880's.

West Australian (Perth, WA: 1879 - 1954), Mon 27 Oct 1952, pg 8

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article49060354.txt>

An old-world gown of lace and tulle was worn by Miss Dawn Blechynden, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Blechynden, of Pingelly, when she was married to Mr. Keith Noack, of Bullaring, at St. Mary's Church, West Perth, on Saturday afternoon. She was attended by Miss Aileen Noack, who wore a matching tulle stole with her bouffant frock of pale gold, and two younger bridesmaids, who wore pretty frocks of pale-green frosted organdie. Mr. Gordon Noack was the best man.

Country Bride An old-world gown of lace and tulle was worn by Miss Dawn Blechynden, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Blechynden, of Pingelly, when she was married to Mr. Keith Noack, of Bullaring, at St. Mary's Church, West Perth, on Saturday afternoon. She was attended by Miss Aileen Noack, who wore a matching tulle stole with her bouffant frock of pale gold, and two younger bridesmaids, who wore pretty frocks of pale-green frosted organdie. Mr. Gordon Noack was the best man.

HERMAN KEITH NOACK (1928-2020)

Herman Keith Noack was born 1928, Beverley, WA. Parents: MARTIN CHRISTIAN NOACK (1891-1974) 'Herman' and ZENOBIA WINIFRED BROUN (1897-1978) 'Winnie' who were married 1920, Beverley, WA [Reg. 400034]. Registered as Martin Christian Noack.

Herman Keith Noack died 2020

MARTIN CHRISTIAN NOACK (1891-1974) 'Herman' Herman Keith Noack's father

Martin Christian Noack was born 1891, Buninyong, VIC [Reg. 30799]. Registered as Martin Christian Noack, parents: Martin Christian Noack and Adelaide Davies.

Martin Christian Noack died 15 Aug 1974, Perth, WA [Reg. 102991], aged 83 years, parents: Martin Christian Noack and Adelaide Davies.

Herman Keith Noack's grandparents, MARTIN CHRISTIAN NOACK (1867-1955) 'Herman' and ADELAIDE DAVIES (1870-1959) were married 1889, VIC [Ref. 7976]. Registered as Martin Christian Noack and Adelaide Davies. At his death he was recorded as Christian Heinrich Martin Noack.

CHILDREN OF MARTIN CHRISTIAN NOACK (1867-1955) AND ADELAIDE DAVIES (1870-1959), Herman Keith Noack's grandparents.

Martin was the second of six children who were all born in VIC. The parents of the children were recorded as Martin Christian Noack and Adelaide Davies. Sadly, baby Albert Edward died in the first weeks in 1900 in VIC. Following their move to WA, tragically Percival Christian (DWI) 15 years of age and his sister Edith Alexander (DWI) aged seven years were killed in a shooting incident in 1910, East Brookton.

1. CAROLINE ROSENA NOACK (1890-1974),
2. MARTIN 'HERMAN' CHRISTIAN NOACK (1891-1974)
3. PERCIVAL CHRISTIAN NOACK DWI (1895-1910),
4. CLARICE ADELAIDE NOACK (1897-1975)
5. ALBERT EDWARD NOACK (1900-1900), and
6. EDITH ALEXANDER NOACK (1902-1910).

Sunday Times (Perth, WA: 1902 - 1954), Sun 20 Mar 1910, pg 5

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article57599025.txt>

TRAGEDY AT PINGELLY

The Horrifying Death of Percy and Baby Noack

Brother and Sister Found Dead in the Bush—With Bullets Embedded in Their Brains—The Official Explanation—Of a Most Mysterious Occurrence

Pingelly, an important agricultural centre on the Great Southern line, was the scene, last Sunday evening, of an awful double tragedy, involving the death of the two youngest children of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Noack, residents of East Brookton. The real facts will probably never become known, though it has been possible for the police to piece together link by link a continuous chain of convincing evidence of one of the most sorrowful fatalities ever chronicled in the annals of Westralian life.

The details of the incident are peculiarly sorrowful and heart-rending. It appears that, at 5 o'clock last Sunday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Noack left the homestead in a buggy, with the object of driving their eldest son Herman a distance of four or five miles to the selection of a farmer in whose employ he was. This Sunday trip was quite an institution in the Noack household, so that there was no particular significance about the absence of the parents at the time of the tragic event. Percy Noack, a bright and intelligent youngster of 15, with a great predilection for parrot-shooting, was left in charge of the premises in the company of his sister Edith, (aged seven and the "baby" of the family) for whom he entertained a most passionate affection. Mr. Noack's parting instruction to his son Percy was to round up the horses on the farm and drive them to the water-trough. It will never be known what actually happened after Mr. and Mrs. Noack left the homestead.

The logical deduction to be drawn from the evidence accumulated by Detective Desmoy is that, having carried out the instructions in reference to the watering of the horses, Percy shouldered his pea-rifle and started out into the bush with "Baby" Noack, his inseparable companion, in search of something to shoot. Soon after dusk Mr. and Mrs. Noack returned to the homestead, and, somewhat alarmed at the unusual absence of the children, they decided to drive along the main road, hoping to meet the daring young truants gaily plodding their way back to the family nest. They had not proceeded very far, however, when the horse flung back his ears, and shied so violently as to nearly precipitate the occupants on to the track. Fearing they knew not what, Mr. and Mrs. Noack descended from the buggy, and huddled proceeded half-a-dozen yards before they encountered the appalling spectacle of the bodies of both the missing children, lying rigid and pulseless on the roadside. The dead children were, lying close to one another, each with a bullet wound in the centre of the forehead. The body of the boy Percy was cold as marble, and rigor mortis had already set in, but the recumbent remains of "Baby" Noack were still warm, though pulseless, and her face turned towards the flickering lights in the western sky. A half-eaten pomerraine rested against her upturned face, pitiful evidence of her occupation at the moment when the summons reached her from the Angel of Death.

On the assumption that "Baby" Noack was still alive, and might be dragged back from the jaws of death by medical skill, Mr. Noack decided to

TRAGEDY AT PINGELLY

The Horrifying Death of Percy and Baby Noack

Brother and Sister Found Dead in the Bush—With Bullets Embedded in Their Brains—The Official Explanation Of a Most Mysterious Occurrence.

Pingelly, an important agricultural centre on the Great Southern line, was the scene, last Sunday evening, of an awful double tragedy, involving the death of the two youngest children of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Noack, residents of East Brookton. The real facts will probably never become known, though it has been possible for the police to piece together link by link a continuous chain of convincing evidence of one of the most sorrowful fatalities ever chronicled in the annals of Westralian life.

The details of the incident are peculiarly sorrowful and heart-rending. It appears that, at 5 o'clock last Sunday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Noack left the homestead in a buggy, with the object of driving their eldest son Herman a distance of four or five miles to the selection of a farmer in whose employ he was. This Sunday trip was quite an institution in the Noack household so that there was no particular significance about the absence of the parents at the time of the tragic event. Percy Noack, a bright and intelligent youngster of 15 with a great predilection for parrot-shooting, was left in charge of the premises in the company of his sister Edith (aged seven and the "baby" of the family) for whom he entertained a most passionate affection. Mr. Noack's parting instruction to his son Percy was to round up the horses on the farm and drive them to the water-trough. It will never be known what actually happened after Mr. and Mrs. Noack left the homestead.

by medical skill, Mr. Noack decided to seek the assistance of Mr. James Greay, of Mourambine, leaving the grief-stricken mother to keep watch by the lifeless bodies of her dead off-spring. Her sensations during that dreadful vigil may be more readily imagined than described. About 9 p.m. Mr. and Mrs. Greay arrived on the scene, in company with Mr. Noack, the eldest son of Mr. Greay meantime riding post-haste to Pingelly, to requisition the services of Dr. Corley and Constable Carroll. Dr. Corley at once pronounced life to be extinct, and hazarded the opinion that death had been practically instantaneous in both cases. Dr. Corley satisfied himself "Baby" Noack had not been violated, and concluded the catastrophe was the consequence of an accident. The peculiar position occupied by the pea-rifle gave rise to the suggestion that a foul and brutal murder had been committed. The stock of the rifle was found under the boy's legs, whilst the barrel was picked up about equi-distant between the bodies.

A Pingelly telegram advises us that the theory of Detective Dempsey, a most accomplished sleuth, is that, having accidentally discharged the contents of the rifle into the forehead of his sister, Percy frantically re-loaded the weapon, and then turned it on himself, the bullet finding its billet in almost the same position as that which so tragically ended the earthly career of "Baby" Noack. As the leaden missive entered his brain, the rifle fell from his hand, the concussion causing the barrel to leave the stock. The ordinary pea-rifle is a particularly fragile contrivance, and it is possible to demonstrate by actual experiment that this breakage will occur nearly every time under similar circumstances. The fact that "Baby" Noack's body was still warm and "glowing" when the bereaved parents came across it on the roadside was first construed into a physiological phenomenon, strongly suggestive of murder. The medical opinion is that "Baby" Noack lived longer than her brother Percy after the bullet entered her brain, whilst in Percy's case it cut through a vein which caused an immediate effusion of blood into the cerebellum. However, at the time of writing, there does not appear to be any substantial reason to support the theory of murder. The deplorable fatality apparently occurred in the manner already described in this article.

reason to support the theory of murder. The deplorable fatality apparently occurred in the manner already described in this article.

The victims of the tragedy were buried at Pingelly on Tuesday afternoon, in the presence of a large concourse of spectators, many of whom travelled a great distance to testify their grief and sorrow with the parents in their irreparable bereavement. The inquest opened on Monday last by Mr. C. A. Naylor, J.P., will be continued on Tuesday next, when, if no fresh facts are brought to light, a verdict will probably be recorded in accordance with the facts set out herein.

The logical deduction to be drawn from the evidence accumulated by Detective Dempsey is that, having carried out the instructions in reference to the watering of the horses, Percy shouldered his pea-rifle and started out into the bush with "Baby" Noack, his inseparable companion, in search of something to shoot. Soon after dusk Mr. and Mrs. Noack returned to the homestead, and, somewhat alarmed at the unusual absence of the children, they decided to drive along the main road, hoping to meet the daring young truants gaily plodding their way back to the family nest. They had not proceeded very far, however, when the horse flung back his ears, and shied so violently as to nearly precipitate the occupants on to the track. Fearing they knew not what, Mr. and Mrs. Noack descended from the buggy, and hadn't proceeded half-a-dozen yards before they encountered the appalling spectacle of the bodies of both missing children, lying rigid and pulseless on the roadside. The dead children were lying close to one another, each with a bullet wound in the centre of the forehead. The body of the boy Percy was cold as marble, and rigor mortis had already set in, but the recumbent remains of "Baby" Noack were still warm, though pulseless, and her face turned towards the flickering lights in the western sky. A half-eaten pomegranate rested against her upturned face, pitiful evidence of her occupation at the moment when the summons reached her from the Angel of Death.

On the assumption that "Baby" Noack was still alive, and might be dragged back from the jaws of death by medical skill, Mr. Noack decided to seek the assistance of Mr. James Greay, of Mourambine, leaving the grief-stricken mother to keep watch by the lifeless bodies of her dead off-spring. Her sensations during that dreadful vigil may be more readily imagined than described. About 9 p.m. Mr. and Mrs. Greay arrived on the scene, in company with Mr. Noack, the eldest son of Mr. Greay meantime riding post-haste to Pingelly, to requisition the services of Dr. Corley and Constable Carroll. Dr. Corley at once pronounced life to be extinct, and hazarded the opinion that, death had been practically instantaneous in both cases. Dr. Corley satisfied himself "Baby" Noack had not been violated, and concluded the catastrophe was the consequence of an accident. The peculiar position occupied by the pea-rifle gave rise to the suggestion that a foul and brutal murder had been committed. The stock of the rifle was found under the boy's legs, whilst the barrel was picked up about equi-distant between the bodies.

A Pingelly telegram advises us that the theory of Detective Dempsey, a most accomplished sleuth, is that, having accidentally discharged the contents of the rifle into the forehead of his sister, Percy frantically re-loaded the weapon, and then turned it on himself, the bullet finding its billet in almost the same position as that which so tragically ended the earthly career of "Baby" Noack. As the leaden missive entered his brain, the rifle fell from his hand, the concussion causing the barrel to leave the stock. The ordinary pea-rifle is a particularly fragile contrivance, and it is possible to demonstrate by actual experiment that this breakage will occur nearly every time under similar circumstances. The fact that "Baby" Noack's body was still warm and "glowing", when the bereaved parents came across it on the roadside was first construed into a physiological phenomenon, strongly suggestive of murder. The medical opinion is that "Baby" Noack lived longer than her brother Percy after the bullet entered her brain, whilst in Percy's case it cut through a vein which caused an immediate effusion of blood into the cerebellum. However, at the time of writing, there does not appear to be any substantial reason to support the theory of murder. The deplorable fatality apparently occurred in the manner already described in this article.

The victims of the tragedy were buried at Pingelly on Tuesday afternoon, in the presence of a large concourse of spectators, many of whom travelled a great distance to testify their grief and sorrow with the parents in their irreparable bereavement. The inquest opened on Monday last by Mr. G. A. Naylor, J.P., will be continued on Tuesday next, when, if no fresh facts are brought to light, a verdict will probably be recorded in accordance with the facts set out herein.

<https://www.findagrave.com/memorial/99249407/percival-noack>

Electoral Roll

1903 Martin Christian Noack, Buninyong, Ballarat, VIC, gardener, Adelaide, home duties.

1910, 1936 Martin Christian Noack, Brookton, WA, farmer, Adelaide, home duties.

ZENOBIA WINIFRED BROUN (1897-1978) Herman Keith Noack's mother

Zenobia Winifred Broun was born 1897, Beverley, WA [Reg. 11]. Parents: m2. CHARLES MCBRYDE BROUN (1864-1943) and MARY CHARLOTTE ALLEN (1877-1943). Zenobia died 16 Jul 1978, Karrinyup, WA [Reg.].

m1. CHARLES MCBRYDE BROUN (1864-1943) married ELIZABETH AGNES FEENEY (1875-1893) 2 Jun 1892, York, WA [Reg. 196]. Registered as Elizabeth Feeney. Following the death of his wife Agnes aged 17 years, Charles married again.

m2. CHARLES MCBRYDE BROUN (1864-1943) and MARY CHARLOTTE ALLEN (1877-1943) who were married 1 Jan 1895, Beverley, WA [Reg.505].

CHILDREN OF CHARLES MCBRYDE BROUN (1864-1943) AND MARY CHARLOTTE ALLEN (1877-1943), Herman Keith Noack's maternal grandparents.

Zenobia was the eldest of ten children all born in Beverley, WA. Names as registered for their birth.

1. ZENOBIA WINNIFRED BROUN (1897-1978),
2. HERMAN OSWALD BROUN (1898-1977),
3. OSMUND BADEN BROUN (1900-1973),
4. RODERICK NICHOLAS BROUN (1902-1971),
5. ALARIC CLINTON BROUN (1904-1982),
6. VICTOR WALWIN BROUN (1905-1995),
7. MCBRYDE CLEMENT BROUN (1907-1989),
8. ALDRICK MELVIN BROUN (1910-2004),
9. ALMA DORETHEA BROUN (1912-2005), and
10. RITA BERYL BROUN (1921-1960).

m3. CHARLES MCBRYDE BROUN (1864-1943) married m2. DOROTHY AVES (1894-1983). I can't find a registration for a marriage.

m1. DOROTHY AVES (1894-1983) married JOHN CASHEN (1872-1925).

Emigration: Dorothy arrived Albany 19 Apr 1925. I can't find a marriage registration.

Dorothy and John Aves had one child: 1. PETER JOHN CASHEN (1925-1994).

Following the death of her partner John Cashen, Dorothy married again.

CHILDREN OF MARTIN 'HERMAN' CHRISTIAN NOACK (1891-1974) AND ZENOBIA WINIFRED BROWN (1897-1978) 'Winnie'

1. CHARLES MARTIN NOACK (1922-2012) married RUBY JOYCE SCOTT (1922-1948) 1946, Perth, WA [Reg. 879].

2. AILEEN DOROTHEA NOACK (1924-2009) married LAURENCE JOHN HICKEY (1918-1996) 1953, Perth, WA [Reg. 2405].

3. HERMAN KEITH NOACK (1928-2020) married DAWN AUDREY BLECHYNDEN (1930-) 1952, Perth, WA [Reg. 2564].

4. GORDON CHRISTIAN NOACK (1932-2006) married AILEEN VALERIE HIGGINS 1955, Beverley, WA [Reg. 22].

5. MARY WINIFRED NOACK

CHILDREN OF DAWN AUDREY BLECHYNDEN AND HERMAN KEITH NOACK: Beverley, Carol and Yvonne Noack.

Following his service in WW1, George Blechynden, signed up a second time to serve in WW2.

21 Jun 1943, signed his Attestation Papers, 31 Jun 1944, to Reserve. BLECHYNDEN GEORGE: Service Number - W84297: Date of birth - 2 Aug 1894: Place of birth - BEVERLEY WA: Place of enlistment - PINGELLY WA: Next of Kin - BLECHYNDEN MABEL.

*George Blechynden and Mabel Esther (nee Turpin).
Courtesy Margaret Smith*

*Angela Blechynden and Mabel
Blechynden (nee Turpin).
Courtesy Angela Blechynden*

*Mabel Esther Blechynden
(nee Turpin), The Hancock Story.*

Electoral Roll:

1925 Blechynden George, Gingaring, Pingelly, farmer, Mabel Esther, same address, home duties
1937 Blechynden George, Raglan St. Pingelly, labourer, Mabel Esther, same address, home duties
1943 Blechynden George, Pingelly, Farmer, Mabel Esther, same address, home duties
1972 Blechynden George, Parker St, Pingelly, Mabel Esther, same address

INTERVIEW WITH GEORGE BLECHYNDEN RE HIS FAMILY AND EARLY LIFE IN PINGELLY.

This is duplicated at the end of the chapters on Harrison Blechynden and Charlotte Robus.

1987, English, Book edition: [Interview with George Bruce Blechynden] / [interviewed by Chris Jeffery]. <https://trove.nla.gov.au/work/159320946?q&versionId=173666673>

The full typed out version of this interview covers eight pages so is not included here. It mainly outlines George's, son of Joseph introduced above, and his family's life in the Pingelly area.

His Grandfather Harrison Blechynden is mentioned in the extract below. As written above, schooling for most people was virtually non-existent in those days. In the interview George says of his father Joseph: "My father had no education at all, only what he could pick up from reading books. He could just sign his name". George stated his own education was limited and that he only attended school for "one and a half years".

Life in the colony was fraught with hardship and difficulty in those days. Harrison worked hard to make a life for his family. As the boys (George's uncles) came of age and left one by one, Harrison would very- likely have come across as grumpy and disillusioned in later years which could explain George's unfortunate understanding of his grandfather.

George Blechynden was born twenty-one years after his grandfather's death, and never knew Harrison Blechynden. His understanding of the difficulties under which the colony developed was through his father Joseph's experiences growing up in the Beverley and Pingelly district and stories he had been told. Impressions, memories and stories often become exaggerated over time so we hope Harrison was not like the impression George was given of him.

EXTRACT FROM ORAL HISTORY RECORD
BATTYE LIBRARY REF. C, H //Btr FC
George Blechynden (2 Aug 1894 – BEVERLEY – SON OF JOSEPH)
INTERVIEW BY CHRIS JEFFREY 1976

*MY FATHERS FORBEARS THE BLECHYNDENS ALSO ARRIVED IN 1830 IN THE Minstrel SAILING SHIP
MY FATHERS FATHER WAS A HIGHLY EDUCATED MAN BUT HE SETTLED IN THE BUSH SOMEWHERE OUT FROM BEVERLEY AND HE HARDLY GAVE THE FAMILY A CIVIL WORD.
THE CHILDREN DRIFTED AWAY FROM HOME AS SOON AS THEY WERE OLD ENOUGH TO EARN A FEW SHILLINGS FOR THEMSELVES.
MY FATHER LIVED IN BEVERLEY UNTIL HE MARRIED AND SHIFTED OUT HERE.
(PINGELLY)*

EXTRACT FROM ORAL HISTORY RECORD
BATTYE LIBRARY REF. C, H //Btr FC
GEORGE BLECHYNDEN (b 2 AUG 1894 - BEVERLEY - SON OF JOSEPH)
INTERVIEW BY CHRIS JEFFREY 1976

"MY FATHERS FORBEARS THE BLECHYNDENS ALSO ARRIVED IN 1830 IN THE 'MINSTREL' SAILING SHIP. MY FATHERS FATHER WAS A HIGHLY EDUCATED MAN BUT HE SETTLED IN THE BUSH SOMEWHERE OUT FROM BEVERLEY AND HE HARDLY GAVE THE FAMILY A CIVIL WORD. THE CHILDREN DRIFTED AWAY FROM HOME AS SOON AS THEY WERE OLD ENOUGH TO EARN A FEW SHILLINGS FOR THEMSELVES. MY FATHER LIVED IN BEVERLEY UNTIL HE MARRIED AND SHIFTED OUT HERE." (PINGELLY)

EXTRACT FROM THE 'INQUIRER' 30/7/1873.
BATTYE LIBRARY REF. PR 341
OBITUARY
AT HIS RESIDENCE BEVERLEY JULY 17 1873.
HARRISON, ONLY SON OF THE LATE JOHN BLECHYNDEN ESQ. OF BONNINGTON KENT. THE DECEASED WAS BORN AT CANTERBURY KENT ENGLAND APRIL 26 1802.
SEE ALSO W.A.R.S. 43/1830

SECOND CHILD OF JOSEPH BLECHYNDEN & GRACE HANCOCK

2. BLECHYNDEN, GRACE (1899-1989) & WORNER, CLAUDE JAMES (1899-1945)

Grace Blechynden was born 26 Nov 1899, 'Oakdale', Beverley, WA [Reg. 5], named after her mother. Grace Worner (nee Blechynden) died 18 Jul 1989, in Bentley, WA. Buried, York Cemetery, WA.

Grace Blechynden, July 1917

Her very early life was spent in the Beverley District. When she was approximately five years of age her parents moved to 'Gingaring', a farming property in the Aldersyde area. This locality was extremely isolated at the time. Grace remained on the farm for most of her early adult life assisting her parents with the task of operating their property. This was particularly the case while her brother was away at the First World War. For a time, she did work at the small general store at Lomas, a siding on the old (now closed) Brookton-Corrigin railway line.

Letters to Aunt Mary, Children's column:

Letters to Aunt Mary \(thedustybox.com\)

On 29 Jul 1898, a letter was printed in the Western Mail and was written using the pseudonym 'Aunt Mary.' Addressed to the children of WA, the writer asked for help to fill that column of the newspaper. They hoped that children would send in stories, letters, questions, poetry, compositions (anything they liked) as long as it was their work. As an added incentive, children who wrote well could find themselves in receipt of a prize.

The many newspaper articles found in Trove show that Grace, as many other young people wrote to Aunt Mary's Letter Bag and received replies from her. Grace was very enthusiastic and enjoyed encouraging others to join. Her letters show she was aware of the war and wrote that her brother George had been injured. She helped raise money for the Silver Chain. These are just a few of the articles.

Western Mail (Perth, WA: 1885 - 1954), Sat 12 Aug 1911, pg 42

12 Aug 1911 - Sends a Little Story. \(nla.gov.au\)

Sends a Little Story.

Gingaring.

My Dear Aunt Mary, - I am sending along a little story. I hope you will think it good enough for the Children's Corner! It is the first I have tried to write. I wrote to you last week, so there is not much to tell you. Hoping that Nurse and all the sick children are well. - I remain, your loving niece, GRACIE BLECHYNDEN.

My birthday is the 26th of November. I am 11 years old.

My Dear Gracie, - I was so pleased to get your little story and will be pleased to publish it in the "Western Mail." I got your letter, dear, and subscription. with love from us all. I put your birthday in our big book. - I remain, yours affectionately, AUNT MARY Sends a Little Story.

Gingaring.
My Dear Aunt Mary,—I am sending along a little story. I hope you will think it good enough for the Children's Corner; it is the first I have tried to write. I wrote to you last week, so there is not much to tell you. Hoping that Nurse and all the sick children are well.—I remain, your loving niece, GRACIE BLECHYNDEN.
My birthday is the 26th of November. I am 11 years old.
My Dear Gracie,—I was so pleased to get your little story and will be pleased to publish it in the "Western Mail." I got your letter, dear, and subscription. With love from us all. I put your birthday in our big book.—I remain, yours affectionately, AUNT MARY.

Western Mail (Perth, WA: 1885 - 1954), Sat 25 Sep 1909, pg 42

25 Sep 1909 - Sends 25s. \(nla.gov.au\)

Sends 25s.

Gingaring-August 25.

My Dear Aunt Mary. - I enclose you one pound that I have collected, together with a list of names of all those who so kindly helped me. I also send 5s. for links. If I send their names and addresses, will you please send their membership buttons. I am sure Donnie, Bessie, and Davee are looking forward to them; I am looking forward to getting mine. I hope to be able to send you another pound soon. I have 11s. collected, and will send it along by and bye. I hope Nurse and all the sick children are doing nicely. Mother and I went for a holiday; we saw George; he is growing such a tall boy, and doing nicely at school. I will now close, -
With love from your loving niece, GRACIE BLECHYNDEN.

Collection: -E. H. Hancock, 1s.; P. Smith, 1s.; W. S. Price, 2s. 8d. ; Mr. Rumley, 2s. : A. Walton, 1s. ; S. H. Edwards, 2s. 6d.; W. E. Edwards, 1s. 6d.; Chas. Overheu, 6d. ; B. Bransby, 2s. ; J. Adams, 1s.; Mr. Ovenheu, 1s.; E. R. Beard, 6d.; Gracie Blechynden, 1s.; father and mother, 2s. 6d. ; total, £1.

Perth, September 13.

My Dear Gracie, - You have worked faithfully and well to have collected the 25s., which arrived safely; and fancy you collecting still another pound! It is good of you, and will indeed come in usefully. The buttons will all be sent out as soon as they are ready. I am always going to wear one, too. I am so glad to hear how well George is growing, and also to hear that you and your mother had a holiday together. It must have been lovely. Mothers are the best things in all the world. - With love, I am. yours lovingly, AUNT MARY.

Sends 25s.
Gingaring, August 25.
My Dear Aunt Mary,—I enclose you one pound that I have collected, together with a list of names of all those who so kindly helped me. I also send 5s. for links. If I send their names and addresses, will you please send their membership buttons. I am sure Donnie, Bessie, and Davee are looking forward to them; I am looking forward to getting mine. I hope to be able to send you another pound soon. I have 11s. collected, and will send it along by and bye. I hope Nurse and all the sick children are doing nicely. Mother and I went for a holiday; we saw George; he is growing such a tall boy, and doing nicely at school. I will now close,—With love from your loving niece, GRACIE BLECHYNDEN.
Collection:—E. H. Hancock, 1s.; P. Smith, 1s.; W. S. Price, 2s. 8d.; Mr. Rumley, 2s.; A. Walton, 1s.; S. H. Edwards, 2s. 6d.; W. E. Edwards, 1s. 6d.; Chas. Overheu, 6d.; B. Bransby, 2s.; J. Adams, 1s.; Mr. Ovenheu, 1s.; E. R. Beard, 6d.; Gracie Blechynden, 1s.; father and mother, 2s. 6d.; total, £1.
Perth, September 13.
My Dear Gracie,—You have worked faithfully and well to have collected the 25s., which arrived safely; and fancy you collecting still another pound! It is good of you, and will indeed come in usefully. The buttons will all be sent out as soon as they are ready. I am always going to wear one, too. I am so glad to hear how well George is growing, and also to hear that you and your mother had a holiday together. It must have been lovely. Mothers are the best things in all the world.
—With love, I am. yours
lovingly, AUNT MARY.

Western Mail (Perth, WA: 1885 - 1954), Sat 20 Nov 1909, pg 42

20 Nov 1909 - Received Her Bracelet Safely. \(nla.gov.au\)

Received Her Bracelet Safely.

Gingaring, November 9.

Dear Aunt Mary, - I received the bracelet safely some time ago, and am delighted with it. We all think it very pretty. Thank you so much for it. I prize it very much. Dear Aunt, I wrote to you some time ago, and sent stamps, 1s. 6d. for a link. I have not seen the letter in print. I think the letter must have gone astray. The new link's address is, Miss Julia Walton, Woglyn, via., Quairading. I think the summer is near now, it is getting very warm. How nice it must be for the sick now the winter is over, especially those who are well enough to go for a drive with Nurse. I suppose the Xmas Tree will be for the little children who are in Nurse's charge. I would like to send something for the trees. Will toys do, or must it be clothes? I must now say good-bye, dear Auntie, hoping you are all well. Love to Nurse and yourself, from, - your loving niece,
GRACE BLECHYNDEN.

Received Her Bracelet Safely.
Gingaring, November 9.
Dear Aunt Mary,—I received the bracelet safely some time ago, and am delighted with it. We all think it very pretty. Thank you so much for it. I prize it very much. Dear Aunt, I wrote to you some time ago, and sent stamps, 1s. 6d. for a link. I have not seen the letter in print. I think the letter must have gone astray. The new link's address is, Miss Julia Walton, Woglyn, via., Quairading. I think the summer is near now, it is getting very warm. How nice it must be for the sick now the winter is over, especially those who are well enough to go for a drive with Nurse. I suppose the Xmas Tree will be for the little children who are in Nurse's charge. I would like to send something for the trees. Will toys do, or must it be clothes? I must now say good-bye, dear Auntie, hoping you are all well. Love to Nurse and yourself, from, your loving niece, GRACE BLECHYNDEN.
P.S.—George got a prize for his transcription book at the Beverley Show.
Perth, November 15.
My Dear Gracie,—Thank you for your letter. I am glad you got your bracelet safely and like it. I shall be so grateful if you can make or send something for the Tree. Toys or any little thing would do, have gone astray. The card shall go to the new link, who is very welcome. I am so pleased to get her to join. The weather is lovely in Perth now, and should do all the patients good. Congratulate George for me on winning a prize at the Beverley Show. With love from us all.
I remain,—
yours lovingly, AUNT MARY.

*P.S.-George got a prize for his transcription book at the Beverley Show.
Perth, November 15.*

My Dear Gracie, - Thank you for your letter. I am glad you got your bracelet safely and like it. I shall be so grateful if you can make or send something for the tree. Toys or any little thing would do beautifully. I am afraid your letter must have gone astray. The card shall go to the new link, who is very welcome. I am so pleased to get her to join. The weather is lovely in Perth now, and should do all the patients good. Congratulate Georgie for me on winning a prize at the Beverley Show. With love from us all.

I remain. -

yours lovingly, AUNT MARY.

Western Mail (Perth, WA: 1885 - 1954), Fri 20 Apr 1917, pg 42
20 Apr 1917 - Sends £4 Os. 6d., the Result of an Easter Effort. \(nla.gov.au\)

Sends £4 Os. 6d., the Result of an Easter Effort.

Gingaring, East Pingelly, Apr 13.

Dear Aunt Mary, -Please find enclosed cheque for £4 Os- 6d. being the proceeds of our usual Easter raffle. I sold 92 tickets at 1s. Then I had 3s given, and 1s. my own subscription, which makes £4 16s. I had to pay 15s. 6d. for the article-which was raffled. The balance, £4 Os. 6d., I am now sending along to you. I have done better this year than ever before, although there are so many calls for people's money. Still, everybody seems ready to give. We have just received word that my brother has been wounded in France. We do not know if it is serious, and we are very anxious to know. Well, good-bye, dear Auntie, for this time. I remain. - Your loving niece,

GRACE BLECHYNDEN.

My dear Grace, -It was very, very good of you to get up the Easter raffle, and help the work so materially. We are all so grateful to you for your kindness. The £4 Os. 6d- came safely, and is a delightful gift. I think it was wonderful that you were able to sell so many tickets. It is really unselfish work selling tickets. I am grieved to hear about your brother having been wounded, and do hope by this time you have had reassuring news of him. With love and many thanks. I remain, - Yours lovingly, AUNT MARY.

Sends £4 Os. 6d., the Result of an Easter Effort.

*Gingaring, East Pingelly, April 13.
Dear Aunt Mary, -Please find enclosed cheque for £4 Os. 6d., being the proceeds of our usual Easter raffle. I sold 92 tickets at 1s. Then I had 3s. given, and 1s. my own subscription, which makes £4 16s. I had to pay 15s. 6d. for the article which we raffled. The balance, £4 Os. 6d., I am now sending along to you. I have done better this year than ever before, although there are so many calls for people's money. Still, everybody seems ready to give. We have just received word that my brother has been wounded in France. We do not know if it is serious, and we are very anxious to know. Well, good-bye, dear Auntie, for this time. I remain, -Your loving niece,*

GRACE BLECHYNDEN.

My dear Grace, -It was very, very good of you to get up the Easter raffle, and help the work so materially. We are all so grateful to you for your kindness. The £4 Os. 6d. came safely, and is a delightful gift. I think it was wonderful that you were able to sell so many tickets. It is really unselfish work selling tickets. I am grieved to hear about your brother having been wounded, and do hope by this time you have had reassuring news of him. With love and many thanks. I remain, -Yours lovingly, AUNT MARY.

Western Mail (Perth, WA: 1885 - 1954), Fri 2 Aug 1918, pg 30.

02 Aug 1918 - OUR LETTER BAG. \(nla.gov.au\)

OUR LETTER BAG.

A Letter from Gingaring.

Gingaring, July 7

Dear Aunt Mary, - Would you please send my brother and little Lennie's buttons along. I sent down their subscriptions some time ago and received the receipt. Lennie is very anxious to have his badge. It was terribly sad about Miss Ellison-Macartney, wasn't it? and she seemed so much beloved by all who knew her. My brother says he has often seen her down at the Base working away for the soldier boys. There are many sad hearts in the world these times, are there not Aunt Mary? The Silver Chain has grown into a very long chain now, hasn't it? One can hardly realise that it all comes from shillings and pennies collected by children throughout the State. Fancy being able to support four nurses and house for some of the poor old folks. Well, dear Aunt, I will close now. - I remain your loving niece,
 GRACE BLECHYNDEN

My Dear Grace, - I do hope little Lennie has got his button, etc. safely. Everyone felt Miss Ellison-Macartney's death as a personal sorrow, she was so much beloved and people would have given anything to show his Excellency and Lady Ellison-Macartney the deep sympathy they felt. It would not do for us to be able to realise all the suffering there is in the world just now. When will it end? The Silver Chain gets stronger and longer every year and I feel there is no end to the good work that it will carry on in the future. - With love, dear Grace, I remain yours, lovingly, AUNT MARY.

Via Jacqui Graham.

Love this! A quaint connection between my LEE line with the BLECHYNDEN family. The author, Grace BLECHYNDEN (1889-1989) is the daughter of Joseph and Grace Emma HANCOCK. HJ LEE refers to Henry James the brother of Ivy Adeline who married John Thomas STEWART - attached to my direct line.

Western Mail (Perth, WA: 1885 - 1954), Thu 10 Jun 1920, pg 38.

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article37455848.txt>

£1 9s. An Easter Present to the Silver Chain.

Gingaring, April 26.

OUR LETTER BAG.

A Letter from Gingaring.

Gingaring July 7

Dear Aunt Mary,—Would you please send my brother and little Lennie's buttons along. I sent down their subscriptions some time ago and received the receipt. Lennie is very anxious to have her badge. It was terribly sad about Miss Ellison-Macartney, wasn't it? and she seemed so much beloved by all who knew her. My brother says he has often seen her down at the Base working away for the soldier boys. There are many sad hearts in the world these times, are there not Aunt Mary? The Silver Chain has grown into a very long chain now, hasn't it? One can hardly realise that it all comes from shillings and pennies collected by children throughout the State. Fancy being able to support four nurses and a home for some of the poor old folk. Well, dear Aunt, I will close now.—I remain your loving niece,
 GRACE BLECHYNDEN]

DEN.

My Dear Grace,—I do hope little Lennie got his button, etc. safely. Everyone felt Miss Ellison-Macartney's death as a personal sorrow, she was so much beloved and people would have given anything to show his Excellency and Lady Ellison-Macartney the deep sympathy they felt. It would not do for us to be able to realise all the suffering there is in the world just now. When will it end? The Silver Chain gets stronger and longer every year now and I feel there is no end to the good work that it will carry on in the future.—With love, dear Grace, I remain yours, lovingly, AUNT MARY.

Dear Aunt Mary. -Please find enclosed cheque for the sum of £1 9s. Twenty-two shillings proceeds from the Easter rattle which we held as usual on Easter Monday, 4s. subscriptions from mother, George, H. J. Lee and myself. I think they are just about due now and 2s. for May Leslie for last year and this and please send her calendar to c/o G. A. Leslie, Trayning as they are living up there now. I have one more new link, her name is Joan Ellingham, address Aldersyde via Brookton. I am sorry I have not been able to get more money this year for the league, but we did not run the Christmas tree this year, still others did and the money went to the Silver Chain so it's all the same, isn't it? Would you please send me a calendar. Goodbye for this time. Trusting all are well.

-I remain, your sincere Link, GRACE BLECHYNDEN.

My dear Grace. It was lovely of you to again remember us at Easter. The £1 9s has arrived and was a delightful surprise. Many thanks for your help and interest. Also thank you so much for enclosing the 4s. subscriptions and give my love and thanks to your mother. George, Mr. Lee, and accept the same for your dear self. The calendars shall be posted to Mr. Leslie and Joan. It is quite the same, whoever makes the effort, the movement benefits. You shall have your calendar, with love

-I remain, yours affectionately, AUNT MARY.

£1 9s. An Easter Present to the Silver Chain.

Gingaring, April 26.

Dear Aunt Mary.—Please find enclosed cheque for the sum of £1 9s. Twenty-two shillings proceeds from the Easter rattle which we held as usual on Easter Monday, 4s. subscriptions from mother, George, H. J. Lee and myself. I think they are just about due now and 2s. for May Leslie for last year and this and please send her calendar to c/o G. A. Leslie, Trayning as they are living up there now. I have one more new link, her name is Joan Ellingham, address Aldersyde via Brookton. I am sorry I have not been able to get more money this year for the league, but we did not run the Christmas tree this year, still others did and the money went to the Silver Chain so it's all the same isn't it? Would you please send me a calendar. Goodbye for this time. Trusting all are well. I remain, your sincere Link, GRACE BLECHYNDEN.

My dear Grace.—It was lovely of you to again remember us at Easter. The £1 9s. arrived and was a delightful surprise. Many thanks for your help and interest. Also thank you so much for enclosing the 4s. subscriptions and give my love and thanks to your mother, George, Mr. Lee, and accept the same for your dear self. The calendars shall be posted to Mr. Leslie and Joan. It is quite the same, whoever makes the effort, the movement benefits. You shall have your calendar, with love

-I remain, yours affectionately, AUNT MARY.

GRACE BLECHYNDEN (1899-1989) married CLAUDE JAMES WORNER (1899-1945), 8 Feb 1934, St Hilda's Anglican Church, North Perth, WA [Reg. 411].

West Australian (Perth, WA: 1879 - 1954), Fri 23 Feb 1934, pg 1.

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article32788616.txt>

WORNER—BLECHYNDEN. — On February 8, at St. Hilda's Church, North Perth, by the Rev. Patrick, Claude James, of Lomos, third son of Mrs. and the late George Gordon Worner, to Grace, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs Joseph Blechynden of Pingelly.

WORNER—BLECHYNDEN.—On February 8, at St. Hilda's Church, North Perth, by the Rev. Patrick, Claude James, of Lomos, third son of Mrs. and the late George Gordon Worner, to Grace, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Blechynden, of Pingelly.

WORNER, CLAUDE JAMES (1899-1945)

Claude James Worner was born 1899, Jarrahdale, WA [Reg. 2413], father, GEORGE GORDON WORNER (1865-1930), mother, ELIZABETH MARIE JAMES (1867-1942) who were married 1887, VIC [Reg. 4196]. Registered as Elizabeth Mary James. Claude died 14 Sep 1945, Burges Siding York, WA [Reg. 23].

Claude James Worner

WW1: Served overseas. Attestation paper, 1 Apr 1916. Clerk. Embarked on Argyllshire, 1 Nov 1916. SERN 6172: POB Jarrahdale WA: POE Perth WA: NOK F Worner George

Claude James Worner's record of service can be viewed via the National Archives. See

<https://recordsearch.naa.gov.au/SearchNRetrieve/Interface/ViewImage.aspx?B=3443972>

The following two pages contain details of Claude James Worner's parents, GEORGE GORDON WORNER (1865-1930) and ELIZABETH MARIE JAMES (1867-1942):

WORNER, GEORGE GORDON (1865-1930), Claude James Worner 's father was born 1865, Forbes, NSW [Reg. 11083], son of WILLIAM WORNER (1836-1882) and DOROTHY GIMESON (1844-1924) who were married 8 Jul 1862, Beechwood, VIC [Reg. 2622]. William Worner arrived via the Hindustan from London to Sydney, 12 Feb 1857. George Gordon Worner died 6 Oct 1930, 182, Railway Pde, West Leederville, WA. [Reg. 1670].

JAMES, ELIZABETH MARIE (1867-1942) Claude James Worner 's mother (via Simmonds family Tree, Ancestry) was born 1867, Sandhurst, VIC [Reg.10904], parents: CHARLES JAMES (1840-1866) and SARAH MCTAVISH (1845-1938). Elizabeth Marie Worner (nee James) died 2 Mar 1942, Perth, WA [Reg. 481]. Note: Her father Charles died 16 Dec 1866, Tupra Station, NSW, from drowning – details of drowning unknown. That would have been only months before Elizabeth was born.

CHILDREN OF GEORGE GORDON WORNER (1865-1930) AND ELIZABETH MARIE JAMES (1867-1942):

1. WILLIAM 'GORDON' WORNER (1888-1961) was born 22 Apr 1888, Kerang, VIC [Reg. 12659]. He married NELLIE PATRICIA HURLEY (1886-1985), 1912, Wellington, WA [Reg. 94]. William died 28 Jul 1961, Perth, WA [Reg. 2095] aged 73 years.

2. CHARLES VERNON WORNER (1889-1963) was born 1889, VIC [Reg. 22990]. He married MARY ELLEN MEARNEY (1890-1980) 'NELL', 14 Jun 1919, West Perth, WA [Reg. 450], registered as Meaney. Charles died 1963, Perth, WA [Reg. 1723].

3. CLAUDE JAMES WORNER (1899-1945) was born 1899, Jarrahdale, WA [Reg. 2413]. He married GRACE BLECHYNDEN 8 Feb 1934, St Hilda's Anglican Church, North Perth, WA [Reg. 411]. Claude died 14 Sep 1945, York, WA [Reg. 23], accident, Burges Siding. Buried at York Cemetery, WA.

4. GEORGE FORBES WORNER (1910-1929) was born 1910, Jarrahdale, WA [Reg. 10]. George died aged 18 years, 10 May 1929, Beverley, WA [Reg. 30].

West Australian (Perth, WA:1879-1954 / Sat 11 May 1929 / Pg 1 / Family Notices

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article32279245.txt>

WORNER — On May 10, 1929, at Bruce Rock Memorial Hospital, George Forbes, dearly beloved son of Mr. and Mrs. George G. Worner, formerly of Jarrahdale, Mundijong and Hines Hill; beloved brother of Gordon, Vernon and Claude, and nephew of Forbes B. Worner of Mt Edgar station, Marble Bar; aged 18 years.

WORNER.—On May 10, 1929, at Bruce Rock Memorial Hospital, George Forbes, dearly beloved son of Mr. and Mrs. George G. Worner, formerly of Jarrahdale, Mundijong and Hines Hill; beloved brother of Gordon, Vernon and Claude, and nephew of Forbes B. Worner of Mt. Edgar station, Marble Bar; aged 18 years.

Electoral Roll:

1912 George Gordon Worner, Mundijong, hotel keeper, Elizabeth Marie, housewife.
1916, 1918 George Gordon Worner, Hines Hill, Publican, Elizabeth Marie, home duties
1925 George Gordon Worner, Lomos, farmer, Elizabeth Marie, home duties

Merredin Mercury and Central Districts Index (WA: 1912 - 1954), Wed 26 Aug 1914, pg 2

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article155995371.txt>

Notice of Application to Remove License to other Premises.

To the Licensing Court for the District of Northam, in Western Australia.

I, GEORGE GORDON WORNER, of Hines Hill, Hotel keeper, the holder of a Publican's General License for the house and premises known as the Hines Hill Hotel, situated at Hines Hill, on Hines Hill Town Lots Nos. 5 and 6, do hereby give notice that it is my intention to apply to the Licensing Court to be held at Northam on the seventh day of September, 1914, to REMOVE the LICENSE to other premises: proposed to be erected in Barrack Street, Merredin, in the said District of Northam, on portion, of Merredin Lot 35. Such proposed premises will be of two stories, built of brick, and will contain three sitting rooms, dining room, billiard room, 26 bedrooms and appurtenances, and will possess the accommodation required by the Licensing Act, 1911, and Amendments.

Dated the twenty first day of August, 1914.

GEO. G. WORNER,
Signature of applicant.

Notice of Application to Remove License to other Premises.

To the Licensing Court for the District of Northam, in Western Australia.

I, GEORGE GORDON WORNER, of Hines Hill, Hotelkeeper, the holder of a Wayside House License for the house and premises known as the Hines Hill Hotel, situated at Hines Hill, on Hines Hill Town Lots Nos. 5 and 6, do hereby give notice that it is my intention to apply to the Licensing Court to be held at Northam on the seventh day of September, 1914, to REMOVE the LICENSE to other premises, proposed to be erected in Barrack Street, Merredin, in the said district of Northam, on portion of Merredin Lot 35. Such proposed premises will be of two stories, built of brick, and will contain three sitting rooms, dining room, billiard room, 26 bedrooms and appurtenances, and will possess the accommodation required by the Licensing Act, 1911, and Amendments.

Dated the twenty-first day of August, 1914.

GEO. G. WORNER.

George Gordon Worner died 6 Oct 1930, 182, Railway Pde, West Leederville, WA. [Reg. 1670].

Elizabeth Marie Worner (nee James) died 2 Mar 1942, Peth, WA [Reg. 481].

*Headstone George Gordon Worner and Elizabeth Marie Worner (nee James).
Courtesy Suzanne Worner.*

GRACE and CLAUDE had one child.

1. WORNER, GORDON JOSEPH (1936) was born in 1936. Due to privacy and confidentiality, we cannot add any more here. Gordon's descendants will be able to add it to their personal story in years to come.

Electoral Roll:

1925, 1931 Blechynden Grace Lyndhurst, Lyndhurst, East Pingelly, home duties
1931 Worner Claude James, Lomos, Farmer
1936 Worner Claude James, Lomos, Farmer, Grace, Lomos, Home duties
1937 Worner Claude James, Lomis, farmer, Grace, via Brookton
1943 Worner Claude James, Greenhills, Wheat trucker, Grace, Greenhills, home duties
1946 Worner Claude James died in 1946
1968, 1972 Worner Grace, 142 Westminster Street, Shop assistant

THE HANCOCK STORY by H L (Mick) KILPATRICK:

Claude was a returned soldier from the First World War, who, under the Repatriation Scheme, was granted a farm at Lomos. It was on this property that he and Grace made their home following their marriage.

Towards the end of the Depression they left the farm and Claude then took a position with Co-Operative Bulk Handling, a firm responsible for building and operating facilities for the bulk handling of grain produced throughout the State. They lived at Greenhills and Claude worked on grain silos at various sidings in the surrounding area, which sometimes necessitated him camping out.

During the years spent in this area Grace worked for a time at the local Post Office and store. She was also very involved with the Red Cross and was one of their staunch supporters, putting in many hours of work on their behalf.

Unfortunately, on the 14th September 1945, Claude James Worner was accidentally killed at Burges' Siding when he slipped and fell from the roof of the grain silo to the concrete floor below. He was then only 46 years of age. His burial took place at York.

Some time after the death of her husband, Grace and their only son moved to the city, living, firstly, in Perth itself. During this time she apparently took in boarders. Later on she resided in East Victoria Park.

For many years she worked as a shop assistant, both at Corots Dress Shop and Aherns. In addition, she spent a time as Assistant Matron at the Girls' Friendly Society Lodge in Adelaide Terrace, Perth.

Grace was a tall woman, of slim build, who enjoyed knitting and sewing. She did quite a lot of dressmaking, making many of her own clothes. One of her great pleasures was attending the ballet.

With advancing years she moved to the Swan Cottage Homes complex at Bentley, where she spent the remainder of her life.

Grace Worner died at Bentley on the 18th July 1989 at the age of 89 years. She was cremated at Fremantle.

An interesting point to note in this particular branch of the family is that all four grandparents of George and Grace Blechynden arrived at the Swan River Colony during the very early months of 1830, so were here virtually from the very foundation of the new settlement.

While it is realized there are other members of the Hancock family who can make the same claim, Grace was extremely proud of this fact about her ancestry and specifically asked that it be included in her story.

CHILDREN OF GRACE AND CLAUDE JAMES WORNER

Gordon Joseph

b.

6th April 1936 Single

OBITUARY

Mr. Claude James Worner

The sudden death of Mr. Claude James Worner, of Greenhills and formerly of Lomos, occurred on Friday morning last as the result of a fall from the roof of a bulk wheat bin at Burges Siding. This happening occurred while he was carrying out his duties in connection with the roofing of a bin.

The deceased gentleman was born at Jarrahdale forty six years ago and was well and favourably known by residents of the districts in which he had resided. Possessing sterling qualities Mr. Worner was held in high esteem by those with whom he associated. During the 1914-1918 war he served with the 28th Battalion and as a mark of respect the flag at the Town Hall was flown at half mast, the casket draped with the Union Jack and the "Last Post" was sounded at the graveside by Mr. H. Wansbrough. Mr. Worner is mourned by his widow and son to whom deepest sympathy in their bereavement has been extended by their many friends.

The funeral, attended by many friends and relatives took place in the Roman Catholic portion of the local cemetery on Sunday afternoon, the Rev. Father F. Regan officiating at the graveside.

The chief mourners were—Widow, Gordon Joseph (son), W. G. Worner (brother), Mesdames W. G. and C. V. Worner (sisters-in-law). Mr. and Mrs.

Worner (sisters-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. G. Blechynden (brother and sister-in-law), Miss P. Smith (niece).

The pall-bearers were—Messrs. J. V. Fairhead, M. Barrett, J. Parker, F. Kilpatrick, R. Jones, H. C. Penny R. St. Jack and J. Loudon.

The funeral arrangements were conducted by Mr. J. L. Wansbrough, undertaker, York.

'The York Chronicle' Office will give you reasonable quotes for all classes of printing.

JOSEPH BLECHYNDEN (1853-1938)

Claude was a returned soldier from the First World War, who, under the Repatriation Scheme was granted a farm at Lomas. It was on this property that he and Grace made their home during their marriage.

Towards the end of the Depression, they left the farm and Claude then took a position with Co-Operative Bulk Handling, a firm responsible for building and operating facilities for the bulk handling of grain produced throughout the State. They lived at Greenhills and Claude worked on grain silos at various sidings in the surrounding area, which sometimes necessitated him camping out

During the years spent in this area Grace worked for a time at the local Post Office and store. She was very involved with the Red Cross and was one of their staunch supporters, putting in many hours of work on their behalf.

Unfortunately, on the 14th September 1946, Claude James Worner was accidentally killed at Burges Siding when he slipped and fell from the roof of the grain silo to the concrete floor below. He was then only 46 years of age. His burial took place in York.

Sometime after the death of her husband, Grace and their only son moved to the city, living, firstly, in Perth itself. During this time, she apparently took in boarders. Later on, she resided in East Victoria Park.

For many years she worked as a shop assistant, both at Corots Dress Shop and Aherns. In addition, she spent a time as Assistant Matron at the Girl's Friendly Society Lodge in Adelaide Terrace Perth.

Grace was a tall woman, of slim build, who enjoyed knitting and sewing. She did a lot of dress making, making many of her own clothes. One of her great pleasures was attending the ballet.

With advancing years, she moved to the Swan Cottage Homes complex at Bentley, where she spent the remainder of her life.

Grace Worner died at Bentley on the 18th Jul 1989 at the age of 89 years. She was cremated at Fremantle.

An interesting point to note in this particular branch of the family is that all four grandparents of George and Grace Blechynden arrived in the Swan River Colony during the early months of 1830, so were here virtually from the very foundations of the new settlement.

While it is realized there are other members of the Hancock family who can make the same claim, Grace was extremely proud of this fact about her ancestry and specifically asked that it be included in her story."

Claude James Worner died 14 Sep 1945, Burges Siding York, WA [Reg. 23]. Grace Worner (nee Blechynden) died 18 Jul 1989, in Bentley, WA. Buried, York Cemetery, WA.

York Chronicle (WA: 1927 - 1954), Fri 21 Sep 1945, pg 3

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article252108127.txt>

OBITUARY

Mr. Claude James Worner

The sudden death of Mr. Claude James Worner, of Greenhills and formerly of Lomos, occurred on Friday morning last as the result of a fall from the roof of a bulk wheat bin at Burges Siding. This happening occurred while he was carrying out his duties in connection with the roofing of a bin.

The deceased gentleman was born at Jarrahdale forty-six years ago and was well and favourably known by residents of the districts in which he had resided. Possessing sterling qualities Mr. Worner was held in high esteem by those with whom he associated. During the 1914-1918 war he served with the 28th Battalion and as a mark of respect the flag at the Town Hall was flown at half mast, the casket draped with the Union Jack and the "Last Post" was sounded at the graveside by Mr. H. Wansbrough. Mr. Worner is mourned by his widow and son to whom deepest sympathy in their bereavement has been extended by their many friends.

The funeral, attended by many friends and relatives took place in the Roman Catholic portion of the local cemetery on Sunday afternoon, the Rev. Father F. Began officiating at the graveside.

The chief mourners were—Widow, Gordon Joseph (son), W. G. Worner (brother), Mesdames W. G. and C. V. Worner (sisters-in-law), Mr. and Mrs G. Blechynden (brother and sister-in-law), Miss P. Smith (niece) The pallbearers were—Messrs. J. V. Fairhead, M. Barrett, J. Parker, F. Kilpatrick, B. Jones, H. O. Penny B. St. Jack and J. Loudon. The funeral arrangements were conducted by Mr. J. L. Wansbrough, undertaker, York.

Headstone Claude Worner, York, Cemetery
Photo by twood

Grace Worner (nee Blechynden). Cremated at Fremantle Cemetery. Photo by twood

PART 4 – Cousin GeorgeGEORGE BLECHYNDEN (1806-1889)

George Blechynden.

Digitally enhanced image by Blechynden descendant Kim Daley.

George Blechynden was the second child of George Blechynden (1772-1850) and Mary Jones (1779-1856).

He was born in Kent, England.

Looking to the future, in 1829, George made the decision with his cousin Harrison to accept the offer of employment with William Locke Brockman, who had enthused with family and friends of going to the newly founded Swan River Colony.

This is his story.

GEORGE BLECHYNDEN (1806-1889)
FOUR GENERATIONS - KENT TO WESTERN AUSTRALIA
COUSIN TO HARRISON BLECHYNDEN (1802-1873)

Due to the range of articles from different sources you will see some information is sometimes repeated in this section about cousin George. This is to retain continuity within the quoted articles and items.

SECOND CHILD OF GEORGE BLECHYNDEN (1772-1850) and MARY JONES (1779-1856)
COUSIN TO HARRISON BLECHYNDEN

BLECHYNDEN, GEORGE (1806-1889)

George Blechynden, born 1806, Kent, England, was the second of eight children, to GEORGE BLECHYNDEN (1772-1850) and MARY JONES (1779-1856), who were married on 15 Oct 1804, Lyminge, Kent, England. The children of George and Mary Blechynden were as follows: Edward born 1805, George in 1806, Jones in 1809, Vincent in 1811, Philpot in 1816, Alfred in 1818, John in 1819, and Anne in 1821, Bilsington, England.

George and his brothers and sister grew up on the farm acreages in Aldington, Bonnington, and Bilsington, Kent, left to his father George and Uncle John, by his grandfather Edward Blechynden. Working with George, their father, the boys learned many of the skills needed to help them in the future.

George was descended from one of the oldest families in Kent and had ancestors who had owned various manors in Quarrington, Simnels, and Mersham. Details of the history of these families can be found in the first section on Kent.

In recent times, however, his family was not so well connected, and the properties his father farmed were not substantial enough to support so many. Looking to the future, in 1829 George Blechynden made the decision with his cousin Harrison Blechynden to accept the offer of employment with William Locke Brockman, who had enthused their friends and employees with a scheme of going to the newly founded Swan River Colony in Western Australia. This colony had recently been founded without convict labour and huge grants of land were available depending on how much capital and labour was brought out from England.

George accepted the offer to act as a carpenter and his first cousin, Harrison also accepted as a foreman for Brockman on his new property in the Swan River Colony and Brockman paid for their fares. Brockman was to provide free food and lodging for four years for the Blechyndens and in return did not have to pay them wages. After those four years, the Blechyndens would be free to be gentlemen, take up land of their own and make their own way in the colony.

The sailing ship Minstrel sailed from St. Katherine's Dock on 17 Sep 1929 with Captain J. Arkoll at the helm. On the same day, she picked up the Brockmans at Portsmouth together with their large cargo and seven servants including Harrison and George Blechynden and Mrs Brockman's maid Charlotte Augusta Robus. The voyage took nearly five months and they finally arrived on the 20 Feb 1830. Much more detail can be read in the chapters on Harrison Blechynden and Charlotte Robus.

As mentioned in the section on William Locke Brockman, he wasted no time in getting himself and his entourage established in the Colony. Initially, there were no roads. Other than by horseback, traveling by boat on the Swan River was the major form of transport. William Brockman named his grant 'Herne Hill' and Harrison and George Blechynden were immediately put to work constructing his prefabricated house and yards to contain his animals. Charlotte worked as a servant to Mrs Brockman and helped look after her baby son.

With his carpentry skills, George would have found no end of work in the new colony which initially had very little infrastructure, with many of the new settlers living in tents or crude huts. His cousin Harrison Blechynden and Charlotte Augusta Robus were married in Perth, WA, 3 Mar 1832. Their first child John Blechynden was born in Perth, 14 Mar 1833. He was baptised on 28 Apr 1833. Harrison is reported to have worked as a butcher in the Perth district in 1833.

By 1835 Harrison and George Blechynden had completed their indenture with William Locke Brockman. After those four years the Blechyndens were free to take up land of their own and make their own way in the colony.

A second child, a girl named Sarah Harrison was born to Harrison and Charlotte in 1841. Following this Harrison and Charlotte and their two children travelled over the Darling Range to a newly allocated farm named 'St Aubyns' in the recently surveyed district of Beverley. Here their third child Elizabeth 'Anne' was born in 1842. Their fourth child Henry George born in 1843 was born on 'Babbyalla', the property next door to St Aubyns, followed by another six children, all born at 'Babbyalla' and in the Beverley District. Harrison and Charlotte brought up and raised their family on this property, with Charlotte continuing on after Harrison's death in 1873. In 1888 the property was taken over by Bevan Hammersley. The story of Harrison and Charlotte and their family can be read in their individual chapters throughout this book.

One of the first records of George Blechynden and Harrison Blechynden can be seen in the following article re unclaimed letters at the General Post office in 1837. It appears that following completing his indentures George Blechynden had left Perth.

Perth Gazette and Western Australian Journal (WA: 1833 - 1847), Sat 25 Feb 1837, pg 855

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article640079.txt>

Colonial Secretary. General Post Office, Perth,
LIST of unclaimed Letters, lying in the General Post-Office the 24th February, 1837.
Including: . . . Blechynden, G. and Blechynden H...

George Blechynden Snr is next found recorded in the Diary of John Molloy (1786-1867). In this diary his name is recorded under Blechington, Bleachington, Bletchington and Blechynden, following John Molloy's move from Augusta to Busselton.

LIST of unclaimed Letters, lying in the General Post-Office the 24th February, 1837.

Attwood, Henry.	Lee, E.
Blechynden, G.	Lewis, formerly Sarah
Blechynden, H.	Cheatham.
Brown, W.	Leishman, R.
Burne, W.	Mayo, R.
Crocker, John.	Muston, W. P.
Cooper, J. x	McGlashen, N.
Donkin, R.	Nye, W.
Finigan, J.	Picking, Capt.
Hampton, J.	Smith, E.
Haslewood, C. C.	Shenton, G.
Holland, G. E.	Simpson, R.
Hand, J.	Watson, A.
Jones, E.	Woods, W.
	CHARLES MACFAULL,
	Principal Postmaster

DIARY OF JOHN AND GEORGIANA MOLLOY: 1 Jul 1837 - 21 Feb 1840

<http://www.virtualvolunteering.com.au/volunteer/items/show/1180>

The diary has been transcribed in the above website and it makes fascinating reading of settlement in the very early days of white settlement in Augusta and Busselton.

The page has 92 different links needing each one to be opened individually, one for each page. Each page of the Diary has been transcribed for convenience. Ken Blechynden painstakingly transferred it all into one document. As it is all too large, we will not add the whole document to this chapter, just quoting from the pages which are topical and applicable to our story, relating to George Blechynden and his association with George and Georgina Molloy. Exerts from the diary relating to George Blechynden following a bit later.

To find out and understand more about John Molloy and his wife Georgina (who also wrote in the diary). Follow up using the web references following.

JOHN MOLLOY 1780 -1867:

<http://www.wanowandthen.com/John-Molloy.html>

1830 - Arrived at Fremantle aboard the Warrior in March.

1830 - Made a justice of the peace in April.

1830 - Co-founded the new settlement at Augusta in May. Became Government Resident and Resident magistrate.

1839 - Moved to Vasse.

1841 - After the murder of George Layman by a native called Gaywal, Molloy led a punitive raid against the Aborigines.

Molloy, John (1780–1867) by Alexandra Hasluck:

<https://adb.anu.edu.au/biography/molloy-john-2468>

John Molloy (1780-1867), pioneer and resident magistrate, was born on 5 September 1780 in London. His parentage is unknown. . .

. . . he transferred to the army in 1807, joining the 95th Regiment as a second lieutenant. In June 1809 as a lieutenant, he left with his battalion for the Peninsular war, fighting in all the major battles, and receiving the General Service Medal with eight bars. He later fought and was seriously wounded at Waterloo. Famous diaries of the time record that he was brave and well-liked by his men. From 1820 to 1824 he was stationed in Ireland during the agrarian riots.

In 1829 he decided to emigrate to the new settlement at Swan River. With his wife Georgiana and household he arrived at Fremantle in the Warrior in March 1830. In April he was made a justice of the peace and in May founded a settlement 200 miles (322 km) south of Fremantle called Augusta, where he was also resident magistrate. In 1839 he moved to the Vasse River, taking up 12,000 acres (4856 ha) and making his home at Fair Lawn in Busselton. He spent much time developing his property, but his duties as resident magistrate were harder than at Augusta because American whalers frequented Geographe Bay, and the Aborigines were troublesome. In 1841 a treacherous murder of one of his settlers had to be avenged, which Molloy did with the help of other settlers, in the way that his military training indicated. . .

MOLLOY, GEORGIANA (1805–1843) by Alexandra Hasluck

<https://adb.anu.edu.au/biography/molloy-georgiana-2467>

Georgiana Molloy (1805-1843), amateur botanist, was born on 23 May 1805 near Carlisle, Cumberland, England, one of the five children of David and Elizabeth Kennedy of Crosby Lodge. Both parents came of old Border families. At Cardross, Dumbartonshire, Scotland, on 1 August 1829 she married Captain John Molloy and in October they sailed with their household possessions and eight servants to the new colony in Western Australia. After six weeks at Swan River, they decided to settle some 200 miles (322 km) farther south at Augusta at the opening of the Blackwood River on Flinders Bay, where her husband was appointed resident magistrate. Two other families with their servants accompanied them. Augusta lay in heavily timbered country and the settlement's early pioneering was lonely and hard. Three daughters and a son were born to Mrs Molloy, but the eldest daughter died at birth and the son at nineteen months, in tragic circumstances. In 1836 most of the settlers began to leave Augusta to look for land easier to develop. The Molloyes themselves left in 1839 and moved to the Vasse River, sixty miles (97 km) northward, where a homestead, Fair Lawn, was built, and two more daughters were born.

For relief from her arduous life of pioneering Georgiana Molloy turned to botanizing. She was a keen gardener but soon found greater enjoyment in observing the indigenous flowers which bloomed profusely in spring. At first, she gathered, pressed and mounted them in a hortus siccus, but in 1836 Lady Stirling's cousin, Captain James Mangles, R.N., hitherto unknown to Mrs Molloy, wrote from England inviting her to collect and send him seeds of the native plants of the region. This she proceeded to do, accompanying them with written descriptions and with the albums of pressed flowers she had prepared. . .

Note: In the previous two articles on John and Georgina Molloy, their property is recorded as Fair Lawn. It appears that the more recent spellings are as Fairlawn.

DIARY OF JOHN AND GEORGINA MOLLOY: (to view, follow the *link, previous to the descriptions of John and Georgina Molloy).

The first half of John Molloy's diary begins with John and Georgina Molloy in Augusta, dated 1 Jul 1837, which is an interesting record of the first days in that district and the hardships endured. George Blechynden's name in various forms of spelling begins after their move to Vasse. It appears George Blechynden was employed by the Molloyes between the dates of Sunday 16 Jun 1839 - Thursday 20 Feb 1849 as a carpenter helping with the building of the first stage of their homestead which they named 'Fairlawn'. It also shows he was involved in the building of the Wonneruss (sic, should be Wonnerup) Barracks close by.

The following are brief segments taken from the Molloy Diary that are topical to George Blechynden – with various spellings: To view and read in more detail follow the above link to the transcribed pages. It is well worth the time to look through.

Segments from Molloy Dairy - Departure from Port Augusta to Busselton: as transcribed.
 This section, the Molloy family preparing to depart from Augusta and arriving at the Vasse River.
 p. 58: April 1839 Tuesday 9th SE. . . Dick set out to the Vasse with orders to bring back the horses in a fortnight's time for our departure we were very busy packing . . . brought letters from Messrs Samson & the Col. Secretary announcing the removal of Military from Augusta to Albany. . .
 Saturday Sunday a violent North Wester. Monday, I took leave of my neighbours.
 May 7th. Tuesday. We left Poor Augusta in the Whale Boat accompanied by Capt Cole & reached the Governor's Bivouac. Wednesday 8th. May 1839 . . . Friday 10th Finer. We arrived at the Vasse about 2 o'clock PM and found Mr Bussell and Mrs John Bussell had arrived from England on the Tuesday we left Augusta Heard from Colonel Leach. I planted all the plants from Augusta Saturday 11th Busy unpacking found everything wonderfully comfortable.

Jun 1839 Saturday 1st . . . After dinner we all took a walk towards the Bussells.
 The first mention of Blechynden was on Sunday 16th Jun 1839. It appears that he was hired initially as general help and in helping to catch kangaroos and that he and others were paid casually with bottles of wine.

Inserts mentioning Blechynden and variations: Just a few segments from the diary inserted here as it is too long to add in full to the story . . The diary reads as transcribed:

Sunday 16 Jun 1839 Warm. . . Incessant rain the chimney insecure so we repaired to the Kitchen . . . Bletchington & Dick quite unoccupied

p. 62 Jun Monday 24th Bletchington and Dick hauling split wood for fence. Tuesday 25th

Bletchington. Absent kangarooing one half the day without success

Sunday 30th Increasing Rain the whole day 1 Bottle Wine Bletchington [Page 63]

July 1839 Monday 1st Finer. . . 1 Bottle Wine Bletchington & 1 Allison who was at work . . .

The references continued in this way until 16th July when Blechynden is seen as working as a carpenter on the Molloy's home, which he named Fairlawn.

Thursday 26 Jul 1839 - Monday 25th November 1839. Here, he is recorded as erecting a verandah, putting up rafters, making shingles, shingling, laying floor, building a bedstead and a wash stand and later, roofing the house. I have left most of the segments referring to him in here as it gives us a picture of Blechynden at this time.

July 1839 Thursday 26 Settled with Bleachington [Bletchington?] Bletchington erecting Verandah. [Page 67] October 1839 Tuesday 1 Bletchington putting up Rafters. Thursday 3rd Brown brought shingles Bletchington shingling Friday 4th Saturday 5th Bletchington shingling. Monday 7th Bletchington shingling Tuesday 8th Bletchington at the house Thursday 10th Bletchington? off work [Page 68] October 1839 Friday 11th Bletchington still ill Saturday October 12th Bletchington at work Monday 14th Bletchington making window shutters Wednesday 23 Blechynden & Dick off work Friday 25 Blechynden off work from 11 o'clock Saturday 26 Great irregularity Blechynden off work settled with Tuesday 29 Blechynden at work Wednesday 30 Blechynden laying floor November Saturday 2 Blechynden to go to Leschenault Sunday 3 Blechynden returned. Wednesday 6 George Chapman borrowed the Dows the men helped on some timber to the Pit Thursday 7 Blechynden sick Friday 8 Blechynden sick Blechington sick. Saturday 9th 1839 November Tuesday 12th dined at the Bussells Wednesday 13th Blechdn shingling & making shingles Thursday 14th Blechynden Do Do Friday 15th Blechdn laying floor Saturday 16th Blechynden laying floor until dinner then assisted Brown in getting a tree on the Pit Monday 18th Blechynden laying floor Tuesday 19th Blechynden finished floor & commenced Bedstead. Wednesday 25th Blechynden at Bedstead November 1839 Thursday 21st, Blechynden bedstead Friday 22nd Blechynden making Wash stand Brown & Blechynden at the saw pit Saturday 23rd Blechynden put up dressing Table & finished Wash stand 1939 Mon 25, the Diary changes here. Blechynden is now planning (sic.) planing wood and working on the Wanneruss Barracks (sic, which should be Wonnerup Barracks).

Note: Spelling of the words and grammar following are as recorded in the diary.

Monday 25th Blechynden planning wood for Barracks Afternoon Brown & Blechynden at Saw pit
Tuesday 26th Blechynden at work for Barracks Wednesday 27th Blechynden at work for Barracks until evening then mended a brick of the Sofa. Thursday 28th Brown and Blechynden set off to the Wanneruss Barracks with windows & doors. Friday 29th Blechynden at Wanneruss.
Saturday 30th Blechynden at Wanneruss December 1839 Sunday 1st The Leschenault party returned Blechynden at Wonneruss. Tuesday 3rd Blechynden returned Wednesday 4th Blechynden mended the Sofa made steps for Ladder Thursday 5th Blechynden at Ladder
Friday 6th Blechynden completed Ladder & the end of Mrs Turners house

Saturday 7th Brown leading sawn timber Blechynden at roof of Cattle shed went over to the Bussells the Champion in the evening Wednesday 11th [Page 73]

1839 December Friday 13. Blechynden ab Saturday 21. Blechynden Absent. Tuesday 24. Bleestill absent. - Wednesday 25. Christmas day. read Service - Note: Christmas Day

January 1840. Wednesday 1st. Brown Blechynden Wallace until the afternoon

Saturday 11. Blechenden brought home a Kangaroo. went out about 9½ O'clock returned about 2½.

Feb 1840 Tuesday 11 Blech to Messrs Bussells Saturday 15 Blechden blowing up the tree

Thursday 20th Blechynden roofing the house & mending the iron work of Bullock cart blank page [Page 77].

Wonnerup p. 15, 18

<https://www.amrshire.wa.gov.au/library/file/6%20Region/WalkingTrails/augbsnHeritageTrail.pdf>

Wonnerup is an Aboriginal word meaning 'the place of the Wonna'. The wonna is a digging stick or weapon of Aboriginal woman.. . The siting of a township at Wonnerup was criticized by Lieutenant Bunbury who wrote that "the Surveyor General, through ignorance of the locality had placed the town of Wonnerup where mud and water were far more plentiful than dry land." Despite this, six soldiers were placed at Wonnerup in temporary accommodation until a permanent barracks could be established sometime later. The presence of the military was thought necessary because of recent disturbances between Aborigines and European settlers.

Relations between settlers and Aborigines had deteriorated from about 1837, probably as a result of the Aborigines 'growing dismay at how much of their tribal land was being overrun. A number of unfortunate incidents culminated in the death of George Layman who was fatally speared by a local Aborigine named Gaywal in 1841. When Gaywal and his companions fled into the bush they were pursued by angry settlers who shot and killed five of them Although Gaywal managed to elude the settlers, a short time later he was hunted down and killed. His three sons, who were present when layman was speared, were captured at the instigation of Captain Molloy, and transported to the native prison on Rottnest Island. See also Wonnerup Massacre below.

WONNERUP MASSACRE

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Wonnerup_massacre

The Wonnerup massacre, also known as the Wonnerup "Minninup" massacre, was the killing of dozens of Wardandi Noongar people by European settlers in the vicinity of Wonnerup, in February 1841.[1] The massacre on Wardandi Noongar land in the south-west of took place after Gaywal, a Wardandi warrior, speared and killed George Layman, a settler at Wonnerup on 21 February 1841. The leaders of the punitive massacre were Layman's neighbours John Bussell and Captain John Molloy, resident magistrate of the district. Settlers from the Wonnerup, Capel, Busselton and Augusta area joined them to commit "one of the most bloodthirsty deeds ever committed by Englishmen".[2]

FAIRLAWN: This beautiful home still exists and operates as FAIRLAWN ESTATE, a luxury B&B. Their website describes the property: About Us | Fairlawn Estate

Set on the banks of the Vasse River, Fairlawn Estate is private and exclusive/gated Estate. Fairlawn Estate is situated on a 2000 acre working farm that perfectly bridges a gateway between past and present. First owned by the John and Georgiana Molloy, the main homestead was built in 1840, and was the first dwelling built in the district. This opulent homestead contains 1000m2 of jarrah wood floor space, full kitchen, cocktail rooms, a historic ballroom (with fire place) and garden's that produce colours throughout the 4 season's.

Western Mail (Perth, WA: 1885 - 1954), Thu 22 Jun 1939, pg 8

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article38401568.txt>

HISTORIC HOMESTEADS

No. 13: Fairlawn, Busselton

SHORTLY after the Bussell family settled in the Vasse district and built their homestead Cattle Chosen, Captain Malloy, a veteran of the battle of Waterloo, built the homestead Fairlawn amid beautiful surroundings on the opposite side of the Vasse River.

The first building erected at Fairlawn was the single-storey structure shown on the left of the illustration. This was built of wattle and daub with a shingled roof, and served as a residence for some years. The two-storey section was the next building erected and further rooms were added to the building as the family of Captain Malloy increased.

Fairlawn is a fine old building and in the early days of the Colony was the scene of some fine parties. A room in the centre of the house was used mostly as a ballroom. This is a spacious room, and further rooms were added to the building as the family of Captain Malloy increased.

Fairlawn is a fine old building and in the early days of the Colony was the scene of some fine parties. A room in the centre of the house was used mostly as a ballroom. This is a spacious room, . . .

Note: the spelling of Malloy in this article and others. According to family records it should be Molloy.

The first building erected at Fairlawn was the single-storey structure shown on the left of the illustration. This was the building which George Blechynden was involved in building.

HISTORIC HOMESTEADS

No. 13 Fairlawn, Busselton

SHORTLY after the Bussell family settled in the Vasse district and built their homestead Cattle Chosen, Captain Malloy, a veteran of the battle of Waterloo, built the homestead Fairlawn amid beautiful surroundings on the opposite side of the Vasse River.

The first building erected at Fairlawn was the single-storey structure shown on the left of the illustration. This was built of wattle and daub with a shingled roof, and served as a residence for some years. The two-storey section was the next building erected and further rooms were added to the building as the family of Captain Malloy increased.

Surmising: From the references to Blechynden (with numerous spellings) in the Molloy Dairy, we know George Blechynden lived and worked in the Vasse, Busselton area from Jun 1839 – Feb 1840, working for John Molloy. Following his emigration to the Swan River Colony it has become apparent George had a son via an unknown Aboriginal woman. It is possible that his son George was conceived during his time working for the Molloyes.

Brief summary: George Blechynden Jr. became known as Whitey Brown George. We do not know exactly where or when George's son George (Whitey Brown) was born or died or was buried. In 1864, George's son, named George, married an aboriginal girl, Jane Nilgie (or Nyilgee), born 1844, 19 Jul 1864, at St. Mary's Church, Busselton, W.A.

As far as we know there were no children from this union. Nilgie died on 12th Sep 1921 at Mogumber, formerly Moore River.

There are many more details of their story to follow:

It must have been a worrying disturbing time for George Blechynden. Having sired a child by an Aboriginal woman he must have been caught between both worlds. George Blechynden was involved in bringing up his son. Records concerning his son in the courts in the future recorded that 'The man George Blechynden is a half-caste and thoroughly civilised, understands English well.' It is likely that George and his Aboriginal woman lived together and raised their son in the Wonnerup, Busselton area.

During George Blechynden Seniors time working for John Molloy, and the Wonnerup Barracks, his carpentry skills and reliability would have quickly become apparent. Being born and bred from gentlemen stock in Kent in England, he became known and perhaps mixed at times socially with the Molloy and Bussell families. 'Fairlawn' was directly across the river from 'Cattle Chosen', the Bussell Families home and property. From Malloy's dairy it seems he also liked his wine.

*'Fairlawn' and 'Cattle Chosen':
Photo via Google Maps, 2021*

George's son may have spent time living with his father and also with his Aboriginal mother and her family in the area. This was why and how George Junior later came to know and marry the vibrant Jane Ngilgie who as a young girl lived with and was brought up by the Bussells. More to follow on this further on.

BUSSELTON 1830-1850 "OUTSTATION ON THE VASSE"

*On the 17th August 1840
Charles Bussell provided a census of the local people as follows: ...*

George Blechynden, wheelwright

Among other residents at the Vasse in 1840 was Mr Balschin, a sawyer. George Blechynden, born in 1806 was a district carpenter having arrived at Fremantle in the "Minstrel".

BUSSELTON 1830-1850 "OUTSTATION ON THE VASSE"
On the 17th August 1840 Charles Bussell provided a census of the local people as follows:
Captain Molloy	Mr Alfred Green, surgeon
Mrs Molloy & 4 children	Mr Ommaney, surveyor
* George Blechynden, wheelwright	Mrs Ommaney & 1 child
William Woods, labourer	Phoebe Bower & 2 children
Ryan, labourer	William Brown, ploughman
August Tulah, servant	Robert Larkam, cook
Martin Welsh, cook	James Barsee, labourer
Mrs Bussell snr.	Mrs Barsee
Mr John G. Bussell	John Dawson, labourer
Mrs J. G. Bussell & 3 children	MacLeod, blacksmith
Mr Charles Bussell, commissary	Mackillan, carpenter
Mr Lenox Bussell	Bryan, labourer
Mr Vernon Bussell, yeoman	Mrs Bryan & 3 children
Mr Alfred Bussell, generally useful	John Balchin, carpenter, sawyer
Miss Bussell	Richard Connor, sawyer
Mr Vaughan, gent	James Lawrence, shoe maker
	Mrs Welsh & 1 child

170	"OUTSTATION ON THE VASSE"
Among other residents at the Vasse in 1840 was Mr Balschin, a sawyer. George Blechynden, born in 1806 was the district carpenter, having arrived at Fremantle in 1830 in the 'Minstrel'.

BUSSELTON 1830-1850	219
"The foundation stone was laid by my grandmother Frances Louisa Bussell and the service was performed by the Reverend J. Wollaston. The settlers in the neighbourhood came from miles around in their bullock carts and on horseback. We all went from Cattle Chosen and Fairlawn in Colonel Molloy's flatbottomed boat, with a plentiful lunch with which to regale our party and those who could not bring any. A bottle with coins in it was placed under the stone which I remember seeing all ready several

George Blechynden is next recorded in the next article, repairing the Capel Bridge in 1841. Segments from this article have been added here including SOME STATISTICS.

Daily News (Perth, WA: 1882 - 1950), Sat 23 Oct 1937, pg 6

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article83210590.txt>

FIRST POTATO SHIPMENT

In 1837 business had considerably fallen off, as there is only one entry recorded — payment of a passage aboard the colonial schooner to Fremantle.

In 1838 a record appears showing payment of freight on the first produce sent from Augusta, 1 ton 6cwt. of potatoes and onions.

It was not until March 6, 1840, that the name of G. Bussell appears. He then paid duty on two lots of 16 gallons each of wine at 8d per gallon.

On December 24, 1841, Captain Molloy received two cases of one dozen each of champagne brandy — truly a welcome addition to the captain's Christmas fare.

The revenue totalling £12 10s for the six months from July 1 to December 31 was disbursed, by Mr. H. Camfield, the collector, in the following payments: To Elijah Dawson, constable, from April 1 to September 30, £5; vouchers for repairing Capel bridge (G. Blechynden), £7 10s; so that the total receipts were spent in the district. . .

SOME STATISTICS

The first reference to the population of the Vasse district is in regard to 1843, and was taken in September of that year, when there were 154 residents. This number increased to 176 the following year, and to 183 in 1845. In 1843 there were 68 males over 12 years; 32 females over 12 years; 72 male children and 32 female children. The names of the families, which included their employees, were Abby, Doolan, Barzay, Bussell, Chapman, Dawson, Guerin, Heppingstone, Hurford, Larkin, Lilly, McCourt, Minion, Molloy, Sholl, Turner and Herring.

The total area under crop in 1843 was 239 acres, of which 189 acres were sown for wheat and 16 acres planted in potatoes. There were 56 horses, 406 horned cattle, 604 sheep, 135 goats and 170 pigs also recorded.

The year 1842 contains an account of the births, deaths and marriages from October 5, but the records in this regard do not extend beyond April 8, 1843.

There are entries of the marriage of R. Heppingstone to Mary Ann Layman taking place on January 19, 1843; the birth of a female child on 7/12/1842 to G. Molloy and on April 8, 1843 her death is recorded. The only other death mentioned is that of Phoebe Bowen, aged 74. Of the total of eight births recorded five were males.

Note: The statistics appear to be of the settlers and does not seem to have included the Aborigines. Looking for the birth of George Blechynden's son this did not help. Perhaps as George Blechynden senior was a settler, the birth of his child may have been included in the birth records. Research at the State Library does not appear to have a record of his birth, most probably as the baby's mother was Aboriginal.

FIRST POTATO SHIPMENT

In 1837 business had considerably fallen off, as there is only one entry recorded—payment of a passage aboard the colonial schooner to Fremantle.

In 1838 a record appears showing payment of freight on the first produce sent from Augusta, 1 ton 6cwt. of potatoes and onions.

It was not until March 6, 1840, that the name of G. Bussell appears. He then paid duty on two lots of 16 gallons each of wine at 8d per gallon.

On December 24, 1841, Captain Molloy received two cases of one dozen each of champagne brandy—truly a welcome addition to the captain's Christmas fare.

The revenue totalling £12 10s for the six months from July 1 to December 31 was disbursed by Mr. H. Camfield, the collector, in the following payments: To Elijah Dawson, constable, from April 1 to September 30, £5; vouchers for repairing Capel bridge (G. Blechynden), £7 10s; so that the total receipts were spent in the district.

The following note, dated January 9, 1850, reads:—"Paid this morning 16s to Captain Molloy, being the balance of money in my hands for the erection of Church. Sgd. J. C. Bussell." This old book served many purposes and contains accounts, not only of the inward and outward shipping, but police court records; population; crop and stock returns; imports and exports; stamps used by the Resident Magistrate; receipts for title deeds; stock brands; records of births, deaths and marriages.

SOME STATISTICS

The first reference to the population of the Vasse district is in regard to 1843, and was taken in September of that year, when there were 154 residents. This number increased to 176 the following year, and to 183 in 1845. In 1843 there were 68 males over 12 years; 32 females over 12 years; 72 male children and 32 female children. The names of the families, which included their employees, were Abby, Doolan, Barzay, Bussell, Chapman, Dawson, Guerin, Heppingstone, Hurford, Larkin, Lilly, McCourt, Minion, Molloy, Sholl, Turner and Herring.

The total area under crop in 1843 was 239 acres, of which 189 acres were sown for wheat and 16 acres planted in potatoes. There were 56 horses, 406 horned cattle, 604 sheep, 135 goats and 170 pigs also recorded.

The year 1842 contains an account of the births, deaths and marriages from October 5, but the records in this regard do not extend beyond April 8, 1843.

There are entries of the marriage of R. Heppingstone to Mary Ann Layman taking place on January 19, 1843; the birth of a female child on 7/12/1842 to G. Molloy and on April 8, 1843 her death is recorded. The only other death mentioned is that of Phoebe Bowen, aged 74. Of the total of eight births recorded five were males.

A local newspaper reported that George Blechynden was a witness to a declaration by James Barzay about the accidental shooting of a horse on McGlew's Property at Busselton in 1848.

Inquirer (Perth, WA: 1840 - 1855), Wed 22 Nov 1848, pg 2
22 Nov 1848 - Advertising \(nla.gov.au\)

Notice.

I, JAMES BARZAY, do hereby declare, that, on Monday, the 14th August, I having fired at some horses which were near my fence, with the idea of deterring them from committing trespass on my crops, did unfortunately wound one so severely as to cause his death, although my gun was loaded with small shot, some of which have since been extracted from the animal ; I make this public declaration to evidence that no malice or evil intent on my part led to the perpetration of the offence : and that in order to stay civil proceedings, I am willing to make due compensation for the damage sustained by Mr. H. D. MacGlew, (sic, should be McGlew) the owner.

*In witness whereof I hereunto set my hand and seal in the presence of } George Blechynden.

John MacLeod.

JAMES BARZAY.

Busselton, Vasse, Aug. 19, 1848.

Notice.

I, JAMES BARZAY, do hereby declare, that, on Monday, the 14th August, I having fired at some horses which were near my fence, with the idea of deterring them from committing trespass on my crops, did unfortunately wound one so severely as to cause his death, although my gun was loaded with small shot, some of which have since been extracted from the animal; I make this public declaration to evidence that no malice or evil intent on my part led to the perpetration of the offence: and that in order to stay civil proceedings, I am willing to make due compensation for the damage sustained by Mr. H. D. MacGlew, the owner.

In witness whereof I hereunto set my hand and seal in the presence of

} GEORGE BLECHYNDEN.
} JOHN MACLEOD.

JAMES BARZAY.

Busselton, Vasse, Aug. 19, 1848.

George Blechynden gave his services as a carpenter for some months in the building of the Church of St Mary's, Busselton, between 1844-1845.

The following has been taken from an article, “reference was made to the old Anglican Church, which was designed on the lines of Winchester College Chapel by the Rev. John Wollaston, of Leschenault, and John Bussell, and dedicated by the first mentioned in 1843.” The labour by George Blechynden is mentioned.

Western Mail (Perth, WA: 1885 - 1954), Thu 3 Apr 1930, pg 39
03 Apr 1930 - AN OLD CHURCH. (nla.gov.au)

AN OLD CHURCH. ST. MARY'S, BUSSELTON.
John Bussell's Labours. (By "Scribe.")

... The settlers in the district worked enthusiastically, helping to quarry or cart timber, while the village carpenter, George Blechynden, laboured for some months on the work. No convict labour was employed, as has been wrongly stated. John Bussell, a man of varied parts, helped to saw the timber and worked on the walls and roof with the carpenter. He superintended the building throughout its erection. At the saw pits he tackled the onerous job of sawyer, for the sawdust was blinding; but this led to his making a pair of goggles by the simple expedient of enclosing a long, narrow piece of glass around the edges with leather, and tying it at the back of his head.

Chapel. The settlers in the district worked enthusiastically, helping to quarry or cart timber, while the village carpenter, George Blechynden, laboured for some months on the work. No convict labour was employed, as has been wrongly stated. John Bussell, a man of varied parts, helped to saw the timber and worked on the walls and roof with the carpenter. He superintended the building throughout its erection. At the saw pits he tackled the onerous job of sawyer, for the sawdust was blinding; but this led to his making a pair of goggles by the simple expedient of enclosing a long, narrow piece of glass around the edges with leather, and tying it at the back of his head.

"The dedication of the church," Professor Shamu states, "marked the realisation

It is extremely likely that a proud George Blechynden would have attended the opening of St Mary's Church 11 Apr 1845.

THE HISTORY OF ST MARY'S: p 12., 13

<https://www.margaretriver.com/members/st-marys-church-busselton/>

The Foundation Stone is Laid

Three months after Wollaston's last entry (viz., on 13th Mar 1844) the Inquirer contains a report of the laying of the foundation stone of the church on 4th Mar, 1844. About 60 settlers assembled and marched to the site, reciting the Deum. Mrs Bussell, senior, deposited a parchment and coins in the cavity prepared, and then assisted by the Trustees, laid the stone.

St Mary's Church, Busselton, WA, Heritage Listed.

After a short service proceedings closed with cakes and wine under the peppermint trees.

There is negative evidence that Wollaston was not present: but no explanation of his absence has been given.

A few lines from "Cattle Chosen" may be quoted here concerning the construction: "John Bussell's Oxford contemporaries, Wells and Selwyn, presented windows . . . All the settlers near helped to quarry, or cart timber. George Blechynden, the village carpenter, gave his labour for some months. The Rev. John Wollaston and John Bussell designed the building between them, taking Winchester College Chapel as their model. Bussell also helped Dawson and Balchin to saw the timber and worked on the walls and roof with Blechynden. The dedication of the church by the Rev. John Wollaston in 1845 marked the realisation of the Bussell's ambition. It was opened on 11th April in that year, the first baptism in it was on that day; on the 13th. Holy Communion was first celebrated, and the first marriage was a year later, 27th April 1846."

St Mary's Anglican Church, built 1844-45.
The Oldest Stone Church in WA.
Courtesy Ken Blechynden

Photo from an article showing the inside of St Mary's Church and the exquisite timber work on the roof.

This close-up photo taken by Ken Blechynden 2021, showing the wonderful wood work on the ceiling.

In 1864, wheelwright George Blechynden's son, George Blechynden, labourer, bachelor married Jane Nilgie, spinster, daughter of Dickey, at the Church of St Mary, by license in Busselton. More can be read about Jane Nilgie and George Blechynden junior following in their own chapters.

Continuing with the story of George Blechynden senior:

This marriage certificate of 19 Jul 1846, shows that George Blechynden, wheelwright's son, George Blechynden, Labourer, Bachelor married Jane Nilgie, Spinster, daughter of Dickey, at the Church of St Mary, by license in Busselton.

WESTERN AUSTRALIA
Certified Copy of an Entry in Register of Marriages
Registration Number 2161/1864
When and Where Married	July 19th 1864 Busselton W.A.
Name and Surname	George Blechynden	Jane Nilgie
Under or Above the Age of 21 Years	above	under
Condition	Bachelor	Spinster
Rank or Profession	Laborer	Servant
Residence at the Time of Marriage	Blackwood	Busselton
Father's Name and Surname	George Blechynden	Dickey --
Rank or Profession of Father	Wheelwright	--
Married in the Church of St. Mary Busselton by License according to the rites and ceremonies of the United Church of England and Ireland by me, after -- duly made as by law required. Harry L. Brown B.A. C of Church Superior
This Marriage was solemnized between us { George his Blechynden mark Jane her Nilgie mark } In the presence of us { T. Tune Saml. Rose Tune }
I, REGINALD JOHN WORTH, Acting Deputy Registrar General for the State of Western Australia do hereby certify that the above is a true copy of an entry in a register kept in this office. REGISTRAR GENERAL'S OFFICE, PERTH - 2 NOV 1982 [Signature] Acting Deputy Registrar General

Copy of Marriage Certificate of son George Blechynden to Jane Nilgie, 1864

A Busselton Paper newspaper cutting from July 1996, suggested George Blechynden's name could be used for the naming of a park as he had worked on the construction of St Mary's 152 years earlier and later on construction of the Vasse River Bridge. But the council decided it was not to be!

The second objection related directly to the Peel Terrace reserve, suggesting it should be named after George Blechynden, a carpenter who worked on St Mary's in 1844 and later on the construction of the Vasse River Bridge.

Despite Mr Blechynden's connections with the area the council opted to maintain the Breeden name because of the family's links with the park.

The second objection related directly to the Peel Terrace reserve, suggesting it should be named after George Blechynden, a carpenter who worked on St Mary's in 1844 and later on construction of the Vasse River bridge.

Despite Mr Blechynden's connections with the area the council opted to maintain the Breeden name because of the family's links with the park.

In 1872 George Blechynden senior was living in Albany. He travelled from Albany to Mount Barker to use his carpentry services in helping to build St Werburgh's Chapel. "A carpenter from Albany, Mr Blechynden, did the woodwork, probably cutting the Sheoak from near Albany and the jarrah locally and I think gave his services for nothing." The Chapel was consecrated by Bishop Hale on 21s Jun 1874.

"He and his elder son and, I suppose, his man, Meshack Parsons, built it of pug made largely of clay dug from a hole nearby and shovelled into a bit of a frame, to make the walls. When these were dry and the frame removed, they were dressed with an adze and the door and window spaces cut out with a crosscut saw. The roof was of shingles, probably sheoak. Parson Johnston would have supervised a bit with the drawing of the plan". (Parson Johnston being the Reverend W. Wardell-Johnston, Rector of Albany).

"A carpenter from Albany, Mr Blechynden, did the woodwork, probably cutting the sheoak from near Albany and the jarrah locally and, I think, gave his services for nothing. My grandfather and his sons made the ironwork in the family forge and my father, as a little boy of six, watched the work and fetched and carried for them."

"I suppose the work was done in 1873 and the Chapel was consecrated by Bishop Hale on 21st June 1874."

"The font had been the family mortar which had probably been used to try and make the coarse-ground flour a bit finer for cakes and pastries."

ST WERBURGH'S FUND

A Restoration Fund was started to repair the damage which had occurred over many years. A proper underground drainage system has been installed and the roof repaired and repainted. The outside walls have been replastered with original materials and a new wooden floor now covers the concrete floor which replaced the original wooden floor in the 1950's. Special hand made tiles have been laid in the Vestry and will be used on the verandah.

Your donation placed in the wall safe will help to continue this restoration work, and maintain and preserve this Chapel for future generations.

Thank You For Your Gift

St. Werburgh's Chapel

MOUNT BARKER
WESTERN AUSTRALIA

ST. WERBURGH'S CHURCH

A LINK WITH THE PAST.

(By A. H. G.)

The quaint and beautiful little Church of St. Werburgh's, situated about seven miles from Mt. Barker, is one of the oldest church buildings in WA.

St. Werburgh's Church

Among the earliest pioneers to the district was Mr. George Edward Egerton Warburton, a keen churchman, who, a few years after his settlement, among the hills and dales, where the modernised homestead of St. Werburgh's now stand, was responsible for the erection of the church bearing that name. How it came that a near relative to the architect and builder of St. Werburgh's Church, Boland Egerton Warburton, of Arley, Cheshire, was inspired with the desire to build a church in far off Australia is not known by the present generation of the old Warburton family. However, records held by them prove that in 1873, the then owner of St. Werburgh's, Mr. G. E. Egerton Warburton, grandfather of Mr. J. E. Warburton, the present owner, received the sum of £500 from his elder brother for the erection of a church on the estate. Warburton, the younger, at once decided to have an important share in the first building to be set apart for religious worship in the district, by personally building it according to his own plans, entirely at his own expense, setting aside his brother's gift for perpetual endowment. The site selected for the church is distant about a quarter of a mile from the homestead, on the crest of a hill, overlooking a picturesque locality of hill and dale. Here the sturdy pioneer of old time began his work, a waterhole nearby giving most unmistakable evidence of the commencement of building operations. From that spot, evidently, the whole of the pug with which the walls were formed, was secured. The four walls were completed without doors or windows. These necessary requirements were cut out when it was considered that the pug had settled and the structure ready for its iron roof. Work was then commenced on the interior, and the present condition of all appointments within proves the wonderful care, insight and forethought the zealous builder put into his work. From the first spadeful of pug to the last nail driven, there must have been firm, set, sincerity of purpose in his work—his best as best he could. The arches and moldings without are of sheoak, whilst the walls within are pannelled with Albany oak to a certain height. The pews, neat, light and comfortable, are of the same timber. The

ST. WERBURGH'S CHURCH

A LINK WITH THE PAST.

(By A. H. G.)

The quaint and beautiful little Church of St. Werburgh's, situated about seven miles from Mt. Barker, is one of the oldest church buildings in Western Australia. Among the earliest pioneers to the district was Mr. George Edward Egerton Warburton, a keen churchman, who, a few years after his settlement, among the hills and dales, where the modernised homestead of St. Werburgh's now stand, was responsible for the erection of the church bearing that name. How it came that a near relative to the architect and builder of St. Werburgh's Church, Boland Egerton Warburton, of Arley, Cheshire, was inspired with the desire to build a church in far off Australia is not known by the present generation of the old Warburton family. However, records held by them prove that in 1873, the then owner of St. Werburgh's, Mr. G. E. Egerton Warburton, grandfather of Mr. J. E. Warburton, the present owner, received the sum of £500 from his elder brother for the erection of a church on the estate. Warburton, the younger, at once decided to have an important share in the first building to be set apart for religious worship in the district, by personally building it according to his own plans, entirely at his own expense, setting aside his brother's gift for perpetual endowment. The site selected for the church is distant about a quarter of a mile from the homestead, on the crest of a hill, overlooking a picturesque locality of hill and dale. Here the sturdy pioneer of old time began his work, a waterhole nearby giving most unmistakable evidence of the commencement of building operations. From that spot, evidently, the whole of the pug with which the walls were formed, was secured. The four walls were completed without doors or windows. These necessary requirements were cut out when it was considered that the pug had settled and the structure ready for its iron roof. Work was then commenced on the interior, and the present condition of all appointments within proves the wonderful care, insight and forethought the zealous builder put into his work. From the first spadeful of pug to the last nail driven, there must have been firm, set, sincerity of purpose in his work—his best as best he could. The arches and moldings without are of sheoak, whilst the walls within are pannelled with Albany oak to a certain height. The pews, neat, light and comfortable, are of the same timber. The forable, are of the same timber. The rood screen claims attention as soon as the church is entered; a design of vine leaves and grapes worked out in iron, wrought by the builder and architect at his own forge at the homestead. Immediately in front of the altar is another fine specimen of the old builder's handiwork, an inner altar-rail supported by an iron-worked design of passion vines and fruit, gold washed. Fifty years ago settlers from Merryup, Mt. Barker, Forest Hill, and other centres, made their usual regular monthly pilgrimage to St. Werburgh's Church for public worship, conducted by the rector of Albany, and for their benefit, protection from rain and sun, Mr. Warburton built a verandah right round the church, adding considerably to its quaintness and beauty. At the outset stones were laid along the front section of the verandah, and there they remained until about fifteen years ago, when they were removed and asphalt substituted. In and about the building are to be seen many links with the grand old past, weather vanes, still bearing traces of the Warburton arms, painted on them 50 years ago; a sundial near the entrance, and ancient church appointments within, add an old world touch to the sacred surroundings. Near by is the church yard, and here rests the founder and builder of St. Werburgh's Church, at rest near the scene of his greatest work. St. Werburgh's was consecrated by Bishop Hale, and for over 30 years was the only place of public worship in the district of Mt. Barker. The marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Souness, near, of Merryup, was the first to be solemnised within its walls. The vestry was added some years later and its particularly attractive. The visiting rector made it his abode during his stay in the district, evident care being given to his comfort in the inclusion in its appointments of a fireplace. Many parishioners have been long resident in the parish without knowledge of the spot around which church life had its first awakening, and a building, quaint in its beauty, hallowed by self-sacrifice and self-denial and loving zeal, a link with the great past. Attendance at evensong on the third Sunday in each month at the hour of three will give all who have not yet visited St. Werburgh's the privilege of worship as well as the chance of thorough inspection of a church which should be dear to the hearts of the general public of the district, more especially to those who are church people.

work was then commenced on the interior, and the present condition of all appointments within proves the wonderful care, insight and forethought the zealous builder put into his work. From the first spadeful of pug to the last nail driven, there must have been firm, set, sincerity of purpose in his work—his best as best he could. The arches and moldings without are of sheoak, whilst the walls within are pannelled with Albany oak to a certain height. The pews, neat, light and comfortable, are of the same timber. The rood screen claims attention as soon as the church is entered; a design of vine leaves and grapes worked out in iron, wrought by the builder and architect at his own forge at the homestead. Immediately in front of the altar is another fine specimen of the old builder's handiwork, an inner altar-rail supported by an iron-worked design of passion vines and fruit, gold washed. Fifty years ago, settlers from Merryup, Mt. Barker, Forest Hill, and other centres, made their usual regular monthly pilgrimage to St. Werburgh's Church for public worship, conducted by the Rector of Albany, and for their benefit, protection from rain and sun, Mr. Warburton built a verandah right round the church, adding considerably to its quaintness and beauty. At the outset stones were laid along the front section of the verandah, and there they remained until about fifteen years ago, when they were removed, and asphalt substituted. In and about the building are to be seen many links with the grand old past, weather vanes, still bearing traces of the Warburton Arms, painted on them 50 years ago, a sundial near the entrance, and ancient church appointments within, add an old-world touch to the sacred surroundings. Nearby is the church yard, and here rests the founder and builder of St. Werburgh's Church, at rest near the scene of his greatest work. St. Werburgh's was consecrated by Bishop Hale, and for over 30 years was the only place of public worship in the district of Mt. Barker. The marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Sounness, senr., of Merryup, was the first to be solemnised within its walls. The vestry was added some years later and its particularly attractive. The visiting Rector made it his abode during his stay in the district, evident care being given to his comfort in the inclusion in its appointments of a fireplace. Many parishioners have been long resident in the parish without knowledge of the spot around which church life had its first awakening, and a building, quaint in its beauty, hallowed by self-sacrifice and self-denial and loving zeal, a link with the great past. Attendance at evensong on the third Sunday in each month at the hour of three will give all who have not yet visited St. Werburgh's the privilege of worship as well as the chance of thorough inspection of a church which should be dear to the hearts of the general public of the district, more especially to those who are church people.

ST WERBURGH'S CHAPEL

<https://www.australias.guide/wa/attraction-tour/st-werburghs-chapel/>

St Werburgh's Chapel has been recognised by a number of heritage agencies. It has been placed on the Heritage Council of WA's Permanent Register; it has National Trust classification (since 1969)

The Anglican Church of Australia Diocese of Bunbury PARISH OF MOUNT BARKER Welcome to this historic Chapel dedicated to Saint Werburgh (English Abbess ca. 700 A.D.) This chapel was built by George Edward Egerton-Warburton in 1873 and was consecrated by Bishop Hale of Perth in 1874. When the Diocese of Bunbury came into being in 1904, the Chapel and its endowment were transferred from the Diocese of Perth and were vested in the Bunbury Diocesan Trustees. In 1974 the centenary of the Chapel was celebrated with a Eucharist in the morning presided over by the Bishop of Bunbury, the Right Reverend R.G. Hawkins. In the afternoon the Most Reverend G.T. Sambell, Archbishop of Perth, preached at Evening Prayer. In 1978 Cyclone Alby destroyed the bell-tower and caused other structural damage. Repairs were completed in 1981 and some 150 people attended the Thanksgiving Eucharist at which the president and preacher was the then Bishop of Bunbury, the Right Reverend A.S. Goldsworthy. SERVICES The Holy Eucharist is celebrated on the 5th Sunday in the month at 11.30am. INFORMATION For any further information please telephone the Anglican Rector on (08) 9851 1696 May God Bless You On Your Journey ...	A Short History of Saint Werburgh's Chapel Written by Miss K. Egerton-Warburton, granddaughter of the Chapel's founder, for the 90th Anniversary celebrations in 1964. Miss Egerton-Warburton died in 1982. "It was about 1836 when my grandfather, George Edward Egerton-Warburton, youngest son of Piers Egerton-Warburton of Arley, Cheshire, came to Albany as a very young lieutenant of the 51st Regiment on his way to Van Dieman's Land (Tasmania) with a shipload of convicts. During this pleasant break in a very unpleasant voyage, he stayed at Strawberry Hill, Albany, with the Government Resident, Sir Richard Spencer, and his family." "He then went on and delivered his cargo, but a friendship had already been formed between him and Augusta Spencer, Sir Richard's youngest daughter. A little later, when he was ordered to India, then a very unhealthy place for wives and babies, he preferred to sell his commission and return to Albany, where in 1842 he married his Augusta and soon afterwards settled at Saint Werburgh's." "They had twelve children, eight of them boys - my father who was born in 1867 being the youngest. In 1871 my grandmother died." "I suppose it would have been a year later when my grandfather's eldest brother, Roland Eylls Egerton-Warburton, the squire of Arley and the local rector, sent over £500 to build a church or chapel at Saint Werburgh's, but he (my grandfather) decided to build the chapel himself and use the money to endow it."
--	---

George Blechynden
(1806-1889)

Note: View the digitally enhanced photo at the beginning of cousin George's story by Kim Daley, Blechynden descendant.

Inscription of the back of the photo

Inscription of the back of the photo reads:

Mr. George Blechynden came out to Australia about the year 1830 with Harrison Blechynden of Beverley, a cousin. Died at Bridgetown, buried in the old cemetery, Feb. 1889, age 83 years. By Mr. John Alnnutt of 'The Grange'.

John William Blechynden's letter to cousin John Blechynden, (living at that time in Shanghai), dated 24 Jan 1902, states, "George Blechynden, my Grandfather's cousin, remained a bachelor and died in Bridgetown about 12 years ago (1890) aged 84 years. WA BDM's show George Blechynden died 1889, [Reg. 97]. Recorded as place unknown. He was buried in the Bridgetown Pioneer Cemetery, unmarked grave: BLECHYNDEN, George 11 Feb 1889. Aged 83.

The full contents of this letter can be read in the chapter on John William Blechynden.

BLECHYNDEN

George

11-2-1889

83Y

Above is copied from the Bridgetown Pioneer Cemetery names board.

Surmising: George Blechynden worked on the Wonnerup Barracks and 'Fairlawn', the home of John and Georgina Molloy. He showed his devotion to the Church, donating his time and effort on the building of the churches and repairing of the bridge. George was known to the Bussells and mixed and worked with many other settlers in the community and members of the church. He was friendly with the local Aborigines and acknowledged by Bishops. We are proud to acknowledge him as a Blechynden.

JILL FEUTRIL'S POINTS OF INTEREST RE GEORGE BLECHYNDEN SENIOR WHO ARRIVED W.A. PER MINSTREL IN JANUARY 1830:

George Blechynden's name comes up as a carpenter and also as a wheelwright in early references: he is mentioned in the book 'Cattle Chosen' by E.O.G. Shann M.A. concerning the building of St Mary's C. of E. church: 'All the settlers near Busselton helped to quarry or cart timber. George Blechynden, the village carpenter, gave his labour for some months.'

George's work included the carving of the jarrah arches that soar above the body of the church. The Reverend John Wollaston dedicated the church in 1843. George also helped John Bussell build a bridge over the Vasse River for settlers to have better access to the church.

George also appears in 'Georgiana Molloy 'The Mind That Shines' by Bernice Barry. He did a lot of work at Fairlawn, Captain Molloy's holding by the Vasse River; '... a carpenter called Bletchington (sic, should be Blechynden) was 'building Georgiana's verandah; a place for her to sit in the shade during the coming summer.' Also, to prepare for a visit from Georgiana's sister Mary Gertrude Kennedy 'the carpenter made shutters as extra protection for the calico stretched over glassless windows and he built a floor in the guest bedroom. Working as quickly as possible he made a bedstead, then a dressing table and washstand.'

George is also mentioned in many places of 'Busselton 1830 – 1850' ... outstation on the Vasse' by Rodger Jennings where he is described by settlers as the village carpenter and as a very experienced wheelwright. Jennings also mentions George Blechynden's signature is one of many on a memorial sent to Governor Irwin re the Vasse settlers' dismay over the proposed discontinuing of a postal service to the settlement. CHAPTER EIGHTEEN. 1. B.P. 1/1: Census by Charles: Aug. 17, 1840. (B.P. = Bussell Papers). Charles Bussell provided a census of the local people as follows: Captain Molloy heads the list; Mrs Molloy & 4 children follow and (George Blechynden wheelwright is third on the list.)

George Blechynden Senior, as an experienced wheelwright and carpenter, was kept busy not only at the Vasse. It is recorded, for instance, that he helped with the building of St Werburgh's Chapel at Mt Barker. It stands to reason that, experienced wheelwright and carpenter as he was, his work would have been well sought in many areas.

Another bit worth mentioning is that George senior made the beautiful arches in St Mary's Anglican church Busselton. E.O.G. Shann author of 'Cattle Chosen' mentions him working on the sides and roof of the building.

The death and burial of George Blechynden Senior is recorded as taking place at Bridgetown in 1889. His grave is unmarked.

George Blechynden was a cousin of Harrison Blechynden. Both young men came to under the auspices of William Locke Brockman and arrived aboard the Minstrel 20 Jan 1830. Some sources have both arriving as carpenters; another source has Harrison as a farmer. Harrison, after the end of his indenture to Brockman became a farmer in the Beverley area. George continued in carpentry as the above entries indicate. Both men helped build Brockman's residence at Herne Hill, a property close to Perth W.A.

Harrison Blechynden and his wife Charlotte (nee Robus) Blechynden were the English ancestors of our own very large Western Australian Blechynden family.

GEORGE BLECHYNDEN JUNIOR

JILL FEUTRIL'S ARTICLE RE GEORGE BLECHYNDEN SENIOR (HARRISON BLECHYNDEN'S COUSIN) AND GEORGE BLECHYNDEN JUNIOR, HALF-CASTE SON OF GEORGE BLECHYNDEN SENIOR

(The spelling of Nilgie used below is as recorded in a typed entry of Busselton St Mary's C.E. church entries).

There is no record found to date of George Blechynden Senior having married. It must be concluded, however, that sometime around 1843 or earlier he had an association with an Aboriginal woman that resulted in the birth of a child named George Blechynden Junior.

Records from St Mary's Church of England Busselton list a George Blechynden JUNIOR as having married an Aboriginal woman named Jane Nilgie on 19 May 1864. (ed. The above marriage certificate has the date as 19 Jul 1864 -see also note below). George Blechynden Junior's age on his marriage record is given as being over 21 years, Nilgie's age as being under 21 years. Both George Junior and Jane Nilgie each signed the register with a cross. Research has so far found no evidence of descendants of this marriage.

St Mary's Church of England Busselton has records of births deaths and marriages kept from circa 1845. Below is a photographed copy of the marriage record of George Jr and Nilgie from a book containing typed entries of the church records.

Note: The date on this St Mary's Church of England Busselton record is 19 May 1864. It is thought that this may have been translated incorrectly as the date of their marriage certificate is 19 Jul 1864.

The entries are recorded beneath columns at the top of each page from the left in seven categories: When and where married; Name and surname; Under 21 years or above 21 years; Condition (i.e., bachelor or spinster); Rank or profession; Residence at time of marriage; Father's name and surname and rank or profession.

George Senior describes himself in the register as a wheelwright. George Junior is recorded as a labourer, residence Blackwood. Jane's entry is as a servant, residence Busselton, father's name Dickey, an aboriginal.

The licence was by Reverend Henry W. Brown; the witnesses were a Samuel Rose Junior and a T. Tims, although there is a question mark after the name Tims possibly because the hand-written original was hard to decipher, in which case the name Tims may be incorrect. Of note: St Mary's Church of England place of worship in Busselton is a church, not a cathedral, as it has sometimes been described.

It seems that George Blechynden Senior cared for his son. He gave the boy his own names, and given George Senior's obvious devotion to the church evidenced by his free giving of his labour to church building, it seems likely he provided Christian teachings and perhaps schooling to his son. Moreover, he was present and signed the register at George Junior's Church marriage to Jane Nilgie. George Senior possibly held hopes that his son would follow him in carpentry or another worthwhile pursuit.

George Junior, however, apparently fell by the wayside. It is a shame because it seems he did have some advantages including those described above: at one of his court appearances 20 Sep 1886, he is described thus: 'The man George Blechynden is a half-caste and thoroughly civilised, understands English well.' George was fined 20 pounds on this occasion with two sureties of 10 pounds each. In default of sureties, six months gaol.

The above entry (and two others re half-caste George) was found in a Microsoft Excel database: aboriginal names of WA 1826 to 1950. In one of these entries (21 Feb 1885) George Junior says he was depressed because his 'woman left him.' This woman presumably was not Nilgie; she is recorded as having left him soon after their marriage. The three references are: 856, 857, and 858.

In her diary Fanny Brockman described 'old Nilgy, nice old fat black thing' slowly following the sheep with George on Alfred Bussell's run at Donnelly River in 1870. Ngilgi and George later worked for Fanny and John Brockman at Ellensbrook, mostly shepherding down at Boranup. They are mentioned frequently in Fanny's diary until mid-1873, when they seem to have left; Fanny noting in August that John Brockman had settled up with George.

NGILGIE

This section gives a glimpse of Ngilgie and George Blechynden junior, living and being brought up between two vastly different cultures in the pioneering days in the new Colony.

NGILGIE: COMPILED BY ANGELA BLECHYNDEN, 1995, P.1

NGILGIE

B 1845 Margaret River area.

D 12/9/1921 Moore River Cemetery Mogumber.

M 19/7/1864 to George Blechynden, St Mary's Church Busselton.

"Ngilgie (Ngilgie, Nylgee) was living on the Welshpool reserve at the time that Daisy Bates took up residence there to collect information from the older people about traditional Aboriginal culture in the south-west. Daisy Bates was an English woman who travelled over much of Western Australia, South Australia and the Northern Territory in the early part of this century, taking notes on Aboriginal society and culture. She also wrote for several Australian and English newspapers and magazines, on Aborigines of Australia. Daisy Bates was particularly interested in the languages spoken throughout the south western region, and Ngilgie supplied her with a vocabulary of 1400 words of Bibbulmun, one of the languages now classified as belonging to the Nyungar group of languages. In addition, Ngilgie gave Daisy Bates several sentences in Bibbulmun, which she was able to transcribe. In this way, Ngilgie has contributed directly to what is now known about the language of the region. As Bibbulmun was the principal language recorded by Daisy Bates, this could account for how the term has come to be applied generally by some authors. The Bibbulmun lands were in the Margaret River area, where Ngilgie was born.

Ngilgie is said to have been named after a swamp wallaby. At around the time she was born, her father was about to kill the wallaby which he came across while hunting for food. However the animal escaped from him, and in this way revealed to him that it shared a totem, or life spirit, with his baby daughter.

Ngilgie grew up in the Ellensbrook area where she formed a close bond with the Bussell family, maintaining these ties throughout her lifetime. She was known for her gentle manner, perfect English, and her kindness to others. She had a great love of animals, and when living at Welshpool at the approximate age of sixty she had 32 dogs, 7 goats and 12 fowl. Her fondness for animals sometimes led her into trouble as when her goats damaged property on or around the reserve. Eventually, the police shot her 32 dogs, presumably because they were not licensed. Ngilgie was deeply upset, and she left Welshpool and returned home to Busselton.

According to Daisy Bates, Ngilgie was born around 1845 in the Busselton are, and her parents were Aborigines from that locality. However, the Aborigines Department records show her to be the niece of George Warren, a settler. George Warren's wife, Cecilia Dinah Warren (nee?), was from the Bunbury district originally so that this relationship could have been through her and either Ngilgie's father, Weedugit, or her mother, Wooragan." p.229 NYUNGAR TRADITION 'Glimpses of the Aborigines of South Western Australia, 1829 - 1914.' By Lois Tilbrook, UWA Press, 1983.

NGILGIE: COMPILED BY ANGELA BLECHYNDEN, 1995, p.2

NYUNGAR TRADITION, p 35 'Marriage was at times unofficially encouraged between the men (settlers) and Aboriginal women who had received an education in the mission schools and who had adopted the Christian faith because it was seen as a way of ensuring that the men settled down and provided the much needed trade skills and labour and that the women were "looked after".'

Creation of the Welshpool Reserve. Page 60, NYUNGAR TRADITION. 'One saving was to be an old blind Aboriginal, Urian (Yughrin), who was living in Bunbury. Other aborigines in Bunbury had apparently refused to look after him, and the Aborigines Department had to pay a local woman one pound a week to care for him. Prinsep reasoned that if he was moved to the reserve at Welshpool, almost 40 pounds a year could be saved as the superintendant could look after him as part of his duties.' (ref 9 - ADF, 1903, file 3)

It is not clear from the records why the other aboriginals in Bunbury were reluctant to care for Urian, although they may have feared his powers. Ngilgie (Nilgie) refused to have anything to do with him because she believed he had killed her brother.

Welshpool reserve closed in 1911. (Ngilgie went to Moore River.) Note 13. Reference is made to Ngilgie in ADF files (1902,139; 1901,33) and also in Bates, typescript of notes.

Len Collard writes in "A Nyungar Interpretation of Ellensbrook and Wonerup Homesteads" on page 82 ; 'Nilgi was a local Nyungar woman whose family came from the Augusta-Margaret River district. Nilgi's parents were Wooragan and Weedugit. It is claimed that she came to Ellensbrook one night when her mother Wooragan and some other Nyungar women were stealing potatoes from the Bussell vegetable garden. Ellen Bussell was reported to have caught them red-handed. As they ran off they forgot Nilgi who was left in the garden. Ellen Bussell apparently reprimanded Wooragan for her behaviour and Wooragan declared that the ground was now her baby's and she would not take potatoes from this garden again. Ellen Bussell then replied "we will take care of you and the baby". From then on Wooragan and Nilgi divided their time between the bush and the homestead. Nilgi spent much time at the homestead learning to read and write with the Bussell children. She learnt the conventions of the Wedjela social system and its class distinctions and spoke refined English, sang hymns and recited psalms on Sunday. Nilgi was also educated into the social laws and traditions of her own Nyungar family as she travelled up and down the coast performing the activities and duties of Nyungar women. Nilgi worked at the homestead doing various domestic chores and stock work. She seemed happy to move between her Nyungar and Wedjela social networks. However, when it was time for her to be betrothed to her Nyungar husband she rejected him. Later Nilgi was recorded as marrying another Nyungar (?) man George Blechynden on the 19 July 1864.(native file ROY WA HIST SOC, BSN BUTTER FACT BRNCH)

Compiled by Angela Blechynden 1995.

Much of the information in Angela Blechynden's above article and other pieces of content in George's section on NGILGIE came out of personal discussions Angela had with Professor Len Collard.

Professor Leonard Collard

<https://www.noongarculture.org.au/noongar-dictionary/>

Noongar Published Resources

Professor Len Collard is a Whadjuk/Balardong Nyungar and traditional owner of the Perth region. He has a background in literature and communications and his research interests are in the area of Aboriginal studies, including Noongar interpretive histories and Noongar theoretical and practical research models. Professor Collard has conducted research for the Australian Research Council, the National Trust of, the Western Australian Catholic Schools and the Swan River Trust.

His research has broadened the understanding of the many unique characteristics of Aboriginal people and improved the appreciation of Aboriginal culture and heritage of the south-west of Australia. Len's ground-breaking theoretical work has put Noongar cultural research on the national stage.

Nilgie

Ngilgie and her pets

PAPERS OF DAISY BATES MS 365 MANUSCRIPT

<https://www.slwa.wa.gov.au/pdf/mn/daisybates/acc6193.pdf>

ABORIGINAL PERTH AND BIBBULMUN BIOGRAPHIES AND LEGENDS, DAISY BATES

NGILGEE AND HER LOVER An Aboriginal Coquette, p. 118

NGILGEE AND HER LOVER

An Aboriginal Coquette

In our civilised world the great science of flirting is supposed to have begun with our "first mother," Eve, who, the moment she cast her eyes upon the serpent, proceeded to perk and preen herself before him, and perform the sundry other little feminine tricks with which her modern daughters are so familiar, until, as might have been expected, she fell an easy victim, through her vanity and curiosity, to the wiles of the tempter. Long before this historical coquette had started all the troubles of man and womankind, the forerunners of Ngilgee, the subject of this story, were practising woman's wiles in their own savage way upon the men of their day. Eve had a considerable advantage over "those who went before her," since, apparently, Adam knew not the hidden foolishness of woman's character, having had knowledge of but one of the species, whereas a study of many specimens of womankind is required before a man can master the ABC of the female character and its innumerable intricacies. According to Mark Twain and other reputable writers of early history, Eve had more than her fair share of "womanly" attributes, and had Adam been anything but the thickheaded, selfish, greedy man he was, he would have been round to see what Eve was doing, long before the serpent had worked his wicked way, and would have thereby "saved the situation."

It is not known when, in savagedom, flirting first began. The female anthropoid apes (who are said by some to have preceded humans upon the earth) possessed the loves and hates and jealousies and wily ways that their human successors have practised in varying degrees throughout the prehistoric ages. In the early days of mankind upon the earth, the male looked upon the woman and fancied her, in much the same fashion as the aborigine does to-day, and we may be sure that the woman saw her destiny in a flash of the eye, just as she does to-day. According as that destiny was pleasing to her or otherwise, so the answering flash made known, and if "mate found mate," each knew the preliminary "clubbing" was but a pretence, and the woman was happy.

In the days when a white West Australia was in its very early youth, Ngilgee was born in some part of her father's hunting grounds in the district north of Cape Leeuwin, and through force of circumstances became an appanage of a white man's household. It is not known when she had her first lover—the "eternal woman" peeps early from the eyes of the native child—but many and many a native and half-caste youth fell under the spell of Ngilgee's sable witcheries, and many an episode came and passed, while the white children, who were her elders, were still, so to speak, in the nursery. Ngilgee, in those days, was an aboriginal beauty. A round, bright face and shapely form, beautiful teeth and eyes, dark wavy hair, and a skin clear and smooth as burnished bronze, were some of her attributes. Her hands and feet were remarkably small and finely formed, as are those of all the Tondarup breed. Her smile, even now in her old days, lights up her whole face and gives a glimpse of the fascination it must have held in her youth, when it was a rarely winning one.

ABORIGINAL PERTH AND BIBBULMUN BIOGRAPHIES AND LEGENDS, DAISY BATES

NGILGEE AND HER LOVER, An Aboriginal Coquette, p. 119

But Ngilgee was a born flirt, for flirts black and white are born as well as made, and it was early days with her when she knew her value and how to enhance every native good quality she possessed. Savage man and so-called civilised man are attracted by exactly the same qualities in woman. Ngilgee therefore, became an adept in the art of posing. If a young weeabindee (young man of her marry class) glanced at her neat ankle, Ngilgee either withdrew it in soft coyness or pretended she didn't see the admiring glances and exhibited a little more of the tantalising limb. Ngilgee in those days was modestly clothed, according to white ideas, and therefore many of her personal charms were hidden from the eyes of aspiring weeabindee, but I am quite sure that Mistress Ngilgee, who is to this day proud of her still handsome shoulders, found some opportunity of displaying their beauties to the youth of the district. Since she had a janga (white people's) looking glass to tell her the charm of her eyes and smile, she must have used these with the utmost advantage to herself and confusion to her many lovers.

Amongst these lovers was a young half-caste called "Whitey-brown George," a well set-up, fine-looking young fellow. He became Ngilgee's shadow, followed her wherever she went, waylaid her on her way to cattle paddock or pig pen, made her presents of lollies, of money, of native fruits, roots and fresh foods, and in the orthodox native way tried by these gifts to win her favour. Ngilgee was coy, or scornful, or unbelieving, according to the mood in which Whitey-brown George found her. She ridiculed him to his face, and "carried on" with all the methods approved by the white coquette of the present day.

Other young native women made eyes at the fine strapping young half-caste, but he never looked at them. Ngilgee witnessed the attempts to wrest her lover from her, and although she saw he was too much attached to her to give a thought to those others for the time, she nevertheless resented the attempts at poaching, and it being as easy for a native to get up a subject for quarrelling as it is for a Celt, Ngilgee was not long in finding some reason—other than Whitey-brown George—for a fight. She very soon, in this manner, swept her would-be rivals off the field.

At last she consented to make her lover happy, and they were married by a Vasse Justice of the Peace. Ngilgee went to her husband's camp, and although she had been reared since her babyhood with white people, she took up the native life con amore. She hunted daily for roots and small game, while Whitey-brown George fished in the estuaries or chased the kangaroo and emu in the thickly-timbered hunting grounds of his forefathers. *

How long this pleasant time lasted is not known. One day a young half-caste

Amongst these lovers was a young half caste called "whitey-brown George," a well set-up, fine looking young fellow. . . At last, she consented to make him happy, and they were married by a Vasse Justice of the Peace.

ABORIGINAL PERTH AND BIBBULMUN BIOGRAPHIES AND LEGENDS, DAISY BATES

NGILGIE AND HER LOVER, An Aboriginal Coquette, p. 120

girl came on a visit to her Vasse relations, amongst whom, of course, was Ngilgee, for there is a certain relationship between all the natives of the South-Western coast. The half-caste girl and her parents came as a matter of course to Ngilgee's hut, and then the trouble began. The faithless Whitey-brown George immediately transferred his attentions to the newcomer. Ngilgee did not fight her rival—native etiquette forbade a quarrel with a guest—so she could only watch the progress of the new state of affairs. Who shall say how much mortified vanity, or how much real love, was hurt by the change in Whitey-brown George. Of course there were recriminations, but Ngilgee possessed a certain pride, and when at the close of a more than usually bitter quarrel Whitey-brown George said he didn't want a black woman—he wanted one of his own colour—Ngilgee knew the end had come. So she said to him, "Go to your daj'jet (an offensive term used by the natives towards half-castes); I don't want a half-caste who doesn't want me. I can get plenty of my own colour, and yung'ar (full-blooded natives) are better any day than daj'jet."

Of course Whitey-brown George beat her for the insult, and Ngilgee went back to her people.

Now, we talk of a disappointment in love being the cause of this white man acting so, and that white woman doing thus and so on. Well "when it comes to a man in the case," women, white or black, act according to their temperaments, and show how truly they are "sisters under their skins." Ngilgee's heart was hardened from that time, and she became a wanderer throughout and beyond her district.

Here and there she travelled, sometimes with an "acting-husband" (a happy expression invented by herself), sometimes alone; but she never spoke to Whitey-brown George again. His half-caste wife ran away from him after a short period of married life, and Whitey-brown George wasn't above sending messages to Ngilgee, offering to come back to her, and promising to give up all other women, if she would only take him back. Ngilgee was adamant, and neither entreatment nor threats had power to alter her determination. She had been legally married—for both knew so much of the white man's law—and Ngilgee was aware that Whitey-brown George could compel her to return to him, so she fled towards Bunbury, Mandurah and Perth, and as there were no railways in those days, she felt safe from pursuit and arrest. Still, had she been caught, she had a good excuse for not returning to Whitey-brown George, since, according to native law, the marriage was illegal both of them being Tondarups. All Tondarups of the same generation are "brothers and sisters," and must not marry. Ngilgee had conveniently forgotten, or ignored, this fact when she married Whitey-brown George, but she remembered it when the occasion arose, and so she never returned to her husband.

When a native woman makes a wrong or illegal marriage in the above manner, she can never "go straight" again, that is she can be "picked up" by any Tondarup, and she cannot refuse, because she had already been mootchoo (made a wrong marriage). Ngilgee's next "public" appearance was as the "wife" of Timbal, a Vasse Tondarup. After Timbal's death, she "married" Baaburgurt, another Tondarup, who died in 1906, leaving Ngilgee a still-blooming widow. Since Baaburgurt's death she has had many suitors. One came all the way from New Norcia and vainly tried to induce Ngilgee to accompany him back to the Mission. Another Gingin man sought her favour but she would have none of *Whitey-brown George said he didn't want a black woman-he wanted one of his own colour-Ngilgee knew the end had come. So she said to him, "Go to your own daj'jet (an offensive term used by natives for half-castes).. Ngilgee was adamant . . . and so she never returned to her husband.*

NGILGIE AND HER LOVER, An Aboriginal Coquette, p. 121

him and he, poor fellow, wandering wretched and disconsolate about Perth, looking for another "yagga" (wife); was run over by a train at Subiaco and killed.

One day a young half-caste came to the native reserve, where Ngilgee is now enjoying a glorious "Indian summer of content." The New Norcia man was still on the reserve waiting and hoping for Ngilgee's consent, but as soon as the new-comer arrived everyone in camp saw that in a moment Ngilgee had fallen "head over heels" in love with him. He was young enough to be her grandson, but what of that? Love levels all, and to Ngilgee's great joy the young half-caste became her goortguttuk (lover). It was during his stay that I had an opportunity of seeing what a finished coquette Ngilgee was. The native method of donning a janga booka (white fellow's skirt or cloak) has quite an evening dress effect. The waist-band of the skirt is brought underneath one arm and the hook and eye of the waist-band are fastened over the shoulder of the other arm, the plaquet-hole forming an opening, thus leaving the two arms free, and allowing a fair amount of shoulders and bust to become visible.

Ngilgee's shoulders are almost Nance O'Neil-esque in the fine effect they produce, and they still have the soft smoothness and clearness of skin of her younger days. Her hair is somewhat grey; this, she says, is due to her having been mootchoo; but a brilliant handkerchief or a still more brilliant hat covers the greyness, and her teeth are as fine as ever.

So Ngilgee did not feel herself handicapped in her pursuit of the young half-caste, and matters proceeded so far that the young man came over to her hut to inspect it with a view of becoming a permanent lodger. The movement was unwise, for the New Norcia man and the Gingin man were on the reserve, and on the young half-caste's return from Ngilgee's hut he received such a sinister welcome from them that he promptly fled to Guildford and gave up all further thought of Ngilgee.

Poor Ngilgee! She was debarred from following him for many reasons—her dogs, her hut, her rations, her dignity most of all stood in the way, and so she had to let her youthful lover go. She became still more cruel to her two remaining admirers, who she finally and flatly, even violently, refused, continuing, however to display her charms before them, until at last one fled to his death and the other returned to New Norcia.

The young half-caste never ventured on the reserve again, for although he was "civilised" and had been reared with white people since his childhood he had still the profoundest belief in native magic, and no entreating messages from Ngilgee could persuade him to revisit the reserve. He even put a greater distance than Guildford between himself and Ngilgee, having a most wholesome fear of his rivals' magic powers.

So Ngilgee's second "real" love affair—for the intermediate ones were incidents only—also came to grief. Whitey-brown George still lives somewhere in the South-West, but he is old now, and is a "ration" man—a sort of aborigineal "remittance man," and does not want Ngilgee nor any other woman. Ngilgee wends the even tenor of her ways on the reserve, waiting and hoping for the return of her young half-caste lover. She often tries to "sing" him back to her, and many a night I have lain awake listening to her mournful crooning, but no "magic song" of woman will bring back a native lover when once the fear of magic enters his soul. Ngilgee may croon and croon, but never more will her young lover return.

The young half-caste never ventured on the reserve again, for though he was "civilised" and had been reared with white people since his childhood he had still the profoundest belief in native magic, and no entreating messages from Ngilgee could persuade him to visit the reserve. . . .

Nyungar tradition:

"GLIMPSES OF THE ABORIGINES OF SOUTH " 1829-1914
by LOIS TILBROOK, UWA PRESS 1983 Pages 228-229

NGILGIE

Ngilgie (Nilgie, Nyilgee) was living on the Welshpool reserve at the time that Daisy Bates took up residence there to collect information from the older people about traditional Aboriginal culture in the south-west. Daisy Bates was an English woman who travelled over much of Western Australia, South Australia and the Northern Territory in the early part of this century, taking notes on Aboriginal society and culture. She also wrote for several Australian and English newspapers and magazines, on Aborigines of Australia. Daisy Bates was particularly interested in the languages spoken throughout the south-western region, and Ngilgie supplied her with a vocabulary of 1400 words of Bibbulmun, one of the languages now classified as belonging to the Nyungar group of languages. In addition, Ngilgie gave Daisy Bates several sentences in Bibbulmun, which she was able to transcribe. In this way, Ngilgie has contributed directly to what is now known about the language of the region. As Bibbulmun was the principal language recorded by Daisy Bates, this could account for how the term has come to be applied generally by some authors. The Bibbulmun lands were in the Margaret River area, where Ngilgie was born.

Ngilgie is said by Daisy Bates to have been named after a swamp wallaby. At around the time she was born, her father was about to kill the wallaby which he came across while hunting for food. However, the animal escaped from him, and in this way revealed to him that it shared a totem, or life spirit, with his baby daughter.

Ngilgie grew up in the Ellensbrook area where she formed a close bond with the Bussell family, maintaining these ties throughout her lifetime. She was known for her gentle manner, perfect English, and her kindness to others. She had a great love of animals, and when living at Welshpool at the approximate age of sixty she had 32 dogs, 7 goats and 12 fowl. Her fondness for animals sometimes led her into trouble as when her goats damaged property on and around the reserve. Eventually, the police shot her 32 dogs, presumably because they were not licensed. Ngilgie was deeply upset, and she left Welshpool and returned home to Busselton.

According to Daisy Bates, Ngilgie was born around 1845 in the Busselton area, and her parents were Aborigines from that locality. However, the Aborigines Department records show her to be the niece of George Warren, a settler. George Warren's wife, Cecilia Dinah Warren (née ?), was from the Bunbury district originally so that this relationship could have been through her and either Ngilgie's father, Weedugit, or her mother, Wooragan.¹¹

ABORIGINAL BIOGRAPHICAL INDEX - AIATSIS Mura Collections Catalogue

Aboriginal Biographical Index entry \(sirsidynix.net.au\)Blechynden, GeorgeCALL NUMBER:994.01099412 COLTITLE:*ABORIGINAL BIOGRAPHICAL INDEX ENTRY*PHYSICAL DESCRIPTION:

PAGE 82

GENERAL NOTE:

THE ABI IS A NAME INDEX TO
PUBLISHED MATERIALS IN THE AIATSIS
LIBRARY. SOME RECORDS REFER TO
DECEASED PEOPLE OR USE WORDS
WHICH REFLECT THE ATTITUDE OF THE
TIME OR THE AUTHOR AND MAY BE OFFENSIVE.

ACCESS:

NOT FOR INTER LIBRARY LOAN

ABSTRACT:

GEORGE BLECHYNDEN; ASSOCIATED WITH THE AREA OF WONNERUP;
RECORDED AS MARRYING NILGI
[NGILGI] IN JULY 1864

PERSONAL SUBJECT:BLECHYNDEN, GEORGEPLACE:BUSSELTON MAP AREA \(SW WA S150-05\)COLLECTION:

ABORIGINAL BIOGRAPHICAL INDEX

LANGUAGE/GROUP:NOONGAR / NYOONGAR PEOPLE W41SOURCE:

A NYUNGAR INTERPRETATION OF
ELLENSBROOK AND WONNERUP
HOMESTEADS / COMPILED BY LEN
COLLARD FOR THE NATIONAL TRUST
OF AUSTRALIA (W.A.), [EAST PERTH,
W.A.]: HERITAGE COUNCIL OF
WESTERN AUSTRALIA, 1994

Ngilgi, approximately 1845-1921CALL NUMBER:994.01099412 COLTITLE:*ABORIGINAL BIOGRAPHICAL INDEX
ENTRY*PHYSICAL DESCRIPTION:

PAGE 82

GENERAL NOTE:

THE ABI IS A NAME INDEX TO
PUBLISHED MATERIALS IN THE AIATSIS
LIBRARY. SOME RECORDS REFER TO
DECEASED PEOPLE OR USE WORDS
WHICH REFLECT THE ATTITUDE OF THE
TIME OR THE AUTHOR AND MAY BE OFFENSIVE.

ACCESS:

NOT FOR INTER LIBRARY LOAN

ABSTRACT:

NILGI [NGILGI]: FAMILY CAME FROM AUGUSTA-MARGARET RIVER REGION;
PARENTS WERE WOORAGAN AND WEEDUGIT; ASSOCIATED WITH THE AREA OF WONNERUP; SPENT TIME AT ELLENSBROOK FARM HOME; LEARNT
TO READ AND WRITE ALONGSIDE BUSSELL CHILDREN AT ELLENSBROOK;
DID DOMESTIC AND STOCK WORK AT ELLENSBROOK; TRAVELLED UP AND DOWN THE COAST PERFORMING DUTIES OF NYUNGAR WOMEN; MARRIED NYUNGAR MAN GEORGE
BLECHYNDEN IN JULY 1864

PERSONAL SUBJECT:NGILGI, APPROXIMATELY 1845-1921PLACE:BUSSELTON MAP AREA \(SW WA S150-05\)COLLECTION:

ABORIGINAL BIOGRAPHICAL INDEX

LANGUAGE/GROUP:NOONGAR / NYOONGAR PEOPLE W41SOURCE:

A NYUNGAR INTERPRETATION OF
ELLENSBROOK AND WONNERUP
HOMESTEADS / COMPILED BY LEN
COLLARD FOR THE NATIONAL TRUST
OF AUSTRALIA (W.A.), [EAST PERTH,
W.A.]: HERITAGE COUNCIL OF
WESTERN AUSTRALIA, 1994

NYUNGAR TRADITION Glimpses of Aborigines of South- (1829-1914), Lois Tilbrook, UWA PRESS
 1983 Pages 228-229. https://aiatsis.gov.au/sites/default/files/catalogue_resources/m0022954_a.pdf

Chart showing Ngilgie's family

Nyungar tradition : glimpses of Aborigines of south-western Australia, 1829-1914 / Lois Tilbrook

Bib ID 2024163

Format Book

Author Tilbrook, Lois, 1943- Lois Tilbrook (Open Library)

Description Nedlands, W.A. : University of Western Australia Press, 1983 xx, 244 p. : ill., facsims., geneal. tables, ports. ; 23 x 32 cm.

ISBN 0855641835

Notes Includes index to names on family trees, and names in text.
Bibliography: p. 237-238.

Subjects Australian Aborigines: Nyungar. Families. Genealogical aspects. Western Australia, 1829-1914 | Noongar (Australian people) | Aboriginal Australians -- Western Australia -- Genealogy. | Substance use - Alcohol - Availability, dry areas etc. | Religions - Christianity - Catholic Church. | Government policy - State and territory - Western Australia. | Settlement and contacts - Colonisation - 1788-1850. | Law enforcement - Police conduct and attitudes. | Government policy - Initial period and protectionism - 1901-1925. | Substance use - Alcohol. | History - Genealogy and family history. | Noongar / Nyungar / Nyungah people (W41) (WA SI50) | Employment - Labour market. | Western Australia -- Genealogy. | Swan River (SW WA SH50-14) | Goonininup / Mount Eliza / Swan Brewery (Perth SW WA SH50-14) | South East Western Australia (SE WA SH51, SH52, SI51, SI52) | New Norcia (SW WA SH50-10)

NOTES

6. Ibid.
7. ADF 1905, 156.
8. ADF 1906, 593.
9. ADF 1903, 3.
10. Ibid.
11. Ibid.
12. ADF 1902, 36.
13. ADF 1905, 153.

8. THE STATUS OF THE ABORIGINAL

1. ADF 1898, 630.
2. ADF 1905, 164.
3. ADF 1898, 791.
4. ADF 1908, 859.
5. Brockman 1874, microfilm.
6. ADF 1902, 552.
7. ADF 1901, 412.
8. ADF 1906, 640.

10. FEATURES OF THE FAMILY TREES

1. William Harris to the editor, Sunday Times 6/4/1913.
2. Moore 1884: 256, 413.
3. Salvado 1977: 63.
4. Curr 1886: 352.
5. Smithies, Letters, 26/10/1844, 2/11/1841.

11. NYUNGAR FAMILY TREES

1. Jack Davis's works include two plays, Kulark and The Dreamers, in addition to several volumes of poetry. He was editor of the magazine Identity produced by the Aboriginal Publications Foundation, for several years. He is represented in a number of volumes, including Berndt and Berndt 1979, in which he gives an overview of Aboriginal/European relations in Western Australia over the previous 150 years.

2. ADF 1901, 51.
3. The Hayward family sporting history is being researched and written up by Eric Hayward, son of Eric Hayward the footballer, with support from the Aboriginal Arts Board of Australia.
4. An account of the deputation to the premier by William Harris and party, is given in Biskup 1973: 158-60, and also in the Native Union Newsletter January 1970. Articles also appear in the West Australian 9/2/1906 and 14/2/1913; and the Sunday Times of 6/4/1913 and 11/3/1928.
5. This tree has been researched by Anna Haebich as part of her Ph.D studies.
6. Collett Barker, Journal of Captain C. Barker 18/1/1830-26/3/1831 at King George's Sound, extracted by Neville Green.
7. The lyrics for this song were told to SWAS by Jan Young.
8. Research on the Quartermaine family name has been carried out by descendants of Elijah Quartermaine, in preparation for a family history which they are compiling.
9. The story of Mary Helen Pangieran has been written up by Rica Erickson in Poppam 1979: 28.
10. Schorer 1974.
11. See Mulvaney 1967: 11 especially; Native Welfare Department Newsletter, 1971; and an article by George Russo in the Sunday Times December 1978.
12. An account of the rescue of the passengers and crew off the wreck the Georgette, emphasizing Grace Bussell's role, has been written up in several newspapers, including Inquirer of 31/1/1877 and 16/1/1878; West Australian Times of 4/1/1878; West Australian of 13/6/1932.
13. Reference is made to Ngilgie (Nilgie) in ADF files (1902, 139; 1901, 33) and also in Bates, typescript of notes.

33/1901 = F.W. Tuckett - Native Affairs. La Grange Bay,
(but La Grange is Broome)
36/1902 = in Welshpool Native Settlement 235 where Ngilgie was.
139/1901 = R. M. Bunbury Re native George Hughes reported to be blind & unable to look after himself.

Settlement of the south-west of Australia had only taken place some twenty years previous to Ngilgian's birth, and the white settlers' homes were still few and far between. Yet handicapped as the women of those early days must have been, owing to the crinoline fashion of the times, the young gentlewomen of those days set themselves from the beginning to learn farming and domestic duties from the servants they had brought with them from their British homes, realising that with the termination of the contract of service, the imported help would seek independence for themselves.

Ngilgian's name was given her by her father—native infants are not named until they can "smile in response" to their names.

Wedugit was about to spear a "woorark"—a small marsupial, now extinct—but just as he poised his spear for the throw the "woorark" disappeared.

"Ah," he said, "yalgai yookan geej dawning." ("If I had only) stood a little longer (I would have speared him).")

The little, toddling infant was called Ngilgian (from "yalgai") and given the "woorark" as her personal "totem brother." Her father's group token was the "wepi" (emu) which formed the principal meat food of the group, but though all edible totems were eaten by their totemists, Ngilgian never ate a woorark. "They were my little brothers," she said, "and I liked to see them come and eat and not be afraid of me."

Ngilgian was "daajeluk" (betrothed) in infancy to her mother brother's son—a "yong-gar bo' rung-gur" (kangaroo totem man), and after her babyhood had passed she was frequently left with her adopted "jang-ga" parents, and shared in the lessons and duties and games of her little white sisters.

She became familiar with the white man's laws, social system, conventions and class distinctions, and also with the laws and customs and social organisation of her own people; but though she learned to speak the correct English spoken by her little white companions, and sang jang-ga hymns, and repeated psalm and collect on Sundays, and learned poem and fable taught to the children by the young mothers of those early days, Ngilgian leaned to the laws and traditions, myths and legends, of her own folk.

She would look at the trees and the sea and say, "Marri and jerrail, kol-yung and mung-gaich (mahogany, jarra, wattle, Banksia), and all trees and plants and roots are our 'moorurt' (relations), and many of them are our totem fathers and brothers, and they give us gum to eat, and honey, and 'marrain' (all vegetable food); and the great sea is our 'Mamman Waddam' (Father Sea), and when he is not sulky he sends plenty of 'kalda' (salmon) (mullet) and other big fish into our rivers and bays, so that when we get tired of one kind of food another 'bo' rung-gur' (totem brother) is ready for us.

"Jang-ga" must 'beena, beena, beena' (dig, dig, dig) and work for their 'warrain' (native potato) and baragood ("very good," the early name for the white man's flour); cut our 'marrain' (vegetable food) and meat and water are our 'bo' rung-gurmat' (brother stock), and when we obey our totem laws and do not make mock of our 'bo' rung-gur, or destroy their 'koolong-gur' (buds, flowers, young of anything) our 'bo' rung-gur come themselves. If we broke the 'bo' rung-gur laws our food would all go away and 'yung-ar' and 'yog-ga' and 'koolong-gur' (men, women and children) would all die. 'Demma Goomber' (ancestors) obeyed the laws and told them to our fathers and our fathers tell them to us.

"When 'jang-ga' (white people) first came to our 'boojoor' (ground), our George Timbrell, Bunbury 1898 Age 55, Height 5'4½"

Also called Tindale. Photo by Tunney.

West Australian (Perth, WA: 1879 - 1954), Sat 23 Mar 1935, pg 7
<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article32855723.txt>

Monnop

138

someone to take Monnop's place, so that he could come to the mission and be married to her. Ngung'il'yung did not know the old adage re, striking while the iron is hot, but she acted upon it all the same, and her personal entreaties to the Bishop, who found that this time the native laws were adhered to, resulted in the marriage taking place on the following Sunday.

The "honeymoon" was spent in one of the cottages at the Mission, which the Bishop had built and furnished for the use of young married couples and here the bride and groom received the congratulations of their married friends and held high revel while Monnop's wages lasted. When these were exhausted, the shepherding was resumed, Ngung'il'yung accompanying her husband and fulfilling his dreams of a "shepherd's companion."

The couple lived happily for many years, until Ngung'il'yung died, and then Monnop took a roving contract as drover's assistant, and visited the Kimberleys and many other parts of the Nor'West, but without bringing home a second wife. During Monnop's travels in the Kimberley's he said he met a native woman having four breasts, which shows that 'travellers tales' were told even by the men of the Stone age! During his stay on the native reserve near Cannington, Monnop was a suitor for Ngilgee's hand, but that fair lady preferred her widowhood to any more matrimonial ventures. Monnop retired from the Reserve and returned to the Mission again, only to leave it shortly afterwards in pursuit of another lady-love. Monnop justifies the adage that "there is no fool like an old fool," and I have heard from one young woman who jilted him that some sport is being enjoyed in "passing Monnop on," pretending that an acceptance of his suit will follow his visit to the next "fair" one. Monnop has become entirely regardless of class distinctions now, and will marry any Ballarruk or Tondarup who will give him the chance.

The last I heard of Monnop he was vainly trying to make a nice fat widow accept his money presents and himself, but she, wise woman! was carefully refraining from directly accepting the gifts, while surreptitiously sharing in the good things they provided. Monnop stands a good chance of rejoining Ngung'il'yung at Koorannup, the happy hunting ground beyond the sea, bringing no second mate with him to flutter Ngung'il'yung's wifely bosom.

Monnop is now over sixty years of age, he was one of the boys who were baptised, reared, and married on the Mission, and he is now one of the five remaining pure-blooded descendants of the once numerous Nyeern'goo young'ar (people of "Nyeern'goo") whom Bishop Salvado found camped in the year 1846, beside the water holes on the beautiful uplands now called Victoria Plains. Monnop's father's brother, who was then a young Tondarup boy christened "Bob," was the Bishop's guide to Mow'ra pool, where the New Norcia Mission now stands. The present site is about twelve miles from the spot where the Bishop first encamped, when he came upon the Nyeern'goo natives.

THE STORY OF BANJIL

A Tale of Bibbulmun Motherhood

Banjil, the wife of Binjerung, wanted a little baby, so she went by herself to the great baby-spirit stone at Bokkabeering, and a little spirit boy baby saw her and came to her. Banjil was very young, and she loved and fondled her baby all

139

NGILGI.

An Aboriginal Woman's Life-Story.

By Daisy M. Bates, C.B.E.

NGILGI came into her Bibbulmun world rather dramatically. Her mother Wooragan was stealing potatoes from a Busselton garden, and, being caught in the act, was about to be arrested when the advent of the baby solved the problem. Wooragan said, "This is my baby's ground now, and I can't steal any more potatoes."

"Then," said the young white woman, "we will take care of you and your baby," and in the years that followed Wooragan and her baby divided their days between the white man's home and their own. White settlement had only taken place some 20 years previously, and settlers' homes were few and far between, and the young gentlewomen of those days had to set themselves to learn all farming and domestic duties from the servants they had brought out with them, realising that with the termination of their contract the imported helps would seek independence for themselves.

Ngilgi's name was given her by her father Weedugit from a small woorark (now extinct marsupial) he was about to spear and which vanished just as he raised his spear. "Ah," he said, 'yalgai yookan geej dawning' (if it had stood a little longer I would have speared it). Yalgai became Ngilgi, and the woorark was given her as her personal totem, her father's group totem and main group food being the emu. In accordance with Bibbulmun law, Ngilgi was betrothed in infancy to a "mother's brother's son" whose group totem was the kangaroo, and after her babyhood had passed she was frequently left with her adopted white parents and shared in the lessons and duties and games of her white sisters and brothers. She became as familiar as they with white laws, social systems, conventions, and class distinctions, but she was equally familiar with every law of her own people, and though she learned to speak the refined English of her little sisters and sang hymns and repeated psalms and collects on Sundays, and learned the poems and fables taught by the fine young pioneer mothers of those days, Ngilgi listened to the laws, traditions, myths and legends of her own people.

Up and down the coast Ngilgi wandered with her group, performing all the tasks and duties of Bibbulmun women.

NGILGI.

The gentle pioneer women who had adopted her laid no restraint upon her, and when she returned she resumed her old place with them and shared in their work and play.

She worked for many of the young white women of those days, and had many a story to tell of successes and lapses. She nursed one little baby that afterwards became a fine public servant, and she was always liked and trusted by the whites, for her early associations having been among gentlefolk, she had unconsciously absorbed their ways and manners and fine principles, and the "wild" in her blood was that of the best of her own Bibbulmun type.

Setback for Betrothed.

By and by Ngilgi's betrothed came to claim her. "You have another wife at your male," said Ngilgi, "I won't make your fire unless you send her away."

"But she is my betrothed wife, too," said the bewildered man.

"I will be the only wife in my husband's male," said Ngilgi.

The rejected betrothed made a virtue of necessity and told Ngilgi he could get plenty other wives. "Perhaps you might," grinned Ngilgi, "go and get them; I will find my own husband." Ngilgi's refusal would have meant her death by a brother in the old days, but white settlement had banished this age-old law.

Ngilgi's first choice fell, unhappily, on a half-caste, and the couple were started on their way in life by the kindly white

NGILGI.

An Aboriginal Woman's Life-Story.

By Daisy M. Bates, C.B.E.

NGILGI came into her Bibbulmun world rather dramatically. Her mother Wooragan was stealing potatoes from a Busselton garden, and, being caught in the act, was about to be arrested when the advent of the baby solved the problem. Wooragan said, 'This is my baby's ground now, and I can't steal any more potatoes.' 'Then, said the young white woman, 'we will take care of you and your baby,' and in the years that followed Wooragan and her baby divided their days between the white man's home and their own. White settlement had only taken place some 20 years previously, and the young gentlewomen of those days had to set themselves to learn all farming and domestic duties from the servants they had brought out with them, realising that with the termination of their contract the imported helps would seek independence for themselves. Ngilgi's name was given her by her father Weedugit from a small woorark (now extinct marsupial) he was about to spear and which vanished just as he raised his spear. 'Ah,' he said, 'yalgai yookan geej dawning' (if it had stood a little longer, I would have speared it). Yalgai became Ngilgi, and the woorark was given her as her personal totem, her father's group totem and main group food being the emu. In accordance with Bibbulmun law, Ngilgi was betrothed in infancy to a mother's brother's son whose group totem was the kangaroo, and after her babyhood had passed, she was frequently left with her adopted white parents and shared in the lessons and duties and games of her white sisters and brothers. She became as familiar as they with white laws, social systems, conventions, and class distinctions, but she was equally familiar with every law of her own people, and though she learned to speak the refined English of her little sisters and sang hymns and repeated psalms and collects on Sundays; and learned the poems and fables taught by the fine young pioneer mothers of those days, Ngilgi leaned to the laws, traditions, myths and legends, of her own people. Up and down the coast Ngilgi wandered with her group, performing all the tasks and duties of Bibbulmun women.

NGILGI.

The gentle pioneer women who had adopted her laid no restraint upon her, and when she returned, she resumed her old place with them and shared in their work and play. She worked for many of the young white women of those days, and had many a story to tell of successes and lapses. She nursed one little baby that afterwards became a fine public servant, and she was always liked and trusted by the whites, for her early associations having been among gentlefolk, she had unconsciously absorbed their ways and manners and fine principles, and the 'wild' in her blood was that of the best of her own Bibbulmun type.

Setback for Betrothed.

By and by Ngilgi's betrothed came to claim her. 'You have another wife at your mala,' said Ngilgi, 'I won't make your fire unless you send her away.' 'But she is my betrothed wife, too,' said the bewildered man. 'I will be the only wife in my husband's maia,' said Ngilgi. The rejected betrothed made a virtue of necessity and told Ngilgi he could get plenty other wives. 'Perhaps you might;' grinned Ngilgi, 'go and get them; I will find my own husband.' Ngilgi's refusal would have meant her death by a brother in the old days, 'but white settlement had banished this age-old law. Ngilgi's first choice fell, unhappily, on a half-caste, and the couple were started on their way in life by the kindly white family with whom Ngilgi had sojourned so happily. But the half-caste had a roving eye, and Ngilgi cast him off as summarily as she had dismissed her betrothed. From that time on she picked and chose her mates as she pleased, and discarded them at will, her most effective weapon being one she had learned from some 'Biddy Moriarty' among the settlers. Biddy's one weapon was a bucket of cold water thrown over her drunken, quarrelsome husband, and when Ngilgi saw its effects for offence and defence, she applied it at once to lazy or unfaithful husbands. Apart from her amatory adventures Ngilgi had one great passion. She loved and coveted every dog that came her way. She would work for weeks for no other payment than a little dog she fancied.

Thirty-Two Dogs; Five Suitors.

She was about 60 years old when the writer met her on the Native Reserve at the foot of the Darling Range in the early 1900's; she had then 32 dogs, seven goats, a dozen fowls, four aboriginal suitors, and a half-caste aspirant. A kindly understanding Government had given her a plot of ground, fenced for, flower and vegetable growing, a hut, and even a double bed and spring mattress, for Ngilgi's dogs were her fur rug at night and 32 dogs and a hefty woman required a full-sized double bed. The dogs were of every imaginable breed, the largest being a composite of terrier, mastiff, and collie, and the smallest a little King Charles spaniel, not a foot in length, with only two working legs, half an eye, and rickets. Ngilgi loved them all, and refused to believe evil of them. Young kids and a sick fowl were sometimes added to the living blankets at night, yet in spite of dogs and goats and fowls, Ngilgi had five suitors— Mon-nop of the dingo totem, Woolberr of the black swan totem, Bimba of the turkey totem, and Baaburgurt of the sea mullet totem. Baaburgurt and Woolberr were almost blind, but Bimba and Monnop were only a little over 60, and these two bashed each other whenever they got on the reserve, always hoping that Ngilgi would favour the victor. Baaburgurt relied upon a 'soothing' tongue, and Woolberr on his gifts as a singer and dancer. Ngilgi regarded all four with a complacent eye, and then there entered the young half-caste, young enough to be her grandson. Perhaps memories of her first half-caste stirred Ngilgi. At any rate she said to Jimmy, 'I will take you, and when I go out on their way in life by the kindly white family with whom Ngilgi had so surped so happily. But the half-caste had a roving eye, and Ngilgi cast him off as summarily as she had dismissed her betrothed. From that time on she picked and chose her mates as she pleased, and discarded them at will, her most effective weapon being one she had learned from some "Biddy Moriarty" among the settlers. Biddy's one weapon was a bucket of cold water thrown over her drunken, quarrelsome husband, and when Ngilgi saw its effects for offence and defence, she applied it at once to lazy or unfaithful husbands.

Apart from her amatory adventures Ngilgi had one great passion. She loved and coveted every dog that came her way. She would work for weeks for no other payment than a little dog she fancied.

Thirty-Two Dogs; Five Suitors.

She was about 60 years old when the writer met her on the Native Reserve at the foot of the Darling Range in the early 1900's; she had then 32 dogs, seven goats, a dozen fowls, four aboriginal suitors, and a half-caste aspirant. A kindly understanding Government had given her a plot of ground, fenced for flower and vegetable growing, a hut, and even a double bed and spring mattress, for Ngilgi's dogs were her fur rug at night and 32 dogs and a hefty woman required a full-sized double bed. The dogs were of every imaginable breed, the largest being a composite of terrier, mastiff, and collie, and the smallest a little King Charles spaniel, not a foot in length, with only two working legs, half an eye, and rickets. Ngilgi loved them all, and refused to believe evil of them. Young kids and a sick fowl were sometimes added to the living blankets at night, yet in spite of dogs and goats and fowls, Ngilgi had five suitors—Monnop of the dingo totem, Woolberr of the black swan totem, Bimba of the turkey totem, and Baaburgurt of the sea mullet totem. Baaburgurt and Woolberr were almost blind, but Bimba and Monnop were only a little over 60, and these two bashed each other whenever they got on the reserve, always hoping Ngilgi would favour the victor. Baaburgurt relied upon a "soothing" tongue, and Woolberr on his gifts as a singer and dancer. Ngilgi regarded all four with a complacent eye, and then there entered the young half-caste, young enough to be her grandson. Perhaps memories of her first half-caste stirred Ngilgi. At any rate she said to Jimmy, "I will take you, and when I go out washing you can stay and mind my dogs and things and I will bring you plenty of good food."

Jimmy saw endless days of food and warmth and money from the washing, and he accepted Ngilgi's conditions, but he reckoned without the rejected suitors who ne accepted Ngilgi's conditions, but he reckoned without the rejected suitors who joined forces against 'the yellow dingo who never had a father.'

Monnop threatened him with physical violence, Bimba with deadly magic; Woolberr sang evil things at him, and Baaburgurt hit out wildly with his stick every time he came within reach of the half-caste odour.

Jimmy fled. Baaburgurt "turned dog" in a sense, consoled with Ngilgi, condemned Monnop and Bimba and Woolberr for their cruelty to Jimmy, and soothed Ngilgi that it was not surprising to find him on his way to Ngilgi's hut a few days after Jimmy's flight. Baaburgurt entered the hut, the dogs protesting loudly or feebly according to size. Then followed the goats, the fowls and Ngilgi bringing up the rear.

Short-lived Romance.

Very early next morning a great medley of sound in which dogs, goats, fowls, and Baaburgurt's quavering voice might be distinguished, issued from Ngilgi's maia and presently the door opened and poor Baaburgurt was thrust forth with a bucket of cold water thrown over him to quicken his movements. It was a cold, misty morning, and a dripping, shivering, howling and roaring Baaburgurt came staggering over to the camp. Monnop and Bimba saw the plight of their brother man, and getting blankets and clothes and hot tea, all three came to his assistance. They stripped and rubbed him, warmed and fed him, and while he wailed in minute detail his experience as a twelve-hour's husband. In the midst of the recital, in which dogs, goats and fowls had played their parts, the amazing Ngilgi strode out of her hut, carrying a generous helping of damper and meat, and a billy of tea, which she brought and laid beside Baaburgurt. "I want no man" she said, "but I threw water on you and I am giving you food for drenching you."

Jimmy never again ventured on the Reserve. Monnop and Bimba fought on until Monnop's jawbone was broken and Bimba's ribs smashed in, when both men went back to their dingo and turkey group areas to die. Woolberr was run over by a train and killed, and Baaburgurt was taken to his own group-home district, as the only living member of a once big sea mullet-totem group, and cared for by the kindly Layman family whose father Baaburgurt's own father had killed.

Ngilgi lived on the Reserve until one day the policeman caught her napping and put every one of her 32 dogs out of its misery. Then she shook the dust of the reserve off her feet for ever and wended her way to her old white friends. She was welcomed everywhere, for she had never learned to drink or smoke or steal, and she always responded to courtesy with her own native good manners.

washing you can stay and mind my dogs and things and I will bring you plenty of good food.' Jimmy saw endless days of food and warmth and money from the washing and he accepted Ngilgi's conditions, but he reckoned without the rejected suitors who joined forces against 'the yellow dingo who never had a father.' Monnop threatened him with physical violence, Bimba with deadly magic* Woolberr sang evil things at him, and Baaburgurt hit out wildly with his stick every time he came within reach of the half-caste odour. Jimmy fled. Baaburgurt 'turned dog in a sense, consoled with Ngilgi, condemned Monnop and Bimba and Woolberr for their cruelty to Jimmy, and so soothed Ngilgi that it was not surprising to find him on his way to Ngilgi's hut a few days after Jimmy's flight. Baaburgurt entered the hut, the dogs protesting loudly or feebly according to size. Then followed the goats, the fowls and Ngilgi bringing up the rear.

Short-lived Romance.

Very early next morning a great medley of sound in which dogs, goats, fowls, and Baaburgurt's quavering voice might be distinguished, issued from Ngilgi's maia and presently the door opened and poor Baaburgurt was thrust forth with a bucket of cold water thrown over him to quicken his movements. It was a cold, misty morning, and a dripping, shivering, howling and roaring Baaburgurt came staggering over to the camp. Monnop and Bimba saw the plight of their brother man, and getting blankets and clothes and hot tea, all three came to his assistance. They stripped and rubbed him, warmed and fed him, and while he wailed in minute detail his experience as a twelve-hour's husband. In the midst of the recital, in which dogs, goats and fowls had played their parts, the amazing Ngilgi strode out of her hut, carrying a generous helping of damper and meat, and a billy of tea, which she brought and laid beside Baaburgurt. 'I want no man' she said, 'but I threw water on you and I am giving you food for drenching you.'

Jimmy never again ventured on the Reserve. Monnop and Bimba fought on until Monnop's jawbone was broken and Bimba's ribs smashed in, when both men went back to their dingo and turkey group areas to die. Woolberr was run over by a train and killed, and Baaburgurt was taken to his own group-home district, as the only living member of a once big sea mullet-totem group, and cared for by the kindly Layman family whose father Baaburgurt's own father had killed. Ngilgi lived on the Reserve until one day the policeman caught her napping and put every one of her 32 dogs out of its misery. Then she shook the dust of the reserve off her feet for ever and wended her way to her old white friends. She was welcomed everywhere, for she had never learned to drink or smoke or steal, and she always responded to courtesy with her own native good manners.

Charles Timbul (Timble) and Ngilgie were the first residents at Welshpool Reserve. Ngilgie was born near Augusta in the 1840s and was said to have been raised at the home of Alf Bussell. She later became one of Daisy Bates most valued informants. Timbul was also from the Augusta area and after working on various farms in the south he was granted a reserve farming block in the Coolup area near Fremantle in 1894. He subsequently agreed to exchange this for a block at Welshpool Reserve.

025036PD: Timbul and Ngilgy, sitting in front of hut, with puppies, 1895

From the book For Their Own Good: Aborigines and Government in the south west of 1900-1940, p 62. See also BA129/15

BA129/15: Charles Timbul (seated front centre), Ngilgie (standing right) and others at Welshpool Reserve, 189

The following extracts are from the book Henry Prinseps Empire by Malcolm Allbrook Chapter 5 ANU Press.

"While Aboriginal adults were dying from the impact of colonisation, their children were viewed by the colonisers as worthy recipients of beneficence. The records of the Prinsep, Bussell and Brockman families tell of orphans they believed they had rescued, to be brought up as one of the family."

Historian Anna Haebich has observed that being 'part of the family' generally meant 'cheap clothes, little food and no pay': 'They could train, mould and discipline the children as they wished', she observes, 'and, if there were any problems, they simply blamed the children's racial inheritance.' After a childhood in the family home, these children grew up to become retainers or 'man Fridays', living nearby the family, on permanent duty as general farm and domestic labourers. Most of what we know of Ngilgie comes from Daisy Bates, who knew her as an old woman living at the Welshpool reservation near Perth, where a 'kindly understanding government had given her a plot of ground'. Born in about 1845 on the Bussell property at Ellensbrook near Margaret River, Bates's almost folkloric account tells of her birth, 'just at the moment her mother was caught red-handed robbing a potato-patch, and her unexpected arrival made the potato-patch her ground thereafter, and she became an amusing protégée of the white people who owned it'. Ngilgie 'became the pet of the family' and 'received the same education as the other children until she was 12, when she returned or was taken back by the tribe', as Bates put it, resuming 'the native life con amour'.

From the Book..... Henry Prinseps Empire continues:

In 1866, Ngilgie married George Blechynden, a man described by Bates as a 'half-breed', and went to work for Charlotte Bussell at Cattle Chosen, where George also found employment as a shearer.

Charlotte was ambivalent about Ngilgie as a domestic employee and was concerned about her adherence to 'native ways', even though she had been given 'every advantage and kindness' during her childhood at Ellensbrook. After leaving Cattle Chosen, Bates records that she moved around the south-west between her traditional Wardandi country and Perth, 'her path ... marked with altercations and affrays, either with natives or with the white servants of successive mistresses', working as a domestic labourer, shepherd or 'relapsing into native camp life'.

Daisy Bates met Ngilgie during the 'early 1900s' when she was 60 years old and living on the Aboriginal reserve established by Prinsep at Welshpool near Perth in 1901. In three articles, Bates praised Ngilgie's ability to inhabit her own culture and that of the colonisers:

She was always liked and trusted by the whites, for her early associations having been amongst gentlefolk she had unconsciously absorbed their ways and manners and fine principles, but the wild in her blood was ever upper-most and none of the joys of 'jang-ga' life could equal the delight in taking a dancing part in the 'ke'ning' (corroborees) of her own folk and listening to the myths and traditions of 'Demma Goomber' (great grandparents) times.

Bates was dependent on Ngilgie for her cultural knowledge of the people of the Margaret River area, and utilised her Bibbulman linguistic skills to prepare a 1,400-word vocabulary, which was eventually published by Isobel White in 1985 as part of The Native Tribes of Western Australia. She is described by Bates as 'the rich widow' of the Welshpool reserve, and 'the proud possessor of seven goats, 12 fowls and 32 dogs, incredible mongrels all'. She lived out her life on the reserve, working as a domestic labourer for nearby white families, looking after her animals, and hiding from the police who wanted to destroy them. Eventually the police succeeded, and, according to Bates, 'mercifully destroyed all save the single whole specimen', whereupon 'she shook the dust of the reserve from her shapely feet and retired to the outskirts of Guildford, where she busied herself cleaning and washing for the white man'.

Almost one of the family

Belvidere referred to below is located in the general area where Whitey Brown has been mentioned as possibly buried at or near Piggotts property at Springhill. It is only a few kilometres in a straight line. Maybe there is something in the Battye Library in Carlotta Brockman's handwritten records referred to below which has mention of Whitey Brown. Unless items are typed out, they don't come up in a search. So, anyone who would like to follow this up, needs to read through Carlotta's handwritten records to find more details if they are there.

In 1953, Henry's daughter Carlotta Brockman recalled the Aboriginal people she had known as a child at Belvidere and the family properties in the south-west. Her handwritten childhood memories touch on older traditional bush people such as Burman, whom she admired for his nobility and grandeur, 'a man 'so black with bundle of long spears, his "cooter bage" made of possum skin and his large cloak ... made of Kangaroo skins neatly sewn together with a bone needle and kangaroo tail sinews. She remembered the Aboriginal people of her youth as 'very primitive ... wandering from one hunting ground to another, making no permanent houses and wearing no clothes but their kangaroo skin Bokas ... gentle and friendly in the district, for the white settlers had treated them kindly'. Others lived in 'a collection of bark huts' near the homesteads, and were often noisy, drunk and unruly:

Sometimes there would be a lot of shouting and screaming that used to frighten the children. I remember one day running into the kitchen where my grandmother was busy cooking ... and close to her was a half-naked black woman who was sobbing and most unhappy and to my horror I saw a great spear wound in her leg, all bleeding and sore. I think the men had been fighting about her and that was what all the shouting had been about.

These 'camp natives' could be called on to labour on the farms and around the homestead, but were unreliable and often a nuisance. Carlotta writes of one old Noongar man who 'kept bothering' a Bussell neighbour, who threw a pot of boiling potatoes over him: 'That settled him!' Other Noongars lived in close proximity to the family but had strictly defined relationships with family members. One was Carlo Sears, 'rescued' by Charlotte Bussell, who had been 'distressed to see the pretty little half caste being brought up in the natives' camp, so asked the old black woman to let her have him, which she seems to have been quite willing to do. My grandmother always said she bought Carlo for a stick of tobacco.'

Carlotta continues:

Also at Cattle Chosen were Joolbert, his 'half-African' father Tim Harris, and mother Caroline, who was 'not much of a favourite with the family, nor was Joolbert either'. Janey, 'half-African' and 'very fat and black with frizzy hair', worked in the house, and 'was very fond of creeping into the drawing room and picking out tunes on the piano, while we were at meals in the dining room below'.

Questions posed by Angela Blechynden:

Is Janey the piano player our Jane Nilgie?

Was Joolbert one of her lovers?

Where did her husband Whitey Brown George Blechynden go shearing after Cattle Chosen?

MAGAZINE

A dinner party with Ngilgi

Telling Tales

by Michael O'Hara

Entert.

WEDNESDAY JAN 25 1995 PAGE 17

Ngilgi was found in a potato patch during the 1860s after Ellen Bussell surprised a group of aborigines digging up some vegetables. She remained with the Bussell family and was educated with Ellen's children. When Daisy Bates met the 60-year-old Ngilgi, she met a woman who had been unlucky in love. She had refused to marry her appointed husband, choosing instead a 'lazy, half caste with a roving eye', whom she unceremoniously ditched. By the time of their meeting, Daisy reported that Ngilgi had '32 dogs, seven goats, a dozen fowls, four Aboriginal suitors and a half-caste aspirant.' I was fortunate enough to have met Ngilgi when she turned up at a little dinner party Niomi had prepared in an effort to deplete our overstocked cellar. Ngilgi claimed she had been kidnapped by aliens during the 1920s and then dumped back home in the 1990s.

"Them bloody blokes are no good. Not one of 'em," said the old woman.

"Always sleepin' around with m' cousins n' anything else that moves."

Timothy Rubin looked decidedly uncomfortable at the withering look from his wife.

Time for a fork fiddle, thought Tim, placing his eyes between a candle and his spouse's line of vision.

Was I in a little uncomfortable?

"Surely not all men, Ngilgi?" asked Joanna Trask, posturing herself along the smugly predictable line that there are no absolutes.

"Surely, not all of them."

"The whole bloody lot of 'em," came the barrelling reply.

"And when they're not doin' it, they're thinkin' about doin' it, and when they're not thinkin' about doin' it, they're dead on their feet."

"If you'd known my first husband ..."

"What a lovely piece of fish," blurted Tim, a little piece of it landing on the linen.

More withering looks from his better or poorer, richer or worse.

"... as lazy a fella has never drunk water."

"All emu dance 'cause he had a bit of white fella in 'im."

Suddenly Ngilgi paused, her eyes having floated onto my wife's favourite 19th Century African fertility doll.

A little sigh.

A regathering of her platinum ways.

"Best mistake I ever made."

"Learnt lots 'bout fellas from that."

"Bone lazy mob," Joanna Trask began to open her mouth, but we were all saved by Tim's wife, Petal, who seemed keen to have a say.

"So pray tell, Ngilgi, what does one do with ..."

Now it could have been the Leeuwin Chardonnay, or it may have really been happening, but I swear that at this point Petal Rubin's darling features were transforming themselves into those of a scaly dugile as she arched her neck to ask, "... does one do with a lazy and unfaithful husband, ... him?"

Ngilgi scratched at a couple of imaginary hairs on her chin.

"O! custom was to spear your man in the leg."

Petal leaned closer as she too stroked her chin in agreement.

Tim was turning green.

"But that's no good. No. Best trick ever came from a friend of Mrs Ellen."

"Woman's call Biddy Moriarty, an' she was stuck with a hopeless drinkin' man."

"She said to me once, Ngilgi, you get that bucket full of water and I'll show you somethin'."

"An it's all over 'im an ees off the bed quicker than a bungarra."

"Mrs Ellen, she's taught me the Bible, taught me Keats an' Robbie Burns, but Mrs Biddy taught me all I need to know 'bout fellas."

"Thing is, whether they're movin' at ya, or they won't move out, a bucket o' cold water'll take care of fella problems for life."

"They know why they're gettin' it, the useless brain-gone lot."

Joanna Trask could contain her political sensibilities no longer. Usually a comedy of correctness, tonight her timing missed.

"Oh dear, oh dear," she began, "has it come to this, that we are to douse our men in cold water for sleeping in," she said, the words tripping over her plate of wet, unfinished fish.

I really believe (and Niomi agrees with me on this) that Joanna Trask missed everything that was going on.

Either that, or she is in possession of a defence mechanism that used widely would make for a one-work government within the next 12 years.

Petal Rubin was leading Tim by his nose out the door of Cher's Wacky (the abode) that night, when Joanna stopped their exit with a searching question.

"Tiliim," ever so sugary, "you know we have croquet on Tuesday night, and the poetry reading Thursday afternoon"

... pause for answer.

"I ... um ... I've got a lot on this week, Joanne, m ..."

Didn't hear exactly what Petal muttered ... something like "silly" or "kitch".

I heard what Ngilgi said though.

"Two bucket job, darlin'."

Henry Prinsep's Empire: Framing a distant colony

- Henry Prinsep's Empire: Framing a distant colony - ANU

According to Milward, many colonial families in the region had similar relationships with Aboriginal people, who had been 'adopted' as children and grew up as companions for the settler children. Some were given a rudimentary education but, as they grew older, became part of the station workforce or general labourers around the homestead. The Prinseps themselves considered taking on a child, to be brought up by Josephine and trained to provide domestic labour for the family. 'Little Chloe, Fanny the native's whitey brown child is now at Sandilands under F's [Josephine's aunt Fanny] charge, proposed for Josephine's adoption', wrote Henry Prinsep in 1872, 'a good clever little child, about 6. Sammy Isaacs lived at Alfred Bussell's coastal homestead, Walcliffe, at the mouth of the Margaret River; Carlo Sears lived at Cattle Chosen; while Isabel Brockman at Beachgrove had her 'man Friday', Jimmy Isaacs, 'on appearance part Aboriginal and part Negro':

DOUG FEUTRILL'S NOTES RE GEORGE BLECHYNDEN JUNIOR, HALF-CASTE ABORIGINAL (Doug uses a different spelling of Nilgie i.e., Ngilgie)

George Blechynden Junior's brush with the Law 1899.

George's age at his marriage to Ngilgie at St Mary's Busselton in 1864 was over 21. He must have been born prior to 1843. George Junior would have been over 56 years old at the date of his appearance in Bunbury court in Jan 1899. Where did he work and live after his split with Ngilgie soon after their recorded marriage? (This separation was reported by Ngilgie and recorded in an interview with Daisy Bates)

There is no evidence of any descendants of George Blechynden Junior who was said to be half aboriginal and the son of George Blechynden Senior.

The image left, is cut from a photocopy of the WA Police Gazette Feb 1st 1899.

Both George and Ngilgie are recorded as working for the Bussell family at Cattle Chosen soon after their marriage, George as a shearer, Ngilgie as a domestic helper. Ngilgie apparently sent George "packing" soon after this; she told Daisy Bates that her partner had "a roving eye!"

George Junior seems to have dropped off the radar after this until 1899 in Bunbury.

Note: This query has been answered with many articles found in Trove about George Blechynden junior, who became known as Whitey Brown George and his times in court and prison shown in the next chapter.

Jane Nilgie died on 12th Sep 1921 at Mogumber, formerly Moore River. This is where the little girls ran away from in the movie "The Rabbit Proof Fence."

Mogumber Aboriginal Memorial Cemetery

Mogumber Aboriginal Memorial Cemetery, Mindarra, WA | BillionGraves Cemetery and Images

Mogumber is located on the Bindoon Moora Road in southwest WA a distance of about 100km north from Perth. Mogumber Aboriginal Memorial Cemetery, 2015 Mogumber Rd. Mindarra, WA.

Map of Mogumber

In this cemetery are buried about 400 aboriginal people who died at the Moore River (Mogumber) Mission, about half are thought to have died between the ages of one and five.

Via Ken Blechynden: I believe there was a big gathering at the Cemetery after Kevin Rudd's apology to the stolen generations on 13 Feb 2008 and there is quite a story on Wikipedia about Mogumber Mission.

Mogumber Aboriginal Memorial Cemetery

Photos: Ken Blechynden, Moore River and Mogumber in 1995

Bush photo where Jane Nilgie was buried at Mogumber Aboriginal Mission, WA.

Mogumber Aboriginal Memorial Cemetery

*Mogumber Wall showing the name of NILGIE
12.9.1921*

Mogumber Wall.

CONTINUING IN THE NEXT SECTION WITH MORE THAT IS KNOWN OF HARRISON BLECHYNDEN'S, COUSIN GEORGE'S SON - GEORGE.

GEORGE BLECHYNDEN JNR (WAS ALSO KNOWN AS WHITEY BROWN GEORGE)

Records show George “fell by the wayside” and following are many articles and records about the prison system in the new colony, especially regarding the Aborigines. George coming before the law and imprisoned a number of times became known as Whitey Brown George.

George Blechynden and Jane Ngilgie were married 19 Jun 1864. As mentioned previously by Doug Feutrill: Both George and Ngilgie are recorded as working for the Bussell family at Cattle Chosen soon after their marriage, George as a shearer, Ngilgie as a domestic helper. Ngilgie apparently sent George “packing” soon after this; she told Daisy Bates that her partner had “a roving eye!”

1872: In this article following, George Blechynden is mentioned: GEO. BLECHYNDEN, a half-caste, corroborated the evidence. In cross examination, James Forrest, now an ex policeman, commented, “about the end of September or beginning of October, I in company with my man Blechynden and Arthur Heppingstone proceeded to where the carcass was lying”. . .

Herald (Fremantle, WA: 1867 - 1886), Sat 9 Nov 1872, pg 3

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article114442101.txt>

Supreme Court. --Criminal side.

(Before His Honour the Chief Justice and a Common Jury.)

WEDNESDAY, 6TH NOVEMBER.

Larceny.

John Leach, charged with larceny from his master, pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to 5 years penal servitude.

Assault.

James Haggerty, was sentenced to six months imprisonment found guilty of the above offence.

Timothy McCallister, was indicted for an unnatural offence, and sentenced to 15 years' penal servitude.

William Williams, indicted for assaulting an aboriginal girl named Nelly, at Robinson, and thereby causing grievous bodily harm.

Mr Parker appeared for the prisoner and demanded a postponement of the case in consequence of the absence of a witness—postponed.

Cattle-stealing.

F. Guerrin and W. Bryan, were charged with having on the 1st August last, killed one heifer, with intent to steal the carcass, the property of Mrs. Locke, of Busselton.

The Attorney General prosecuted, and Mr. Parker appeared for the prisoners.

The following evidence in support of the prosecution was adduced:—

James Forrest, examined, said:—On the 24th July last, I was a policeman stationed at the Blackwood River, but have since left the force. I know both the prisoners, and they stopped at my place on the night of the 24th; when they arrived they were both on horseback. They started away next morning saying they were going to Yangelup to pick up some cattle, and I gave Bryan three balls, they were round, and a small quantity of powder. They then proceeded towards the bridge and passed over; several persons crossed the river after, but none went over the bridge. On the 2nd August, Larkin crossed the bridge with a half-caste named Blechynden, and on the following day I saw Guerrin and Bryan with about 20 head of cattle with them, and they said they had just come from the Yangelup coast. On the 15th August, I went to Yangelup, and proceeded to the hut there; outside the hut I found some bones, and on the following morning I found the carcass of a red and white heifer; some ribs and the thigh bone were gone and it stank. On further examination of the skull and after having probed it with a stick found some pieces of lead (lead produced).

The first time I visited the hut I did not observe the pannikin, but on the second I did (pannikin now produced), the writing on the pannikin I became partly obliterated from the time I first saw it, but the writing was “William Bryan and James Guerrin, 1st August 1872”; on the other side was written “Thomas Larkin—beautiful weather.” On the 3rd August when I saw them, I asked were all the cattle right and they said, yes. I now produced the parts of the hide with the head upon it—it is Mrs. Locke's brand, for I know it well. The river was flooded and very high on the 24th July, so that no person could cross without my knowing it. The tracks I observed when I was at the hut were the tracks of horses and cattle—the horses being washed.

Cross-examined by Mr. Parker:—I was away in the bush when Larkin crossed the bridge. It was my daughter gave me the information—people can cross the river at a place called “Ferns.” I was away from home from the 25th July to the 3rd August.

Thomas Larkin who gave his evidence was next called, and in rather a loose manner, deposed:—I live at Wannup, on this side of Busselton. (On the 2nd August I started for the coast to look up my cattle, and on my way passed Forrest's place—the following day came to Yangelup expecting to meet Guerrin there, it having been previously arranged we should do so. On arriving there I observed my dog eating a piece of meat—it was about 20lbs. fresh, but could form no idea how long it had been killed. On the top of the hut was some fat, as from the kidney. Inside the hut I observed the pannikin now produced, with “F. Guerrin and Wm. Bryan, 1st August” written on it. I remained at the hut that night, and on the following day about a mile from the hut I found the carcass of a beast, a leg and some portion of the ribs were missing. I also saw some ribs bones very near the hut—some cattle and horses belonging to Mr. J. Locke were running about the place. After getting my cattle together I proceeded home, and a few days after Guerrin came to my place on the Lullow, he then stated he had been at the hut at Yangelup, and that it took him two days to get there from Forrest's. I mentioned to him the fact of my having seen the dead beast and the place, he replied, he had seen no dead beast.

Cross-examined by Mr. Parker:—It was after being two or three days at the hut that I saw the carcass, it was fresh, there was no blood about it. About the end of September or beginning of October I in company with my man Blechynden and Arthur Heppingstone proceeded to where the carcass was lying to examine it, but could find no trace whatever of a bull on the neck. It was quite possible for any one to have been at the hut in the interval between the 1st of August when Guerrin left, and the 3rd when I arrived.

Geo. Bussell, a half-caste, corroborated the evidence of the former witness and further added that Guerrin was also of the party who examined the beast to find the trace of the bull, and that on the morning before proceeding homewards while looking for a pipe he found the bullet now produced.

Thomas Bryan sworn said:—I am foreman on a station at the Donnelly. I know the two prisoners, and recollect their coming to my place about the latter end of July or beginning of August—they came from the direction of the Blackwood. They said they were going to the coast to look after some cattle—Bryan had at that time a single-barrelled gun; about six or eight days after they returned, and I asked them had they seen any of my cattle about, and they replied no, but had seen a beast of Mrs. Locke's, which was dead. Bryan gave my man Hahop two ball cartridges before he returned to the house, saying he had got them from Forrest; both the balls were subsequently used by Blechynden in killing some of my own cattle.

Mr. Wm. Hahop:—He did not describe the animal he had seen, but I am quite sure Guerrin said he had seen a beast, and it was Mrs. Locke's.

Thomas Locke examined:—I am the son of the late Mr. Locke. We had cattle running on the Donnelly in the early part of the winter, and amongst them was a red and white heifer. I first learned that the heifer was lost from Mr. Parker after defending the prisoners at Court with a verdict of Not Guilty.

This was the case for the Crown. Mr. Parker after defending the prisoners at Court with a verdict of Not Guilty.

The prisoners were discharged.

Supreme Court. --Criminal side

(Before His Honour the Chief Justice and a Common Jury.)

WEDNESDAY, 6TH NOVEMBER.

Cattle-stealing:

F. Guerrin and W. Bryan, were charged with having on the 1st August last, killed one heifer, with intent to steal the carcass, the property of Mrs. Locke, of Busselton.

The Attorney General prosecuted; and Mr. Parker appeared for the prisoners. The following evidence in support of the prosecution was adduced:

JAMES FORREST; examined, said: - On the 24th Jul last, I was a policeman stationed at the Blackwood River, but have since left the force. I know both the prisoners, and they stopped at my place on the night of the 24th.; when they arrived, they were both on horseback. They started away next morning, saying they were going to Yangelup to pick up some cattle, and I gave Bryan three balls, they were round, and a small quantity of powder. They then proceeded towards the bridge and passed over; several persons crossed the river after, but none went over the bridge. On the 2nd August, Larkin crossed the bridge with a half-caste named Blechynden, and on the following day I saw Guerrin and Bryan with about 20 head of cattle with them, and they said they had just come from the Yangelup coast. On the 15th August, I went to Yangelup, and proceeded to the hut there; outside the hut I found some bones, and on the following morning I found the carcass of a red and white heifer; some ribs and the thigh bone were gone and it stank. On further examination of the skull and after having probed it with a stick found some pieces of lead (lead produced). The first time I visited the hut I did not observe the they arrived, they were both on horseback. They started away next morning, saying they were going to Yangelup to pick up some cattle, and I gave Bryan three balls, they were round, and a small quantity of powder. They then proceeded towards the bridge and passed over; several persons crossed the river after, but none went over the bridge. On the 2nd August, Larkin crossed the bridge with a half-caste named Blechynden, and on the following day I saw Guerrin and Bryan with about 20 head of cattle with them, and they said they had just come from the Yangelup coast. On the 15th August, I went to Yangelup, and proceeded to the hut there; outside the hut I found some bones, and on the following morning I found the carcass of a red and white heifer; some ribs and the thigh bone were gone and it stank. On further examination of the skull and after having probed it with a stick found some pieces of lead (lead produced). The first time I visited the hut I did not observe the pannakin, but on the second I did (pannakin now produced), the writing on the pannakin lid become partly obliterated from the time I first saw it, - but the writing was "William Bryan and James Guerrin 1st August 1872 " ; on the other side was written "Thomas Larkin-beautiful weather." On the 3rd August when I saw them, I asked were all the cattle right, and they said, yes. I now pro-produce (sic)the parts of the hide with the brand upon it—it is Mrs. Locke's brand, for I know it well. The river was flooded and very high on the 24th July, so that no person could cross without my knowing it. Cross-examined by Mr. Parker: - I was away in the bush when Larkin crossed the bridge; it was my daughter gave me the information —people can cross the river at a place called "Fenners." I was away from home from the 29th July to the 3rd August. THOMAS LARKIN who gave his evidence was next called, and in rather a loose manner, deposed :-I live at Wannerup, on this side of Busselton. On the 2nd August I started for the coast to look up my cattle, and on my way passed Forrest's place—the following day came to Yangelup expecting to meet Guerrin there, it having been previously arranged we should do so. On arriving there I observed my dog eating a piece of meat—it was about 20lbs, fresh, but could form no idea how long it had been killed. On the top of the hut was some fat, as from the kidney. Inside the hut I observed the pannakin now produced with " F. Guerrin and Wm. Bryan, 1st August" written on it. I remained at the hut that night, and on the following day about a mile from the hut. I found the carcass of a beast, a leg and some portion of the ribs were missing. I also saw some rib bones very near the hut—some cattle and horses belonging to Mr. J. Locke were running about the place. After getting my cattle together, I proceeded home, and a few days after Guerrin came to my place on the Ludlow, he then stated he had been at the hut at Yangelup, and that it took him two days to get there from Forrest's. I mentioned to him the fact of my having seen the dead beast and the place, he replied, he had seen no dead beast.

Cross-examined by Mr. Parker :-It was after being two or three days at the hut that I saw the carcass, it was fresh, there was no blood about it. About the end of September or beginning of October, I in company with my man Blechynden and Arthur Heppingstone proceeded to where the carcass was lying to examine it, but could find no trace whatever of a bell on the neck. It was quite possible for anyone to have been at the hut in the interval between the 1st of August when Guerrin left, and the 3rd when I arrived.

GEO. BLECHYNDEN, a half-caste, corroborated the evidence of the former witness: and further added that Guerrin was also of the party who examined the beast to find the trace of the bullet, and that on the morning before proceeding homewards while looking for a pipe he found the bullet now produced. THOMAS DIXON sworn said: —I am foreman on a station at the Donnolly. I know the two prisoners, and recollect their coming to my place about the latter end of July or beginning of August—they came from the direction of the Blackwood. They said they were going to the coast to look after some cattle—Bryan had at that time a single-barrelled-gun; about six or eight days after they returned, and I asked them had they seen any of my cattle about, and they replied no, but had seen a beast of Mrs. Locke's, which was dead. Bryan gave my man Bishop two ball cartridges before he returned to the Vasse, saying he had got them from Forrest; both the balls were subsequently used by Bishop in killing some of my own cattle. By His Honor: —He did not describe the animal he had seen, but I am quite sure Guerrin said he had seen a beast, and it was Mrs. Locke's.*

EUGENE LOCKE examined :-I am the son of the late Mr. Locke. We had cattle running on the Donnolly in the early part of the winter, and amongst them was a red and white heifer. I first learned, that the heifer was lost from Forrest. About three or four months ago I was at the Donnolly with Guerrin, and there was a dead beast belonging to my mother lying in a hollow.

Mrs. LOCKE, sworn, deposed to having cattle running on the Donnolly, and to her having lost some of them, but was not aware that the brand the hide was her brand.

This was the case for the Crown.

Mr. Parker after defending the prisoners at some considerable length, and His Honor having summed up, the Jury retired, and returned into Court with a verdict of Not Guilty.

The prisoners were thereupon discharged.

In 1885, Records of Aboriginal prisoners of Rottne Island 1838-1931, in "Far From Home", by Neville Green, show that George Blechynden was before the courts and each time sentenced to prison on Rottne Island between 1885 and 1900.

“FAR FROM HOME”, Aboriginal prisoners of Rottnest Island 1838-1931, Dictionary of Western Australians, Volume X, Neville Green and Susan Moon, University of WA Press, 1997.

Image: p. 116, 117

[illegible]

"Far From Home, Aboriginal prisoners of Rottnest Island, 1838-1931", Dictionary of Western Australians, Volume X, Neville Green and Susan Moon, University of Western Australia Press, 1997.

P. 117 BLECHYNDEN
GEORGE
888, 33, 58, 82,
WHITEY BROWN GEORGE

P.117 BLECHYNDEN GEORGE 888.33.58.82, WHITEY BROWN GEORGE.

1885 George Blechynden was a shepherd for John Trigwell at the Preston River. On 8 Feb he threatened to shoot Trigwell. Arrested by PC Gee. Defence of unsound mind, fined 1s. and given 3 months to be served at Bunbury gaol PF 393/1885. He had been depressed because his woman had left him, and had moments when he could not account for his actions. During one of these moods he had threatened Trigwell.

1891 Busselton. Received 31 Mar sentenced to 3 months for being disorderly P.Gaz 1 Apr. Discharged 23 Jun 1891 RICB. (Rottnest Island committal book, Public Records Office, Alexander Library, Perth.)

1892 Bunbury. Received 28 Jan sentenced to 6 months for being drunk. Discharged 7 Jul 1892 RICB.

1893 Bunbury. Received 14 Nov sentenced to 7 months for being drunk. Discharged 8 Jun 1894 RIBC.

1899 Bunbury. Received 31 Jan sentenced to 6 months for disorderly behaviour.
Discharged 18 Jul 1899 RICB.

1900 Bunbury. Received 2 Jan sentenced to 1 yr for assault. discharged 28 Dec RICB.

* Sic. See note:

Believed to be the son of George Blechynden and Jane Nilgie m.1864. (Note: Stories about Nilgie in Daisy Bates' "Aboriginal Perth and Bibbulman Biographies and Legends", Ed. P. Bridge 1992, actually confirm that Jane Nilgie was married to 'Whitey Brown George alias George Blechynden, Junior. This is also confirmed by the Busselton Parish Register.) After 1900 dropped the Blechynden and became known as "Whitey Brown George". Worked for Ben Piggott at 'Springhill' as a gardener and lived there.

P33. 'On a visit to the prison in 1900, the Protector of Aborigines, Mr Prinsep saw prisoners wrapped in blankets and sleeping on the ground. The doors of the gaol had been made in such a way as to leave a gap underneath through which a strong draught blew in winter. He proposed that the prisoners be permitted to fill sacks with grass to serve as simple mattresses, adding, "We should remember that nearly all the prisoners come from a much warmer climate than Rottneest, and as long as that Institution is kept up, every precaution should be taken to prevent their imprisonment from destroying their bodily health." Ref.38.

334. In 1900 the inmate population was fifty in February and thirty four in August. Eighteen prisoners were transferred from Rottneš into the service of police stations and survey teams. Those remaining tended to be elderly and incapable of heavy labour needed to clear the scrub, grub out roots and prepare the land for seeding. The saltworks continued to give a small return, but lack of maintenance, poor equipment and lack of firewood reduced production.¹

Right: Correction: (sic)

"Believed to be the son of George Blechynden and Jane Nilqie".

As the marriage certificate shown previously, it was George Jnr, (later known as Whitey Brown), who married Nilgie.

Aboriginal culture and history of Wadjemup/Rottnest Island

Rottnest Island | Aboriginal History

The name for Rottnest Island in the Noongar language is Wadjemup, which means 'place across the water where the spirits are'.

The Island was used as an Aboriginal prison until 1904 (except for a short period of closure from 1849-1855), and subsequent forced labour camp for prisoners until 1931. Around 4,000 Aboriginal men and boys from all over the former colony, and after Federation the State of Western Australia were incarcerated on the Island, many of them having been transported in chains for thousands of miles. General public access to the Island during the prison era was restricted.

During this period, Aboriginal prisoners were forced to construct a large number of buildings and other structures including the Quod, (see images below), Seawall, heritage cottages in the main settlement, the museum, churches, lighthouses and other heritage listed infrastructure, mostly under the supervision of Superintendent Henry Vincent.

Most of the development took place in Thomson Bay, including the Quod which was constructed as prison accommodation for the Aboriginal prisoners.

During the prison years it is reported that around 370 Aboriginal prisoners died. While most deaths were caused by disease, it is recorded five prisoners were hanged. The Wadjemup Aboriginal Burial Ground is located within the Thomson Bay Settlement, adjacent to the Quod.

Closure of the Aboriginal prison was recommended in 1902. It officially closed in 1904, beginning the period of a forced labour camp where Aboriginal prisoners were used to build roads and other works on the Island until 1931.

Closure of the prison brought Rottnest Island's possibilities as a recreational destination to the forefront. In 1907, a scheme for transforming Rottnest Island from an Aboriginal penal settlement to a recreation and holiday Island were drawn up by the Colonial Secretary's Department. The former prison buildings were absorbed into this pursuit, including the Quod which was converted for use as holiday accommodation in 1911. Over time these developments largely obscured their former use.

A landmark site for reconciliation

Wadjemup holds special significance to Aboriginal communities across the State, due to its use as an Aboriginal prison and the Aboriginal prisoners that are buried there.

ROTTNEST ISLAND AUTHORITY

<https://ria.wa.gov.au/policy-and-reports/sustainability/Social-sustainability/the-quod>

Rottnest Island Aboriginal Prison

Wadjemup (Rottnest Island) was used as an Aboriginal prison between 1838 and 1904 (excluding a brief period of closure between 1849-1855) and a forced labour camp for Aboriginal and other prisoners until 1931. During this time, approximately 4,000 Aboriginal men and boys from all over the State were incarcerated on the Island.

The Quod:

The formidable Quod building is perhaps the most recognisable symbol of the Island's prison era history. 'Quod' is an English slang term, originating in the eighteenth century, meaning a prison. The Quod was erected between 1863 and 1864. It was the main prison building on the Island during the penal era. Like much of the colonial infrastructure on the Island, both prisons were constructed by the forced labour of Aboriginal prisoners.

The design of the Quod closely resembles that of the Round House in Fremantle (the first prison built for the Swan River Settlement). It is an octagonal shaped building with all the rooms facing a central yard containing a well. The cells were situated on the western side, with the warden's rooms, Superintendent's office and only gateway on the eastern side.

<https://www.oric.gov.au/publications/spotlight/waking-wadjemup>

The building was designed to hold a maximum of 106 prisoners, but at its peak in 1883 held almost 170 Aboriginal men. Conditions were poor, with four to five men sharing one small cell. The men slept on the dirt floor, with only a thin blanket to keep them warm. The cells were not heated and were poorly ventilated. Disease spread easily and claimed the lives of many of the prisoners.

Image of the Quod from Waking up to Wadjemup

Police Gazette

https://slwa.wa.gov.au/sites/default/files/01885_index_m.pdf

Blechynden, George (half-caste), 30, 38, 122

After 1855, prisoners were usually transported to Rottnest via the Pilot boat. Courtesy Battye 5929P

After 1855, prisoners were usually transported to Rottnest via the pilot boat.
Courtesy Battye, 5929P

It is believed that the cell on the foreshore at Thomsons Bay was occasionally used to hold arriving prisoners who were later escorted to the prison, where their names and conviction details were recorded.
Photograph from the author's collection and blue serge shirts. Beret style hats were issued after a prisoner died of sunstroke.

52

Newly arrived prisoners were usually kept in cells for the first few days until they adjusted to the strange environment. The rules of the institution must have been explained to them, but how this was done has not been noted. Occasionally a newcomer was recorded as absconding on the free Sunday because he had not reported to the quod at 4.00 p.m. for the evening meal. As a punishment, he might be denied the evening meal and lose his freedom the following Sunday. The wiser prisoners made their way towards the quod by early afternoon, until near enough to hear the recall bell. This is suggested by the considerable amount of glass artefact material that could once be recovered on the shaded slopes of hills close to the settlement. Bottles discarded by the prison staff were broken and the pieces crafted into the beautiful leaf-shaped spearheads characteristic of the Kimberley region.

Until 1885, prisoners on Rottnest were chained as a punishment. The Secretary of State for Colonies, Earl Derby, wrote to Governor Broome on this subject that 'it would be advisable if the system of placing prisoners in irons should be discontinued. It is not necessary to prevent the escape of prisoners at Rottnest Island, and irons should not be used as a punishment.'⁶⁶

On Sunday prisoners were free to hunt and fish. Note the spears carried.
Courtesy Battye, 21000P

53

West Australian (Perth, WA: 1879 - 1954), Sat 28 Feb 1885, pg 6

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article2995730.txt>

BUNBURY NOTES.

At the Police Court on Friday a half-caste named "George" was charged with threatening to shoot John Trigwell, at the Preston. It appears that George has for some time past been subject to fits of despondency through having been jilted by his "gin," and at such times is not accountable for his actions, and in one of these fits he presented a loaded gun at Mr. Trigwell, threatening to "blow his brains out." The Court bound him over to keep the peace for three months, in two sureties of £20 each, and in default of sureties to be imprisoned for that term, and, as there is not the slightest likelihood of sureties being forthcoming, he will have to undergo the alternative. It is to be hoped that at the expiration of the three months, before being set at liberty, steps will be taken to ascertain his mental condition, for, in his present state, it is absolutely dangerous for him to be at large.

At the Police Court on Friday a half-caste named "George" was charged with threatening to shoot John Trigwell, at the Preston. It appears that George has for some time past been subject to fits of despondency through having been jilted by his "gin," and at such times is not accountable for his actions, and in one of these fits he presented a loaded gun at Mr. Trigwell, threatening to "blow his brains out." The Court bound him over to keep the peace for three months, in two sureties of £20 each, and in default of sureties to be imprisoned for that term, and, as there is not the slightest likelihood of sureties being forthcoming, he will have to undergo the alternative. It is to be hoped that at the expiration of the three months, before being set at liberty, steps will be taken to ascertain his mental condition, for, in his present state, it is absolutely dangerous for him to be at large.

Bunbury Herald (WA: 1892 - 1919), Tue 26 May 1896, pg 3

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article87127866.txt>

Local and General.

George Blechynden 'alias' Whitey Brown George, a half caste, was charged before W. H. Timperley, Esq., R.M., with drunkenness, yesterday. Blechynden is very noisy and violent when in drink, and the police very properly placed him in the lock-up. When searched a sheath knife 7 or 8in long was found inside his shirt. As he had been frequently before the court on the same charge, the Magistrate sentenced him to 21 days imprisonment with hard labor.

George Blechynden 'alias' Whitey Brown George, a half caste, was charged before W. H. Timperley, Esq., R.M., with drunkenness, yesterday. Blechynden is very noisy and violent when in drink, and the police very properly placed him in the lock-up. When searched a sheath knife 7 or 8in long was found inside his shirt. As he had been frequently before the court on the same charge, the Magistrate sentenced him to 21 days imprisonment with hard labor.

Southern Times (Bunbury, WA: 1888 - 1916), Tue 16 Jun 1896, pg 3

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article157532794.txt>

JUNE 16.

Geo. Blechynden, alias Whitey Brown George (half caste) was charged by P.c. Green with being drunk the previous day.

Sentenced to 21 days' hard labour.

He was also charged with violently resisting the arresting constable.

Sentenced to 21 days' hard labour.

JUNE 16.
Geo. Blechynden, alias Whitey-Brown George (half caste) was charged by P.c. Green with being drunk the previous day.
Sentenced to 21 days' hard labour.
He was also charged with violently resisting the arresting constable.
Sentenced to 21 days' hard labour.

Southern Times (Bunbury, WA: 1888 - 1916), Sat 30 Dec 1899, pg 6 <http://nla.gov.au/nla.news-article157554796>

BUNBURY POLICE COURT.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 28.

(Before Messrs J Moore and E 51 Clarke J P.)

A native on the Rampage: A stalwart half caste named George Blechynden aged about 48, was charged with having used

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 28.
(Before Messrs J Moore and E M Clarke J P.)
A native on the Rampage:—A stalwart half-caste named George Blechynden aged about 48, was charged with having used obscene, abusive and threatening language towards Richard Adderley, on the 26th inst. He pleaded that he was too drunk to remember what happened and Mr Adderley proved the offence and stated that the accused threatened to shoot him and to poison the water used by his household. The accused was sentenced to one month's imprisonment.

obscene, abusive and threatening language towards Richard Adderley, on the 26th inst. He pleaded that he was too drunk to remember what happened and Mr Adderley proved the offence and stated that the accused threatened to shoot him and to poison the water used by his household. The accused was sentenced to one month's imprisonment.

Bunbury Herald (WA: 1892 - 1919), Thu 28 Dec 1899, pg 3
28 Dec 1899 - LOCAL AND GENERAL \(nla.gov.au\)

Assault on a Native, — George Blechynden, a half-caste, better known as Whitey Brown George was arrested yesterday on a charge of having assaulted and severely injured an aboriginal named Cocker near Picton on the previous- night. George, who is a veritable demon when in drink, was only discharged from Rottnest a few weeks ago after serving a sentence of six months for threatening to shoot Mr Thomas Wilkes. He will be dealt with at the police court this morning. His victim is at present at the lockup in a very weak state."

ASSAULT ON A NATIVE.—George Blechynden, a half-caste, better known as "Whitey Brown George," was arrested yesterday on a charge of having assaulted and severely injured an aboriginal named "Cocker" near Picton on the previous night. "George," who is a veritable demon when in drink, was only discharged from Rottnest a few weeks ago after serving a sentence of six months for threatening to shoot Mr Thomas Wilkes. He will be dealt with at the police court this morning. His victim is at present at the lockup in a very weak state.

Evening Star (Boulder, WA: 1898 - 1921), Sat 30 Dec 1899, pg 3
<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article203528992.txt>

ATTEMPT TO MURDER AN ABORIGINAL.

THE ASSAILANT A HALF-CASTE.

BUNBURY, December 28.

On Tuesday night a half - caste, named George Blechynden, attempted to murder a native, named 'Cocker,' at the black's camp, near the slaughter-yards at Picton. 'Cocker' had been looking for George's sheep, and when he went for payment in the evening, he received a drink of rum instead. George, it was alleged, then knocked 'Cocker' down several times, and dragged him into the scrub, where he belaboured him with a waddy, and, having reduced him to an unconscious state, tried to roll him into the creek for the purpose of drowning him. Fortunately, a resident named Garbett saw George roll 'Cocker' over the bank, where the aboriginal providentially stuck on a ledge; and as George scrambled down to finish the job Garbett called out to him, and he cleared off into the bush. Garbett then obtained assistance and rescued 'Cocker' from his dangerous position, and carried him to his camp. He then proceeded to inform the police. The creek at the spot is very deep, On Wednesday the police brought 'Cocker,' who was more dead than alive, to Bunbury, and arrested George this morning. The latter was charged at the police court with attempting to do grievous bodily harm to 'Cocker,' and was sentenced to twelve months' imprisonment with hard labor at Rottnest.

ATTEMPT TO MURDER AN ABORIGINAL.
 THE ASSAILANT A HALF-CASTE.
 Bunbury, December 28.
 On Tuesday night a half-caste, named George Blechynden, attempted to murder a native, named "Cocker," at the blacks' camp, near the slaughter-yards at Picton. "Cocker" had been looking for George's sheep, and when he went for payment in the evening he received a drink of rum instead. George, it was alleged, then knocked "Cocker" down several times, and dragged him into the scrub, where he belaboured him with a waddy, and having reduced him to an unconscious state, tried to roll him into the creek for the purpose of drowning him. Fortunately a resident, named Garbett, saw George roll "Cocker" over the bank, where the aboriginal providentially stuck on a ledge, and as George scrambled down to finish the job, Garbett called out to him, and he cleared off into the bush. Garbett then obtained assistance, and rescued "Cocker" from his dangerous position, and carried him to his camp. He then proceeded to inform the police. The creek at this spot is very deep. On Wednesday the police brought "Cocker," who was more dead than alive, to Bunbury, and arrested George this morning. The latter was charged at the police court with attempting to do grievous bodily harm to "Cocker," and was sentenced to 12 months' imprisonment with hard labour at Rottnest.

Bunbury Herald (WA: 1892 - 1919), Sat 30 Dec 1899, pg 3
<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article87019934.txt>

THE ASSAULT ON A NATIVE.

TWELVE MONTHS' HARD LABOR.

The half-caste George Blechynden, who, as reported in our last issue, committed a murderous assault on a native named "Cocker" near Picton on Tuesday night, was charged with the offence at the Police Court on Thursday morning before Messrs E M Clarke and Jas Moore, J's, P.

The accused pleaded not guilty.

"Cocker," deposed that on Boxing Day, he and accused went home and he went to look for sheep for George. In the evening he went to accused's camp at Picton, for payment. The accused, instead of giving him the money, gave him a drink of rum and then commenced to kick up a row. The witness walked away and did not say anything, but the accused followed him and started to knock him about. George kicked him twice in the ribs, and then tried to throw him in the river. The accused also injured both his elbows and the left knee by hitting him with a stick. Two white men came up and stopped the assault, and the witness was so bad that he could not walk. They had to carry him to the fire. A policeman brought him in from Picton in a cart on Wednesday as he was not able to walk.

Edwin Garbutt deposed that he was a clerk at the railway station, Bunbury. On the night of the 26th inst. between 7 and 8 o'clock he heard some very bad language on the opposite side of the river to where he resides at Picton. He went down to the river and heard sounds as if some person were belabouring another. He ran in that direction, and saw a black man dragging the aboriginal "Cocker" through the bush towards the river and push him over the embankment. The man "Cocker" fell on to a ledge and the accused got down after him and was rolling him off the ledge into the river when the witness called out to him to stop. The accused then turned round and cleared up the bank and into the bush. The witness got assistance and they carried "Cocker" who was helpless and could not walk, to the blacks' camp, "Cocker" seemed to be very much knocked about and blood covered his forehead.

To the Bench: He was of opinion that the river was deep enough there to have drowned "Cocker." It was evidently the intention of the accused to push. "Cocker" right into the river. He reported the matter to the police.

Richard Adderley deposed that he was an engine-fitter in Port's foundry but resided at Picton. He assisted Garbett to carry "Cocker" to the camp after the assault. Prior to the assault he saw "Cocker" go up to the accused with his hand open as if to receive something. The accused then went to a bush and produced a bottle, out of which he gave "Cocker" a drink, and then took some meat out of a bag and put it on the fence and invited "Cocker" to take some. As "Cocker" approached, George knocked him down with his fist twice and then shoved him down on to the ground several times. George then picked up a stick and caught hold of "Cocker's" hand and pulled him away through the bush. Witness then lost sight of them and did not see either of them until after the last witness called him and asked him to help to lift a blackfellow out of the creek. They found "Cocker" lying with his legs in the water; and carried him to the camp. "Cocker" seemed to have

THE ASSAULT ON A NATIVE.

TWELVE MONTHS' HARD LABOR.

The half-caste George Blechynden, who, as reported in our last issue, committed a murderous assault on a native named "Cocker" near Picton on Tuesday night, was charged with the offence at the Police Court on Thursday morning before Messrs E M Clarke and Jas Moore, J's, P.

The accused pleaded not guilty. "Cocker," deposed that on Boxing Day, he and accused went home and he went to look for sheep for George. In the evening he went to accused's camp at Picton, for payment. The accused, instead of giving him the money, gave him a drink of rum and then commenced to kick up a row. The witness walked away and did not say anything, but the accused followed him and started to knock him about. George kicked him twice in the ribs, and then tried to throw him in the river. The accused also injured both his elbows and the left knee by hitting him with a stick. Two white men came up and stopped the assault, and the witness was so bad that he could not walk. They had to carry him to the fire. A policeman brought him in from Picton in a cart on Wednesday as he was not able to walk.

Edwin Garbutt deposed that he was a clerk at the railway station, Bunbury. On the night of the 26th inst. between 7 and 8 o'clock he heard some very bad language on the opposite side of the river to where he resides at Picton. He went down to the river and heard sounds as if some person were belabouring another. He ran in that direction, and saw a black man dragging the aboriginal "Cocker" through the bush towards the river and push him over the embankment.

"Cocker" through the bush towards the river and push him over the embankment. The man "Cocker" fell on to a ledge and the accused got down after him and was rolling him off the ledge into the river when the witness called out to him to stop. The accused then turned round and cleared up the bank and into the bush. The witness got assistance and they carried "Cocker" who was helpless and could not walk, to the blacks' camp. "Cocker" seemed to be very much knocked about and blood covered his forehead.

To the Bench: He was of opinion that the river was deep enough there to have drowned "Cocker." It was evidently the intention of the accused to push "Cocker" right into the river. He reported the matter to the police.

Richard Adderley deposed that he was an engine-fitter in Port's foundry but resided at Picton. He assisted Garbett to carry "Cocker" to the camp after the assault. Prior to the assault he saw "Cocker" go up to the accused with his hand open as if to receive something. The accused then went to a bush and produced a bottle, out of which he gave "Cocker" a drink, and then took some meat out of a bag and put it on the fence and invited "Cocker" to take some. As "Cocker" approached, George knocked him down with his fist twice and then shoved him down on to the ground several times. George then picked up a stick and caught hold of "Cocker's" hand and pulled him away through the bush. Witness then lost sight of them and did not see either of them until after the last witness called him and asked him to help to lift a blackfellow out of the creek. They found "Cocker" lying with his legs in the water; and carried him to the camp. "Cocker" seemed to have been battered about a great deal; his face was all bruised and it seemed as if his teeth had been knocked out. The man could not stand.

To the Bench: The man "Cocker" did not appear to be very drunk. He did not care about interfering as the man George had threatened him just previous to this.

P.C. Kennedy deposed to arresting the accused on the above charge and to having brought "Cocker" into the police station. "Cocker" was in a very bad state indeed, quite unable to walk, and in fact the witness thought he was dead when he first saw him. His face was completely covered with blood. He went to the bank where the struggle took place. The creek was so deep there that he could not see the bottom and had George succeeded in pushing "Cocker" into the water the latter would certainly have been drowned.

The Bench: He must have been unconscious, because, unless he was very much knocked about you could not drown a native.

The witness: Yes, he must have been from the knocking about he got.

The accused, in defence, said that he did not recollect anything about it. The man "Cocker" was very drunk.

Mr Moore: You must have been very drunk yourself, George.

The accused: No, my lord, they were all drunk, and coming up about my camp all day drunk.

Sergeant Mitchell read out a long list of previous convictions against the accused.

The prisoner was sentenced to 12 months' imprisonment at Rottnest with hard labor.

been battered about a great deal; his face was all bruised and it seemed as if his teeth had been knocked out. The man could not stand. To the Bench: The man "Cocker" did not appear to be very drunk. He did not care about interfering as the man George had threatened him just previous to this. P.C. Kennedy deposed to arresting the accused on the above charge and to having brought "Cocker" into the police station. "Cocker" was in a very bad state indeed, quite unable to walk, and in fact the witness thought he was dead when he first saw him. His face was completely covered with blood, He went to the bank where the struggle took place. The creek was so deep there that he could not see the bottom and had George succeeded in pushing "Cocker" into the water the latter would certainly have been drowned. The Bench: He must have been unconscious, because, unless he was very much knocked about you could not drown a native. The witness: Yes, he must have been from the knocking about he got. The accused, in defence, said that he did not recollect anything about it. The man "Cocker" was very drunk. Mr Moore: You must have been very drunk yourself, George. The accused: No, my lord, they were all drunk, and coming up about my camp all day drunk. Sergeant Mitchell read out a long list of previous convictions against the accused. The prisoner was sentenced to 12 months' imprisonment at Rottneest with hard labor.

George Blechynden jnr: sentenced August 1901 to one month in jail was working for H Meyer at the time. H Meyer was a butcher who owned a piggery and slaughterhouse in Bunbury and Picton. Meyer commented, "He had always been steady and trustworthy unless he was he interfered with."

Bunbury Herald (WA: 1892 - 1919), Tue 24 Jan 1899, pg 3

<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article87130423.txt>

George Blechynden, a half-caste, commonly known as "Whitie-Brown George," was charged with using obscene language on the Vasse road on the 23rd inst.

Blechynden was further charged with being on the premises of Thos Wilkes, on the Blackwood road, for some unlawful purpose.

Fanny Wilkes, sworn, said the accused came to her father's place and enquired for her father. He then loaded his gun, and said if her father came out he (accused) would give him what was in the gun. Accused ran all over the premises looking for witness' father. Witness did not think accused was drunk. A little later on accused discharged the gun. Witness' mother had been ill ever since in consequence of accused's conduct. When accused got into the street he called out "Wilkes" twice, and said "I'll have bullet for bullet with you."

Thos. Wilkes, examined, said that he had never had any quarrel with the accused.

James Vaughan, mounted constable, gave evidence to arresting the accused about 400 yards on the town side of Wilkes'. He had a large butcher's knife on him. He seemed like a madman, throwing his arms about and using obscene language about and using obscene language and also threatening to bore a hole through Mr Wilkes.

For the defence, Henry Meyer, called, said the accused had been in his employ for about nine months and had always been steady and trustworthy unless he was interfered with.

Blechynden was sentenced to six months imprisonment at Rottneest.

the 23rd inst.

Blechynden was further charged with being on the premises of Thos Wilkes, on the Blackwood Road, for some unlawful purpose.

Fanny Wilkes, sworn, said the accused came to her father's place and enquired for her father. He then loaded his gun, and said if her father came out he (accused) would give him what was in the gun. Accused ran all over the premises looking for witness' father. Witness did not think accused was drunk. A little later on accused discharged the gun. Witness' mother had been ill ever since in consequence of accused's conduct. When accused got into the street he called out Wilkes' twice, and said 'I'll have bullet for bullet with you.

Thos. Wilkes, examined, said that he had never had any quarrel with the accused.

James Vaughan, mounted constable, gave evidence to arresting the accused about 400 yards on the town side of Wilkes'. He had a large butcher's knife on him. He seemed like a madman, throwing his arms about and using obscene language and also threatening to bore a hole through Mr Wilkes.

For the defence, Henry Meyer, called, said the accused had been in his employ for about nine months and had always been steady and trustworthy unless he was interfered with. Blechynden was sentenced to six months imprisonment at Rottneest.

TUESDAY, JAN 24.

(Before Mr. W. E. Timperley, R.M.)

George Blechynden, a half-caste, commonly known as 'Whitie Brown George,' was charged with using obscene language on the Vasse Road on

The following articles give some insight into Henry Meyer and his butcher's shop where in 1899 George Blechynden was employed.

South Western Times (Bunbury, WA: 1932 - 1954), Wed 26 Apr 1933, pg 1
<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article252940098.txt>

Dog at Slaughter Yard

BUNBURY BUTCHER FINED

DANGER OF DISEASE INFECTION

Because he took no notice of the Health Inspectors warning against allowing a dog to roam about his slaughter yard at Picton Junction, Henry Meyer, a Bunbury butcher, was, on Monday, fined £3 with 3/- cost; in default nine days. Mr. L. t. Crockett, R.M., was on the Bench. Mr. M. B. Renton, Municipal Health Inspector, said the Act forbade dogs in slaughter houses because of the risk that a parasitical disease known as hydatids would be spread. Dogs are a host for the parasite which can be spread to man. Mr. Meyer had been warned not to allow the dog about the premises, and when Mr. Renton visited the slaughter house on April 7, he saw an animal there picking up scraps.

OBITUARY

LATE MR. H. MEYER.

DEATH AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Mr. Dietrich Heinrich Meyer, who had carried on the business of a butcher in Bunbury and Picton for many years, died at St. John of God Hospital Bunbury, on October 7, after a prolonged illness, which had necessitated treatment in hospital on various different occasions. The deceased was 75 years of age, and was born in Germany where he lived for 21 years before coming to Western Australia, where he spent the last 45 years of his life, most of which has been spent in the South-West district.

The deceased was married in Bunbury at the age of 37 to Miss Lucy Robinson, whose brother was associated with the Eastern State firm of Robertson's farm implement works. He is survived by his wife and a family of three sons and one daughter. One son is farming at Capel; one Mr. Carl Meyer is a music teacher, well known throughout the South-West and the other son, who lives at Picton, is carrying on his father's butchering business. The following article from Trove has mention of George Whitey Brown and the death of his Aboriginal mother.

South Western Times (Bunbury, WA: 1932 - 1954), Thu 4 Aug 1949, pg 15
<https://trove.nla.gov.au/newspaper/rendition/nla.news-article253233187.txt>

How Does Your Garden Grow?

Mrs. Freeman tending her succulent cabbages which take up but one portion of her extensive and neatly kept garden plot at the back of her home. She says that the garden is a credit to her son, Bert, who does all the heavy work in it but whenever one passes her home, she can be seen taking an interest in the weeding and raking. Though now 82 years of age, Mrs. Freeman is still not content unless doing something active.

HARD BUT HAPPY DAYS

This week I had the opportunity of visiting a neatly kept wooden bungalow type house at the corner of Stockley Road and Karri Street. By the spick and span appearance of the freshly painted home, and the ordered tidiness of the grounds, one would expect to find a house-proud newly-wed in charge. But no, bustling about the spotless kitchen when I entered was 82-year-old Mrs. Alice Freeman. Though not a newly-wed she still has reason to be proud of her home for, within its walls are stored a host of memories... that have been accumulated over a period of 58 years.

It was in July of 1891 that Mrs. Freeman, then a young married mother of three daughters, moved to her present home. The low spring cart which transported the Freeman's, their children and their goods to their new home, had a hard road to traverse ... a winding bush track that was so squelchy underfoot that the cart was either splashing through water or struggling through the mire. That was approximately where Stockley Road is today.

"When I saw the lonely surroundings that my home was in, I sat on the doorstep and cried," said Mrs. Freeman. "Ours was the only house: there was bush all around and only a few hundred yards away was a native camp. Of course, I soon got over my tears and I had so much to keep me busy that I didn't have time to worry about the loneliness.

"I soon got used to the natives and grew to realise that they were inoffensive except when they got hold of drink. The children, though, were always frightened of the blacks, I remember one, a well-built half-caste, whom the children used to call 'Whitey-brown George' because of his colouring. He once came and asked for the loan of our wheelbarrow. By this time my husband had erected fences at the back of the house and the gates that he had made leading to the garden were too small for the wheelbarrow so that I said George could take the barrow through the house. When the children saw him inside, they were so frightened they ran and hid under the bed and there they stayed until I persuaded them that he had gone. It appears that George's mother had died and he wanted the barrow to carry her off in. The native burial ground was up where Bishop's Court now is and a little later, we saw George wheeling his dead mother whom he had dressed up in old clothes that he had begged. He had even found a hat for her and in her mouth, he had stuck a pipe."

"Mrs. Freeman's eyes twinkled, as she re-lived those adventurous years of early Bunbury. "The people today don't know they're alive, they have life so easy", she philosophied. "My husband, who worked on the jetty, used to walk to work from here, and the pay in those days was 6/- per day. We raised a family of eight children, four daughters and four sons, on that wage. Of course, there was no electric light and the boys used to earn a little extra by lighting the street gas lamps each night at dusk and going round and putting them out at ten. Many is the time that I have taken the children and a sack and gone collecting wood in the bush nearby. "Mrs. Freeman thinks that many of the youngsters of today have been given so much so easily that they do not appreciate how fortunate they were. School was not compulsory when Mrs. Freeman was a girl, and yet she looks back on that period when she did attend school as one of the happiest times of her life. The first paid servant at the Prince of Wales Hotel when it was bought by Mr Jack Hands Snr and changed to that name from the London Tavern, Mrs. Freeman used to receive 1 pound per month for wages. She was allowed out one night a week from 7 until 9, and had every second Sunday afternoon off. Her work not only entailed the usual domestic chores but also carrying buckets of hot water upstairs for the guests and polishing their boots. "For all that, they

How Does Your Garden Grow?

Mrs. Freeman tending her succulent cabbages which take up but one portion of her extensive and neatly kept garden plot at the back of her home. She says that the garden is a credit to her son, Bert, who does all the heavy work in it but whenever one passes her home, she can be seen taking an interest in the weeding and raking. Though now 82 years of age, Mrs. Freeman is still not content unless doing something active.

HARD BUT HAPPY DAYS

This week I had the opportunity of visiting a neatly kept wooden bungalow type house at the corner of Stockley Road and Karri Street. By the spick and span appearance of the freshly painted home, and the ordered tidiness of the grounds, one would expect to find a house-proud newly-wed in charge. But no, bustling about the spotless kitchen when I entered was 82-year-old Mrs. Alice Freeman. Though not a newly-wed she still has reason to be proud of her home for, within its walls are stored a host of memories . . . memories that have been accumulated over a period of 58 years.

It was in July of 1891 that Mrs. Freeman, then a young married mother of three daughters, moved to her present home. The low spring cart which transported the Freeman's, their children and their goods to their new home, had a hard road to traverse . . . a winding bush track that was so squelchy underfoot that the cart was either splashing through water or struggling through the mire. That was approximately where Stockley Road is today.

"When I saw the lonely surroundings that my home was in, I sat on the doorstep and cried," said Mrs. Freeman. "Ours was the only house: there was bush all around and only a few hundred yards away was a native camp. Of course, I soon got over my tears and I had so much to keep me busy that I didn't have time to worry about the loneliness.

"I soon got used to the natives and grew to realise that they were inoffensive except when they got hold of drink. The children, though, were always frightened of the blacks, I remember one, a well-built half-caste, whom the children used to call 'Whitey-brown George' because of his colouring. He once came and asked for the loan of our wheelbarrow. By this time my husband had erected fences at the back of the house and the gates that he had made leading to the garden were too small for the wheelbarrow so that I said George could take the barrow through the house. When the children saw him inside they were so frightened they ran and hid under the bed and there they stayed until I persuaded them that he had gone. It appears that George's mother had died and he wanted the barrow to carry her off in. The native burial ground was up where Bishop's Court now is and a little later we saw George wheeling his dead mother whom he had dressed up in old clothes that he had begged. He had even found a hat for her, and in her mouth he had stuck a pipe."

Mrs. Freeman's eyes twinkled as she re-lived those adventurous years of early Bunbury. "The people today don't know they're alive, they have life so easy", she philosophied. "My husband, who worked on the jetty, used to walk to work from here, and the pay in those days was 6/- per day. We raised a family of eight children, four daughters and four sons, on that wage. Of course, there was no electric light and the boys used to earn a little extra by lighting the street gas lamps each night at dusk and going round and putting them out at ten. Many is the time that I have taken the children and a sack and gone collecting wood in the bush nearby. "Mrs. Freeman thinks that many of the youngsters of today have been given so much so easily that they do not appreciate how fortunate they were. School was not compulsory when Mrs. Freeman was a girl, and yet she looks back on that period when she did attend school as one of the happiest times of her life. The first paid servant at the Prince of Wales Hotel when it was bought by Mr Jack Hands Snr and changed to that name from the London Tavern, Mrs. Freeman used to receive 1 pound per month for wages. She was allowed out one night a week from 7 until 9, and had every second Sunday afternoon off. Her work not only entailed the usual domestic chores but also carrying buckets of hot water upstairs for the guests and polishing their boots. "For all that, they were good times," concluded this lively old pioneer. "We may not have had the parties and the pictures and dances that young people have today, but even so, we made our fun. We found just as much happiness in going for a picnic as the youngsters today in their modern pleasures. Yes, they may have been hard times, but they were also happy times."

State Library of askalibrarian@ref-mail.slwa.wa.gov.au

Looking to check further into the location of the 'Native Reserve' in Bunbury WA which is indicated in the article and where George Blechynden junior's mother may have been buried, a query was sent to: Ask a Librarian a Question at the State Library of WA.

The following inserts are quoted from the very extensive reply:

My understanding of your enquiry is that you would like to determine where the "Native Reserve" in Bunbury was that is referenced in the articles you have attached. Based on the information provided in the articles, it appears to be close to the corner of Karri Street and Stockley Road, where Alice Freeman moved to in the 1890's. Assuming that the location of the streets have not changed since then, this is not far from central Bunbury. . . Whether it was a nature reserve, government run reserve or camping ground may determine where or what records exist pertaining to it. . .

This map: [Bunbury Sheet 17 \[Tally No. 503892\]. - State Records Office of WA \(sro.wa.gov.au\)](#) shows a corner of Karri Street and Stockley Road in the same location they are today in I think what appears to be the 1960s. Using this, I was able to confirm the historical placement of the streets appears the same as far back as this map. . .

Based on this, there are currently two reserves that survive incredibly close to this location. The large is the Big Swamp Parkland, which according to the Friends of Big Swamp Inc. was a hunting ground prior to colonisation. Big Swamp - Friends of Big Swamp. The smaller one is Irwin Reserve, however I have been able to find very little information about this. . .

Aboriginal History Research Services Aboriginal History Research Services | DLGSC as this pertains to family history. They have an extensive amount of records, information and expertise that I cannot access and do not have and so may prove more helpful in your search, especially regarding reserve records and death records for George. Applications for their assistance can be found at Family history | DLGSC

You may also like to look to local history groups such as the Bunbury Historical Society or the Bunbury Museum Heritage Centre.

Via Di Black:

Some time ago I did try to get in touch with the Aboriginal History Research Centre but as was not of Aboriginal descent found it difficult to complete the general research application form. Perhaps other researchers may wish to try. The Librarian went to a lot of trouble with limited time following up my queries and referred to previous queries looking for information on George Whitey Brown and his Aboriginal mother and Jane Ngilgie. Perhaps with time spent in Bunbury researching the archives in a number of areas, more may come to light.

Reminiscences of Mrs Mary Venables (nee Piggott), Harvey District, Mar 19, 2017

<https://www.harveyhistoryonline.com/?p=3328>

[Mary Venables née Piggott (1883-1970) was the grand-daughter of James Piggott and Joanna Simmons, who were among the early arrivals at Australind, landing in the colony in 1844.

James Piggott had three sons. Joe Piggott was born at Australind in Didginup Cottage, as was his [Joe's] daughter, Mary.

The aborigines used to camp at our swamp and Hampden's. . .

Out from Hampden's there was a little place called Quealup [native burial ground] where there were supposed to be some aborigines buried – one was buried around Cramptons. . .

My cousin Jim Clarke took my sister Annie (Mrs. Chas. Woodley) to Bunbury for the show, and there was a big notice up "Come and see wild niggers." On them going inside, in a cage was a nigger eating at a big bone. It was Whitie Brown George who used to camp out at the coast. [59].

It is thought that George Blechynden (then known as) spent his last years living in a small hut on the property of James Piggott. We cannot find a record of his death or where he was buried. Perhaps he was buried there. Many enquiries have been proven unsuccessful.

A phone call to Pat Rogers, a descendant of Ben Piggott, still living at Springhill. She has all Ben Piggott's diaries. She says there is no mention of George Blechynden in the diaries. He is not recorded in the diaries as being buried at Springhill.

Pat Rogers mentioned that it has been passed down from Ben Piggott to his son and family through the years that he was well respected and a good worker. He had a little shanty on the property with a little garden.

Following are a number of articles giving some indication of the history of the Piggott family and Springhill Station.

AUSTRALIND PLACES: shire-of-harvey-municipal-heritage-inventory-p-\(2\)

Parkfield Homestead, 83 Springhill Road, Parkfield

"Parkfield" was named for the ship of the same name which arrived in Western Australia in 1841 with the first group of land purchasers and emigrant workers. Earlier, in 1831, William Hudson was granted 2560 acres on the north side of Leschenault Inlet. The grant was resumed in 1841, sold to William Knight who installed tenants Benjamin Piggott and Ephraim Clarke and their families on the property who developed the property. In 1855, the farm was leased to Robert Henry Rose who further developed the property. He married Ann Bishop Allnutt in 1857. In 1861, Robert Rose secured ownership of Parkfield and built a home from on-site limestone and jarrah. It was a shingle roofed dwelling that included a cellar.

Springhill Homestead and Cemetery, 98 Springhill Road, Parkfield, p. 152

HISTORICAL Benjamin Piggott firstly acquired by purchase land, of a Land Order in England, prior to his departure. Benjamin and Sarah Piggott arrived aboard the 'Trusty' in May 1844 with one child and brother James Piggott. On his arrival at Leschenault, aboard the Trusty on 23rd May 1844, he was allotted No 18 Victoria Road, Australind.

The Piggotts were tenants on 'Parkfield' for ten years where they established a farm and had five more children. After finding that his allotted Land Order of No 18 Victoria Road unfavourable, he with fellow Buckinghamshire gentleman Ephraim Clarke entered into a partnership on Wellington Location 14 belonging to William Knight as tenants and built the first homestead there out of the virgin bush. This was to be named Parkfield after the boat that had brought Ephraim Clarke and his family to Australind in 1842.

All of Benjamin and Sarah Piggott's children were born at Parkfield except for their first-born Sarah. Mr Rose had secured ownership of Parkfield in 1861 from William Knight, so, thus prior to this time, Benjamin had decided that he was going to purchase land north of Parkfield which he did in 1860 which was Wellington Location 17. A Memorial Registered of an Indenture of Conveyance made the twenty seventh day of February one thousand eight hundred and sixty to Benjamin Piggott of Australind, of six hundred and forty acres. Sometime after the purchase, Benjamin Piggott built a temporary building to house his family, running East to West approximately 40-50 feet long. Remnants of floor was found in 1980 with some pieces of wood coming to the surface. Later when house was built, there was a corridor running from house to temporary house. On the 5th of Dec 1862 agreed with Local builder Mr Ward with the help of convict labour, built a two-storey limestone house, walls 46 feet in length and 28 feet wide. During the next week the men were burning limestone in the kiln and on the 12th Dec 1862 the house foundation was laid. All limestone for the homestead was excavated from the Springhill land which was in abundance. Also, the limestone from Springhill was used for the Foundation of both the Bunbury Hospital and the Congregational Church in Bunbury. A limestone well that was used for water for household purposes, flowed from a permanent spring, is still standing, but is no longer in use, due to the market gardens that have been established to the east of it. It was dug from pure solid limestone. Over the years he added considerably to his holdings. He was a successful farmer and produced wheat, barley, horses for the Indian Army, cattle, potatoes, mulberry wine for the Melbourne market, fruit, butter, cheese, eggs and poultry. Piggott employed a number of convicts, recorded written contracts with them and built timber cottages for married couples. He once took in an orphaned boy aged nine, son of William Goodall who was accidentally killed, and indentured him as a servant for seven years.

Benjamin Piggott died in 1892. Sarah lived on for another fifteen years. Both are buried in Springhill cemetery which was consecrated in 1882 and continues to be used for the Piggott family. The house has been added to and altered in recent years. Descendants of Benjamin Piggott still own the property. Springhill Private Cemetery was consecrated on the 2nd September 1882 by Bishop. Those of whom are known to have been buried in Springhill Private Cemetery is as follows (note H.S denotes Headstone): Benjamin Piggott Died 1892 H.S and his wife Sarah Died 1907, H.S Charlotte Piggott Died 1912, H.S.

Five children of Benjamin and Sarah Piggott were all at 'Parkfield', following their arrival in WA. Sarah their first child came with them on the Trusty in May 1844.

Charlotte Piggott born 1845, Mary Caroline Piggott born 1847, Thomas Adrian born 1849, Elizabeth Piggott born 1852, Benjamin Piggott born 1853.

SPRINGHILL STATION

<http://inherit.stateheritage.wa.gov.au/Public/Inventory/PrintSingleRecord/e8340027-ca45-483f-834e-6b67a91b95d4History>

Benjamin Piggott had decided that he was going to purchase land north of Parkfield which he did in 1860 which was Wellington Location 17. . . On the 5th of Dec 1862 Mr Piggot agreed with Local builder Mr Ward with the help of convict labour, built a two-storey limestone house, walls 46 feet in length and 28 feet wide.

. . . All limestone for the homestead was excavated from the Springhill land which was in abundance. . .

The homestead consists of a two-storey gabled farmhouse built originally of local stone with cement render to the exterior walls. Section of the building dating from 1880 are constructed from bricks brought out from England and had been used as ship ballast. The original section of the house was constructed between 1856-1860.

Springhill Homestead,
Australind

Springhill Homestead,
Australind, 1987

Shed on the Springhill
Homestead, Australind, 1987

*Old shed and farm machinery on the Springhill Homestead,
Australind, 1987*

*A *stone cottage, built ca.
1880 for workmen on the Springhill Homestead,
Australind, 1987*

*Sheds on the Springhill
Homestead,
Australind, 1987*

Perhaps the *stone cottage was where George Blechynden was living.

The next article is just for interest: This obituary shows there is a Piggott / Blechynden connection:
Iris Myrtle Piggott (1911-2004) married Noel Norman Blechynden (1905-1970), 1930, Wellington, WA [Reg. 37].

Noel Norman Blechynden (1905-1970), parents Alfred William Blechynden (1905-1970) and Mary Ellen Bovell (1872-1946). To see more details of Iris Piggott's family details, go to John and Elizabeth – Alfred – Noel.

Preston Mail & District Advocate (Collie, WA: 1932 - 1954), Sat 7 Jan 1939, pg 6 07 Jan 1939 - OBITUARY \(nla.gov.au\)

OBITUARY

The Late Mrs. E. G. PIGGOTT

After a long illness, Elizabeth Gertrude, wife of Mr Frederick Piggott passed away in the Bunbury District Hospital on Boxing Day, at the age of 52 years. Her death was lamented by numerous friends whom she had made during her lifetime. She leaves behind three daughters (Mrs J. Atherton, Mrs H. Blechynden (sic, should be Mrs N Blechynden) and Mrs F. Evans) and four sons, Ernest Charles, Leslie, Colin and Fred. The funeral service at the Methodist Church on Wednesday of last week was conducted by the Revd. J. C. Lund and the interment took place at the Donnybrook cemetery. The pall bearers were Messrs. A. & H Trigwell. E. E. Miller, C. Wood, J. F. Gemmell and J. Lyon.

The bereaved family received numeral expressions of sympathy among which were floral token's from –

Myrtle and Noel; Kevin, Leo, Harry and Margaret; Bob, Don and Vernon, . . . Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Blechynden and family . . .

Note: I can't find a Mrs. H Blechynden, mentioned in the article. From the family records it is obvious it should be Mrs N Blechynden. Myrtle Piggott (1911-2004) married Noel Norman Blechynden (1905-1970). Her parents: Frederick Charles Piggott (1884-1971) and Elizabeth Gertrude Piggott (nee Rossiter) (1886-1938). Her sisters: Mavis O Piggott married Francis R Evans, 1936, Wellington, WA [Reg. 66] and Gladys May Piggott who married John Atherton, 1930, Wellington, WA [Reg. 118].

OBITUARY

The Late Mrs. E. G. Piggott

After a long illness, Elizabeth Gertrude, wife of Mr Frederick Piggott, passed away in the Bunbury District Hospital on Boxing Day, at the age of 52 years. Her death was lamented by the numerous friends whom she made during her lifetime. She leaves behind three daughters (Mrs J. Atherton, Mrs H. Blechynden and Mrs F. Evans) and four sons, Ernest Charles, Leslie, Colin and Fred.

The funeral service at the Methodist Church on Wednesday of last week, was conducted by the Revd. J. C. Lund and the interment took place at the Donnybrook cemetery. The pall bearers were—Messrs. A. & H. Trigwell, E. E. Miller, C. Wood, J. F. Gemmell and J. Lyon.

The bereaved family received innumerable expressions of sympathy among which were floral tokens from—

Myrtle and Noel; Kevin, Leo, Harry and Margaret; Bob, Don and Vernon; Ron; Mary and family; Colin and Snow; Mavis Frank and Ron Snow; Reg and Olwyn; Gladys and Jack; Sisters and Bertha, Dad, Ernie, Charlie and Les; members of the Donnybrook Rifle Club; Mrs Andrews and Mr Smith (Bridgetown); Mr and Mrs Alfred Blechynden and family; Mr and Mrs Browning and family; Mr Don Buck; Mr and Mrs R. Bode; Mr and Mrs J. Coleman and family; Mr and Mrs W. R. Carter; Mr and Mrs W. Eades and Colin; Walter and Enid Gillest; Mr and Mrs W. Jordan and family; Mr and Mrs J. Kenney; Mr and Mrs J. Jarvis and family; Mr and Mrs Dick Martin (Gladys and Gladys); Mr and Mrs C. Myers; Mr and Mrs W. Coverley; Lu and Jim Moulton; Mrs G. E. Moore and family; Mr and Mrs G. Murdoch; Mr and Mrs E. E. Miller; Mr and Mrs N. Harding; Mr and Mrs J. Osborne; Evelyn Osborne; Mr and Mrs J. Peel; Mr J. Seymour; Mrs McDonald; Mr and Mrs W. Smith; Roy and Elaine; Maud Stent; Mr and Mrs Alf Trigwell and family; Mr and Mrs S. E. Turner and family; Mr Walker and Jack; Mr and Mrs C. W. Wood and family; Iris Wood; Mrs A. B. Wood and family.

Iris

It is also possible George Blechynden, cousin George's son, may have been buried outside the boundaries of the old Australind Cemetery. His father had died and if he had no contact with the Blechynden family, spending the last part of his life on Springhill, he may have been buried there. Via Fran Tempest:

I saw your post re the burial place of Whitey and don't know if this of any help or not. My Mother was a Clifton so we heard a lot about Australind history. She told me that there were some Aboriginal graves outside the boundary of the old Australind Cemetery. They are apparently unmarked but were some of the farm workers. They were buried there in respect to the relationships the settlers formed with them but not allowed inside the grounds. If you go down there you can see the graves. They are just outside the fence on the side away from the houses. To the right as you go into the actual cemetery beyond the new section. Hope that might help.

Aerial view of the Australind Pioneer Cemetery.

The following comments by Dianne Black:

I feel very sad that the Blechynden family has little knowledge of cousin George's son, George Blechynden. Unfortunately, we don't know the name of his Aboriginal mother, the date of his birth or his death and where he was buried. Being brought up and living between the two worlds of European whites and the Aborigines during the early years of the new colony must have been very difficult.

Doug Feutrill commented:

"Poor bloke had a hard history of not being liked by either the whites or the blacks and not being able to handle the effect of alcohol. He ended up being a remittance or rations man and gardener at Springhill so he at least may have had some comfort in his later years."

The mention by Pat Rogers that it has been passed down from Ben Piggott to his son and family through the years that he was well respected and a good worker. He had a little shanty on the property with a little garden, makes me think that he had mellowed in his last years.

Comment by Dianne Black: I would like to say to George Blechynden junior:

Times were hard. I am sorry that you had such a difficult life, living between both worlds in the early days of this young colony.

Source: Not Forgotten - Creative Spirits, retrieved from

<https://www.creativespirits.info/aboriginalculture/arts/poems/not-forgotten>

"Mickey wrote this poem inspired by Remembrance Day (which is observed on Nov 11)."

I came across this poem following which is more about George's Mother's Aboriginal side of the family:

*Poem by Michele "Mickey"
Hetherington, NSW*

“ Don't look for me, I am not gone,
I'm always standing by.
Don't think that others changed us,
And please don't say goodbye.

What's ours could not be stolen,
For in our hearts we hold,
The history of our people,
The truth that will unfold.

This land a part of who we are,
No stranger they can own.
Standing side by side,
We shall never be alone.

Nothing's lost forever,
History will be told
Lest we shall forget,
Our Elders that grow old. ”

BLACKWORDS: Writers on Identity

<https://www.austlit.edu.au/static/new/files/text/pdf/4672912198046977897-Writers-on-Identity.pdf>

McGee-Sippel's Poem:

'Belonging Where?':

Too black to be white.
Too white to be black.
Caught in the middle Belonging nowhere.

Yamitji poet Charmaine Papertalk Green questions her sense of belonging in the poem 'Identity':

Where do I belong?
Do I float Between two worlds? ...
I know where I belong But society Is trying to place me
Who Am I?

PART 5 – New Zealand Cousins

BLECHYNDEN, JOHN (1846-1924)

John Blechynden was born on 3 Jun 1846 in Thorneyburn, Northumberland, England, the sixth child of Edward Blechynden (1805-1864) and Elizabeth Anderson (1812-1886).

He became an engineer and travelled the world living in China before eventually moving to New Zealand. He was married twice, his first wife dying in Shanghai.

He has many descendants living in New Zealand.

John William Blechynden (1861-1931), grandson of Harrison Blechynden (1802-1873), must have been excited and amazed when he received an unexpected letter from his first cousin, also named John Blechynden, who was living in Shanghai. John Blechynden born in 1771, was their common grandfather.

This is his story.

SIXTH CHILD OF EDWARD BLECHYNDEN (1805-1864) and ELIZABETH ANDERSON (1812-1886).

John William Blechynden, living in Bridgetown, must have been excited and amazed when he received an unexpected letter dated 14 Sep 1901, from his first cousin, also named John Blechynden, who was living in Shanghai, China. Cousin John was a son of Edward Blechynden. The John Blechynden, born in 1771, was their common grandfather.

Cousin John wrote 'It was only by accident that I found out that there was another John Blechynden in the land of the living. A gentleman Mr. M Davies who was in Shanghai a short time ago from Karridale W.A. was introduced to me and when he heard my name said at once that you must have some relatives in W.A. and gave me your address and said he had known you for many years.'

The letter contained a lot of news about the family from England. 'I was in the old country last year after an absence of 22 years (had to take a change on account of health). I spent some time in Kent. Uncle John is well and hearty and is now over 80 years of age, he is living with my two cousins Frederick and Chas Blechynden who are farming the Norward Farm in the Romney Marsh. I have just sent him a few boxes of cigars.'

LETTER FROM JOHN BLECHYNDEN OF SHANGHAI TO JOHN WILLIAM BLECHYNDEN OF BRIDGETOWN, 14 SEP 1901

3 KUNGPING ROAD
SHANGHAI
CHINA 14/9/1901
My Dear Cousin,

I have no hesitation whatever in addressing you as above as Blechynden is by no means a common name and knowing that I had either one or two uncles who went to Australia in the early times I take it for granted that you are probably the son of Uncle George (actually Uncle Harrison). It was only by accident that I found out that there was another John Blechynden in the land of the living. A gentleman Mr. M Davies who was in Shanghai a short time ago from Karridale W.A. was introduced to me and when he heard my name said at once that you must have some relatives in W.A. and gave me your address and said he had known you for many years.

Mr Davies is now in Japan and on his return, he will stay with us for a few days.

(Myself) I am the son of Edward Blechynden who left Kent and went to the north of England, Northumberland, about 1830 or thereabouts, he married there. My father died 37 years ago at Mooler, Northumberland and my mother 13 years ago at Newcastle on Tyne. Our family was seven in number as follows: Elizabeth, Ann, Mary, George, Edward, John (myself) and Alfred. There are only three living now, Elizabeth now Mrs Inglis who is residing in Auckland NZ, Ann who is living in Newcastle on Tyne and of course myself.

I was in the in the old country last year after an absence of 22 years (had to take a change on account of health). I spent some time in Kent. Uncle John is well and hearty and is now over 80 years of age, he is living with my two cousins Frederick and Chas Blechynden who are farming the Norward Farm in the Romney Marsh. I have just sent him a few boxes of cigars. Uncle Jones who had a seed warehouse in Ashford and Uncle Alfred who was living at Bilsington when I left home 22 years ago are both dead. Alfred was unmarried and Jones had one daughter Agnes who died some 12 years since.

I was born in 1846 at Falstone Northumberland and along with my brother Alfred served our apprenticeship as engineers in Newcastle on Tyne. I left Newcastle first in 1867 and went to Egypt for about three years, then was in Russia for a short time, also at sea as engineer until 1873 when I went to Japan, was there until end of 1878 then went home, married (my first wife) and went out to New Zealand, 'Auckland Province' early in 1879, took a few thousand pounds with me, was running a saw mill, shipbuilding, farming etc and after a run of bad luck, lost practically all I had and left there in 1886 and returned to Japan, my wife with our three children, Alfred, Norah and Isabel, following me up a few months later. I intended proceeding to Victoria, British Colombia, but could not get my affairs in Japan settled up, so my wife with the children sailed for Victoria in the end of 1887. She had only been in Vic a few months when she took suddenly ill and died after a very short illness. I then thought it best to stay in Japan and had the children brought over to Kobe where I was then living (I was managing a large paper mill). I married again over 18 years ago and have four children by the second wife, Kathleen, Edith, Edgar and Edward. We have now been in Shanghai over eight years and have been managing a dry dock engineering and shipbuilding works, but have now started on my own account again, have made a little money, but not enough to retire on. All going well in 3 or 4 years' time I should be in a position to retire, will go back to the colonies, no more old country for me. I was about 5 months at home last year and can safely say that out of the whole time there was only 5 weeks that was what one would call decent weather.

There are quite a lot of Blechynden nephews and nieces about N.C on Tyne. My brother George had five sons three of them married with families. My brother Alf who died about 4 years ago was engineering manager atrow, had two sons and one daughter. One of the boys is dead but the eldest now about 19 years of age and his younger sister are now in Edinburgh with their mother who was left in comfortable circumstances. I stayed with them about 9 weeks last year. I shall be delighted to receive an answer to this letter and to know how things are using you in the sunny south. With my kindest regards to you and yours.

I am my dear Cousin,

Yours Truly,

John Blechynden

LETTER FROM JOHN WILLIAM BLECHYNDEN TO HIS COUSIN JOHN BLECHYNDEN OF SHANGHAI
24 JAN 1902

My Dear Cousin,

Having already heard of you through the Davis family, I was not surprised at receiving your letter, which came to hand on 14th Jan. I was exceedingly glad to hear that one member of the family was doing well, not that I can growl myself, as I manage to make a comfortable living.

Before going into the matter, I shall set you right as to my pedigree. About 1829 or 1830 my grandfather Harrison Blechynden and his first cousin George Blechynden came to this country from Kent with a Mr Brockman, my grandfather being engaged as a foreman for Mr Brockman on a farm. George was a wheelwright and carpenter. After their arrival my grandfather (Harrison Blechynden) married a shipmate called Charlotte Robus by whom he had 7 sons and 2 daughters, namely John (my father), Henry, Sarah, Walter, Annie, Harrison, Edwin, Jesse and Joseph, all of whom married and had large families, my father being the only one who is not still alive, he having died in Beverley, where they were all born, in 1900 at the age of 67. (See note below regarding where they were born).

My grandfather died in 1873 and my grandmother in 1889, while my own mother died in 1891. George Blechynden, my Grandfather's cousin, remained a bachelor and died in Bridgetown about 12 years ago (1890) aged 84 years. All of my uncles except Walter live near Beverley, which is easily reached from here by train in one day. My uncle Walter lives about 30 miles south of Bridgetown and also has some property 10 miles from here where his son Ben lives.

I have 8 brothers and 2 sisters living, i.e. the eldest myself, John (41), George, Edwin, James, Arthur, Alfred, Ernest, Herbert, Amy, Clarence, May (21). Two girls died when they were very young.

It would be impossible for me to give you a list of the children, of my Uncles and Aunts, but there must be about a hundred of the younger generation of Blechyndens in W.A. as you will see there is no fear of the family becoming extinct for the present. Although I myself am still a Bachelor, three of my younger brothers are married, with a family of 4 each so far, I am still living in the same house 'Bridgedale', in which we were all born, and I hope to live there for many years yet.

My two sisters and 2 younger brothers live with me, the latter assisting me with my business i.e., General dealing (stock particularly), butchering and Auctioneering. Another brother, Ernest, manages a farm & station for me 'Greenfield' 20 miles north west of Bridgetown.

Till the opening of the Railway (3 years ago), I also conducted a carrying business, conveying goods between Bridgetown and Donnybrook in 3 large wagons. With the carrying and dealing I did very well, as the carrying kept me in touch with all classes of the community. My three brothers and I managed the business.

Previous to starting on my own account, I commenced at the age of 19 years, as a foreman on the 'Jays' sheep station where I remained for 2 years, then I managed the Grange Orchards for 4 years and left there for Karridale for M. C. Davis, this being my first acquaintance with the Davis family. I remained there for about 6 years until my mother died, when I returned here and took over my father's estate and started the carrying and other businesses.

Of my married brothers, George, is farming at Dinninup, Arthur is keeping a store in Bridgetown, Alfred is a Govt Mail Contractor. Of the others, James is farming at Dinninup and Edwin works for a Mr Hassell on a farm near Albany. As I said, the younger ones work for me.

None of us are making a fortune, but we are all in fairly comfortable circumstances, being neither rich nor poor. I should very much like to go over to see you, but I cannot afford to lose the time from my business at the present.

If you can manage to take a trip over here we shall all be pleased to see you and guarantee to give you a good time and introduce you to many pleasant people.

I remain,

Yours Faithfully, John William Blechynden

NOTE: John and Sarah were actually born in Perth. Sarah was the second born, not Henry. Annie was third then Henry, a Jesse William who died at 20 months, Walter, Charles, Thomas, Jesse and Joseph.

The next section is a brief history as to how John William Blechynden and John Blechynden from Shanghai were related. This can be found in more detail Blechypedia, Part 1 - An Ancient Kentish Family.

EDWARD BLECHYNDEN (1736-1788) married ANN VINSET (1738-1793) on 12 Dec 1758 in Aldington, Kent, England. They had ten children as follows: 1. DANIEL, 2. ELIZABETH, 3. ANN (died as a baby), 4.

GEORGE (died as a baby), 5. MARY, 6. CATHERINE, 7. JOHN (see below), 8. GEORGE (see below), 9. SARAH, 10. ANN VINCENT. Ann and George died young and the same name was given to a later child. With regard to 7. John and 8. George:

7. BLECHYNDEN, JOHN (1771-1834) was born in Place Bilsington, Kent, England. He married SARAH HARRISON (~1776-1866) in 1805. Their son Harrison Blechynden emigrated to the Swan River Colony in 1830.

8. BLECHYNDEN, GEORGE (1772-1850) married MARY JONES (1779-1856) and had at least eight children:

1. EDWARD (see below), 2. GEORGE (see below and "COUSIN" GEORGE in the Australian section), 3. JOHN, 4. PHILPOTT, 5. JONES, 6. VINCENT, 7 ANNE, 8 ALFRED. They all, and more importantly to this Project, Edward and George, were cousins of Harrison Blechynden.

1. BLECHYNDEN, EDWARD (1805-1864). More following on cousin, Edward in this chapter.

2. BLECHYNDEN, GEORGE (1806-1889) was born in 1806, Kent, England. "George, the son of George and Mary Jones emigrated to Australia with his cousin Harrison, arriving there in 1830. George Blechynden died 11 Feb 1889, Bridgetown, WA. On 19 Jul 1864, some 34 years after George's arrival in Australia, George's son, also named George, born 1833, Perth WA, married an aboriginal girl, Jane Nilgie (or Nyilgee), born 1844, 1864, at St. Mary's Cathedral, Busselton, W.A.

See George's section located prior to this section for more details.

Continuing with Edward Blechynden's line, father of John Blechynden the writer of the letter from Shanghai:

1. BLECHYNDEN, EDWARD (1805-1864) was baptised 3 Aug 1805, Bilsington, Kent, England. He married ELIZABETH ANDERSON (1812-1886), on 8 Mar 1832 at Northampton Tweed Church, Northam, Northumberland, England. Edward and Elizabeth had seven children as follows: 1. ELIZABETH (1833-1919), 2. ANN (1836-1914), 3. MARY (1837-), 4. GEORGE, 5. EDWARD, 6. JOHN, and 7. ALFRED.

6. BLECHYNDEN, JOHN (1846-1924) Engineer, was born 3 Jun 1846, Thorneyburn, Northumberland, England. Baptised 18 Aug 1846, Falstone, Northumberland, England.

John Blechynden (1846-1924)

m.1 JOHN BLECHYNDEN (1846-1924) married ISABELLA LINDSAY (1845-1888) 12 Feb 1879, Falstone, Newcastle On Tyne, Northumberland, England. Isabella was born in July 1845 in Tweedmouth, Northumberland.

*Isobella Blechynden (nee Lindsay) (1845-1888),
via Carringtons NZ Family Tree, Ancestry*

JOHN BLECHYNDEN and ISABELLA LINDSAY had three children:

1. ALFRED LINDSAY BLECHYNDEN (1880-1939), 2. NORAH BLECHYNDEN (1882-1947) and 3. ISABEL ELIZABETH BLECHYNDEN (1884-1978). The children were all born in Coromandel, NZ.

John Blechynden travelled all over the world with his career and business's. Places mentioned: England, Australia, NZ, Canada, Japan and China. Isobella Blechynden (nee Lindsay) died on 15 Jul 1888, in Victoria, British Columbia, Canada, at the age of 43 and was buried there.

His daughter Isabel Moller wrote: "In 1888, (my mother) Isabella took Alfred, Norah and myself to Vancouver; they had decided to settle in Vancouver. However, we were only there for a short while, awaiting the arrival of my father, when my mother died suddenly, and we were sent back by ship to Kobe. We had a faithful Japanese nurse and she looked after us, Fu San"

More about her father John Blechynden and the family can be read in Isabel's recollections, a bit further on. When her mother died, Alfred was eight, Norah, six and Isabel, four.

m.2 JOHN BLECHYNDEN (1846-1924) married SARAH JANE NEWTON (1862-1957) on 28 Oct 1889 Holy Trinity Cathedral, Shanghai, China. Residence at time of marriage, Kobe Japan.

1889. MARRIAGE solemnized at SHANGHAI, CHINA.
No.	When Married.	Name and Surname.	Age.	Condition.	Rank or Profession.	Residence at the Time of Marriage.	Father's Name and Surname.	Rank or Profession of Father.
28	October 28 th	John Blechynden	43	Widower	Engineer	Kobe, Japan.	Edward Blechynden	(deceased)
		Sarah Jane Newton	27	Spinster.	—	Shanghai.	William Newton	Manager P. & O. Steamship Co. Shanghai.

Married in the CATHEDRAL OF THE HOLY TRINITY according to the Rites and Ceremonies of the Church of England by me,

This Marriage was solemnized between us, { John Blechynden } in the Presence of us, { John James Davidson } H. C. Hodges M. A. Chaplain.

Copy of marriage certificate of John Blechynden and Sarah Jane Newton.
Via Carringtons NZ Family Tree, Ancestry.

SARAH JANE was baptised on 17 Oct 1862, Asuncion, Central Paraguay, South America. She and John went on to have seven children:

1. KATHLEEN BLECHYNDEN (1891-1968) born in Kobe, Japan
2. EDITH BLECHYNDEN (1893-1978) born in Kobe, Hyogo, Japan
3. EDGAR BLECHYNDEN (1895-1902) born in Shanghai, China
4. DOROTHY BLECHYNDEN (1896-1897) born in Nelson, NZ
5. JOHN NEWTON BLECHYNDEN (1903-1992) born in Shanghai China
6. EILEEN BLECHYNDEN (1905-1995) twin, born in Soochow, China
7. HAROLD BLECHYNDEN (1905-1968) twin, born in Soochow, China

John Blechynden, of Nelson, NZ. Via 'Bridgedale' collection

Photo of the dock which John Blechynden was building in Shanghai. Courtesy Ken and Angela Blechynden.

Shanghai: John's children, Kathleen, Edgar and Edith Blechynden can be seen on the bridge

Kathleen, Edgar, and Edith Blechynden

Shanghai: John Blechynden, second wife Jane Newton and Amy Blechynden visiting from Australia.

Shanghai: John Blechynden, second wife Jane Newton and Amy Blechynden visiting from Australia.

John Blechynden died 8 Jan 1924, Nelson, NZ. Burial 9 Jan 1924, Nelson, NZ. Sarah Jane Blechynden (nee Newton) died 2 Feb 1957, Nelson, NZ.

Burial: 9 Jan 1924, Nelson, NZ,
Wakapuaka Plot 052. Block 29.

*Headstone of John Blechynden and his second wife, Sarah Jane Newton.
Courtesy Carrington's NZ, Ancestry Family Tree.*

Fairfax Media Press
Volume LX,
ISSUE 17966,
9 Jan 1924

*Via Carrington's NZ, Ancestry
Family Tree. Courtesy Trish Cracknell.*

OBITUARY.

The death occurred yesterday, at Nelson, after a prolonged illness, of Mr John Blechynden, in his 78th year. The late Mr Blechynden, who was a marine engineer by profession, formerly resided in Shanghai, where he was manager of the Yang Pi Ho Docks for a number of years. He then came to Nelson, where he purchased the Roundell station, in the Lake district. A widow and a grown-up family survive. The daughters are Mrs Miller, of Shanghai; Mrs Craven, of Sydney; Mrs J. Coote, Mrs H. W. Dodson, and Miss Blechynden, of Nelson; and the sons are Alfred and Edward, of China, and John and Harold, of Nelson.

Following is an article written by John Newton Blechynden of Nelson, NZ about his father John Blechynden. John Newton is the father of Barbara, Jill, Sidney and Elizabeth.

THE NEW ZEALAND BLECHYNDENS

John Blechynden (1846-1924) is Jill Blechynden of New Zealand's grandfather through his second wife (Jill's grandmother) Sarah Jane Newton.

THE NEW ZEALAND BLECHYNDENS AND THEIR UK RELATIVES
JOHN BLECHYNDEN 1846 - 8/1/1924 First Marriage 12/02/1879 ISABELLA LINDSAY died 1888	ALFRED LINDSAY 4/09/1880 - / /1938 (UK) married LOUISE MARIE	LINDSAY born 1909 married Claire ALFRED born 1910 died 1966 UK married Seosina JOHN 1914 - 1992 (UK) married Ann Davis	2 children 1 child (Dr John -UK) 2 children
	NORAH 20/07/1882 - married 1904 WILL CRAVEN	KILDARE born 1905 EWART born 1908 JOAN ISABEL born 1914	- 1 daughter -
	ISABEL 21/06/1884 - 1978 married ERIC MOLLER who died in an air crash London	ERIC BLECHYNDEN MOLLER RALPH B. MOLLER LINDSAY B. MOLLER CHRISTOPHER B. MOLLER ISABEL B. MOLLER NANCY B. MOLLER	- - - 4 daughters 2 children 4 children
	KATHLEEN BLECHYNDEN 1/8/1891 - 14/1/1968 Married 23/5/1917 HARRY REGINALD DODSON 20/2/1882 - 13/7/1945	KATHRYN DAVID ASHFORD	- 2 CHILDREN 2 CHILDREN
	EDITH BLECHYNDEN 2/4/1893 - 1/4/1978 Married 8/4/1915 JOHN CECIL COOTE	JOHN COOTE EDITH (HOLMES) PETER COOTE RICHARD COOTE	4 CHILDREN 1 CHILD 1 CHILD 4 CHILDREN
	EDGAR BLECHYNDEN born 1895 died when 7 years old
	DOROTHY BLECHYNDEN Died 1 year old
	EDWARD BLECHYNDEN Married EVA CLOUSTON	JOYCE JULIA	3 children -
	JOHN NEWTON BLECHYNDEN 9/1/1903 - 7/5/1992 Born Shanghai China Married 15/3/1926 DORCAS FRANCIS DAVIS 28/1/1906 - 3/9/1985	-BARBARA -JILL (m1 Anderson, m2 Lash) -SYDNEY GERALDINE -ELIZABETH JANE	5 children 2 children - -
JOHN BLECHYNDEN Second Marriage JANE NEWTON Married SHANGHAI China 1890	HAROLD BLECHYNDEN (TWIN) 4/8/1905 - 4/3/1968 Married 1929? EMILA (MIMI) DUBROVOY 20/4/1904 - 14/6/1991	ALEX TUNDE (f) KENT NICHOLAS	- - - -
	EILEEN BLECHYNDEN (TWIN) 4/08/1905 - Married 4/2/1928 CARNE MACKY	GRETA DAVID JANET JOHN	- - - -

His story, and that of his family, can be read in the following article.

Recollections of John Blechynden, 1846-1924, by his daughter, Mrs Isabel Moller, of Montagu Square London, on 10 Feb 1969.

JOHN BLECHYNDEN

Born June 3, 1846 at Falstone, Diocese of Newcastle.

Baptised August 11, 1846, at Falstone, by Rector Thomas Foster.

Parents' names, Edward and Elizabeth.

Married, February 12, 1879, in Newcastle, to Isabella Lindsay (Rector Oliver Becherlegge).

He was all over the world after he had studied engineering with his brother Alfred with Vickers Armstrong (I think) at Barrow in Furness, on the Tyne.

As a young engineer in the Middle East, he even got to Mecca with another engineer and brought back a sacred scroll.

He went out to Japan on the first of two ships built for the Japanese Government by the shipbuilders on the Tyne; this was as a guarantee engineer; with him Mr Wilson, also a young Scottish engineer who later built the Kawasaki Dock in Nagasaki. They were supposed to stay for a year, but the war between the Emperor and the Shoguns broke out and they were not allowed to leave Japan, and were there for a few years, and returned to England in 1878, about that time.

Father then married Isabella Lindsay in Newcastle, February 12, 1879, and sailed for New Zealand where his sister Elizabeth was already there, married to John Inglis, who was farming, I think in Auckland. Father's father was a revenue officer in Falstone.

He went to Coromandel (New Zealand), bought land, and cut and shipped kauri logs; also built ships — the "Moe-hau," 1882 (schooner, Cabbage Bay), the "Norah," 1883 (schooner, Cabbage Bay) and one other (Eileen would probably know the name). Also "Stella" and "Isabel."

There Alfred (1880, July 4), Norah (1882, July 20) and Isabel (1884, June 21) were born; a Welsh lady, Mrs Evans, looked after and helped my mother.

John Fawcus, educated for the priesthood but later with the advisory council, was a close friend of Father.

Then there was some complication about land papers, something not too pleasant with John Inglis, and my Father went back to Kobe, Japan, and put up the engines for the paper mill in Kobe.

In 1886 my Mother left Auckland for Japan, with us three children. Mr Fawcus was a faithful friend. We arrived in Kobe, Japan, and stayed in a house adjoining the paper mill: wooden house, garden on both sides, and a large fig tree, two lovely daphne bushes outside the diningroom window.

In 1888 my Mother took Alfred, Norah and myself to Vancouver; they had decided to settle in British Columbia. However, we were there only for a short while, awaiting the arrival of my Father, when my Mother died suddenly, and we were sent back by ship to Kobe. We had a faithful Japanese nurse who looked after us, Fu San.

In 1889 Mr Newton, from Shanghai, China, who was from Armstrongs, English steel, came on a visit to Kobe; he was sent by Armstrongs to show the Chinese at the Kiangwan Arsenal how to make steel. With him were his wife and daughter, Jane Newton.

Later my Father married Jane Newton in the Holy Trinity Cathedral, Shanghai, then they returned to Kobe.

In 1891 Kathleen was born (August 1), in 1893 Edith (April 2). When Alfred was ten he went to Newcastle-on-Tyne to school, and stayed with his cousins, children of Alfred Blechynden. Father's brother, a very clever engineer.

In 1894 Father left the paper mill and we lived in a small, semi-Japanese house; then we left for Shanghai, passing through Nagasaki and visiting his engineer friend, Mr Wilson. Arrived in Shanghai 1895. Here Father started a small business, an engineering works, down at Yangtzepoo, called Birt's Wharf. Yangtzepoo was that part of Shanghai near the lower part of the Whangpoo River, which flowed into the Yangtzekiang. We lived in a house in Yangtzepoo Terrace. Here Edgar was born.

Then we moved to Bubbling Well Road; then Carter Road; then Astor Terrace; then Kung-ping Road, and finally Father built his own house in the Muirhead Road.

Alfred came from England and joined Father when he was seventeen. In the meantime Father, through sheer hard work and genius, built up the New Engineering and Shipbuilding Works till it became very well known and important. He was a wonderful person, kind and gentle and so honest, so persevering, so clever and capable, and such a great gentleman.

Father built the Oriental Dock, the Cosmopolitan Dock, and the Yangtzepoo Dock, all on the Whangpoo River.

Whilst building the Cosmopolitan and Oriental Docks, which were on the other side of the river, he lived and slept in a houseboat so as to be on the spot in case of any emergency.

In 1900 Father took a trip to England and later went from there to Bridgetown, West Australia, to visit Blechyndens there. Mother had taken a trip to England just before, and Father left when she returned.

Father built the first steamer to go on the Yangtzekiang Rapids (called the "Pioneer") for Archibald Little. Mrs Avesha Little was the first to introduce the Anti-Foot Binding League in China.

In 1900 the Boxer Rebellion broke out whilst Father was in England.

In the house Father built in Muirhead Road there were nice large rooms, and verandahs; a brick house. We imported eucalyptus and fir tree seeds from New Zealand, and planted them in the garden. Also imported a large number of eucalyptus seeds for Doctor Benucci Bocci, an Italian doctor, who grew a plantation from them at Wuhu and made the oil from them which he used as medicine. The meeting was quite by accident; we were on the train from Soochow, one of our family fell and cut his leg; the doctor rushed across and dabbed on eucalyptus oil, and so the acquaintance started. Annie Fawcus, daughter of Father's friend Mr Fawcus, came up to visit us.

Father built a house-boat to go up country called the "Tui," and Norah painted a picture of a tui to put in the boat. In this houseboat Father used to go up to Soochow, where he was installing the machine for making the silks, for which that city was famous.

On August 4, 1905, the twins Harold and Eileen were born, and Father called me to put up the flag!

In 1906 Father, Mother, Kathleen, Edith, Edward, Newton and the twins left for New Zealand. There, in Nelson, Father bought a house, bought land at Lake Rotiti on the Buller River, and built a sea-going tug to go fishing.

He came up to Shanghai after that several times before he finally retired to Nelson.

—Recollections of Mrs Isabel Moller, of Montagu Square, London, February 10, 1969.

February 27, 1969 (replies to enquiries): (1) I am sure that Father did support his mother; also supported Mrs Inglis, his sister in New Zealand; I know he had Alfred and Edward as brothers, and a sister, Anne. (2) About the spy is quite correct. (3) Interesting about the monkey; I did not know this, but I am sure that it is true; how very interesting. (4) I know that for all the work Father did in Japan in those earlier years, he received no payment, through the dishonesty of one of the high officials. (5) The towing of the mined ship I am sure would be quite correct. I am quite sure that Father did all these things, and many more.

Journal of the Nelson and Marlborough Historical Societies, Vol 2, Issue 6, 1995:

John Blechynden 1846–1924. J. Blechynden | NZETCauthority.nzetc.org › scholarly

John N Blechynden of The Roundell

I have been asked to write down what I can remember of the development of the Lake Rotoiti and Tophouse district from the secluded and almost unknown area as I first knew it to what it has become today. But first I think I should explain how I came to be there and how I came to stay for almost half a century: from 1910 to 1958.

John Blechynden 1846–1924.

My father, John Blechynden, was an engineer and shipbuilder. After training in his native Northumberland, he worked in ships and on shore in several parts of the world. He was employed on ships in the Red Sea by the Egyptian Government, and while there he is reputed to have made a secret visit to Mecca. As a delivery and guarantee engineer, he went to Japan with the first steamers sent there from England. His Chief Engineer's Certificate in the newly formed Japanese Marine was the fourth one issued. I have a photocopy of that. It is dated 1876. Father built scows and small coasters in Cabbage Bay, Coromandel (NZ). Then he moved back to Japan and built a paper mill in Kobe. From Japan the family moved to China. In Shanghai Father was engaged in building and then managing a dry dock capable of handling ships of 5000 tons and a general engineering and shipbuilding works. I have a dated photograph of the launching of a new passenger steamer for the Yangtze River trade. It was 2500 tons. When Father, in 1906, moved his family to New Zealand and settled finally in Nelson he was still obligated to be in Shanghai with the New Engineering and Shipbuilding Company Ltd for a part of each year up to 1916. He enjoyed only one year of retirement. In 1917 he suffered a stroke down his right side and was paralysed till his death in 1924.

John Blechynden 1846–1924. J. Blechynden.

About 1907 my father bought two bush sections of a total area exceeding 1600 acres (NZ). They were situated on opposite sides of the Tophouse to West Coast Road and stretched from Tophouse to the boundary between the Waimea and the Murchison Counties at the head of Black Valley. This is also the watershed between the Motupiko and Buller catchments.

When Lake Station was cut up Father bought the block from the top of Black Valley to Teetotal Creek, making his total holding over 4000 acres. Owing to the land regulations at the time this purchase had to be in my mother's name. I have been told that owing to a mistake in the Lands Department the usual one chain reserve on the lake shore and down the Buller River was forgotten and for some time Mother owned this strip without knowing it.

At the time of purchase the only building on the whole area was the small hut, one room with a fireplace at one end and four bunks at the other. On the shore of the lake, this was in a three-and-a-half-acre paddock surrounded by a substantial paling fence. Behind this was a horse paddock, the three wires would never have held sheep, on the slope of the hill. Twelve miles of drainage ditches had been dug by the Kerrs, three miles in the Duckpond and nine in Black Valley. A block fence which marked the limit of the land grazed by Lake Station was on the Tophouse side of the Roundell clearing.

Father spent a lot of money on the Roundell. By 1913 he had felled and grassed 600 acres of bush, erected several miles of fencing, and built a large, four-bedroom concrete house, a stable and general-purpose shed, a woolshed with a capacity of 300 woolly sheep, a complete set of drafting yards, a swim-through sheepdip, a large implement shed, and a blacksmith shop containing a forge and bellows of a Chinese design made by Father himself. Soon after it was built the stable building was destroyed by fire and had to be replaced.

At the lake Father repaired and extended the Kerr hut adding a leanto right along the back and another on the end and a verandah along the front. The whare (Ed 'Whare' is a NZ expression for a hut) would then sleep ten. He built a separate cookhouse, with a wood-burning cookstove, and a trap and harness shed. On the beach his new boatshed was big enough for two as it was to be shared with the Acclimatisation Society. Father's motorboat Eileen was kept there when we were not "in residence" but the launch was usually moored a little way out from the jetty when we were at the whare. On one occasion very heavy rain raised the lake level suddenly and the launch was dragged under by her anchor chain. I have forgotten just how they raised the boat but my brother-in-law, Jack Coote, a noted swimmer, had a lot to do with it.

I can understand Father's interest in the lake and his property near it as he was a very keen trout fisherman, who once put 50, 000 Rainbow ova into the lake at his own expense. But I have never understood why he bought so much land and spent so much money developing it. He knew nothing about farming and never lived on the place. He never took an active part in its actual management. I never saw him ride a horse but he would, if he had to, sometimes drive old Canny in the gig. At the end, when he was lying paralysed, keeping it became an obsession with him and it was then that I promised to look after it.

I cannot be precise about when I first saw Lake Rotoiti. I know it was not later than 1910 but it could have been as early as 1909. Some old photographs show people and places but only one of them is reliably dated. I am sure our first visit as a family was to the Roundell where we camped under canvas on the Roundell flat, then an unspoiled open grassed area surrounded by unspoiled bush. Our tents were right on the bank of the Roundell Creek, then a very pleasant stream which a man could jump across. Two old photos show us as a posed group, Father and Mother, Kathleen, Edith and Edward, myself and twins Harold and Eileen. With us are Ivy Macahon who helped Mother in the house and a girl whom I cannot remember. Also in the group are Percy Andrews and Jonathan Porthouse with their horses and dogs. These two men were working for my father. Percy Andrews had taken up the section adjoining ours on the Wairau side and had built a rather crude hut which we called Snouter Villa next to our boundary. He later moved to a better one on the Wairau Road about a mile from the Tophouse Hotel. Jonathan Porthouse bought a farm at Kikiwa from Jock Brough, who I think was a relation. This farm was later occupied by Jack Tomlinson. Of interest only to me is that it was here I started work. At the beginning of January, 1919, a few days before my sixteenth birthday I started as roustabout for Jonathan Porthouse.

We have only one photograph which can be dated beyond any doubt and it proves that my Father had finished his additions to the Kerr Hutt before 1912. In this photo, taken by my sister, Kathleen, we are on the newly built verandah, Mother, Edith, Edward, Harold, Eileen and myself. With us was a young Australian Arthur Coningham, then working on the Roundell as a "cadet" but much later in life to become Air Vice Marshall Sir Arthur Coningham. (And my brother-in-law told him he was not worth ten shillings a week?). This photo was sent as a postcard to Father in China and is clearly date stamped 1912 in Belgrove and Shanghai.

After our tent camp at the Roundell our summer holidays were spent at the lake and from Christmas to the end of the school holidays we would have the lake almost exclusively to ourselves. We barely saw anyone. The only exception was on New Year's Day when the local people, local meaning Kikiwa, Kawatiri and Manuka Island, would gather for a picnic at the Lake followed by a dance at Charlie Carlsson's mill loft at Kikiwa. They arrived and departed on horseback and all manner of horse-drawn vehicles. Except for the burning of Mt Robert, the lake then was quite unspoiled. The ducks were natives. There were shags breeding in a rookery on the Mt Robert shore somewhere about Whisky Falls, and up to a dozen black swans bred in a small bay almost opposite on the St Arnaud side. We used to check on the nests and cygnets every summer. There were very large brown trout in the lake and the Travers River and enormous eels. Deer and rabbits had not then become a nuisance.

Getting our family and its luggage to and from Nelson and Lake Rotoiti was quite an adventure which I looked forward to all the year. Early in the morning a cab and express would be at our home in Brougham Street to take us to the railway station at Gloucester St. Usually we three boys would travel with the luggage so that a second cab would not be necessary. The train left Nelson about seven o'clock and arrived at our detraining station, Belgrove, about nine. At Belgrove John Banks would be waiting with his coach and horses for the thirty-mile trip to Tophouse. Johnnie, as he was usually known, ran a weekly service to Tophouse, returning the next day. His "coach" was actually a large express fitted with seats generally drawn by two horses. For the annual Blechynden invasion John Banks added a third horse in the lead. From Belgrove the route was up the Wai-iti River and over Reay's Saddle and down the Graham to Golden Downs. A stop was made for lunch at Golden Downs where there was an accommodation house made necessary by the ever-present possibility of floods making the ford impassable. I believe this old ford was about one mile downstream from the modern bridge site. It was very rough with big boulders making difficult footing for horses and increasing the drag of vehicles they were pulling. Across the Motueka River the road was up a very dreary Long Gully to Kerr's Hill. Quite visible on the long leading spurs of Kerr's Hill were the scars made by the old bullock wagons being dragged up with double teams and down with locked wheels. Kerr's Hill was a very long and winding pull for the horses and an equally long and winding trot down the Kikiwa side into the Motupiko Valley.

From Kikiwa to Tophouse the road climbs seven hundred feet in seven miles and it was a tired team which stopped at Tophouse in the evening. At the Tophouse Hotel Mrs Tomlinson always had hot meals and beds ready and Jack Tomlinson and Rosy Stone would help John Banks with the horses. The following morning John Banks would take us to the lake. As far as the Roundell the road was quite reasonable as the steep, straight up and down banks on each side of the Motupiko ford have been bypassed by side cuttings. But from the head of Black Valley, we were on the original wagon road, a rough, rock and stone covered track with two high banks as bad as those at Tophouse. The long, steep, stone covered slopes at the Switchback and the drop from the moraine to lake level required competent drivers sure of their horses. I used to think that the bank at the Lake was the worst of the two to drive up. There was something in the way the loose stones peeled away under the scrambling hooves that made footing very difficult and threatened to bring horses down. Also, about half way up the Switchback there was a sort of ledge where a driver could, if necessary, stop his vehicle and hold it with the brakes while his horses had a breather. The two crossings of the Black Valley Stream, which were to cause so much grief to motor vehicles in later years, were no problem to horses except in abnormal floods.

John Newton Blechynden aged 20, 1923. J. Blechynden.

John Newton Blechynden aged 20, 1923. J. Blechynden.

At the end of our stay the return to Nelson would be a reversal of our trip up. John Banks and his team would be at the lake very early in the morning and we would arrive in Nelson by train sometime in the evening. I can't remember what the railway timetable was. I was probably too tired.

With the marriages of my two elder sisters and my father's stroke in 1917 our family holidays at the lake came to an end. By that time, I had my own horse which we kept in a paddock in Wainui Street. I would ride up to Tophouse when opportunity offered and stay with the Tomlinsons. One Easter I rode to Tophouse on Good Friday, had a look at the lake on Saturday, gave old Mag a rest on Sunday and back to Nelson on Monday.

When I went to live at the Roundell towards the end of 1921 I did so reluctantly. It was only my father's illness and his obsession with the place that persuaded me to do as he wished. What had been a wonderful place for holidays was, to my mind, no place to run a farm. I had not had much experience. For one year I worked on farms at Kikiwa, for Jonathan Porthouse, Charlie Carlsson and Vic Nicholls and for almost a year I was "The boy" on Benopai, a Marlborough station of twenty thousand acres running 12, 000 merinos. On Benopai the owner, George Rudd, and the manager Jack McKay and his brother Alex, who was a shepherd, were all very good to me. They kept me working but they also went out of their way to see that I learned. Also, I had talked at length with Fred Nicholls, a practical farmer who had leased the Roundell for four years but refused to renew the lease. He painted a very dismal picture of the difficulties of running the place, especially of the unusually big stock losses which he said were unavoidable.

At the close of 1921 no-one lived at the lake but it was increasingly common to see camping parties and one or two illegal huts began to appear on the beach and in the scrub on the reserve on the east side of the Black Valley Stream. At the Roundell I lived alone (in a four-bedroom house). At Tophouse the Baxters were at the hotel and I think Tom Collins at the Post Office. Arthur Mead and George Herwin lived on opposite sides of the Motupiko about a mile below Tophouse. Arnold Mead was just above Rocky Creek and Vic Nicholls just below it. At Kikiwa there were the Carlssons and Lorrie and Randall McMurtry. The Kerrs, Arthur, Andrew and David, were at Blueglen. On the Wairau Road Percy Andrews lived about a mile from Tophouse and Mart Godbaz had a place about the top of the Red Hills cutting though he did not live there all the time. I think MacHorton was at Red Hills. Bill Kruse kept the Accommodation House at Manuka Island. Molesworth Station was obliged to keep the Accommodation House at the Rainbow open and the staff there came out to Tophouse for supplies and mail. I remember Bill Ryan, the Solomans, the Randersons and a chap named McKenzie who claimed to have served in both the Household Cavalry and the Royal North West Mounted Police. While the Randersons were at the Rainbow there was an occasion when Harold being unwell, Mrs Randerson came out with the packhorses alone. At Tophouse she was taken ill and it fell to me with the only car in the district to get her to a doctor at a time when rising rivers were threatening a flood. When I got to Kohatu the Norris Gully Creek was in flood but by great good fortune a Nelson bound train was at the station and I was able to get Mrs Randerson away on that. Two mornings later our postmaster rang. He had an urgent telegram from Nelson Hospital where Mrs Randerson was recovering after undergoing an appendectomy. The Post Office had no way of delivering that telegram so I saddled Bonnie, put a sandwich in my pocket, and rode fifty miles before I reached home again in the evening.

On the lake side my nearest neighbours were Phil Cummings at Speargrass and the Joyces at Lake Station. The Burts were at Station Creek, you turned up a rough track just beyond Harley's Rock. Ned Russ lived on the Grippe road about a mile this side of Kawatiri where work was still going on the railway. Newton McConochie lived at Glenhope. Up the Howard there were Alex McConochie, the Flemings, and Murray Mead. Joe Baigent and Ern Springer had farms in the Upper Buller. There were gold miners in the Maggie and the Maud. Originally our neighbour on the east side of Black Valley was just a name on our map, John Langley Adams. I never met him and cannot remember that he ever had any stock there though he did have cattle at the head of the lake where some went wild. When Jack Borlase's father bought the property, it was stocked with both sheep and cattle but it was several years before anyone lived on the place. They just came and went as stock work required it. During my year on Benopai I had been out of touch and found on my return that great changes had been made. The road up the Motupiko Valley had been completed by the cutting round the Korere Bluff and our mail now came by car from Kohatu. The new route was so very much easier. There was no Kerr's Hill and Reay's Saddle to climb over and the Motueka River was crossed by a bridge. At Kohatu there was a railway station and a hotel and at Motupiko a general store and blacksmith. Unless they had relatives at Belgrove most people moved their base to Kohatu. More of us started to use cars and trucks and tractors.

With the coming of the motor car, the building of the new road on the St Arnaud side of Black Valley and the replanning of the St Arnaud Village by the Department of Lands, reducing the area of the sections from a full acre, more people started to buy them and our local population increased. It also changed in character. We had been scattered farmers, bushmen and miners who seldom thought of the lake except as a meeting place on New Year's Day when any other central place would have done just as well. The new people came for the lake itself and the mountains surrounding it.

They came for the rivers and bush and later for the snow on Mt Robert. On the old plan of the St Arnaud Village there had been only one section marked with the name of a buyer, a Nelson chemist named Boon who had a shop in Hardy Street about where the entrance to Deka is now. The new map filled up with names, Ingram, Bishop, Leaper, Thompson, Stratford, Harley, Hagget, Tibbie and Pettit. All these newcomers built dwellings of some sort, some to be used as holiday places and some as retirement homes. Harry and Mrs Fitzsimmons were among the latter. Fitz had been our local policeman for many years, operating from Wakefield, and we all knew him. He and Mrs Fitz made a wonderful garden completely surrounded by bush.

In 1930 the Crown acquired 80 acres from my mother and opened up a new subdivision on the western side of the road. This was in exchange for the Stock Reserve at the Roundell which was vital to the Roundell homestead. On my mother's death all the remaining land in her name near the lake was taken over by the Crown. When I left the Roundell in 1958 I subdivided a single line of sections along the road from the Duckpond corner to the gravel reserve near the bridge.

It was unfortunate that my parents owned so much land in the immediate vicinity of the lake that should never have been privately owned. It blocked public access and caused a great deal of resentment which I had to deal with as I was the man on the spot. All the land on the west of the road and west of the Black Valley Stream was our private property and from the foot of the hill was fenced with a hard-to-get-through paling fence. This did not matter before motor cars made the lake popular because the few people who came then had plenty of room on the reserve outside the fence. Later, when people arrived in crowds, they understandably resented being herded outside the fence while our little-used bach stood in three and a half acres of empty paddock. It was a long time before I could persuade my mother to give about one acre of land allowing the public free, and legal, access to the beach west of the stream.

The new road which diverted from the old route and crossed the Buller River not far below the lake cut off about, from memory, four hundred and fifty acres including West Bay frontage and the peninsula. This area was useless from a farming point of view and when it was suggested that it should become a public reserve, I tried to persuade my mother to give it for that purpose. However, she had other advisers and all I could manage was a reduction in the price. The public-spirited men who found the money to buy this land should be gratefully remembered by all who go to the lake. I wonder how many know who they were (J.G. Ingram, E. Thompson, F.G. Gibbs, H. Kidson, C.I. Kidson).

I have often been asked about the name of the isolated hill between the Duckpond and the lake. It was always called the Duckpond Hill by local people. The name, Black Hill, was probably bestowed by someone in an office who never say (sic) it. When I went to live in Nelson in 1958, I left a very different Tophouse-Lake Rotoiti district to that which I had brought to nearly fifty years before. Then the only man-made intrusion near the lake was the Lake Station mustering hut in its holding paddock and the rocky road scratched across the landscape to Tophouse and towards the West Coast. Now the whole area bordering the northern end of the lake at the now named Kerr Bay was traced with roads and dotted with cottages being built to town standards. Many of the people living there were permanent residents. They lived there all the year. There was a store and Post Office and petrol pump, a school and public hall, and near the lake shore shelter sheds and ablution blocks. And the National Park had arrived with a uniform and signs which read "Thou shalt not do this".

Outside the St Arnaud village large areas of bush had been felled and grassed and had carried stock and were now needing topdressing to make them worthwhile. Bulldozers had come and were clearing the stumps and logs into windrows to be burnt. Roads had been fenced on both sides and no longer had gates across them which had annoyed travellers, and rivers and streams were bridged or culverted. The Tophouse Hotel was now a lonely, seldom visited pub. The Tophouse Post and Telegraph Office which once handled all telegraph communication between Nelson, Marlborough and Westland was now just a bach, without a phone.

On Mt Robert there was now a ski field and I am reminded that when the first hut was being built it was decided to use wire bracing to lessen the amount of timber which would have to be ferried across the lake and carried up the mountain. They remembered the wire and forgot the staples. Les Tiller came to me. I showed him my staples kegs and invited him to help himself. I also remember that when one of my daughters was ill someone took a message up Mt Robert and Dr Peat came down to us.

The week I left the Roundell the Electricity people dumped the first load of concrete power poles near the woolshed.

ED This article first appeared in Rotoiti Recollections and has been reprinted, with permission, to enable its wider circulation.

The Red Whare, Kerr Bay, Lake Rotoiti. J. Blechynden.

As mentioned in the above article: In this photo, taken by my sister, Kathleen, we are on the newly built verandah, Mother, Edith, Edward, Harold, Eileen and myself. With us was a young Australian, Arthur Coningham, then working on the Roundell as a "cadet" but much later in life to become Air Vice Marshall Sir Arthur Coningham. (And my brother-in-law told him he was not worth ten shillings a week?). This photo was sent as a postcard to Father in China and is clearly date stamped 1912 in Belgrave and Shanghai.

Headstone of Dorcas Frances Olive Blechynden (nee Davis) and John Newton Blechynden. Wakapuaka Cemetery, Nelson City, Nelson, NZ

Norah Blechynden, eldest daughter of John Blechynden, engineer of Shanghai and his first wife, Isabella Lindsay. 'Bridgedale' collection

BLECHYNDEN SHELTER AT LAKE ROTOITI, SOUTH ISLAND, NEW ZEALAND:

<https://www.roamingdownunder.com/lake-rotaiti.php>.

Blechynden descendants still live in Nelson, Wellington and further south near Christchurch.

Details of the Blechynden Shelter at Lake Rotoiti, South Island, NZ.
This lake and adjoining area are where the Roundell and Blechynden properties referred to earlier were located.

Map showing where Nelson and Lake Rotoiti, near the village of St Arnaud, are located on the South Island of NZ.

"A barbecue meal has never been easier on the shores of Lake Rotoiti.

Set alongside the Blechynden shelter at Kerr Bay is a new electric barbecue, installed by the Department of Conservation at a cost of approximately £2000, for use of visitors to the Rotoiti because of the high turnover of day visitors and campers, and because of the already existing shelter which houses sinks and benches, as well as seating. . . "

*The Blechynden Shelter – as at 2020 - near the edge of Lake Rotoiti.
It is located near St Arnaud on the lake at Kerr Bay Campground.*

Appendices

Appendix 1: Launch of Blechypedia 1st Edition - 28 Aug 2023:

The first edition of Blechypedia was successfully launched at the Welcome Walls, near the Maritime Museum in Fremantle on 28 Aug 23. It incorporated a viewing of a pictorial display of the Minstrel, at the nearby South Metropolitan TAFE Offices and then a gathering at the Gage Roads Brewery. A few people from each family tree line were invited. Unfortunately, we could not invite everyone as it would have taken a whole oval. Perhaps another time in the future. It was wonderful to see everyone, all descendants or in-laws of Harrison and Charlotte Blechynden gathered together. Blechypedia was proudly displayed on a large screen. Ken Blechynden had printed off the whole book in 16 sections which proved very popular as everyone enthusiastically flipped through viewing and chatting amongst one another.

It was a wonderful experience as everyone gathered together chatting and exchanging their stories. That special family feeling of belonging was there in spirit and I am sure our ancestors would have approved.

A group photo was taken of family members gathered at the Welcome Walls, near the Maritime Museum in Fremantle. There were a few who came a bit later and are not in the photo. We have not attempted to name everyone due to privacy and confidentiality.

Photos taken at the launch, which show the enthusiasm and friendship as everyone chatted and enjoyed looking at their family tree line sections to which they had contributed in the book. Thank you to those who took the photos.

Appendix 2: Blechynden Agricultural Leases, 1915

It might be of interest to Blechynden descendants still on the land (and others) to see some historical data on Blechynden Agricultural and pastoral leases. Below are copies of the relevant pages from the 1915 Government Gazette of WA. These can also be accessed via the below websites, with the Blechynden entries starting on page 59.

<https://www.dlgsc.wa.gov.au/departments/publications/publication/historical-agricultural-and-pastoral-leases>

https://www.legislation.wa.gov.au/legislation/prod/gazettestore.nsf/FileURL/gg1915_008.pdf/\$FILE/Gg1915_008.pdf?OpenElement

BLECHYNDEN AGRICULTURAL AND PASTORAL LEASES:

GOVERNMENT GAZETTE, W.A.

59

Return of Leases, etc., showing Rent or Purchase Money due for first half of Year 1915.

Account No.	Name of Lessee or Licensee.	No.	Acreage.	Division or District.	Rent or purchase money.	Loc. No.	Date from which conditions start.	File No.	Plan No.
118 G1	Do	18506/74	100	do	1 10 0	4391	1-7-12	5737/12	443/80 A1
119 G1	Do	4537/68	971	do	11 10 8	3770	27-1-09	7285/08	126/80 & 157/80
184 B1	Blechynden, Alfred	49/565	155	Nelson	1 10 0	...	1-9-94	2419/91	415/80, A2
185 B1	Do	1158/56	77½	do	0 19 6	1242	7-10-03	4214/02	415/80, A2
187 B1	Do	8496/56	160	do	2 8 3	2921	1-4-10	4715/10	415/80, A2
186 B1	Do	4406/68	1,340	do	38 5 3	2922, 3867	22-7-09	9511/08	415/80, A2
255 PL1	Blechynden, Art.	1304/93	3,000	do	1 10 0	...	1-1-07	2525/07	437/80, B4
256 PL1	Do	1305/93	4,000	do	2 0 0	...	1-1-07	2524/07	438/80, B4
189 B1	Do	3327/56	100	do	1 5 0	1867	1-12-06	2857/05	438/80, B4
190 B1	Do	1647/55	279	Avon	3 9 9	3589	12-8-01	11399/00	438/80, B4
764 N1	Do	2709/55w	482	do	6 0 6	3827	29-7-02	9356/01	343/80, E4
12225 N6	Blechynden, Beatrice Annie	10704/56	1,000	do	41 18 3	18916	1-4-12	17995/10	344/80, E1
7028 A4	Blechynden, B. G. M.	11596/56	160	Plantagenet	1 2 6	3667	1-10-13	4754/13	451/80, B2
194 B1	Blechynden, Benjamin Harrison	4253/56	500	Nelson	6 5 0	2250	1-11-06	3935/06	438 & 439/80
195 B1	Do	5119/56	400	do	5 0 0	2135	1-1-07	11337/06	439B/40, F2
737 N1	Blechynden, Chas. E.	366/68	2,000	Beverley	6 5 0	3075	1-4-01	1653/01	342A/40, A & B1
196 B1	Blechynden, Clayton Ashley	7739/56	72	Nelson	0 7 5	5257	26-5-10	9865/09	443/80, A1
10105 HF2	Do	18506/74	100	do	S.F.	4391	1-7-12	5737/12	443/80 A1
198 B1	Blechynden, Edwin	5146/55	100	Nelson	1 5 0	1324	15-7-03	1826/03	415/80, B4
200 B1	Do	3525/68	300	do	2 6 11	3236	4-8-08	10787/07	415/80, B4
199 B1	Do	4048/55	300	do	3 15 0	1270	15-7-03	10502/02	443/80, D4
201 B1	Do	20837/55	164	do	2 1 0	2722	26-11-08	6725/08	415/80, B2
202 B1	Blechynden, Ernest Chas.	15877/55	184	do	2 6 0	2040	27-7-07	3257/06	415/80, A4
203 B1	Do	2126/55	500	do	6 5 0	1152	1-7-02	3299/01	415/80, A4
741 N1	Blechynden, Ernest Walter	6751/56	970	Avon	36 6 3	13626	11-3-10	9139/08	344/80, E1
738 N1	Do	6427/68	1,001	do	46 9 4	18915	1-7-11	17994/10	344/80, E1
742 N1	Blechynden, Frank Harrison	1663/55	488	Beverley	6 2 0	53, 54	1-10-01	11520/00	343/80, A & B3
743 N1	Do	406/68	2,000	Avon	10 8 4	3899	9-8-02	4939/01	343/80, A & B3
744 N1	Do	1534/68	300	do	1 15 0	5467	5-2-04	7749/03	343D/40, A & B3
745 N1	Do	46/772	211	do	2 12 9	50	1-7-96	6812/96	342C/40
746 N1	Do	46/789	247	do	3 1 9	51	1-7-96	7970/96	342C/40
206 B1	Blechynden, Geo. H.	48/2414	294	do	3 10 6	...	1-7-96	1592/92	344/80, E1
205 B1	Do	15363/55	294	do	3 7 6	1433	16-5-07	230/06	415/80, C3

* On leases marked thus, rent will be reduced by half on the furnishing of a stock declaration by 1st March. † Crown grant fee. ‡ On leases marked thus, rent will be doubled unless a stock declaration is furnished by 1st March. § Signifies change of conditions. ¶ Stock declaration required (see special note, first page).

* On leases marked thus, rent will be reduced by half on the furnishing of a stock declaration by 1st March. † Crown grant fee. ‡ On leases marked thus, rent will be doubled unless a stock declaration is furnished by 1st March. § Signifies change of conditions. ¶ Stock declaration required (see special note, first page).

BLECHYNDEN AGRICULTURAL AND PASTORAL LEASES

60

GOVERNMENT GAZETTE, W.A.

Return of Leases, etc., showing Rent or Purchase Money due for first half of Year 1915.

Account No.	Name of Lessee or Licensee.	No.	Acreage.	Division or District.	Rent or purchase money.	Loc. No.	Date from which conditions start.	File No.	Plan No.
747	N1 Blechynden, Grace Emma	2215/56 ...	500	Avon	£ s. d. 6 5 0	53, 54	1-10-01	11520/00	343/80, A & B3
2795	B2 Blechynden, Hazel Minna	10540/56 ...	200	Nelson	3 12 1	7115	1-4-12	10140/11	438/80, D4
750	N1 Blechynden, Henry Geo.	1320/55w ...	200	Avon	2 10 0	2426	1-7-00	8111/00	...
748	N1 Do	214/68 ...	1,001	do	5 4 7	3519	20-3-01	9008/99	Avon 17, C & D1
749	N1 Do	1884/55 ...	100	do	1 5 0	3639	27-4-01	14008/00	343 & 378/80
752	N1 Blechynden, Henry Herb.	367/68 w ...	991	do	5 3 3	3725	29-7-02	1614/01	...
751	N1 Do	2708/55w ...	118½	do	1 9 9	3826	29-7-02	7360/01	343 & 378/80
6849	A4 Do	33029/55 ...	100	Plantagenet	1 5 0	3595	1-7-13	755/13	451/80, B2
753	N1 Blechynden, Horace E.	5370/55 ...	109	Beverley	1 7 3	64	1-4-03	2909/03	342C/40, E & F 3 & 4
208	B1 Blechynden, Jas.	424/56 ...	442	Nelson	5 10 6	1023	9-8-02	11763/99	...
209	B1 Do	4009/55 ...	300	do	3 15 0	1268	10-8-03	10001/02	342C/40, E & F 3 & 4
210	B1 Do	1909/68 ...	1,739	do	8 6 7	1468	23-3-05	11683/03	415/80, C4
212	B1 Blechynden, Jane	7381/56 ...	60	do	0 15 0	4410	8-8-10	3992/09	443/80, A1
211	B1 Do	8016/56 ...	123½	do	1 15 6	4025	23-8-10	12871/09	443/80, A1
215	B1 Blechynden, John Wm.	48/5144 ...	100	do	1 5 0	612	1-7-98	13902/98	342C/40, E & F 3 & 4
257	PL1 Do	1419/93 ...	6,600	do	3 10 0	...	1-7-07	6281/07	415/80
214	B1 Do	187/61 ...	1,082	do	13 10 6	1850	1-7-05	6145/05	415/80, A3
754	N1 Blechynden, Jos.	5155/55 ...	340	do	4 5 0	4609	25-2-04	1877/03	...
755	N1 Do	5259/55 ...	234	do	2 18 6	4610	25-2-04	1877/03	342C/40, F4
756	N1 Do	8296/55 ...	100	do	1 5 0	5877	17-11-05	617/04	343/80, D4, E4
757	N1 Do	8508/55 ...	130	do	1 12 6	5878	19/5/05	617/04	343/80, D & E4
758	N1 Do	11542/55 ...	198	do	2 9 6	7103	12-6-05	552/05	378B/40, E1
759	N1 Do	2781/56 ...	100	do	1 5 0	7105	19-5-05	554/05	343/80, D4
760	N1 Do	3565/56 ...	110	do	1 7 6	8334	19-4-06	11511/05	343/80, E4
11708	N6 Do	10164/56 ...	130½	do	2 6 2	18578	1-10-11	4605/11	343/80, E4 378B/40, E1
761	N1 Do	2110/68 ...	456	do	2 17 0	7106	6-1-06	1413/04	378B/40
765	N1 Blechynden, Sydney Thos.	48/2779w ...	600	do	7 10 0	2370	1-6-97	1239/97	343/80, E4
766	N1 Do	1278/55w ...	400	do	5 0 0	3526	29-6-01	7530/00	343/80, E4
767	N1 Do	1627/56w ...	225½	do	2 16 6	4368	16-3-04	6598/03	343A/40, B1
768	N1 Do	1703/56w ...	34 2 10	do	0 10 0	4629	10-8-04	6598/03	343A/40, B1
769	N1 Do	2296/68w ...	1,111	do	5 1 10	6271	7-6-05	4339/04	343A/40, B1
13504	N7 Blechynden, Sydney Thomas	893/57 ...	3 3 23	Avon	4 3 10	2944 21247	23-3-05 1-10-14	5270/03 6153/14	343A/40, B1 343A/40, B1
770	N1 Blechynden, Thos. H.	5814/55w ...	100	Williams	1 5 0	5444	14-10-05	13250/04	409B/40, D2
771	N1 Do	11316/55w ...	159½	do	2 0 0	1122	27-8-01	13587/00	409B/40, D2
216	B1 Blechynden, Walter	1837/55 ...	100	Nelson	1 5 0	1122	27-8-01	13587/00	409B/40, D2

GOVERNMENT GAZETTE, W.A.

59

Return of Leases, etc., showing Rent or Purchase Money due for first half of Year 1915.

Account No.	Name of Lessee or Licensee.	No.	Acreage.	Division or District.	Rent or purchase money.	Loc. No.	Date from which conditions start.	File No.	Plan No.
771	N1 Do	11316/55w ...	159½	do	2 0 0	5444	14-10-05	13250/04	409B/40, D2
216	B1 Blechynden, Walter	1837/55 ...	100	Nelson	1 5 0	1122	27-8-01	13587/00	409B/40, D2
218	B1 Do	11076/55 ...	567	do	7 1 9	1700	31-10-05	12290/04	443/80, A1
219	B1 Do	5201/56 ...	200	do	2 10 0	2673	20-9-07	11973/06	443/80, A1
217	B1 Do	3804/55 ...	100	do	1 5 0	1258	1-4-02	8616/02	...
220	B1 Do	6694/56 ...	100	do	1 5 0	3818	1-10-08	8626/08	443/80, A1
221	B1 Do	7382/56 ...	103	do	1 5 9	4412	1-7-09	3994/09	443/80, A1
4273	PL3 Do	2307/93 ...	500	do	$0 10 0	...	1-1-12	102/12	443/80, A1
772	N1 Blechynden, Wm. H.	1669/55w ...	100	Avon	1 5 0	3593	27-4-01	11594/00	Avon 17C
763	N1 Do	2405/55 ...	300	do	3 15 0	3772	14-1-04	5649/01	343/80, E4
224	B1 Blechynden, John William, and Davies, Herbert	48/2589 ...	100	Nelson	1 5 0	551	1-8-97	8085/96	438/80, B & C1
225	B1 Do	48/3546 ...	150	do	1 17 6	691	1-4-98	8844/97	443/80, A1
226	B1 Do	6083/55 ...	124½	do	1 11 3	1368	13-12-04	6681/03	443/80, A1
228	B1 Do	195/61 ...	280	do	3 10 0	1366, 1914	1-10-05	11780/05	439/80
227	B1 Do	5293/56 ...	97½	do	1 4 6	2680	9-9-07	876/07	439B/40, F2
775	N1 Blencowe, Arthur W.	3494/55 ...	100	Avon	2 16 0	4061	1-5-13	4480/02	2A/40, C1

Appendix 3: Relationship Calculator

When reading Blechypedia, Blechynden descendants might be interested to know the correct relationship terminology for their ancestors or current cousins. The below might help.

<https://www.family-tree.co.uk/how-to-guides/relationship-calculator/relationship-calculator>

How to use the relationship calculator:

First choose the most recent common ancestor that and your ancestor share. For example, for those in different lines of descendants from Harrison and Charlotte, this 'most recent common ancestor' will be Harrison.

Visualise that name in the 'common ancestor' box at the top left of the below calculator. Use the Blechypedia Table of Contents to easily figure out what level of grandchild you are and also what level of grandchild your Blechynden cousin is.

Using the above information, move your finger along the top row until you find your relationship to the 'common ancestor' (i.e., 3 x great-grandchild).

Then move your finger down the left-hand column until you find their relationship to the 'common ancestor' (i.e., 2 x grandchild).

The point at which the row and column meet show your relationship to each other (i.e., third cousin once removed).

common ancestor	child	grandchild	great-grandchild	2x great-grandchild	3x great-grandchild	4x great-grandchild	5x great-grandchild	6x great-grandchild child	brother/sister	nephew/niece	grand-nephew/niece	great-grand-nephew/niece	2nd great-grand-nephew/niece	3rd great-grand-nephew/niece	4th great-grand-nephew/niece	5th great-grand-nephew/niece grandchild	nephew/niece	first cousin	first cousin once removed	first cousin twice removed	first cousin 3x removed	first cousin 4x removed	first cousin 5x removed	first cousin 6x removed great-grandchild	grand-nephew/niece	first cousin once removed	second cousin	second cousin once removed	second cousin twice removed	second cousin 3x removed	second cousin 4x removed	second cousin 5x removed
2x great-grandchild	great-grand-nephew/niece	first cousin twice removed	second cousin once removed	third cousin	third cousin once removed	third cousin twice removed	third cousin 3x removed	third cousin 4x removed
3x great-grandchild	2nd great-grand-nephew/niece	first cousin 3x removed	second cousin twice removed	third cousin once removed	fourth cousin	fourth cousin once removed	fourth cousin twice removed	fourth cousin 3x removed
4x great-grandchild	3rd great-grand-nephew/niece	first cousin 4x removed	second cousin 3x removed	third cousin twice removed	fourth cousin once removed	fifth cousin	fifth cousin once removed	fifth cousin twice removed
5x great-grandchild	4th great-grand-nephew/niece	first cousin 5x removed	second cousin 4x removed	third cousin 3x removed	fourth cousin twice removed	fifth cousin once removed	sixth cousin	sixth cousin once removed
6x great-grandchild	5th great-grand-nephew/niece	first cousin 6x removed	second cousin 5x removed	third cousin 4x removed	fourth cousin 3x removed	fifth cousin twice removed	sixth cousin once removed	seventh cousin

This website uses that same approach except that it automates the process:

<https://www.famlii.com/tools/family-relationship-calculator/>. Of course, you still need to work out what level of grandchild you and your cousin are to your common ancestor.

A bit of ancestral mathematics is also worth contemplating. In order to be born, you needed:

two parents
four grandparents
eight great-grandparents
16 second great-grandparents
32 third great-grandparents
64 fourth great-grandparents
128 fifth great-grandparents
256 sixth great-grandparents
512 seventh great-grandparents
1,024 eighth great-grandparents
2,048 ninth great-grandparents

So, for you to be born today from 12 previous generations, you needed a total sum of 4,094 ancestors over about the last 400 years.

How many struggles? How many battles? How many difficulties? How much sadness? How much happiness? How many love stories? How many expressions of hope for the future? – did your ancestors have to undergo for you to exist in this present moment...

The above concept caused much discussion between Blechynden cousins, Lindsay Adams and Ken Blechynden. Consider, for example, a reverse multiplication of the above figures. If each of the 2,048 sets of grandparents has (only) two offspring, and each of those offspring have two offspring (on average) for 11 generations, that equates to 4,194,304 cousins. That is also rather daunting!

INDEX

A

ANDERSON, WILLIAM GEORGE HARVEY (1923-1972)	1153
ASHBURNHAM, ANNE (~1526-).....	64
ASHENDEN, MARGARET (~1563-1596).....	68
AWCOCK, CATHERINE 'KITTY' ELIZA (1914-).....	527
AYERS, ELIZABETH 'BETSY' SNART (1842-)	1467
AYLING, ELEANOR (1798-1871)	805

B

BACKSHALL, MARGARET KATE (1863-1953).....	1284
BAILEY, ALTHEA LETITIA 'LETHE' (1914-1948)	750
BAILEY, AMY VICTORIA (1909-1995)	750
BAILEY, ELIZABETH 'MARY' MAY (1905-1977)	795
BAILEY, FLORENCE 'FLORRIE' MARTHA (1903-1967)	748
BAILEY, ISAAC JOHN (1898-1990)	745
BAILEY, JOSEPH 'JOE' EDWARD (1869-1930).....	790
BAILEY, LAURA LILLIAN 'LIL' (1906-1995).....	749
BAILEY, LEON (1910-1997)	800
BAILEY, LEWIS JOHN (1907-1998).....	798
BAILEY, MANESSEH JOHN BORTON (1872-1955)	730
BAILEY, ROSE 'ROSIE' MURIEL (1900-1982)	747
BAKER, GRACE ELDRIDGE (1782-1833).....	1516
BAKER, MARY ANN 'POLLY' (1843-1903)	1110
BARNES, MAUD MINARD (1892-1958)	505
BARRETT-LENNARD, EDWARD POMEROY (1799-1878)	197
BARRON, LORNA BEATRICE (1917-2006).....	558
BATHURST, ELLEN 'NELLIE' FRANCES (1875-1961)	567
BAX, JOSEPH THOMAS (1917-2016).....	1072
BEACHAM, ELIZABETH (1828-1830)	282
BEACHAM, JAMES JOSEPH (1823-1895)	281
BEACHAM, JANE (1818-1910)	287
BEACHAM, LEVI (1826-1853)	281
BEACHAM, REUBEN (1820-1832)	278
BEACHAM, WILLIAM (1788-1875)	276
BEAUCLERC, LOUISA MARIA PURSELL (1873-1948).....	1540
BIRD, ELLEN MATILDA (1865-1936)	1420
BLACK, ALLAN TASMAN (1912-2006).....	1099
BLECHYNDEN, 'BOB' ALFRED WALTER (1894-1976).....	1470
BLECHYNDEN, 'ERNIE' WALTER (1878-1957)	1258
BLECHYNDEN, ADA JANE (1883-1888)	605
BLECHYNDEN, ADA KATHLEEN (1933-1989)	1502
BLECHYNDEN, ALBERT EDWIN (1877-1877).....	1258
BLECHYNDEN, ALFRED 'ALTY' (1871-1941)	480
BLECHYNDEN, ALFRED (~1815-1893).....	114
BLECHYNDEN, ALFRED JOHN (1899-1952).....	505
BLECHYNDEN, ALICE 'ELSIE' (1918-2014).....	1279
BLECHYNDEN, ALICE LILLIAN (1910-1998).....	517
BLECHYNDEN, ALICE MATILDA (1875-1949)	1250
BLECHYNDEN, ALICK GEORGE ROBUS (1892-1917).....	1344
BLECHYNDEN, ALMA MERCY (1884-1978)	1156
BLECHYNDEN, AMY (1877-1938)	578
BLECHYNDEN, AMY SARAH ANNIE (1923-)	1437
BLECHYNDEN, ANGUS FARRIS (1922-1943)	587
BLECHYNDEN, ANN (1710-aft. 1719)	97
BLECHYNDEN, ANN (1762-1762)	111
BLECHYNDEN, ANN (1776-1776)	115
BLECHYNDEN, ANN (1835-)	112
BLECHYNDEN, ANN VINSET (1777-1806)	115

BLECHYNDEN, ANNE (~1817-1914).....	114
BLECHYNDEN, ANNE (1641-)	83
BLECHYNDEN, ANNE ELIZABETH (1842-1927)	804
BLECHYNDEN, ARTHUR (1870-1941).....	438
BLECHYNDEN, ARTHUR (1887-1955).....	979
BLECHYNDEN, AUDREY (1915-2007).....	572
BLECHYNDEN, AYLMEY (1670-)	87
BLECHYNDEN, BEATRICE CAROLINE 'CAROL' (1904-1965)	1265
BLECHYNDEN, BENJAMIN HARRISON (1874-1952)	1061
BLECHYNDEN, BENJAMIN LEWIS (1891-1971).....	1470
BLECHYNDEN, BENJAMIN LEWIS (1891-1971).....	1420
BLECHYNDEN, BERNARD 'KEVIN' (1919-1995)	973
BLECHYNDEN, BERTHA JANE (1914-2006)	1076
BLECHYNDEN, BERTILE 'BETTY' TERESA (1917-1992)	991
BLECHYNDEN, BRUCE EDWIN DAVIES (1908-1993).....	1302
BLECHYNDEN, CATHARINE (1701-1776)	95
BLECHYNDEN, CATHERINE (1732-)	102
BLECHYNDEN, CATHERINE (1768-)	111
BLECHYNDEN, CHARLES EDWIN (1847-1918).....	1206
BLECHYNDEN, CHARLES JAMES FREDERICK (1910-1989)	432
BLECHYNDEN, CHARLOTTE (1878-1943).....	1101
BLECHYNDEN, CHARLOTTE JANE (1868-1869).....	437
BLECHYNDEN, CLARA ANNE (1876-1972)	1079
BLECHYNDEN, CLARENCE HENRY 'BOB' (1879-1952)	579
BLECHYNDEN, CLAYTON ASHLEY (1893-1989)	1183
BLECHYNDEN, COLIN BOVELL (1917-1999)	533
BLECHYNDEN, COLIN HORACE (1916-1996)	1337
BLECHYNDEN, DANSY LEWIS WILLIAM (1918-1991)	1436
BLECHYNDEN, DAVID 'BUNG' JOHN (1924-2013)	999
BLECHYNDEN, DAWN AUDREY (1930-)	1551
BLECHYNDEN, DONALD WILLIAM (1934-2004)	1503
BLECHYNDEN, DORA ZEPHYR ELIZABETH (1897-1972)	400
BLECHYNDEN, DOREEN ESTHER (1922-)	1548
BLECHYNDEN, DORIEN (1924-1980)	588
BLECHYNDEN, DOROTHY CARMEL MARY (1915-2000).....	985
BLECHYNDEN, EDITH AMY (1908-2000)	474
BLECHYNDEN, EDWARD (1610-).....	75
BLECHYNDEN, EDWARD (1637~1711).....	83
BLECHYNDEN, EDWARD (1736-1788)	110
BLECHYNDEN, EDWARD (1805-1864)	112, 1627
BLECHYNDEN, EDWARD TOOKEY (1668-1720).....	91
BLECHYNDEN, EDWARD TOOKEY (1707-1711).....	97
BLECHYNDEN, EDWARD TOOKEY (1713-1729).....	97
BLECHYNDEN, EDWIN 'TED' THOMAS (1906-1972)	1266
BLECHYNDEN, EDWIN (1864-1936)	411
BLECHYNDEN, EILEEN MARY (1911-1958)	957
BLECHYNDEN, ELENA 'LINA' EVALINE (1883-1962)	1142
BLECHYNDEN, ELIZABETH 'BETTY' (1914-)	586
BLECHYNDEN, ELIZABETH (1614-)	75
BLECHYNDEN, ELIZABETH (167?-).....	88
BLECHYNDEN, ELIZABETH (1700-1763)	95
BLECHYNDEN, ELIZABETH (1725-)	101
BLECHYNDEN, ELIZABETH (1760-1824)	110
BLECHYNDEN, ELIZABETH (1833-)	112
BLECHYNDEN, ELLA 'MURIEL' (1909-1993)	881, 1311
BLECHYNDEN, ELLEN 'NELLIE' MAY PEACE (1919-1957)	1437
BLECHYNDEN, ELLEN MAY (1906-1980)	428
BLECHYNDEN, ELLENOR (~1670-)	88
BLECHYNDEN, EMILY 'EM' MURIEL (1923-2016)	1478
BLECHYNDEN, EMILY GRACE (1806-1896)	135
BLECHYNDEN, ENA EDNA (1906-1970).....	1069

BLECHYNDEN, ENID MAUD (1896-1983)	1191	BLECHYNDEN, JOHN (1819-1893).....	114
BLECHYNDEN, ERNEST 'JOHN' (1930-1960)	1497	BLECHYNDEN, JOHN (1833-1900).....	263
BLECHYNDEN, ERNEST CHARLES (1873-1949).....	538	BLECHYNDEN, JOHN (1846-1924).....	112, 1627
BLECHYNDEN, ERNEST FARRIS (1919-1921)	586	BLECHYNDEN, JOHN BATHURST (1916-).....	576
BLECHYNDEN, ERNEST JOHN 'JACK' (1907-1985)	1273	BLECHYNDEN, JOHN WILLIAM (1861-1931)	349
BLECHYNDEN, ETHEL MAUDE (1912-1990).....	1072	BLECHYNDEN, JONES (1809-1886).....	113
BLECHYNDEN, EVELYN 'EVA' ANNIE (1896-1982)	1491	BLECHYNDEN, JOSEPH (1853-1938).....	1510
BLECHYNDEN, EVELYN EUNICE JESSIE (1926-2013).....	1437	BLECHYNDEN, JOYCE POWELL (1929-2005)	1437
BLECHYNDEN, FLORENCE HAZEL MUIR (1914-2005)	1169	BLECHYNDEN, KATHLEEN 'AUNTY KIT' MARY (1888-1979) ...	1009
BLECHYNDEN, FRANK HARRISON (1873-1955)	1240	BLECHYNDEN, KATHLEEN BEATRICE MARY (1907-1976)	936
BLECHYNDEN, FRANK ROBUS (1910-1995)	1316	BLECHYNDEN, KELVIN THOMAS (1908-1980).....	1071
BLECHYNDEN, FREDERICK WILLIAM (1883-1917)	1462	BLECHYNDEN, LAURA JANE (1889-1986)	1177
BLECHYNDEN, FREDERICK WILLIAM DOOHAN (1925-1977) ..	1485	BLECHYNDEN, LAURA MARY MAGDALENE (1907-1983).....	937
BLECHYNDEN, GENEVIEVE 'GENE/JEAN' (1924-2007)	951	BLECHYNDEN, LESLIE THOMAS (1897-1917)	464
BLECHYNDEN, GEORGE 'BRUCE' WENTWORTH (1900-1988) ..	403	BLECHYNDEN, LILA ELIZABETH (1892-1981)	451
BLECHYNDEN, GEORGE (1695-1743)	95, 101	BLECHYNDEN, LILA RUBUS (1881-1970).....	1110
BLECHYNDEN, GEORGE (1728-1765)	102	BLECHYNDEN, MABEL BERTHA (1905-1981)	427
BLECHYNDEN, GEORGE (1763-1763)	111	BLECHYNDEN, MALACHI 'MAL' BERNARD (1913-1983)	940
BLECHYNDEN, GEORGE (1772-1850)	112	BLECHYNDEN, MARGARET 'MARGUERITE' (1908-2001).....	939
BLECHYNDEN, GEORGE (1806-1889)	113, 1569	BLECHYNDEN, MARGARET (1666-)	87
BLECHYNDEN, GEORGE (1839-1883)	112	BLECHYNDEN, MARGARET (1709-aft. 1719)	97
BLECHYNDEN, GEORGE (1894-1981)	1537	BLECHYNDEN, MARGARET BLANCH HOPE (1904-1986)	406
BLECHYNDEN, GEORGE HARRISON (1862-1937)	378	BLECHYNDEN, MARGARET MARY ANN (1908-1985)	955
BLECHYNDEN, GEORGE Junior (~1844-)	1585	BLECHYNDEN, MARY 'KATHLEEN' (1922-1932)	1476
BLECHYNDEN, GEORGE SEYMOUR (1896-1896).....	1493	BLECHYNDEN, MARY (1608 -)	75
BLECHYNDEN, GEORGE SEYMOUR (1915-1916).....	1463	BLECHYNDEN, MARY (1698-1776).....	95
BLECHYNDEN, GERALD 'GERARD' JOSEPH (1912-1983).....	940	BLECHYNDEN, MARY (1729-)	102
BLECHYNDEN, GERTRUDE AGNES (1894-1974)	496	BLECHYNDEN, MARY (1764-)	111
BLECHYNDEN, GLADYS AGNES (1903-1993).....	472	BLECHYNDEN, MARY ANNE ILEEN (1906-1989)	933
BLECHYNDEN, GORDON FREDERICK (1916-1999).....	1463	BLECHYNDEN, MATILDA BLANCH (1805-1883).....	134
BLECHYNDEN, GRACE (1660-).....	86	BLECHYNDEN, MAUREEN AGNES (1926-2005).....	1005
BLECHYNDEN, GRACE (1899-1989)	1557	BLECHYNDEN, MAURICE GREEN 'POPE' (1915-1987)	525
BLECHYNDEN, GRATIAN (1672-).....	88	BLECHYNDEN, MAY (1881-1955).....	589
BLECHYNDEN, GRATIANA (1704-1711)	96	BLECHYNDEN, MERVYN HENRY (1917-1972)	944
BLECHYNDEN, HARRISON (1802-1873)	134, 147	BLECHYNDEN, MINNA ELIZABETH (1895-1967)	501
BLECHYNDEN, HAZEL MINNA (1886-1985)	1169	BLECHYNDEN, MYRA AMY (1908-1999)	430
BLECHYNDEN, HELEN 'ELLEN' (1916-2007)	586	BLECHYNDEN, NANCY 'NAN / NORA' (1917-).....	586
BLECHYNDEN, HENRY GEORGE (1843-1927)	912	BLECHYNDEN, NICHOLAS EDWIN (1907-1985)	514
BLECHYNDEN, HENRY HERBERT (1875-1965)	930	BLECHYNDEN, NOEL NORMAN (1905-1970)	509
BLECHYNDEN, HERBERT EDWARD 'DUB' (1875-1935).....	564	BLECHYNDEN, NORMA ELLA ADA (1938-2019)	1332
BLECHYNDEN, HERBERT WILLIAM (1886-1886).....	1344	BLECHYNDEN, OLIVE BEATRICE PEARL (1924-1976).....	1437
BLECHYNDEN, HILDA BLANCHE (1888-1926)	1174	BLECHYNDEN, PATRICIA STELLA (1945-).....	1504
BLECHYNDEN, HORACE EDWIN (1882-1960).....	1289	BLECHYNDEN, PHILPOT (1812-1864)	113
BLECHYNDEN, HORACE ERNEST (1899-1955).....	1493	BLECHYNDEN, RAYMOND ARTHUR (1912-1990)	477
BLECHYNDEN, HUBERT JOHN (1912-1982)	432	BLECHYNDEN, RAYMOND PATRICK JOSEPH (1912-1983)	961
BLECHYNDEN, IDA MAY (1888-1961).....	1466	BLECHYNDEN, REGINALD ERNEST (1911-1986)	556
BLECHYNDEN, IGNATIUS 'NAT' HAMMETT (1918-1986).....	946	BLECHYNDEN, REUBEN JOHN (1895-1981)	454
BLECHYNDEN, IVY MAY (1900-1956)	471	BLECHYNDEN, RITA CLARE (1922-2011)	997
BLECHYNDEN, JAMES 'JIM' (1866-1939)	415	BLECHYNDEN, ROBERTA MIN (1912-1980)	1169
BLECHYNDEN, JAMES (~1508-1566)	54	BLECHYNDEN, ROGER VINCENT (1919-1943).....	995
BLECHYNDEN, JANE (1706-aft. 1720).....	96	BLECHYNDEN, SARAH (1774-1796).....	114
BLECHYNDEN, JANE (1739-).....	103	BLECHYNDEN, SARAH HARRISON (1841-1930).....	607
BLECHYNDEN, JESSE WILLIAM (1845-1846).....	1013	BLECHYNDEN, SHEILA MARIA (1915-2020).....	963
BLECHYNDEN, JESSE WILLIAM (1851-1934).....	1448	BLECHYNDEN, SHIRLEY MAY (1924-2011)	1549
BLECHYNDEN, JOHN 'JACK' MARTIN (1912-1986)	958	BLECHYNDEN, STAFFORD WILLIAM HENRY (1909-1932)	956
BLECHYNDEN, JOHN (~1563-1607).....	68	BLECHYNDEN, SYDNEY THOMAS (1881-1959).....	1283
BLECHYNDEN, JOHN (~1612~1672)	80	BLECHYNDEN, TERENCE ANTHONY STAFFORD (1923-2004) ...	951
BLECHYNDEN, JOHN (~1662-).....	86	BLECHYNDEN, THOMAS (~1534-1610)	64
BLECHYNDEN, JOHN (~1771-1835).....	111	BLECHYNDEN, THOMAS (~1582-1661)	74
BLECHYNDEN, JOHN (1635-).....	83	BLECHYNDEN, THOMAS (1618-).....	76
BLECHYNDEN, JOHN (1716~1799).....	97	BLECHYNDEN, THOMAS (1634-1690).....	85
BLECHYNDEN, JOHN (1742-).....	103	BLECHYNDEN, THOMAS (1664-).....	87
BLECHYNDEN, JOHN (1771-1834).....	129	BLECHYNDEN, THOMAS ALBERT BADEN (1921-1989)	1437

BLECHYNDEN, THOMAS HARRISON (1849-1932).....	1353
BLECHYNDEN, VERONICA ANN (1904-1973)	939
BLECHYNDEN, VINCENT (1811-1869).....	113
BLECHYNDEN, VIOLET JULIA (1898-1988)	400
BLECHYNDEN, WALTER EDWARD (1846-1940).....	1016
BLECHYNDEN, WALTER STANWELL (1910-1972)	1072
BLECHYNDEN, WILLIAM 'BILL' HARRISON (1918-2014)	967
BLECHYNDEN, WILLIAM 'BILL' RAYMOND (1912-1980).....	523
BLECHYNDEN, WILLIAM (~1470 ~ 1514).....	40
BLECHYNDEN, WILLIAM HARRISON (1877-1966).....	953
BLYTHE, ARTHUR 'ARCHIE' (1879-1963)	1184
BLYTHE, LOUISA 'LULU' ADELINE (1906-1991)	1184
BOUNDY, CYNTHIA (1924-1934).....	503
BOVELL, JOHN (1844-1900)	480
BOVELL, MARY ELLEN (1872-1946)	480
BOWLEY, CHARLOTTE (1847-1907).....	1291
BOYS, 'MABEL' ISABEL (1852-1852)	136
BOYS, ALFRED (1845-1866)	136
BOYS, ALICE (1849-).....	136
BOYS, EDWARD (~1808-1854)	135
BOYS, ELIZABETH (1587-1618)	74
BOYS, EMILY (1852 -)	136
BOYS, FREDERICK (1844 -)	136
BOYS, GRACE (1850-1851).....	136
BOYS, HENRY (1841 -)	136
BOYS, MATILDA (1840-1918)	136
BOYS, WILLIAM (1843 -)	136
BRIERLY, ALAN (1894-1949).....	497
BROWN, FRANCES LOUISA (1842-1913)	1375
BROWN, SUSANNAH (1785-1844)	273
BURROUGHS, ELIZABETH (1823-1869)	1017

C

CARROTT, JOHN HENRY (1907-1980).....	786
CARROTT, ROBERT EDWARD 'BOB' (1873-1935).....	778
CARROTT, ROBERT JAMES (1903-1965)	786
CHANDLER, ALBERT BLECHYNDEN (1910-1969)	1255
CHANDLER, EDWIN JOHN (1864-1936)	1252
CHANDLER, ERNEST WILLIAM (1899-).....	1254
CHANDLER, JESSIE (1904-1904).....	1255
CHANDLER, LOUISE 'MAY' (1901-).....	1255
CHAPMAN, ALFRED (1865-1905).....	441
CHAPMAN, CLARA AGNES (1869-1961).....	440
CHAPMAN, EDWARD (1863-1947).....	441
CHAPMAN, ELIZABETH (1850-1939)	440
CHAPMAN, JOSEPH JOHN (1851-1933)	440
CHAPMAN, LUCY (1857-1918)	440
CHAPMAN, MARIA (1855-1929)	440
CHAPMAN, MARY MATILDA (1860-1943)	441
CHAPMAN, SELINA ELLEN (1873-1913)	441
CHAPMAN, THOMAS (1853-1906).....	440
CHESTER, ROSALIE MATILDA (1850-1915)	1241
CHISLETT, ETHEL ELIZABETH (1894-1955).....	1340
COLLINS, JEAN MARGERY (1919-2011)	1137
CONWAY, MARY MERVYN (1833-1897)	828
COPPIN, MARY MATILDA (1872-1940)	1185
COX, RONALD 'RON' CHARLES GEORGE (1907-1985).....	1146
CRAIG, AMY 'ELLA' (1879-1969)	1289
CRAIG, WILLIAM JOHN (1848-1887)	1290

D

DARKINS, LUCY (1856-1921)	1127
DAVIES, CAROLINE MARY (1850-1942)	1206
DAVIES, THOMAS (1825-1902).....	827, 1208
DOOHAN, MARY CHRISTINA (1900-1980).....	1472
DOOHAN, WILLIAM (1875-1925).....	1473
DOUST, ABRAHAM BENJAMIN 'CLARENCE' (1858-1937)	1034
DOUST, CLIFFORD HENRY (1915-2001)	1150
DOUST, ISAAC (1813-1903)	1034
DOUST, MATTHEW JAMES (1892-1975)	1174
DRAPER, JAMES (1827-1908).....	826
DUNHAM, ANNIE 'ANNA' MARIA (1850-1933)	1355
DUNHAM, ANNIE AMELIA 'DOT' (1893-1968)	1413
DUNHAM, EMMA SARAH (1862-1947).....	1449
DUNHAM, ERNEST (1878-1959)	1385
DUNHAM, GEORGE ALFRED (1890-1967)	1408
DUNHAM, GEORGE WILLIAM (1855-1941)	1385, 1466
DUNHAM, IRIS EMELINE (1895-1977)	1416
DUNHAM, LEWIS JAMES (1857-1914)	1389
DUNHAM, WALTER JOHN (1859-1859)	1419
DUNHAM, WILLIAM 'BILLY' THOMAS (1888-1945)	1407
DUNHAM, WILLIAM (1815-1884)	1377
DUNHAM, WILLIAM (1852-1852)	1385

E

EASTON, DAVID (1797-1877).....	116
EASTON, EMILY (1838-1861)	116
EASTON, GEORGE GILES (1833-1885)	116
EASTON, JOHN GILES BLECHYNDEN (1827-1854)	116
EASTON, MARY ANN (1830-1861)	116
EASTON, THOMAS (1836-)	116
EASTON, WILLIAM GILES (1842-1881).....	116
EDGAR, SARAH JANE (1854-1884)	1386
EDWARDS, ADA (1895-1895).....	846
EDWARDS, ALFRED JAMES (1834-1888).....	827
EDWARDS, ANDREW THOMAS (1872-1874)	895
EDWARDS, ARTHUR WILLIAM (1868-1932)	866
EDWARDS, BEATRICE GERTRUDE MARY (1884-1947)	931
EDWARDS, CAROLINE (1824-1898).....	824
EDWARDS, CHARLES FREDERICK (1836-1911)	828
EDWARDS, CYRIL HARRISON (1910-1982)	907
EDWARDS, EDWARD WILLIAM 'NED' (1871-1956)	1494
EDWARDS, ELIZA (1818-1866)	820
EDWARDS, ERNEST WALTER (1899-1984)	861
EDWARDS, ETHEL MARIA (1911-1985).....	1493
EDWARDS, FLORENCE ELIZABETH (1870-1922)	894
EDWARDS, FLORENCE ELIZABETH (1893-1983)	844
EDWARDS, HERBERT 'BERT' THOMAS NOEL (1897-1917)	861
EDWARDS, KEITH HARRISON (1908-1958)	906
EDWARDS, LESLIE ROSS (1899-1922)	849
EDWARDS, LOUIS AYLING (1867-1944)	852
EDWARDS, MARY ANN (1826-1903)	826
EDWARDS, MATILDA (1831-1887).....	827, 1208
EDWARDS, PETER EBNER 'ABNER' RALPH (1883-1962)	898
EDWARDS, RALPH HARRISON (1906-1971).....	904
EDWARDS, REGINALD LANGDON (1896-1982)	846
EDWARDS, ROSS FREDERICK (1865-1920)	838
EDWARDS, SAMUEL HARRISON (1863-1940).....	835
EDWARDS, STELLA ANNE (1903-1953).....	851
EDWARDS, STEPHEN HARRISON (1907-1991)	905
EDWARDS, THOMAS (1838-1903)	805

EDWARDS, THOMAS (1891-1970)	844
EDWARDS, WALTER ERNEST (1875-1958)	895
EDWARDS, WALTON HARRISON (1914-1992)	908
EDWARDS, WILLIAM (1792-1865)	805
EDWARDS, WILLIAM GEORGE (1821-1889)	822

F

FARMER WILLIAM HENRY 'HARRY' CHARLES (1894-1964)	669
FARQUHAR, GORDON LINDSAY (1902-1974)	1069
FARRIS, ELIZABETH JANE 'BESSIE' (1884-1972)	580
FELLOWS, FRANCES 'FANNY' ELIZABETH (1815-1899)	1034
FIRMAN, ALICE CAROLINE (1874-1960)	1123
FISHER, LAVINA (1872-1960)	1303
FITZGERALD, MARY ELINOR LOUISA (1880-1942)	1472
FITZPATRICK, STELLA BERTILE (1890-1961)	980
FLEAY, ADA MARY BERTHA (1876-1922)	1495

G

GARDINER, MARY JANE 'MINNIE' (1872-1906)	1253
GARDINER, SARA ANN (1849-1942)	1158
GARDINER, SELINA (1829-1874)	440
GARNAL, ELIZABETH (1776-)	1208
GIBELLINI, ELSIE (1926-)	1139
GIBLETT, ASHLEY GARDINER (1919-2001)	1167
GIBLETT, BERTHA MARY (1879-1838)	1061
GIBLETT, ERNEST DOUGLASS 'DOUG' (1914-1988)	1164
GIBLETT, ERNEST JOHN (1885-1971)	1156
GIBLETT, FRANK THOMAS (1881-1963)	1142
GIBLETT, GEORGE (1853-1939)	1156
GIBLETT, GUY (1927-2020)	1168
GIBLETT, JOYCE VIVIENNE (1923-)	1168
GIBLETT, LAURA MAVIS (1913-1916)	1164
GIBLETT, MURIEL AGNES (1921-2003)	1152
GIBLETT, OWEN 'GEORGE' (1921-2006)	1168
GIBLETT, REGINALD EDWARD (1918-2016)	1167
GIBLETT, RITA PEARL (1927-2003)	1196
GIBLETT, SARAH MADGE (1916-1926)	1166
GIBLETT, THOMAS (1843-1897)	1062, 1192
GIBLETT, THOMAS WALTER (1919-1942)	1152
GIBLETT, WALTER JOHN (1872-1957)	1192
GIBLETT, WAVENY EVELYN (1907-1969)	1146
GIBLETT, WINICE JEAN (1912-1989)	1150
GIBSON, WILLIAM (1824-1915)	1025
GILES, ELIZABETH (1803-1884)	116
GILES, GEORGE (1801-1871)	116
GILES, HORN (1772-1828)	114
GILES, JOHN (1795-1877)	116
GILES, MARY ANN (1798-1874)	116
GILES, SAMUEL (1806-1806)	117
GILES, SARAH (1804-1884)	116
GILES, WILLIAM (1767-1831)	111, 115
GLOVER, ANNE (1608-)	83
GODFREY, AGNES (1489-bef.1511)	45
GREEN, DINAH (1817-)	273
GREEN, DINAH (1841-1912)	289
GREEN, ELIZABETH (1815-1874)	273
GREEN, ELIZABETH JANE (1839-1891)	289
GREEN, FURLOW WILLIAM (1819-)	273
GREEN, GEORGE (1808-1874)	273
GREEN, GEORGE REUBEN (1859-1860)	291
GREEN, HENRY (1822-1883)	274

GREEN, JAMES JOSEPH (1845-1907)	289
GREEN, JANE (1810-)	273
GREEN, JOHN (1735-1807)	273
GREEN, JOHN (1805-1834)	273
GREEN, JOHN EDWARD (1843-1903)	289
GREEN, LEVI (1857-1914)	290
GREEN, MARY (1850-1913)	290
GREEN, REUBEN (1836-1853)	288
GREEN, RICHARD (1806-)	273
GREEN, SARAH JANE (1854-1925)	290
GREEN, THOMAS (1823-1897)	274
GREEN, THOMAS HENRY (1848-1904)	290
GREEN, WILLIAM (1770-1831)	270
GREEN, WILLIAM (1770-1831)	273
GREEN, WILLIAM (1837-1880)	288
GREGORY, JOHN HENRY (1794-1866) SNR.	1517
GREGORY, SOPHIA (1823-1906)	1517
GROVER, BARBARA LAVINIA MARGARET (1922-2009)	1486
GUTTREY, MATILDA JANE (1890-1964)	752

H

HANCOCK, BRIDGET EMMA (1858-1947)	1514
HANCOCK, JOHN (1775-1838)	1516
HARRISON, SARAH (~1776-1866)	131
HENRICKSON, ANNIE EMILY (1893-1978)	662
HENRICKSON, BERTHA SUSANNA (1901-1989)	678
HENRICKSON, CHARLES ERNEST (1897-1980)	673
HENRICKSON, DANIEL (1854-1938)	633
HENRICKSON, ELIZA 'PEARL' (1902-1987)	683
HENRICKSON, ETHEL 'BEATRICE' (1906-1911)	685
HENRICKSON, ETHEL ALMA (1914-1997)	693
HENRICKSON, GERTRUDE EMMELINE (1911-2011)	690
HENRICKSON, IRMA 'IRM' MARGARETTA (1908-1996)	685
HENRICKSON, JAMES HENRY (1889-1892)	658
HENRICKSON, LEWIS ANDREW (1891-1986)	658
HENRICKSON, MARTHA MARKHAM (1895-1984)	668
HENRICKSON, SARAH MAY (1901-1930)	682
HEWITT, JANE (1821-1900)	823
HORLEY, GEORGE MICHAEL (1817-1857)	824
HORN, ALBERT JAMES (1889-1959)	521
HORN, DOUGLASS JOSEPH (1891-1968)	521
HORNE, ELIZA MARGARET JANE (1893-)	521
HORNE, ELIZABETH (1695-1776)	101
HORNE, ELLEN FRANCES (1902-2006)	521
HORNE, FREDERICK CHARLES (1887-1967)	520
HORNE, FREDRICK CHARLES (1887-1967)	521
HORNE, HILDA THERESA MAY (1898-1899)	521
HORNE, LILIAN VERONICA (1895-)	521
HORNE, THERESA MAY 'MAE' (1899-1995)	521

J

JACKAMAN, SARAH CRISP (1797-1882)	1357
JACKSON, CLARENCE WILLIAM (1919-1980)	1469
JACKSON, DOUGLAS EDWARD (1912-1970)	1469
JACKSON, ERNEST EDWARD (1872-1948)	1466
JACKSON, FREDERICK ERNEST (1907-1989)	1469
JACKSON, HAZEL MAY (1910-1998)	1469
JACKSON, MAURICE ALFRED (1922-)	1469
JACKSON, SYLVIA LORNA (1925-)	1469
JAMES, ELIZABETH MARIE (1867-1942)	1562
JOHNSON, BERTHA MAY GODSCHALL (1881-1921)	417

JOHNSON, FREDERICK FLOWER GODSCHALL (1846-1915).....	417
JOHNSTON, DOUGLASS 'TALKIE' KNAPTON (1911-1958).....	1136
JONES, JONATHAN JAMES (1811-1896).....	820
JONES, MARY (1779-1856)	112

K

KAMMAN, JOHN FREDERICK (1874-1949)	1123
KAMMANN, JOHANN 'JOHN' FREDERICK (1849-1912)	1127
KAMMANN, MARTIN MARK (1899-1964),	1124
KAMMANN, WILLIAM 'BILL' ARTHUR (1906-2005)	1123
KING, PATIENCE 'MARY' ELLEN (1876-1955).....	697
KNAPTON, EILEEN MARY (1913-1987)	1164

L

LANCEFIELD, ELIZABETH (~1673-1746).....	91
LANGDEN, ADA (1870-1938).....	838
LENNOX, CHARLES JOSEPH 'JOE' (1914-1986).....	1154
LISTER, CHARLES (1872-1937).....	1171
LISTER, COLIN ROLAND (1919-2007).....	1172
LISTER, SOPHIA JANE (1921-2008).....	1173
LONGHURST, ADA ADELAIDE (1872-1949).....	1318
LUCAS, MINNIE (1910-1959).....	1097
LUPTON, ALMA JANE (1903-1942).....	1120
LYNCH, MARGARET (1629/30-aft. 1690)	85

M

MACDONALD, MARGARET ISABELLA (1856-1944)	417
MARKHAM, ESTHER UPTON (1826-1895).....	614
MAZZOLETTI, DOROTHY LILLIAN (1902-1993)	1089
MCDONALD, MARY ETHEL (1882-1973)	954
MCKENNEY, HAROLD ARTHUR (1888-1943)	1177
MEARES, GEORGE GOLDSMITH (1859-1930)	1369
MEARES, RICHARD GAMBLE BOYCE (1819-1867)	1368
MEARES, RICHARD GOLDSMITH (1862-1886)	1369
MEARES, SEYMOUR BOYCE GAMBLE (1864-1934).....	1369
MONTGOMERY, MARY WILLIAMS (1792-1857).....	1517
MOORE, AGNES BLINCO (1880-1959)	545
MOTTRAM, DOROTHY MAUD (1918-2014)	1133
MOULTON, MARIA AGNES (1845-1930)	1062, 1192
MUIR, ANDREW (1841-1897).....	1110
MUIR, ANDREW ROY (1902-1950)	1121
MUIR, CHARLOTTE (1860-1927)	1030
MUIR, ENID JANE (1908-1911)	1099
MUIR, EVELYN RUBUS (1905-1991)	1124
MUIR, JESSIE EDNA (1913-2003)	1136
MUIR, LILA JANE (1904-1995)	1123
MUIR, LINDLEY POINTZ (1909-1987).....	1133
MUIR, MELVILLE SHIRLEY (1903-1982).....	1094
MUIR, RAYMOND ROBERT (1907-2010)	1096
MUIR, ROBERT FORREST (1872-1930).....	1079
MUIR, ROLAND WESLEY (1922-2011)	1139
MUIR, SYLVIA CLARA (1905-2004)	1095
MUIR, WALTER EDWARD (1914-1991)	1137
MUIR, WALTER RONALD (1901-1983)	1089
MUIR, WILLIAM CLIFTON (1901- 1965)	1119
MUIR, WILLIAM PAULZ (1900-1900)	1119
MUIR, WILLIAM POINTS (1869-1950)	1110
MUIR, WINNIFRED GRACE (1912-2007)	1099

N

NEEDES, BENJAMIN (1858-1914)	1030
NEEDS, AMELIA LUCE (1844-1927)	1025
NEEDS, BENJAMIN (1817-1880)	1017
NEEDS, JANE (1855-1938)	1017
NEEDS, MERCY (1860-1943)	1033
NEEDS, THOMAS (1864-1867).....	1044
NEEDS, WILLIAM (1848-1921).....	1029
NEIL, EDITH MAY (1902-1984)	1094
NGILGIE (~1841-)	1587
NYBO, CHRISTIAN HERMAN (1914-1982)	1076

O

O'SHEA, JOHN 'JACK' HENRY (1906-1973)	985
OLIVER, MARY ANN PRISCILLA (1876-1947).....	898

P

PAGE, BERTHA (1881-1944).....	790
PAGE, ELLEN / HELEN SEABRIGHT (1894-1989)	714
PAGE, FLORENCE 'FLORRIE' ESTHER (1897-1997)	719
PAGE, GEORGE 'CYRIL' (1920-1998).....	729
PAGE, GEORGE 'LENNY' LEONARD (1921-1982)	777
PAGE, HENRY 'HARRY' EDGAR (1904-1968)	723
PAGE, IRENE 'RENE' AMELIA (1910-1991)	727
PAGE, IVY CLARICE (1912-1985)	729
PAGE, JAMES 'ARTHUR' (1900-1994)	721
PAGE, JAMES (1801-1862).....	611
PAGE, JAMES HENRY (1871-1947)	697
PAGE, JOHN 'JONNY' (1876-1939).....	752
PAGE, JOHN 'JONNY' HENRY (1903-1968)	722
PAGE, JOHN EDWARD (1909-1967)	768
PAGE, JOHN HENRY MARKHAM (1831-1917).....	610
PAGE, LESLIE OLIVER (1908-1979)	726
PAGE, MARIA (1879-1960)	778
PAGE, MARTHA MARKHAM (1874-1957)	730
PAGE, MARY HENRIETTA 'HETTIE' (1896-1994)	715
PAGE, PHOEBE ISABELLA (1898-1994)	720
PAGE, SARAH AMELIA (1907-1907)	726
PAGE, SARAH JANE (1913-1969)	776
PAGE, SUSANNAH MARKHAM (1869-1960)	633
PIGGOT, IRIS 'MYRTLE' (1911-2004)	509
PIGGOTT, MARY (1848-1926)	1101
POPE, ALBERT LESLIE (1892-1990).....	1339
POPE, NANCY ELIZABETH (1920-2003)	1338
PORLEY, CAROLINE (1823-1897)	1356
PORLEY, THOMAS (1799-1839)	1357
POWELL, DANZEY (1862-1928)	1420
POWELL, ELLEN 'DAISY' (1898-1968)	1420

Q

QUARTERMAINE, ARTHUR ELIJAH (1865-1940).....	1374
QUARTERMAINE, CHARLES (1838-1910)	1370
QUARTERMAINE, CHARLES EDMUND (1862-1944).....	1373

R

REILLY, JOHN THOMAS (1820-1902)	915
REILLY, MARY ANNE (1850-1923)	914
ROBINS, ALICE MATILDA (1871-1941)	1240

ROBINS, WILLIAM BALDWIN (1839-1907)	1241
ROBINSON, ANNIE 'ANN' ELIZABETH (1866-1963)	852
ROBUS, ELIZABETH (1819-1899)	166
ROBUS, FRANCES CHARLOTTE (1831-1875)	166
ROBUS, GEORGE (~1785-1861)	164
ROBUS, GEORGE (1810-)	165
ROBUS, HENRY (1808-1896)	165
ROBUS, JERIMIAH (1824-1825)	166
ROBUS, JESSE (1817-1905)	166
ROBUS, MARGARET ANN (1828-1920)	166
ROBUS, MARY (1820-1845)	166
ROBUS, THOMAS 1822-)	166
ROBUS, WILLIAM (1815-1893)	166
RUTHERFORD, EMMA (1875-1917)	1171

S

SAVAGE, EDITH (1894-1973)	1462
SCOTT, BARBARA JOAN (1915-1994)	523
SEABROOK, MARY ANN (1840-1914)	828
SHARMAN, GEORGE (1829-1881)	1467
SIMPSON, KATHLEEN 'KATE' PRISCILLA (1884-1961)	1284
SING, JAMES (1920-2004)	1479
SMITH, ELIZABETH 'ELIZA' ANN (1892-1886)	200
SMITH, MONA (1880-1929)	866
SMITH, ROSANNA SARAH (1861-1912)	407
SPENCER, ELWIN MAUDE (1918-2011)	1107, 1108
SPENCER, GEORGE RUSSELL (1845-1915)	1101
SPENCER, REECE 'GEORGE' (1872-1946)	1101
STAFFORD, MARY ANN (1835-1907)	915
STIRLING, EDMUND JOHN (1815-1897)	1369
SUTHERLAND, JOHN STANLEY 'STAN' (1903-1991)	1311

T

TAYLOR, CHARLOTTE (1786-1870)	164
TAYLOR, FREDA (1906-1991)	512
THOMAS, ROSALIE MAUDE (1922-1971)	1000
TIMMS, GEORGE (~1918-1971)	1076

TONDUIT, JANE LOUISA (1870-1926)	1373
TONDUT, EULALIE MAY (1875-1969)	1374
TOOVEY, ANNIE LOUISA (1851-1937)	391
TULIP, MOLLIE (1910-2004)	515
TURPIN, MABEL ESTHER (1899-1998)	1540
TURPIN, WILLIAM (1833-1905)	1540
TYLER, JAMES GEORGE TAYLOR (1827-1937)	381
TYLER, ZELA MATILDA (1862-1921)	380

V

VINSET, ANN (1738-1793)	110
VINSET, ELIZABETH (1736-1814)	110
VINSET, MARGARET (~1731-)	110
VINSET, MARY (1732-1818)	110

W

WALKER, BEATRICE ANNIE (1882-1945)	1258
WALKER, THOMAS GEORGE (1858-1937)	1258
WANSBROUGH, CHARLES PRANGLE (1875-1939)	1318
WANSBROUGH, ELLA MAY (1911-1995)	1316
WHETENHALL, URSULA (~1512-1584)	55
WHITE, ANNIE MARIE 'NANCY' (1914-1994)	533
WHITELY, DORA MARY 'EVELYN' (1909-1989)	1121
WOOD, ALBERT ALFRED (1877-1954)	1303
WOOD, EDNA IRENE (1908-2001)	1302
WOODS, FANNY LOUISA (1859-1891)	1385, 1466
WORNER, CLAUDE JAMES (1899-1946)	1561
WORNER, GEORGE GORDON (1865-1930)	1562
WRIGHT, ALFRED AMBROSE (1846-1903)	1375
WRIGHT, EDMUND RICHARD (1817-1847)	1363
WRIGHT, ELLEN 'HELEN' JANE (1843-1917)	1370
WRIGHT, EMMA AMELIA (1841-1923)	1368

Y

YOUNG, LOUISA 'AGNES' JANE (1859-1944)	1390
--	------